

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

HOUSE of COMMONS.

11<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi Tertii, Annoque Domini 1699.

Message to attend the King.

A MESSAGE from his Majesty, by Mr. Aston, Deputy Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod:
Mr. Speaker,

The King commands this Honourable House to attend him immediately in the House of Peers.

Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, with the House, went up to attend his Majesty:

And, being returned;

The King's Speech reported.

Mr. Speaker reported, That his Majesty had been pleased to make a gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament; but that the Noise was great, and his Majesty's Voice low; and therefore he had desired and obtained a Copy thereof, to prevent any Mistakes therein:
Which he read, and is as followeth; viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I hope you will not think I have called you out of your Countries too soon, if you consider, that our common Security requires a farther Provision should be made for the safety of the Kingdom by Sea and Land, before we are at the End of what was granted for that Purpose the last Session: And, when you enter upon this Business,
I believe you will think it necessary to take care of the Repairs of the Ships, and of the Fortifications; without which, our Fleet cannot be safe, when it is in Harbour.

I cannot omit to put you in mind of another Matter, in which so great a Number of my Subjects is concerned, and wherein the Honour of the Kingdom, and the Faith of Parliaments, is so far engaged, that our future Security seems to depend upon it; I mean, the making good the Deficiencies of the Funds, and the discharging the Debts contracted by reason of the War: And, till we may be so happy to see the publick Debts paid, I shall hope that no Session will end, without something done towards lessening them.

While I am speaking to you on this Head, I think myself obliged to mention, with a very particular Concern, a Debt which is owing to the Prince of Denmark;
the State whereof I have ordered to be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

These Things are of such Importance, that I must earnestly recommend them to your Consideration, and desire you to provide the necessary Supplies.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

There is nothing I should more rejoice in, than that I were not under the Necessity of so often asking Aids of my People: But as the Reason of it is evident, because

VOL. 13.

the Funds, formerly applied to defray the publick Expence, are now anticipated for Payment of the Debts of the Kingdom; so it is my Satisfaction, that you all see, that nothing of what is demanded is for any personal Use of mine: And I do faithfully assure you, that no Part of what is given, shall be diverted from any Purpose for which it is designed.

I believe the Nation is already sensible of the good Effects of Peace, by the manifest Increase of Trade; which I shall make it my Business to encourage by all Means in my Power: Probably it might receive an Advantage, if some good Bill were prepared for the more effectual preventing and punishing unlawful and clandestine Trade-ing; which does not only tend to defraud the Publick, but prejudices the fair Merchant, and discourages our own Manufactures.

The Increase of the Poor is become a Burden to the Kingdom; and their loose and idle Life does, in some measure, contribute to that Depravation of Manners, which is complained of, I fear, with too much Reason:
Whether the Ground of this Evil be from Defects in the Laws already made, or in the Execution of them, deserves your Consideration: As it is an indispensable Duty, that the Poor, who are not able to help themselves, should be maintained; so I cannot but think it extremely desirable, that such as are able and willing, should not want Employment; and such as are obstinate and unwilling, should be compelled to labour.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have a full Assurance of the good Affections of my People; which I shall endeavour to preserve, by a constant care of their just Rights and Liberties; by maintaining the established Religion; by seeing the Course of Justice kept steady and equal; by countenancing Virtue, and discouraging Vice; and by declining no Difficulties or Dangers, where their Welfare and Prosperity may be concerned: These are my Resolutions; and I am persuaded, that you are come together with Purposes on your Part suitable to these on mine. Since then our Aims are only for the general Good, let us act with Confidence in one another; which will not fail, by God's Blessing, to make me a happy King, and you a great and flourishing People.

Afterwards, a Bill against the corrupt Mixing and Sophisticating Wines was read the First time; and ing Wines.
ordered to be read a Second time.

Grosvenor, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Travers, Sir Ja. Houlton, Sir Tho. Cook, Lord Ranelagh, Mr. Harcourt, Sir Steph. Lenard, Sir Wm. Villers, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Poultney, Mr. Barnardiston, Sir Owen Buckingham, Sir Richard Cocks, Sir John Bolles, Mr. Conyers, Mr. Newport, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Mr. Whitchcott, Sir Fra. Blake, Mr. Brewer, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Bridges, Sir Roger Bradshaw, Mr. Ashurst, Sir Barth. Shower, Mr. Mountague, Sir Walter Young, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Rider, Mr. Clark, Sir Henry Ashurst, Mr. Price, Mr. Mitchell, Sir Wm. Brownlow, Mr. Fownes, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Moor, Mr. Smith, Colonel Wharton, Mr. Compton, Sir Cha. Sidley, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Woollaston, Mr. Bertie, Sir John Fagg, Mr. Sayer, Mr. Mountsteeven, Mr. Ettrick, Mr. Sloane, Mr. Hare, Mr. Parkhurst, Mr. Chase, Sir Tho. Dacall, Sir Theoph. Oglethorp, Sir Wm. Drake, Sir Cha. Hedges, Mr. Carter, Sir John Garrat, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Fox, Mr. Pendarvis, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Milbank, Mr. Henly, Lord Cornbury: And they are to meet upon Wednesday next, at Four a Clock in the Afternoon, in the Speaker's Chambers; and to meet every Friday, Monday, and Wednesday, in the Place before-mentioned: And all that come are to have Voices: And they are to take into Consideration all such Matters as shall or may come in question touching Returns, Elections, and Privileges; and to proceed upon Double Returns in the First Place; and to report their Proceedings, with their Opinion therein, to the House, from time to time: And all Persons that will question Returns, are to do it in Fourteen Days next, and so within Fourteen Days next after any new Return that shall be brought in: And the Committee is to have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records, for their Information: And all Members, who are returned for Two or more Places, are to make their Elections by this Day Three Weeks, for which of the Places they will serve; provided there be no Question upon the Return for that Place: And if any thing shall come in question touching the Return, Election, or Matter of Privilege, of any Member, he is to withdraw during the Time the Matter is in Debate: And that all Members, returned upon Double Returns, do withdraw till their Returns are determined.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do admit but Two Counsel of a Side to be heard in any Cause before them.

Usual Orders.

Resolved, That no Person be taken into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms, upon any Complaint of Breach of Privilege, until the Matter of such Complaint hath been examined by the Committee of Privileges, and reported to the House.

Resolved, That no Member have Privilege of Parliament in any Cause, where . . . is only a Trustee.

Newark
Election.

A Petition of John Rayner Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Newark in the County of Nottingham, the Petitioner with James Saunderson Esquire, were duly elected to serve for the said Borough; but many illegal Practices were used by Edward Hobson the then Mayor, and several others, who refused to poll several qualified Persons, who would have voted for the Petitioner; and polled several unqualified Persons for Sir Francis Molyneux, whom the Mayor hath returned with the said Mr. Saunderson, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying the Justice and Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of several Inhabitants of the said Borough Newark paying Scot and Lot, on behalf of themselves, and divers others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this Parliament for Newark in the County of Nottingham, James Saunderson Esquire, Sir Francis Molineux, and John Rayner Esquire, stood Candidates; and the Majority of qualified Voters appeared, and demanded to poll, for John Rayner Esquire, who ought to have been returned with the said Mr. Saunderson; but Edward Hobson the Mayor, with divers others, used many undue Practices, by polling unqualified Voters for Sir Francis Molyneux, and refusing those that were qualified, and demanded to poll for Mr. Rayner; and hath returned Mr. Molineux with Mr. Saunderson, in Violation of the Rights of the Inhabitants of the said Borough, and in Wrong to the said Mr. Rayner: And praying the House to take the Premises into Consideration.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of several Persons, Inhabitants within the Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Burgesses to serve in Parliament were, Time out of Mind, chosen for the said Borough by such of its Inhabitants as were of full Age, and did not receive Alms; and, at the last Election of Burgesses, the Petitioners, and divers other qualified Voters, appeared, and demanded to be polled, for Sir Henry Hubbert Baronet; but the Mayor of the said Borough arbitrarily refused to let them be polled; and declared, That, by virtue of the late King James's Charter, the Right of Election was solely in the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants; and that none should be polled, but those that voted under that Charter: And thereupon he hath illegally returned Sir Charles Wyndham to be One of the said Burgesses, in manifest Wrong to the ancient Rights of the Petitioners: And praying, That such Justice may be done them, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of William Duncomb and Thomas Bromsall Esquires, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Knights of the Shire for the County of Bedford, the Lord Edward Russell and Sir Wm. Gostwick were returned to serve, by reason that Votes were procured for them by Entertainments, and other indirect Means; and for that many Freeholders, who had Right, and offered to poll for the Petitioners, were denied to be polled by the Sheriff, and his Officers, in Prejudice to the Petitioners, who ought to have been returned: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Robert Monckton Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was duly chosen One of the Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York, and ought to have been returned with Sir John Bland;

Bland; but John Bright Esquire, by illegal Practices, hath procured himself to be returned, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Alborough Election.

A Petition of Christopher Tankard Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner had been chosen a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Alborough in the County of York, had it not been for notorious Bribery and Menaces before, at, and since the Election, as he doubts not to prove: And praying the Justice of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Malden Election.

A Petition of William Fitch Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for Malden in Essex, Sir Eliab Harvey, Irby Mountague Esquire, and the Petitioner, stood Candidates; and most of the legal Voters were for the Petitioner; but, by undue Practices, the Bailiffs of the said Borough have returned Mr. Mountague, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Bishops Castle Election.

A Petition of Sir Gilbert Gerrard Baronet, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Bishops Castle in the County of Salop, the Petitioner had the Majority of legal Voices; yet, in an arbitrary Manner, and contrary to the ancient Custom of the Borough, Sir Wm. Brownlow was unduly returned; which, with other illegal Practices, are in Prejudice of the Petitioner: And praying such Relief in the Premises, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Thetford Election.

A Petition of Edmund Soame Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That at the last Election of Burgesses for Thetford in the County of Norfolk, Sir Joseph Williamson, and the Petitioner, had the Majority of qualified Electors; but the Mayor of Thetford refused several qualified Voters, and admitted others unqualified to poll for James Sloane Esquire, who hath procured himself to be returned; and many other illegal Practices were used at the said Election, in Prejudice of the Petitioner: And praying the Consideration of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Orford Election.

A Petition of Sir Edmund Bacon Baronet, and William Johnson Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, on the 28th of July 1698, the Petitioners were duly chosen Members to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Orford in the County of Suffolk; but Sir Tho. Felton and Sir Cha. Hedges have procured themselves to be returned, though they were neither duly chosen, nor duly returned: And praying the

VOL. 13.

House to appoint some short Day for hearing the Matter of the said Election.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of William Culliford Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, a late Election for a Burgess to serve in Parliament for Corfe Castle, in the County of Dorset, being declared void as to Richard Fownes Esquire, and the Petitioner, a new Writ issued for another Election, and they again stood Candidates; but Henry Dackombe, the Mayor, openly declared himself in favour of Mr. Fownes, and arbitrarily refused to poll for the Petitioner many legal Voters, and admitted several Persons to poll for Mr. Fownes who had no right to vote; yet, notwithstanding such indirect Practices, the Petitioner had a great Majority of legal Votes, and ought to have been returned, the Majority appearing upon casting up of the Poll; but the said Mayor declared he would return Mr. Fownes, for all that: Nor could the Petitioner prevail with the Mayor to enter upon a Scrutiny of those which were queried, and agreed to be examined after the Poll; but, in manifest Breach of his Trust, and Prejudice of the Petitioner, he proclaimed Mr. Fownes as duly elected: And praying the Justice and Equity of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein to the House.

A Petition of several of the Magistrates, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the said Borough of Corfe Castle, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, a new Writ issuing for electing a Burgess to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, in the room of William Culliford Esquire, whose late Election, in Competition with Richard Fownes Esquire, was adjudged void, the said Mr. Culliford and Mr. Fownes stood Candidates again: But the Mayor, resolving, right or wrong, to carry on the Election for Mr. Fownes, did not only refuse to poll a great Number of legal Electors for Mr. Culliford, who were admitted in all former Elections; but admitted others to poll for Mr. Fownes, who had no Right, and never were polled before: And though the Petitioners often desired the Mayor to proceed in this as in former Elections, yet he would not; but arbitrarily carried on the Election in behalf of Mr. Fownes, without the least Regard to the People's Right; and yet Mr. Culliford had a much greater Number of good Votes; but the said Mayor peremptorily declared Mr. Fownes as duly elected, and has returned him, in Violation of the Rights of the said Borough, which are in Danger of being totally subverted, as to Elections, without the Relief of this House: And praying their Consideration in the Premises; and that the said Mayor may be brought to answer such his illegal Practices.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of John Weston Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this Parliament for the Borough of Guilford, Morgan Randyll Esquire, and the Petitioner, were duly chosen; but the then Mayor of the said Borough hath wrongfully returned Foot Onslow Esquire, with Mr. Randyll; and refused to poll several Persons for the Petitioner, though he admitted others, under the same Qualifications, to poll for Mr. Onslow; and, in several other Instances, the Mayor was highly partial: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Fowey
Election.

A Petition of Shadrack Vincent Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this Parliament for the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, the Petitioner stood a Candidate, and ought to have been returned a Burgess; because a great Majority of the legal Voters appeared and voted for him: But Jonathan Tincomb, Portreve of the said Borough, arbitrarily, and contrary to the ancient Rights of the said Borough, refused to poll the Petitioner's Voices, who had almost all the qualified Voters; and wrongfully returned Sir Bevil Grenville, and Thomas Vivian Esquire; declaring he would not return the Petitioner, though he had never so many Voices; but that he would return Sir Bevil Grenville, if he had but Four: And the Portreve being told, That the Petitioner might recover Damages against him for such his false Return, answered, That he hoped to get 500*l.* by the Bargain, and would not return the Petitioner, though the Majority signed and sealed an Indenture for returning him as One of their Burgesses; and many other ill Practices were used in behalf of the sitting Members: And praying such Relief in the Premises, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Dunwich
Election.

A Petition of Sir Henry Johnson Knight, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Dunwich in Suffolk, the Petitioner was duly chosen by a Majority of legal Electors; but Sir Robert Rich, and Henry Heveningham Esquire, by divers corrupt Practices in procuring unqualified Votes for themselves, and procuring the Bailiffs and Recorder to refuse divers qualified Voters for the Petitioner, have gotten themselves to be returned, and refused a Scrutiny of the Polls, whereby the Truth of the Matter might appear: And praying, That a short Day may be appointed for hearing the Matter of the said Election.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Great
Bedwyn
Election.

A Petition of Thomas Neale Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this Parliament for Great Bedwyn in the County of Wilts, the Petitioner, and Charles Dacenant, and others, stood as Candidates; and many indirect Means were used by Mr. Dacenant, and his Agents, to gain Votes for him; otherwise the Petitioner had had the Majority against him, or any other of the Candidates; and the Petitioner ought to have been returned as One of the said Burgesses: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Newport
Election.

A Petition of John Prideaux Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the Election of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Newport in the County of Cornwall, the Petitioner, and Francis Stratford Esquire, stood Candidates; and the Petitioner had a Majority of Three-and-thirty Voices, duly qualified; notwithstanding which, the Voyanders, who, with the Freeholders and Inhabitants who ought to make the Return, withdrew themselves from the said Borough, without making any Declaration who was elected, though they were demanded so to do by the Petitioner, and the Electors; and, in another County, by themselves alone, signed a Return for the said Mr. Stratford, contrary to their Duty, in Prejudice to the Petitioner, and the antient Rights and Constitution of the said Borough: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises, and speedy Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln, in the room of Sir Edward Ayscoghe Knight, deceased.

Great
Grimsby
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Knight to serve in this present Parliament for the County of Oxon, in the room of Mountague Lord Norres, now Earl of Abington, called up to the House of Lords.

Oxford Writ

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Knight to serve in this present Parliament for the County of Glamorgan, in the room of Bussy Mansell Esquire, deceased.

Glamorgan
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of St. Germans in the County of Cornwall, in the room of John Tanner Esquire, deceased.

St. Germans
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Newcastle under Line in the County of Stafford, in the room of Sir Thomas Bellott Baronet, deceased.

Newcastle
under Line
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Knight to serve in this present Parliament for the County of Salop, in the room of Edward Kinaston Esquire, deceased.

Salop Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Warwick, in the room of the Honourable Robert Grevill Esquire, deceased.

Warwick
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Town of Nottingham in the County of Nottingham, in the room of Richard Slater Esquire, deceased.

Nottingham
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset, in the room of Roger Hoar Esquire, deceased.

Bridgwater
Writ.

Resolved, That this House will, upon To-morrow Sevensnight, take into Consideration his Majesty's gracious Speech this Day made to both Houses of Parliament.

PRAYERS.

Reading
Election.

A PETITION of Sir Thomas Stamp, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, the Petitioner, Sir Owen Buckingham, John Dalby Esquire, and others, stood Candidates; who severally appointed a Person to give Notice of such as they conceived had no Right to poll, in order, if polled, to be queried and examined: But Thomas Oades, then Mayor of Reading, forbade Edward Winchip, appointed by the Petitioner, to give such Notice, and several times threatened to strike him if he did; which deterred Winchip from giving Notice, and many were polled who had no right: Whereupon the Petitioner demanded a Scrutiny, but the Mayor would allow him but Two Hours time to refresh, and procure Friends to assist in the Scrutiny, although 1340 Persons were polled; and the Petitioner, and his Friends, came at the Time and Place by the Mayor appointed; but, before that, he had declared the Election for Sir Owen Buckingham and Mr. Dalby, without any Scrutiny: That Mr. Dalby, by Promises and Threats, procured himself to be returned, though the Petitioner had a Majority of legal Votes, and ought to have been returned: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Mares
Election.

A Petition of Sir John Havel Knight, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of St. Mares in the County of Cornwall, the Petitioner, and Hugh Fortescue Esquire, were duly chosen by the greater Number of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the said Borough, who have the Right of Election; notwithstanding which, the Portreve of the said Borough hath returned, That Sir Joseph Tredenham and John Tredenham Esquire, were chosen Burgesses: And praying Redress in the said Matter by the House.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Sir Alexander Rigby Knight, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Wigan in the County of Lancaster, the Petitioner, Sir Roger Bradshaw, and Orlando Bridgman Esquire, stood Candidates; when, and before, many undue Practices were made use of by Sir Roger and Mr. Bridgman, or their Agents, as, inter al, the making Persons free after the Proclamation for dissolving the last Parliament, who were Strangers to the Town, and many of them dwelling in other Counties, on purpose to vote for them; and denying others their Freedom who were of the Corporation, and had a Right, and claimed the same, because they would vote for the Petitioner; and yet the Petitioner, on casting up the Poll, had the Majority, and ought to have been returned; but the Mayor of the said Borough hath returned the said Sir Roger Bradshaw, or Mr. Bridgman, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Wigan
Election.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Sir Thomas Skipwith Baronet, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of Burgesses to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Malmesbury in the County of Wilts, Mr. Michael Weeks and Mr. Edward Pansford, by divers illegal and corrupt Practices of William Ady, an Officer of the said Borough, and other their Agents, procured themselves to be returned as Members to serve for the said Borough, in Prejudice to the Petitioner's Right: And praying the House to examine the Matter, and do the Petitioner such Justice as shall be thought fit.

Malmesbury
Election.

In relation whereunto the Reports and Resolutions of the last Session were read.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections; and they to examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House;

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the more effectual executing of an Act of Parliament, made in the 8th and 9th Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there: And that Mr. Eyre, Sir Richard Cocks, and Mr. How, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

PRAYERS.

Mitchell
Election.

A PETITION of Antony Row Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Portreve of Mitchell in the County of Cornwall, hath unduly returned Sir John Hawles, as a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough, in manifest Wrong to the Petitioner, who had a great Majority of legal Votes: And praying such Relief, as may be consistent with the Justice of the House.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Dittb.

A Petition of Sir Richard Blackham Baronet, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was duly chosen a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Mitchell in the County of Cornwall; but, by reason of divers illegal Practices, Frederick Vincent the Portreve, contrary to the Custom of the said Borough, hath returned Sir John Hawles and John Pooley Esquire, as chosen Burgesses, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying the House to take the Premises into Consideration.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

St. Mawes
Election.

A Petition of Hugh Fortescue Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Right of electing Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Saint Mawes in the County of Cornwall, was always in the Freeholders and Inhabitants thereof; by the greater Number whereof, the Petitioner, and Sir John Hawles, were duly elected to serve in this present Parliament; but the Portreeve of the said Borough returned, That Sir Joseph Tredenham, and John Tredenham Esquire, were chosen Burgesses: And praying the Redress of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Sir Jeffrey Jeffreys Knight, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the Election of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Brecon in the County of Brecon, the Petitioner, and Tho. Morgan Esquire, stood Candidates; and many illegal Practices were used by Howell Jones Esquire, Bailiff of the said Borough, in Behalf of Mr. Morgan, whom he hath returned, in Wrong to the Petitioner, who had the Majority of legal Votes: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Brecon
Election.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to inspect the Journals of the House for the last Session, What was done upon the Petition of John Goodall, and other Petitions, relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's-Bench and Fleet; and report the same to the House.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

And it is referred to Mr. Carter, Sir William Cowper, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Hamond, Sir Sam. Barnardiston, Mr. Dryden, Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Harley, Mr. Stringer, Sir *Wm. PRAYERS.

Noble's
Estate.

A PETITION of Thomas Noble Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, upon the Marriage of the Petitioner with his now Wife, a Third Part of the Manor of Faxton undivided was settled upon her and her Issue; which Third Part, lying intermixt with other Lands, cannot be improved to the best Advantage; but the Petitioner has purchased an entire Estate, in Rolleston in Leicestershire, of greater yearly Value; and is willing, at the Desire of his Wife, and her Trustees, to settle so much thereof as is of greater Value than the Third Part of Faxton, to the same Uses: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Petitioner to sell the Third Part of the Manor of Faxton, so soon as he shall have made a Settlement of Lands in Rolleston, of greater Value, to the same Uses as in the First Settlement.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Carter and Sir Wm. Villers do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Westminster
Small Debts.

A Petition of divers Inhabitants of the ancient City and Liberties of Westminster, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That a Court of Conscience within the City of London, for determining small Debts under Forty Shillings, hath been found of great Advantage to the poorer Sort of Freemen: That the City and Liberties of Westminster are very populous, and the Poor daily increase; and, for want of a Court of Conscience, many vexatious Suits and Actions arise for small Debts, the Expences whereof are greater than the Debts, to the Ruin of their Families, and the Filling of Prisons with miserable Debtors: And that, in the First Year of his now Majesty, an Act passed for erecting the like Courts of Conscience in the Cities of Bristol and Gloucester, which had the designed Effect: The Petitioners therefore pray, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill to erect a Court of Conscience within the said City and Liberties, for determining all Matters of Debt, and Actions upon the Case, under the Value of Forty Shillings; it being conceived for the general Benefit of all Sorts of People inhabiting within the said City and Liberties.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to erect a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster.

VOL. 13.

ster, and Liberties thereof: And that the Lord Cornbury do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of John Whitrow Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Sir Joseph Herne, and the Petitioner, were duly chosen Members to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardnesse in the County of Devon; but the Mayor of the said Borough was prevailed with to return Frederick Herne Esquire, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying such Relief therein as the House shall think fit.

And the House being acquainted, That the former Petition of the said Mr. Whitrow, the last Session, was then against both the Sitting Members; and taking Notice, That the present Petition is only against one of them;

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections; and that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House;

It passed in the Negative.

A Petition of several Merchants and Traders, in behalf of themselves, and others, within the Cities of London and Westminster, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by the Course of their Dealings, they are very sensible of the Mischief Trade lies under by the Abuses and ill Practices of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons; especially the latter, which is become a mere licensing Office to all ill-designing Dealers; whereby all the Laws in being to confine any Person are rendered insignificant; which tends to the Ruin of all personal Credit: For Remedy whereof, this House came to several good Resolutions last Session; but, by reason of the Prorogation, did not perfect the same: And praying the House to redress those Grievances by such Methods as shall be thought fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, who are appointed to inspect the Journals of the House for the last Session, What was done upon the Petition of John Goodall, and other Petitions relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Bill, against the corrupt Mixing and Sophisticating of Wines, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Sir Richard Cocks, Sir Theoph. Oglethorpe, Mr. How, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Mountstevens, Mr. Wynn, Sir Cha. Sidley, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Eyre, Mr. Davenant, Mr. Gerrard, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Cook, Mr. Hancock, Sir Cha. Hotham, Colonel Granville, Mr. Travers, Mr. Hysham, Sir Fra. Windham, Mr. Gwynn, Mr. Calthrop, Mr. Eyre, Mr. Brotherton, Lord Fairfax, Mr. England, Sir Barth. Shower, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Hughes, Sir Wm. Cooke, Lord Cornbury: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they have Power to receive a Clause to oblige Merchants, upon making their Entries, to declare of what Country Growth the Wines they import are.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the present State and Condition of the Trade of England.

The Lord Cutts attending in his Place, according to Order;

The Petition of Edward Webb Mayor Elect of the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, presented to the House Yesterday, was read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, and one Francis Searle, a Gunner of Casbrook Castle, under the Command of the Lord Cutts, a Member of this House, were Candidates for Mayor of the said Borough; and the Petitioner had Eleven Votes, and

Searle but Five; yet the Lord Cutts' Steward, who, or the Lord Cutts, is to swear in the Mayor, hath sworn in the said Searle: And the Petitioner brought Three Mandamus's; to the Third of which the Lord Cutts, though the Steward was served with the Processes, returned, That the Petitioner was not duly elected: Upon which, the Petitioner intended to bring his Action, to try his Right; but the Lord Cutts insists on his Privilege; whereby the Petitioner is like to lose the Benefit of this Term: And praying, That the Lord Cutts may be obliged to wave his Privilege, so as the Rights of the Petitioner, and the said Corporation, may be tried.

And the Lord Cutts was heard to the same.

Resolved, That no Member of this House, acting as a publick Officer, hath any Privilege of Parliament, touching any Matter done in Execution of his Office.

Resolutions and Address on King's Speech.

Mr. Conyers, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider of his Majesty's most gracious Speech, the Resolutions of the said Committee; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That it will equally conduce to the continuing and establishing an entire Confidence between the King and this House, That his Majesty will be pleased to shew Marks of his Displeasure towards such Persons as have or shall presume to misrepresent the Proceedings of this Parliament to his Majesty.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That it will equally conduce to the continuing and establishing an entire Confidence between the King and his People, That Care be taken to prevent and discourage all false Rumours and Reports, reflecting on his Majesty, and his Government; whereby to create any Misunderstanding between Him and his Subjects.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up an humble Address, to be presented to his Majesty, upon the said Resolutions.

And it is referred to Sir Rich. Onslow, Sir Chr. Musgrove, Sir Rowland Gwynn, Mr. Gerrard, Lord Ranelagh, Mr. Henly, Colonel Granville, Serjeant Thurland, Mr. Harley, Mr. Mountague, Sir *Edw. Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Address on the King's Speech.

Mr. Conyers reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred to draw up an humble Address to be presented to his Majesty, upon the Resolutions of the House of Tuesday last, That they had drawn up an Address accordingly; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, being highly sensible, that nothing is more necessary for the Peace and Welfare of this Kingdom, the quieting the Minds of your People, and disappointing the Designs of your Enemies, than a mutual and entire Confidence between your Majesty and your Parliament, do esteem it our greatest Misfortune, That, after having so amply provided for the Security of your Majesty, and your Government, both by Sea and Land, any Jealousy or Distrust hath been raised, of our Duty and Affections to your Sacred Majesty and your People; and beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, That it will greatly conduce to the continuing and establishing an entire Confidence between your Majesty and your Parliament, that you will be pleased to shew Marks of your high Displeasure towards all such Persons, who have, or shall presume to misrepresent their Proceedings to your Majesty.

And your Commons, having likewise a due Sense of the great Care and Concern your Majesty has always expressed, for preserving and maintaining the Religion, Rights, and Liberties of your People, in Defence of which your Majesty hath so often exposed your Royal Person, will use their utmost Care and Endeavour to prevent and discourage all false Rumours and Reports, reflecting upon your Majesty and your Government, whereby to create any Misunderstanding between you and your Subjects.

Several Amendments were proposed to be made: Which, upon the Question severally put thereupon, were agreed unto by the House; viz.

The Words "Most gracious Sovereign," and "high," were added.

Resolved, That the said Address, so amended, be agreed unto.

Resolved, That the said Address be presented to his Majesty by the whole House.

Ordered, That such Members of this House as are of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, do humbly know his Majesty's Pleasure when he will be attended by this House.

Mr. Lowndes, according to Order, presented to the House an Account, shewing the Overplus, which remains undisposed, of the Subsidy of Tonage and Poundage granted for Five Years, commencing on the 26th Day of December 1694, and to end on the 25th of December 1699, inclusive.

And the Title thereof was read.
The Account is as followeth; viz.

2d December 1699.

The Sums, which have arisen at the Exchequer, of the said Subsidy, either in Money, or by Tallies, from the said Commencement thereof, until this 2d Day of December 1699, have amounted in the Whole to -

Whereof there have been issued, towards Repayment of 1,250,000*l.* borrowed upon Credit of a Clause in the Act for the Land Tax, passed Anno 6<sup>o</sup> Willielmi 3<sup>ii</sup>, for appropriating 300,000*l.* per Annum out of the said Subsidy, several Sums, amounting to 1,241,500*l.*; and there is reserved for a Loan not yet called for 300*l.*; in both for Principal -

Memorandum. The remaining 8,200*l.* being the Complement to 1,250,000*l.* was supplied, with Interest, out of Funds appointed by Parliament for making good Deficiencies.

Paid for Interest at the respective Rates of 5, 6, 7, and 8 per Cent. for the said Principal Money, the Sum of 212,216*l.* 4*s.* 7½*d.*; and reserved to pay Interest of the said Loan, not yet called for, 4*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*; in both -

Applied to the Register for 4ths Customs, the Surplus of the said Subsidy for the First Year, amounting to -

There was lost in re-coining 292,759*l.* 12*s.* Part of the Produce of the said Subsidy -

And allowed to John Knight, late Receiver General, by a Tally for so much which he formerly paid, out of the Surplus of the said Subsidy, for the Customs of the King's Wines, &c. -

So the Difference, or Gross Surplus, which remained, after all the Payments beforementioned, did amount to -

Out of which issued to the Trustees for Exchequer Bills, for paying of Premiums, pursuant to a Clause in the Act for the Land Tax, passed Anno 10 Willielmi 3<sup>ii</sup>, by Tallies of Assignment -

To them, in Part of a Sum not exceeding 10,000*l.* for Charges relating to the said Bills -

To the Commissioners for enquiring into forfeited Estates in Ireland, to defray the Expences of their Commission, by Tally of Anticipation, 3,000*l.* and for discounting the said Tally 133*l.* 15*s.*; in both -

To the Bank of England, for the Deficiency of its Fund of 100,000*l.* per Annum, computed to the First of June 1698; pursuant to a Clause in the Act for establishing the said Bank -

To the same, for the Deficiency to the First of June 1699 -

Issued, or reserved, to Proprietors of the Annuities lately charged on the 3th Tonage Duties, and now upon 4th additional Excise; pursuant to a Clause in the Act for the said Annuities; for the Deficiency of their Fund, to the 1st of June 1699 -

Lost by the Fall of Guineas, at 6*d.* a piece -

So that the Surplus remaining undisposed in the Exchequer at this Day, doth amount to -

And the same were delivered in at the Table, and there read; and are as follow; viz.

The Copy of the Commission from the Admiralty.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c.

WHEREAS by Commission under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the 26th Day of June 1689. We, or any Three or more of us, are required and authorized to grant Commissions, unto such Persons as we deem fitly qualified in that behalf for the apprehending, seizing, and taking such Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the French King, and his Subjects, and Inhabitants within the Dominions of the said French King; and such other Ships, Vessels, and Goods, as are or shall be liable to Confiscation; with other Powers in the said Commission expressed: These are therefore to will and require you forthwith to cause a Commission, or Letter of Marque or Reprizal, to be issued out of the High Court of Admiralty of England, unto Captain William Kidd, Commander of the Adventure Gally, Burden 287 Tons, 34 Guns, and 70 Men, to set forth in warlike Manner the said Ship called the Adventure Gally, whereof the said Captain William Kidd is Commander, and to apprehend, seize, and take, the Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the French King, or his Subjects, or Inhabitants within the Dominions of the said French King; and such other Ships, Vessels, and Goods, as are, or shall be, liable to Confiscation; according to the said Commission granted unto us for that Purpose, and certain Articles and Instructions under her late Majesty's Signet and Sign Manual, dated the 2d of May 1693, a Copy whereof remains with you; and according to the Course of the Court of Admiralty, and Laws of Nations: And you are therein to insert a Clause, injoining the said Captain Wm. Kidd to keep an exact Journal of his Proceedings; and therein particularly to take notice of all Prizes, which shall be taken by him, the Nature of such Prizes, the Time and Place of their being taken, and the Value of them, as near as he can judge; as also the Station, Motion, and Strength of the Enemy, as well as he can discover by the best Intelligence he can get: Of which he is, from time to time, as he shall have an Opportunity, to transmit an Account for us to our Secretary, and to keep a Correspondence with him by all Opportunities, that shall present: Provided always, That, before you issue such Commission, Security be given thereupon, according as is directed in her late Majesty's Instructions afore-mentioned; as also, That a Recognizance, or sufficient . . . . . not exceeding 500*l.* be entered into, obliging him not to carry in the said Ship more than One half of her Complement of Seamen; but that all the rest of her Company be Landmen; and that he do, at the End of the Voyage, give in to the Secretary of the Admiralty a perfect List, in Columns, of his Ship's Company, expressing their Names, Qualities, Ages, Places of Abode, and whether married or single Men; and also, That he do give Security strictly to conform himself to the Regulations contained in their Majesties Proclamation of the 12th of July 1694, concerning Colours to be worn on board Ships. This Commission to continue in Force till further Order; for which this shall be your Warrant. Given under our Hands and the Seal of the Office of Admiralty, this Tenth Day of December, 1695.

WILLIAM R.

William the Third, by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, To our Trusty and well-beloved Captain William Kidd, Commander of the Ship Adventure Gally, or to the Commander of the said Ship for the Time being; Greeting. Whereas we are informed, That Captain Thomas Too, John Ireland, Captain Thomas Wake, Captain William Maze or Mace, and other our Subjects, Natives or Inhabitants of New England, New York, and elsewhere, in our Plantations in America, have associated themselves with divers other wicked and ill-disposed Persons; and do, against the Laws of Nations, daily commit many great Piracies, Robberies, and Depredations, upon the Seas in the Parts of America, and in other Parts, to the great Hindrance and Discouragement of Trade and Navigation, and to the Danger and Hurt of our loving Subjects, our Allies, and all others, navigating the Seas, upon their lawful Occasions: Now know ye, That we, being desirous to prevent the aforesaid Mischiefs, and, as far as in us lies, to bring the said Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, to Justice, have thought fit, and do hereby give and grant unto you, the said Captain William Kidd, to whom our Commissioners for executing the Office of our Lord High Admiral have granted a Commission, as a private Man of War, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of December 1695; and unto the Officers, Mariners, and others, which shall be under your Command; full Power and Authority to apprehend, seize, and take into your Custody, as well the said Captain Tho. Too, John Ireland, Captain Thomas Wake, William Maze alias Mace, as such Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, being either own Subjects, or of other Nations associated with them, which you shall meet with upon the said Coasts or Seas of America, or in any other Seas or Parts, with their Ships and Vessels; and also such Merchandizes, Money, Goods, and Wares, as shall be found on board, or with them; in case they shall willingly yield themselves; but if they will not submit without fighting, then you are by Force to compel them to yield: And we do also require you to bring, or cause to be brought, such Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, as you shall seize, to a legal Tryal, to the end they may be proceeded against according to the Law in such Cases: And we do hereby charge and command all our Officers, Ministers, and other our loving Subjects whatsoever, to be aiding and assisting to you in the Premises: And we do hereby injoin you to keep an exact Journal of your Proceedings in the Execution of the Premises; and therein to set down the Names of such Pirates, and of their Officers and Company, and the Names of such Ships and Vessels, as you shall, by virtue of these Presents, seize and take; and the Quantities of Arms, Ammunition, Provision, and Loading of such Ships, and the true Value of the same, as near as you can judge: And we do hereby jointly charge and command you, as you will answer the same at your utmost Peril, That you do not, in any manner, offend or molest any of our Friends or Allies, their Ships or Subjects, by Colour or Pretence of these Presents, or the Authority hereby granted. In Witness whereof, we have caused our Great Seal of England to be affixed to these Presents. Given at our Court at Kensington, the 26th Day of January 1695, in the Seventh Year of our Reign.

The said Copy of the Warrant for affixing the Great Seal to Captain Kidd's Commission; viz.

WILLIAM R.

Our Will and Pleasure is, That you forthwith cause our Great Seal of England to be affixed to a certain Instrument bearing Date with these Presents, empowering our trusty and well-beloved Captain William Kidd, Commander of the Ship Adventure Gally, or the Commander of the same for the Time being, to seize and take Captain Thomas Too, John Ireland, Captain Thomas Wake, Captain

tain William Mace, or Mace; and all such other Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, as he shall meet with, upon the Coasts or Seas of America, or in any other Parts; to the end the same may be proceeded against, according to the Law in such Cases: And for so doing, this shall be your Warrant. Given at our Court at Kensington, the 26th Day of January 1694. in the Seventh Year of our Reign.

By his Majesty's Command,

The said Copy of the King's Warrant; viz.
WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS, upon divers Complaints and Informations to Us made, That Thomas Tob, John Ireland, Thomas Wake, William Mace, alias Maze, and divers other our Subjects, Natives or Inhabitants of New England, New York, and elsewhere in our Plantations in America, had associated themselves with divers others, wicked and ill-disposed Persons, in order to commit, and did frequently commit, many and great Piracies, Robberies, and Depredations, upon the Seas, in the Parts of America, and in other Parts and Places; in Violation of the Laws of Nations; to the Obstruction and Discouragement of Trade and Navigation; and to the Loss and Prejudice of our Subjects, and the Subjects of our Friends and Allies; and also to the Dishonouring of our Royal Authority, in case any of our Subjects, guilty of such great and detestable Enormities, should go unpunished; We did, by our Commission under our Great Seal of England, bearing Date the Six-and-twentieth Day of January, in the Seventh Year of our Reign, in order to bring the said Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, and their Accomplices, to Justice, give and grant full Power and Authority to Captain William Kidd, Commander of the Ship Adventure Gally, and to the Commander of the said Ship for the Time being, to apprehend, seize, and take into Custody, the said Thomas Tob, John Ireland, Thos. Wake, and Wm. Mace, and all other Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, of what Nation soever, whom he should find, or meet with, upon the said Coasts or Seas of America, or in any other Seas or Parts, with their Ships and Vessels, and all such Merchandize, Money, Goods, and Wares, as should be found on board them; and, in case of Resistance, to fight with, and compel the said Pirates, Free-booters, and Sea Rovers, to yield; and them to bring, or cause to be brought, to a legal Tryal, to the end they might forthwith suffer condign Punishment, according to their Demerits: And we did also, by the same Commission, require the said Captain William Kidd to keep an exact Journal of his Proceedings, in relation to the Execution of our Royal Pleasure in the said Premises; and therein to set down the Names of such Pirates, and of their Ships and Vessels, as he should, as aforesaid, seize or take; and also to specify the Quantities and Particulars of the Arms, Ammunition, Provision, and Loading, of such Ships, and the true Values thereof: And whereas the said Ship Adventure Gally, was, with our Knowledge, and Royal Encouragement, bought, and fitted out to Sea for the Purposes aforesaid, at the great and sole Charges of our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin Richard Earl of Bellamont, and our trusty and well-beloved Edmund Harrison Merchant, Samuel Newton Gentleman, William Rowley Gentleman, George Watson Gentleman, and Thomas Renolls of St. Martin's: Now, out of a due Regard to the Premises, and being graciously inclined that so chargeable an Undertaking, tending to such good and laudable Ends, should have meet and proper Encouragement and Reward, our Will and Pleasure is, That you prepare a Bill for our Royal Signature, to pass under our Great Seal, containing our Grant, for Us, our Heirs, and Successors, unto the said Richard Earl of Bellamont,

Kidd*, in the seizing, apprehending, taking, and securing, the said Pirates, and their Ships and Vessels; and other the Premises, and in bringing the said Offenders to Justice; as also unto the said Captain Wm. Kidd, and all others whom it may concern, in the seizing, securing, and delivering, to them the said Earl of Bellamont, Edmund Harrison, Samuel Newton, Wm. Rowley, George Watson, and Tho. Renolls, their Assigns, Agents, and Servants, all and every of the said Ships, Vessels, Goods, Merchandizes, and Treasure, and other Things, according to the true Intent of our said Grant; and in such manner, as may most effectually contribute to the putting in Execution our gracious Intentions in the Premises, for and on the behalf of the said Earl of Bellamont, Edmund Harrison, Samuel Newton, William Rowley, George Watson, and Thomas Renolls: And you are further to insert in the said Bill, all such apt and beneficial Clauses, and Non Obstante's, as you shall judge proper and requisite to render our said Grant unto them most effectual: And, for so doing, this shall be your Warrant. Given at our Court at Kensington, the 30th Day of April, in the Eighth Year of our Reign.

The said Copy of the Grant of Pirates Goods; viz.
WILLIAM the Third, by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. To our Right-trusty and Well-beloved Counsellor, Sir John Somers Knight, our Keeper of our Great Seal of England, Greeting.

We Will and Command you, That, under our said Great Seal of England, in your Custody being, you cause these our Letters to be made forth Patents, in Form following:

WILLIAM the Third, by the Grace of God, &c. To all to whom these Presents shall come, or may, in any wise concern, Greeting. Whereas, upon divers Complaints and Informations to Us made, That Thomas Tob, John Ireland, Thomas Wake, William Mace, alias Maze, and divers other our Subjects, Natives Kidd's Commission, &amp;c.

Natives or Inhabitants of New England, New York, and elsewhere in our Plantations in America, had associated themselves with divers other wicked and ill-disposed Persons, in order to commit, and did frequently commit, many great Piracies, Robberies, and Depredations, upon the Seas in the Parts of America, and in other Parts and Places; in Violation of the Laws of Nations; to the Obstruction and Discouragement of Trade and Navigation; and to the Loss and Prejudice of our Subjects, and the Subjects of our Friends and Allies; and also to the Dishonouring of our Royal Authority, in case any of our Subjects, guilty of such great and detestable Enormities, should go unpunished; We did, by our Commission under our Great Seal of England, bearing Date the 26th Day of January, in the Seventh Year of our Reign, in order to bring the said Pirates, Freebooters, and Sea Rovers, and their Accomplices, to Justice, give and grant full Power and Authority to Captain William Kidd, Commander of the Ship Adventure Gally, and to the Commander of the said Ship for the Time being, to apprehend, seize, and take into Custody, the said Thomas Too, John Ireland, Tho. Wake, and William Maze, and all other Pirates, Freebooters, and Sea Rovers, of what Nation soever, whom he should find, or meet with, upon the said Coasts or Seas of America, or in any other Seas or Parts, with their Ships and Vessels, and all such Merchandize, Money, Goods, and Wares, as should be found on board them; and, in case of Resistance, to fight with, and compel the said Pirates, Freebooters, and Sea Rovers, to yield; and them to bring, or cause to be brought, to a legal Tryal, to the end they might forthwith suffer condign Punishment, according to their Demerits: And We did also, by the same Commission, require the said Captain William Kidd to keep an exact Journal of his Proceedings, in relation to the Execution of our Royal Pleasure in the said Premises; and therein to set down the Names of such Pirates, and of their Ships and Vessels, as he should, as aforesaid, seize or take; and also to specify the Quantities and Particulars of the Arms, Ammunition, Provision, and Loading, of such Ships, and the true Values thereof: And whereas the said Ship Adventure Gally was, with our Knowledge, and Royal Encouragement, fitted out to Sea, for the Purposes aforesaid, at the great and sole Charges of our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin Richard Earl of Bellamont in the Kingdom of Ireland, and our trusty and well-beloved Edmund Harrison Merchant, Samuel Newton Gentleman, William Rowley Gentleman, George Watson Gentleman, and Thomas Renolls, of St. Martin's: Now know ye, that We, out of due Regard to the Premises, and being graciously inclined that so chargeable an Undertaking, tending to such good and laudable Ends, should have meet and proper Encouragement and Reward; of our special Grace, certain Knowledge, and mere Motion, have given and granted, and by these Presents do give and grant, unto the said Richard Earl of Bellamont, Edmund Harrison, Samuel Newton, William Rowley, George Watson, and Thomas Renolls, their Heirs, Executors, and Assigns, all and whatsoever Ships, Vessels, Goods, Merchandizes, and Treasure, and other things whatsoever, which, since the Thirtieth Day of April, Anno Domini 1696, have been taken or seized upon or with, or did belong to, or which shall be taken or seized upon or with, or which do or shall belong to the said Thomas Too, John Ireland, Thomas Wake, Wm. Maze, or their Adherents, or any other Pirates, Freebooters, and Sea Rovers, by the said Captain William Kidd, or other Commander of the said Adventure Gally, or which by, or by means of the said Ship or Gally, shall be taken, or forced ashore, in any of our Plantations in America, or other our Dominions; as far as the said Premises, or any of them, do, shall, or may belong to Us, or can or may be granted or grantable by Us, or is or are in our Power to dispose of, in Right of our Crown of England, or as Perquisites of our Admiralty, or otherwise howsoever, and all our Right, Title, Interest, Claim, and Demand whatsoever, of, in, or unto the same, and every part thereof; To have, hold, take, receive, and enjoy, the said Ships, Vessels, Goods, Merchandizes, Treasure, and all and singular other the Premises herein before-mentioned, and intended to be hereby granted, and every of them, and every Part and Parcel thereof, or such and so many of them as are, can or may be, in any manner granted or grantable by Us, unto the said Richard Earl of Bellamont, Edmund Harrison, Sam. Newton, Wm. Rowley, George Watson, and Thomas Renolls, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, to their own sole Use and Benefit, and as their own proper Goods and Chattels, without any Account thereof and therefore to be made or rendered to Us, our Heirs and Successors: And We do hereby for Us, our Heirs and Successors, charge and command the Commissioners of our Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of our Treasury for the Time being, and all other our Officers of our Revenue, our Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, now, and for the Time being, and all other our Admirals, Vice Admirals, Judge and Judges of our Court and Courts of Admiralty, Governors of all and every our Colonies, Islands, and Plantations, in America, Magistrates, Officers Military and Civil, and all other our loving Subjects whatsoever, That they be aiding and assisting in all and every Matters and Things, as to them respectively shall appertain, as well to the said Captain Wm. Kidd, in the seizing, apprehending, taking, and securing, the said Pirates, and their Ships and Vessels, and other the Premises herein before-mentioned, and intended to be hereby granted, every or any of them, and in bringing the said Offenders to Justice; as also unto the said Captain Wm. Kidd, and all others whom it may concern, in the seizing, securing, and delivering to them, the said Richard Earl of Bellamont, Edmund Harrison, Samuel Newton, Wm. Rowley, Geo. Watson, and Tho. Renolls, their Assigns, Agents, and Servants, all and every the said Ships, Vessels, Goods, Merchandizes, Treasure, and other Things herein before-mentioned, and intended to be hereby granted, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and in such manner, as may most effectually contribute to the putting in Execution our gracious Intentions in and about the Premises, for and on the behalf of the said Richard Earl of Bellamont, Edmund Harrison, William Newton, William Rowley, Geo. Watson, and Thomas Renolls: And lastly, We do hereby declare and grant, That these our Letters Patents, or the Enrollment thereof, shall be, in and by all Things, firm, good, valid, sufficient, and effectual in the Law, notwithstanding the not naming, or not rightly naming, the Premises, or any Part thereof, or the true Value, or the Nature or Kind thereof; and notwithstanding the not mentioning, or not rightly mentioning, the Names of the said Pirates, Freebooters, and Sea Rovers, or any of them, or of the Possessors of the said Ships, Vessels, Merchandizes, Goods, Treasure, and Premises, or any Part or Parcel thereof; and notwithstanding the ill naming or not naming, of any Seas, Havens, Countries, or Places, wherein, or in which, the Premises hereby granted, or any Part or Parcel thereof, is or are, shall or may be found; and notwithstanding any Mis-recital, Non-recital, Incertainty, Defect, or Imperfection whatsoever. The said Copy of the Letter from the Lords of the Treasury; viz.

Our very good Lord,

Understanding that One of his Majesty's Men of War is sent, by Order from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty here, to bring over Captain Kidd, whom your Lordship hath secured for Piracies in Prison there; we have no Reason to doubt, but that your Lordship's Methods about securing all Treasure and Effects, which are taken and seized as belonging to the said Captain Kidd, or any his Accomplices, or other Pirates, that shall be sent over in the said Ship, from being purloined or embezzled, and sending of the same safe hither, will be effectual: However, we think it our Duty, in respect to his Majesty's Service, to desire, That your Lordship will please to appoint some fit and proper Person to come over with the said Treasure and Effects; and to have particular Care of the same, when on board the said Ship; and that there be several Inventories or Schedules made thereof; One of which we desire your Lordship will please to transmit to us by the first Conveyance that shall offer; and to give another to the Person whom your Lordship shall so think fit to intrust; and a Third to the Captain of the said Man of War; to whom also we desire your Lordship will please to give your Instructions, in case the Person to be appointed by your Lordship shall, in his Passage hither, happen to die. And so we bid you very heartily farewell; and remain,

Our very good Lord,

Your Lordship's humble Servants,

Kidd's Piracies.

Kidd's
Piracies.

The said Copy of a Letter about seizing Captain
Kidd.

My Lord, Whitehall, 23 Nov. 1698.
The Lords Justices being informed, by several Advices from the East Indies, of the notorious Piracies committed by Captain Kidd, Commander of the Adventure Gally; and of his having seized and plundered divers Ships in those Seas; As their Excellencies have given Orders to the Commander of the Squadron fitted out for the East Indies, That he use his utmost Endeavours to pursue and seize the said Kidd, if he continue still in those Parts; so likewise, they have commanded me to signify their Directions to the respective Governors of the Colonies under his Majesty's Obedience in America, That they give strict Orders, and take particular care, for apprehending the said Kidd, and his Accomplices, whenever he or they shall arrive in any of the said Plantations; as likewise, That they secure his Ship, and all the Effects therein: It being their Excellencies Intention, that Right be done to those who have been injured and robbed by the said Kidd; and that he, and his Associates, be prosecuted with the utmost Rigour of the Law: You are to be careful, therefore, duly to observe the said Directions; and, if the said Kidd, or any of his Accomplices, happen to be seized within the Provinces under your Government, you are forthwith to transmit an Account thereof hither; and take care, that the said Persons, Ship, and Effects be secured, till his Majesty's Pleasure be known concerning them. I am, my Lord,

Your Lordship's most faithful humble Servant,
Ja. Vernon.

The like Letter, of the same Date, was writ to Nathanael Blakiston Esquire, Governor of Maryland; Francis Nicholson Esquire, Governor of Virginea; Samuel Day Esquire, Governor of Bermuda; Major Wm. Burt, President, and the rest of the Council, of Nevis; Ralph Grey, Esquire, Governor of Barbados; Sir William Beeston, Governor of Jamaica; the Governor and Company of Rhode Island; the Governor and Company of Connecticut; the Governor, or Deputy Governor, of East and West New Jersey; Governor, or Deputy Governor, of Pensylvania; the Governor, or Deputy Governor, of Carolina; the Governor, or Deputy Governor of the Bahama Islands: All put under Cover to Rear Admiral Benbow; with the following Letter;

Sir, Whitehall, 25 Novem. 1698.
The inclosed, to the Governors of his Majesty's Plantations in America, being ordered by the Lords Justices, for the Seizing and Securing of Captain Kidd, Commander of the Adventure Gally, in case of his arrival in any of the said Colonies; to the end that he, and his Accomplices, may be prosecuted for the notorious Piracies they have committed in the East Indies; and believing you will find the best Opportunities of conveying the said Letters to the respective Governors; I recommend them to your Care: And remain, Sir

Your most faithful humble Servant,
Rear Admiral Benbow. Ja. Vernon.

Gentlemen, Whitehall, 25 Nov. 1698.
I desire the inclosed Packet may be sent to Rear Admiral Benbow by Express; and that an Account be returned of the Delivery thereof. I am, Gentlemen,
Your most humble Servant,
Post Master General. Ja. Vernon.

A Copy of another Letter to the Secretary of the old
East India Company.

Sir, Whitehall, 21th Nov. 1698.
I laid this Day before the Lords Justices your Letter of the 18th Instant, with the inclosed Advices from India, concerning the Piracies committed by Captain Kidd: Whereupon their Excellencies have ordered, That Instructions be given to the Commander of the Squadron, now going to the East Indies for the Suppressing of the Pirates, That he use his utmost Endeavours to seize the said Kidd, and his Vessel, if he be still in those Seas; in order to the bringing of him, and his Accomplices, to condign Punishment: And their Excellencies have likewise directed, That Instructions be likewise sent to the Earl of Bellomont, for the securing the said Kidd, with his Ship and Associates, in case he return to New York, where the said Kidd hath his Family settled, and from whence he is said to have carried the greatest Part of his Ship's Crew; and the like Instructions will be sent to the rest of his Majesty's Colonies in America, that he may be apprehended, whenever he is found, and be proceeded against according to the utmost Rigour of the Law. Their Excellencies finding, by these Advices, how much Captain Wright, the Commander of the Quedah Merchant, hath misbehaved himself, in yielding up his Ship to the said Kidd without making any Resistance; and in sharing with him in his Piracies, by taking to his own Use some part of the plundered Goods that belonged to his Freighters; their Excellencies were of Opinion, That the said Wright ought to be apprehended, and made answerable for the same; and they will give Orders for it accordingly, unless the East India Company have any thing to object against it. If there be any thing more that the Company judges proper to be done, on this Occasion, for vindicating the Honour of the Nation against the Calumnies raised in India, and for Security of the Factories there, I desire you will let me know it, that it may be laid before their Excellencies, for their further Directions therein. I am, Sir,

Your most humble Servant,
Ja. Vernon.

A Copy of an Article in the Instructions for the Commanders for Reducing of Pirates in the East Indies.

Whereas We have given Orders to the Commanders of our Ships, for the Suppressing of Pirates in the East Indies, to make it their particular Care to pursue and seize the Adventure Gally, commanded by Captain William Kidd, who, we are informed, has committed divers Piracies in the Seas of India; and, amongst others, has taken a Ship called the Quedah Merchant, bound from Bengall to Suratt, with Goods to a considerable Value, belonging to the Subjects of the Mogull, and others; Our Will and Pleasure is, in case they meet with and take the said Adventure Gally, or any of her Prizes, That you secure the said Ship or Ships, with all the Money and Goods found on board the same; and that you cause whatever belongs to any of the Subjects of the Mogull, or any other Merchants in India, to be restored to the right Owners; and that you keep an exact Account of the rest, according to our Pleasure already expressed in these our Instructions: And you are not to make any Promise of Pardon to the said Captain William Kidd, whom We have excepted in our Proclamation.

By the Lords Justices.
Tho. Cantuar.
Lonsdale, C. P. S. Marlborough,
J. Bridgwater, Jersey.

WHEREAS, upon the Information we have received, That Captain William Kidd, and other Persons, who have committed divers Piracies, are seized, by your Order, in New England, together with their Treasure and Effects, We have thought fit to direct, That One of his Majesty's Ships be sent thither, on purpose to bring the said William Kidd, and the rest of the Pirates, in safe custody to England, together with their said Treasure and Effects; and that the Commander of his Majesty's said Ship do follow and observe such Orders as he shall receive from you, relating to the Performance of this Service. We judge it requisite to acquaint your Lordship therewith; and to direct and require you, upon the Arrival of the said Man of War, to cause the said William Kidd, and the rest of the the Prisoners on Account of Piracies, to be safely delivered into the Custody of the Commander thereof; and the Treasure and other Effects that have been taken belonging to the said Pirates, to be put on board, under the Care of a fit Person, to be appointed by your Lordship in pursuance of what is signified to you by the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury. And we do not doubt but your Lordship will cause the said Man of War to be dispatched as soon as possible; and all the Evidence you have against the Prisoners to be, at the same time, transmitted hither, in order to their Prosecution.

At the Court of Whitehall, the 12th Day of September 1699, in the 11th Year of his Majesty's Reign.

By their Excellencies Command,
R. Yard.

To their Excellencies the Lords Justices of England.

The humble Petition of the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading into the East Indies;

Sheweth,

That the Petitioners having received, from their General, President, and Council of Bombay and Suratt, fresh Advices by the Chamber Frigate, lately arrived in the River, of further Depredations made by the Pirates in the Indian Seas; and of the Design of their Commanders in sailing to St. Marie's, off the Island of Madagascar, and then for the West India Plantations, to be refitted, and to return back; The Copies of the Clauses of their Letters relating thereunto, the said Governor and Company do herewith humbly lay before your Excellencies; and do most humbly pray, your Excellencies would be pleased to give such further needful Orders to his Majesty's Governors of the West India Plantations, or any others, for seizing such of the said Pirates Ships as shall return thither, as to your Excellencies, in your great Wisdom, shall seem most meet, for preserving the Trade to India: And the Petitioners shall ever pray, &c.

Signed by Order of the said Governor and Company,

Ro. Blackborne, Secretary.

The Narrative of Captain Thomas South, Commander of the Chamber Frigate, who accompanied the Mogull's Moca Fleet from Suratt thither, and back again to Suratt.

My sailing Orders and Instructions, given unto me by the General and Council at Bombay, and President and Council at Suratt, were, to proceed along with the Fleet of Ships sailing from Suratt to Moca; and especially to take care, out and home, of the Mogull's own Ships, wherein were the principal Pilgrims.

Accordingly I sailed thither, leaving Suratt the 22d of March 1697-8. The 16th August following we departed Moca with 26 Ships in Company and a fair Wind, and got through the Babs the same Night: The next Day had contrary Winds and Calms, and so continued, for the most part, to the 6th of September. These unseasonable Calms, and contrary Winds, made Wood, Water, and all manner of Provisions, so scarce, that some Ships were forced to leave the Fleet, and stand for the Arabian Shore.

The 12th of September a new Ship, about 600 Tons, belonging wholly to the Turks of Judda, commanded by a Turk called Nocqueda Husson Ammudon, left us, and was taken by the Pirates the 24th ditto, as we afterwards heard, in Sight of the Highland of St. John's. He had 6 or 700 People on board, and 26 Horses: Want of Water, made them, as was supposed, desert us.

The 25th of September, in the Afternoon, I saw the Land off St. John's; and the 30 ditto got safe to an Anchor, with the Mogull's and other Ships in my Company, before Suratt River's Mouth; having punctually observed my Orders to the Satisfaction of every body.

London, 22 June, 1699.

Tho. South.

VOL. 13.

Extract of Suratt General Letter to the East India Company, dated 5th December 1698. Signed by Samuel Annesley President, Steph. Colt, Ephr. Bendlall, and John Robinson.

Kidd, in the Adventure Gally, was not at the Red Sea, nor have we any News of him where he is; but presume is gone with the Quedah Merchant to Madagascar, or the West Indies to refit and victual, his Ship being very leaky and crazy.

In the beginning of October, Two Pirates of Daman took a Portuguese Ship belonging to that Place, and another of theirs soon after, bound for Dieu; which put us in no small Concern, lest some of the scattered Fleet from the Red Sea should fall into their Hands, as the Gunsway did in the Year 1695. By way of Prevention we proposed, by a Third Person, to the Governor, That he would send for the French Directore, on their Ships the Princess of Savoy and Ponchatrain's Arrival at Bombay, which was the First of September, to order their cruising abroad, to prevent so great an Evil; but to no Purpose. Next we complained of the Ships exposing themselves to Danger by leaving their Convoy. We were soon convinced our Apprehensions were reasonable, by the unfortunate Seizure of one of the best Ships that belongs to this Port, and the richest that came from Judda. Her Owner is Brother to the Sherreef of that Country: We hear Two Ships took her off the Bar of Daman. The Town, at News of this, was presently in great Disorder. It was reported the Villains turned adrift in the Ship's Boats, without Oars, Sail, or Provisions, 150 of the Pilgrims, whom the Tide carried to Bazeen. The Women Passengers, about Sixty, were kept aboard, and inhumanly abused; to avoid which Indignity Five stabbed themselves. The Treasure, Goods, and Horses, in the Ship, were computed to be worth 185,000 Rupees. Upon this, the Governor ordered none of our People should be permitted to pass any Gate of the Town; hauled up our Boats to the Custom-house; nor would let any Provisions go to our Ships, which were, through their tedious Passage, in want of all things; and sent his Officers to the Merchants, to bring their Vessels, that were abroad, within the River; and wholly put a Stop to all Proceedings of the Port. Upon this we concluded it necessary to stand upon Guard; and, to that End, and for securing our Countrymen abroad from any Outrage of the Rabble, we called them into the Factory, and sent the Governor word, we designed only to protect ourselves against the Turks and Arabs, that threatened our Lives, and not to oppose the Government; which he consented and advised us to; and we have been ever since, Night and Day, in the same Posture of Defence. When the Turks, &c. from Bazeen, came into the Town, some of the principal of them wrote to the Governor for his Permission to revenge themselves upon us: That they would break into the Factory, and rob and murder us, in case he would not do them Justice, as they called it. This he severely forbid them; and threatened, if they should attempt any such thing, he would send his Guards, and cut them off; privately informing us of their Intentions, and his Resolution to defend us.

On the First Council Day afterwards, his House was surrounded with a strong Body of Horse and Foot, to oppose any Tumult the Mob, that were gathering before it, might make; and admitted only to him Two or Three of their Company, telling them He would send up their Complaints to the King, and follow his Orders; and so dismissed them in great Discontent. They combined to draw up a Writing, to be signed by all Mahometans, That the English Infidels had robbed, killed, &c. the true Believers; and they would forbear all publick Worship in their Musseets, till the King would order them Satisfaction. But this the Governor, being a stern Man, soon quelled, one by one being afraid to displease him, who, they saw, apparently took our Parts.

At present they have, in Conjunction with the Armenians and others, plundered in the Quedah Merchant, sent up their Grievances to their Friends at Court; and, in Expectation of the King's Answer, are quiet.

The Turk Husson Ammeden, Owner of the Ship the Pirates took, designed for Court to complain against us, as soon as his other Ship that is at Muscat arrives to furnish him with Money. In case he cannot get his unreasonable Ends of us there, he threatens to take Satisfaction for his Losses by his Brother's Means, who is Chief of Judda, on the Surrat Merchants Goods, which he reckons to be 350,000 Rupees; and may be effected, to make us further Trouble.

We understand, That the Pirates that took the Turks and Portuguese Ships were at Rajapore, where they sunk the smallest of their Vessels, Three of the Horses, Coffee, Opium, and Mudjeet, into the Sea, and turned ashore some of the Men and Women they esteemed most unserviceable, who, most of them are gone to Court to add to the Noise and Complaints there; and some are returned hither. We hear not as yet how the Portuguese have disposed of the Ten Men they had at Goa. A Frenchman they put adrift, reports their Discourse was, they would go to the West Indies. This was the last Account we have of these horrid Wretches.

Extract of Bombay General Letter to the East India Company, dated 13th December 1698, signed by Sir John Gayer, John Burniston, Enoch Walsh, William Aislable, Benjamin Stacey.

We are informed, by the Master of the Benjamin Yacht, That the Ship's Name that took Husson Ammeden the Turk's Ship, lately off St. John's, was the Soldado, one Dirick Chivers, a Dutchman, Inhabitant of New York, being Commander of her, who formerly burnt the Ships at Callicutt, of which you have had an Account formerly; and this is the Ship that they lately sunk at Rajapore, being very leaky, whose Commander and Men are now all on board the Turk's Ship, which they call by the same Name: Another of the Three that was in Company was the Mocha Frigate, commanded by Robert Collifood, that run away with the Josiah Ketch from Madras: The Third they call the Pellican, which is an English-built Ship, but very leaky. They all Three sailed from Onoar the 10th of October; at which time they told Mr. Harvey, and the Master of the Yacht, That they were bound to the Island St. Mary's off Madagascar; that therefore none need fear any further Damage from them this Year, nor at all from the Mocha's and Soldado's People; for that they had got Money enough, and were all, but such as had lost their Money at Play, resolved to go to some Part of the West Indies in the New Soldado; but that the Pellican's Men, who had got no Purchase, but were very poor, they would sink their Ship, which was very leaky, when they came to Saint Mary's, where they should have the Mocha Frigate when them that belong to her were gone on board the Soldado in order to their proceeding to the West Indies, as aforesaid; with which Ship they, and such as had gamed away their Money, would return to this Coast next Year, to enrich themselves by the Mocha Fleet, as their Consorts had done; for that they came out for Money, and Money they would have before they returned; and so they bid them tell the General. Now, whether these Villains will thus act, or otherwise, we do not know.

The Earl of Bellomont's Letter to the Lords of the Council of Trade, about Captain Kidd.

My Lords, Boston, 8th July, 1699.

I have the Misfortune to be ill of the Gout, at a time when I have a great deal of Business to exercise both my Head, and my Hand.

It will not be unwelcome News to your Lordships to tell you, That I secured Captain Kidd last Thursday, in the Gaol of this Town: He had been hovering on the Coast towards New York, for more than a Fortnight; and sent to one Mr. Emot, to come from New York to him, at a Place called Oyster-Bay, in Nassau Island, not far from

New York: He brought Emot from thence to Rhode Island, and there landed him, sending him hither to me, with an Offer of coming into this Port, provided I would pardon him. I was a little puzzled how to manage a Treaty of that Kind with Emot, a cunning Jacobite, a fast Friend of Fletcher's, and my avowed Enemy. When he proposed my pardoning Kidd, I told him, It was true, the King had allowed me a Power to pardon Pirates; but that I was so tender of using it, because I would bring no Stain on my Reputation, that I had set myself a Rule, never to pardon Piracy without the King's express Leave and Command. Emot told me, He had left the great Moorish Ship he took in India, which Ship I have since found went by the Name of the Quidah Merchant, in a Creek on the Coast of Hispaniola, with Goods to the Value of 30,000 l.: That he had bought a Sloop, in which he was come before to make his Terms: That he had brought in the Sloop with him several Bales of East India Goods, Threescore Pound Weight of Gold in Dust and in Ingots, about a Hundred Weight of Silver, and several other things, which he believed would sell for about 10,000 l. Emot also told me, That Kidd was very innocent, and would make it appear that his Men forced him, locking him up in the Cabin of the Adventure Gally, while they robbed Two or Three Ships; and that he could prove this by many Witnesses. I answered Emot, That if Kidd could make that appear, he might safely come into this Port, and I would undertake to get him the King's Pardon. I writ a Letter to Captain Kidd, inviting him to come in; and that I would procure a Pardon for him, provided he were as innocent as Mr. Emot said he was; and I sent my Letter to him by one Mr. Campbell, of this Town, a Scotchman as well as Kidd, and his Acquaintance: Within Three or Four Days Campbell returned to me with a Letter from Kidd, full of Protestations of his Innocence, and informing me of his Design of coming into this Port. I must not forget to tell your Lordships, That Campbell brought Three or Four small Jewels to my Wife, which I was to know nothing of; but she came quickly, and discovered them to me; and asked, Whether she should keep them; which I advised her to do for the present: For I reflected, that my shewing an Over-nicety might do Hurt, before I had made a full Discovery what Goods and Treasure were in the Sloop. All this whole Matter, even to my writing my Letter to Kidd, was transacted with the Privy and Advice of the Council.

Kidd landed here this Day Sevensnight; and I would not so much as speak with him, but before Witnesses: I thought he looked very guilty; and, to make me believe so, he, and his Friend Livingston, who posted hither from Albany, upon News of Captain Kidd's Design of coming hither, and Campbell aforesaid, began to juggle together, and embezzle some of the Cargo: Besides, Kidd did strangely trifle with me and the Council, Three or Four times that we had him under Examination. Mr. Livingston also came to me in a peremptory Manner, and demanded up his Bond, and the Articles, which he sealed to me upon Kidd's Expedition; and told me, That Kidd swore all the Oaths in the World, That unless I did immediately indemnify Mr. Livingston, by giving up his Securities, he would never bring in that great Ship and Cargo, but that he would take care to satisfy Mr. Livingston himself out of that Cargo. I thought this was such an Impertinence both in Kidd and Livingston, that it was time for me to look about me and to secure Kidd. I had Notice, That he designed my Wife a Thousand Pound in Gold Dust and Ingots last Thursday; but I spoiled his Compliment, by ordering him to be arrested, and committed that Day, shewing the Council my Orders from Court for that Purpose. Two Gentlemen of the Council, Two Merchants, and the Collector, have the Charge of all the Cargo; and they are preparing Inventories of every thing, which shall be sent to your Lordships by the next Ship. I delivered up to those Five Persons the Jewels that I have formerly told you Kidd sent by Campbell to my Wife, and that at the Council Board.

If I had not kept Mr. Secretary Vernon's Orders for seizing and securing Kidd, and his Associates, with all their Effects, with the less Secrecy, I had never got him to come in: For his Countrymen, Mr. Graham and Livingston, would have been sure to caution him to shift for himself; and would have been well paid for their Pains. I received the Lords Justices Orders about Kidd, and likewise Mr. Secretary Vernon's, about Three Months before my leaving New York; but I never discovered them to any body: And, when I heard People say, That the neighbouring Governors had Orders from Court to seize him, I laughed, as if I believed no such thing. I wish they may not let him escape here, as they have Bradish a noted Pirate. About a Fortnight ago, Bradish and another Pirate got out of Goal of this Town, and escaped, with the Consent of the Gaoler, as there is great Reason to believe.

As the Law stands in this Country, a Pirate cannot be punished with Death: Therefore I desire to receive Orders what to do with Bradish's Crew; and also with Kidd, and those Men of his I have taken.

Since my leaving New York, One of the Four Ships has come in that went from thence to Madagascar last Summer, and of which I informed your Lordships; and has brought Sixty Pirates, and a vast deal of Treasure. I hear, that every one of the Pirates paid 150*l.* for his Passage; and the Owners have, I am told, cleared 30,000*l.* by this Voyage. It is observable, Mr. Hackshaw, One of the Merchants that petitioned against me to your Lordships, and Stephen Delancy a hot-headed saucy Frenchman, and Mr. Hackshaw's Correspondent, are the chief Owners of this Ship. I hear there are 200 Pirates at Madagascar when this Ship came away, who intended to take their Passage in Frederick Phillip's Ship, and the other Two belonging to New York.

A great Ship has been seen off this Coast many time this Week, supposed to be one Maise, a Pirate, who has brought a vast deal of Wealth from the Red Seas. There is a Sloop also at Rhode Island, which is said to be a Pirate: I hear the Men go ashore there in the Day-time, and return to the Sloop at Night, and spend their Gold very liberally. We can do nothing towards the taking those Ships, for want of a Man of War. I am manning out a Ship to go in quest of the Quedah Merchant left by Kidd on the Coast of Hispaniola: By some Papers which we seized with Kidd, and by his own Confession, we have found out where the Ship lies; and, according to his Account of the Cargo, we compute her to be worth 70,000*l.* The Ship that carries this is just upon Sailing, and will not be persuaded to stay any longer; so that I cannot send your Lordships the Inventories of the Goods brought in by Kidd, nor the Informations we have taken about him from his own Men, till next Opportunity.

I am, with respect,

My Lords,
Your Lordships most humble,
and obedient Servant,
Bellomont.

A Copy of a Letter from the Earl of Bellomont to the Council of Trade.

My Lords, Boston, 26th July 99.

I gave your Lordships a short Account of my taking Capt. Kidd, in my Letter of the 8th Instant: I shall, in this Letter, confine myself wholly to an Account of my Proceeding with him.

On the 13th of last Month Mr. Emot, a Lawyer of New York, came late at Night to me, and told me he came from Captain Kidd, who was on the Coast with a Sloop, but would not tell where: That Kidd had brought Sixty Pound Weight of Gold, about a hundred Weight of Silver, and Seventeen Bales of East India Goods, which was less by Twenty-four Bales than we have since got in the Sloop: That Kidd had left behind him a great Ship near the Coast of Hispaniola, that nobody but himself could find out; on board whereof there were, in Bale Goods, Saltpetre, and other things, to the Value of at least 30,000*l.*: That, if I would give him Pardon, he would bring in the Sloop and Goods hither, and would go and fetch the great Ship and Goods afterwards. Mr. Emot delivered me that Night Two French Passes, which Kidd took on board the Two Moors Ships, which were taken by him in the Seas of India, or, as he alleges, by his Men against his Will: One of the Passes wants a Date in the Original, as in the Copy I send your Lordships; and they go N<sup>o</sup> I. and N<sup>o</sup> II.

On Thursday, the 15th of June, I sent Mr. Campbell, the Post-master of this Town, Kidd's Countryman and Acquaintance, along with Mr. Emot, to invite Kidd to come into this Port: Mr. Campbell returned hither on the 19th of June, and gave in a Memorial to Myself and the Council, containing what had passed between him and Kidd: The said Memorial goes N<sup>o</sup> III. On the said 19th of June, as I sat in Council, I wrote a Letter to Captain Kidd, and shewed it to the Council: and they approving of it, I dispatched Mr. Campbell again to Kidd with my said Letter; a Copy whereof goes N<sup>o</sup> IV. Your Lordships may observe, That the Promise I make Captain Kidd, in my said Letter, of a kind Reception, and promising the King's Pardon for him, is conditional; that is, provided he was as innocent as he pretended to be: But I quickly found sufficient Cause to suspect him very guilty, by the many Lyes and Contradictions he told me. I was so much upon my guard with Kidd, that, he arriving here on Saturday the 8th of this Month, I would not see him, but before Witnesses; nor have I ever seen him since, but in Council, twice or thrice, that we examined him; and the Day he was taken up by the Constable, it happened to be by the Door of my Lodging, and he rushed in, and came running to me, the Constable after him. I had him not seized till Thursday the 6th Instant; for I had a mind to discover where he had left the great Ship; and I thought myself secure enough from his running away, because I took care not to give him the least Umbrage of my Design of seizing him: Nor had I, till that Day that I produced my Orders from Court for apprehending of Kidd, communicated them to any body: And I found it necessary to shew my Orders to the Council, to animate them to join heartily with me in securing Kidd, and examining his Affair nicely, to discover what we could of his Behaviour in his whole Voyage. Another Reason why I took him not up sooner was, that he had brought his Wife and Children hither in the Sloop with him, who, I believed, he would not easily forsake. He being examined twice or thrice by me and the Council, and also some of his Men, I observed he seemed much disturbed: And, the last time we examined him, I fancied he looked as if he were upon the Wing, and resolved to run away; and the Gentlemen of the Council had some of them the same thought with mine, so that I took their Consent in seizing and committing him: But the Officers appointed to seize his Men were so careless, as to let Three or Four of his Men escape; which troubled me the more, because they were old New York Pirates.

The next thing the Council and I did was to appoint a Committee of trusty Persons, to search for the Goods and Treasure brought by Kidd; and to secure what they should find, till the King's Pleasure should be known as to the Disposition thereof, as my Orders from Mr. Secretary Vernon import. The said Committee were made up of Two Gentlemen of the Council, Two Merchants, and the Deputy Collector, whose Names are to the inclosed Inventory of the Goods and Treasure. They searched Kidd's Lodgings, and found hid and made up in Two Sea Beds, a Bag of Gold Dust and Ingots, of the Value of about 1,000*l.*; and a Bag of Silver, part Money, and part Pieces and Pigs of Silver, Value as set down in the said Inventory. In the above Bag of Gold were several little Bags of Gold: All Particulars are very justly and exactly set down in the Inventory, I believe. For my Part, I have meddled with no manner of thing; but put every thing under the Management of the Council, and into the Custody of the before-mentioned Committee mittee, that I might be free from the Suspicion and Censure of the World.

Piracies.

The enamelled Box, mentioned in the Beginning of the Inventory, is that which Kidd made a Present of to my Wife by Mr. Campbell; which I delivered in Council to the said Committee, to keep with the rest of the Treasure. There was in it a Stone Ring, which we take to be a Bristol Stone: If it were true, it would be worth about 40*l.*: And there was a small Stone unset, which we believe is also counterfeit; and a Sort of a Locket, with Four Sparks, which seem to be right Diamonds; for there is nobody here that understands Jewels. If the Box, and all that is in it, were right, they cannot be worth above 60*l.*

Your Lordships will see, in the middle of the Inventory, a Parcel of Treasure and Jewels, delivered up by Mr. Gardiner of Gardiner's Island in the Province of New York, and at the East End of Nassau Island; the Recovering and Seizing of which Treasure is owing to my own Care and Quickness. I heard, by greatest Accident in the World, the Day that Captain Kidd was committed, That a Man had offered 30*l.* for a Sloop to carry him to Gardiner's Island; and Kidd having owned he had borrowed some Gold on that Island, though he never mentioned to us any Jewels, nor, I believe, would he have owned the Gold there, but that he thought he should be sent for it, I presently reflected, that That Man, whom I have since discovered to be one of Kidd's Men, was to defeat us of that Treasure: I privately posted away a Messenger by Land, with a peremptory Order to Mr. Gardiner, in the King's Name, to come forthwith, and deliver up such Treasure as Kidd, or any of his Crew, had lodged with him; acquainting him, That I had committed Kidd to Gaol, as I was ordered to do by the King. My Messenger made great Haste, and was with Gardiner before any body; and Gardiner, who is a very substantial Man, brought away the Treasure without Delay, and, by my Direction, delivered it into the Hands of the Committee. If the Jewels be right, as it is supposed they are, but I never saw them, nor the Gold and Silver brought by Gardiner, then we guess that the Parcel brought by him may be worth, Gold, Silver, and Jewels, 4,500*l.*: And besides, Kidd had left six Bales of Goods with him, One of which was twice as big as any of the rest; and Kidd gave him a particular Charge of that Bale, and told him, it was worth 2,000*l.*: The Six Bales Gardiner could not bring; but I have ordered him to send them by a Sloop that is since gone from hence to New York, which is to return speedily. We are not able to set an exact Value on the Goods and Treasure we have got, because we have not opened the Bales we took on board the Sloop: But we hope, when the Six Bales are sent in by Gardiner, what will be then in the Hands of the Gentlemen appointed to that Trust, will amount to about 14,000*l.* I have sent strict Orders to my Lieutenant Governor at New York, to make diligent Search for the Goods and Treasure sent by Kidd to New York, in Three Sloops mentioned in Gardiner's Affidavit, which I send, with the other Affidavits and Informations, to your Lordships; and I believe I have directed him where to find a Purchase in a House at New York, which, by a Hint I have had, I am apt to believe will be found out in that House. I have sent to search elsewhere a certain Place strongly suspected to have received another Depositum of Gold from Kidd. I am also upon the Hunt for Two or Three Arch Pirates, which I hope to give your Lordships a good Account of by my next Conveyance. If I could have but a good able Judge and Attorney General at York, a Man of War there, and another here, and the Companies recruited and well paid, I will rout Pirates and Piracy intirely out of all this North Part of America: But, as I have too often told your Lordships, it is impossible for me to do all this alone in my single Person.

I wrote your Lordships Word, in my last Letter of the 8th Instant, That Bradish the Pirate, and One of his Crew, were escaped out of the Gaol of this Town. We have since found, that the Gaoler was Bradish's Kinsman; and the Gaoler confessed, they went out at the Prison Door, and that he found it wide open. We had all the Reason in the World to believe the Gaoler was consenting to the Escape: By much ado I could get the Council to resent the Gaoler's Behaviour; but, by mere Impor-tunity, I had the fellow before us: We examined him, and, by his own Story, and Accounts given us of his suffering other Prisoners formerly to escape, I prevailed to have him turned out, and a Prosecution ordered against him to the Attorney General. I have also, with some Difficulty, this late Session of Assembly here, got a Bill to pass, That the Gaol be committed to the Care of the High-Sheriff of the County, as in England, with a Salary of 30*l. per Annum*, to the said Sheriff: I would have had it 50*l. per Annum*, for the Sheriff's Encouragement to be honest and careful; but I could not prevail. I am forced to allow the Sheriff 40*s. per Week* for keeping Kidd safe, otherwise I should be in some Doubt about him. He has, without Doubt, a great deal of Gold, which is apt to tempt Men that have not Principles of Honour: I have therefore, to try the Power of dull Iron against Gold, put him into Irons that weigh Sixteen Pound Weight. I thought it moderate enough; for I remember, poor Doctor Oates had a Hundred Weight of Iron on him, when he was a Prisoner in the late Reign. There never was a greater Lyar in the World than this Kidd: Notwithstanding he assured the Council and me, every time we examined him, That the great Ship, and her Cargo, waited his Return to bring her hither; and now your Lordships will see, by Two several Informations of Masters of Ships from Curacao, that the Cargo, has been sold there: And, in One of them, it is said, they have burnt that noble Ship; and, without Doubt, it was by Kidd's Order, that the Ship might not be an Evidence against him; for he would not own to us her Name was the Quedah Merchant, though his Men did. Andries Henlyne, and Two more, brought the first News to New York, of the Sale of that Cargo at Curacao; and never such Pennyworths heard of for Cheapness. Captain Evertz is he who has brought the News of the Ship's being burnt. She was of about 500 Ton; and Kidd told us at the Council, there never was a stronger or stauncher Ship seen. His Lying had like to have involved me in a Contract, that would have been very chargeable, and to no manner of Purpose, as he has ordered Matters. I was advised by Council to dispatch a Ship of good Countenance, to go and fetch away that Ship and Cargo. I had agreed for a Ship of 300 Tons, 22 Guns; and I was to man her with Sixty Men, to force, if there had been need of it, the Men to yield who were left with the Ship. I was just going to seal the Writing, when I bethought myself it were best to press Kidd, once more to tell me Truth. I therefore sent to him Two Gentlemen of the Council to the Gaol; and he at last owned, That he had left a Power with one Mr. Henry Bolton, a Merchant of Antegoa, whom he had committed the Care of the Ship to, to sell and dispose of all the Cargo: Upon which Confession of Kidd's I held my Hand from hiring that great Ship, which would have cost 1,700*l.* by Computation. And now To-morrow I send the Sloop Captain Kidd came in, with the Letters to the Lieutenant Governor of Antegoa, Colonel Yeomans, to the Governors of St. Thomas's Island and Curacao, to seize and secure what Effects they can, that was late in the Possession of Kidd, and on board the Quedah Merchant. There is one Burt, an Englishman, that lives at St. Thomas, who has got a great Store of the Goods and Money for Kidd's Account. St. Thomas belongs to the Danes; but I hope to retrieve what Burt has in his Hands. The sending this Sloop will cost but about 300*l.* if she be out Three Months. I hope your Lordships will take care, that immediate Orders be sent to Antegoa to secure Bolton, who must have played the Knave egregiously; for he could not but know, that Kidd came knavishly by that Sloop and Goods. It is reported, That the Dutch of Curacao have loaded Three Sloops with those Goods, and and sent them to Holland: Perhaps it were not amiss, to send and watch their Arrival in Holland, if it be practicable to lay Claim to them there.

Since my Commitment of Kidd, I hear, That, upon his Approach to this Port, his Heart misgave him; and he proposed to his Men, the putting to Sea again, and going to Caledonia, the new Scotch Settlement, near Darien; but they refused.

I desire I may have Orders what to do with Kidd, and all his and Bradish' Crew; for as the Law stands in this Country, if a Pirate were convict, yet he cannot suffer Death: And the Council here refused to pass the Bill to punish Privateers and Pirates, which your Lordships sent with me from England, with a Direction to recommend it at New York and here, to be passed into a Law. I shall, by next Conveyance, acquaint your Lordships, what a Prejudice I have found in some of the Council to the Laws of England this Session; but, having writ myself almost dead, I must, till another Opportunity, forbear to treat of the Affairs of this Province; but, when I do, I must tell your Lordships beforehand, I will not dissemble with you, to favour any Man, or Number of Men; I am both above it, and I should think I did not do the Part of an honest Man, if I concealed any thing from you, that tends to the Prejudice of the Interest of England.

You will observe, by some of the Informations I now send, That Kidd did not only rob the Two Moors Ships, but also a Portuguese Ship; which he denied absolutely to the Council and me.

I send your Lordships Twenty-four several Papers and Evidences relating to Captain Kidd: It is impossible for me to animadvert, and make Remarks, on the several Matters contained in the said Papers, in the weak Condition I am at present; but must leave that Trouble to Mr. Secretary Popple, whose excellent clear Method in Business fits him incomparably beyond me for such a Work.

I will always continue to be, with much Respect,
My Lords,

Your Lordships most humble
and obedient Servant,
Bellomont.

Boston, June the 19th, 1699.

N<sup>o</sup> III. The Memorial of Duncan Campbell, of Boston, humbly presented to his Excellency the Earl of Bellomont.

I, the said Duncan Campbell, being at Rhode Island on Saturday the 17th June current; that Morning I went in a Sloop from the said Island, in Company with Mr. James Emott of New York, and Two other Men belonging to the said Sloop, towards Block Island; and, about Three Leagues from that Island, I met a Sloop commanded by Captain Kidd, and having on board about Sixteen Men besides; after hailing of which Sloop, and being informed, That the said Kidd was Commander thereof, he the said Kidd desired me to come on board the same; which I accordingly did, and, after some Discourse passed, the said Kidd desired me to do him the Favour as to make what Speed I could for Boston, and acquaint your Excellency, That the said Kidd had brought a Ship, about 5 or 600 Tons, from Madagascar, which, some considerable time since, he met within* * * and commanded her there to bring to; and that thereupon the Pilot, being a Frenchman, came on board the said Kidd's Ship, and told him, the said Kidd, He was welcome, and that the said Ship, to which the said Pilot belonged, was a lawful Prize to him, the said Kidd, she sailing under a French Pass: Whereupon he, the said Kidd, and Company, took the said Ship; and afterwards, understanding that the same belonged to the Moors, he, the said Kidd, would have delivered her up again; but his Men violently fell upon him, and thrust him into his Cabin, saying, The said Ship was a fair Prize; and then carried her into Madagascar, and rifled her of what they pleased: But before they got into Madagascar, the Gally under Command of him, the said Kidd, became so leaky, that she would scarce keep above Water; whereupon the Company belonging thereto, having taken out her Guns, and some other Things, and put them on board the Prize, set the said Gally on Fire.

The said Captain Kidd further told me, That, when he and his Company were arrived at Madagascar, several of his Company moved him to go and take a Ship called the Moco Frigate, that lay ready fitted at a Place not far distant from them, in the Possession of certain Privateers; and to go in the same for the Red Sea; but that he the said Kidd said, That, if they would join with him, he would attempt the taking of the said Ship, supposing her a lawful Prize, being formerly belonging to the King of England; but would not afterwards go with them on the said Design to the Red Sea: Whereupon Ninety of his, the said Kidd's Men, deserted him, went and took the said Ship

Ship

Piracies.

Ship, and sailed with the same on the said Design, as he, the said Kidd, was informed; obliging one Captain Culliver, the then Commander of her, to go along with them.

And the said Kidd further told me, That his Men having left him, and his Design frustrated, he thought it his best Way to preserve the said Ship then in his Possession, and the Goods on board her, for his Employers, or the proper Owners thereof: And accordingly, with the few Men he had then left, which would not join with the other Ninety in their aforesaid Design, being about Twenty in Number, and with a few other Men, that he procured at Madagascar, to assist him in navigating the said Ship, he intended to have brought the same to Boston, according to his Orders; but, touching in his Way at the Island of St. Thomas, and other Places in the West Indies, he there heard, That great Complaints were preferred against him, and he proclaimed a Pirate; which occasioned him to sail to a Place called Mona, near Hispaniola; from whence he sent to Curaso, and bought there the Sloop on which he is now on board, and took into her to the Value of about 8 or 10,000 l. in Goods, Gold, and Plate; for which Gold and Plate he traded at Madagascar, and was produced by the Sale of sundry Goods and Stores, that he took out of the Adventure Gally, formerly commanded by him; and hath left the Ship taken by his Company, and carried to Madagascar, as aforesaid, at or near Mona abovesaid, in the Custody of about Six Men of his own Company, and Eighteen others that he got from Curaso; the Merchant, of whom he bought the said Sloop, being intrusted therewith; unto which he hath promised to return again in Three Months; the said Kidd resolving to come into Boston, or New York, to deliver up unto your Excellency what Goods and Treasure he hath on board; and to pray your Excellency's Assistance, to enable him to bring the said Ship, left by him at Mona aforesaid, from thence; the said Ship being disabled from coming for want of Furniture.

But the said Captain Kidd further informed me, That by reason of what his Men had heard in the West Indies, as aforesaid, of their being proclaimed Pirates, they would not consent to his coming into any Port without some Assurance from your Excellency, That they should not be imprisoned nor molested: And the said Captain Kidd did several times protest solemnly, That he had not done any thing since his going out in the said Gally contrary to his Commission and Orders, more than what he was necessitated unto, being overpowered by his Men that deserted him, as aforesaid; who evil-intreated him several times for his not consenting to, or joining with them in, their Actions: And all the Men on board the Sloop now with him did, in like manner, solemnly protest their Innocence; and declared, That they had used their utmost Endeavours in preserving the aforesaid Ship and Goods for the Owners or Employers.

The said Kidd also said, That, if your Lordship should see Cause so to direct, he would carry the said Ship for England, there to render an Account of his Proceedings.

Which foregoing contains the Particulars of what Captain Kidd and his Men related to

Your Lordship's most humble Servant,
Duncan Campbell.

Captain Kidd, Boston, 19 June 1699.

Mr. Emott came to me last Tuesday Night late, telling me, He came from you, but was shy of telling where he parted with you; nor did I press him to it: He told me, You came to Oyster Bay, in Nassau Island, and sent for him to New York. He proposed to me, That I would grant you a Pardon: I answered, That I had never granted one yet; and that I had set myself a Rule, not to grant a Pardon to any Body whatever without the King's express Leave or Command: He told me, You declared and protested your Innocence; and that, if your Men could be persuaded to follow your Example, you would make no Manner of Scruple of coming into this Port, or any other within his Majesty's Dominions: That you owned there were Two Ships taken; but that your Men did it violently, against your Will; and had used you barbarously, in imprisoning you, and treating you ill, most Part of the Voyage, and often attempting to murder you. Mr. Emott delivered me Two French Passes, taken on board the Two Ships which your Men rifled; which Passes I have in my Custody; and I am apt to believe they will be a good Article to justify you, if the late Peace were not, by the Treaty between England and France, to operate in that Part of the World at the time the Hostility was committed, as I am almost confident it was not to do. Mr. Emott also told me, You had to about the Value of 10,000 l. in the Sloop with you; and that you had left a Ship somewhere off the Coast of Hispaniola, in which there was to the Value of 30,000 l. more, which you had left in safe Hands, and had promised to go to your People in that Ship, within Three Months, to fetch them with you to a safe Harbour. These are all the material Particulars I can recollect that passed between Mr. Emott and me: Only this, that he told me, that you shewed a great Sense of Honour and Justice, in professing, with many Asseverations, your settled and serious Design, all along, to do Honour to your Commission, and never to do the least Thing contrary to your Duty and Allegiance to the King: And this I have to say in your Defence, That several Persons at New York, who I can bring to evidence it, if there be Occasion, did tell me, That by several Advices from Madagascar, and that Part of the World, they were informed of your Men's revolting from you in one Place; which I am pretty sure they said was at Madagascar; and that others of them compelled you, much against your Will, to take and rifle Two Ships.

I have advised with his Majesty's Council, and shewed them this Letter, this Afternoon; and they are of Opinion, That if your Case be so clear as you (or Mr. Emott for you) have said, then you may safely come hither, and be equipped, and fitted out, to go and fetch the other Ship; and I make no Manner of Doubt but to obtain the King's Pardon for you, and those few Men you have left; who, I understand, have been faithful to you, and refused, as well as you, to dishonour the Commission you had from England.

I assure you, on my Word and Honour, I will perform nicely what I have now promised: Though this I declare beforehand, That whatever Treasure or Goods you bring hither, I will not meddle with the least Bit of them; but they shall be left with such trusty Persons as the Council shall advise, until I receive Orders from England, how they shall be disposed of.

Mr. Campbell will satisfy you, That this, That I have now writ, is the Sense of the Council, and of Your humble Servant.

Boston, June the 19th, 1699.

His Excellency read this Letter in Council: Which was approved of by them.

N<sup>o</sup> V. A Copy of Captain Kidd's Letter to the Earl of Bellmont.

From Block Island Road, on board the Sloop St. Antonio, June the 24th, 1699.

May it please your Excellency,

I am honoured with your Lordship's kind Letter of the 19th current, by Mr. Campbell; which came to my Hands this Day; for which I return my most hearty Thanks.

I cannot but blame myself for not writing to your Lordship before this Time, knowing it was my Duty; but the Clamours, and false Stories, that have been reported of me, made me fearful of writing, or coming into any Harbour, till I could hear from your Lordship.

I note the Contents of your Lordship's Letter: As to what Mr. Emott and Mr. Campbell informed your Lordship of my Proceedings, I do affirm to be true; and a great Deal more might be said of the Abuses of my Men, and the Hardship I have undergone to preserve the Ship, and and what Goods my Men had left: Ninety-five Men went away from me in one Day, and went on board the Moca Frigate, Captain Robert Cullifar Commander; who went away to the Red Seas; and committed several Acts of Piracy, as I am informed; and am afraid (the Men formerly belonging to my Gally) that the Report is gone Home against me to the East India Company, That I have been the Actor: A Sheet of Paper will not contain what may be said of the Care I took to preserve the Owners Interest, and to come Home to clear my own Innocency. I do further declare and protest, That I never did, in the least, act contrary to the King's Commission, nor to the Reputation of my honourable Owners; and doubt not but I shall be able to make my Innocence appear; or else I had no need to come to these Parts of the World, if it were not for that, and my Owners Interest. There are Five or Six Passengers, that came from Mallegasco to assist me in bringing the Ship Home, and about Ten of my own Men, that came with me, would not venture to go into Boston, till Mr. Campbell had engaged, Body for Body, for them, That they should not be molested while I staid at Boston, or till I return with the Ship. I doubt not but your Lordship will write to England in my favour, and for these few Men, that are left. I wish your Lordship would persuade Mr. Campbell to go Home for England, with your Lordship's Letters: Who will be able to give Account of our Affairs, and diligently follow the same, that there may be a speedy Answer from England.

I desired Mr. Campbell to buy 1,000 Weight of Rigging, for fitting of the Ship to bring her to Boston, that I may not be delayed, when I come there. Upon receiving of your Lordship's Letter, I am making the best of my Way for Boston.

This, with my humble Duty to your Lordship and Countess, is what offers from, my Lord,

Your Excellency's most humble and dutiful Servant,

Wm. Kidd.

N<sup>o</sup> VI. A Copy of the Earl of Bellmont's Letter to Mr. Gardiner.

Boston in New-England, 8 July 1699.

Mr. Gardiner,

Having received the King's express Orders for seizing and securing the Bodies of Captain Kidd, . . . all his Associates, together with all their Effects, and till I should receive his Majesty's Royal Pleasure how to dispose of the same; I have accordingly secured Captain Kidd in the Gaol of this Town, and some of his Men: He has been examined by myself, and the Council, and has confessed, among other Things, That he left with you a Parcel of Gold, made up in a Box, and some other Parcels besides; All which I require you, in his Majesty's Name, immediately to bring hither to me, that I may secure them for his Majesty's Use; and I shall recompense your Pains in coming hither. I am

Your Friend and Servant,

Bellmont.

N<sup>o</sup> VII. A Copy of the Examination of Gabriel Loff, of Long Island, within the Province of New York, Seaman.

Who saith, That, in September 1696, he entered himself on board the Adventure Gally, Captain Kidd Commander, as a Foremast-man, at New York; and proceeded in the Gally from thence, first to Madera, then to Bona-rista, St. Jago, and from thence to Madagascar; from thence to Joanna and Mehila, from Mehila back to Joanna; and from Joanna made their Course into the Red Sea, to cruise for Pirates; and, after some Time spent there, meeting with no Purchase, sailed for the Coast of India, and cruised there; and there gave Chace to a Ship, which shewed us French Colours, and Moorish Colours, and some others; and, after some Chace, came up with her; Captain Kidd commanded the Commander of her to come on board; who accordingly did: The Examinant knows not what Nation he was of; but he brought a French Pass, and told Captain Kidd, That his Ship was a Prize; and Captain Kidd made Prize of her, and her Lading: She was about 150 Tons in Burden, laden with Cotton-Wool, Bees-Wax, Tobacco, and Two Horses: The Company were chiefly Moors;—only Three Christians;—he knows not the Number: The Christians remained in the Gally, and took up Arms there: The Moors were sent on Shore. Soon after the taking of this Ship, the Examinant was taken sick, and lay so most of the Voyage: Knows not what they did with the Lading: The Ship they carried to Madagascar; and there sunk her. Some Weeks after the taking of the said Ship, they took another Ship, on the Coast of India, of Burden 400 Tons, or upwards, commanded by one Wright, an Englishman; which Ship came from Bengall: The Ship was chiefly manned with Moors and Armenians: There was Three Christians on board.

The Examinant further saith, They carried the said Ship and Lading with them to Madagascar; and there landed all the Bale-goods on board, consisting of Callicoes, Muslins, Silk, and white, striped, and plain, Romalls, Bengalls, and Laches: There fell betwixt Three and Four Bales to a Share: The Examinant had Three whole Bales, and a Piece of a Bale, to his Share; some of which he disposed of at Madagascar, to buy Provisions; and left some in the Ship; the Remainder he had in his own Chest, and some in Martin Skinke's Chest; which Chests were put on board a New York Sloop in the Sound, commanded by one Coster, and committed to his Care, to be carried to New York: Captain Kidd had Forty odd Shares for himself, and his Ship; most of his Men deserted. At St. Marie's, a Difference arose betwixt the Captain and his Company; Captain Kidd proposing to them to take the Mocha Frigate, which lay there; but the generality of the Men refused, saying, They would sooner shoot him, than into the said Mocha Frigate: And they went aboard the said Frigate.

Further the Examinant saith, That the aforesaid Ship, commanded by Captain Wright, and taken by Captain Kidd in the Seas of India, was called the Quiddah Merchant: And that the said Kidd, and his Company that remained with him, brought the said Ship from Madagascar into Hispaniola, in the West Indies; and there the said Captain Kidd traded with Two Persons, named Boulton and Burt, for some of the Bale-goods, which were delivered out of the Ship: And Captain Kidd bought a Sloop of the said Mr. Boulton, and laded the said Sloop with Bale-goods taken out of the said Ship for so much as she could conveniently stow, and lodge the Men besides: The Number of Bales he knows not: And leaving the said Boulton, with Seventeen or Eighteen Men, on board the Ship, the said Captain Kidd, with several of his Company, proceeded in the said Sloop towards New York; and the Discourse was, That Captain Kidd was to return to the Ship again within the Space of Three Months: And, after their Departure from Hispaniola, they arrived, with the said Sloop, first at the Horekills in Delaware Bay, where they landed a Chest belonging to one James Gillam, a Passenger with them from Madagascar: Knows not what was in it: And from the Horekills they sailed with the said Sloop into the Sound, and put some Goods on Shore at Gardener's Island: The Quantity the Examinant knows not: And also put some Goods and Chests on board the New York Sloop, one Coster Master, then lying at said Gardener's Island: And also put a Pack of Goods on shore at Tarpolin Cove. Whilst they lay with the said Sloop off Rhode Island, James Gillam, before named, went on shore in a Boat, that came on board the said Sloop: Knows not from whence the said Boat came, nor who she belonged to.

N<sup>o</sup> VIII. Andries Hen. Lyne, John Pero, Jacob Ra-teez, lately come from Curasou in the Sloop Mary, the said Andries Master, Inform, That they heard, That several Sloops had been on board of Captain Kidd's Ship in the River of Romano, near the Island Katharine, and fetched from thence several East India Goods, and carried them to Curasoa, and the Island St. Thomas: And, that they have seen at Curasoa great Quantities of the said Goods: And that John Pero saw one Ware, the Master of Kidd's Ship, at Curasoa; and was frequently with him there: And they heard, That one William Whitley, that went one of Kidd's Mates from New York, sold Ten Bales of East India Goods for 1,000 Pieces of Eight to the Merchants of Curasoa; which was, by the Calculation of the Merchant that bought them, about the Price of 4 d. per Yard that Money, which is 6 d. New York Money, Silks, Callicoes, and Muslins, one with another: And that they saw a Sloop, which they heard was to go to the said Ship the next Day after they parted from Curasoa, which was the 14th June last.

They heard also, That the Ship had lost her Anchors at the Island Moona; and that she was much out of Repair.

The said Persons examined by me the 10th Day of July 1699.

N<sup>o</sup> IX. An Account received this 17th Day of July 1699, by Captain Nicolas Evertse.

That, in the Month of May last, he was at Curacoa; and, after he had been there Three or Four Weeks, News arrived, That Captain Kidd, with his Ship, was at the Island of Sroona, to the South-east of Hispaniola; from thence . . . . . was brought by a Curacoa Master to the Island St. Helena, nigh Hispaniola; where the same was brought in a Salt-Lagon; where the Inhabitants of Curacoa and St. Thomas traded with the same, and carried off several Sloops Load: And the said Evertz has seen some of the Goods brought to Curacoa: Whereupon the said Evertz did address himself to the Governor of Curacoa, Bostiaen Bernage, desiring his Assistance to hinder such a wicked Trade, seeing it was unlawful to trade with Pirates: All which, by some Accidents, was hindered, &c. And the said Evertz, departing from Curacoa, bound to this Port of New York; and, by reason of the Northerly Wind, not being able to reach above St. Helena, where the said Ship of Captain Kidd's lay in the aforesaid Lagon, and was almost burnt down; which was on the 29th of June last, when the said Evertz saw it on Fire; there being then Two Sloops at that Place.

The Examination of William Jenkins, of Bow near London, aged about 18 Years, Apprentice to Geo. Bullen deceased, late chief Mate to the Adventure Gally, Captain Wm. Kidd Commander:

Who saith, That, some time after Christmas in the Year 1695, he sailed with the said Adventure Gally from Plymouth in England; and the said Gally made her Course for New York; took a French Prize in her Way, which was carried in with the same.

That the said Gally, some time after her Arrival at New York, sailed from thence to Madera; from Madera to Bonavista and St. Jago, where they took in Provisions, and steered for the Cape De Bon Esperance, but put not in there; but proceeded to Madagascar for Provisions, which they there took on board; then proceeded for an Island named Joanna; staid there about a Week, took on board some Water, and then went from thence to Mohilla; where the said Gally was laid on Shore, and cleaned; and then returned again to the said Island of Joanna; from whence the said Gally sailed to Matta in the Red Sea, and there watered; and then proceeded to a Place called Bobs Key, to wait for Shipping: And, during the Time of their being there, the Moca Fleet passed by; but the said Gally did not endeavour to come up or speak with any of them, apprehending they were too strong; afterwards we spoke with a small Bark coming from the Red Sea, commanded by one Parher, out of which the Company belonging to the said Gally took about a Bushel of Pepper: Then the said Gally went into a Port called Callacut, where was an English Factory; remained there Four or Five Days, and then went a cruising upon that Coast; and some Time afterwards gave Chace to a Ship about 150 Tons Burden, and, after about Nine Hours Chace, came up with the same; then Captain Kidd ordered Two Shot to be fired at the same, to bring her to; whereupon she accordingly brought to; and the Master, being a Dutchman, called Skipper John, came on board: There was belonging to the said Ship Three Dutchmen, a Boy, and the rest Moors, between Twenty and Thirty in Number; the Dutchmen, and Two or Three Moors, were kept on board the said Gally, and the rest of the said Moors had the Long-boat given to them to go on Shore, being then about Two Leagues distant from the same: The said Ship was loaded with Cotton, and had Two Horses likewise on board the same; which Cotton and Horses, Captain Kidd and his Company sold to the Natives of the Country for Money and Gold; kept the said Ship with them, the Gally being leaky, and carried her to Madagascar: When the said Gally came up with the said Ship, the said Gally had abroad French Colours, and the Master of the said Ship brought on board a French Pass, having other Passes besides: The Time when the said Ship was taken, as above-mentioned, was about 13 or 14 Months since; about a Month or Five Weeks after which, the said Gally gave Chace to another Ship; and, having chased her about Four Hours, came up with the same, the said Gally having abroad French Colours, and the other Ship Armenian; which Ship was of the Burden of about 400 Tons, called the Quedah Merchant, and was commanded by one Wright, an Englishman; had on board the same, Two Dutchmen, who were Mates of the said Ship; and a Frenchman, who was a Gunner; Six or Eight Armenians; and the rest of the Company Moors, being about Ninety in Number; all which Captain Kidd sent on Shore in the Boats that came off from thence: The said Ship came from Bengall, bound for Suratt; was mounted with 16 or 18 Guns; the French Gunner of which brought on board the Gally a French Pass, and said, She was a good Prize to the English: The said Captain was loaded with Bale-goods, Sugar, Iron, and Saltpetre: Captain Wright, who commanded the said Ship, declared, She was in the Employment of the English; that the Lading belonged to them: And, about Four or Five Days after the said Ship was taken by the said Gally, Captain Kidd called the Company together, and proposed to them to return the said Ship to those from whom they had taken her, or sell her to them; and said, He would agree to any thing they should do therein, were it for the Value of a Piece of Eight: Said also to his Company, The taking of the said Ship would make a great Noise in England; and they should not know what to do with the Goods taken in the same: But the Company of the Gally agreed not to the said Captain Kidd's Proposal; but carried the said Ship into St. Marie's, off Madagascar, and there unloaded her, and shared: Whereupon each of the said Gally's Company, being then about 115 in Number, shared, one with another, Three Bales and some loose Goods, besides about Two Thirds of a Bale: And the said Captain Kidd had Forty Shares: The Bales contained Callicoes, Romalls, Muslins; some Silks, some striped, some flowered, and some plain. After sharing of the said Goods, Ninety and upwards, of the Company belonging to the said Gally, deserted the same, and went to the Mocha Frigate, then lying at St. Marie's aforesaid: And the said Captain Kidd, with the Men that remained with him, carried their Shares on board the said Prize Ship, called the Quidah Merchant; and run the said Gally on Shore; being being very leaky; and, having stript her of her Furniture, set her on Fire to get her Iron work; and put all that they could save, of or belonging to the said Gally, on board the said Prize Ship; with which the said Captain Kidd, and the Men that remained with him, and some others that he had procured there, came from St. Marie's aforesaid, and arrived in some time afterwards at the Island of Anguilla, in the West Indies: Where being informed, That the said Kidd, and his Company, were proclaimed Pirates, the said Captain Kidd, and the Men on board with him, went with the said Ship to the Island of St. Thomas; but the Governor of the said Island would not allow the said Ship to come in there: Whereupon we sailed to Mona; and there met with one Mr. Boulton, of Antegoa, Merchant; of whom Captain Kidd bought the Sloop Antonio, in which he lately came to Boston; gave, as this Examinant was informed, 3,000 Pieces of Eight for the same; and took from out of the Prize Ship, into the said Sloop, Forty Bales of the Goods on board said Ship, and about Thirty Bags of Sugar; and left the said Ship at Hispaniola, about Six or Seven Weeks since, in the Custody of the said Mr. Boulton, and about 12 Men more: And the said Captain Kidd promised to return again to the said Ship, in the Space of Three Months; and the said Boulton promised to stay with the same for so long time: Which Ship the said Captain Kidd left lying in a River, in Hispaniola aforesaid, reckoned to be about Eighteen Leagues from Mona.

The Examinant further saith, That, after the said Gally had taken the Two Ships before-mentioned, She also, in her Passage to St. Marie's aforesaid, took a Bark or Ship, of the Burden of 180 Tons, with about Seventy Persons on board, navigated with Portuguez: She came from Bengall; was bound to Goa; and had on board Bengalls, Muslins, Calicoes, and other Things, which the Gally's Company began to plunder, and bring on board the Gally; but, seeing several Ships coming down towards them, the said Gally, with the other Two Prizes she had taken, came to sail, and left the said last Prize at a Place between Brin John and Angingo, so called being an English and Dutch Factory; and left on board the same all the Company belonging thereto, except the Master, Merchant, and Seven Men more, that came on board the Gally when she first took the said Ship: And the Vessel that was first taken by the said Gally, as before-mentioned, was, by the said Gally's Company, sunk at St. Marie's aforesaid, after they had brought her hither.

And the said William Jenkins the Examinant further saith, That whilst Captain Kidd, and his Company, lay with the said Ship Quidah Merchant at Mona aforesaid, one Burt, Merchant of Curacao, came to them in a Brigantine, and purchased several Goods of the said Captain Kidd; for which he paid Part in Money, and Part in Flour.

Further saith, That the first Place that the Sloop Antonio aforesaid touched at, after the said Captain Kidd, and his Company, left the said Ship at Mona aforesaid, was the Horekills in Dellaware Bay, where the said Sloop staid Two Days; and one James Gillam, a Passenger that came with the said Kidd from Madagascar, being one of the Mocha Frigate's Crew, sent his Chest on shore there, being a large Chest and heavy; which the Examinant supposeth to be full of India Goods, and was stowed in the said Sloop's Hold in her Passage from Mona: After the said Sloop had staid at the Horekills aforesaid about Two Days, she sailed to Gardner's Island, and anchored there; where Captain Kidd sent on shore Two Bales of Goods, Two Negro Boys, and a Negro Girl, and delivered them to Mr. Gardner; and were not brought on board the Sloop again, the Examinant remaining on board the same almost all the time; neither was any thing more carried on shore there, to this Examinant's Knowledge: And there was, in Company with the said Sloop under Captain Kidd's Command, a Sloop said to belong to New York, whereof one Hendrick a Dutchman, a young Man, was either Skipper, or one of the Company; into which Sloop there was put about Two or more Bales, One of them being Bengall Silks, all belonging to one Humphrey Clay, and Four or more Chests belonging to said Humphrey Clay, English Smith, Gabriel Luffe, and Martin Skinke: This Examinant was informed, the said Sloop was bound on a trading Voyage to Martha's Vineard, with Rum, and Truckin Cloth; but, having received the said Bales and Chests on board, did not proceed to Martha's Vineard, but went back again for New York. The said Captain Kidd, and his Company, then proceeded with his Sloop to Block Island; and put nothing on shore there, only Two Guns about Two or Three hundred Weight apiece, which Captain Kidd gave to one Sands: Then the Sloop went to Tarpolin Cove, where One or more Bales of the Captain's were put on shore, and delivered to the Man that dwells there.

And the Examinant saith, That nothing that was put on shore at any of the Places aforesaid, was, to his Knowledge, received on board the said Sloop again; and that nothing was put on shore at any other Place, than what is before-mentioned.

The Examinant further saith, That Captain Kidd traded with Mr. Boulton and Mr. Burt aforesaid, for the Quantity of Twenty Bales of Goods or thereabouts, as he supposes; besides what those of his Company traded with them; Six of which, viz. Michael Callaway, John Hales, John Brovender, Wm. Boyer, Neece a Dutchman, and Nouter a Dutchman, went to Curacao in Burt's Brigantine; and one other, named John Ware, went thither also in a small Sloop.

The foregoing Examination of Wm. Jenkins being read unto Richard Barlycorne, aged about Eighteen Years, Apprentice to Captain Wm. Kidd;

He saith, That the same is true, as to the Substance thereof.

And further saith, That James Gillam carried Two Chests on shore at the Horekills, which were stowed in the Hold of the Sloop: After they came from the Horekills, they stopt at Gardner's Island; went from thence to Oyster Bay; there took in Mr. Emot of New York; and set him on shore on Rhode Island; in some Days afterwards, Mr. Emot returned to the Sloop again, as she lay off Rhode Island; then they went to Gardner's Island; who went from thence, in a Whale Boat, over to Long Island: And at Gardner's Island, Captain Kidd sent on shore there, Two Bales of Goods, a Box, and Two Negro Boys, and a Girl, committed to the Charge of Mr. Gardner. The Examinant also sent Two Bales of his own, and his Chest, on shore there; and Dick the Black, another Bale; and one Robert Avery, a Passenger, that came with them from Madagascar, went on shore there, and carried some Bundles of Muslin, Silks, and other Goods, of his own; and a Box about Three Foot long, and a Foot deep: Knows not what was in it: It was handed over the Sloop's Side. There was also a Sloop of New York, lying at Gardner's Island, into which there was put about the Quantity of 15 or 16 Bales of Goods, Whole and in Pieces; and about 9 or 10 Chests: Which Goods and Chests belonged to Humphrey Clay, Gabriel Luffe, Samuel Wood, Captain Davis a Passenger, Martin Skink, John Arris, and English Smith: The Sloop was full. From Gardner's Island we sailed to Block Island; and there took in Captain Kidd's Wife, and one Mr. Clark, of New York; and then stood towards Gardner's Island again, and met a New York Sloop bound home, and put Mr. Clark on board of her: And Captain Kidd put a Chest on board said Sloop: He knows not what was in it: John Arris put another Chest on board; and Wm. Jenkins, a Bale of Goods; and some other Bundles, that were made out of the Bales, were also put on board said Sloop; and all, as aforesaid, committed unto the said Mr. Clark: The

Piracies.

Captain's Chest was hoisted out of the Hold. They stopt at Tarpolin Cove; and there put on shore One Bale, Two Barrels, and a Box of Goods, delivered unto the Man that dwells there: And, as they came over to Nantinket Shoals, they met a Sloop from the Bay, commanded by one Captain Way; which said Way came on board our Sloop; and, when he went off again;—in his Canoe, by Captain Kidd's Order, Two or Three Small Arms, a Pendulum Clock bought of Captain Wright Commander of the Quidah Merchant; a Pair of Stilliards, and a Bag about as big as the Crown of his Hat, sealed up; which the Examinant supposes to be Money.

Further the Examinant saith, That, when they came from Hispaniola, Captain Kidd told Mr. Boulton, whom he left in Charge of the Ship, That he would return to him again in a short time, after he had spoken with my Lord Bellomont; and that the New York Sloop, whereinto they put the Goods at Gardner's Island as aforesaid, was an open Sloop, manned with Two Men, named Coster and Hendrick: There was Three Bales of Goods, and Two Bags of Sugar, delivered out of the Sloop Antonio at Boston, unto Mr. Duncan Campbell. Saith, He knows not what Sum Captain Kidd paid for the Purchase of the Sloop.

N<sup>o</sup> XI. A Copy of the Narrative of Wm. Cuthbert, late Gunner of the Ship Charles the 2d, Captain John Dorrell Commander, of 60 Guns and Two Mortar Pieces, is as followeth: From the Lat. 27 Deg. 4. Delivered the 8th of July 1699.

That, coming out of the Gulf of Persia, in the Latitude of 22 Degrees and 30 Minutes North Lat. we saw a Ship to Windward of us; which bore down upon us, and stood athwart our Forefoot, and came within Gunshot of us: Upon which, I was commanded by our said Captain to place a Shot betwixt her Forefoot; and, upon the same, he clapt his Helm hard-a-weather, and bore away right before it: Whereupon we concluded it to be Captain Kidd, of whom we had heard, That he was in that Latitude; at which time, we judged ourselves Sixty Leagues distant from the Land: And, about Four Days after, we came to an Anchor at Bombay; where the General of all those Parts of the Indies, and William Burnister, who is the Second in Command, satisfied our Commander, That the Ship aforesaid which we saw was Kidd; and said, That, the other Day, the said Kidd was in Curwarr, one of the East India Company Factories, and watered there; at which time Two of Kidd's Men left him, because, as they said, he was going upon an ill Design of Piracy: Upon which the said Men were secured by the Chief in Command, named Upton, till they could be sent to the General at Bombay; who afterwards sent them on board our Ship, Captain Dorrell Commander, then bound for England, which was on Saturday the 29th January 1697, as Prisoners, to be examined before the Admiralty in England: Which was done: Who were found innocent, in that they had left Kidd in time, before he had committed Piracy; and so the said Men were cleared: But, before we went from Bombay, our said Captain was informed by the General, That the said Kidd had taken a great Ship of the Bantams, and also took and kept the Mate of her, which was an Englishman: Upon which Depredations, it is usual for the Inhabitants of those Countries to take the English there, and secure them, and seize upon their Estates for Satisfaction; which if wanting, many Families, Men, Women, and Children, have perished in Prison: And, as we went home for England, with the said Two Men, that left Kidd, they told us, That he had made many Attempts upon Vessels, but could not prevail; and that he was very cruel to his Men, and abused them, especially such as did not adhere to those evil Practices; which was the Cause that they had left him, as aforesaid.

And further he saith, That as soon as we came with our said Captain Dorrell, with the said Ship upon those Coasts, which was * * * *, We heard, That one Captain Edgcomb, Commander of a Ship belonging to the Company, called the Moquo Frigate, about 360 Tons, was murdered by his Men, as he lay asleep on his Couch on board his Ship; and, it was reported, That it was one Gillam, that had turned Moor, and was circumcised, who was shipt on board the said Edgcomb, and One of those Twelve Men, whose Names are hereafter mentioned, who ran away with the said Moquo Frigate, after they had killed the said Captain Edgcomb; which said Gillam went by the Name of Sampson Marshall in the Indies.

The Names of the said Men are, Sampson Marshall alias Gillam, Thomas Preston, Ralph Stout, Thomas Alcock, John Swan, Martin Neales, John Pernel, Joseph Pell, Richard Sims, William Burrell, Christian Peterson, Thomas Stevens.

Moreover, when we came homeward-bound, about the * * * *, to the Cape Bon Esperance, we were informed by a Dutchman, That the Moquo Frigate, after she was run away with, boarded one Captain Hine, in the Ship Dorrell, which did properly belong to Our Captain Dorrell, and his Father in London, who had been in the Company's Service; but he blew them up, killed and wounded many of their Men, so that they were forced to leave him: But he, being much disabled by those Pirates, was fain to put into an Island called Jabbee to recruit; and so went for Bombay, to rebuild the Wastes of his Ship; and so for England, being there expected last March. Now, whether there be any of the above-named Men come into these Parts with Captain Kidd, as well as this Gillam at Rhode Island, who is vehemently to be suspected to be one, is to me unknown; but may be inquired into.

By me Wm. Cuthbert.

The Examination of Samuel Wood, Master of the Sloop Antonio.

Who saith,

That he being Master of the said Sloop Antonio, lately belonging to Antony Montero, Abraham Redwood, and Henry Boulton, of Antegoa, Merchants, and in their Employ on a Voyage from Antegoa to Curacao and Royal de Hatch, the said Boulton Supra-cargo, and returning from Royal De Hatch to Curacao, they there took in a small Quantity of Goods to trade for Hogs at Port Rieco, to carry with them to Antegoa; and sailed from Curacao towards Port Rieco; and, off the West End of the said Island of Port Rieco, they espied a large Ship: Some of the Company belonging to said Ship came, in a Canoe, on board the said Sloop; and desired the Examinant to stand for the said Ship, and to supply them with some Provisions: And, the said Sloop being then near to the Shore, the Examinant stood in to the same with his said Sloop, and took in betwixt 30 and 40 Hogs, and put them into the Ship's Boat, which afterwards came to the said Sloop, and sent them on board in her; Mr. Boulton his Supra-cargo going in the Boat before them: The Men that came on board the Sloop from the Ship informed, That she was commanded by Captain Kidd; and that the said Ship was a Prize, which the said Kidd had taken in the Seas of India: The said Mr. Boulton, in a few Hours time, time, returned back again to the Sloop; and ordered the Examinant to make his Course back again to Curacao; which he accordingly did, leaving the said Ship lying off the Island Mona: And, when they arrived at Curacao, the said Mr. Boulton sent on board some Flour, a Cask of Bottle Ale, and some Cheeses, and a Cask of Bread; and then came on board himself: And the Examinant, by his Order, set Sail, with the said Sloop, for Mona; and, in Eight Days after their departure from thence, arrived there again; where they found said Captain Kidd's Ship lying at Anchor; and they delivered on board her the aforesaid Provisions; and lay by the said Ship several Days expecting a Brigantine, whereof one Mr. Burt was Merchant, to come up from Curacao, with a further Supply: And, before the Brigantine arrived, the Ship was put from her Anchors, and forced away to Leeward, Mr. Boulton being on board, who ordered the Examinant to stay at Mona Three Days for the said Brigantine, and then to come away unto Savona, where he might expect to find the Ship: The Brigantine came by the End of Two Days; and, by this Examinant's Direction, went for Savona; and he followed the next Day, with his Sloop; and, meeting with a Dutch Sloop, received Directions from him; and went, in Company of the said Sloop, to St. Catalena upon Hispaniola; where they found the said Ship, and Burt's Brigantine; where Mr. Boulton sold the Sloop to Captain Kidd, and received his Pay for the same in Bale Goods taken out of the said Ship, and put on board Burt's Brigantine: After which, the Sloop was cleared of her Cask and Lumber, on board her; and took in to her, out of the said Ship, so many Bales and Chests as she could conveniently stow, besides Room for the Men to lodge; and some Bags of Sugar, and Iron-work, for Ballast: And then Mr. Boulton paid the Examinant and Company their Wages; and Ten of the Company continued on board the Ship with Mr. Boulton, to whose Charge she was committed; and some of the Men belonging to Burt's Brigantine, and some out of the Dutch Sloop, to the Number of about Eighteen in the Whole, staid with Mr. Boulton, to look after the Ship until Captain Kidd's Return, or for the Space of Three Months from the 16th Day of May last past: And said Captain Kidd left an Order with Mr. Boulton to dispose of the Goods, for Account of himself, and the Owners of the Adventure Gally: Burt's Brigantine took in some Quantity of Goods out of the said Ship; so did also the Dutch Sloop aforesaid: And they left her at the same time, when this Examinant came away with his Sloop: The Brigantine, as the Examinant understood, was intended for St. Thomas's; the Dutch Sloop, for Curacao: The Examinant made his Course for New York; and, breaking their Boom-iron, put into Delaware Bay, to get it mended; and, at the Horekills, they landed a Chest belonging to one James Gillam: From the Horekills they came round the East End of Long Island, and up the Sound into Oyster Bay; and from thence dispatched a Letter for New York; and, in a Day or Two afterwards, Mr. Emot came from New York to them, whom they took in; and stood for Rhode Island, and put him on shore there; and then stood off and on, for Two or Three Days, betwixt that and Block Island, and, at Mr. Emot's Return, went for Gardner's Island, and landed said Emot there: And also, by Captain Kidd's Order, there was 4 or 5 Bales of Goods, and Three young Negroes, put into a Whale Boat that came from said Gardner's Island, and the said Sloop's Boat; and several Chests and Bundles were put on board a New York Sloop that lay there, near unto the Examinant's Sloop; Two Guns were put on shore at Block Island; One Bale of Goods, and Two Barrels, with some small Bundles of Goods in them, were landed at Tarpolin Cove: Captain Kidd said, He would touch there at coming back, to take in his Bale again: And, by virtue of a written Order from Captain Kidd, directed to the Examinant after the Sloop's Arrival at Boston, to deliver to Mr. Duncan Campbell Two Bales of Goods, and Two Bags of Sugar, or what he should ask for; the Examinant delivered him Two Bales, and Two Bags of Sugar; and Samuel Aris, one of the Company, by Order from said Kidd in Writing, delivered Mr. Campbell another Bale. Kidd's Piracies.

The Examinant further saith, That, when the said Sloop was seized in Boston, this Examinant had in his Chest, of his own proper Money, 320 Pieces of  $\frac{1}{4}$ ; which he received for his Wages, and Adventure, in his Voyages made in the said Sloop, from Philadelphia to Barbadoes, twice forward and back; and from Barbadoes to Curacao, and thence to Antegoa; and from Antegoa to Curacao again, . . . Real de Hatch; and to the time of his Discharge at Hispaniola; also about Five Yards of Red Plush, and about 18 Yards of striped Stuff, and a Piece of Ossenbriggs, in the Sloop's Hold; and a Gun, and a Cotton Hammock, Two Quilts, Bedding, and Cloathing, on board the Sloop. N<sup>o</sup> XIII. The Examination of Thomas Way, of Boston, Mariner.

Saith,

That, coming lately from the Bay of Compeach, in the Sloop whereof he is Commander, upon the Shoals of Nantucket on Friday the 30th of June last, the Sloop whereof Captain Kidd was Commander, came up with him; and they hailed each other; and, being both bound in for Boston, sailed together in Company: And the Examinant, in his Canoe, with Two of his Ship's Company, went on board the said Captain Kidd's Sloop; and Captain Kidd presented the Examinant with a Bit of a Bar of Gold; and, at his coming off again from the said Sloop, by Order of Captain Kidd, there was put into the Examinant's Canoe, Three Fire Arms, a Pair of Stilliards, a Turkey Carpet, a Clock, and a small Bundle, made up in a Napkin, or a Piece of Ossenbriggs, loosely fastened together; which, the said Kidd told the Examinant, was some of his Wife's Cloaths, and desired him to carry up for him; which he accordingly did: And Mrs. Kidd sent for the said Bundle, soon after their coming to Boston; which was delivered: The Clock, Carpet, and Stilliards, remain at the Examinant's House; the Arms are at the Gunsmiths: There was also delivered unto the Examinant, by the said Kidd, a Bag of coarse Canvas, sealed up (the Bag had Two Seals) about the Bigness of the Crown of his Hat; which, he said, contained Reals of Eight, that his Wife brought with her from New York to bear her Expences: And the Morning of the same Day that Captain Kidd was taken, he came to the Examinant's House with a Negro Boy, and fetched away the said Bag of Money: He judges it might weigh Six Pound Weight: There was Eight Pound more, in Pieces of Eight Reals, and Arabian Gold, delivered unto this Examinant by Aires, One of the said Kidd's Company, to secure for him; and, this Morning, the said Aires sent a written Order, from the Prison, unto the Examinant, to deliver his Money to George Riscarrick; which he accordingly did, only Ten or a Dozen Double Reals still resting in the Examinant's Hand: His Piece of Gold he sold to Mr. Dummer, for 4l. odd Money. ported by Captain William Kidd, his Company, and Accomplices, or any of them, into this Province, or any other of his Majesty's Provinces, Colonies, or Territories, in America; and by them, or any of them, embezzled, concealed, conveyed away, or any ways disposed of; saith,

That, hearing Captain Kidd was come into these Parts, to apply himself unto his Excellency the Earl of Bellomont, the said Narrator came directly from Albany, the nearest Way through the Woods, to meet the said Kidd here, and to wait upon his Lordship; and, at his Arrival at Boston, Captain Kidd informed him, There was on board his Sloop, then in Port, Forty Bales of Goods and some Sugars: And also said, He had about Eighty Pound Weight in Plate. The Narrator does not remember, whether he said, That was on board the Sloop, or not.

And further; Said Kidd said, He had Forty Pound Weight in Gold; which he had hid, and secured, in some Place in the Sound, betwixt this and New York, not naming any particular Place; withal saying, Nobody could find it but himself; and that all the said Goods, Gold, Plate, and Sloop, was for Account of the Owners of the Adventure Gally, whereof this Narrator was One.

And further said, Kidd, upon further Discourse with the Narrator, acknowledged, That several Chests, and Bundles of Goods, belonging to the Men, were taken out of his Sloop betwixt this Place and New York, and put into other Sloops; saying, He was forced thereto; his Men would otherwise have run the Sloop on shore: And likewise acknowledged, That he had given Mr. Duncan Campbell 100 Pieces of  $\frac{1}{2}$ , when he was on board his Sloop at Rhode Island: And knows no further of any Concealment, Embezzlement, or Disposal, made by the said Kidd, his Company, or Accomplices, of any Goods, Gold, Money, or Treasure whatsoever; saving, That the said Kidd did Yesterday acknowledge to this Narrator, That the Gold before-mentioned was hid upon Gardner's Island: He believed, there was about Forty Pound Weight of it; and that, in the same Box with it, there was about 3 or 400 Pieces of  $\frac{1}{2}$ , and some Pieces of Plate, belonging to his Boy Barlycorn, and his Negro Man, which he had gotten by washing for the Men: Also the said Kidd gave this Narrator a Negro Boy; and another to Mr. Duncan Campbell.

Duncan Campbell, of Boston, being notified to appear before his Excellency and Council this Day, and sworn to give a true Narrative and Relation of his Knowledge or Information, of any Goods, Gold, Silver, Bullion, or other Treasure, lately imported by Captain Wm. Kidd, his Company, and Accomplices, or any of them, into this Province, or any other of his Majesty's Provinces, Colonies, or Territories in America; and by them, or any of them, embezzled, concealed, conveyed away, or any ways disposed of: saith, upon his Oath,

That, at the time of his first going on board the said Kidd's Sloop, then being off Block Island, the said Kidd gave this Narrator Two speckled Handkerchiefs, about  $\frac{1}{4}$ ths of a Pound of Tea; and that said Kidd bought a Wig of him, for which he received Four Pistoles of Gold; and Four Pistoles more he received of him, for what Mr. Emot had laid out on the Road; which is all he had at that time: And, at the Second time of his going to said Kidd, he received of the said Kidd betwixt 90 and 100 Pieces of Eight, New York Money, which, he said, was his Wife's, towards his Charges and some Things he had bought for him: And said Kidd also gave him Three or Four Half-pieces of Muslin, and a Gold Chain for this Narrator's Wife, and Two Pieces of speckled Callico, about Four or Five Yards each; and also sent, by this Narrator, a Present to the Countess of Bellomont, an enamelled gilt Box, with Four Sparks or Stones therein set in Gold, One loose, and a Stone Ring; which at his Arrival at Boston, were shewn to one Mr. Legarre, a French Goldsmith; who said, They were in Value about 55*l.*: And the said Kidd also gave one Hulin, of Rhode Island, Master of the Sloop that transported this Narrator, Two several times, to and from the said Captain Kidd's Sloop, a Bale of coarse white Callicoes, for the Service of himself and Sloop; and Two or Three Pieces of Muslin, and about Half a Dozen Pound of Sugar; and also gave to Mr. Meinzes, who went on board the said Kidd's Sloop with this Narrator, Eight or Nine Pieces of Arabian Gold, as the said Meinzes informed.

And further the Narrator saith, That, after the said Kidd's Arrival, with his Sloop, at Boston, he gave the Narrator a Negro Boy, and a Cane for his Son Matthew; and gave another Negro Boy to Mr. Robert Livingstone: And, going on board the said Kidd's Sloop, with his Negro, to fetch his Bedding and Cloaths on shore, the said Kidd bade the Negro carry with him a Bag of Sugar, which was broken, to be used in the House; and he did so; and also Five Holland Cheeses, about 10 lb. Weight each: And One of the said Kidd's Company gave this Narrator's Son about 10 lb. Weight of white Sugar Candy: And, Tuesday the 4th Current, in the Evening, the Narrator, by Order of the said Captain Kidd, went on board his Sloop again, having an Order in Writing under the said Kidd's Hand, directed to Wood the Master, for Two Bales of Goods, and Two Bags of Sugar; which this Narrator received, and brought on shore, together with another Bale, which, one Aires of the Company said, was allotted to the Narrator for his Pains: And, in the Morning of the same Day, the said Kidd delivered to the Narrator a Green Silk Bag, sewed up, of about Four or Five Pound Weight of Bar Gold, to be presented unto the Countess of Bellomont, in his Name; which my Lady refusing to accept of, the Narrator returned again to the said Kidd: Two of the Bales afore-mentioned, and Part of the 3d Bale, which the Narrator had opened, the said Narrator has delivered unto the Gentlemen appointed by the Government to take into their Custody, and secure the Goods; the Remainder of the said broken Bale is in the Narrator's Keeping.

When the Narrator was on board the said Kidd's Sloop off Block Island, Captain Kidd gave him Two or Three Pieces of Arabian Gold, to drink with some Gentlemen in Boston; and Two of the Ship's Company gave him each a Pistole of Gold for himself.

Further the Narrator knows not of any Embezzlement, Concealment,

Concealment, or Disposal, in any way or manner, made by the said Kidd, or his Company, or Accomplices, or any of them, of Goods, Gold, Money, Bullion, or Treasure whatsoever; only adds, That the said Kidd and Company promised the Narrator to the Value of 500 l. if they had their Liberty.

Duncan Campbell.

Sworn before his Excellency and Council, die prædict.

Susannah Campbell, Wife of the within named Duncan Campbell, examined upon her Oath, saith,

That, excepting a Gold Chain, Three Pieces of Muslin, a Piece of India Silk, which her Husband delivered to her as a Present from Captain Kidd, she knows not of the Embezzlement, Concealment, Conveying away, or Disposal of any Goods, Gold, Money, or Treasure, imported into any of His Majesty's Territories, or Dominions, by Captain William Kidd, his Company and Accomplices, or any of them; nor that any such are lodged or secured, in her House.

N<sup>o</sup> XVII. A Copy of the Examination of Hugh Parrott, of Plymouth in the County of Devon, Mariner,

Who saith, That at the Island of Joanna, he left the Vessel he then belonged to, and entered himself on board the Adventure Gally, Captain William Kidd Commander; and from thence we sailed to the Red Sea, and there cruised for Privateers and Pirates; but finding none, went upon the Coast of India, and, in our Cruise there, espied a Ship, which we gave Chace to, and came up with, being a Ship of near 200 Tons Burden, whereof a Dutchman, Mich. Dicker, was Master; and there were Two more Dutchmen on board; all the rest of the Company were Moors, being about Forty in Number in the Whole; and the said Dutch Master, being commanded on board the Gally, brought a French Pass, and, as the Examinant was informed, declared, That his Ship and Lading was lawful Prize; and accordingly was made Prize of by the said Kidd and Company: The Dutch Master remained in the Gally with the other Two Dutchmen, and took up Arms to serve under Captain Kidd; the Moors were set on Shore, being then not above Two Leagues distant from the same: The Examinant knows not what the Ship was laden with; only saw Two Horses sent on Shore from her. And in about Six Weeks Time afterward, they took another Ship of 400 Tons, or upwards, mounted with about 12 or 14 Guns, commanded by one Captain Wright, an Englishman; and there was also on board Two or Three Dutchmen; the rest of the Company were Armenians and Moors, to the Number of about Sixty or Seventy: The Ship came from Bengall, bound to Persia, as it was said; and that she belonged wholly to the Moors: She was laden with Bale Goods, containing Muslins, Silk striped and plain, and raw Silk, refined Sugar in Bags, Saltpetre, Iron in Junks, Guns, and Anchors: Captain Wright and other the Christians, with several of the Armenians and Moors, were speedily sent on Shore; some of them came to Madagascar in the Gally, and there left her: Said, Captain Kidd carried the said Prize Ship into Madagascar, Geo. Bullen, Chief Mate of the Gally, being put in to command the said Prize Ship; and when she arrived at Madagascar, they took out of her all the Bale Goods, and shared them among the Gally's Company, being about One hundred in Number, more or less; some had Three, others Four Bales to a Share; the Examinant had Four for his Share, which he sold at Hispaniola, to Mr. Boulton and Mr. Burt, for 400 Pieces of Eight, which was paid him down in Money; 200 Pieces of which he lost since by Gaming, on board the Sloop Antonio, that he came from Hispaniola in; the rest of his Money was stolen from him. They arrived in the said Sloop, first, at the Horekills in Delaware Bay; where they put out Two Chests, belonging to James Gillam, a Passenger, who also went on Shore there; which Chests, the Examinant believes, were full of India Goods: From the Horekills they went to Oyster Bay on Long Island; and there took in Mr. Emot of New York, and carried him to Rhode Island, and set him on Shore there: Then went, with their said Sloop, to Block Island, and put on Shore Two Guns, delivered to Two Men that came from the Shore, and cruised betwixt Block Island and Rhode Island until Mr. Emot's Return; and having taken him on board went to Gardner's Island, and there set him on Shore: And there was landed at the said Island, from out of the Sloop Antonio, some Goods and Chests; and also several Bales and Chests were put into another Sloop that lay at the said Gardner's Island, bound up the Sound: From Gardner's Island they sailed, with the Sloop Antonio, to Block Island; and there took up the Captain's Wife, and a Gentleman that accompanied her; and then stood to Gardner's Island; and there put the said Gentleman, which the Examinant thinks, was named Clark, into a Sloop bound up the Sound; into which Sloop there was also several Bales and Chests put, out of the Sloop Antonio, by Order of the said Captain Kidd: And then we came to Tarpolin Cove, where there was a Bale, and One or Two Barrels of Goods landed: And from thence we came over the Shoals, and there met a Sloop from Campechea, bound to Boston; the Master of which Sloop, in the Canoe belonging to her, came on board our Sloop; and at his going off there was put into the said Canoe a Turkey-work Carpet, Two or Three small Arms; which is all that the Examinant took Notice of.

The Examinant further saith, That at their sharing at Madagascar, Captain Kidd struck for, and received several Shares; knows not how many; there might be Forty. They stript the Gally at Madagascar, and burnt her to save her Iron-work; and also sunk their lesser Prize there. About Ninety of the said Gally's Company deserted at Madagascar. The greater Prize was called the Quedah Merchant; which they left in Hispaniola, under the Care of Mr. Boulton, and about Seventeen or Eighteen Men to assist; Captain Kidd promising to return to him in a short Time: The Examinant supposes there might be about 150 Bales of Goods remaining on board her, about Eighty or Ninety Tons of Sugar, the Salt-petre, Iron, Guns, and Anchors. Capt. Kidd traded with Messieurs Boulton and Burt, for a considerable Quantity of Goods taken out of the said Quidah Merchant, at and about Hispaniola.

N<sup>o</sup> XIX. A Copy of the Narrative of John Gardner of Gardner's Island, alias Isle of Wight, relating to Captain William Kidd.

That, about Twenty Days ago, Mr. Emot of New York came to the Narrator's House, and desired a Boat to go for New York; telling the Narrator he came from my Lord at Boston: Whereupon the Narrator furnished the said Emot with a Boat; and he went for New York: And that Evening the Narrator saw a Sloop with Six Guns riding at an Anchor off Gardner's Island: And Two Days afterwards, in the Evening, the Narrator went aboard the said Sloop to inquire what she was; and, so soon as he came on board, Captain Kidd, then unknown to the Narrator, asked him how himself and Family did; telling him, That he, the said Kidd, was going to my Lord at Boston; and desired the Narrator to take Three Negroes, Two Boys and a Girl, ashore, to keep till he, the said Kidd, or his Order, should call for them; which the Narrator accordingly did: That, about Two Hours after the Narrator had got the said Negroes ashore, Captain Kidd sent his Boat ashore with Two Bales of Goods and a Negro Boy: And the Morning after, the said Kidd desired the Narrator to come immediately on board, and bring Six Sheep with him, for his the said Kidd's Voyage to Boston; which the Narrator did; when Kidd asked him to spare a Barrel of Cyder; which the Narrator, with great Importunity, consented to; and sent Two of his Men for it, who brought the Cyder on board the said Sloop: But whilst the Men were gone for the Cyder, Captain Kidd offered the Narrator several Pieces of damnified Muslins and Bengalls, as a Present to his Wife; which the said Kidd put in a Bag, and gave the Narrator; and about a Quarter of an Hour afterwards, the said Kidd took up Two or Three Pieces of damnified Muslin, and gave the Narrator for his proper Use: And the Narrator's Men then coming on board with the said Barrel of Cyder, as aforesaid, the said Kidd gave them Four Pieces of Arabian Gold for their Trouble and also for bringing him Wood: Then the said Kidd, ready to sail, told this Narrator he would pay for his Cyder; to which the Narrator answered, That he was already satisfied for it by the Present to his Wife. And this Narrator observed, That some of Kidd's Men gave to the Narrator's Men some inconsiderable Things of small Value, which, this Narrator believes, were Muslins for Neckcloths: And then the Narrator took Leave of the said Kidd, and went ashore; and, at parting, the said Kidd fired Four Guns, and stood for Block Island.

About Three Days afterwards, the said Kidd sent the Master of the Sloop and one Clark, in his Boat, for the Narrator, who went on board with them: And the said Kidd desired this Narrator to take on Shore with him, and keep for him, the said Kidd, and Order, a Chest, and a Box of Gold, and a Bundle of Quilts, and Four Bales of Goods; which Box of Gold, the said Kidd told the Narrator, was intended for my Lord; and the Narrator complied with the said Kidd's Request, and took on Shore the said Chest, Box of Gold, Quilts, and Bales of Goods.

And the Narrator further saith, That Two of Kidd's Crew, who went by the Names of Cook and Parrat, delivered to him, the Narrator, Two Bags of Silver; which, they told the Narrator, weighed Thirty Pound Weight; for which he gave Receipt: And that another of Kidd's Men delivered to the Narrator a small Bundle of Gold, and Gold Dust, of about a Pound Weight, to keep for him; and did also present the Narrator with a Sash, and a Pair of Worsted Stockings: And just before the Sloop sailed, Captain Kidd presented the Narrator with a Bag of Sugar; and then took Leave, and sailed for Boston.

And the Narrator further saith, He knew nothing of Kidd's being proclaimed a Pirate; and if he had, he durst not have acted otherwise than he has done, having no Force to oppose them; and for that he hath formerly been threatened to be killed by Privateers, if he should carry unkindly to them.

John Gardiner.

The within-named Narrator further saith, That whilst Captain Kidd lay with his Sloop at Gardner's Island, there was a New York Sloop, whereof one Coster is Master and his Mate is a little black Man, unknown to the Narrator by Name; who, as it was said, had been formerly Captain Kidd's Quarter-master; and another Sloop belonging to New York, Jacob Fenick Master; both which lay near to Kidd's Sloop Three Days together: And whilst the Narrator was on board with Captain Kidd, there was several Bales of Goods, and other Things, put out of the said Kidd's Sloop, and put on board the other Two Sloops aforesaid; and the said Two Sloops sailed up the Sound: After which Kidd sailed with his Sloop for Block Island; and being absent for the Space of Three Days, returned to Gardner's Island again, in Company of another Sloop belonging to New York, Cornelius Quick Master; on board of which was one Thomas Clark of Setanket, commonly called Whisking Clark, and one Harrison of Jamaica, Father to a Boy that was with Captain Kidd; and Captain Kidd's Wife was then on board his own Sloop: And Quick remained with his Sloop there from Noon till the Evening of the same Day, and took on board Two Chests, that came out of the said Kidd's Sloop, under the Observance of this Narrator; and, he believes, several several Goods more; and they sailed up the Sound: Kidd remained there with his Sloop next Morning, and then set sail; intending, as he said, for Boston.

Further the Narrator saith, That the next Day after Quick sailed with his Sloop from Gardner's Island, he saw him turning out of a Bay called Oyster-pan Bay, although the Wind was all the Time fair to carry him up to the Sound: The Narrator supposes he went thither to land some Goods.

VOL. 13.

N° XXII. A Copy of a Narrative of the Voyage of Kidd's Captain William Kidd, Commander of the Adventure Piracies. Gally, from London to the East Indies.

That the Journal of the said Captain Kidd, being violently taken from him in the Port of St. Marie's in Madagascar, and his Life being many times threatened to be taken away from him by Ninety-seven of his Men that deserted him there, he cannot give that exact Account he otherwise could have done; but, as far as his Memory will serve, is as followeth; viz.

That the said Adventure Gally was launched in Castle's Yard at Deptford, about the Fourth of December 1695; and about the latter End of February, the said Gally came to the Buoy in the Nore; and about the 1st Day of March following, his Men were pressed from him for the Fleet; which caused him to stay there for Nineteen Days; and then he sailed for the Downes, and arrived there about the Eighth or the Tenth Day of April 1696; and sailed thence for Plymouth; and, on the Twenty-third Day of the said Month of April he sailed on his intended Voyage; and, some Time in the Month of May, met with a small French Vessel, with Salt and Fishing Tackle on board, bound for Newfoundland, which he took and made Prize of, and carried the same into New York, about the Fourth Day of July, where she was condemned as lawful Prize: The Produce whereof purchased Provisions for the said Gally, for her further intended Voyage.

That about the Sixth Day of September 1696, the said Captain Kidd sailed for the Madcras, in Company with one Joyner, Master of a Brigantine belonging to Bermudas, and arrived there about the 8th Day of October following; and thence to Bonavista, where they arrived about the Nineteenth of the said Month, and took in some Salt, and stayed Three or Four Days; and sailed thence to St. Jago, and arrived there the Twenty-fourth of the said Month, where he took in some Water, and stayed about Eight or Nine Days; and thence sailed for the Cape of Good Hope; and, in the Latitude of Thirty-two, on the Twelfth Day of December 1696, met with Four English Men of War: Captain Warren was Commodore; and sailed a Week in their Company; and then parted, and sailed to Telere, a Port in the Island of Madagascar, and, being there about the Twenty-ninth Day of January, came in a Sloop belonging to Barbadoes, loaded with Rum, Sugar, Powder, and Shot, one French, Master, and Mr. Hatton, and Mr. John Batt, Merchants; and the said Hatton came on board the said Gally, and was suddenly taken ill, and died in the Cabin: And, about the latter End of February, sailed for the Island of Johanna, the said Sloop keeping Company, and arrived there about the Eighteenth Day of March; where he found Four East India Merchantmen outward bound; and watered there all together, and staid about Four Days: And from thence, about the Twenty-second of March, sailed for Mehila, an Island Ten Leagues distant from Johanna, where he arrived the next Morning, and there careened the said Gally; and about Fifty Men died there in a Week's Time.

That, on the 25th Day of April 1697, set sail for the Coast of India, and came upon the Coast of Mullabar, in the Beginning of the Month of September; and went into Carwarr upon that Coast about the Middle of the same Month, and watered there: And the Gentlemen of the English Factory gave the Narrator an Account, That the Portuguese were fitting out Two Men of War to take him; and advised him to put out to Sea, and to take Care of himself from them, and immediately to set sail thereupon; . . . . about the 12th of the said Month of September; and the next Morning, about Break of Day, saw the said Two Men of War standing for the said Gally; and spoke with him; and asked him, Whence he was? Who replied, From London; and they returned Answer, From Goa; and so parted, wishing each other a good Voyage: And making still along the Coast, the Commodore of the said Man of War kept dogging the said Gally all the Night, waiting an Opportunity to board her; and in the Morning, without speaking a Word, fired Six great Guns at the Gally, some whereof went through her, and wounded wounded Four of his Men; and thereupon he fired upon him again; and the Fight continued all Day; and the Narrator had Eleven Men wounded: The other Portuguese Man of War lay some Distance off, and could not come up with the Gally, being calm; else would have likewise assaulted the same: The said Fight was sharp, and the said Portuguese left the said Gally with such Satisfaction, that the Narrator believes no Portuguese will ever attack the King's Colours again, in that Part of the World especially: And afterwards continued upon the said Coast, cruising upon the Coast of Cameroone, for Pirates that frequent that Coast, till the Beginning of the Month of November 1697; when he met with Captain How in the Loyal Captaine, an English Ship belonging to Maderas, bound to Surat, whom he examined; and, finding his Pass good, designed freely to let her pass about her Affairs; but, having Two Dutchmen on board, they told the Narrator's Men, That they had divers Greeks and Armenians on board, who had divers precious Stones and divers other rich Goods on board, which caused his Men to be very mutinous, and got up their Arms, and swore they would take the Ship; and Two-thirds of his Men voted for the same: The Narrator told them, The small Arms belonged to the Gally, and that he was not come to take any Englishman, or lawful Traders; and that, if they attempted any such thing, they should never come on board the Gally again, nor have the Boat, or small Arms, for he had no Commission to take any but the King's Enemies, and Pirates; and that he would attack them with the Gally, and drive them into Bombay; the other being a Merchantman, and having no Guns, might easily have done it with a few Hands; and, with all the Arguments and Menaces he could use, could scarce restrain them from their unlawful Design; but at last I prevailed, and with much ado I got him clear, and let him go about his Business. All which the said Captain How will attest, if living.

Piracies.

And that, about the 18th or 19th Day of the said Month of November, met with a Moors ship of about 200 Tons, coming from Surat, bound to the Coast of Mallabar, loaded with Two Horses, Sugar, and Cotton, to trade there, having about Forty Moors on board, with a Dutch Pilot, Boatswain, and Gunner; which said Ship the Narrator hailed, and commanded on board; and with him came Eight or Nine Moors, and the said Three Dutchmen, who declared it was a Moors Ship; and demanding their pass from Surat, which they shewed; and the same was a French Pass, which he believes was shewed by a Mistake; for the Pilot swore Sacrament she was a Prize, and staid on board the Gally; and would not return on board the Moor Ship; but went in the Gally to the Port of St. Marie's.

And that, about the First Day of February following, upon the same Coast, under French Colours, with a Design to decoy, met with a Bengall Merchantman belonging to Surat, of the Burden of 4 or 500 Tons, 10 Guns; and he commanded the Master on board; and a Frenchman, Inhabitant of Surat, and belonging to the French Factory there, and Gunner of the said Ship, came on board as Master; and, when he came on board, the Narrator caused the English Colours to be hoisted; and the said Master was surprised, and said, You are all English; and asking, which was the Captain? Whom, when he saw, said, Here is a good Prize, and delivered him the French Pass.

And that, with the said Two Prizes, sailed for the Port of St. Marie's in Madagascar; and, sailing thither, the said Gally was so leaky, that they feared she would have sunk every hour, and it required Eight Men every Two Glasses, to keep her free; and was forced to woad her round with Cables to keep her together; and with much ado carried her into the said Port of St. Marie's; where they arrived about the First Day of April 1698: And, about the 6th Day of May, the lesser Prize was haled into the careening Island or Key, the other not being arrived; and ransacked and sunk by the mutinous Men; who threatened the Narrator, and the Men that would not join with them, to burn and sink the other, that they might not go Home and tell the News.

And that, when he arrived in the said Port, there was a Pirate Ship, called the Moca Frigate, at an Anchor, Robert Culliford Commander thereof; who, with his Men, left the same at his coming in, and ran into the Woods: And the Narrator proposed to his Men to take the same, having sufficient Power and Authority so to do; but the mutinous Crew told him, If he offered the same, they would rather fire Two Guns into him, than One into the other; and thereupon Ninety-seven deserted, and went into the Moca Frigate, and sent into the Woods for the said Pirates; and brought the said Culliford, and his Men, on board again; and all the Time she staid in the said Port, which was for the Space of Four or Five Days, the said Deserters, sometimes in great Numbers, came on board the said Gally and Adventure Prize, and carried away great Guns, Powder, Shot, small Arms, Sails, Anchors, Cables, Surgeons Chest, and what else they pleased; and threatened several times to murder the Narrator, as he was informed, and advised to take Care of himself; which they designed in the Night to effect; but was prevented by his locking himself in his Cabin at Night, and securing himself with barricading the same with Bales of Goods; and, having about Forty small Arms, besides Pistols, ready charged, kept them out: Their Wickedness was so great, after they had plundered and ransacked sufficiently, went Four Miles off to one Edward Welche's House, where his the Narrator's Chest was lodged, and broke it open; and took out Ten Ounces of Gold, 40 Pound of Plate, 370 Pieces of Eight, the Narrator's Journal, and a great many Papers, that belonged to him, and the People of New York that fitted them out.

That, about the 15th of June the Moca Frigate went away, being manned with about 130 Men, and Forty Guns, bound out to take all Nations: Then it was that the Narrator was left only with Thirteen Men; so that the Moors he had to pump and keep the Adventure Gally above Water, being carried away, she sunk in the Harbour; and the Narrator, with the said Thirteen Men, went on board of the Adventure Prize; where he was forced to stay Five Months for a fair Wind: In the mean Time, some Passengers presented, that were bound for these Parts; which he took on board, to help to bring the said Adventure Prize Home.

That, about the Beginning of April 1699, the Narrator arrived at Anguilla in the West Indies, and sent his Boat on Shore; where his Men had the News, That he and his People were proclaimed Pirates; which put them into such a Consternation, that they sought all Opportunities to run the Ship on Shore upon some Reef or Shoal, fearing the Narrator should carry them into some English Port.

From Anguilla they came to St. Thomas; where his Brother-in-law, Samuel Bradley, was put on Shore, being sick; and Five more went away, and deserted him: Where he heard the same News, That the Narrator, and his Company, were proclaimed Pirates, which incensed the People more and more.

From St. Thomas set sail for Moona, an Island between Hispaniola and Porto Rico; where they met with a Sloop called the St. Anthony, bound for Antegua from Curaso, Mr. Wm. Boulton Merchant, and Samuel Wood Master: The Men on board then swore, they would bring the Ship no further: The Narrator then sent the said Sloop St. Anthony for Curaso, for Canvas to make Sails for the Prize, she being not able to proceed; and she returned in Ten Days; and after the Canvas came, he could not persuade the Men to carry her for New England; but Six of them went and carried their Chests and Things on board of Two Dutch Sloops, bound for Curaso; and would not so much as heel the Vessel, or do any thing; the Remainder of the Men not being able to bring the Adventure Prize to Boston, the Narrator secured her in a good safe Harbour in some Part of Hispaniola; and left in the Possession of Mr. Henry Boulton of Antegua, Merchant, chant, the Maker, Three of the old Men, and Fifteen or Sixteen of the Men that belonged to the said Sloop St. Anthony, and a Brigantine belonging to one Mr. Burt of Curaso.

That the Narrator bought the said Sloop St. Anthony of Mr. Boulton, for the Owners Account; and after, he had given Directions to the said Boulton to be careful of the said Ship and Lading, and persuaded him to stay Three Months till he returned; and then made the best of his Way to New York; where he heard the Earl of Bellomont was, who was principally concerned in the Adventure Gally; and hearing his Lordship was at Boston, came thither; and has been now 45 Days from the said Ship.

Wm. Kidd.

Boston, 7th July 1699.

Further the Narrator saith, That the said Ship was left at St. Catharina, on the South-east Part of Hispaniola, about Three Leagues to Leeward of the Westerly End of Savona. Whilst he lay at Hispaniola, he traded with Mr. Henry Boulton of Antegua, and Mr. Wm. Burt of Curaso, Merchants, to the Value of 11,200 Pieces of Eight; whereof he received the Sloop Antonio at 3,000 Pieces of Eight, and 4,200 Pieces of Eight by Bills of Exchange, drawn by Boulton and Burt upon Messieurs Gabriel and Lemont, Merchants in Curaso, made payable to Mr. Burt, who went himself to Curaso; and the Value of 4,000 Pieces of Eight more in Dust and Bar Gold; which Gold, with some more traded for at Madagascar, being Fifty Pounds Weight, or upwards, in Quantity, the Narrator left in Custody of Mr. Gardner of Gardner's Island, near the Eastern End of Long Island, fearing to bring it about by Sea: It is made up in a Bag put into a little Box, locked, and nailed, corded about, and sealed. Saith, He took no Receipt for it of Mr. Gardner.

The Gold that was seized at Mr. Campbell's, the Narrator traded for at Madagascar, with what came out of the Gally.

Saith, That he carried in the Adventure Gally, from New York, 154 Men; Seventy whereof came out of England with him. Some of his Sloop's Company put Two Bales of Goods on shore at Gardiner's Island, being their own proper Goods: The Narrator delivered a Chest of Goods, viz. Muslins, Latches, Romalls, and flowered Silk, unto Mr. Gardiner of Gardiner's Island aforesaid, to be kept there for the Narrator: Put no Goods on shore any where else: Several of his Company landed their Chests, and other Goods, at several Places.

Further saith, He delivered a small Bale of coarse Calicoes unto a Sloop Man of Rhode Island, that he had employed there. The Gold seized at Mr. Campbell's the Narrator intended for Presents to some, that he expected to do him Kindnesses. Some of his Company put their Chests and Bales on board a New York Sloop lying at Gardiner's Island.

N° XXIII. A Copy of the Examination of Captain Wm. Kidd.

Boston in New-England, Monday, 3d July 1699.

Captain Wm. Kidd, by Command of his Excellency the Earl of Bellomont, having been notified and required to attend his Lordship in Council, at Six a Clock this Evening, at his Lordship's House, to give an Account of his Proceedings in his late Voyage to Madagascar, and Parts adjacent, and other Places, since his last Departure from England in the Adventure Gally, with his Majesty's Royal Commission;

The said Wm. Kidd appeared accordingly, to the Summons served upon him, as above.

And, being demanded an Account of his proceedings, as above; he answered, That his Journal was destroyed, and made away, by his Company; but if his Excellency Kidd's would please to grant him time for the same, he would Piracies. prepare, and present his Lordship with, a Narrative thereof in Writing.

VOL. 13.

Being further demanded an Account of his Lading on board his Sloop now lying within this Port, and on board the Ship which he said he left at Hispaniola; saith, There is on board the Sloop; viz.

Forty Bales, containing Calicoes, Silk, Muslins striped and plain.

Five or Six Tons of refined Sugar, contained in Bags.

About 40 lb. Weight in Dust and Bar Gold.

About 80 lb. Weight in Bar Silver.

All which, he saith, he purchased at Madagascar, with the Powder, Small Arms, and other Furniture, belonging to the Adventure Gally, whereof he was late Commander.

And further saith, That, about Forty-two or Three Days since, he left a Ship on the South Side of Hispaniola in the Possession of Henry Boulton of Antegua, Merchant, and about Twenty-two Men; which Ship he brought last from Madagascar: And that there is on board the same the several Goods following; viz.

About One hundred and Fifty Bales.

Seventy or Eighty Tons of Sugar.

About Ten Tons of Iron in short Junks.

About Fourteen or Fifteen Anchors.

Forty Tons of Saltpetre.

About Twenty Guns in the Hold.

Thirty Guns mounted, being the Guns lately belonging to the Adventure Gally.

There is no Gold or Silver on board, that he knows of.

Saith, He never romaged her.

The Ship is about 400 Tons in Burden, built at Surrat by the Moors: All her Seams are rabbetted.

Wm. Kidd.

Die prædict. the foregoing Examination of Captain Kidd was taken before his Excellency and Council.

N° XXIV. The Depositions of Abel Owen Mariner, of full Age, late Cook of the Adventure Gally. Captain Wm. Kidd Commander; and Samuel Arris Mariner, late Steward of the same Ship, of full Age; Depose and testify, as followeth; viz.

That the said Ship was launched at Deptford, at Castle's Yard, about the 4th Day of December 1695; And that the said Ship came to the Buoy and Nore about the latter end of February; and about the First Day of March the Men were pressed from on board the said Gally for the Fleet; and she was staid about Nineteen Days, and then sailed for the Doxes; and, about the Eighth or Tenth Day of April, arrived there; and thence sailed for Plymouth; and, on the 23d Day of the Month of April 1696, the said Ship sailed from Plymouth; and sometime in the Month of May, met with a small French Vessel, bound for Newfoundland, which they took, and made Prize of, and carried the same into New York about the 4th Day of July following; and the same was condemned there as lawful Prize: And that, about the 6th Day of September then also following, the said Gally sailed for the Maderas; and thence to Bonavista; thence to St. Jago; thence to Telere, and the Island of Madagascar; thence to Johanna; thence to Mehila, where they buried about Fifty of their Men in the Month of May 1697; and thence sailed upon the Coast of India; and, returning back to St. Marie's, the Ship was all along so leaky, that they feared she would have sunk every Hour; and that it required Eight Men, every Two Glasses, to keep her free; and were forced to woold her round with Cables, to keep her together; and, with much ado, kept her above Water, and carried her into the said Port of St. Marie's.

And that they took Two Vessels, which they carried into the said Port; and the Men, which afterwards deserted serted the Gally, sunk one of them there; and threatened the Captain, and these Deponents, and others, now arrived here, to sink the other, that they might not go thence to tell News: And that about Ninety of the said Gally's Crew deserted the same there; and that the said Gally proved so insufficient and leaky, that she possibly could not be repaired; and sunk at an Anchor in the said Port.

And these Deponents further testify, That there was in the said Port a Pirate called the Mocha Frigate: And the said Captain Kidd proposed to his Men to take the same, having sufficient Power so to do; but the said Deserters, then being on board, told the said Captain Kidd, That, if he offered the same, they would fire Two Guns into him, rather than One into the other; and immediately deserted the said Gally, and went on board the Mocha Frigate.

And these Deponents also further depose, That with what Guns, Powder, and Sails, the said Captain Kidd could save out of the said Gally, from the Violence of the said Deserters, he purchased, at least, between Thirty and Forty Bales of Goods, which he has brought in the Sloop St. Antonio into this Port, for the Use of the Owners of the said Gally.

His Abel O Owen,
Mark.
Samuel Arris.

English Smith, and Humphry Clay, Mariners, of full Age, lately belonging to the said Adventure Gally, testify, That they sailed in the same from New York on the time before specified; and testify to the Truth of the above-written Deposition from that time: And that the Goods, now on board the said Sloop St. Antonio, were purchased, as aforesaid, for the Use of the Owners of the said Gally.

English Smith,
Humphry Clay.

Hugh Parratt Mariner, of a full Age, also deposeth, That he went on board the said Gally at Johanna; and testifies to the Truth of the before-written Deposition from that time; and that the Goods, now on board the said Sloop St. Antonio, were purchased, as aforesaid, for the Use of the Owners of the said Gally.

Hugh Parratt.

The Five Deponents within-named did severally declare, That, whereas, in their within written Affidavits, they speak of the taking of Two Vessels, they do further explain themselves; and testify, That the said Two Vessels were Moorish Ships, and taken by them upon the Coast of India; One of them of Burden betwixt Four and Five hundred Tons, the other about Two hundred Tons: They surrendered to them without firing any Guns at them: The greater Ship came from Bengall; the lesser Ship came from Surratt: The smaller Ship was taken in November 1697; the greater Ship in February following: The Master, Gunner, and Boatswain, of the smaller Ship were Dutchmen, the rest of the Company were Moors, being about Forty in Number in the Whole: Her Lading consisted of some Persian Silks, and other dry Goods, with some Horses: The Three Dutchmen afterwards took up Arms on board the Gally: The greater of the Two Ships is the same that they lately left at Hispaniola: She had about Ninety Men on board: She was commanded by an Englishman named Wright; the Mate and Gunner were Dutch; all the rest of the Company were Moors: She was mounted with Ten Guns; and laden with Bengall Goods.

The Deponents further say, They met with the Mocha Frigate at the Port of Saint Marie's; and the Company belonging to her took the Companies belonging to the aforesaid Two Ships, forcibly, from on board the Adventure Gally; and Ninety of the Company belonging to the said Gally there also left her, and entered themselves on board the said Mocha Frigate; having first plundered the Two Ships before-named, and taken out of them a considerable Quantity of Goods, and disposed of them at their Pleasure.

Signed,
Abel O Owen,
Sam. Arris,
English Smith,
Humph. Clay,
Hugh Parratt.

Boston, 4th July 1699.

The Five Deponents within named, and subscribed to this Affidavit, severally made Oath to the Truth of this their Deposition, before his Excellency the Governor and Council.

Mr. Blathwait presented to the House an Abstract of Representations made by Merchants and others, in the Years 1697, and 1698, relating to Piracies in the East Indies:

And an Account of what Captain Kidd has done abroad, according to the Informations received by the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, from the Earl of Bellomont, and otherwise; and what has been done thereupon.

And the same were delivered in at the Clerk's Table. And the Titles thereof read.

And the same are as follow; viz.

The said ABSTRACT.

December 1697. Several Advices received by the East India Company from their Factors in the East Indies, relating to Piracies in those Parts; as also a Letter from Captain Warren, Commander of One of his Majesty's Ships of War, lately returning from thence, dated the Twenty-eighth of November 1697; giving an Account of the Pirates at St. Marie's, near Madagascar; were now communicated to the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

1697. January. And upon Consideration of the Means to root these Pirates out of those Seas, the East India Company proposed to the said Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, That Two or Three Fourth Rate Frigates might be sent in March next for that End.

Whereupon Captain Warren being sent for, he gave an Account of the Strength of the Pirates Ships at St. Marie's; and proposed Four Ships of War as sufficient to suppress them.

February. The East India Company presented to the said Commissioners some further Advices about Pirates, which they had received from their Factors in the East Indies; unto which they added, That the Pirates are so numerous in those Seas, that the Company is obliged to be at the Charge of sending Convoys with the Mogull's Ships from Port to Port.

They also sent to the Board Mr. Henry Watson, who gave in a Narrative of the Taking of Two Coasting Vessels in the East Indies, in August 1696, belonging to the East India Company's Servants there, by a Vessel called John and Rebecca, commanded by one John Hoar.

And they sent further some other Extracts of the Letters they had received from their Factors in the East Indies, relating to the Pirates there; dated Fort St. George, the 19th of January 1697; Bombay, the 11th of April 1697; and Bombay, the 28th of April 1697.

The said Company also sent to the Board one John Finlinson a Seaman, who had been at St. Marie's; who gave an Account of that Island; of Baldrige, and other Pirates, being settled there, and of their furnishing the Pirates that came into that Island with Provisions.

And upon Notice, That one Mr. Fullerton could give some Informations in these Matters, he was sent for; and his Account agreed, in Substance, with that of John Finlinson aforenamed.

1698. July. Captain Warren, being now appointed to command some Ships of War in an Expedition against the Pirates in the East Indies, presented to the said Commissioners missioners a Memorial relating thereunto: In which, among other things, he desired, That a Fifth Rate Frigate might be added to the Ships already appointed: And introduced to the Board one John Blacon; who gave an Account of several Pirates in the East Indies, particularly at St. Marie's; and of several Piracies committed in those Seas.

August. Several Papers were now received from the East India Company, about Piracies committed by Captain Kidd in the East Indies.

The said Account of what Captain Kidd has done abroad, and what has been done thereupon.

The East India Company having, about the Month of August 1698, communicated, to the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, some Informations they had received from their Factors in the East Indies, of Piracies committed by Captain Kidd; circular Letters were thereupon sent to all the American Plantations, by the Secretary of State, giving Notice thereof; and strictly commanding all the Governors of the said Plantations, by the Frigates there, and otherwise, to make Search for him; and to seize him, if he came within their Reach.

The First Advice received of Kidd's Return to America, was by a Letter from the President and Council of Nevis to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Vernon, dated the 18th of May 1699; wherein they write, That Kidd being returned from Madagascar, in a large Genouessee Vessel, of about 400 Tons, with 30 Guns, but leaky, and the Men much in Distress for want of Provisions, he had, about Twenty Days before their Writing, touched at Anguilla, a small Island under that Government, where he tarried about Four Hours; but, being refused Succour, sailed thence for the Island St. Thomas, belonging to the Crown of Denmark, and anchored off that Harbour Three Days; in which time he treated with them also for Relief; but the Governor absolutely denying him, he bore away further to Leeward; and, upon Advice thereof, the said President and Council of Nevis forthwith sent out his Majesty's Ship the Queenborough, then attending that Government, in Pursuit of him.

The said President and Council sent also afterwards to the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, the Information of one Peter Smith a Dutchman, and an Inhabitant of the Island of St. Thomas, dated at Nevis the 27th of June 1699; by which, and other Advices since received from the Earl of Bellomont, it appears, That Kidd sailed from St. Thomas for the Island of Mona, lying between Porto Rico and Hispaniola; and there meeting with one Bolton, of Antegoa, and one Burt, of St. Thomas's, he sold them several Goods, and sent Bolton to Curassaw to fetch him Provisions: Which being accordingly done, he bought of Bolton a Sloop, and therein laded the best of his own Goods, and sailed towards New York; leaving the said Bolton, with Seventeen or Eighteen Men, in Trust with the Ship Quedah Merchant, one of the Ships seized by the said Kidd in the East Indies, and the Goods left in her.

The next Advice received of him was from Colonel Quary, Judge of the Admiralty Court in Pensilvania, by Letters dated the Sixth of June; in which he writes, That Kidd was arrived in Delaware Bay, in a Sloop with about Forty Men, having with him a vast Treasure; and that he had sent his Boat on shore to the Horekills, where he was supplied with what he wanted; and from whence the People frequently went on board him.

After which it appears, by other Informations, That from thence he sailed into the Sound of New York, sending Word to his Friends at New York of his Arrival; and that he stopt at Gardner's Island, and there put several Bales of Goods on shore, as some also into a New York Sloop, then lying there; and landed others at Tarpavelin Cove; and that in Oyster Bay he took in one Emot, of New York, whom he carried along with him to Rhode Island, and there set him on shore.

Whilst Kidd staid there, or upon that Coast, Emot went to Boston to the Earl of Bellomont, telling him, That Kidd had left a great Moorish Ship he took in India, called the Quedah Merchant, in a Creek on the Coast of Hispaniola, with Goods to the Value of 30,000*l.*; though his Lordship writes, That, upon a Computation of the Particulars afterwards given in by Kidd, they were judged to be worth 70,000*l.*: And that he had bought a Sloop, in which he was come before to make his Terms; and had brought Goods with him in the said Sloop, which he believed would sell for about 10,000*l.* He said also, That Kidd was very innocent, and would make it appear, that his Men forced him; locking him up in the Cabin of the Adventure Gally, whilst they robbed Two or Three Ships; which he could prove by many Witnesses.

Hereupon the Earl of Bellomont answered Emot, That if Kidd could make his Innocency appear, he might safely come into that Port: And accordingly he wrote a Letter to Kidd, inviting him to come in; and assuring him, That if his Case was as clear as he, or Mr. Emot for him, had said, then he might safely come in thither; and made no Doubt but to obtain the King's Pardon for him.

This Letter his Lordship sent by one Campbell; and in Three or Four Days time, Campbell returned with Answer from Kidd, full of Protestations of his Innocency; and expressing his Design of bringing his Sloop into that Port.

Kidd came accordingly, and landed at Boston the First of July 1699; but, by his trifling Answers to the Earl of Bellomont and Council, upon several Examinations; by the Endeavours of his Friends Campbell and Livingstone to embezzle the Cargo on board the Sloop; by Intimation given of an intended Present; by Livingstone's peremptory Demand, That a Bond and Articles, which he has entered into as Security for Kidd, upon his undertaking this Expedition, should be discharged; and by his Threats, That unless those Securities were immediately given up, Kidd would never bring in the great Ship that he had left on the Coast of Hispaniola; his Lordship, finding it necessary to act more openly, caused Kidd, upon the 6th of July, to be seized, and committed to Prison.

This whole Matter was transacted by his Lordship, from first to last, with the Privy and Advice of the Council of the Massachusetts Bay: And then Commissioners were appointed to take care of the Sloop's Cargo, and to make Inventories thereof; and other Directions given, for securing any Part that could be found of the Goods which had been put ashore on that Coast.

Having done this, his Lordship's next Care was to fit out a Ship to look after the Quedah Merchant, and secure the Goods that might be found in her; but, before that could be done, he received an Account, viz. the 17th of the same Month of July, from one Captain Nicolas Evertse, That he had been at Curasaw, and saw several Sloops lading of the said Goods brought thither; and there understood, That the said Ship had been carried, by a Curassaw Master, into a Salt Lagoon in the Island of St. Helena, to the South-east of Hispaniola; and that, in coming from Curassaw, and touching at the said Island of St. Helena, on the 29th of the foregoing Month, he himself saw the said Ship, the Quedah Merchant, on Fire, and almost burnt down, there being then Two Sloops at that Place.

Kidd being thus secured, such of his Men as could be met with were seized also; and, by the Informations of some of them, who had been with him in the whole Voyage, it appears, That, about the Month of April 1696, he sailed in the Adventure Gally from Plymouth to New York; and, in his Way, took a French Prize, which he carried in with him.

From New York he sailed to Madera, thence to Bonavista and St. Jago, where he took in Provisions, and proceeded to Madagascar: After that, having sailed to and again, and touched in several Places, he cruised off the Kidd's Piracies.

Kidd's
Piracies.

the Babbs, at the Entrance of the Red Sea, in Expectation of Ships that might pass by; but effected nothing there.

Thence he sailed to Calicut; and, after Four or Five Days Stay, went a cruising upon that Coast; and there took a Ship of 150 Tons Burden, whereof the Master, and Three or Four Scamen, were Dutchmen, the rest Moors, laden with Cotton; which Ship he carried to Madagascar: This was done about May 1698.

Five Weeks after, he took the fore-mentioned Ship, the Quidah Merchant, of 400 Tons Burden, commanded by one Right an Englishman; having on Board Two Dutch Mates, and One French Gunner; but the main Number of the Crew were Moors; being in all about Ninety Persons.

Kidd carried the said Ship into St. Marie's, near Madagascar; and there unladed the Goods, and shared them with his Company, they being then about 115 Men; who had, one with another, Three or Four Bales apiece for his Share; and Kidd had Forty Shares for his Part: The Bales contained Callicoes, Romalls, Muslins, and some Silk, flowered, and striped, and plain.

After the Sharing of these Goods, Ninety of the Company left Kidd, and went aboard the Mocha Frigate, then lying at St. Marie's.

Kidd, and the Men that remained with him, carried their Goods again aboard the Quidah Merchant, and run the Adventure Gally on shore, she being very leaky, and set her on Fire; and, having procured some more Men at St. Marie's, came away in her for the West Indies, and arrived at Anguilla, as before-mentioned.

The Earl of Bellomont, in transmitting this Account of his Proceedings in relation to Kidd, gave further Intimation, at the same time, That he was not only fearful of the Escape of the Prisoners, having then before him fresh Example of the Escape of one Bradish, another Pirate, with great Suspicion of the Privy of the Gaoler; but also that there are no Laws in that Country for the Punishing of Piracy with Death; and that the People, in all these neighbouring Parts, are so favourable to Pirates, by reason of the Money they brought and dispersed amongst them, that there could be no Expectation of any Justice against them there.

Upon which Advice, their Excellencies the late Lords Justices sent One of his Majesty's Ships to fetch over Kidd, and other Pirates, in safe Custody; together with their Effects that had been seized, and the Evidences that might be useful towards their Conviction here; in order to their being tried and punished here, according to Law: But it happened, as is said, that the said Ship, having met with Storms at Sea, and suffered such Damage thereby, that she could not proceed, is lately returned into Portsmouth.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the Papers this Day delivered in at the Table, be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

East India
Company's Petitions.

Ordered, That a Copy of a Petition of the East India Company to the Lords Justices, of the 20th of August 1696; and of another to the Commissioners of the Admiralty, of the 26th of February 1696; be laid before this House To-morrow Morning.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Chester, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the River Dee was heretofore navigable for Ships and Vessels of considerable Burden, from the Sea to the City of Chester; but, for want of sufficient Banks and Fences on the Sides thereof, against the Flux and Reflux of the Sea, the Channel is become so various and incertain, that the Navigation to the said City is almost lost; for Recovery whereof, the Petitioners are willing to submit to a Tax on all LIME and Coal that shall be unladed in the said City: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to recover and preserve the Navigation of the said River.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Tho. Grosvenor and Mr. Shackerly do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of Thomas May, of Stoak next Nayland, in the County of Suffolk, Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, in 1687, did settle upon his late Wife Frances, deceased, divers Lands and Premises in Stoak aforesaid, for her Life; and, after, upon her Issue Male, and for raising Daughters Portions; Remainder in Fee to the Petitioner: That Frances left but One Daughter, who is now living; and the Petitioner hath agreed for the Purchase of other Lands in the said County, of greater Value, which is more for the Advantage of his Family: Therefore he prays, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill to enable the Petitioner to sell the Lands in Stoak aforesaid; and to convey the said other Lands, of greater Value, to the same Uses; he having the Consent of the Trustees of the said Settlement, and all others concerned, for so doing.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Conyers do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience in the City of Westminster, and the Liberties thereof, was, according to Order, read a First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Ordered, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Saturday Morning next, in a full House.

Sir George Rook, from the Commissioners of the Admiralty, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of what is due to the Seamen for Wages, both for the Ships to be paid off, and for the Recalls: And the same was read, and is as followeth; viz.

For Wages due the 30th of November last, to Seamen belonging to Ships to be paid off	£. 357,004
For Wages due on the Recalls to the 30th of November last	312,908
	<hr/> 669,212.

J. Bridgwater,

G. Rooke, Haversham,
Geo. Churchill, D. Mitchell.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Account be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Sir George Rooke also, from the Commissioners of the Admiralty, according to Order, presented the House a Copy of the Petition of the East India Company: And

East India
Company's Petitions respecting
Piracies.

East India Company's

Piracies.

And a Copy of the Minutes taken at the Admiralty Board upon the said Petition: And also,

A Copy of Sir Charles Hedges' Report upon the Petition of the East India Company, relating to the Commissions to take Pirates, &c.

And the Titles thereof were read.

And the said Petition, Minutes, and Report, are as follow:

The said Petition.

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England:

The humble Petition of the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading to the East Indies, Humbly sheweth,

That, of late years, great Numbers of vicious and ill-principled Men have set out several Ships, from Europe and the West Indies, on purpose to rob and seize the Ships of all Nations they can meet with in the Indian Seas; and, in pursuance of the said villainous Designs, have already committed so great Robberies and Outrages, that the Nations of those Parts, finding their Ships robbed, and Navigation interrupted, by Pirates under English Colours, and, in Truth, the greatest Part of them are Subjects of the Crown of England, have several times seized the Factories of your Petitioners, and put their Factors and Servants in Irons, to their great Detriment: Nor do your Petitioners yet know, whether the Mogul hath not seized all the Effects of your Petitioners in India, to make good the Damage his Subjects have sustained by the late Piracies committed by Every and others.

That your Petitioners have Advice, That several Ships are gone out, and more are fitting out, from our Plantations in the West Indies, on the same Designs; and, unless some Stop be put to these villainous Practices, your Petitioners have too great Reason to apprehend the Continuance of such Practices will so far exasperate the Indian Nations, that they will utterly destroy the Factors and Effects of your Petitioners, and totally forbid all Commerce between them and the English Nation.

That your Petitioners are, on their Parts, ready to do whatever they can to suppress their piratical Practices; nor will they spare any Cost effectually to put an End to these Violations of the Laws of all Nations, as far as they shall be enabled.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray, your Lordships would please to empower the Petitioners Ships and Officers to seize and take all Pirates infesting those Seas, within the Limits of the Company's Charter; and likewise to empower them to erect a Court of Admiralty in those Parts, to try and condemn such Pirates as they shall take; or in such other manner as your Lordships shall judge most effectual for suppressing and preventing the like Villainies in time to come.

And your Petitioners shall ever pray, &c.

Ro. Blackborne, Secretary.

2d March 94.

Received then, and read.

5 December 99. A true Copy,

J. Burchett.

The said Minutes taken at the Admiralty Office, 3d March 1694.

The Petition of the Governor and Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, read; praying, That their Ships and Officers may be empowered to seize and take all Pirates infesting the Seas within the Limits of the Company's Charter, &c.

Resolved, That the said Petition be referred to the Judge of the Admiralty; who is to report to us his Opinion therein.

15 ditto. The Petition of the East India Company, touching their being empowered to seize and take Pirates in the Indies, and erecting a Court of Admiralty there, together with Sir Charles Hedges' Opinion thereon, were read.

Sir Charles Hedges to attend the Board, touching his Vol. 13.

Report on the Petition of the East India Company, for erecting Courts of Admiralty there.

17 March. Sir Charles Hedges, Judge of the Admiralty, attended the Board; and acquainted them, That in case they do appoint a Vice Admiral at Bombay, or any other Place in the East Indies, he will thereby have Power to proceed against the Ships of such Pirates as shall be taken by the East India Company's Ships, seized on by the Powers given them by the Board, by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal of England, and to send home the Persons in Custody.

The said Report.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Charles Hedges to the Lords of the Admiralty, dated the 8th March 1696.

Having, according to your Lordships Order of the 4th Instant, considered the Petition of the East India Company, relating to Commissions to take Pirates, and the Establishing of a Court of Admiralty for proceeding against them in the East Indies; it is my humble Opinion, That the most regular Way will be, for your Lordships to take a Commission under the Great Seal of England, giving Power to the Lord Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord Admiral of England, by Name, and for the Time being, to grant Commissions to any of the Captains of the East India Company's Ships, for the taking of Ships of Pirates; wherein it may be expressed, What Parts or Shares the King shall think fit to reserve to himself, or bestow upon the Captors and Company.

And, to the end that legal Proceedings may be had in the East Indies, I humbly conceive, That your Lordships may be pleased to erect a Vice Admiral at Bombay, or any other Place that shall be thought expedient, in the same manner as is done in the West Indies; which being established by a Commission in the ordinary Form, that will be sufficient to empower such Vice Admiralty there, to proceed against Ships, as fully as any Vice Admiralty in England, or the High Court of Admiralty, can do: And, as to the Persons, I think there is no Doubt but they may be sent home in Custody: But, whether it will be fit to try them there for their Lives, considering the Statute 28 Hen. VIII. Chap. 15. I must crave Leave to submit to the Gentlemen learned in the common Laws of the Land, and your Lordships further Consideration.

5 December 1699. A true Copy,

J. Burchett.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition, Minutes, and Report, be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Mr. Speaker reported to the House, That he, with the House, having attended his Majesty, and presented their Address, his Majesty had been pleased to give a gracious Answer thereunto; which being long, and his Majesty's Voice low, he had, for preventing any Mistake, desired and obtained a Copy thereof; Which he read; and is as followeth; viz.

Answer to Address.

Gentlemen,

MY Parliaments have done so great things for me, and I have, upon all proper Occasions, expressed so great a Sense of their Kindness, and my Opinion has been so often declared, That the Happiness of an English King depends upon an intire good Correspondence between him and his Parliament, That it cannot seem strange for me to assure you, That no Persons have ever yet dared to go about to misrepresent to me the Proceedings of either House; Had I found any such, they would have immediately felt the highest Marks of my Displeasure: It is a Justice I owe, not only to my Parliaments, but to every one of my Subjects, to judge of them by their Actions; and this Rule I will steadily pursue. If any shall hereafter attempt to put me on other Methods, by Calumnies or Misrepresentations, they will not only fail of Success, but shall be looked upon, and treated by me, as my worst Enemies.

Gentlemen,

I am pleased to see, by your Address, That you have the same Thoughts of the great Advantages which will ensue to the Kingdom, from our mutual Confidence, as I expressed to both Houses at the Opening of this Session. I take very kindly the Assurance you give me, of using your utmost Care and Endeavour to prevent and discourage all false Rumours and Reports, reflecting upon Me, and my Government; and I faithfully promise you, That no Actions of mine shall give a just Ground for any Misunderstanding between me and my People.

Supply.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had agreed upon several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the said Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Thursday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Papers respecting Piracies.

Mr. Secretary Vernon, according to Order, presented to the House the Petition of the East India Company to the Lords Justices: And

An Extract out of the Lords Justices Minute Book: And

A Copy of a Letter from the Privy Council to the Governors of the Plantations, for Apprehending of Pirates, and Suppressing Piracy.

And the Titles thereof were read.

And the same were as follow; viz.

The said Petition.

To their Excellencies the Lords Justices of England.

May it please your Excellencies,

The Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading to the East Indies, having received a Letter, dated the 14th of August 96, from Mr. Yard, intimating, That there hath been Application made to your Excellencies, on behalf of One of the Persons that was on board the Ship Charles, alias Fancy, mentioned in your Excellencies last Proclamation, who, if he might have a Pardon, offers to come in, and discover his Knowledge in the whole Matter of the Piracy committed in India by the said Ship, and use his utmost Diligence for the Apprehending those other Pirates that were concerned on board the same; and to represent to your Excellencies, what we thought proper to be done in that Case; do humbly shew to your Excellencies, That there being Persons enough already in Custody, to prove the Matter of Fact, of which the rest stand accused; do therefore humbly conceive, with Submission to your Excellencies, That a Pardon to any other of the Criminals can be of no other Use, than upon the Terms in the said Proclamation mentioned; and the Government in India, where the Company's Affairs, occasioned by the horrid Villainies and Robberies committed by the said Pirates, are in a very deplorable Condition, being no otherwise to be satisfied, than by the Execution of Justice upon the Criminals.

And they do further humbly pray, That such of the Species of Gold, Silver and Jewels, as have already been, or shall hereafter be, seized in the Custody of any of the said Pirates, or of any other Persons, who cannot make a legal Title thereunto, may not be disposed of, but put into the Possession of the said Governor and Company, in order to be preserved for the Use of the Proprietors in India; that the Government there may see, That his Majesty here, as well as the said Company, have done their utmost Endeavours to seize the said Pirates, and to make Restitution to the Persons injured, as far as it is in their Power.

Signed by Order of the Governor and Company.

Ro. Blackburne, Secretary.

East India House,
20th Aug. 1696.

The said Extract, 20th Aug. 1696.

Present,

Lord Archbishop, Lord Steward,
Lord Privy Seal, Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Godolphin.

A Memorial, presented by the East India Company, against pardoning any of the Pirates, but such as should come in upon the Terms of the Proclamation; and, that what Money should be found belonging to the Pirates, might be put into their Hands, to be restored to the Owners in India.

Ordered, That it be brought to the Council, to be considered there.

The said Letter.

At the Council Chamber in Whitehall, the 27th Aug. 1696.

Present,

Their Excellencies the Lord Justices in Council.
Lord Keeper, Earl of Mountague,
Lord Privy Seal, Earl of Tankerville,
Duke of Shrewsbury, Mr. Vice-Chamberlain,
Lord Chamberlain, Mr. Chancellor of Exchequer,
Lord Godolphin, Sir Henry Goodrick,
Mr. Boscawen.

After our very hearty Commendations: Whereas their Excellencies the Lords Justices of England have received Information, from the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading to the East Indies, That Henry Every, alias Bridgman, with divers other Persons, English and Foreigners, having run away with the Ship Charles the Second, alias the Phancy, from the Port of Corunna in Spain, had committed several Acts of Piracy in the Seas of India and Persia; and, having afterwards left the said Ship at the Island of Providence, had shared the Plunder so by them gotten, and dispersed themselves: Their Excellencies have thereupon thought fit, by Proclamation in his Majesty's Name, to require all his Majesty's Admirals, Commanders, and other Officers at Sea, and all Governors and Commanders, and other Officers whatsoever, in his Majesty's Plantations, to secure and apprehend the said Henry Every, alias Bridgman, and other Persons named in the said Proclamation, and such others as were with them in the said Ship; a Copy of which Proclamation you will herewith receive. And whereas Information has been likewise given, That divers Pirates and Sea Robbers have, of late Years, gone from several Parts of his Majesty's Plantations in America to the Seas of India and Persia, and other remote Parts, upon the like piratical Designs; and that some of them have returned home again, and dispersed themselves in his Majesty's Plantations, with great Quantities of Gold, and other Plunder; We do hereby, in his Majesty's Name, strictly require and command you, forthwith, upon Receipt hereof, to cause the said Proclamation to be published within your Government: And that, for the Suppressing, as much as may be, all such evil Practices for the future, whereby the Trade of his Majesty's good Subjects in foreign Parts may be otherwise greatly disturbed, We do hereby, in his Majesty's Name, strictly charge and require you, and all his Majesty's Officers and loving Subjects, within your Government, to take all possible Care, and use all due Means, for the Seizing and Apprehending all such Pirates and Sea Robbers, and such as may reasonably be suspected for the same, either by reason of the great Quantities of Gold and Silver of foreign Coins they usually have with them, or by other probable Circumstances; and to cause them to

to be streightly imprisoned; and their Ships, Goods, and Plunder, to be kept in safe Custody; until, upon returning a full Account unto us of the said Persons, their Ships, Goods, and Plunder, with the Evidences relating to them, his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known and signified concerning them: And so we bid you very heartily farewell.

From the Council Chamber at Whitchall, the 27th Day of August 1696.

Your very loving Friends,
Romney, Tankerville,
Pere, Bertie, Ch. Mountague,
H. Goodrick, J. Boscawen.

This Letter, so dated and signed, was sent to the Governors of his Majesty's Plantations following: Barbadoes, Nexis, St. Christopher's, &c. Virginia, Maryland, New York, Jamaica, Massachusetts Bay, New Hampshire, Bermudas or Summer Islands, Lucas or Bahama Islands, Carolina, Pensilvania, East and West New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition, and Extract, and Letter, be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Dee Navigation.

MR. Shakerly, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to enable the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Chester to recover, and preserve, the Navigation upon the River Dee: And the same was received.

The Bill was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read Second time.

Supply.

Mr. Conyers, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolutions of the said Committee; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Sum of 76,383 l. 5 s. 4 d. now remaining in the Exchequer, upon the Account of the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage granted to his Majesty for Five Years, from the 25th Day of December 1694, together with what shall arise from the same Fund, to the 25th Day of December next, shall be applied towards Payment of Seamen's Wages.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That whosoever shall advance or lend a Sum, not exceeding 220,000 l. for the further paying Seamen's Wages, shall be repaid the same, with Interest at Five Pound per Centum per Annum, out of the First Aid to be granted this Session.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Sum of 76,383 l. 5 s. 4 d. now remaining in the Exchequer, upon the Account of the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage granted to his Majesty for Five Years, from the 25th Day of December 1694, together with what shall arise from the same Fund to the 25th Day of December next, shall be applied towards Payment of Seamen's Wages.

The Second Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That whosoever shall advance or lend a Sum, not exceeding 220,000 l. for the further paying Seamen's Wages, shall be repaid the same, with Interest at Five Pounds per Cent. per Annum, out of the First Aid to be granted this Session.

A Petition of Richard Nichols, and others, on behalf of themselves and others, lately disbanded out of his Majesty's Regiment of Foot Guards, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have, with all imaginable Submission, applied to their Officers, and given them their Accounts of what is due to the Petitioners, pursuant to an Act of the last Session of Parliament to enable Soldiers to exercise Trades, and to oblige their Officers to make up such Accounts; but their Officers refuse to make up such Accounts: And One of their Officers, upon shewing him an Act made in 1692, threw it away in great Disdain, bidding the Petitioners go to their Parliament to right them; and speaking unseemly Words against this House; which the Petitioners are ready to prove: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

And it is referred to Sir Owen Buckingham, Sir Just. Isham, Sir Tho. Davall, Mr. Thursby, Mr. Eyres, Sir John Bolles, Mr. Barnardiston, Sir Cha. Hotham, Colonel Granville, Mr. Mountstevens, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Nicholson, Mr. Hysham, Mr. Moor, Mr. Vernon, Sir Ja. Houlton, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Gourdon, Sir Fra. Windham, Mr. Keckwich, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Rudge, Mr. How, Mr. Hancock, Sir Edw. Hussey, Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Harcourt, Mr. Jolliffe, Sir Barth. Shower, Sir Bryan Stapleton, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Whitchurch, Mr. Palmer: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are empowered to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Ordered, That the Call of the House be adjourned until Monday Morning next: And that such Members as shall not then attend be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

Ordered, That all Knights of Shires be added to the Committee, to whom it is referred to inspect the Commissions of the Peace, and Commissions to Deputy Lieutenants, as they now stand, and as they were for Seven Years last past.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Colonel Granville took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Colonel Granville acquainted the House, That the said Committee had sat; and had directed him to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

MR. Eyres, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell.

Blackwell-hall Cloth Market.

well-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there: And the same was received.

The Bill was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Tuesday Morning next.

Answer to Address.

The Earl of Ranelagh acquainted the House, That he having presented to his Majesty their Address, That he would be pleased to issue his Royal Proclamation for the Suppressing of all Vice and Immorality, and for putting the Laws in Execution relating thereunto, his Majesty was pleased thereupon to say, That he would speedily comply with the Desires of this House therein.

Army Arrears.

A Petition of Reuben Sooley, and others, disbanded Soldiers of his Majesty's Regiment of Foot Guards, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Colonel Hopson intrusted Lieutenant Upcott with the Management of the said Regiment; who received the Petitioners Subsistence Money, and applied it to his own Use, amounting to 95 l.: For Redress wherein, they applied to the Court Martial at the Horse Guards, which ordered the Petitioners but 45 l. 10 s. out of 91 l. due to Lieutenant Upcott, of which they have not yet received One Penny; so that they are reduced to very great Hardships: And praying the House to order the Payment of their Subsistence, which has been received, and detained from them, these Four Years past.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Grants from the Crown.

Ordered, That Mr. Lowndes do lay before this House an Account of all Grants made since the 18th Day of March last; together with the Petitions on which the same were made; and, if the same be in Trustees Names, for whom the same were made.

Ditto.

Ordered, That the Auditor of the Duchy of Lancaster do lay before this House an Account of all Grants since the 27th Day of March last; together with the Petitions on which the same were made; and, if the same be in Trustees Names, for whom the same were made.

Incomes and Issues of Revenue.

Ordered, That an Account be laid before this House of the Incomes and Issues of the Revenue for the last Year.

Officers under the Crown, and their Salaries.

Ordered, That a List be laid before this House of all Officers employed under the Crown; and of their Salaries, both those paid out of the Civil List, and also out of the Monies appropriated.

Excise Penalties, &c.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of Excise do lay before this House an Account of all Penalties and Forfeitures received for Ten Years last past; and how the same have been disposed of.

Customs, Penalties, &c.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of the Customs do lay before this House an Account of what Penalties and Forfeitures have been received for Ten Years last past; and how the same have been disposed of.

Supply.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That an Account be laid before this House of the Deficiencies not already provided for; and also of the Debts to the Navy, Ordnance, and Forces.

And an Amendment being proposed to be made, by adding "and for Transport Service;"

The same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That an Account be laid before this House of the Deficiencies not already provided for; and also of the Debts to the Navy, Ordnance, and Forces, and for Transport Service.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Commissioners of Excise may lay before the House a State of the several Branches of the Revenue of Excise of Beer, Ale, and other exciseable Liquors; how appropriated; for what time granted; and how much were the gross and net Produces of the same, severally, for the Year ending at Midsummer last.

And an Amendment being proposed to be made, by adding "and so forward to Michaelmas last;"

The same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of Excise do lay before this House a State of the several Branches of the Revenue of Excise of Beer, Ale, and other exciseable Liquors; how appropriated; for what time granted; and how much were the gross and net Produces of the same, severally, for the Year ending at Midsummer last, and so forward to Michaelmas last.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Commissioners of Excise may lay before the House an Account how the Expences and Management of the respective Branches of the Revenue of Excise are now charged.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of Excise do lay before this House an Account how the Expences of Management of the respective Branches of the Revenue of Excise are now charged.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Commissioners of Excise may lay before the House an Account of the Produce of the Malt Duty; and what is now standing out in Arrear; and the Charge of the Management of that Duty.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of Excise do lay before this House an Account of the Produce of the Malt Duty; and what is now standing out in Arrear; and the Charge of the Management of that Duty.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Commissioners of the Customs may lay before the House an Account of what Bonds are standing out upon the Subsidy of Tonage and Poundage, granted to his Majesty for Five Years ending the 25th Day of December next.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of the Customs do lay before this House an Account of what Bonds are standing out upon the Subsidy of Tonage and Poundage, granted to his Majesty for Five Years ending 25th Day of December next.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

PRAYERS.

ORDERED, That Lamps be set up every Night upon the Stairs to this House, and in the Passages, and other convenient Places, for the better Accommodation of the Members in their Attendance upon Committees.

Mr. Conyers, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to enable Thomas May Gentleman to sell Lands in the County of Suffolk, which were settled upon his First and Second Marriages; and to convey other Lands, of a greater Value, in the same County, to the same Uses: And the same was received.

The Bill was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of Edward Williams and Thomas Oldershaw, in behalf of themselves and all others, that served in the Regiment of Horse commanded by Colonel Langston, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, for the Two last Sessions, the Petitioners attended upon the House for an Account and Clearance of their Arrears, which their said Colonel had actually passed, as appears by a Discharge in the Office to 1st of April 1692; and, notwithstanding the Act of Parliament to oblige Officers to account with their Soldiers, yet Colonel Langston refuses so to do; declaring, he will pay nothing but what this House shall order; and keeps in Ireland, on purpose to defraud the Petitioners, who are not in a Condition to prosecute at Law for their just Dues: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Thomas Ryder, Thomas Warner, and others, for and on account of themselves, and the rest of the Soldiers, Horse, Foot, and Dragoons, who were lately disbanded out of his Majesty's Service, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That notwithstanding the late Act of Parliament for Relief of the Army, their Agent, Robert Griffith, and several other Officers and Agents, have absolutely refused to state their Accounts: That the Petitioners can prove great Sums to be in Arrear to the whole Army, and great Abuses, to their utter Ruin, unless relieved by this House: And praying the House to inquire into their Grievances, and give them speedy Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do examine and consider of the Case of the Soldiers in general, and appoint a Time for that Purpose; and report their Opinion therein to the House, what they conceive necessary to be done for their Relief.

A Petition of many of the Inhabitants of the Towns of Deptford and Chatham, in the County of Kent, many of which are Innholders and Victuallers, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the Beginning of the late War, the Petitioners entertained great Numbers of sick and wounded Seamen, by Order of the Commissioners appointed for that Purpose, at 12d. per Day, promising the same should be allowed out of their Pay; and the Hospitals being then full, the Petitioners, by reason of such Subsistence, have run themselves in Debt for Three or Four Years together: And new Commissioners have discharged the Debts of the sick and wounded Seamen at all Ports of this Kingdom, from the 1st of

VOL. 13.

July 1698, to the 30th of December 1699; but the former Commissioners are in Arrear from the Year 1695, to the last of June 1698; alleging, That they have not Money to discharge the same; which make the Creditors of the Petitioners very severe with them, who have made away with all they had; and others have been forced to abscond from their Habitations, for Want of what is due to them: And praying the Consideration of the House, in order to their Relief.

Ordered, That as well the late as the present Commissioners for sick and wounded Seamen do lay before this House, a State of the Debt due upon Account of that Service.

A Petition of the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for preventing the Exportation of Wool, &c. was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, being appointed by Act of Parliament, without any Fund, did, in 1698, take upon them, at their own Charge, to settle Officers in all the Maritime and Northern Counties; who did engage themselves in the said Service, without any Salaries, in Hopes their good Works would recommend them to future Consideration: That they acted therein with good Success, and made many considerable Seizures, and gained divers Informations against notorious Offenders, and became more formidable to them, than other Officers formerly appointed for that Purpose: But for Want of Encouragement the Officers have found Means to raise such powerful Interests against the said Officers, that they have been put under all the Difficulties imaginable; sometimes their Seizures taken from them by open Force; sometimes by Replevin; and sometimes committed to Prison by Justices of the Peace, upon frivolous Pretences, when they have only acted in the Execution of their Offices: Of which the Petitioners being sensible, they petitioned his Majesty for a competent Supply to carry on the said Work; who referred it to the Lords of the Treasury: But the Petitioners could get no Report from them, and despair of getting any Assistance from that Board; so that, without the Aid of this House, their Officers, who have been at great Expence, and contracted great Debts, must be inevitably ruined; neither are they able to raise Money to condemn divers Parcels of Wool they have now under Seizure; nor to prosecute the Offenders: That, if the Petitioners were encouraged, they believe they can do much more, towards suppressing the Exportation of Wool, than any other Officers heretofore employed in that Business; there having been many Corruptions, and remiss Practices, in the subordinate Officers, to the Encouragement of Offenders: And that the Petitioners, proposing no Benefit to themselves, but for the common Good, hope, That if the House shall think fit to grant them some other Powers, and enable them to support their Officers, they shall give such Satisfaction for suppressing the said unlawful Practices, as that this House may have no more Occasion of thinking of other Methods for the suppressing the like Mischiefs for the future: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for that Purpose; and for reimbursing their Officers what they have expended in the said Service.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to consider, what has been done, upon the former Laws, against the Exportation of Wool, and for encouraging the Woollen Manufactures; and to report the same, with their Opinion of what may be necessary to be further done.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do examine what Proceedings have been upon the Commission in the said Petition mentioned; and report their Opinion, How far it is fit the Act, the said Commission is grounded upon, ought to be repealed, or made more effectual; and that all the Members that serve for the Counties of Southampton, Suffolk, and Cornwall, be added to the said Committee.

Sir Richard Cocks, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all

M

Pretences

Defective Titles.

Lamps to be placed on the Stairs.

May's Estate.

Army Arrears.

Ditto.

Sick and Wounded Seamen.

Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

Great
Election.

A Petition of Richard Robinson Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That at the Election of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincolne, in the room of Sir Edward Aiscough, deceased, the Petitioner, Sir Thom. Barnardiston, and Captain Tho. Viner, stood Candidates; and by treating, bribing, and many illegal Practices used by Mr. Viner, and his Agents, to procure Votes for him, he was returned as duly chosen; otherwise the Petitioner had been returned; who read the Act against Expences in open Court, at the Election; and charged the Voters there with Breach thereof; and none of them denied the same: Therefore the Petitioner prays, That the Merits of the said Election may be heard at the Bar of the House; or otherwise, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Importing Silks.

A Petition of the Bailiffs, Wardens, and Assistants, of the Company of Weavers, London, on behalf of themselves and Trade, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That raw Silk from Turky, being chiefly the Product of our Woollen Manufactures, and Stuffs mixt with Wool and Silk, and Silks, exported, having, by divers Acts of Parliament, been encouraged, the Manufacturers are become very numerous, and have attained to such Perfection therein, that they equalize most Nations; and, till of late Years, by the vast Quantities of East India, Persia, and China, wrought Silks and Stuffs, imported, are ruined, comfortably maintained their numerous Families and Dependencies; many ingenious Artists, who were a Help to others, being fallen to the Parish wherein they live; and divers have been forced to go into Ireland, and foreign Parts, for their Subsistence; so that the Petitioners apprehend, That the Weaving Trade will, in a short time, be wholly lost, unless some speedy Stop be put to the Home Consumption of the said foreign wrought Goods: And praying the House to consider their deplorable Condition, and to grant them such Relief as the House shall think meet.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

A Petition of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants, of Importing the Company of Silk-throwers of the City of London, was Silks. presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners Trade chiefly consists in Throwing raw Silks, and preparing them for the Weavers, whose Trade is very much decayed, by reason of the Home Consumption of the Abundance of wrought Silk and Stuffs imported from India, and other Parts; and, by consequence, the Petitioners Trade, which was formerly computed to employ above 40,000 People, is in Hazard of being lost, to the Ruin of those Thousands; who are, for the most Part, reduced to the utmost Extremity: And praying, That some Provision be made for preventing the Home Consumption, if not the Importation, of those foreign-wrought Silks and Stuffs.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Mr. Godolphin, from the Commissioners of the Customs, Customs. according to Order, presented to the House an Account of the Gross Receipt of the Customs and Impositions in London and Out Ports, from Michaelmas 1686, to Michaelmas 1688: And also,

An Account of Duties received for Goods exported in 1687, and 1688; and in 1698, and in 1699: And also,

An Account of the Customs for Two Years, from Michaelmas 1697, to Michaelmas 1699: And also,

The Return of the said Commissioners, pursuant to the Orders of the House of the 29th and 30th of November last.

And the Titles thereof were read.

PRAYERS.

Hepwood's
Marriage
Settlement.

A PETITION of Thomas Hopwood Gentleman, and Elizabeth his Wife, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That, upon the Marriage aforesaid, the Petitioner Thomas did settle his Manor of Milton, in Herefordshire, upon himself for Life, without Impeachment of Waste ; Remainder, to his Wife for Life ; Remainder, to their First and all other Sons, and their Heirs Male ; and for want of Issue Male, to Trustees, to raise Portions for Daughters for 500 Years : That the Petitioners have Two Sons, and Two Daughters ; but by reason of the Limitation of the Term of Years, being after the Limitation to the Issue in Tail Male, the Trust cannot commence, nor any Money be raised to make Provision for younger Children : And praying Leave, may be given to bring in a Bill to rectify the said Mistake in the said Settlement, so as Provision may be made for their younger Children.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition : And, That Mr. Thomas Harley and the Lord Coningsby do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Westminster
Small Debts.

A Petition of several of the Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Margaret's, within the City of Westminster, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That the Petitioners find by the Votes, That a Bill is brought into this House for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience in the City of Westminster : That the Petitioners conceive, One chief Cause of the Increase of their Poor arises from the many vexatious Suits for Debts under Forty Shillings : And praying, That the said Bill may pass, it being an effectual Remedy to prevent the like Mischiefs.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Housholders, Inhabitants of the City and Liberties of Westminster, in behalf of themselves, and many others, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That the Petitioners observe by the Votes, That there is a Bill depending in this House for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience in the said City and Liberties, for determining Debts under Forty Shillings ; which Bill will be a great Ease to the said Inhabitants : And praying, That the said Bill may pass.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Bath, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, would employ great Numbers of poor People, in those adjacent Parts ; and be a Nursery for his Majesty's Sea Service ; and be a means to convey ponderous Commodities by Water ; and also bring down the Dearness of Provisions, complained of by all Persons that yearly frequent the Bath : And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for making the said River navigable from Bristol to Bath ; the Petitioners being willing, at their own Charge, to undertake the same.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition : And that Mr. Blathwaite and Mr. Popham do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretence of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, was, according to Order, read the First time.

Ordered, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Monday Morning next.

A Petition of divers Persons, on behalf of themselves and others, unto whom are now due great Sums of Money upon the Credit of the late Malt Lottery Act, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That it is provided by the said Act, That if the Monies arising by the Duties upon Malt should not amount to the net Sum of 1,515,000*l.* before the 29th of September 1699 ; That then the Deficiency should be made good out of the First Aid to be granted in the then next Session of Parliament : That the said 29th of September is elapsed, and there is a great Deficiency of the said 1,515,000*l.* : And praying, That the House will make good the Deficiency in such manner as is mentioned in the said Act.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Secretary Vernon, by his Majesty's Command, presented to the House a State of the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark.

And the same was read ; and is as followeth ; viz.

The late Duke of Holstein being dispossessed of his Country by the late King of Denmark, in the Year 1684 ; he was restored to it again by the Treaty of Altena, concluded the 20th of June 1689.

The third Article of the said Treaty takes notice, That the Island of Femeren, with the Lands and Baillages of Steinhorst, Tremsbittel, and Trittau, were mortgaged to the King of Denmark ; and it was insisted on, That they should be restored to the Duke, free of all Incumbrances : And, by the said Article, the King of Denmark agrees to the immediate Restitution of the Baillage of Trittau ; but, as to the Island of Femeren, with the Baillages of Tremsbittel, and Steinhorst, it appearing, That the King of Denmark could not dispose of them, since they were in the Possession of his Brother, Prince George of Denmark.

That there might be no Obstruction, upon that Account, to the Settlement of Peace in those Parts ; the Mediators took upon themselves to find out the Means, whereby the Prince of Denmark should have Satisfaction given him for his Mortgage, without having any Recourse for it to his Brother : The said Mediators did likewise undertake to procure the Prince of Denmark's Consent, That the said Island and Baillages should be restored to the Duke of Holstein, clear of all Debts and Demands.

The Benefit of the said Mortgages was given to Prince George

George of Denmark, by his Father's Will; and, upon his Marriage with the Princess, they were settled upon the Issue of that Marriage.

The Execution of the Treaty of Altena stuck, for some time, at the Performance of this Article; and a War was just ready to break out between Sweden and Denmark, which would have involved all the neighbouring Countries, if his Majesty had not prevented it, by engaging the Prince of Denmark to deliver up the said Island and Baillages, upon his Majesty's Promises, That he would take care to see that Debt discharged.

This Transaction passed thro' the Hands of the Earl of Nottingham, then Secretary of State; who informed his Majesty, of the great Deference the Prince shewed to whatever his Majesty thought necessary for the public Good; and, That he was very willing to rely on the Assurances his Majesty had given him for his Security; and accordingly he signed the Instrument for the delivering up the said Places, as soon as required: Whereupon the Treaty had its full Effect, and the Troubles of the North were appeased, to the great Advantage of the common Alliance, which was very much strengthened by the Troops of those Princes: But it still remained, to adjust what was due to the Prince of Denmark; which was referred to a Negotiation at the Hague, that was not concluded till July 1691. The Agent for the Prince made a Demand of above 400,000 Rixdollars, as justly due to him; but it was moderated to 340,000 Rixdollars; amounting to 85,000 l. Sterling.

His Majesty had considered, That, this, being an Agreement made for the publick Good, ought not to be borne by England only; which the States General were likewise convinced of, and were willing to pay one Fourth Part of the Sum; and thought the Emperor, and some other Princes, ought to pay another Fourth Part: But, after the ready Compliance the Prince of Denmark had shewn, his Majesty did not think it proper, That he should be left to solicit any Part of his Payment from the States, or those other Princes; but thought fit to take that Part upon himself.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, take the State of the said Debt into Consideration.

Supply.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker leit the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made a further Progress in the Matter to them referred; and had directed him to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

Lune, 11° die Decembris;

PRAYERS.

Westminster
Small Debts.

ORDERED, That the Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience in the City of Westminster, and the Liberties thereof, be read a Second time upon Saturday Morning next, in a full House.

Dorrell's
Claim.

A Petition of John Dorrell Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner complained to this House the last Session, That Colonel Collumbine would not pay the Petitioner what was due to him for his Service, as an Ensign, in his Regiment, Vol. 13.

and for Money lent the Regiment; which was referred to a Committee; before whom the said Colonel promised to pay the Petitioner; notwithstanding which, he hath not yet done it, though he has long since received the Money from his Majesty: And praying Relief in the Premises.

And the House being informed, That Colonel Collumbine was in Ireland;

Ordered, That the Lord Conningsby do acquaint the said Colonel Collumbine with the said Petition; and that, in case he do not take care to pay the said Money forthwith, That this House will proceed upon the said Petition.

A Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Turner*, Mr. Popham, Colonel Granville, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Winnington, Mr. Blofeld; and all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe: And they are to meet To-morrow, at Four a Clock in the Afternoon, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Mr. Lowndes, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of the Incomes and Issues of the publick Revenues from Michaelmas 1698, to Michaelmas 1699.

Incomes and Issues of the Revenue.

And the Title thereof was read.

Ordered, That the said Account do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

The Account is in a Book by itself.

The House was called over, according to Order:

Call of the House.

And afterwards, the Names of such as made Default to appear, were again called over; and several of them were excused; some upon Account of Sickness in the Country; and others, in Town; and others, upon Account of very extraordinary Occasions.

And several were not excused of their Attendance, upon the Question severally put upon them; viz. Sir Edmund Denton Baronet, James Buller Esquire, Henry Mannaton Esquire, Wm. Harris Esquire, Nathanael Nappier Esquire, Henry Henley Esquire, Tobias Jenkins Esquire, John Aislaby Esquire, Jonathan Jennings Esquire, John Bright Esquire, and John Machell Esquire.

And the House having before ordered, That such Members as did not attend, upon the Call thereof, should be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms;

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, to take the said Sir Edmund Denton Baronet, James Buller Esquire, Henry Mannaton Esquire, William Harris Esquire, Nathanael Nappier Esquire, Henry Henley Esquire, Tobias Jenkins Esquire, John Aislaby Esquire, Jonathan Jennings Esquire, John Bright Esquire, and John Machell Esquire, into his Custody, according to the said Order, for not attending their Service in Parliament.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

PRAYERS.

Hopwood's
Marriage
Settlement.

MR. Harkley, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for rectifying a Mistake in the Marriage Settlement of Thomas Hopwood Gentleman on Elizabeth his Wife; in order to raise Portions for younger Children, and to pay Debts: And the same was received, and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Ordered, That Mr. Bright, in Custody of the Serjeant

Ordered, That the Constables in waiting do take care there be no Gaming, or other Disorders, in Westminster-hall, during the Sitting of Parliament; and that there be no Annoyance by Chairmen, or otherwise, thereabouts.

Mr. Lowndes, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of the Deficiencies not already provided for.

And the Title thereof was read.

And the said ACCOUNT is as followeth; viz.

In the Session of Parliament holden on the 22nd of November 1695, several Duties on Low Wines were granted for Five Years, from Lady-day 1696, with a Clause of Credit not exceeding 70,000 l. at several Rates of Interest; viz. 6 l. per Cent. per Ann. for the First 40,000 l.; and 7 l. per Cent. per Ann. for the Residue; whereupon there was borrowed at the Exchequer the Sum of 69,959 l. 16 s. 6 d.; and there hath been repaid of the Principal Money, besides Interest, 39,760 l.; and there remains unpaid of the principal Sum 30,199 l. 16 s. 6 d.: The Term will end at Lady-day 1701, and then, by Estimation, this Fund will be deficient - -

Memorandum,

Memorandum, There is a Clause, Page 453. That if the Malt Duties did not produce into the Exchequer, before the 20th of April 98, the Sum of 800,000*l.* then the Deficiency to make up 800,000*l.* should be supplied out of the First Aid to be granted after the 20th April 1698; and if the Malt Duties before the 29th of September 1699, with the Money in the mean time to be supplied as aforesaid, should not amount to 1,515,000*l.* then so much as would make up 1,515,000*l.* should be made good out of the First Aid to be granted after the 29th of September 1699.

In the Session of Parliament holden by Prorogation on the 3d of December 1697, a Quarterly Poll for One Year was granted to his Majesty; and by a Clause of Credit thereupon, the Sum of 500,000*l.* hath been borrowed at 7*l.* per Cent. for the First 250,000*l.* and 8*l.* per Cent. for the remaining 250,000*l.*: This Poll, by Estimate, will make about 323,469*l.* 16*s.* 7*d.* And then there will be wanting, for Principal, besides Interest

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Account be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of Doctor Robert Woodward, John Pain, and Wingfeild Brockwell, in behalf of themselves, and several others concerned in the Undertaking for making the River Avon navigable, from Christ Church in the County of Southampton, to the City of New Sarum in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the 16th and 17th Car. 2di, and by several Commissions under the Great Seal of England, constituted Commissioners for making the said River navigable, and to receive the Advantages thereby; but the Petitioners meet with great Difficulties in executing the Powers, and recovering the Penalties, in the said Act, by reason of several Defects therein: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for making the said Act more effectual.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Smith, Mr. Jervoise, and Mr. Eyre, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of Thomas Earl of Eimerick of the Kingdom of Ireland, was presented to the House.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the Irish Forfeitures do give an Account to this House, pursuant to the Act passed the last Session.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

A Petition of Jacob Massey, and others, Frenchmen, and Merchant Jewellers of the City of Paris, in the Kingdom of France, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners intrusted one Feiting, a Dutchman, with 700 Pounds worth of Diamonds, to be wrought and polished; but Feiting ran away with the Diamonds, and the Petitioners got him arrested in London: After which Feiting turned himself, by Habeas Corpus, to the Fleet; from whence Mr. Ford, the Warden, let him voluntarily escape beyond Seas, for 20 Guineas, as informed; so that, though the Petitioner Massey, by a Writ of Inquiry, hath recovered 310*l.* Damages, he cannot charge Feiting in Execution: and praying Relief against the Warden of the Fleet.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom it is referred to inspect the Journals of the last Session, relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That the said Committee have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Ordered, That a Report be made from the said Committee of any Matters before them, as the same shall be dispatched from time to time.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of John Armstrong, and others, in behalf of themselves, and others, reduced out of the Honourable Brigadier Langston's Regiment of Horse since the happy Conclusion of the Peace, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, upon the said Reducement, were intitled to their Horses, or the Value of them, by virtue of his Majesty's Order; but their Officers have kept them, without any Consideration; although many of the Petitioners brought their own Horses into the Service: That their Officers have also stopped 10 or 11*l.* a Man, per Ann. out of their Subsistence during the Wars; and notwithstanding a late Act of Parliament to compel the Officers to account with their Soldiers, they will not give the Petitioners any Account: And praying some further Relief in the Premises; Brigadier Langston, and his Officers, being in Ireland.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of

Richard Nicholl's, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

The House being acquainted, That Mr. Bennet, Auditor of the Duchy of Lancaster, attended at the Door;

He was called in; and, at the Bar, presented to the House an Account of all Grants in the said Duchy since the 27th Day of March last; together with the Petitions on which the same were made.

And then he withdrew.

And the Title thereof was read.

And the Account is as followeth; viz.

10th of October last.

In the County of Essex, to the Earl of Dorset, his Heirs and Assigns;

The Fee-farm Rent of the Manor of High Easter - - - - - } 85 8 9½

Whereof nothing remains to the King.

These Two Grants, to the Earl of Dorset, were not inrolled before me till the 23d of September and 23d of November last; and therefore were not inserted in my former Account to this Honourable House.

This,

This, pursuant to an Order of the Honourable House of Commons, dated 7th December instant, is humbly presented, per Jo. Bennett, Auditor.

The said Petition; viz.

To the Right Honourable the Earl of Stamford, Chancellor of his Majesty's Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, and One of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council;

The humble Petition of John Bennett Esquire, Humbly sheweth,

That there are several Cottages, and small Parcels of Land, and other Premises, under small Rents, in several Counties, within the said Duchy and County Palatine, which have been out of Lease for some time; and being of small Value, nobody will be at the Charge of passing Leases thereof; by Reason of the double Stamp, and other Charges in passing thereof; and if some Care be not taken to let the same in time, those Rents may be lost, and the Premises concealed, to his Majesty's Loss and Damage thereby: To prevent which, And for that your Petitioner hath served his Majesty, and his Predecessors, near Twenty Years, in the said Duchy, and never had any Grant or Reward for his Services; Your Petitioner humbly begs your Lordship's Favour to grant him a Lease of the Premises, contained in a Paper hereunto annexed; Part whereof, being Reversions, though of small Value, yet together may compensate the Charges of passing the Lease of them with the others, and oblige your Petitioner,

Jo. Bennett.

An Account of what is desired by Mr. Bennett's Petition to be leased to him.

In the County of York: 3 Cottages, and 11 Acres of Land in Whitley, for 31 Years, at the present Rent reserved to the King

2 11 8

This has been out of Lease for some time; and nobody would be at the Charge of passing a Lease thereof, to have it; being of so inconsiderable Value.

In the County of Lincoln: 19 Acres, a half, and one Rood of plowed Land in Claythorpe, for 31 Years, at

Improved Rent 1 l. 10 s.

This likewise has been out of Lease for some Time; and no one would be at the Charge of passing a Lease of it; being of so inconsiderable Value.

0 10 0

No one would ever take a Lease of it, it is of so little Value; and it is claimed by Queen Dowager, as Part of her Jointure; and he that now is in Possession, and his Father before him, have rented it at 10 s. per Annum for above 30 Years past.

Lincoln: Four Dales, containing 30 Acres in Whitten, and Three Acres in Friskney which often lie under Water, and may be so at this time, for 31 Years, at

This hath been out of Lease for some time; and, I fear, under Water; no Profit made thereof; no Rent paid for many Years; nor can I hear, where those 4 Dales are, nor in whose Possession.

Lancaster: The Tolls of Fairs and Markets in Salford, for 31 Years, at 2 6 8

There is no Market, but Two Fairs; and little now brought to the Fairs; but most Things are disposed of in Manchester, which adjoins to Salford; and by reason thereof, and the Charge of

VOL. 13.

Stalls, and collecting the Tolls, no Rent has been paid for some Years.

Lanc.: Felons Goods in the County Palatine for 15 Years, after 16 Years at the present Rent reserved to the King

This is very uncertain, being Accidentals; and some Years will not answer the Rent; other Years make up the Defect of preceding Years, with some Overplus; but always uncertain.

Leicester: A common Oven, for 28 Years, after 3 Years, at

The Charge of making the Hay, the King's Rent and the Fees to Stewards, Auditors, Receivers, and other Expences charged thereupon at the Audit; it being, beyond the Memory of Man, reserved for the Steward, Auditors, and Receivers Horses at the Audit; and this Lease taken, as others were for the same Uses.

Leicester: Two Tenements, one Ravenstone, and the other in Leicester, for 28 Years, after 3 Years, at 0 10 0

Improved Rent, 1 l. 10 s.

Leicester: Several Cottages in and near Leicester for 15 Years, after 16 Years, at 6 18 8

Improved Rent, 4 l.

These are very much out of Repair, and poor People.

Staffordshire: Coal Mines in Shulton and Hanley, in the Manor of Newcastle under Lyne, for 12 Years and  $\frac{1}{2}$ , after 18 $\frac{1}{2}$  Years, at Improvements uncertain.

The Value of these are very uncertain, being more or less as they are worked, and the Stock and Charge of working them great; and none will take them to work them without considerable Profit to themselves; and the Rent to the King is increased double what they were formerly lett for; so that they will be but of little Value to the King's Farmer; and the present Tenant complains, That his Father was ruined by the Working thereof; and, besides, the Queen Dowager lays some Claim, as to Part thereof.

Staff.: Fines and Amerciaments at the Sessions in Newcastle under Line, for 27 Years, after 4 Years, at

0 13 4

They are of little or no Value, scarce worth the Rent.

This is claimed to be within Sir Edward Smith's Grant of the Castle, Ditches, &c.; and, if it be, he will not pass by the Lease.

Kent: The Office of Feodar, &c. there, for 31 Years, at

Improvement, 1 l. 10 s.

The Charge of keeping this Court is as much as this is worth.

Southampton: Somborne Park, for 8 Years and a half, after 22 Years and a half, at 30 0 0

Improvement, 50 l.

There is another Lease in being, though not inrolled, for Seven Years and a half;

half; so that then it is but for One Year after 30 Years.

Sussex: The Green Wax within the } £. s. d.
Duchy of Lancaster in that County, for } 2 0 0
15 Years, after 16, at - - - }

There hath been no Profit made thereof, nor the Rent paid to the King, for Ten Years past.

Dorsett and Wilts: Feodar and Ball. } 1 0 0 in the said Counties, for 15 Years, after } 16, at - - - - - }

There hath been no Profit made thereof, nor Rent paid to the King, for Ten Years past.

Jo. Bennett.

Ordered, That the said Account do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

King's Share of Prizes.

Ordered, That an Account be laid before this House of the King's Share of all the Prizes taken during the War; and how the same have been disposed of.

Blackwell-hall Cloth Market.

A Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there; was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved, That this House will, upon this Day Seven-night, resolve itself into a Committee of whole House, to consider of the said Bill.

Exporting Wool.

A Petition of the Clothiers and Weavers of the Borough of Newberry in the County of Berks, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, since the Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures in Flanders, so great Stocks of Cloth remain upon the Petitioners Hands, that they are not able to employ their numerous Work-people; who are thereby reduced to very great Hardships: That by the many Advantages foreign Woollen Manufactures have, in the easy Price of Oil, Soap, and Dying-stuff, which adds to their cheap Workmanship, our Cloathing Trade is in Danger of being transplanted: And praying, That the Decay of our Woollen Trade may be taken into Consideration; and that the Petitioners may be some way relieved in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider what has been done upon former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for encouraging the Woollen Manufactures; and to report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Debt due to Prince of Denmark.

The House, according to Order, proceeded to take into Consideration the State of the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark.

And the said State was again read.

Resolved, That the Consideration of the said State of the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, by such Members of this House as are of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, That he will please to direct, That a Copy of the Treaty of Altena, between the King of Denmark and Duke of Holstein, and all other Matters relating to the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark, may be laid before this House.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Mercurii, 13<sup>o</sup> die Decembris;

11<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants, of the Company of Weavers in the City of Canterbury, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners sole Trade depended on the Manufacturing of wrought Silks, and Silks mixed with Wool; of which there is so great a Decay, by the vast Importations, and Home Consumption of India wrought Silks and Stuffs, that it has reduced great Numbers of the English Manufacturers to the greatest Extremity; and almost ruined the said Trade: And praying, That the Home Consumption, if not a Prohibition of Importation, of the said foreign wrought Silks and Stuffs, may be prevented.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Ordered, That Mr. Buller, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

A Petition of James Brogan, and others, in behalf of themselves, and others, reduced out of the Regiment of the Inniskillen Regiment Dragoons, commanded by the Honourable Colonel Charles Rose, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That contrary to his Majesty's Orders, upon their Reducement, their Officers have detained their Horses, and also about 5*l.* per Man per Annum out of the Petitioners Subsistence for 4 Years last, and never have accounted for Off-reckonings since the War; and, by Combination, refuse to give the Petitioners any Account, notwithstanding a late Act to oblige them thereto: And praying the further . . . of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Henry Boysett, and several others, in behalf of themselves, and a great many more disbanded and reduced Soldiers, or otherwise discharged, both Horse and Foot, who faithfully served his Majesty in the late Wars, and in the particular Regiments therein mentioned, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, when the Petitioners were severally discharged the Service, they demanded an Account of their Arrears, and the Horsemen their Horses, or Satisfaction, according to his Majesty's Orders; but, instead thereof, many were stript of their Cloaths, turned out without their Horses, or any Account, and without a Farthing Subsistence to carry them home; and others forced by Threats and Punishments, to give Discharges in full for Subsistence, though they had not received it; and now after the Fatigue of a long War, not having wherewith to recover their Rights against their Officers by Law, they and their Families are in a starving Condition: And praying the House to take some speedy Course, That the Petitioners Officers may make up their Accounts, and pay what is justly due thereupon.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do take care, That the Soldiers be at no Charge, either to Solicitors, or otherwise, in relation to their petitioning, and attending this House.

Ordered,

Ordered, That it be also an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do, in the first Place, consider of, and report to the House, what they conceive fit to be done for the Relief of the Soldiers in general.

A Petition of Captain Martin Laycock, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner having spent his Blood, and Substance, in curing his Wounds, in the Service of this Government, and undergone as great Hardships as Fire, Water, Famine, Sword, and Imprisonment, can inflict; yet he has received no Recompence for it, though he had Two Orders for that Purpose, and an Order of the Treasury for 100*l.* per Annum Pension; nor so much as Half-pay, though in Service the 10th of September 1697, because his Name was not upon the Muster-roll, and voted upon Half-pay by this House the 18th of April last; nor 668*l.* 14*s.* 8½*d.* stated by the late Commissioners for publick Accounts to be due to the Petitioner, before he went last into Flanders; nor 400*l.* due to him as Exccutor to his Uncle Captain Beilby, for his Service in the Lord Douglas's Regiment, though his said Uncle's Burial cost 60*l.* by his Direction; by all which means, the Petitioner is run above 300*l.* in Debt, and his Family now in want of all Necessaries for this Life: And praying the House to grant him such speedy Redress in the Premises, as they shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee: And that they do particularly examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House, with all convenient Speed.

Restoring Fitzharris's
Estate.

A Petition of Sir Henry Fitzharris Baronet, Grandson and Heir of Sir Edward Fitzharris Baronet, deceased, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in the Acts of Settlement of Irish Forfeitures there are several Provisions for the Restitution of innocent Protestants and Papists to their Estates; and the Petitioner's Grandfather did clear his innocence; yet neither he, nor the Petitioner, were restored to the Estate of their Family; for which Reason the Petitioner did petition the last Parliament here, for Leave to bring in a Bill for restoring him to his paternal Estate, and to make Provision for his Mother and Sister; which was referred to a Committee; who reported, That the Petitioner had just Right and Title to be restored; but the House then having weighty Affairs before them, the Session ended before the House came to any Resolution thereupon: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for restoring him to his paternal Estate, and making Provision for his Mother and Sister.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same to the House, with their Opinion, Whether they conceive it fit that a Bill should be brought in, according to the Prayer of the said Petition.

And it is referred to Sir John Packinton, Mr. Barnardiston, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Hamond, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Gwynn, Mr. Herne, Mr. Mounstevens, Sir Cha. Windham, Sir Willoby Hickman, Sir Wm. Cooper, Mr. Palmer, Sir Owen Buckingham, Colonel Lee, Mr. England, Mr. Eyres, Sir Tho. Willoughby, Sir Wm. Drake, Mr. Proby, Lord Couningsby, Mr. Paget, Mr. Milbank, Mr. Harvy, Sir Sam. Barnardiston, Sir Abstrup. Danby, Sir Tho. Grosvesnor, Mr. Clark: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Dee
Navigation.

A Bill to enable the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Chester to recover, and preserve, the Navigation upon the River Dee, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Sir Joseph Jekyll, Mr. Shackerly, Sir Tho. Grosvesnor, Mr. Guy, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Mounstevens, Sir Fra. Molyneux, Sir Henry Goff, Sir Rich. Farrington, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Mostyn, Sir William Glynn, Sir John Conway, Sir *Geo. ## PRAYERS.

Exporting
Wool.

A PETITION of the Merchants, Clothiers, and other Traders in the Woollen Manufacture, in and about the Town of Leeds, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That since the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament, 1<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi et Mariae, for putting the Laws in Execution for preventing the Exportation of Wool, did undertake the Management thereof, great Quantities of Wool have been hindered from Transportation by the Diligence of the Commissioners Officers; but, there being no Fund for discharging their Expence, the Commissioners are disabled from proceeding in the said Work; which, if a Fund were provided, would effectually stop the Exportation of Wool, to the great Advancement of the Woollen Manufactory Trade: And praying the House to raise a Fund, by a Tax upon the Woollen Manufactures, or otherwise, as shall be thought fit, for the Purposes aforesaid.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, who are to examine what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for encouraging the Woollen Manufacture; and to report to the House their Opinion, what may be further necessary to be done.

A Petition of the Merchants, Clothiers, and other Traders in the Woollen Manufacture, in and about the Town of Wakefield, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That for many Years past little Care has been taken to prevent the Exportation of Wool, till, of late, the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for that Purpose deputed several Officers; whose Diligence therein, for above 15 Months past, has greatly, and was further like to put a Stop to that pernicious Practice to the Woollen Manufactures; but, for want of a Fund for defraying the Charges necessary for so good a Work, the Commissioners are disabled from further proceeding in their said Trust, to the great Prejudice of the Petitioners, and the Kingdom in general: And praying, That some Provision may be made for the encouraging the Agents employed in the said Undertaking, in such manner as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, who are to examine what has been done upon former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for encouraging the Woollen Manufacture; and to report to the House their Opinion, what may be further necessary to be done.

A Petition of the Merchants, Clothiers, and other Traders in the Woollen Manufacture, in and about the Town of Hallifax, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That for want of putting the former Laws in Execution to prevent the Exportation of Wool, they have remained ineffectual, until the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for that Purpose 1<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi et Mariae, by appointing several Officers, put a great Stop to that evil Practice; but, in regard no Fund was provided for defraying the Charges, and rewarding the Officers employed in so great a Work, the Commissioners are discouraged and disabled from proceeding therein; who, if a Fund was raised, the Petitioners conceive would effectually put a Stop a Stop to the Exportation of Wool in a short time: And praying, That a Fund may be raised upon the Woollen Manufactures, or otherwise, for the Purposes aforesaid.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee who are to examine what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool, and for encouraging the Woollen Manufacture; and to report to the House their Opinion, what may be further necessary to be done.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of Henry Taylor, and others, late Serjeants in the Honourable Colonel Collumbine's Regiment of Foot, in behalf of themselves and others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they have served in the late War all along till the Act for disbanding; and there are great Arrears due to them, which their Officers refuse to pay, or to give them any Account, saying they will withstand a Tryal at Law; well knowing the Petitioners Inability, who are in great Want, and ready to starve: And praying some speedy Relief from the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ditto.

A Petition of John Greenwood, in behalf of Mary his Wife, Executrix of Captain Wm. Compcshon, late of the Honourable Colonel John Beaumont's Regiment of Foot, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Compcshon did, out of his own Monies, as well as the rest of the Captains of the said Regiment, several times subsist his Company in Ireland, when no Money was issued by the Government; which, since, has, in great measure, been paid to Colonel Beaumont's Hands; who hath accounted with the Captains now living for the same; but refuseth to account with the Petitioner: And praying the Relief of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Member
discharged
from Custody.

Ordered, That Mr. Aislaby, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Ditto.

Ordered, That Mr. Jennings, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Suppressing Piracy.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the more effectual Suppressing of Pirates: And that Sir Charles Hedges and Mr. Brewer do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

Mr. Carter reported from the Committee appointed to inspect the Journals of the House, for the last Session, what was done upon the Petition of John Goodall, and other Petitions relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet, and report the same to the House, That they had inspected the Journals accordingly, and collected thereout what had been done upon the said Petitions, and the Resolutions of the Committee, and afterwards of the House, thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

That, on the Fourth Day of May last, Mr. Offley reported, from the Committee, to whom the Petition of John Goodall; and the several Petitions of Mr. Lascoe, Sir William Duncombe, Mr. Killigrew, Eleanor Smith, John Prad, Thomas Hammersly, and Henry Caldecot, and Mr. Glover; were referred; and who were to inquire into the ill Practices and Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet; the Matter as it appeared to the said Committee, and the Resolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

That, upon the Petition of the said John Goodall, the Matter appeared as followeth:

Mr. Richard Day said, That, by Direction of Mr. Goodall, he caused John Kelson to be arrested in an Action for 2,800*l.*; who by Habeas Corpus removed himself to the Fleet Prison, where he was actually a Prisoner: That afterwards a Statute of Bankrupt issued against the said John Kelson; and he was adjudged a Bankrupt by the Commissioners, Mr. Goodall the Petitioner having proved the said Debt before them; and Three of the said Commissioners, whereof the Informant was One, went to the Fleet, in order to examine the said Kelson, upon Oath, for a Discovery of his Estate; but, though he appeared before them, he obstinately refused to be sworn: Whereupon the said Three Commissioners, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, dated the 4th of August 1697, and directed to the then Warden of the Fleet, did, by virtue of the said Commission, require and authorize the said Warden of the Fleet to detain the said Kelson in Custody, without Bail or Mainprize; since which, he has escaped without answering.

Thomas Leaky said, That he served Mr. Church, the then Warden of the Fleet, with the said Warrant, the same Day as it bore Date; and Mr. Church owned, That the said Kelson was then his Prisoner.

In Answer to which, Mr. Ford, the now Warden of the Fleet, said, That he finds by the Commitment Books of the Fleet, that John Kelson was committed a Prisoner there, upon Mesne Process, the 31st of July 1697; but does not find any Entry of the said Warrant from the Commissioners of Bankrupt in any of the Fleet Books.

That he was sworn and admitted Warden of the Fleet on the 28th Day of September 1697; when he had an Indenture of Assignment of the Prisoners committed to his Charge, in Number about 100; but the said John Kelson is not named therein, nor was then in the Prison; neither does he know him, or ever saw him; nor knows what is become of him; but said, That since he was admitted Warden, he has superseded Goodall's Actions, and produced the Supersedeas.

That he insisted, That the Commissioners of Bankrupts had no Power to charge the Warden of the Fleet with any Prisoners for a Contempt of their Demand; but he ought to be looked upon as a Criminal, and removed by Habeas Corpus to the County Gaol; and instanced the Case of one Gregory, a Bankrupt and Prisoner in the Compter, who brought Three several Habeas Corpus's to remove himself to the Fleet; and was as often remanded to the Compter by the present Lord Chief Justice Treby.

That he further alleged, That the Warden cannot be charged with the Custody of any Prisoner, save by the Council Board, or Courts of Westminster-hall; for that a Justice of Peace cannot commit to the Fleet, much less Commissioners of Bankrupts.

Upon which the Committee came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petitioner John Goodall has fully proved the Allegations of his Petition.

That upon the Petition of Mr. Lascoe, the Matter appeareth to be as followeth:

That Sir John James, and others, was indebted to the Petitioner 1,400*l.* upon a Bond of 4,000*l.* Penalty: Upon which Sir John James was arrested, who turned himself over to the Fleet; and, in Trinity Term, 1697, Sir John James was charged, and committed in Execution

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

tion in the Fleet, at the Suit of the Petitioner, for 4,000 l. Debt, and 22 l. Costs.

That, on the 16th Day of September 1697, Sir John James escaped, and was seen in Gerrard-street, near St. Anne's Church, Westminster, by Mr. Holden, the Petitioner's Attorney, and Mr. French; who asked him, What he did there? He said, He was about his Business; and then voluntarily went with them to the Fleet; and they complaining of the said Escape to Mr. Church, the then Warden, he said, He had Security; but hoped no Notice would be taken of the said Escape.

That, in Michaelmas Term, 1697, the Petitioner Mr. Lasco brought his Action of Escape against the said Mr. Church, and obtained Judgment thereon; and moved the Court of Common Pleas for a Sequestration; which was not granted, because the Judges thought the Petitioner could have no advantage thereby, by reason of the many Incumbrances that were upon the Office of the Fleet; since which the said Mr. Church is absconded; and as the Petitioner is informed, Sir John James hath, by Habeas Corpus, removed himself to the King's Bench, from whence he hath also escaped.

Mr. Holding said, That the Door-keeper of the King's Bench told him, That Sir John James was a Prisoner there; and Mr. Taylor, the then Marshal, told him, he should see Sir John James in Two or Three Days: After which, Holding went down again; but could not be admitted to see him.

That to this Petition Mr. Ford, the new Warden, answered, That he admits Sir John James was charged in Execution, as the Petition sets forth: That he was afterwards seen in Gerrard-street; and that Judgment was recovered against Mr. Church, as aforesaid; but that Judgment is referred to a Prothonotary, as irregular: And hopes it shall not be adjudged an Escape; the Prisoner returning the same Day, and a fresh Pursuit being allowed, by which he might have been taken.

That Sir John James was a Prisoner turned over to Ford, and was never, after the said 16th of September 1697, out of the Walls of the Prison, until he removed himself to the King's Bench by Habeas Corpus.

Mr. Gimbert, now Marshal of the King's Bench, said, That he was sworn Marshal, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, on the 29th of December last, when he had but One-and-thirty Prisoners committed to his Charge, or turned over to him, amongst which Sir John James is not named: But he has heard since his Admission, That Sir Jo. James was a Prisoner to Mr. Taylor, the late Marshal; and that he suffered him to escape.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petitioner Francis Lascoe has fully proved the Allegation of his Petition.

That, upon the Petition of Sir William Duncomb, the Matter appeared to be as followeth:

That the said Petitioner caused Henry Killigrew Esquire to be taken in Execution for 400 l. Debt; who turned himself over to the Fleet Prison; and soon after escaped from thence; and was several times after seen out of the Rules of the said Prison: Whereupon the Petitioner brought his Action of Escape against Mr. Church, the then Warden of the Fleet; and recovered Judgment against him, in Trinity Term, 1697, for the said 400 l.; and the Court granted a Sequestration of the Profits of the Fleet pursuant to a late Act of Parliament; but the Petitioner could obtain no relief thereby: That, since the Sequestration, the Petitioner agreed to accept of 250 l. in Satisfaction of his said Debt; to strengthen which, an Assignment to Francis Guy of a former Mortgage upon the Fleet to one Norwood, which was saved by a late Act of Parliament, and inrolled in pursuance thereof, was transferred to the Petitioner: And Guy made Oath, That the said Assignment to him was well executed, and that he had not given any Declaration of Trust thereof; though Mr. Tilly afterwards said he had.

That 50 l. being the First Sum to be paid by the Agreement, was not paid at the time it ought, though Mr.

Killigrew had paid it, as Mr. Ford owned; and Sir William, looking on Guy's Assignment as a sham Security; refused afterwards to receive it.

In answer to which, Mr. Ford, the now Warden of the Fleet, said, That the Matters of the said Petition were transacted before he was Warden; but that, subsequent to the said Sequestration, Sir Wm. Duncomb, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, agreed to take 250 l. to be paid at several times, in full Satisfaction of his said 400 l. Debt; and had Norwood's Mortgage assigned over to him as his Security; of which he believes, and Mr. Tilly did affirm, Francis Guy had not made any Declaration of Trust: Yet, because the first Payment, being 50 l. was not paid at the precise Day it ought, Sir William would not receive it, though it was tendered him in Three Weeks afterwards.

That Sir William Duncomb offered at the Committee to receive the said 50 l.

That, upon the Petition of Mr. Killigrew, relating to the Matter of Sir William Duncomb's Petition;

Mr. Killigrew said, That he has preferred his Bill in Chancery against Sir William Duncomb, to be relieved against the said Judgment, having paid Part of the Money due thereon to Sir Edward Bash, under whom Sir William claims; and said, He was a Prisoner in the Fleet, and did not know, That he was charged in Execution.

Whereupon the Committee came to the Resolution following:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir William Duncomb has fully proved the Allegations of his Petition.

That, upon the Petition of Eleanor Smith, Widow and Executrix of Francis Smith, deceased, it appeared,

That her late Husband became bound for Thomas Bromhall, deceased, who then had the Inheritance of the Fleet in him, to divers Persons; and paid several Sums of Money for him, particularly 50 l. to Alice Fittnesse, for which the Petitioner produced Receipts, and proved them by one Thomas Middleton:

That Bromhall gave the Petitioner's Husband Counter Bonds for his Indemnity; and Mr. Tilly, who has since purchased the Inheritance of the Fleet under an Act of Parliament, being sensible that the Petitioner intended to oppose the said Act, did, on the First of May 1693, give Bond to the Petitioner, of 400 l. Penalty, for Payment of 212 l. in May 1695, without Interest; of which Mr. Tilly has paid but 7 l. 6 s.; and the Petitioner threatening to sue him upon the Bond, he said he was in his Castle; and the Petitioner said, She was unable to sue him.

That, upon the Petition of John Praed, it appeared,

That, in Trinity Term, 1690, the Petitioner exhibited his Bill in Chancery against William Warr, and others; and in December 1691, the Cause was heard, an Account directed, and Warr ordered to pay the Petitioner Costs, which were afterwards taxed at 53 l. 8 s. 3 d.; and the Master reported 6,404 l. 9 s. 7 d.: That, to avoid the Payment of the said Costs, Warr sheltered himself in the Mint; from whence he was taken by an Order of the Court of Chancery, and committed a Prisoner to the Fleet: But Warr having his Liberty, the Petitioner complained to the Lord Chancellor, who made several Orders for his Confinement within the Walls of the said Prison, and until further Order: Yet Warr enjoyed his Liberty: And upon further Complaint made to my Lord Chancellor, he thereupon ordered Mr. Church, the then Warden of the Fleet, to pay the Petitioner 50 l. Part of the said 53 l. 8 s. 3 d. Costs; and the further Sum of 25 l. which the Master had taxed for Costs, that the said Petitioner had been put unto, for prosecuting for the said 53 l. 8 s. 3 d.

Mr. John Coode, Mr. Praed's Solicitor, said,

That several times after Warr was committed to the Fleet, and was ordered to be kept within the Walls of the said Prison, he saw him in several Places without a Day

Day Rule, or a Keeper, in the Vacation Time; and, talking to the said Church about Warr, he said, As long as Warr could feed Mr. Tilly with Money, he would let Warr have his liberty to go where he pleased.

That the Petitioner has a Decree, signed and inrolled, for the 6,404 l. 9 s. 7 d. and a Sequestration thereupon; but has not reaped any benefit thereby.

In Answer to which Petition;

Mr. Tilly said, That he admitted Warr was committed a Prisoner to the Fleet for the said 53 l. 8 s. 3 d. Costs, and no more: And that the Lord Chancellor made such Order, as aforesaid: But said, the Warden of the Fleet could not be charged with 6,404 l. 9 s. 7 d. mentioned in the Petition, because the Decree in Chancery was not confirmed and inrolled till after Warr, with his Causes, was removed from the Fleet to the King's Bench, by an alias Habeas Corpus, the 27th June 1696:

That the Office of the Fleet paid the said 50 l. pursuant to the Lord Chancellor's Order; and also Part of the said 25 l.: And believes Mr. Ford, the now Warden, will pay Mr. Praed the Remainder of the 25 l. whenever he will receive it. And

Mr. Ford said, He will pay Mr. Praed what shall appear due to him of the said 25 l. as soon he pleases:

That Mr. Praed owned the Receipt of the 50 l. and Part of the 25 l.:

That it doth appear by the Books of the King's Bench Prison, That Warr was removed thither by Habeas Corpus.

That, upon the Petition of Thomas Hammersly and Henry Caldecott;

Mr. Dotting, an Attorney, said, That the Petitioners caused Gerrard Lodowick to be arrested; who turned himself over to the Fleet Prison; and, in Michaelmas Term last, the Petitioner obtained a Judgment against the said Lodowick for 412 l.; but the Warden of the Fleet lets him go where he pleases.

The said Attorney confessed, That Hammersly and Caldecott had not sought any Remedy against the now Warden of the Fleet.

To this the Warden only said,

That there are Writs of Error brought upon the said Judgments; which are now depending.

That, upon the Petition of Mr. Glover, also referred, it was proved, That he was admitted Marshal of the King's Bench in 1681, by virtue of a Grant made by Mr. Cooling:

That the Petitioner attended the Committee; and, not being ready to prove the Allegation of his Petition, the Committee gave him a further Day; but afterwards, meeting Mr. Sevear, and one Mr. French, in the Court of Requests, Mr. Glover told them, That he presented his Petition to the House at the Instigation of Dr. Oates, and did not intend to proceed further upon his Petition before the Committee:

That a Rule of Court, 1<sup>o</sup> Jacobi 2<sup>d</sup>, was produced to discharge Glover from his said Office; and he is since barred by Act of Parliament.

And that nobody appeared on behalf of the Petition of Antony Morris; which was also referred to the Committee.

That, as to the Abuses, and ill Practices, of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons;

It appeared by the Books of the King's Bench, That, betwixt the 2d of May 1696, and the 29th September last, 1,498 Prisoners had been committed to that Prison; of which but 137 appeared to be discharged, most of them upon the 10 l. Act, and by Habeas Corpus:

That many of the said Prisoners, that have escaped, were charged with very great Sums of Money; particularly the aforesaid Sir John James, for 41,000 l.; Bonam Strangways, charged with 26 Actions for 7,000 l.; and many others.

That, by the Fleet Prison Books, it appeared, That 1,651 Persons had been charged, from the 28th of April 1696, to the First of December last; whereof but 285 were discharged, as followeth; viz.

By the Plaintiffs	115
By Supersedas	42
By Composition upon the Major and Minor Act	43
By Habeas Corpus	85

285

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

So that, within the times aforesaid, both the said Prisons stood charged with 3,149 Persons; and about 422 of them were legally discharged, as appears by their Books:

That it appeared also to the Committee, That James Hunter, a late Writer to the King's Bench, deceased, had several Habeas Corpus, and Reddit se, in his Custody at the time of his Death, which ought to have been filed in the Marshal's Office, and the Prisoner charged therewith.

The Habeas Corpus, and Reddit se, were produced by Hunter's Widow.

And then the Committee proceeded to inquire, what Incumbrances are upon the said Prisons.

And Mr. Lenthall, who has the Inheritance of the Office of Marshal of the King's Bench, said, He knows of no other Incumbrances thereon, but what Mr. Boulter hath, as Executor of Sir John Cutler, deceased; and what Mr. Sevear pretends to claim by virtue of a Writing executed by Lenthall:

That Sir John Cutler's Incumbrance appeared to be a Statute Staple, entered into by Mr. Lenthall to Sir Jo. Cutler, for 10,000 l. dated the 10th August 1682.

12 August 1682. An Indenture between Mr. Lenthall, and Sir John Cutler, reciting the said Statute; whereby Mr. Lenthall hath agreed, That the Office of Marshal of the King's Bench, and his Manor of Latchford and Hasely, in Oxfordshire, should be one Joint Security to Sir John, to be void on Payment of 7,000 l. and Interest:

That afterwards Sir John Cutler lent Mr. Lenthall more Money; and, upon a stated Account, under Mr. Lenthall's Hand and Seal, dated the 19th June 1697, there appeared to be due to Sir John Cutler's Estate, on the 29th of May 1697, the Sum of 18,001 l. 19 s. 1 d.

That Mr. Lenthall has lately sold the Manor of Hasely and Latchford to the Earl of Rudnor for 8,501 l. 10 s.: So that the Office of Marshal, to the said 29th Day of May, stands charged with the remaining Sum of 9,500 l. 9 s. 1 d.

Mr. Boulter said, He was no-ways privy to, or consenting to, the Bargain made between Mr. Lenthall and the Lord Rudnor:

That, in Obedience to the Order of the House, Mr. Sevear was heard by his Counsel Sir William Williams; who produced Articles, bearing date the 25th Day of November 1684, executed by William Lenthall Esquire, under Hand and Seal; whereby he covenanted, in Consideration of 45 l. to be paid down, and 1,600 l. per Annum Rent-charge, payable Quarterly, to grant to Mr. Sevear, and his Assigns, for Life, the Office of Marshal of the Marshalsea of the King's Bench, with the Prison, and Perquisites thereunto belonging, to commence immediately after the Death, Surrender, Forfeiture, or other Determination of the former Grant to Henry Glover of the said Office.

That Mr. Sevear, accordingly, paid the said 45 l. and, at several other times, several other Sums of Money, amounting to above 200 l. in Part of the First Quarter's Rent:

That, Glover's Grant being determined, Lenthall refused to perform the said Articles; and granted the said Office to Mr. Briggs: Whereupon Sevear, in 1694, exhibited his Bill in Chancery against Lenthall, Briggs, and others, to compel a Performance of the said Articles: And, upon Hearing of the Cause, Briggs's Counsel alleged, That he had no Notice of the Articles: The Court thereupon directs an Issue at Law, to try whether he had Notice before his Grant, or not: Upon which Tryal a Verdict was found for Sevear, That Briggs had Notice.

That

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

That after the said Verdict, and before Sevear could have any Benefit thereby, a late Act of Parliament passed, for the more effectual Relief of Creditors in Cases of Escapes; and for preventing Abuses of Prisons, and pretended privileged Places; wherein there is a Clause to vacate all Grants or Deputations then before made by Mr. Lenthall of the said Office, of which Sevear declared he had no Notice: And coming back to the Chancery, Sevear's Bill was dismissed, because of the said Clause:

That, since such Dismission, Sevear brought his Action of Covenant against Lenthall; and hath recovered 2,322*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.* thereupon; as by Three several Judgments produced to the said Committee.

Sir William Williams also alleged, That Sevear had done all that the Law would allow, to do himself Right; and all that can be done, is only to confine Lenthall to his own House and Dominion; and can have no Satisfaction, without the Help of an Act of Parliament, though it has cost Sevear above 2,000*l.* as informed.

To prove which, he called John Stanley, Mr. Sevear's Attorney; who said, Mr. Sevear brought his Bill in Chancery, against Lenthall, Briggs, and others; and, before they answered, they preferred a cross Bill against Mr. Sevear; and those Suits, which the said Issue directed, and References to Masters, cost Mr. Sevear 1,500*l.* as he believes, besides what Costs he was at in prosecuting other Tryals at Law.

It appeared to the Committee, That George Moor had recovered Judgment against the said Mr. Lenthall, 3<sup>o</sup> Willi. & Mariae, for 2,025*l.* for the Escape of Henry Paine, who was a Prisoner in Execution to Mr. Lenthall, when he executed the Office of Marshal himself:

That Moor issued out an Elegit, and seized Part of Lenthall's Goods and Estate in Oxfordshire; which Goods were sold, and produced about 100*l.* besides Charges: But he was turned out of Possession of the Lands by Mr. Boulter, by virtue of a prior Incumbrance; and can have no Relief against Lenthall's Person, because those Persons, who have since exercised the Office of the Marshal of the King's Bench, have been favourable to Mr. Lenthall:

That the Warden of the Fleet said, He knew of but Four Incumbrances of the Fleet; viz. Norwood's, Smith's, Johnson's, and Clements':

That nobody appeared to make out the Incumbrances to Norwood and Johnson:

That the Incumbrance to Mr. Clements was a Mortgage upon the Fleet, made to him, in Trust for several others, the 3d of May 1678, for the Term of 500 Years, in Consideration of 2,299*l.* principal Money.

That 1,842*l.* with Interest, Part of the said 2,299*l.* became due to Five Sisters of Sir Edward Low, deceased; who, in 1693, relinquished all their Claims, as to Interest of the said 1,842*l.* principal Money, which amounted to near 2,000*l.* upon Condition an Act of Parliament should be obtained for the Sale of the Fleet; and that they were paid their principal Money by the 1st of January 1693; which was not paid, though the Act was obtained:

That the said Five Sisters have received but 250*l.* of the said 1,842*l.* and Interest: So that there remained due to them, on the First Day of January last, from the 1st of January 1693, only the Sum of 2,021*l.* 16*s.* 9*d.*

Besides which, the Fleet stands charged by the said Incumbrance with the remaining Sum of 457*l.* Principal Money, and Interest.

Smith's Security is as follows; viz.

That Bromhall, being seised in Fee of a Farm in Shropshire, sold the same, in December 1677, to Smith, for 500*l.*; and covenanted, That the same was free from Incumbrances, though he had before entered into a Recognizance in the Court of Chancery, together with William Allanson and Edward Kinaston, for 800*l.*: That, Bromhall dying, Kinaston sued out a Scire facias against the said Farm; and Smith preferred a Bill in Chancery, to be relieved against it: But the Court, on the 22d June 1683, decreed Smith to pay to Kinaston what he had paid for Bromhall, with Costs, by reason of the said

Recognizance, which was to be assigned over to Mr. Smith, on Payment of the Money.

That the Master in Chancery reported 425*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.* due for Kinaston; and Smith paid the Money in 1683; and took a Receipt; and had the Recognizance assigned over.

And afterwards, Smith preferred his Bill in Chancery against Norwood, a Mortgage of the Fleet, and others, to be let into the Profits of the Prison and Premises, for Satisfaction of his said Debt.

And the Court of Chancery, 26th of January 1685, decreed the Equity of Redemption of the Premises mortgaged to Norwood for Smith's Benefit.

That Smith is since dead, and his Right and Interest in the Premises is vested in Thomas Holmden and Mary his Wife, and Richard Short and Elizabeth his Wife, the Two only Daughters and Administratrixes, with the Will annexed, of the said Antony Smith.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the Resolutions following; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the present Offices of the Marshal of the King's Bench, and Warden of the Fleet Prisons, in respect of their Management, have been very prejudicial to personal Credit, and a great Grievance to the whole Kingdom.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the many Incumbrances on the said Offices do cover those Prisons against Judgments in Cases of Escapes; whereby the good Intention of the late Act of Parliament for the Relief of Creditors is eluded, the Keepers of the said Prisons, for Bribes, continuing to suffer Escapes, and the Creditors left without Remedy for the same.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That no Habeas Corpus shall be hereafter granted for Removing of Prisoners, in personal Actions, to any of the Courts at Westminster-hall, in order to be turned over to the King's Bench or Fleet Prisons, but upon sufficient Cause shewn by the Defendant, or some Person for him, in Open Court, in the Presence of the Plaintiff or some Person authorized by him.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Way for preventing the Abuses of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons is, by discharging the Incumbrances that are upon the said Prisons, by Sale of the said Offices, or otherwise: And that, for the future, neither of the said Offices should be liable to any incumbrance, except upon Escapes.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the present Offices of the Marshal of the King's Bench, and Warden of the Fleet Prisons, in respect of their Management, have been very prejudicial to personal Credit, and a great Grievance to the whole Kingdom.

The Second Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the many Incumbrances on the said Offices do cover those Prisons against Judgments in Cases of Escapes; whereby the good Intention of the late Act of Parliament for Relief of Creditors is eluded, the Keepers of the said Prisons, for Bribes, continuing to suffer Escapes, and the Creditors left without Remedy for the same.

The Third Resolution being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made therein, by leaving out "but upon sufficient Cause shewn by the Defendant, or some Person for him, in open Court, in the Presence of the Plaintiff, or some Person authorized by him;" and inserting, instead thereof, "and if any Person shall be removed by Habeas Corpus, and the Person so removed shall not be bailed, or totally discharged, that then the Person so removed shall be remanded to the Prison from whence he was brought:" And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved,

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, so amended, That no Habeas Corpus shall be hereafter granted for Removing of Prisoners, in personal Actions, to any of the Courts in Westminster-hall, in order to be turned over to the King's Bench or Fleet Prisons: And if any Person so removed shall not be bailed, or totally discharged, that then the Person so removed shall be remanded to the Prison from whence he was brought.

The Fourth Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Way for preventing the Abuses of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons is, by discharging the Incumbrances that are upon the said Prisons, by Sale of the said Offices or otherwise; and that, for the future, neither of the said Offices shall be liable to any Incumbrances, except upon Escapes.

Upon which a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That a Bill be brought in upon the said Resolutions;

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Mr. Brotherton, } 96.
                                  { Mr. Sloane: }

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Clarke, } 54.
                                  { Colonel Lee: }

So it was resolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, That Mr. Offley, Mr. Carter, and Mr. Brotherton, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That it be referred to the said Committee to state the Account of the Incumbrances upon the said Prisons to this Day.

Ordered, That the said Committee do prepare, and bring in, a Bill, or Bills upon the said Resolutions.

Debtors
Petition.

A Petition of a Multitude of poor Prisoners for Debt, that lie in the King's Bench and Fleet, for and on the behalf of themselves, and many Thousand other the like Prisoners in the several Prisons in London and Westminster, and Suburbs thereof, and in the many Prisons in this Kingdom, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by the Abuse of the Coin, and the Tediousness of the late War, and many other inevitable Losses, they have been reduced to Poverty, and imprisoned by their Creditors; where many of them have lain in a starving Condition many Years, to the Ruin of their Families, who, had they been at Liberty, might have paid their Debts, and been useful to the Publick; but now are a great Burden to the same; the Prisoners in England being computed at 60,000 Souls, who chiefly subsist by begging at the Grate of the Prisons; and, when that Charity fails, they starve, as weekly Examples testify, to the Dishonour of this Protestant Kingdom, and Damage thereof, from many contagious Distempers, which oftentimes have their Beginning in Prisons: And praying the consideration of the House, That they may be relieved, either by causing them to be discharged, under such reasonable Conditions as shall be adjudged fit, or by some speedy Methods for their support and Maintenance, either from their Creditors, who detain them, or otherwise, as shall be found to be convenient; and that a Bill be brought in accordingly.

And it is referred to Lord Marquis of Hartington, Sir Francis Child, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Thursby, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Barnardiston, Mr. Morgan, Lord Cavendish, Sir Joseph Jekyll, Sir Richard Farrington, Sir Godfrey Copley, Mr. Carter, Sir Wm. Scawen, Mr. Rudge, Mr. Winnington, Mr. Webb, Mr. Harley, Mr. Bridges, Mr. White, Mr. Beak, Sir John Cope, Mr. Eyres, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. Colthrop, Sir Barth. Shower, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Brotherton: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

A Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of London, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That several Kings and Queens of this Realm, for valuable Considerations, have granted to the Petitioners Predecessors divers Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, the Rentals and Evidences relating to which were burnt, or lost, in the great Fire of London in 1666; and great Part of their Estate hath been ever since concealed: But the Petitioners have lately discovered Part thereof; and are advised, it may be recovered at Law: That the Bill now depending in this House, for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, will, as the Petitioners are advised, when passed into a Law, foreclose them from the Recovery of any Part of their said concealed Estate: And praying, that they may be heard by their Counsel, what they have to offer in relation to the said Bill.

Defective
Titles.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Council before the Committee, touching the said Bill.

A Petition of the Clothiers, and Woollen Manufacturers, within the City of New Sarum, on the behalf of themselves, and many Thousands of poor Persons depending on them, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That since the making of a late Act of Parliament, for rendering the Laws more effectual for preventing the Importation of foreign Bone-lace, the Trade of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom is very much abated; and the Petitioners, who before had a constant Trade into Flanders, have now little or none; the Government in Flanders endeavouring to set up a Woollen Manufacture of their own: And praying the Consideration of the House therein, either by repealing the said Act, or otherwise, as shall be thought most convenient.

Woollen
Manufacture.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report to the House what they conceive proper to be done thereupon.

And it is referred to Mr. Eyres, Sir James Houbton, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Hooper, Sir Rich. Cocks, Sir Wm. Scawen, Sir John Morden, Mr. Fox, Colonel Godfrey, Mr. Rudge, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Lee, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Mr. Kent, Sir Joseph Jekyll, Mr. How, Mr. Moore, Sir Henry Ashurst, Sir Walter Yonge, Mr. Jervois, Lord Cavendish, Sir Henry Parker, Sir William Drake, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Vernon, Sir Rich. Farrington, Mr. Drake, Mr. Barnardiston; and all that serve for the Counties of Bucks, York, Gloucester, and Lancaster: And they are to meet To-morrow in the Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Mr. Lowndes, according to Order, presented to the House a Copy of a Privy Seal, relating to the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark: And also,

Debt due to Prince of Denmark.

A State of the Debt due, upon the Account of Sick and Wounded . . . . to the 29th Day of September 1699.

And the Copy of the Privy Seal, being read, is as followeth; viz.

WILLIAM R.

OUR Will and Pleasure is, that you forthwith prepare a Bill for our Royal Signature, to pass our Privy Seal, in these Words, or to the Effect following:

WILLIAM the Third, by the Grace of God, &c. To the Commissioners, of our Treasury, Chancellor, and Under Treasurer, Chamberlains, Barons, and all other Officers and Ministers of our Exchequer, now being; and to the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, Chancellor and Under Treasurer, Chamberlains, Barons, and

and all other Officers and Ministers of the Exchequer, of Us, our Heirs, or Successors, for the Time being; and to all others herein concerned: Greeting, Whereas, upon adjusting Disputes which happened in the Year 1689, between our good Brother Christian the Vth, King of Denmark, and our good Brother Charles the XIth, late King of Swedenland, since deceased, there appeared to be due, upon a stated Account, made up in July 1691, from Christian Albert late Duke of Holstein, unto our dearly beloved Brother George Prince of Denmark, the Sum of 340,000 Rix dollars, for Two Mortgages which he had upon one Part of the Territories of the said Duke of Holstein; to wit, one on the Isle of Femeren, and the other on the Baillages of Trembutill, and Steinhorst; which said Lands and Baillages the said Prince of Denmark was in Possession of until July 1689; and did then, at our Desire, for the more speedy putting an End to the Differences between the said Two Kings and restating the said Duke of Holstein, in his Territories, according to their Agreement, which then seemed absolutely necessary for the Support of our Alliances, surrender and release, unto the said Duke of Holstein, the said Two Mortgages, upon our promising to pay unto him, the said Prince of Denmark, the Sum of 340,000 Rixdollars, or 85,000 l. of lawful Money of England; and, until that Sum should be satisfied, to allow him an Interest for the same after the Rate of 6 l. per Cent. per Ann.: And although our Affairs have not hitherto admitted of the Payment of the said Sum of 85,000 l. or any Part thereof, or of the Interest incurred thereupon, We have nevertheless, from time to time, received and approved of particular Accounts or Demands thereof exhibited, and made to Us, by our said dear Brother the Prince of Denmark in the Offices of our principal Secretaries of State: And being very desirous, and fully intending, as much as in Us lieth, that the said Sum of 85,000 l. and all Interest due, and that shall grow due, thereupon, at the said Rate of 6 l. per Cent. per Annum, shall be truly and fully paid and satisfied, according to our Royal Word and Promise given and passed in that behalf, as soon as possibly may be: And for a further Confirmation and Assurance of the same, Know ye, that We do hereby acknowledge, declare, and grant, that the said Sum of 85,000 l. was and is justly due and owing from us, unto our said dearly beloved Brother the Prince of Denmark, for the Principal Sum of 340,000 Rixdollars, of which we undertook the Payment in July 1691, aforesaid; and that, so soon as the Exigencies of our Affairs can possibly admit thereof, the said Principal Sum of 85,000 l. and also Interest for the same, at the Rate of 6 l. per Cent. per Annum, to be computed from the 31st Day of July 1691, aforesaid, shall be fully, duly, and effectually answered, paid, and satisfied unto him, our said dearly beloved Brother George Prince of Denmark, or his Assigns; and We do hereby accordingly direct and command, That the same, and every Part thereof, shall be paid and satisfied, without any further or other Warrant or Warrants, to be had or obtained from Us, our Heirs, or Successors, in that behalf. Nevertheless our Will and Meaning is, That as any Part of the said Principal shall be paid off, the Interest shall proportionably sink, and be abated. And these our Letters, &c. Given, &c. And for so doing this shall be your Warrant. Given at our Court at Kensington the 11th Day of May, 1698, in the 10th Year of our Reign.

By his Majesty's Command,

Cha. Mountague,
Steph. Fox,
John Smith,
Tho. Littleton,
Tho. Pelham.

To the Clerk of our Signet attending.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Privy Seal be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Account be referred to the said Committee.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to prevent the Alienation of Crown Lands, Forfeitures, and Penalties accruing to the Crown: And that Mr. How and the Lord Cheine do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Sir Rowland Gwynne, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter to them referred, upon the Petitions touching the Election for the Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall; and the Resolution of the Committee, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table; Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition of several Inhabitants within the Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the said Borough, is not the same in Substance with the Petition from several Inhabitants of the said Borough, presented to the House of Commons the last Session of Parliament, relating to the said Election.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Petition of several Inhabitants within the Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the said Borough, is not the same in Substance with the Petition from several Inhabitants of the said Borough presented presented to the House of Commons the last Session of Parliament, relating to the said Election.

Ordered, That the Committee of Privileges and Elections do not proceed any further upon the Petition touching the said Election.

Fowey
Election.

Sir Rowland Gwynn also reported, from the said Committee of Privileges and Elections, to whom the Matter touching the Petition, concerning the Election for the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, was referred, the Resolution of the said Committee; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition of Shadrach Vincent Esquire, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, is the same in Substance with the Petition of the said Mr. Vincent and Henry Ashurst Esquire, presented to the House of Commons the last Session, relating to the said Election.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Petition of Shadrach Vincent Esquire, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the Borough of Fowey in the County of Cornwall, is the same in Substance with the Petition of the said Mr. Vincent and Henry Ashurst Esquire, presented to the House of Commons the last Session, relating to the said Election.

Malden
Election.

Sir Rowland Gwynn reported also, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to the said Committee, touching the Election for the Borough of Malden in the County of Essex; and the Resolution of the Committee thereupon; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read, and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the Petition of Wm. Fitch, Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Irby Mountague Esquire, to serve for the said Borough.

That upon the Poll there was,

For the Sitting Member - - - - 149.

For the Petitioner - - - - 148.

But it was insisted, on behalf of the Petitioner, That Seven, viz. Henry Leez, John Bramston, Abr. Francis, John Scott, Tho. Burges, John Soresby, and John Holmes, had a Right, and would have polled for the Petitioner, and were refused:

And that Five, viz. Theop. Goosey, John Browne, the Earl of Manchester, Mr. Cha. Mountague, Henry Leez, which stand upon the Sitting Member's Poll, ought not to be allowed as good Votes for him: But Henry Leez was one of the Seven before enumerated to be added to the Petitioner's Poll.

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in the free Burgesses upon Three several Rights.

1st, As being the Son of a free Burgess.

2dly, By Apprenticeship.

3. By Election.

The First Person the Petitioner's Counsel examined to was Henry Leez; and, as to him, they read a Memorandum at the bottom of the Poll, in these Words; viz. Likewise Exception was made, That Henry Leez, presently after giving his Vote, came again; and said, He was mistaken, and would have retracted and altered his Vote; and was refused,

That they also called

Henry Leez himself; who declared, That he intended to have voted for Sir Eliab Harvey and Mr. Fytch; but gave his Vote, by Mistake, for Sir Eliab Harvey and Esquire Mountague, being disturbed by the Falling of his Hat; but, presently after, recollected, and would have altered his Vote from Colonel Mountague to Mr. Fitch.

VOL. 13.

Mr. Gibson, . . . Mr. Bramston also said, That Leez did give his Vote for Sir Eliab Harvey and Esquire Mountague; but he came a little time after, and would have retracted his Vote from Mr. Mountague, and given it to Mr. Fitch; but they acknowledged his Name was entered down by the Town Clerk before he would have it retracted; and afterwards, a Dispute arising about it, a Query was put down upon him, by the Consent of all, at the Bottom of the Poll: And Mr. Bramston said, That another Person who came to vote, his Name was entered down, before Leez offered to retract.

That, as to the Persons that would have voted for the Petitioner, and were insisted on to have a Right so to do; it appeared by the Evidence of Mr. Gibson and Mr. Cair:

That Mr. John Bramston had a Right to his Freedom as the Son of a free Burgess; and was admitted to his Freedom the 13th July 1698:

That Abraham Francis had the same Right; and was admitted to his Freedom 15 July 1698:

That John Scott had a Right by Service; and admitted to his Freedom 18th July 1698:

That Thomas Burges and John Soresby had both a Right by Purchase; and Burges was admitted to his Freedom on the 15 July 1698, and Soresby on the 20th July 1698; but they had the Vote of the House for such Freedom before: Yet it was acknowledged, that none have a Right to vote in any Election, till actually admitted to their Freedom.

Mr. Gibson said, That John Holmes would have voted for Sir Eliab Harvey and Mr. Fitch; but was refused, as being under Age, upon the Producing of a Certificate of the Time of his being baptized; though his Mother affirmed he was born Fourteen or Fifteen Weeks before he was baptized: That he was admitted to his Freedom 3d January 1697; but it was usual to admit to their Freedoms such as are under Age:

Geo. Hugget, a Sea-faring Man, said, That he being come from a Voyage in the Year 1677, he met his Brother-in-Law, the said Holmes his Father, about the 8th or 9th of July in the same Year: Who told him, That his Wife was brought a-bed of a Son; and he went a little after to see his Sister, and found her brought a-bed of a Son, which was afterwards baptized John, and is the Person in Dispute.

John Holmes said, He was asked to give his Vote for Mr. Mountague by Mr. Coe and Mr. Finch; and Mr. Coe promised him a Place in the Custom-house; and when Mr. Coe and Mr. Finch did see, that he would not vote as they would have him, they told him, he was under Age. He said, He did not ask by what Authority Coe made him that Offer; but said it was an usual Thing to offer Places: And Mr. Gibson said, That Mr. Coe was very diligent in making an Interest for Colonel Mountague.

That as to the Persons insisted on to have voted for Colonel Mountague, that ought not to stand on his Poll;

Mr. Gibson said, That Theophilus Boosey gave a single Vote for Colonel Mountague; and that the said Mr. Gibson, did see Boosey a little before the Election; and the said Boosey told him, Colonel Mountague had promised him, that he should have a Place before the Election.

That Mr. Charles Mountague, being then One of the Lords Justices, and the Earl of Manchester, voted for Colonel Mountague.

That the Lord Fitzwater, and Mr. Mildmay, his Brother, were present at the Election.

That John Browne told the said Mr. Gibson, That some Persons had overpowered him, and hauled him to go up and give his Vote as he did.

That, for the Sitting Member, it was insisted, That before the Election the several Candidates came to an Agreement; viz.

1st, That no Persons should be polled, that were made free after the Teste of the Writ.

2. That none under 21 should be polled.

3. That no Person, having a single Vote, should afterwards be admitted to poll for another.

That

Malden
Election.

That Abraham Francis, John Scott, Burges and Soresby, were made free after the Teste of the Writ, which bore Teste 13 July 1698; and that John Bramston was made free the same Day, appeared to be Fact.

That, to prove the Agreement, the Sitting Member's Counsel called

Mr. Peter Robjeant, Mr. Watson, and Mr. Coe; who testified, That it was proposed by Mr. Gibson, One of the Bailiffs, and a Friend to the Petitioner, before the Poll began, That none should be polled that were made free after the Teste of the Writ.

2dly, That none under 21 should be polled.

3. That no Person should poll twice.

Which Proposition so made by Mr. Gibson, in the Presence and Hearing of the Candidates, the Witnesses apprehended was agreed to by them, because nobody opposed it: And Mr. Robjeant said, That after Leez had voted for Sir Eliab Harvey and Colonel Mount . . ., Leez went to the Hall Door, and was whispered by Two or Three; whereupon he returned, and would have retracted his Vote, pretending he was mistaken: But another Person was called, and his Name put down before he retracted. And Mr. Robjeant said further, That Sweeting Barrington, Robert Cole, Thomas Richmond, and Robert Simpson, were refused to be admitted to poll according to the Agreement.

Mr. Attwood, being examined, said, he met with Leez accidentally at an Alehouse in Milford-lane, near the Temple; and that Leez discoursing of the Election, said, That the Reason of his voting for Mr. Mountague was, because one of the Bramstons had affronted him, and that he then voted according to his Mind; but somebody whispered him, and then he would have retracted his Vote.

But, Mr. Attwood being confronted by Leez, Leez denied, That he had any such Discourse with Mr. Attwood, or that he knew him, or had ever seen him.

Robert Edwards, being examined, said, That he only voted for Colonel Mountague; but, in the Poll, he is set down for Mr. Fitch also: But Mr. Cair, the Town Clerk, said, That all Persons were put down as they gave their Votes; and his Poll was compared with the rest, and there was no Objection at that Time.

A Certificate was produced, by which it appeared, That John Holmes was baptized the 25th of October 1677: And Mr. Robjeant, being examined to that Matter, said though Holmes's Mother affirmed the said Holmes was of Age, yet she would not swear it.

That the Sitting Member's Counsel also insisted, That several who polled for the Petitioner did receive Alms.

And they called

Mr. Coe, who said, That Thomas Hullbank had lived in an Alms-house for Three Years last past.

That he had examined the Books, and finds, That Robert Dun had received 5 or 6 s. a Year Charity, for Three or Four Years last past.

That Mr. John Cable, his Wife, and Child, have received Charity; which the said Mr. Coe also saw in the Poor's Book.

That there were Two Letters produced; one proved to be the Hand of Mr. Gibson, the other of Mr. Stace; both writ to one Feild: The Purport of which were, To desire his Vote for Sir Eliab Harvey and Mr. Fitch, saying they were honest Gentlemen, and Men of Estates; and Stacy's Letter said, They would not be Pensioners: Both Letters expressing, That if he would vote as desired, he should have no Trouble for Money they expected from him, otherwise he must bring Money with him: Which Stace voted for the Petitioner.

That the Petitioner's Counsel denied, That there was any such Agreement as alleged; and called

Mr. Bramston, Clerk, Mr. Tho. Bramston, Mr. Nicholas Corsellis, Mr. Shaw; who said they were present at the Election; and said, They did not hear or remember any thing of any Agreement by the Candidates, except that no Person should be polled twice.

That it was also insisted on by the Petitioner's Counsel,

That several that voted for the Sitting Member had received Alms; viz. Wm. Turner and Nicholas Hitch.

Mr. Gibson said; He had given to Wm. Turner of Sir John Bramston's Charity last Year; but it was after the Election:

And that Nicholas Hitch is a poor indigent Fellow.

John Cockrill said, That Turner had had Charity several times within Three Years.

That he had given Hitch of Sir John Bramston's Charity last Christmas; and that Hitch had Half a Crown a Week of the Parish Two or Three Years ago; and that Hitch had lived in an Alms-house many Years.

Mr. Gibson said, That he had given to John Jennings of Sir John Bramston's Charity last Christmas.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Ireby Mountague Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Malden.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Ireby Mountague Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Malden;

The House divided.

The Noes go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Lord Coningsby, } 171.

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Ireton: }
                                  { Mr. Foley, } 96.
                                  { Mr. Hoblyn: }

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That no Peer of this Kingdom hath any Right to give his Vote in the Election for any Member to serve in Parliament. Resolution against Peers Voting at Elections.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty. Supply.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England. State of Trade.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived. Committees.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

THE House being informed, That the Petition of Reading Election. Sir Tho. Stamp, touching the Election for the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks this Session, is different from that which was presented the last Session;

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Committee of Privileges and Elections, That they do examine whether the Petition this Session be the same in Substance with that which was presented the last Session; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House: And that the Committee do the same, before they proceed upon the Merits of the Election.

A Bill to enable Thomas May to sell Lands in the May's Estate. County of Suffolk, which were settled upon his First and Second Marriage; and to convey other Lands, of a greater Value, in the same County, to the same Uses; was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Hunt, Sir Wm. Hustler, Mr. Conyers, Mr. Hancock, Lord Cornbury, Mr. England, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Dryden, Mr. Rowney, Mr. Gwyn, Sir Samuel Barnardiston, Mr. Shackerly, Mr. Drake, Mr. Crane, Sir Edu. Hussey, Mr. Buller, Mr.

Mr. Gurdon, Mr. Cocks, Mr. Stonehouse, Sir Cha. Shuckbrough, Sir Roxland Gwynne, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Probert, Mr. Blisse, Mr. Gwynne, Mr. Henly; and all the Members that serve for the County of Suffolke: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four of the Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

and Papers relating to that Matter, to be translated, in order to be laid before this House.

Mr. Godolphin, from the Commissioners of the Customs, Customs, Penalties, &c. presented to the House, according to Order, an Account of the Penalties and Forfeitures which have been paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, for Ten Years ending at Midsummer 1699, as well upon the Seizures of any unaccustomed or prohibited Goods, as for personal Informations relating to the same: But how the same have been disposed of, That they are not able to give the House any Information: And that the Account of the Bonds standing out upon the Subsidy of Tonage and Poundage, granted to his Majesty for Five Years, ending the 25th Day of December next, was preparing; and would be laid before the House, as soon as the same could be got ready.

Then the Title of the said Account of Penalties and Forfeitures was read.

And the Account is as followeth; viz.

A Member discharged from Custody.

Ordered, That Mr. Nappier, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Army Arrera.

A Petition of Alexander Gamble, and others, on behalf of themselves and divers other Troopers of the Regiment late Brigadier Villiers's, and now under the Command of Colonel Harvey, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, notwithstanding the Resolutions of this House the 6th of February 1696; the Lord Coningsby and Mr. Fox's Report in Favour of the Petitioners; and also the late Act of Parliament for Relief of disbanded Soldiers; yet the Petitioners cannot bring their Officers to any Account; though they have preferred a Bill in Chancery against them, they have not answered, being most in Ireland; and the Petitioners fear, that, by reason of their Poverty, they shall not be able to prosecute it: And praying the Relief of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine, and report the Matter, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ditto.

A Petition of Jeremiah Cheevers, and others, in behalf of themselves and all others, reduced and discharged Men and Trumpets out of his Majesty's Regiment of Light Horse, late commanded by the Honourable Colonel John Coy, and now by the Right Honourable Charles Earl of Arran, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That upon their Reducement since the Peace, their Officers have detained their Horses, contrary to his Majesty's Orders, and about 10 l. per Man per Annum out of their Subsistence; and have charged Bounty Money to some of the Petitioners, as Part of their Subsistence; nor have they ever had any Account of their Off-reckoning, nor reaped any Benefit of the late Act of Parliament for their Relief, their Officers refusing to pay the Petitioners what is due to them, unless compelled by Law; and the Petitioners are not able to sue them: And praying Relief; and that they may be heard by Counsel, touching the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine, and report the Matter, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Transport Debt.

A Petition of Charles Newton, and others, Masters of Ships of Newcastle, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is due to the Petitioners above 2,381 l. for Transport Service, in 1693; and though they borrowed Money at Interest, for victualing and carrying on the said Service, yet the Petitioners have received no manner of Satisfaction; for want whereof, they are reduced to very great Straights: And praying, That Consideration may be had of their said Debts, so as they may be paid what is due to them.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Answer to Address.

Mr. Secretary Vernon acquainted the House, That he having presented to his Majesty their Address, That he would please to direct, That a Copy of the Treaty of Altena between the King of Denmark and Duke of Holstein, and all other Matters relating to the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark, may be laid before this House; and That his Majesty had been pleased to direct the said Treaty

Vol. 13.

Irish Forfeitures.

And he acquainted the House, That the Report of the Commissioners was signed by Four of them; and was an Index to all the rest of the Books:

That they had the Misfortune, that Three of the Gentlemen that acted in the Commission with them; viz. The Earl of Drogheda, Sir Francis Brewster, and Sir Richard Leding, did refuse to sign it; they having some Objections to 8 or 9 Paragraphs in the Report; and therefore they would not sign, but with a Protestation to those 8 or Nine Paragraphs; but that the Four thought it not proper, that Three should sign to a Protestation against the rest, and so they ordered that Leaf, wherein they were named, to be cut out: And afterwards, the Report being made intire, the Four signed and sealed it, pursuant to the Act of Parliament, being a Quorum; and afterwards they desired the Three would do the same; but they refused it:

That they gave them a Day to consider of it; and they attended the Execution; and refused to sign it; and gave their Reasons; a Copy of which also he had ready to deliver in, with the rest, if the House pleased:

As also the Paper which was cut out, with the Earl of Drogheda's Name, and the other Gentlemen.

He also acquainted the House, That the Commissioners had sooner attended this House with their Proceedings in this Matter, their Commission being determined the 25th of October; but that the Matter was of so extraordinary Nature, so long, and so many Difficulties did attend it, that he hoped the Time they had taken, will not be ill construed; for that they lost no Time, they not being, one Hour in a Day, absent from the Duty incumbent on them.

And they hoped, That if any thing should be said to their Prejudice, the House will not harbour an ill Opinion of them; but will hear them: And then they doubted not but to give an Answer to the Satisfaction of the House.

And then he withdrew.

And the Report, being the 10th Book, was read.

And also the Memorial of Three of the Commissioners, and the cut Sheet of Paper, with their Names thereto, were also read.

And Mr. Speaker acquainted the House with a Letter which he had received from those Three Commissioners: And he delivered the same in: and the same was also read.

The Report and Nine Books, are bound up together; and the Copy of the Memorial, the cut Sheet, and Letter to Mr. Speaker, are fixed to the said Report.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That a Bill be brought in to apply all the forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland, and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown within that Kingdom, since the 13th day of February 1688, to the Use of the Publick: And it is referred to Mr. Pelham, Sir Richard Onslow, Mr. Harcourt, Mr. Sloane, Mr. Harley, Mr. Smith, Sir Chr. Musgrave, Mr. How, Mr. Davenant, Sir Barth. Shower, Mr. Lowndes, Mr. Mountague, Mr. Thursby, Sir Godfrey Copley, Mr. Hayes, or any Five of them, to prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do insert into the said Bill a Clause, or Clauses, for erecting a Judicature for determining Claims touching the said forfeited Estates.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That this House will not receive any Petition from any Person whatsoever, touching the said Grants, or forfeited Estates.

Resolved, That this House will take into Consideration the great Services performed by the Commissioners appointed to inquire into the forfeited Estates of Ireland.

Ordered, That Sir Edmund Denton, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Wardens and Assistants of the Company of Worsted Weavers, in the City of Norwich, and County of Norfolk, on behalf of themselves, and others of the same Trade, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners trade is very much improved in the Making all Sorts of Stuffs of English Wool, fit for all Sorts of Persons; and met with great Encouragement during the late War, by reason the East India Company did not import so many Indian Commodities as formerly: But now the Petitioners Trade labours under very great Difficulties; and will be in Danger of being lost, unless some Restraint be laid, or Stop put to the Importation or Consumption of the vast Quantities of Wrought Silks, Bengalls, and printed and stained Calicoes, daily imported from India, which are worn instead of our Manufactures: And praying the Consideration of the House, and Relief in the Premises. Importing Wrought Silks, &c.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Mr. Blaithe, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to make the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath: And the same was received. Avon Navigation.

The Bill was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Wednesday Morning next.

A Petition of Mary Berrington, Aunt and Executrix to John Berrington, late Captain in the Marine Regiment, then commanded by the Right Honourable the Earl of Torrington, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Captain was killed in his Majesty's Service, in the Sea Fight at Torbay, in 1690; when there was due to him, for paying his Mens Subsistence, 268*l.* 13*s.*; as appeared by a stated Account, under the Hand of Seaborn Buckeridge, in 1692, then Agent of the said Regiment; to whom, as well as Mr. Harnage the now Agent, the Petitioner has made her constant Application; but cannot receive One Penny Satisfaction, though Mr. Harnage has actually received the Arrears due to the said Regiment: And praying, That he may be obliged to pay her what was due to Captain Berrington. Army Arrears.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Mary Oventon, Widow of Robert Oventon, and others, Serjeants of the Regiment of Foot, commanded formerly by Colonel John Hales, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is Three

Ditto.

Three Years Pay due to the Petitioners from the said Colonel, he having received the same; yet refuses to pay the Petitioners; to their utter Ruin, unless relieved by the House: And praying the Assistance of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nichols, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of Susanna Macomtash, Widow, Relict of James Macomtash, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner's said late Husband served, in all the Wars of Ireland, in the Earl of Meath's Regiment, until he was cut to Pieces on the Out Guards of Athlone, for which he had not received One Penny of Pay: That the said Regiment was afterwards made over to Colonel Frederick Hambleton, who has received the Arrears due to the said Regiment; but will not pay the Petitioner, who, with Two small Children, is reduced to a starving Condition: And praying the Consideration of the House, of her deplorable Case.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ditto.

A Petition of Richard Tinker, and others, Serjeants, in behalf of themselves, and others late of the Regiment of Foot commanded by the Honourable Colonel Richard Coote, formerly by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Lisborne, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Colonel Coote, refusing to pay them, or state their Accounts of what was due to them while under the Command of the Lord Lisborne, they went to him, pursuant to a late Act of Parliament for stating their Accounts; whose Answer was, He had nothing to say to them; but, when the King did discount with him, he would discount with them: And though he hath received great Part of the Money due to the Regiment while he commanded it, yet he will not pay the Petitioners, without this House will oblige him to it: And praying the Relief of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Account be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Rye
Harbour.

A Petition of the Mayor, Jurats, free Men, and chief Inhabitants, of the ancient Town and Port of Rye, in the County of Sussex, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Harbour of Rye is the only Harbour for Ships that the English have upon the Coast of Kent and Sussex, from the Downes to Portsmouth, Vol. 13.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the Electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Southampton in the County of Southampton, in the room of Sir Benj. Newland Knight, deceased.

A Petition of the poor Prisoners for Debt and Damages, in his Majesty's Gaol for the County Palatine of Lancaster, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners being many in Number, and by accidental Misfortunes rendered incapable to make their Creditors Satisfaction; and are become a Burden to the Country, and their Families chargeable to their respective Parishes; whereas, if the Petitioners had their Liberty, they could ease those Incumbrances: And praying the Consideration of the House, so as they may, by some Means or other, be relieved from their Confinement.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Prisoners in the King's Bench and Fleet is referred.

Mr. Carter reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill to enable Thomas Noble Gentleman to sell the undivided Third Part of the Manor of Forston, in the County of Leicester; and for settling other Lands, an intire Estate, of a greater Value, to the same Uses; was committed; That they had examined the Allegations of the Bill, and considered the same; and that all the Persons concerned had given their Consent to the Bill, to the Satisfaction of the Committee; and that they had directed him to report the same to the House, without any Amendment: And he delivered the same in at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, That the Bill be ingrossed.

Mr. Lowndes, according to Order, presented to the House a List of all Officers employed under the Crown, and of their Salaries, both those paid out of the Civil List, and out of the Monies appropriated, in a Book; and several Lists; the Titles whereof were read.

The Book and Lists are in One Book by themselves.

Ordered, That the said Book and Lists, do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

Mr. Lowndes also, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of the Freight due to Transport Ships.

And the Title thereof was read.

And the Account is as followeth; viz.

which is above 100 Miles by Sea: It lies very convenient for Ships sailing from East to West in Stress of Weather; and lies opposite to Diep, and other Ports of France; and Ships of War, of considerable Strength, used to ride there, to hinder French Ships from infesting our Coast; and, besides, the Mouth of the Harbour is but 60 Fathom wide; so that a Fort might be built there, at a small Charge, which will hinder an Enemy from coming to annoy the Ships riding in Rye Harbour: That the Tide used to flow and reflow, near 24 Miles from the said Harbour, up the River Rother; whereby small Vessels used used to convey the Commodities of several Towns to the Town of Rye; which thereby had a considerable Trade; and the Fishery also was then much better than now: All which Conveniences and Advantages of the said Harbour are in Danger of being lost, by reason that several Persons, of late Years, have inned several Acres of Land belonging to the said Harbour, and built Flood-gates, and made cross Walls, which hinder the Tide from its usual Flux and Reflux; whereby the Slub is stopped; and Seven Fathom Water, at Low-water Mark, is now brought to 3 Fathom, and yearly grows worse and worse; so that, unless some Care be taken therein, a Ship of Burden will not be able to come into Rye Harbour: And praying, That such Course may be taken for restoring the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness, as shall be thought fit; that so considerable a Harbour for the Benefit of the whole Kingdom may not be lost.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter; and report to the House, by what Means the said Harbour became so obstructed and decayed; and what they conceive is fit to be done in relation to the said Harbour.

And it is referred to Sir Robert Austen, Mr. Stringer, Mr. Offley, Mr. Roberts, Sir Joseph Jekill, Mr. Campion, Sir Robert Thomas, Mr. Poultney, Mr. Bridgman, Mr. Churchill, Sir Cha. Windham, Sir Richard Onslow, Sir Geo. Rook, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Foley, Mr. Hamond, Mr. Pelham; and all that serve for the Counties of Kent, Sussex, and for the Cinque and Sea Ports: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Sir Charles Carteret have Leave to go into the Country, for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Ordered, That Mr. Mostyn have Leave to go into the Country, for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Blacket*, Mr. Harley, Mr. Offley, Mr. Price, Mr. Blofield, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Lee, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Western, Sir Jacob Ashly, be added to the Committee of Privileges and Elections.

Order respecting Door-keepers Attendance of Committee of Privileges, &c.

Ordered, That the Order of the 18th of January last, That the Serjeant at Arms attending this House do give Orders to the Door-keepers and Messengers of the House, constantly to attend the Committee of Privileges and Elections, and other Committees sitting in the House; and take care, that no Person do crowd or sit upon the Stairs of the House, either below, or above in the Gallery, where the Members ought to sit; and that such Witnesses as shall be examined at the said Committee do attend in the Lobby; and be called in one by one, and severally examined, and then withdraw, for others to come in, and be examined; and that the Passage be kept clear for that Purpose; be revived: And that the same be a standing Order of the House.

Westminster Small Debts.

Ordered, That a Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time upon Tuesday Morning next, in a full House.

State of Trade.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Monday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and nothing to intervene.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made a further Progress in the Matters to them referred; and had directed him to move, That the Lords of the Admiralty may lay before the House an Account of the Distribution of the Number of Seamen now in Service, the Rates of the Ships, their Stations, and Complements of Men.

Ordered, That the Lords of the Admiralty do lay before this House an Account of the Distribution of the Number of Seamen now in Service, the Rates of the Ships, their Stations, and Complements of Men.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Lords of the Admiralty may lay before the House a Copy of his Majesty's Order, of the 29th Day of May last, relating to Retrenchments in the Establishment of the Navy; and what they have done in pursuance thereof.

Ordered, That the Lords of the Admiralty do lay before this House a Copy of his Majesty's Order, of the 29th Day of May last, relating to Retrenchments in the Establishment of the Navy; and what they have done in pursuance thereof.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they directed him to move, That the Lords of the Admiralty may lay before the House an Estimate of the Charge of the Ordinary of the Navy, for the Year 1700; and of the extraordinary Charges of Repairs necessary to be performed in that Year.

Ordered, That the Lords of the Admiralty do lay before this House an Estimate of the Charge of the Ordinary of the Navy, for the Year 1700; and of the extraordinary Charges of Repairs necessary to be performed in that Year.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

PRAYERS.

APETITION of Richard Henneage, and others, Army in behalf of themselves and others, disbanded, and Arrears. lately commanded by the Honourable Colonel Harry Mordant, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there are several Years Arrears of Cloathing due to them, besides great Deductions of Pay; which their Officers detain from them, though they paid several of their Serjeants 50, 48, and 44<sup>l</sup>. a Man; but will give nothing to Corporals, Drums, and Centinels, on Pretence of Ten Months Pay received by Order of the Lords of the Admiralty, as Marines: And, to defraud the Petitioners of what is due to them, Mr. Tho. Pennington, the Agent of the said Regiment, makes use of several Receipts in full of all Accounts, which they must sign, or receive nothing; and many through Necessity, and others being illiterate, and not knowing what they did, signed the same, by reason of which, the said Agent says, there is nothing due to the Petitioners; though they could never get any Account from him: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred : And that they do examine the Matter thereof ; and report the same, with their Opinion therein to the House.

May's Estate.

Ordered, That Mr. Hughes, and all that serve for the Counties of Suffolk and Essex, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill to enable Thomas May to sell Lands, in the County of Suffolk, which were settled upon his First and Second Marriage ; and to convey other Lands, of a greater Value, in the same County, to the same Uses ; is committed.

Excise Penalties, &c.

Mr. Clark, from the Commissioners of Excise, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of Penalties and Forfeitures received at the Office of Excise for Ten Years last ; viz. from Midsummer One thousand Six hundred Eighty-nine, to Midsummer One thousand Six hundred Ninety-nine ; and how the same have been disposed of : And also,

A State of the several Branches of the Revenue of Excise of Beer, Ale, and other exciseable Liquors, how appropriated, for what time granted, and how much were the gross and net Produces of the same, severally, for the Year ending at Midsummer One thousand Six hundred Ninety-nine ; together with an Account how the Expences of Management of the respective Branches of the Revenue of Excise are charged : And also,

An Estimate of the gross and net Produces of the several Branches of the Revenue of Excise of Beer, Ale, and other exciseable Liquors, from Midsummer 1699, to Michaelmas following : And also,

An Account of the Produce of the Malt Duty, and what is now standing out in Arrear, and the Charge of the Management of that Duty.

And the Titles thereof were read.

And the said Accounts, State, and Estimate, are as follow ; viz.

The said ACCOUNT of Penalties and Forfeitures, received at the Office of Excise, for Ten Years last ; viz. from Midsummer One thousand Six hundred Eighty-nine, to Midsummer One thousand Six hundred Ninety-nine ; and how the same have been disposed of.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Election for the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, be made To-morrow Morning.

Debtors Petition.

A Petition of the many Prisoners in the County Prisons of England, particularly in the County of Cornwall, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, by Losses and Misfortunes, are detained in Prison for Ten times more than they owe, by the Contrivance of ill Attorneys, holding them to excessive Bail, and by outlawing them without Notice, to their utter Ruin; against which there is no Redress, but by a Suit at Law, which poor Prisoners are no ways able to undergo: That, by the late Composition Act, many hundred Prisoners in and about London were discharged; but the Prisoners in remote Parts did not know of the said Act, till the Time therein limited was past: So that the Petitioners are without Remedy, reduced to great Want, without the Relief of this House: And praying, That Consideration may be had of their deplorable Condition; and some Remedy may be found out for their Relief.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Prisoners in the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet is referred.

A Petition of Sir Charles Bickerstaffe, Proposer of the Land Kentish Land Lottery; John Warkhouse, Robert Doughty, Thomas Gratwick, Esquires, Proposers of the Norfolk Land Lottery; Henry Cotigno Gentleman, and others, Trustees for the Hornsey Land Lottery; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Lotteries were not set on foot for any private Advantage to any particular Person, but to accommodate the Necessities of the several Families concerned, and to discharge several Debts, which cannot be otherwise discharged, but by intire Sale of the whole Estates; and that the Persons concerned have been at great Charges, and made considerable Progress therein, but have no time to perfect the Drawing, within the time limited by the late Act for suppressing Lotteries: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for allowing them to complete and draw the said Lotteries.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee; and they to examine the Matter, and report to the House their Opinion thereupon;

Navy Establishment.

The said Copy of his Majesty's Order of the 29th of May last, relating to Retrenchments in the Establishment of the Navy; viz.

My Lords, Whitehall, 29th May 1699.

His Majesty commands me to acquaint you, That he would have you take into Consideration, and lay before him, what you think may be conveniently retrenched from the present Charge of the Navy; and particularly that you apply yourselves to consider what relates to Half-pay, or double Half-pay, pretended to by the Officers of the Fleet in time of Peace; and how far the same may be fit to be continued. I am, my Lords,

Your Lordships most faithful humble Servant,

A true Copy.

J. Burchett,

Ja. Vernon.

VOL. 13.

The said Memorial concerning Retrenchments in the Navy, pursuant to his Majesty's Order of the 29th of May 1699.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England.

Memorial for their Excellencies the Lords Justices.

His Majesty's Pleasure having been signified to us, by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Vernon, the 29th of May last, that we should consider, and lay before his Majesty, what we think may be most conveniently retrenched from the present Charge of the Navy; and that we should particularly consider what relates to Half-pay, and the double Half-pay, pretended to by the Officers of the Fleet in time of Peace; and how far the same may be fit to be continued: And their Excellencies the Lords Justices having

Navy Establishment.

having lately signified their Pleasure to us, That, in pursuance of his Majesty's said Commands, we should consider of and prepare a Scheme to be laid before them, for lessening the Expences of the several Branches of the Navy: We do humbly report to their Excellencies, in the following Method, what we have already ordered to be retrenched since his Majesty's Pleasure was signified to us; and what other Heads have fallen under our Consideration for Retrenchments: Which we most humbly expect their Excellencies Directions in; viz.

We did, in the first Place, give Orders for discharging the Muster-masters at Yarmouth and Shorcham, whose Salaries together amounted to 150*l.* per Annum.

We have ordered the Navy Board to cause all possible Dispatch to be made, in the Finishing the new 5th Rate building at Kinsale; and that, so soon as the same is done, not only the Officers and Workmen now in Pay there be retrenched, but the Yards also, and Houses hired therein on occasion of the War, and the Hulks, Transport Vessels, and Stores brought away, and only the Person continued there, who now serves as Store-keeper and Clerk of the Cheque, to look after the King's Yard and Houses, and muster the Ships, which shall have Occasion, from time to time, to come to that Port; whereby the yearly Charge of about 1,500*l.* will be saved.

And, in regard it is intended the Squadron now in the Streights shall be called home, Orders will be given for sending from thence the Officers belonging to One of the Two Hulks, which Hulks are to be left with the Officers only of One, to do what is necessary for cleaning and careening the Squadron going against Sally; so that the yearly charge of 138*l.* will by this means be retrenched.

The Solicitor for the Affairs of this and the Navy Office having had 100*l.* a Year during the War, that Salary is retrenched; and he is to do the Duty of his Place for his Fees only.

As for the Charge, which his Majesty has been at upon account of the Officers, for managing the Affairs of the Register, and Sick and Wounded, we have ordered the Navy Board, according to their own Proposals, to cause the same to be performed by Members of their Board, not charged with any particular Branch of the Business of their Office, and the like Directions will be given for the carrying on by those Gentlemen the Business for collecting the Sixpences, according to Act of Parliament, from Seamen, towards maintaining the Hospital at Greenwich; by which Retrenchment, including the Instruments necessary to assist the Commissioners appointed for this Service, his Majesty will be eased of the Charge of more than 2,000*l.* per Annum.

Having thus laid before their Excellencies the several Particulars, which we have already ordered to be retrenched for easing the growing Charge, which amounts to near 4,000*l.* per Annum, we pray Leave humbly to mention some other Heads, which have been proposed by the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy for Retrenchments, together with our Observations thereon; viz.

1st. That of Secretary to the Fleet, in regard every Admiral, . . . is presumed, may reasonably expect to have the Choice of his own Secretary. Upon this Head, we pray Leave to inform their Excellencies, That this standing Office of Secretary to the Fleet was approved of, and directed by his Majesty, and accordingly he was established, as well for Peace as War, at the Allowance of 450*l.* per Annum for himself and Clerk: The then Board of Admiralty did think it advisable to recommend such an Officer, in regard not only of the Trust incident to the Employment, but that they might have more particular Accounts of all Transactions in the Fleet; and in regard it has heretofore happened, as possibly it may hereafter, that the Choice of such an Officer by the Admiral may sufficiently shew what Caution ought to be taken who is admitted to that Trust; and that the Expence thereof has often amounted, during the late War, to as much, or more than the Allowance to the present Officers: It is therefore most humbly submitted to their Excellencies, whether this Office shall be retrenched, or continued as it is.

2. There is an Officer, who has, during the late War, and still does enjoy the Salary of 200*l.* per Annum, upon account of building Bomb Vessels for his Majesty; and though the Want of such an Officer may, at this time, in our humble Opinion, be dispensed with; yet, in regard he was appointed by his Majesty's special Warrant, we do humbly submit it to their Excellencies.

3. Another Person has, for many Years, enjoyed the Salary of 50*l.* per Annum, as Surveyor of the Woods in New England: His Business is, as he informs us, the Taking Care to preserve the Trees in those Parts fit for Masts; and he says, That in doing it, he yearly expends the Moiety of his Salary. The Navy Board acquaint us, That they do not remember any Benefit has accrued to the Navy by the Service of this Person; wherefore we shall only inform their Excellencies, That he holds his Employment under the Great Seal, and submit his Case to their Excellencies Pleasure.

4. As to what relates to the Sea Officers their being allowed double Pay while at Sea, and Half-pay on Shore, we have had under our Consideration what Alterations or Retrenchments may be made in that Particular; but it being a matter of such Consequence, as requires a very mature Consideration, before any Opinion be given concerning the same, we shall accordingly weigh every particular Circumstance relating thereto, with respect not only to the Good of the Service, but the comfortable Support of the Officers; and give their Excellencies our Opinion upon the Whole as soon as possibly may be.

And having thus laid before their Excellencies, not only the several Particulars already retrenched by us, but those also which have been offered to us for Retrenchments, with our Observations thereon, we pray Leave further to observe, That notwithstanding what has been, since the War, retrenched by the late Board, what has further been done therein by us, and what other Methods ought to be taken, for easing the present Charge, as far as it may consist with the Good of his Majesty's Service, the principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy have represented to us the Evils, which attend the Taking off the Assistants to the Surveyor, Clerk of the Acts, and Comptroller of the Victualling Accounts, as also the Reduction of the Salaries to the chief Clerks in the Ticket Office; insomuch that they acquaint us, they should think it unanswerable in them, did they not represent it to us as a Retrenchment wholly unsafe for his Majesty both in his Service and Treasure, and for them in their Management thereof, while assisted by Persons labouring under Salaries so little adequate to the Trusts committed to them, or the Qualifications fitting them for the same: Whereupon we did, some Days since, direct those Gentlemen, That, in case their present Instructions were not sufficient to enable them effectually to carry on his Majesty's Service, they should propose unto us what they thought proper, with respect to the Adding no greater Charge to the Navy than was absolutely necessary; and they having thereupon recommended to us the Continuance of the Second Assistant to the Surveyor of the Navy at 150*l.* per Annum, and the Assistants to the Clerk of the Acts and Comptroller of the Victualling at 300*l.* per Annum each; as also the Salaries of the chief Clerk to the Comptroller of the Navy in the Business of Wages, and the Two chief Clerks of the Ticket Office, at 200*l.* per Annum each; we thought it our Duty humbly to acquaint their Excellencies, That, upon Consideration of the great Increase of Business in the late War, it was, on the repeated Instances of the Navy Board, thought for the Service to appoint Two Assistants to the Surveyor of the Navy, and to increase the Salary of the Comptroller's chief Clerk, and to the Two chief Clerks to the Ticket Office, that of the Assistant to the Clerk of the Acts having been an Office at the Salary of 300*l.* per Annum, as well before as during the whole Time of the late War: But, in regard the former Board did think it necessary intirely to reduce the aforesaid Assistants, and to retrench the Salaries of the Three

Three Clerks; and the Navy Board have since, in so pressing a manner, represented the Inconveniencies thereof, and the Necessity there is of restoring both the one and the other, we do most humbly report our Opinion to their Excellencies, That, in regard those Gentlemen are, by daily Experience, the most proper Judges what Assistance is wanting, to enable them to carry on the Business of their Office to the Advantage of his Majesty's Service, we cannot do otherwise than advise the restoring the afore-mentioned Officers, and the Salaries to the Clerks, lest otherwise the Discipline and Oeconomy of the Navy be subjected to the Inconveniencies those Gentlemen are apprehensive of: We do most humbly submit the same to their Excellencies, for such Directions therein as their Excellencies shall think fit. Dated at the Admiralty Office this 27th July 1699.

The said Memorial about the Double and Half-pay for the Officers of his Majesty's Fleet, in pursuance of his Majesty's Order of the 29th of May 1699.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, &c.

Memorial for their Excellencies the Lord Justices in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased by his Order in Council, dated the 22d February 1694. to establish Double Pay on the Flag Officers, Commanders, Lieutenants, Masters, and Surgeons, of his Majesty's Ships of War, during their being in Service at Sea, and Half of the said Pay in the time of Peace at Home, to the Flag Officers, and Commanders of Ships, of the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4, and 5th Rates, and of Fire Ships; as also to the First Lieutenants, and the Masters of the 1st, 2, and 3d Rates, who should serve and perform their respective Duties as is required by the said Establishment: And his Majesty's Pleasure having been signified to this Board the 29th of May last, by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Vernon, That we should take into Consideration, and lay before his Majesty, what might conveniently be retrenched from the present Charge of the Navy; and that particularly we should apply ourselves to consider what relates to the before-mentioned Double Pay and Half-pay; and how far the same may be fit to be continued: We, having already reported to their Excellencies, what Retrenchments have been made in the Charge of the Navy since the Close of the War, do humbly refer their Excellencies thereunto for Answer to his Majesty's Pleasure signified in the first Part of Mr. Secretary's aforesaid Letter.

As for the other Part thereof, which relates to the Double Pay of the Officers at Sea, and Half-pay while out of Employment on Shore, we have had that Matter under mature Consideration; and do humbly propose to their Excellencies, That, in case the present Pay, which his Majesty has been graciously pleased to establish on them for their Encouragement and Support, shall be thought too great, the following Allowances may be made them; viz.

Surgeons to have their present Allowance of Sea Pay.

By which their Excellencies will perceive, That near a Third Part of the present Double Pay to these Officers will be retrenched.

Having thus laid before their Excellencies our Opinion, relating to the Sea Pay of the Officers of the Fleet, we think it our Duty humbly to offer, That it will be much for his Majesty's Service, and for the safety of the Kingdom, to have always a competent Number of experienced Sea Officers supported on Shore, who may be within Reach to answer any sudden or emergent Occasion; and therefore do humbly propose the Number of Flag Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters following, to be always supported on Shore while out of Employment, by the Allowances against their Names expressed.

Captains 50: Who have served during the late War, according to their Seniorities from the Dates of their First Commissions; viz. Twenty of them at 10 s. and Thirty at 8 s. per diem.

Lieutenants 100: Who have served during the late War, according to their Seniorities from the Dates of their First Commissions; viz. 40 at 2 s. 6 d. and Sixty at Two Shillings per diem.

Masters 30: Who have served during the late War, according to their Seniority from the Dates of their First Warrants; viz. Fifteen of them at 2 s. 6 d. and Fifteen at 2 s. per diem.

The whole Charge whereof amounting but to 18,113 l. per Annum more than Half of what was allowed by the former Establishment, according to the Estimates made thereof, will be saved to his Majesty.

It is further humbly proposed,

1st, That this Allowance to the said Officers for their Support on Shore, be placed in the ordinary Estimate of the Navy, and paid quarterly, by Bills to be signed for the same by the principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, according to such Orders as they shall, from time to time, receive, on that behalf, . . . the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; and not only this Allowance, but also the Sea Pay, may commence from the First day of this present October.

2dly, That the Officers to receive the Benefit of this Allowance on Shore, shall be only such as to the Flag Officers, Captains, and Lieutenants, who have, or shall be commissioned, by the Lord High Admiral of England, or

or the Lords Commissioners for executing that Office; and, as to the Masters, such who have, or shall be warranted, by the principal Officers of the Navy, or such Flag Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, as have, or shall be appointed by the Admirals, Commanders in Chief, or others abroad; and shall have their Commissions or Warrants confirmed by the Lord High Admiral, the Lords Commissioners for executing that Office, or the principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, respectively.

3dly, That no Officer be intitled to this Allowance on Shore, who shall absent himself from his Majesty's Service without the Permission of the Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners for executing that Office, or that shall be dismissed therefrom for any Misdemeanor, either by the Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or by Sentence of a Court Martial; or who shall not behave himself to the full Satisfaction of the Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty aforesaid.

4thly, That no Officer whatsoever, who shall have Leave to be absent, be intitled to the Benefit of this Allowance, in case, during the time of his Absence, he shall be employed in Merchants Service, or otherwise, so as to be out of his Majesty's Dominions, and thereby rendered unable to attend his Majesty's Service, when summoned thereunto.

5thly, That no Officer be intitled to this Allowance during the time he shall enjoy the Benefit of any publick Employment.

6. That the Flag Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, who shall have this Allowance, shall, at all times be ready to obey such Orders as they shall receive from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing that Office, for the Time being; to which End they are to transmit an Account, from time to time, to the Secretary to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, of the Places of their respective Habitations, that so, when his Majesty's Service requires their Attendance, they may be the more readily called thereunto.

7. And whereas it may be thought necessary for the Service, That not only some of the Flag Officers, but also of the Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, intitled to this Allowance, should reside near his Majesty's respective Yards, to assist in the Fitting out of his Majesty's Ships, or doing any other Service; the said Flag Officers, as well as the Captains, Lieutenants, and Masters, shall be obliged to reside at such Place or Places as the Lord High Admiral, or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, shall, from time to time, direct; and diligently to perform all such Services as shall be required from them.

8. After the First Settlement of Officers for this Allowance, when any of them shall die, or that it shall be found necessary for the Service to employ any of them at Sea, whether Captains, Lieutenants, or Masters, the same Number of like Officers, who have the next Right thereunto by Seniority, with respect to the Dates of their First Commissions or Warrants, are to be admitted to the said Allowance in their room, so long as they shall be in Service; which Officers, so in Sea Pay, shall return again to the said Allowance so soon as discharged, and those put in their room are then to have no longer the said Allowance, unless any of them shall have a present Claim thereunto by the Death or Removal of some one or more of those Officers who preceded them; that so the Persons who shall, from time to time, enjoy this Benefit, may be constantly such Officers out of Employment as have a fair Pretension thereunto by their Seniority as aforesaid; and, according to their Seniority, they are to have the Benefit either of the greater or lesser Allowance, not only at the First Settlement thereof on them, but as Opportunities shall happen of placing others, either by Death or otherwise, which is most humbly submitted.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Account, Estimate, Order, and Memorials, be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered,

Guildford
Election.

Ordered, That Mr. Blathwait do lay before this House an Account of such Persons who had Half-pay, who have been otherwise provided for by his Majesty.

Sir Roxland Gwynn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to the said Committee touching the Election for the Borough of Guildford in the County of Surry; and the Resolution of the Committee, thereupon; which they had directed him to report to the House: Which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the Petition of John Weston Esquire, complaining of an undue Election, and Return of Foot Onslow Esquire, to serve for the Borough:

That, upon the Polls, the Numbers were,

For Mr. Weston	-	-	-	-	114
For Mr. Onslow	-	-	-	-	108

So that the Petitioner having the Majority of the Poll, it rested upon the Sitting Member to justify his Return.

And, to that End and Purpose, the Sitting Member's Counsel took Exception to Eleven of the Persons that voted for the Petitioner; viz. John Betts, Joseph Cowper, Emery Parker, Jonas Christmas, Henry Catten, Geo. Stanton, George Lyne, Robert Gates, James Lyne, John Tidy, Daniel Green:

That the Right was agreed to be in the Freemen and Freeholders resient in the Borough, paying Scot and Lot.

That, to make out the Sitting Member's Exceptions, the Counsel called.

James May: Who said, He was a Shoemaker; and Betts was only bound to him under a Colour to be made free of the Town; and that his Indentures were sealed Two Years after the Date; and that Betts lived with his Mother after he was bound, and used the Trade of a Barber; though May acknowledged, That during the time he was bound, he had the Benefit of his Service for about a Year and half.

That, as to Joseph Cowper, Geo. Hoggsflesh said, That the said Cowper was Apprentice to John Tidy; and that John Tidy was Apprentice to him the said Hoggsflesh; and he could not reckon himself a Freeman, he having been refused his Poll till he had bought a Freehold; and Tidy served him before the said Purchase: That Geo. Hoggsflesh himself served his Apprenticeship with his own Father, who served in London.

Mr. Leonard Child, Town Clerk, said, That Emery Parker did not live within the Liberties of the Borough; for that his House stands in a Part of the Parish of the Holy Trinity, that is out of the Borough: That in 1689, he was polled with a Query; and at Mr. Weston's Election before, he was scratched out by one of Mr. Weston's own Friends.

Samuel Smalpeice said, That he was Overseer of the Poor in 1698; and that Jonas Christmas did not pay to the Second Book for that Year; nor did pay to the Window Tax or Poll Tax, but acknowledged, That the said Christmas was charged to the Poor 1 s.; which he deducted, when he paid the said Christmas for making a Parish Boy's Cloaths.

James Burt said, That he was Collector for the Poor in 98; and that Henry Catten was charged to the Poor 5 d. a Month for that Year; and that Mr. Goodyear paid for Henry Catten what the said Catten was charged in the Second Book for that Year; but could not tell for what Reason Goodyear paid for him; and he never demanded the Tax of Catten. Burt further said, That Henry Catten was excused from the Window Tax, by reason of his Poverty; and is not charged to the Poor this Year.

Thomas Burchard and Mr. Child said, That Robert Peters was no Freeman; and that George Stanton, Geo. Lyne, Robert Gates, and James Lyne, were Apprentices to the said Peters; but Peters and the said Four Persons excepted to, did use Trades in Guildford: And Mr. Child said, That Peters exercised his Trade in a Back-yard, though within the Liberties: That he never knew the said Peters prosecuted for following his Trade, not being a Freeman; but said, That Peters never pretended to vote at this, or any former Election.

George Hoggsflesh said, That John Tidy served his Apprenticeship with him in Guildford; but it was before he was a Freeholder.

Mr. Child said, That Daniel Green served his Father, who lives in the Heart of the Town; but does not pretend to be free, nor ever offered to be polled.

That then the Sitting Member's Counsel called

Mr. John Wight, who has been Recorder 24 Years;

Angelo Burt, that had been Mayor, and lived at Guildford 50 Years; and Mr. Child the Town Clerk.

The Recorder said, They had a Prescription of Appropriation of Trade against Foreigners; and it had been allowed, and Judgment given for it upon a Demurrer: And they all Three agreed, That serving with a Non-freeman would not intitle to a Freedom; and when such have polled, they have been always put down with a Query, but never allowed.

That the Petitioner's Counsel insisted, That they would justify their own Votes; and excepted to Sixteen that voted for the Sitting Member.

That, as to John Betts, the Counsel produced the Indenture by which John Betts was bound to James May, which was for Seven Years; and called again James May, who gave Evidence to the Effect, as when first examined.

That, as to Emery Parker, William Nevill said, That he had gone the Bounds of the Town; and that they bounded Emery Parker's House within the Town; that the Mayor of the Town commands this House towards the Watch for the Borough; but said, He did not know that the Mayor used to carry his Mace to this House, or that any used to vote for this House.

Mr. Richard Coldham produced an Indenture 10th Sept. 41 Eliz. which he said he found among Emery Parker's Writings, wherein this House is mentioned to be within Guildford.

Richard Goodyear said, That Henry Catten had paid to the Poor for about Ten Year; but that the said Catten was seldom at home, and so the said Goodyear had paid for him: That, as to the particular Book which he paid for the said Catten, the said Catten gave him Orders so to do, he owing him Money for Work; but Catten has paid before and since; but that did not appear by the Books.

That, as to the Objection made to Seven, That they had not served their Apprenticeships to Freemen;

Thomas Hoggsflesh said, That John Tidy was Apprentice to George Hoggsflesh his Brother, who uses the Trade of a Taylor, and paid Scot and Lot; and has polled for 20 Years, and never knew him interrupted till now; and that his Brother was made free by his Father's Copy, who was a Freeman.

But George Hoggsflesh, his Brother, confronting him, said, That his Poll had been refused twice as no Freeman, and did not remember that he had ever polled; and said, He did not know whether his Father was a Freeman or no; but he is certain his Grandfather is not.

Tidy said, That Mr. Onslow, in this Election, sent to him for his Vote; that he has served Seven Years Apprenticeship, and polled for Twenty Years.

Mr. Child produced Daniel Green's Indenture.

That the Petitioner's Counsel then excepted to Sixteen that voted for the Sitting Member, Mr. Onslow; viz. Mr. Pigott, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Goodyear, John Westbrook, Sam. Barton, John Stoner, as not-paying Scot and Lot; Thomas Hiller, Tho. Roberts, Daniel Hall, John Mulford, Tho. Thatcher, Nath. Prior, John Burt, Wm. Williamson, Robert Williamson, Richard Chewter, being neither Freemen nor Freeholders.

But as to John Stoner, Nath. Prior, and Richard Chewter, they were afterwards given up by the Petitioner's Counsel, when they came to give their Evidence.

X

Samuel

Guildford
Election.

Samuel Smalpeice delivered in the Book of Rates for the Poor in the Year 1698.

John Betts said, Mr. Pigott did not pay in 1698, till after the Election, nor was in the Poors Book.

That Samuel Barton is not in the Poors Book at all.

Burchard said, That Mr. Vernon was never in the Poors Book, he being Minister; and it is not usual to charge the Minister to the Poor.

That Goodyear did not pay to Church and Poor; but the said Goodyear lived in another Parish.

Matth. Weston produced the Poors Book for St. Nicolas' Parish in the Year 1698.

John Westbrook said, That John Westbrook his Father, who voted for Mr. Onslow, his Name was not in the Poors Book; and that himself had paid all Dues for Three Years, and he had kept his Father all the while; and that he had paid for the Estate, but it was not made over to him by Conveyance in Form.

But, upon inspecting the Books, John Westbrook, and John Westbrook junior, were both charged in the Poors Books.

Richard Goodyear said, That Daniel Hall served his Time at Darking, but had lived at Guildford 18 or 20 Years.

Joseph Benbrigg said, That Thomas Roberts served Mr. Neeves, a Foreigner.

That Thomas Hiller has not been suffered to poll these 20 Years, but with a Query, having served his Time in London, and therefore objected to as no Freeman.

That John Mulford, though a Mason, and has lived at Guildford Ten Years, has been always objected to for the same Reason.

That Thomas Thatcher has not been admitted to poll these 20 Years for the same Reason.

That John Burt, though he believes he may have traded in Guildford Twenty Years, was never allowed to be a Freeman.

That Wm. Williamson is no Freeman, having served his Apprenticeship with his Father, who was no Freeman.

That Robert Williamson is in the same Circumstance; though it was acknowledged they lived in Guildford, and followed their Trades there.

That the Petitioner's Counsel also insisted, That they would add Four to their Poll; viz. Mr. Shaw, Ant. Soper, Henry Clark, Mr. Gilham; but as to Soper, they gave no Evidence.

Mr. Coldham said, That Mr. Shaw was 88 Years of Age, and Master of the Hospital, and a Freeman: That he could not say he paid Scot and Lot, but he saw him at the Place of Polling; and the said Mr. Shaw told him, He came for Mr. Weston and Mr. Randyll, but could not say he actually did offer his Vote.

That Henry Clark told him, He believed he was polled; and Mr. Coldham said, That Clerk is reputed to have a Right.

That Mr. Gilham was there; and has a Freehold, and demanded to be polled, and was not polled: That Part of Mr. Gilham's House was in Guildford, and Part in Stoke; and that Part which was in Guildford was formerly lett to Tenants; but the Door was now shut, and he believes he makes use of the Door in Stoke; and that he had served High Constable in Stoke.

Mr. Gilham, said, That old Mr. Child desired him to give his Vote for Mr. Foot Onslow; and told him, He had a good Vote: That he did pay to Church and to Highways, but had not been long enough to pay to Church and Poor; but offering to vote for Mr. Weston, he was refused.

Henry Clark said, That he tendered and gave his Vote for Mr. Randyll and Mr. Weston; and that the great Question upon him was, Whether he was in the Poors Book; and that he had paid to the Poor above Seven Years.

That Mr. Weston's Counsel also objected to the Carriage of the Mayor; and called

Mr. Coldham, Mr. Fra. Lee, Mr. Bambrig:

The Substance of whose Evidence was, That the Mayor was remarkably on Mr. Onslow's Side; and though, on Friday in the Afternoon, there were few or none to poll but Henry Clark, and Mr. Weston pressed the Mayor to declare the Poll, yet he adjourned the Court to Monday, without Mr. Weston's Consent.

That the Counsel for Mr. Onslow, to justify the Votes excepted to by Mr. Weston's Counsel, called

Samuel Smalpeice: Who said, That Mr. Pigott is Schoolmaster at Guildford; and though he did not pay to the First Poors Rate, he being newly come thither, he paid to the Second: That the former Schoolmaster paid 20s. a Year; and this is rated at 7s. a Quarter.

Tho. Burchard said, That Mr. Vernon's Living is worth about 40*l.* a Year; but they did not rate him, because his Living was so small; and he repairs the Chancel at his own Charge.

Angelo Burt said, That Mr. Vernon had paid to the Poll and Window Tax.

Mr. George Terry said, That he paid Mr. Goodyear 5*l.* 10s. a Year; and that 30s. a Year was abated him in his Rent upon his Account of Paying of Taxes.

That then, as to point of Freedom, The Counsel produced a Book of the Names of the Freemen.

Angelo Burt said, That Robert Williamson is the eldest Son of his Father, who was a Freeman; which also appeared by the Book.

William Williamson's Indentures were produced to the Committee.

Nathanael Prior was given up:

That Thomas Hiller was the Son of John Hiller, who was reputed to have been the Apprentice of a Freeman, and ever voted.

Edward Neve said, That Thomas Roberts was his Apprentice; and that Thomas Roberts served him before he was free; and after, viz. a Year after he was free; and Roberts follows the Trade, and pays Scot and Lot.

Wm. Bettsworth said, That Daniel Hall was his Apprentice, and produced his Indentures; and said, That himself had been 20 Years before.

That, as to John Mulford;

Katharine Mawkes said, Her Brother was bound to her Father, who was a Freeman.

That it appeared, by the Freeman's Book,

That Thomas Thatcher was Free as the Son of his Father, who was a Freeman.

Smalfeast said, That John Burt was Apprentice to Geo. Mason, and his Father used the Trade of a Sadler; and no body questioned his being free; and that Burt has voted before.

The Recorder said, That he was present at the time the Poll depended; and that it was managed with as much Calinness and Temper as a thing of that Nature could be; and Mr. Weston himself declared, That the Poll was very well carried on.

Mr. Leonard Child said, That Mr. Onslow excepted against Five Quakers, until they should make their Affirmation; and thereupon they ordered them to stand by till the Poll was over: But Henry Clark withdrew himself, and did not come again, which was the Reason he was not polled.

Daniel Green said, That the Mayor and Town Clerk asked Henry Clark of his Ability, and who he polled for; and the said Clerk answered, For Randyll and Weston.

That, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to this Resolution; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Foot Onslow Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Guildford in the County of Surrey.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Foot Onslow Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Guildford in the County of Surry;

PRAYERS.

A Member
discharged
from Custody.

ORDERED, That Mr. Harris, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Hopwood's
Marriage
Settlement.

A Bill for rectifying a Mistake in the Marriage Settlement of Thomas Hopwood Gentleman and Elizabeth his Wife, in order to raise Portions for younger Children, and to pay Debts, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Lord Corningsby, Sir John Morden, Mr. Harley, Mr. Foley, Mr. Osborne, Mr. England, Sir William Ashurst, Mr. Wynne, Mr. Carter, Sir Fra. Child, Mr. Probert, Mr. Hamond, Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Eyres, Mr. White, Mr. Phillips, Sir John Aubery, Mr. Stonehouse, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Topham, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Gauntlet, Mr. Booth, Mr. Ashurst: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Avon
Navigation.

Mr. Eyres, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for making the Act for making the River Avon navigable, from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum, more effectual: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

Petition from Artillery
Train.

A Petition of Thomas Dilks, and Patrick Mullins, on behalf of themselves, and others belonging to his Majesty's Descent Train of Artillery, commanded by Sir Martin Beckman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That * * * *

..... That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter, and report the same to the House:

And it is referred to Mr. Hancock, Sir Tho. Frankland, Mr. Bertie, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Ashurst, Mr. Mountague, Mr. Hayes, Sir Rich. Farrington, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Vane, Mr. Stringer, Mr. Jennings, Mr. White, Sir Fra. Drake, Mr. Probert, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Carter, Sir Rich. Onslow, Mr. Bridges, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Chaffin, Mr. Jolliffe: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

A Petition of George Watts, and others, late of the Regiment of Foot commanded by the Honourable Major General Stuart, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners were discharged the Service in April last, when there was considerable Sums due to them for Arrears of Subsistence, Cloathing and Short Allowance Money while at Sea; for which the Petitioners have applied themselves to the said Major General, but can obtain no Relief from him: And praying such Relief therein as the House in Justice shall think meet.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinions therein, to the House.

A Petition of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster was presented to the House, and read; setting forth; That time out of mind there hath been an ancient Court of Record, held every Three Weeks, within the City and Liberties of Westminster, for the Ease and Relief of such Persons as had just Cause of Action, for any Debt or Damages under 40*s.* by Way of Summons, and Distress of the Defendant's Goods, in case of his Non-appearance: But some Persons, unknown to the Petitioners, are endeavouring to pass a Bill in this House, for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof; which, the Petitioners are advised, will rather prove a Detriment to the Inhabitants than a Convenience; there being as speedy and easy Relief already in the said Three Weeks Court as can well be granted; and praying, That no such Bill may pass until the Petitioners be heard by Counsel.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Westminster was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That within the said City and Liberties there is an ancient Court, holding Plea of Debt and Damages under 40*s.* in which there always was a speedy and easy Remedy for Recovery of small Debts, until lately the Proceedings of the said ..... hath met with some Obstructions; and therefore Persons have been unwilling to trust for small Sums, for want of an easy Remedy for Recovery thereof; which hath greatly prejudiced the poorer Sort of People, who want small Credit for carrying on their Trades: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for removing the said Obstructions, and restoring the ancient Remedy in the said Court for the Recovery of small Debts.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time.

The Earl of Ranelagh, according to Order, presented to the House an Abstract of the Arrears due to the Land Forces to the 25th Day of March 1699: And also,

An Abstract of the Establishment and Estimate of the Arrears for the Year ending the 25th of March 1700: And also,

A Disposition of 561,014*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* received out of the 600,000*l.* appropriated last Session of Parliament for Land Service.

And the Titles thereof were read.

And the said Abstracts are as follow; viz.

The said ABSTRACT of the Arrears of Pay due to the several Regiments, Troops, and Companies following; shewing the Sum due to each of them; viz. To the Troops in England, and those in the Plantations, to the 25th March 1699; when they were placed on the new Establishment: To the Troops in Ireland, Scotland, and the States General Service, to the respective times of their commencing Pay on those Establishments: And to the Troops that were broke, to the several Days of their being disbanded: Shewing also how much of the said Sums are due for Flanders Subsistence; and how much for the Off-reckonings, the Fund for Cloathing; viz.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Abstracts and Disposition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Noble's Estate.

An ingrossed Bill to enable Thomas Noble Gentleman, to sell the undivided Third Part of the Manor of Foxton, in the County of Leicester; and for settling other Lands, an intire Estate, of a greater Value, to the same Uses; was read the Third time.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act to enable Thomas Noble Gentleman, to sell the undivided Third Part of the Manor of Foxton, in the County of Leicester, when he shall have settled other Lands, an entire Estate, of a greater Value, to the same Uses.

Ordered, That Mr. Carter do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Papists Protestant Heirs.

Sir Richard Cocks, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for hindering Papists from disinheriting their Protestant Heirs: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

Defective Titles.

A Petition of Thomas Wise Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That King Charles the First, by his Letters Patents, under the Seal of the Duchy of Lancaster, granted all Sutton Marsh, in the County of Lincoln, to Nicholas Street and Ezra Wolston, in Trust for the Petitioner's Father, and his Heirs; and the Petitioner's Father embanked the same at the Charge of 20,000 l. and lett the same to Tenants for many Years: That afterwards his said Majesty granted the said Marsh to the Duke of Richmond and his Heirs, who have gotten Possession; but the Validity of the said Two Grants is now depending in the Court of Exchequer: That the Petitioner is apprehensive the Bill depending in the House for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other Defective Titles, will prejudice his Right to the said Estate: And praying, That he may be heard what he hath to offer for the Saving of his Right to the said Premises, before the said Bill do pass.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioner be heard before the said Committee.

Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Colonel Kirkby have Leave to go into the Country, for a Fortnight, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Reading Election.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Resolution of the said Committee, upon the Petitions touching the Election for the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

VOL. 13.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition of Sir Thomas Stamp, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, is not the same in Substance with the Petition from the said Sir Thomas Stamp, presented to the House of Commons the last Session of Parliament, relating to the said Election.

And the said Petitions were read.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Petition of Sir Thomas Stamp, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, is not the same in Substance with the Petition from the said Sir Thomas Stamp, presented to the House of Commons the last Session of Parliament, relating to the said Election.

Ordered, That the Committee of Privileges and Elections do not proceed any further upon the said Petition.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Election for the County of Bedford, be made upon Thursday Morning next.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday Morning next, at Eleven a Clock, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there: And nothing to intervene.

Ordered, That the Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time upon Friday next, after the said Committee hath sate.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made a further Progress in the Matter to them referred; and had directed him to move, That the Lords of the Admiralty do lay before the House an Account upon what Services, and under what Orders, the Ships Dolphin, Roebuck, Rupert Prize, and Paramour Pink, are now employed; with the Copies of the Commissions, and the particular Instructions given to their Commanders.

Ordered, That the Lords of the Admiralty do lay before the House an Account upon what Services, and under what Orders, the Ships Dolphin, Roebuck, Rupert Prize, and Paramour Pink, are now employed; with the Copies of the Commissions, and the particular Instructions given to their Commanders.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again,

Resolved,

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Avon
Navigation.

A BILL to make the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Blathwaite, Sir Chris. Musgrave, Mr. Popham, Mr. Rowney, Mr. Yates, Mr. Mountague, Sir Jacob Baunks, Mr. Povey, Mr. Greenfield, Sir Tho. Day, Mr. Cox, Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Pinnell, Lord Chenie, Mr. Gorges, Lord Downes, Mr. Foley, Mr. Hysham, Mr. Shackerly, Marquis Hartington, Lord Cavendish, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Sanderson, Mr. Blofield, Sir Cha. Hotham, Colonel Webb, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Gwynn, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Carter, Major General Trelawney, Brigadier Trelawney, Mr. Clark, Sir Justin. Isham; and all that serve for the Counties of Somerset, Wilts, Gloucester, Devon; and for the Sea and Cinque Ports, and for North and South Wales: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Ditto.

A Petition of several Knights, Gentlemen, Landholders, and other substantial Inhabitants living between Bristol and Bath, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are informed there is a Bill depending in this House, for making the River of Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which, if it should pass, will be a great Prejudice to the Petitioners, and no-ways serviceable to the Publick: And praying to be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ditto.

A Petition of several Gentlemen and Landholders in the Parish of Weston, in the County of Somerset near Bath, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which Bill, should it pass, will be a great Prejudice to the Petitioners, and no Advantage to the Publick: And praying to be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against Passing of the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard before the said Committee, by their Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the City, and Suburbs of the City, of Bristol, on Behalf of themselves, and many Thousand Citizens and Inhabitants thereof, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill brought into this House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which the Petitioners are very sensible will greatly prejudice the said City, and Parts adjacent, if it should pass into an Act: And praying to be heard by Counsel against the said Bill; or otherwise relieved as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, Merchants, Traders, and Inhabitants, in and about the City of Bristol, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That it is found by Experience, that nothing tends more to the promoting the Strength and Wealth of the Kingdom than Trade and Navigation having Communication with Places that tend to maritime Ports: And the River Avon being capable of being made navigable from the said City to Bath, the Petitioners pray, That an Act may pass for that purpose.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, is committed.

A Petition of Sir Edward Mansell Baronet, Stephen Martha Stringer, and others, Owners of the Ship Martha of Margam, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Ship was shipwrecked on Kenfigg Sands in 1698, where she was beaten almost to Pieces by the Sea; and bought, with her Riggings, for 30*l.* by the Petitioners; and rebuilt with new Timber, new Beams, a new Deck, and 40 Tons larger than before; which cost above 800*l.* with her Rigging, and other Necessaries; but, she being a foreign Bottom, some Doubts have arisen, whether, by an Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses, in the Plantation Trade, she is not prohibited to trade to or from any of his Majesty's Plantations or Colonies: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to make the said Ship, a free Ship to trade and traffick to and from the Ports of this Kingdom, to any of his Majesty's Plantations or Colonies.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Edward Stradling, Sir Thomas Day, and Mr. Cox, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of George Gregory Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner and Robert Sachevarill Esquire, stood Candidates at the Election of a Burgess to serve in this Parliament for the Borough of Nottingham, in the room of Richard Slaughter Esquire, deceased; and the major Part of the Persons duly qualified to give their Votes were for the Petitioner; but many illegal Practices were used by Mr. Sachevarill, and his Agents, to gain Votes for him; whereby he procured himself to be returned a Burgess, in Wrong to the Petitioner: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Nottingham
Election.

And also the Certificate of the Clerk of the Crown, of the Return brought in, was read.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Anne Baldwin Widow, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, that Richard Baldwin, her late Husband, deceased, was possessed of divers Lands, and a Messuage called Wiltons, in the County of Bucks, clogged with great Incumbrances, well nigh the Value thereof; and, by his last Will, devised the same to be sold for Payment of his Debts; and gave all other his Estate, not otherwise settled or disposed of, to the Petitioner; his Son and Heir Richard Baldwin, an Infant of Five Years old, being well provided for by the Marriage Settlement; but because of his Infancy, the Petitioner cannot sell the Premises intended by his Father to be sold, unless at an Under-value; which, in a short Time, will not be sufficient to pay the Debts thereon: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill to enable her to make Sale of the said Estate, according to the true Intent of her said late Husband's Will.

Baldwin's
Estate.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that the Lord Chenie do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of George Chambers, and others, in behalf of himself, and other disbanded Dragoons, out of the Army Arrears. Regiment Regiment commanded by the Right Honourable the Lord Jedbrough, now resident in Scotland, was presented to the House and read; setting forth, That, when they were broke in Scotland, the Lord Jedbrough seized their Horses and Accoutrements, and sent them into England, without giving them any Money; though there was then, and now is, due to them above 26*l.* a Man for Subsistence, besides their other Arrears; which David Cambell, Agent to the said Regiment, hath received, and, before a Committee of this House the last Sessions, promised to pay the Petitioners their just Demands; which yet he hath not done: And praying, That he may be compelled thereto by the House.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Bone-lace.

Mr. Eyres reported, from the Committee, to whom the Consideration of the Petition of the Clothiers, and Woollen Manufacturers, within the City of New Sarum, in behalf of themselves, and many Thousands of poor Persons depending on them, was referred, the Resolution of the said Committee; which they had directed him to report to the House, which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Bill be brought in, to repeal an Act of Parliament made in the 9th and 10th Years of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for rendering the Laws more effectual for preventing the Importation of foreign Bone-lace, Loom-lace, Needle-work, Point, and Cut-work.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the said Report be recommitted to the same Committee.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do inform themselves of the Allegations of the said Petition; and report the Fact, as it appears to the said Committee, with their Opinion what is fit to be done.

Ditto.

A Petition of several Makers of and Dealers in Bone-lace, made in Buckinghamshire, in behalf of themselves, and many others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Manufacture has been exercised several hundred Years in England, and employs many Thousands in the said County; most whereof are Women and Children, who have no other Subsistence; and the repealing the Acts prohibiting the Importation of foreign Bone-lace will inevitably tend to the Ruin of the said poor People, although the same are no Prejudice to the Trade of the Woollen Manufacture, as the Petitioners are ready to prove: And praying, that they may be heard against the Repeal of the said Act.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee: And that the Petitioners be heard before the said Committee thereupon.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they do inquire into the Value of the yearly Exportation of the Woollen Manufacture into Flanders, in the Time of Peace.

Ordered, That the said Committee have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Woollen
Manufacture.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the Parish of Ratchdale, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and of the Merchants, Clothiers, Clothworkers, Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, and of other Inhabitants of the Places adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Prohibition of the Woollen Manufacture to the Spanish Netherlands, hath put such a Stop to that Trade in Lancashire, that great Numbers of Persons, whose sole Livelihood depends thereon, are fallen to extreme Poverty; and, should the King of Spain make the Spanish Netherlands the Staple Market of Spanish Wool, then must our foreign Trade in the Woollen Manufactures, solely depend on the Will of the Governor of the Netherlands: And praying the Consideration of the House, to prevent the inexpressible Inconveniencies that will follow, in case some Remedy be not found out to support the great Staple Trade of this Kingdom.

Vol. 13.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee.

Ordered, That Mr. Knight have Leave to go into the Country, for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions. Leave of Absence.

Sir George Rook, from the Lords of the Admiralty, according to Order, presented to the House a Copy of the Commissions to Captain Long of the Rupert Prize; Captain Hunter, of the Dolphin; Captain Dampier, of the Roebuck, and Captain Haley, of the Paramour Pink: Dolphin, &c. Ships, and Instructions for Discoveries.

And also a Copy of the Instruction to Captain Long, of the Rupert Prize, for following his Majesty's Orders on an Expedition to America:

And also a Copy of Instructions to Captain Hunter, of the Dolphin, for proceeding to and recovering of a Wreck in the West Indies:

And also a Copy of the Instructions prepared and brought to the Board, by Persons concerned in the Wreck in the West Indies:

And also a Copy . . . a Letter from the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Vernon to the Lords of the Admiralty, touching the setting out the Rupert Prize, commanded by Captain Long, on an Expedition to America:

And also an Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon, about Instructions for Captain Hunter relating to the Ship Dolphin:

And also a Copy of the Instructions of Captain Haley, of the Paramour Pink, for the Finding out the Variation of the Needle:

And also an Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon to the Lords of the Admiralty, touching the Instructions for the Captain of the Dolphin:

And also a Copy of the Instructions to Captain Dampier, of the Roebuck, for making Discoveries in foreign Parts.

And the Titles of the said Papers were read:

And they are as follow; viz.

I. The said Copy of the said Commissions to Captain Long, Captain Hunter, Captain Dampier, and Captain Haley.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c.

To Captain Richard Long, hereby appointed Captain of his Majesty's Ship the Rupert Prize.

By virtue of the Power and Authority to Us given, We do hereby constitute and appoint you Captain of his Majesty's Ship the Rupert Prize, willing and requiring you forthwith to go on board, and take upon you the Charge and Command of Captain in her accordingly; strictly charging and commanding all the Officers and Company of the said Ship to behave themselves, jointly and severally, in their respective Employments, with all due Respect and Obedience unto you their said Captain; and you likewise to observe and execute, as well the standing Instructions hereunto annexed, attested by our Secretary, as what further Order and Directions you shall from time to time receive of Us, or any other your superior Officers, for his Majesty's Service: Hereof you, nor any of you, may fail, as you will answer the same at your Perils: And for so doing this shall be your Warrant. Given under our Hands, and the Seal of the Office of the Admiralty, this 4th Day of December 1697, in the Ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

III. The said Copy of Instructions to Captain Hunter, of the Dolphin.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c.

Whereas his Majesty has been pleased to order, That the Ship Dolphin, under your Command, shall be fitted out for an Expedition to the West Indies, in order to the taking up several Wrecks, which are contained and described in the several Papers which you have left in the Hands of Samuel Traverse Esquire, for the Use and Benefit of the Parties concerned therein; as also such other Wrecks as you shall receive Intelligence of; pursuant to the Indentures between the said Persons, and Sir James Houlton, and Company; by virtue of Letters Patents to his Grace the Duke of Schonbergh, between 12 Degrees South, and 40 Degrees North Latitude:

You are therefore hereby required and directed forthwith to proceed on this Service, with the Ship under your Command; and with all possible Care and Diligence, put in Execution, as well the Instructions from the Persons concerned, hereunto annexed, as what further Orders and Instructions shall be given you, from time to time, by them, in the Fishing for, Recovering, and Disposing of, all, or any Part of the said Wrecks as you shall recover; that so his Majesty's Share thereof may be demanded and received.

When you shall have done what you are able in the Performance of this Service, you are to return, with the Ship you command, to England; calling in at Plymouth for Orders: And, if you find none there to the contrary, you are to make the best of your Way to the Downes, and remain till further Orders; giving us an Account of your Proceedings.

You are to receive on board the Ship you command, such Persons as the Right Honourable the Lords of his Majesty's Treasury shall appoint, to take Care of the King's Share of the Wrecks which shall be recovered; as also such other Person, as the Parties concerned in the said Wrecks shall appoint, to look after and manage their Affairs; allowing them Victuals during the time they shall be on board you, as to your Ship's Company; and bearing them as Supernumeraries on your Books.

You are, by all Opportunities you shall meet with, to send this Board an Account of your Proceedings: And, during the whole Term of the Voyage, you are to take particular Care not to annoy any of his Majesty's Subjects, or those of his Allies, but rather to give them what Assistance you can, without Hindrance or Prejudice to the Affair whereon you are employed.

And, for the better lengthening out your Provisions, you are to put the Men under your Command, when you come out of the Chanel, to Six to Four Men's Allowance; assuring them, That they shall be punctually paid for the same at the End of the Voyage. Dated at the Admiralty Office, this 31st of January 1699.

IV. The said Copy of Instructions, prepared, and brought to the Board, by the Persons concerned in the Wreck in the West Indies, for Captain Colin Hunter, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin.

After you have received your Orders from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, you are to make the best of your Way to Barbadoes; and, proceeding from thence with all Expedition, you are, in the First Place, to use the best of your Endeavours to find out, and take up, such Wrecks as are contained and described in the several Papers you have left in the Hands of Samuel Traverse Esquire, for the Use and Benefit of all the Parties concerned; and afterwards such other Wrecks as you shall receive Intelligence of; pursuant to our Indentures with Sir James Houlton and Company, by virtue of Letters Patents to his Grace the Duke of Schonbergh and Leinster, between 12 Degrees South, and 40 Degrees North Latitude.

You are also, with the Consent of such Agent as we shall appoint, to contract with any Person or Persons for any new Discoveries within our due Limits, other than what is contained in your above-mentioned Papers; and to allow him or them such a Share, not exceeding a Tenth Part, for such their Discovery, as you Two shall agree upon; which Share or Proportion, so contracted for between you Two, and such Discoverer, is to be deducted out of the net Proceed of the said Discovery.

You are to keep a true Journal of your Proceedings, and an exact Account of all Treasure, &c. by you to be taken up; and to transmit the same to us, signed by yourself, and attested by his Majesty's Agent and ours, from time to time, upon all Opportunities.

You are also to go or send to the Island of Jamaica once in Two or Three Months, Wind and Weather permitting, there to inquire for, and receive, such further Orders and Directions as we from time to time shall send you; which you are punctually to observe, having a due Regard to the Orders of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty; and also, by all Opportunities, transmit us a true Account of all your Proceedings and Transactions, relating to your Undertaking, with our Agent then on board you, the better to enable him to prosecute the said Undertaking, under the Command of such Persons as the said Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty shall appoint to succeed you.

You are not to inspect the Papers, or Accounts, of the Two Persons appointed Agents for the King and the Persons concerned, without their Consent, and to permit them quietly to do their Business.

20th December 1699.

A true Copy,

V. The said Copy of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon to the Lords of the Admiralty, touching the setting out of the Rupert Prize, commanded by Captain Long, on an Expedition to America.

My Lords,

You were pleased lately to desire me to move the King, for such Instructions as his Majesty should think fit to give Captain Richard Long, Commander of the Rupert Prize, fitted for a Voyage to America, in order to the Discovery of Gold Mines and Wrecks: And I am commanded by his Majesty to acquaint you, That the said Captain having entered into Articles of Agreement with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury; the Substance whereof is as followeth; viz. That in Consideration of his his Majesty's Charge, in fitting, manning, and victualling, a Sixth Rate Frigate, his Majesty shall receive all the Benefit made by such Discovery, until he shall be paid the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds; and, after that is satisfied, shall, for Seven Years, receive Nine Parts in Ten of the whole Advantage to be made, and the said Richard Long the Tenth Part, he giving an Account of the whole Profit upon Oath, when required: He shall bring home to the Port of London all the Treasure he shall find; and shall, in Two Years time from the 6th of July last, when the said Agreement was made, bring home, and deliver to the Commissioners of the Navy, the said Ship, with her Guns, Tackle, and Furniture; the Danger of the Seas, Enemies, Fire, and Restraint by Piracies, excepted: After he has been in Search of Treasure, as aforesaid, he shall have Liberty to sail, with his Majesty's Ship, to search for, and take up, such Wrecks as his Grace the Duke of Schonberg and Leinster has a Grant to fish for in America; and shall bring to the Port of London what he shall gain from such Wrecks: His Majesty expects the Performance of the said Conditions; and leaves the Contractor at Liberty to pursue his Voyage and Attempt, in such manner as he thinks best, without confining him to any particular Instructions relating thereunto, other than such as you shall think fit to give him. I am, my Lords,

Your Lordships most faithful humble Servant,
A true Copy, Ju. Vernon.
J. Burchett.

VI. The said Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon, about the Instructions for Captain Hunter, relating to the Ship Dolphin, dated the 16th January 1698.

The inclosed Request of the Earl of Macclesfield having been laid before the King, his Majesty commands me to send the same to your Lordships, and to acquaint you with his Majesty's Pleasure, That Captain Hunter being designed to command his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, in the Discovery of a considerable Wreck in the West Indies, his Majesty would have you to consider of such Instructions as may be proper to be given to the said Captain, for the due Performance of that Service.

VII. The said Copy of Instructions of Captain Haley, of the Paramour Pink, for the finding out the Variation of the Needle.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c.

Whereas his Majesty has been pleased to lend his Pink the Paramour, for your proceeding a Second time with her, on an Expedition to improve the Knowledge of the Longitude, and Variation of the Compass; which Ship is now completely manned, stored and victualled, at his Majesty's Charge, for the said Expedition: You are therefore hereby required and directed forthwith to proceed with her, according to the following Instructions.

You are, without Loss of Time, to set Sail with her, and proceed to make a Discovery of the unknown South Lands between the Magellan Straights, and the Cape of Good Hope, between the Latitude of 50 and 55 South, if you meet not with the Land sooner; observing the Variation of the Compass with all the Accuracy you can; as also the true Situation, both in Longitude and Latitude, of the Ports where you arrive.

You are likewise to make the like Observations at as many of the Islands, in the Seas between the aforesaid Coasts, as you can, without too much Deviation, bring into your Course.

In your Return home, you are to visit the English West India Plantations, or as many of them as conveniently you may; and in them to make such Observations as may contribute to lay them down truly in their geographical Situation: And, in all the Course of your Voyage, you must be careful to omit no Opportunity of noting the Variation of the Compass; of which you are to keep a Register in your Journal.

You are, for the better lengthening out your Provisions, to put the Men under your Command, when you come out of the Chanel, to Six to Four Men's Allowance; assuring them, That they shall be punctually paid at the End of the Voyage.

You are, during the Term of this Voyage, to be very careful in conforming yourself to what is directed by the general printed Instructions annexed to your Commission, with regard as well to his Majesty's Honour, as to the Government of the Ship under your Command: And, when you return to England, you are to call in at Plymouth, and, finding no Orders there to the contrary, to make the best of your Way to the Downes, and remain there till further Order. VII. The said of Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon to the Lords of the Admiralty, touching the Instructions for the Captain of the Dolphin.

I have laid before his Majesty your Lordships Letter of the 23d Instant, with the inclosed Copies of Instructions for the Commander of his Majesty's Ship Dolphin, as well from your Lordships, as from the Persons concerned in the Wrecks that are to be fished up: Whereupon his Majesty hath commanded me to acquaint you, That he approves of the said Instructions.

IX. The said Copy of the Instructions to Captain Dampier, of the Roebuck, for making Discoveries in foreign Parts.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c.

Whereas, upon some Proposals of your making Discoveries in foreign Parts, which may be of Advantage to the Publick, it hath been thought fit to appoint you Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Roebuck; and that you shall proceed with the said Ship upon the aforesaid Service: You are therefore hereby required and directed, forthwith upon your Receipt hereof, to proceed with her till you shall come near the Cape of Good Hope, and from thence stretch away towards New Holland, and then to New Guinea, and Terra Australis: But in case, either with relation to the Seasons of the Year, or any other good Reason that shall occur to you, you shall think it may more conduce to the Service you are going on, to steer any other Course than what is before directed, you are hereby impowered and directed to do the same: And, in regard his Majesty is at great Charge in fitting out, and maintaining at Sea, the Ship you command for this Service, you are therefore to take especial Care, that your utmost Endeavours be used towards the discovering all such Things, in those Parts of the World where you shall proceed, as you shall judge may any ways tend to the Good of the Nation: And, to that End, you are to bring home with you some of the Produce of the Places you touch at, where you shall think it material: And you are likewise at Liberty to bring home some of the Natives, provided they are willing to come along with you: For the better enabling you to do the same, and to keep a Correspondence with the said Natives, we have, according to what you propose, given Orders for your being furnished with several Things you desire, and some other Trifles, to trade with them.

And whereas it may probably happen, That, during the Course of your intended Voyage, some of your Ship's Company may die, or that others may prove so disorderly as to make it necessary for you to part with them; We do hereby give you Permission to exchange such disorderly Persons with any Ship or Vessel of his Majesty's Subjects you shall meet with, in case the Master of such Ship or Vessel consent thereunto: But in case you shall, at any time, during your being abroad, meet with any of his Majesty's

Ships, and Instructions
for Discoveries,

Majesty's Ships, and that you shall not then have your Complement of Men, their Commanders are hereby required and directed, upon your Application, to spare you so many as conveniently they can: And in case you shall also have on board any Persons, that shall have endeavoured to cause any Disturbance in the Ship, so as that you shall think it for the Service, that they be removed from her, the Commander of any such Ship or Vessel of his Majesty's is hereby further required to take them on board, and give you other Men in their Room, and to keep the said disorderly Persons in safe Custody till he returns to England, that they may be brought to Tryal, and punished, for their Offence: And as you are strictly to comply with what is before directed, as to such of your Ship's Company as shall misbehave themselves; so are you, before you sail, to make it publicly known, not only to all your Officers, but Men, that such as shall behave themselves well, and cheerfully perform their Duty, in this Affair, which, it is hoped, may tend to the Advantage of the Nation, shall, at their Return, receive all fitting Reward and Encouragement.

You are, during your whole Voyage, to keep an exact Journal of your Proceedings, and of all Things remarkable, which shall occur to you; which, at your Return, you are to deliver, fairly writ, to this Board, under your Hand, and to no other; taking care to conform yourself to what is directed by the general printed Instructions annexed to your Commission, with regard as well to his Majesty's Honour, as to the Government of the Ship under your Command; except as to what relates to your Journal, as aforesaid: And when you shall find, that you can make no further Discovery for the Good of the Nation, you are to take care not to put the King to any unnecessary Charge by staying abroad, but to return to England, as soon as may be, with the Ship you command, calling in at Plymouth; from whence, if you find no Orders there to the contrary, you are to repair to the Downes, and remain there till further Orders: And you are, by all Opportunities which you shall meet with, to send this Board an Account of your Proceedings: And, during the whole Term of your Voyage, you are to take particular Care not to annoy any of his Majesty's Subjects, or those of his Allies, but rather to give them what Assistance you can, without Hindrance or Prejudice to the Affair whereon you are employed.

And, for the better lengthening out your Provisions, you are to put the Men under your Command, when you come out of the Chancel, to Six to Four Men's Allowance; assuring them, That they shall be punctually paid for the same at the End of the Voyage. Dated at the Admiralty Office, this 30th of November 1698.

Ordered, That the Bill for hindering Papists from dis-inheriting their Protestant Heirs be read To-morrow Morning.

Supply.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had come to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That Mr. Blofeld, Sir John Packington, Army. Mr. Stonehouse, Sir Robert Cotton, Lord Chenie, Mr. Parkhurst, Mr. Chivers, Sir Robert Marsham, Mr. Freke, Sir *Fra. PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, and the Master and Society of Merchants, of the City of Bristol, on the behalf of themselves, and the Citizens and Inhabitants thereof, was presented to the House and read; setting forth, That * * * * *

..... That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Yates do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of the Proprietors and Tenants of several Mills on the River Avon, between the Cities of Bath and Bristol, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill depending in this House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which, should it pass, will greatly damage the Petitioners Weirs and Mills on the said River, and be of no Service to the Publick: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, to offer their Objections against the said Bill.

Ditto.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Petition of the Bakers of the City of Bristol was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That if the Bill now before the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, should pass, the same will be very prejudicial to the Petitioners, because they cannot grind their Corn any-where else than upon the said River; nor will the same be serviceable to the Publick, as is pretended: And praying to be heard by Counsel against the said Bill.

Ditto.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Petition of several Citizens, Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, Merchants, Traders, &c. was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, cannot be serviceable to the Publick; but will be very injurious to the Petitioners, if it should pass: And praying to be heard by Counsel against the same.

Ditto.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Bill for making the Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum, more more effectual, was, according to Order, read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Trade to Germany.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, Merchants, Fullers, and other Traders in the Woollen Manufactures of the City of Exon, and Parts adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That a loose and unregulated Trade, in exporting the Woollen Manufactures of England by Foreigners, upon equal Terms with our Natives, hath been the Occasion, that Foreigners have almost gotten the sole Trade of exporting our Woollen Manufactures into Holland and Flanders; whereby they have gotten the Opportunities of governing the Markets, debasing the Manufactures, and exporting them almost unmanufactured; to the endangering the Loss of that advantageous Trade to this Nation: That the Petitioners conceive, the only Way to restore the said Trade, and prevent the said growing Inconveniences, is to support the Company of Merchant Adventurers of England: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill, That the said Company may be supported in their Trade to Germany; and that all his Majesty's natural-born Subjects may be admitted into the said Company, for such Fine as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Edward Seymour and Mr. Stratford do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Woollen
Manufactures.

A Petition of the Clothiers, and others, of the ancient Borough of Wilton, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of the Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures in Flanders, so great Quantities thereof remain in the Petitioners Hands, that they have been obliged to dismiss great Numbers of their Work-people, who are thereby reduced to great Hardships: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Consideration of the Petition of the Clothiers, and Woollen Manufacturers, within the City of New Sarum, in behalf of themselves, and many Thousands of poor Persons depending on them, is referred.

discharged
from custody.

Ordered, That Mr. Machell, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Half-pay.

A Petition of Captain Le Wright, Lieutenant John Fishwick, Lieutenant Gustavus Belford, Lieutenant John Higham, Lieutenant Oliver Wheeler, and Ensign James Nicholson, English Officers, that were reduced in Scotch Regiments, being the whole Number of them not in Half-Pay, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners served in English Regiments at the Beginning of the late War, and were all removed into Scotch Regiments, for their Advancement; where they served until the Conclusion of the Peace; and their Names were inserted in the List of English Officers given in to this House, by his Majesty's Command, the last Session, to whom this House, on the 21st of April 1699, voted Half-pay: But afterwards, viz. on the 29th of the said April, the House voted Half-pay to such Officers only, who served in English Regiments at the time of their being reduced; whereby the Petitioners are debarred from the Reward of Half-pay too, which they might as well hope for by their Services, as the rest of their Countrymen; and without it they must be reduced to great Hardships: And praying the House to take their Case into Consideration, That they may be allowed Half-pay, as well as other English Officers.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table; and be taken into Consideration, when the List of the

VOL. 13.

Officers who have Half-pay shall be brought into the House.

A Petition of Robert Pellicon Gentleman, in behalf of himself, and many others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in 1629, there was due from his then Majesty King Charles the First, to several Persons, above 25,000*l.* for naval Stores and Provisions; whereof the Petitioner is intitled to about 5,000*l.*; and King Charles granted to Trustees several Demesne Lands of the Crown, to be sold to pay off the said Debt, and the Surplus to be answered to the Crown; but the said Trust was never performed, though, in order thereunto, there has been Proceedings in all the Reigns since; and particularly, in 1690, there was a Reference from the Lords of the Treasury to the then Solicitor General, now the Lord Chancellor; who reported, That some effectual Care ought to be taken, that the Creditors might be satisfied, and the Crown no longer kept out of the Surplusage of the said Lands: That the Petitioner is informed, the Bill now in this House, for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, will debar the said Creditors from the Recovery of their said Debt: And praying, That he may be heard by his Counsel, before the said Bill do pass this House.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

Ordered, That Mr. Campion have Leave to go into the Country for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions.

A Petition of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty, of the Town and County of Poole, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Rye Harbour is the only Harbour upon the Coast of Kent and Sussex, for above 100 Miles by Sea; and Ships of considerable Burden have thereby saved themselves in Stress of Weather: That the said Harbour lies opposite to Diep, and several other considerable Ports of France; and his Majesty's whole Navy might be there received formerly, or any Ships of War, to hinder the French from infesting our Coast; but now the said Harbour is so choaked up by the Inning of Land, and making Flood-gates and Walls cross the same, which stop the Slub, and yearly grows worse, that, now, not above 20 Sail of small Ships can lie in the said Harbour; and, if Care be not taken, a Ship of Burden will not be able to come in: And praying, That some Course may be taken to restore the said Harbour of Rye to its ancient Goodness, that so considerable a Harbour for the Benefit of the whole Nation may not be totally lost.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen, and chief Inhabitants of the Town of Rye, is referred.

A Bill for hindering Papists from disinheriting their Protestant Heirs was, according to Order, read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon this Day fortnight.

A Petition of John Lawton Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, on the 28th of November last, the Petitioner and Mr. Cotton stood Candidates for One of the Burgesses for the Town of Newcastle under Line in the County of Stafford; and the Petitioner polled 140, and Mr. Cotton 155; but a great many of his Voices were unqualified, by reason they received Alms of the said Town; and the Petitioner had the Majority of qualified Votes, and ought to have been returned; and, besides this, Mr. Cotton, and his Agents, expended upon the Voters above 300*l.* in Meat and Drink, also beneficial

beneficial Presents, and Sums of Money, as Bribes to several Persons for their Votes, and Promises to others of Leases of Houses and Lands; all which Proceedings are contrary to a late Act of Parliament to prevent Expences in Elections; and are injurious to the Petitioner's Right: And praying the Relief of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Sir William Phippard have Leave to go into the Country for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Privilege—Assault of
a Member.

A Complaint being made to the House, That Sir John Phillips, a Member of this House, as he was Yesterday going from the House, was, in Westminster-hall, assaulted, and otherwise affronted, by Simon Harcourt Esquire, a Clerk in the Crown Office; in Contempt, and Breach of the Privileges, of this House;

Ordered, That the said Simon Harcourt be taken into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for the said Contempt, and Breach of the Privileges, of this House.

Supply.

Mr. Conyers, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolutions of the said Committee; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Seven Thousand Men be the Complement for Sea Service for the Year One thousand Seven hundred, for Thirteen Months,

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, for maintaining the said Seven thousand Men, Four Pounds per Man per Month be allowed; including the Ordnance for Sea Service.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Bedford
Election.

Sir Rowland Gwynn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to the said Committee, touching the Election for the County of Bedford; and the Resolutions of the Committee thereupon; which they had directed him to report to the House; and which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of William Duncomb and Thomas Bromsall Esquires, complaining of an undue Election, and Return, of the Lord Edward Russell and Sir Wm. Gostwick to serve for the County of Bedford:

That the Majority of the Poll was agreed to be with the Sitting Members.

But the Petitioners Counsel complained of an irregular Proceeding in Two Points:

1st, That Persons who had voted for One of the Candidates, and afterwards came, and would have given their Second Vote for another Candidate, were denied their Second Vote.

2dly, That several of the Sitting Members Votes were gained by Treating.

That, upon the First Point, the Committee came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That if a Person, having a Right to vote for Two Members to serve in Parliament, shall give a single Vote, such Person hath not a Right to come afterwards, and give his Second Vote, during the said Election.

That, as to the Point of Treating, the Counsel called several Witnesses:

John Green said, That he kept the Falcon Inn at Bedford; and that Mr. Hayes, formerly a Servant to Sir Wm. Gostwick, but now an Innkeeper at Bedford, took up his Inn for the Lord Russell and Sir Wm. Gostwick: That Mr. Blosse, Sir Wm. Gostwick's Servant, told the said Green, He should receive what Money he could of the Freeholders, and Sir Wm. Gostwick would pay the rest: That, in August last, he went to Sir Wm. Gostwick's, to ask his Money: That Sir Wm. Gostwick at first was very angry, and said, he knew nothing of it; but afterwards told him, he would see among them to help him to his Money: That, of 140, whose Reckoning came to 12 d. a piece, some paid nothing, and some paid but 2 d.: That the Charge in his House that Day came to about 16 l.; and Mr. Blosse dined with some of them.

John Lovell, Tho. Joyce, Tho. Beaumont, Tho. Cock, said, That they were at the Falcon Inn the Day of the Election; and that all, except Cock, respectively declaring for the Lord Edward Russell and Sir William Gostwick, were told, That they might eat and drink, paying only a Penny or 2 d.: And that, at their going away, they paid nothing: And that Cock was offered to eat and drink for nothing: But Cock declaring he might be but for One of the Sitting Members, Green told him, then he must pay Half, and leave Half; which accordingly he did. Cock said, He voted only for Mr. Bromsall.

James Muns said, That he kept the White Horse Inn; and that several, to the Number of 16 or 17, came to his House by the Direction of one Clerk, a Collar-maker to Sir Wm. Gostwick; which Persons the said Muns did trust, upon the said Clerk's Account: That afterwards the said Muns and Clerk went to Mr. Tidford, Sir Wm. Gostwick's Bailiff for the Money; who told him he must stay till Sir Wm. Gostwick was settled in the House: That Clerk went with him to Sir Wm. Gostwick's; but Sir Wm. would promise him nothing: That afterwards they spoke again to Mr. Tidford; and they all went to Sir Wm. Gostwick's; and Mr. Tidford came out, and said, he had no Orders: Whereupon Clerk said, there was no Truth in Man: And Clerk afterwards paid the said Muns by Degrees, himself, with his own Money.

John Richards said, That he kept the Half Moon Inn; and that 16 or 17 Men having dined at his House, whose Reckoning came to about 18 d. apiece, Five or Six not paying, he went the next Morning to Mr. Tidford, who asked him, who he was for: And the said Richards answering, for Mr. Bromsall, the said Mr. Tidford asked him to be for Sir Wm. Gostwick; and said, it would be taken kindly: Which the said Richards promised him; but told Mr. Tidford of the Reckoning: Whereupon Mr. Tidford said, when Sir Wm. was settled, it should be paid: The Persons said, if Mr. Tidford did not pay, they would pay themselves; and Three of them since had paid; the others had not.

Richard Shaw said, He lived, at the time of the Election, as a Servant, at the Bell Inn: That his Mistress desired him not to mention Sir William Gostwick's Name; but told him all that came in Esquire Cater's Name might eat and drink on Free-cost: That at Night Six came in, that said they had polled for Sir Wm. Gostwick; and he had Orders to give them Meat and Drink; and they drank plentifully: Afterwards another Company came in of Eight: And when they had drank 2 d. apiece, one whispered another, That it was hard they must pay that were for Sir William Gostwick and the Lord Russell: Whereupon he told his Mistress, and by her Order gave them their Money again: And that Night, and the next Day, there was spent in the House to the Value of 15 l.: And that Sir Wm. Gostwick's Servants were hard by, and about 20 People with them.

Robert Roebuck, John Rogers, said, That they polled for Sir William Gostwick, and spent 2 d. apiece; and afterwards had their Money given again by Shaw, that then attended as Tapster, as others also had.

Edward Brockis said, That he was at the Election; That

That Mr. Bret, a Tenant to the Duke of Bedford, gave him Half-a-crown to treat himself and others, by the Way to Bedford: That, when he came to Bedford, all was paid there also: And that Six or Eight Men came in, and asked for Victuals, and said, They were for Sir Wm. Gostwick and the Lord Russell: And the Woman of the House said, they might have what they would; but must be very private: That the Clerk of the Kitchen to the Duke of Bedford, upon his saying, He was not able to go to the Election, told him, If he would hire a Horse, the Charge should be borne: That Mr. Taylor, the Duke of Bedford's Bailiff, provided a Waggon for others: And that all the Parish, that went with him, were for the Lord Russell and Sir Wm. Gostwick.

Henry Brown, Laur. Crawley, John Oldhill, said, They had all their Dinners paid for by Mr. Bret, a Tenant to the Duke of Bedford: And that Bret paid for 24 Persons. Brown said, That he went down in Mr. Taylor's Waggon, and had his Expenses bore; and Crawley said, He had his Horse-hire paid.

Tho. Worcester said, That he was One of the Persons treated by Mr. Brett at the Bell Inn.

That the Petitioners Counsel also insisted on the Partiality of the Sheriff, who, they said, did take Two Voices for the Sitting Members, when they refused them for the Petitioners. And called

Mr. John Hervey: Who said, That the Sheriff did admit Second Votes, till the Sitting Members protested against it; and, after such Protestation, Hump. Fitch Esquire, gave a Second Vote for the Sitting Members; but it was at another Court: And it did not appear, that the Person who took the Poll there, was acquainted with such Protestation; or that the Sheriff himself had desisted from taking the Second Votes.

The Sitting Members Counsel insisted, That the Sitting Member that had fewest Votes, had more than either of the Petitioners, by above Six hundred: And, to answer the Point of Treating, called

John Deer, Tho. Hayes: Who said, That Mr. Tidford, a Servant to Sir Wm. Gostwick, came to them, and desired them to go with him to the several Inns at Bedford; which they did, and told the People of the said Inns, That they should recommend several Freeholders to come there; but bid them take Money of them for what they had; for that the Lord Russell and Sir William Gostwick would be at no Charge.

Benj. Hasleton said, That John Green desired him to assist him in making up his Bills for the last Election: And the said Hasleton asking him, Who gave him Orders to trust the Freeholders; the said Green told him, That he had no Orders to trust the Freeholders, either from the Lord Russell, or Sir Wm. Gostwick, nor did he know when he should be paid; for Sir William Gostwick had refused to pay him.

That the Sitting Members Counsel were ready to have examined other Witnesses: But, the Committee seeming satisfied, they were not examined.

And the Committee came to these Resolutions:

2d. Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Lord Edward Russell is duly elected a Knight to serve in this present Parliament for the County of Bedford.

3d. Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir William Gostwick is duly elected a Knight to serve in this present Parliament for the County of Bedford.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Resolution be postponed.

The Second and Third Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Then the House proceeded upon the Consideration of the said Resolution which was postponed: And a Debate arising in the House thereupon;

Resolved, That the Debate be adjourned till To-morrow, Twelve a Clock.

VOL. 13.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, after the Committee of the whole House upon the Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers, and for regulating the Factors there, have sat, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Clothiers, and others concerned in the Woollen Manufactures, residing in the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, in behalf of themselves and thousands of Poor depending on them, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, for many Years, most of the Petitioners Manufactures have been exported to Flanders, where they are now prohibited, by reason some of their Manufactures are prohibited here; so that they are setting up the Trade of making Cloth there, to the Impoverishing of the Petitioners, and the Ruin of many poor Families, who are become burdensome to the said Borough for want of Employment: And the Petitioners conceive, That the vast Quantities of Wool exported hath also very much contributed to the Decay of our Woollen Manufacture; which might be prevented, if a sufficient Fund were provided, to defray the Charge of proper Officers, to put the Laws in Execution, for suppressing that Mischief: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises, for the Encouragement of the Consumption of the English Woollen Manufactures in foreign Parts; and that the Laws, to prevent the Exportation of Wool, may be diligently executed.

Exporting Wool.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Consideration of the Petition of the Clothiers, and Woollen Manufacturers, within the City of New Sarum, and others depending on them, is referred.

A Petition of Alexander Christie and Wm. Gowrdon, late Serjeants in Captain John Gowrdon's Company in the Honourable Sir David Collier, now Lord Portmore's Regiment, and several other private Centinels in the said Regiment, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are disbanded, and great Arrears of Pay are due to them; which the said Lord Portmore refuses to pay them, though long ago he received Money enough to clear the said Regiment; and he paid the Serjeants of his Regiment but 6s. per Week Subsistence, when the Serjeants of other Regiments punctually received 7s. per Week: And praying, That the said Lord Portmore may be obliged to pay the Petitioners what Arrears shall appear to be due to them.

Army Arrears.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Robert Gordon, Administrator of Captain John Gordon, his late Brother, deceased, on behalf of himself, and the Creditors of the said Captain John Gordon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Captain Gordon served in the Lord Portmore's Regiment from the 31st of December 1688, to the Month of July 1692, when he died: And Mr. William Hamilton, Agent to the said Regiment, possessed himself of all his Cloaths, Arms, ready Money, and Accounts;

Ditto.

Accounts; and brings in the said Captain indebted to the said Regiment above 124*l.*; yet refuses to give any attested Account, though he has received the whole Sum from the Treasury: And the Petitioner can prove, That there was due to his said Brother 18 Months Arrears and 29 Weeks Subsistence: Yet Mr. Hamilton will not come to an Account, nor pay the Petitioner what is due to his late Brother; for want of which, many of his Creditors are in great Want: And praying, That the Lord Portmore and Mr. Hamilton may be brought to account with and pay the Petitioner what was due to his said Brother; Mr. Hamilton having made several Appointments so to do, but never kept his Word therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of Joseph Wildman, and others, in behalf of themselves, and others, lately disbanded out of his Majesty's Colstream Regiment, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they cannot get their Officers to make up their Accounts, although they have often importuned them thereto; bidding the Petitioners take their Course at Law, well knowing their starving and necessitous Condition, and that they are not able to prosecute them: And praying, That some speedy Course may be taken for bringing their Officers to a just Account, and paying the Petitioners what is due to them.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ditto.

A Petition of Michael Fonder, and several others, being Foreigners, who were Troopers in the Regiment of Horse commanded by the Right Honourable the Earl of Macclesfield, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners were disbanded in March last, pursuant to a late Act of Parliament; but their Officers stript them of their Cloaths and Accoutrements, without giving them any Satisfaction, or any Account of their Arrears; and the Petitioners are not able to defray the Charge of travelling into their native Countries, being Foreigners, without the Assistance and Relief of this House in the Premises: And praying the Consideration of the House, That they may be relieved in their just Complaints.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Westminster
Small Debts.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the City of Westminster, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That within the said City, and Liberties thereof, there is an ancient Court, holding Plea of Debts and Damages under 40*s.*; which was an easy and speedy Remedy for Recovery of small Debts, until, of late, the Proceedings of the said Court have been obstructed; and Persons are unwilling to trust for small Sums, because they cannot recover them but at great Charge; whereby the poorer Sort of People, who have not ready Money, cannot be trusted for Goods to employ themselves in their Trades; whose Poverty thereby daily increaseth: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for removing the said Obstructions, and recovering the ancient Remedy by suit in the said Court.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Harcourt and Mr. Thursby do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of the Company of Innholders of the City of Bristol, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill depending in the House for the making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which Bill, if it should pass into a Law, as it is now drawn, will greatly prejudice the Petitioners, and be no ways advantageous to the public Good, as is pretended: And praying, That the Petitioners may be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill, before the same be suffered to pass this House.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard before the said Committee, as by the Petition is desired.

Mr. Carter reported, from the Committee, to whom it was referred to inspect the Journals for the last Sessions, what was done upon the Petition of John Goodall, and others, relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet, the Matter, upon the Petition of Jacob Massey, and others, touching the Escape of one Feiting, a Dutchman, as it appeared to the Committee; and the Resolution of the Committee thereupon; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

That Mr. Grove, the Petitioners Counsel, opened the Petitioners Case as in the Petition; and alledged, That in case his Clients had proceeded as far as the Law would allow; yet, by the Practice of the Wardens of the Fleet in suffering Escapes, a Plaintiff is no nearer the Recovery of his Debt than when he commenced his Action; by reason that he must begin a new Action of Escape against the Warden, if ever any Satisfaction is expected: And proceeded to prove the Matter of the Petition.

Mr. Rudge, the Petitioners Attorney, said, That in June last the Petitioner Massey told him, That he, and the rest of the Petitioners, had delivered to one Feiting, a Dutchman, at the City of Paris, certain Diamonds, of the Value of 700*l.* to be by him polished for the Petitioners; and that Feiting had run away with the Diamonds, and was come to England; and desired Mr. Rudge to advise him what was fit to be done therein: Upon which, Mr. Rudge advised an Action of Trover; and accordingly Feiting was arrested in London, at the Suit of the Petitioner Massey only.

That Feiting turned himself over to the Fleet by Habeas Corpus; in obtaining which, he being brought before Judge Powell, the Informant prayed, in behalf of his Clients, That Feiting might be kept in safe Custody of the Warden of the Fleet; and the Judge strictly charged, That he should. And afterwards the Informant, while Feiting was in Custody, delivered at the Fleet five several Declarations in five Actions, at the several Suits of the Petitioners.

Since which, the Warden of the Fleet did own to the Informant, That Feiting had escaped from the Fleet: Notwithstanding which, the Petitioner Massey proceeded in his said Action; and, upon a Writ of Enquiry of Damages, a Jury of Middlesex gave him 310*l.* Damages, besides Costs of Suit: But the Petitioner cannot charge the said Feiting in Execution, by reason of the said Escape.

Mr. Grove also called one Hall, a Witness, to prove the other Part of the Petition; which charges, That the Warden of the Fleet took 20 Guineas Consideration for the Escape of Feiting: But, his Evidence being only Hearsay, the Committee did not think fit to examine him.

To answer which Complaint;

Mr. Ford, the Warden of the Fleet, owned, That Feiting was his Prisoner as aforesaid, and is escaped; but that he took all the Care he could to prevent it, having heard that Feiting had formerly broke Gaol, for which Reason, he not only confined him within the Walls of the Prison, but set a Waiter over him Night and Day, and designed to remove him to the King's Bench; which Feiting hearing of, proposed to give Security by Four Persons, such as he believes the Sheriff would have accepted, for his true Imprisonment; who accordingly entered into a Bond of 2,000*l.* Penalty, and a Warrant to confess Judgment

Judgment thereon; which he has entered up since Feiting's Escape, and believes the Security will be sufficient to answer the Petitioner Massey's Demands; but does not think himself obliged by law to make the other Petitioners any Satisfaction.

That a Writ of Error is brought upon Massey's Proceedings: To prove which he called

Antony Grindall, Clerk of the Inquiries to the Fleet, who said, That, by the Warden's Direction, he brought the said Writ of Error; and produced a Certificate thereof, under the Clerk of the Errors Hand: But owned, That he had not seen Feiting for Two Months last; and that he had no Directions from him to bring such Writ.

That he made Inquiry into the Sufficiency of the said Four Sureties; and was informed, That they were all Housekeepers; the First worth about 100*l.* the Second worth 300*l.* the Third about 80*l.* and the Fourth had a House well furnished, and his Wife took Pawns; but that, since Feiting's Escape, the First had absconded: The rest are all in being.

Mr. Grove alleged, That Security on mesne Process ought not to be taken; and, that a Gaoler cannot bring a Writ of Error.

To which the Warden replied;

That it was always the Practice of the Fleet to take Security for Prisoners upon mesne Process; and he thought himself safer in that Case than by confining Feiting, not having a Power to shackle or fetter Prisoners; and hopes he might bring a Writ of Error, or make what Defence he could, for his Indemnity; and believes he shall recover his Prisoner in a Week's time; but denies he ever received more from him than his bare Fees.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the Resolution following; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petitioners have fully proved the Allegations contained in their Petition, except that Part which charges the Warden of the Fleet with taking Twenty Guineas for the voluntary Escape of the said Feiting.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Petitioners have fully proved the Allegations contained in their Petition, except that Part which charges the Warden of the Fleet with taking Twenty Guineas for the voluntary Escape of the said Feiting.

A Complaint being made to the House, That, although a new Writ issued long since, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of St. Germans, in the County of Cornwall; there is no Account of the same being brought, as yet, to the proper Officer of the said Borough;

Delay in St. Germans
Writ.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to inquire where the Default has been, that the said Writ has not been delivered to the proper Officer, in order to the Execution thereof:

And it is referred to Mr. Scobell, Sir Edward Hungerford, Mr. Harcourt, Mr. Gwynn, Sir Joseph Jekill, Mr. Smith, Mr. Vincent, Mr. Dolben, Mr. Dormer, Mr. Mounstevens, Sir John Mordaunt, Sir Rich. Cocks; and all that serve for the County of Cornwall: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five of the Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are impowered to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to punish Governors of Plantations here, for Crimes by them committed in the Plantations: And that Mr. Solicitor General do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Governors of Plantations.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there.

Blackwell
Hall Cloth
Market.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Eyres took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Eyres reported from the said Committee, That they had gone through the Bill, and made several Amendments thereunto; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the said Report be made upon this Day Fortnight.

Mr. Blathwaite, according to Order, presented to the House, from the Commissary General of the Musters, a List of Persons who had Half Pay, who have been otherwise provided for.

And the Title thereof was read.

And the List is as followeth; viz.

Lacy's Estate.

A PETITION of Arthur Lacy Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner's Father was seised of divers Manors and Lands; and, as he thought, upon the Marriage of his eldest Son William, sufficiently entailed the Barton and Demesnes of Hartrow, and other Manors, upon his Issue Male; and conveyed his Manors of Kingston, Seymour, Doniford, Upton, and Storminster, in the Counties of Somerset, Gloucester, and Dorsett, to Trustees for raising 2,400 l. for Portions for his Three Daughters after his Death, with divers remainders over; and died: That Wm. had only One Daughter; and he suffered a Recovery of all, except the Barton and Demesnes of Hartrow, which stands charged with his Wife's and Mother's Jointure, and barred the Remainders intailed; so that his Daughter goes away with all that Estate; and the other Premises settled to raise Portions for the Petitioner's Sisters, and his Mother's Jointure, are all that will come to him as Heir Male of his Family; and those being Western Manors, the Income will not pay the Interest of the Portions, the same being also mortgaged for 3,000 l. raised to pay the said Portions; by which, and Debts contracted by the Petitioner, he is in a much worse Condition than his Sisters; though, if the said Western Manors were sold, they would yield a considerable Sum, more than sufficient to pay off the said Debt: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for the Sale of the said Western Manors, and Lands charged with the said Mortgage; and for laying out the Residue of the Money in a Purchase to the same Uses the said Manors and Lands are now settled.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Palmer do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the Borough and Avon Parish of Chipenham, and others adjacent, near Bath, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, if it should pass, as it now is, will be very prejudicial to the Petitioners, and no ways serviceable to the Publick: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Petition of Sir Joseph Williamson, and the Lady Katherine Obrian, Baroness of Clifton, his Wife, only Sister and Heir of Charles late Duke of Richmond and Lenox, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, upon the Petition of one Thomas Wise, the House hath ordered him to be heard by Counsel before the Committee, to whom the Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, is committed, as to a Saving of his pretended Right to Sutton Marsh in Lincolnshire, Part of the said late Duke's Estate; out of which the said Wise was evicted Twenty-eight Years since, upon a Tryal at Law, without any Claim or Interruption since till now; and the said Estate is, by the Will of the said Duke, subjected to the Payment of Debts and Legacies; and, pursuant to Decrees in Chancery, the same is conveyed to the Petitioner Sir Joseph, as a Security for a great Sum of Money by him paid for the said Debts; and afterwards for the Benefit of the Lord Cornbury: And praying, That they may be heard before the said Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed, to offer their Objections against such particular Saving.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed:

committed : And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel thereupon.

Defective
Titles.

A Petition of Edward Lord Cornbury, on behalf of himself and Katherine Lady Cornbury, his Wife, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That one Tho. Wise, having petitioned the House touching the Bill committed, for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles ; it was ordered, That he should be heard by Counsel before the said Committee, as to a Saving of his pretended Right to Sutton Marsh in Lincolnshire, Part of the Estate of the late Duke of Richmond, deceased ; out of which the said Wise was evicted, upon a Tryal at Law before the late Lord Chief Justice Hales, about Twenty-eight Years ago, without any Claim or Interruption to the Duke, or any claiming under him, till now : And praying to be heard by Counsel before the said Committee, against any such particular Saving, and the Consequences thereof.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee : And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel thereupon.

Westminster
Small Debts.

Ordered, That the Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience in the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time, upon Tuesday Morning next, in a full House.

Justices of Peace Qualification.

Mr. Topham, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for qualifying Justices of the Peace : And the same was received ; and read the First time.

Ordered, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Tuesday Morning next.

Exporting
Wool.

A Petition of the Clothiers of the City of Coventry, in behalf of themselves, and many hundreds that depend upon them, in and about the said City, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That, for many Years past, they have found a general Decay of the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures, to their great Impoverishment, and Increase of the Poor : The Causes whereof are, the Exportation of our Wool, the great Consumption of India Silks, and the prohibition of foreign Lace ; which has put the Netherlands upon a Necessity of setting up a Woollen Manufacture : And praying, That the Decay of the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures may be taken into Consideration, and remedied.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to examine what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool, and for encouraging the Woollen Manufacture ; and to report the same to the House, with their Opinions, what may be further necessary to be done.

Papists Protestant Heirs.

A Bill for the hindering Papists from disinheriting their Protestant Heirs was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Sir Richard Cocks, Lord Comingsby, Mr. Stringer, Mr. Rider, Mr. Bertie, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Offley, Mr. Hughes, Sir Robert Cotton, Sir Cha. Hotham, Mr. Farrer, Mr. Carter, Mr. Clayton, Sir Abstr. Danby, Mr. Cook, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. Barnardiston, Sir James Houblon, Mr. Duke, Mr. Dryden, Mr. Burrard, Mr. Bulkley, Mr. Thursby, Mr. Shackerly, Mr. Phillips ; and all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe : And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Army
Arrears.

Ordered, That Mr. Brewer, Major General Trelawney, Mr. Godolphin, Mr. Topham, Major General Erle, Mr. Mountague, Brigadier Trelawney, Colonel King, Mr. Stringer, Mr. Ogle, Brigadier Setwin, be added to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred.

VOL. 13.

Mr. Yates, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the better preserving the Navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froom ; and cleansing the Streets of the City of Bristol : And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read upon Monday Morning next.

A Petition of Ann Savidge, Widow of Captain Robert Savidge, deceased, Provost Marshal to his Majesty's English Forces in Ireland ; and of William Lowther, and others, private Horsemen in the late Troop commanded by the said Captain Savidge ; was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That there is due to the Widow Savidge, for her Husband's Pay, 110*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.* ; and to the other Petitioners 244*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.* ; as may appear by a stated Account, by the Commissioners of Accounts in Ireland, and Mr. Foxe's Report ; but the Widow cannot get any Part of what is due to her ; the other Petitioners, who received a Moiety of the 244*l.* cannot, nor have not received any Part of the other Moiety since 1693, though reduced to great Necessities : And praying, That they may be paid what is respectively due to them.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred : And that they do examine the Matter thereof ; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of Thomas Macmillon, and others, late Ditto. Serjeants and Corporals in the late Queen's Regiment of Foot, commanded by the Honourable Brigadier Trelawney, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That they served in the said Regiment ever since the Raising of it, and were disbanded in March last ; but never could get any Account from their Officers for Sub-sistence or Arrears, without complying with their unjust Deductions for Powder, Ball, Debts in Quarters, Transportation, and other Charges allowed by the King ; whereby they cut off most of the Petitioners Arrears, and bring some in debt ; to their great Grievance and Impoverishment : And praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration, so as they may be paid their Arrears.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred : And that they do examine the Matter thereof ; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen, and chief Inhabitants, of the ancient Town and Port of Winchelsea, in the County of Sussex, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That Rye is the only Harbour for Ships upon the Coast of Kent and Sussex, from Dover to Portsmouth ; lies opposite to Diep, and other considerable French Ports ; and was a sufficient Reception for the whole Navy Royal ; but now the Harbour is so choaked up with Slub, by the Inning of Land, and making Flood-gates and Walls cross the same, that not above 20 small Ships can now lie there ; and if some speedy Care be not taken, a Ship of Burden will not be able to get in there, the Harbour yearly growing worse and worse ; to the great Discouragement of Navigation and Trade : And praying, That some Course may be taken to restore the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness, which is for the Benefit of the whole Nation.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

Ordered, That the Call of the House be adjourned till Monday Morning next.

Ordered, That Sir Henry Pickering have Leave to go into the Country for a Fortnight, his Lady being very ill.

Ordered,

Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That the Lord Burleigh have Leave to go into the Country, his Lady being very ill.

A Member
discharged from Custody.

Ordered, That Mr. Henley, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Defective
Titles.

Ordered, That Sir Abstrupus Danby and Mr. Stringer be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, is committed.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Dr. Stevens to preach on 30th Jan.

ORDERED That Mr. Stevens be desired to preach before this House, upon the Thirtieth of January instant, at Saint Margaret's Westminster: And that Sir Rowland Gwynn do acquaint him therewith.

Assaying of Plate.

A Petition of the Goldsmiths of the City and County of Exon, and Parts adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by reason of a Clause in an Act of Parliament made in the 8th and 9th Years of his Majesty's Reign, for making a new Standard for Silver, the Petitioners cannot exercise their Trades; for that their Plate is liable to a Seizure for want of the Britannia Mark, which they are incapable to fix, unless they incur the Penalty of the Law: And praying, That the said Clause may be repealed; and that Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the more effectual preventing the melting down of the current Coin of this Kingdom; and also to prevent all Manner of Frauds and Abuses in the Silver Manufacture.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same to the House; together with their Opinion, what is fit to be done in relation to the Britannia Mark:

And it is referred to Sir Barth. Shower, Lord Corningsby, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Pagett, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Brotherton, Sir Francis Windham, Colonel Lee, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Carter, Mr. Mounsteevens, Mr. Hayes, Sir Rich. Farrington, Mr. Drake, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. White, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Nicholson, Mr. How, Mr. Crane, Mr. Milbank, Sir John Maimwaring, Mr. Blaake, Mr. Shackerley: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Company of Goldsmiths, within the City of Chester, was also presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by a Clause in an Act of Parliament made in the 8th and 9th Years of the King, for encouraging the bringing in wrought Plate to be coined, One Mark is prescribed for all Plate, which the Company of Goldsmiths of London have the doing of; so that the Petitioners Plate is liable to be seized for want of the said Mark; and thereby they are debarred from exercising their Trades: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee.

Bone-lace.

A Petition of the Clothiers within the Borough of Kinfare, in the County of Stafford, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, for many Years past, the Petitioners have kept above 1,000 Persons at Work in the Cloathing Trade; which now they are forced to put a Stop to, because great Quantities of last Year's Cloth lie upon their Hands unsold; by reason, as they conceive, of the Prohibition to import Flanders Lace here, which has occasioned a Prohibition of our Cloths there, where they have begun to set up the Woollen Manufacture; which will bring the Petitioners to great Want: And praying, That the Cloathing Trade to Flanders may be opened again, and the Exportation of our Wool prevented.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred.

A Petition of the Inhabitants in and about the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilt, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the vast Quantities of Copper Coin in those Parts are become very burdensome; the Poor paying scarce any other Sort of money, and other People refusing to take them without Allowance; whereby the Burden is like to fall on the poorer Sort of People: And praying the Consideration of the House therein.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to restrain the coining any more Half-pence, or Farthings: And that Mr. White and Mr. Carter do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of the Mayor, Masters, and Burgesses, of the City of Wells; and also of the Gentlemen, Landholders, and other Inhabitants there, and in the neighbouring Parishes; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House, for making navigable the River Avon from Bristol to Bath; will greatly prejudice the Petitioners, and others: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, before the said Bill do pass.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

A Petition of Daniel Small and Christopher Fowler, Ditto. Trustees for the rest of the Proprietors of the Undertaking for bringing fresh Water into the City of Bristol, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in 1695, the Petitioners obtained a Grant from the Mayor, Aldermen, and Council of Bristol, for laying Pipes and Aqueducts in their Streets; paying 150*l.* Fine, and 166*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* every Seventh Year for 200 Years: And, as the most convenient Place from whence to bring the best Water, the Proprietors fixed upon Hannam Mills, on the River Avon, Five Miles from Bristol, for which they paid 900*l.* Fine; and are to pay 96*l.* per Annum, for 200 Years: That, in the 7th and 8th Years of the King, they had an Act of Parliament to lay their Pipes from Hannam Mills to Bristol; and have expended near 18,000*l.* in the said Undertaking: But there is a Bill in this House, for making the said River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, which will not only destroy the said Undertaking, without making the Proprietors Satisfaction, but also subject them to the several Actions of many hundreds of their Tenants, with whom they have covenanted by Leases, to supply them with Water: And praying the Consideration of their Case; and that they may be heard by Counsel, at the Bar of the House, or be otherwise relieved, against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

A Petition of the Mealmen of the City of Bristol, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That if the Bill, for making the River Avon from Bristol to Bath navigable, should pass into a Law, it will be very prejudicial to the Petitioners, for want of Meal to supply the the said City: And praying to be heard by Counsel, against the Bill, before the same do pass.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Avon Navigation.

A Petition of several Gentlemen and Landholders of Castlecombe, Grittleton, and Yatton, in the County of *Wilt*s, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House for making the River Avon from Bristol to Bath navigable, will not be serviceable to the Publick, as is pretended; but will greatly prejudice the Petitioners, if it should pass: And praying to be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against the same.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Ouse Navigation.

A Petition of the Lord Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have sustained great Damage in their Trade and Commerce, for want of a free and speedy Passage for Ships and Vessels upon the River Ouse, flowing to the said City, occasioned by the many Shallows and Obstructions therein; the Removal whereof would not only be a general Benefit to the said City, but a publick Advantage to all Parts adjacent: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for making and keeping the said River more navigable.

Rye Harbour.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpoole, in Lancashire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Rye is the only Harbour for Ships from Dover to Portsmouth, where many Ships have been saved in Stress of Weather; and also lies opposite to Diep, and several other Ports of France; from whence also Ships of War used to go out, and prevent Privateers from infesting the Coast; and was capable of receiving his Majesty's whole Navy: But now the Harbour is so decayed by the Inning of Land, and making Flood-gates and Cross-walls, that the Slub stops, and the Harbour grows yearly worse and worse; so that in few Years a Ship of Burden will not be able to get in; and, if some Care be not taken to remove the Flood-gates and Walls, this advantageous Harbour will be utterly lost: And praying, That such Course may be taken as may restore the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

Employing the Poor.

Ordered, That the Committee appointed to consider of Ways for the better providing for the Poor, and setting them on Work, have Power to prepare, and bring in, a Bill or Bills for that Purpose.

Newark, &c. Elections.

Ordered, That the Reports from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Elections for the Town of Newark in the County of Nottingham, and the Town of Newport in the Isle of Wight, be made upon Thursday Morning next.

Army Arrears.

A Petition of Charles Bruce, and others, Soldiers, who served in the Honourable Baron Van Retchteren's Regiment of Dutch Horse, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they, having great Arrears of Pay due to them, were forced to sign Notes for a Quarter Part of it, or they must have starved; and now the Petitioners, who are Strangers, and remote from their native Countries, and faithfully served in the late Wars, are in a perishing Condition, without Money or Friends: And praying, that their Accounts may be fairly stated; and that they may be paid what is justly due to them, the Money remaining in the Earl of Ranelagh's Hands.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred.

A Petition of Richard Cumbe and Kenneth Alanson, Army late Serjeants in the Regiment commanded by the Honourable Colonel George Hamilton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is above 40*l.* due to each of them for Arrears, 2*s.* per Week being stopped out of their Subsistence for above Five Years together: 3*s.* 6*d.* per Week for Cloathing; and yet they wanted Waistcoats, Shirts, Shoes, and Cravats, and Linings for Three Coats; and the Petitioners have sought for Relief all manner of Ways; but cannot obtain any, though they are in very great Distress: And praying, That what is due to them may be stopped in the Lord Ranelagh's Office, the Money being in his Majesty's Hands, to clear the said Regiment.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred.

A Petition of John Inman, a Soldier, formerly under the Command of Sir Francis Compton Knight, Lieutenant Colonel, and Thomas Rush and Henry Clendall, formerly Soldiers under Henry Boad, Major of the Regiment of Light Horse commanded by the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford, in behalf of themselves, and other Soldiers in the said Troop, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That their Officers have great Arrears due to the Petitioners in their Hands; but, while they were under Command, got several Acquittances from them, for Fear of their Officers Displeasure; to be relieved against which, the Petitioners preferred their Bill in the Exchequer against Sir Francis Compton and Major Boade, who, after Delay, put in their Answers, and thereby insist on the said Acquittances, to prevent the Petitioners from ravelling into their Accounts; and the Petitioners, being poor, are not able to prosecute the said Suit: And praying the Assistance of the House to enforce their Officers to a fair Account, and to pay what is due to the Petitioners.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred.

A Petition of Francis Molyneux, Citizen of London, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, on the 7th of January 1697, a Petition of the Subaltern Officers and Troopers of the Duke of Schomberg's Regiment was presented to this House, complaining of Arrears due to them from the now Petitioner; which was referred to a Committee; who came to a Resolution, which was agreed unto by the House; and is as followeth; viz. "Resolved, That there is an Arrear of Pay due to the Petitioners, which is incumbent upon the Colonel to see satisfied:" That thereupon the Petitioner stated his Accounts with the said Duke; and, by an Award of Two indifferent Persons, it appeared, That there was due to the Petitioner, from the said Regiment, 533*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.*; for which the Duke gave the Petitioner a Letter of Attorney to receive the same of the Paymaster General of the Army; but he refuses to pay the same: And praying such Relief in the Premises as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

themselves, and others; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by the Statutes of the 2d and 3d of Phill. and Mary, and the 1st of Jacobi the 1st, for preventing the Loss of Persons Lives and Goods by unskilful Watermen, it was enacted, That the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London should yearly elect Eight Persons, to be called Rulers and Overseers of the Watermen, for keeping good Order amongst them, and making such others as should be thought necessary: But certain doubts have arisen touching the Construction and Execution thereof, whereby his Majesty is prejudiced in respect of Seamen in time of War, and the Lives and Goods of many Persons have been lost, and Gentlemen are daily disturbed in taking Water: To prevent which Inconveniencies, and the like which attend Lightermen also, for want of due Order and Government amongst them, the Petitioners pray, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the Explaining, and more effectual Execution, of the said Statutes; and for the providing One good Government amongst the Watermen and Lightermen for the future; subject to the Powers given by the said Statutes to the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Justices of the Peace.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Shallet do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Blackwell-hall Cloth Market.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers, and for regulating the Factors there, be made upon Wednesday Morning next.

Call of the House.

The House was, according to Order, called over: And several Members, who made Default to appear, were excused, either upon Account of Sickness, or other very necessary Occasions; and others were, upon the Question severally put, not excused; viz. Henry Darell Esquire, Henry Mannaton Esquire, and Thomas Trenchard Esquire.

Defaulters.

A Motion being made, and the Question being put, That Ralph Freeman Esquire, be excused; The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas,	{ Mr. Gwyn , Mr. Brotherton :	} 230.
Tellers for the Noes	{ Mr. White , Mr. Chase :

So it was resolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, That the said Mr. Darell be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament.

The House taking notice, That the said Mr. Mannaton made Default to appear upon their last Call; and that he was then ordered to be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, in respect thereof; they required the Serjeant to give an Account what he had done in Execution of the Warrant, to him directed, for that Purpose: Whereupon the Serjeant acquainted the House, That he had sent One of his Messengers to the said Mr. Mannaton's House at Calstock; and that he was there informed, that he was gone towards London the 15th of December last; and that, although the Messenger stayed thereabouts several Days, he could not hear of him there, nor yet about this Town, since that Time.

Ordered, That the said Mr. Mannaton do surrender himself into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, by this Day Fortnight inclusive, at furthest, upon Pain of incurring the further Displeasure of this House, and of being proceeded against as this House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Mr. Trenchard be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

Ordered, That Sir John Rogers, Sir Jacob Ashley, Sir Wm. Cook, Sir Godfrey Copley, Sir Robert Edon, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. England, Mr. Woollaston, Mr. Osborne, Sir Roger Bradshaw, Admiral Hobson, Sir Hen. Bellasis, Colonel Webb, Colonel Crawford, Lord Cutts, and all the Members that serve for the County of Monmouth, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath is committed.

Avon Navigation.

Ordered, That the Quorum of the Committee appointed to examine the Entries of the Journals, what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for encouraging the Woollen Manufactures; be Eight.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Christ Church, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there was an Act of Parliament made in the 16th and 17th Years of King Charles the 2d, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum; and the Undertakers made several Attempts therein; but, finding no Advantage, though they did carry up some Barges, they desisted, till of late Years, they began again, but have not yet made the River navigable for any Benefit to themselves, or the Publick; nor the Haven near Christ Church any better than before: But now certain Persons in New Sarum claim a Right in the said Undertaking; and, by Colour of the said Act, and some Orders made by the Commissioners, demand many causeless and unreasonable Fines of the Petitioners, who have Lands contiguous to the said River, or have made use of the said Haven, as formerly; so that the said Act, which was designed for the Benefit of the Country, hath and is like to turn to their Prejudice; and, as the Petitioners are informed, there is a Bill depending in the House for making the said Act more effectual, which is to give the Undertakers further Power to recover such Fines as they have or shall lay: And praying, That they may be heard what they have to object against the said Bill.

Avon Navigation.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of several Gentlemen and Landholders near the River Avon, in the Parish of Christ Church, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in King Charles the Second's Reign, the Undertakers of an Act of Parliament, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, attempted the same; but the River is yet as unpassable, for any Advantage, as ever; nor is the Haven near Christ Church any better, but rather worse, for what they have done: But certain Persons in New Sarum now claim a Right to the said Undertaking; and, by Colour of the said Act, and some pretended Orders made by the Undertakers and Commissioners, have laid and demanded several great Fines and Duties upon the Petitioners, who have Lands adjoining to the said River, or have made use of the said Haven as formerly; and, in order to the Recovery thereof, there is a Bill depending in the House for making the said Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, more effectual; which will increase the Undertakers Power, which has been already extended, to the Injury of of a great Number of People: And praying, That they may be heard what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Avon

A Petition of the Inhabitants and Landholders of the Parishes of Box, and Ditcheridge, near Bath, in the County of *Wilt*s, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill now in the House for the making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which would be very prejudicial to the Petitioners, should the same pass as it now is: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, to shew their Objections against the Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Landholders, and other sufficient Inhabitants of the Town of Marsfield, in the County of Gloucester, near Bath, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That if the Bill depending in the House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, should pass, it will not only prejudice the Petitioners, but also the Inhabitants of the several Counties of Gloucester, *Wilt*s, and Somerset: And praying to be heard by Counsel against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Exporting
Wool.

A Petition of the Clothiers of *Wilt*s, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the late Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures abroad, being added to the many Difficulties the Cloathing Trade labours under at home, threatens the Overthrow of their Foreign Trade, which is improved to the utmost abroad, when Men of all Occupations enter into the same here, to the Ruin of the Reputation of our Cloth abroad, and the Prejudice of the skilful Trader; and besides, they pay great Duties upon Oil, Soap, and Dyeing Stuffs, when as Foreigners are freed from that Charge, and consequently can make their Cloth cheaper; and thereby discourage the Sale of our Cloth, and encourage the Exportation of our Wool; but the Cloathing Trade was in a much more flourishing Condition in England, and our Manufactures much truer made, when our Cloth was sold to English Merchants: And praying, That effectual Means may be used to put the English Merchants upon the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures, as formerly; and that a Bill may be brought in to adjust the Measure of Cloth, and to put the Petitioners upon an equal Foot in Trade with their Neighbours.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to examine what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for the encouraging the Woollen Manufacture.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Corporation of the Borough of Leeds, and of the Merchants, Clothiers, Clothworkers, Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, and other the Inhabitants of the said Borough, and Places adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Prohibition of our Woollen Cloths into Flanders has been a great Cause of the Decay of that Trade in those Parts, whereon many Thousand Families depend for a Livelihood; and, should the King of Spain set up a Woollen Manufacture in Flanders, our Foreign Trade therein will depend on the Good-will of the Governor of the Spanish Netherlands: To prevent which unknown Inconveniences, it is worthy the Consideration of a Parliament of England, to find out suitable Remedies for preserving the Trade of the Woollen Manufactures to this Nation.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to examine what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for the encouraging the Woollen Manufacture.

A Petition of the Drapers, Clothiers, and Clothworkers, on behalf of themselves, and divers other Persons employed in, and subsisting by, the Woollen Manufacture in the Corporation of Salop, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That those Manufactures were so considerable to Salop, until the additional Duties upon Flanders Linen, and their Prohibition of our Woollen Cloth, That at least 1,500*l.* a Week was laid out therein; but since, there is not above 200*l.* weekly laid out; so that many Families, which used to be employed, are reduced to great Poverty, and become burdensome to their several Parishes: And praying the House to consider of such Methods as they shall think proper, for restoring and opening the Trade to Flanders, as the only Means to prevent the Calamities which otherwise must befall the Petitioners.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to examine what has been done upon the former Laws against the Exportation of Wool; and for the encouraging the Woollen Manufacture.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of Hallifax, and adjacent Parts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Importation of our Woollen Manufactures was, on the 1st of April last, prohibited in the Spanish Netherlands, where they have set up a Manufacture, and give great Encouragement for the Carrying of it on, to the great Damage of our Woollen Trade; the high Duties in England upon their Linens, and the Prohibition of their Bone-lace, being the Occasion thereof: And . . . . . the House to take it into Consideration, That no further Prejudice may happen to the Cloathing Trade of England.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred.

A Petition of Captain John Le Wright, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner hath 1,300*l.* to be adjusted, as a Subaltern Officer, by the Agents of the Lord Cutts and Colonel Seymour's Regiments, and, for himself and Company, for the time he served as Captain in Colonel Buchan's Regiment; since which he has not only distinguished himself in the Service abroad, but particularly in the Assassination Plot, by taking Charnock by a Warrant from his Majesty: And praying, That his Services may be considered, and his Accounts adjusted.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred.

A Petition of George Pindar, and others, in behalf of themselves, and others, disbanded Soldiers, lately belonging to the Regiment of Dragoons commanded by the Honourable Colonel Edward Leigh, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is due to the Petitioners about 18*l.* a Man for Subsistence, besides the Balance of their Arrears; for which they applied themselves to their Officers, who bid them take their Course: That when their Officers heard the Regiment was to be broke, they made the Petitioners fuddled, and then compelled them to sign a Paper of they knew not what, threatening those that would not sign it; and, when they were disbanded, took the Petitioners Horses and Accoutrements from them, and made Stoppages out of their Subsistence for Saddles, Bridles, Boots, Carbines, &c. which ought, by the Establishment, to be stopped out of their Cloathing; by which, and many other unjust Dealings, the Petitioners and their Families labour under very great Hardships: And praying the House to give

give such necessary Orders for their Payment, as may relieve them against the unreasonable Accounts of their Officers.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred.

Tythes of Hemp and Flax.

A Petition of the Hemp and Flax-dressers in the County of Warwick, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in the 3d Year of his Majesty's Reign, an Act of Parliament passed for ascertaining the Tythes of Hemp and Flax, not exceeding 4s. per Acre; which Act being expired, the Parsons, Vicars, and Impropriators, are so unreasonable in their Demands for Tythes, that the Petitioners cannot employ the Poor as before the Expiration of the said Act: And praying, That the said Act may be revived.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for reviving the said Act: And that Sir John Mordant do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Dover
Harbour.

A Petition of the Commissioners for the Repair of Dover Harbour, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Harbour is of great Importance to this Kingdom, not only in time of War, where a few Ships may command all Trade passing the narrowest Part of the Channel, and the Place where the Royal Navy, when in the Downs, takes in Provisions; the only Victualling Office between Chatham and Portsmouth being at Dover; but also in time of Peace is a safe Harbour for Ships in Distress, which hath often happened; and the rather, because the French King is now, with all Diligence and Expence, making a Harbour at Calais, the nearest opposite Port to Dover: And praying the Consideration of the House, That some Methods may be taken for the Repair and Preservation of the said Harbour; which is so far run to decay, that, without the Assistance of the House, it will be irrecoverably lost.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same to the House, with their Opinion what is necessary to be done thereupon:

And it is referred to Sir James Orendon, Sir Richard Onslow, Sir Steph. Lenard, Mr. Blofeld, Mr. Brewer, Colonel Churchill, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. How, Colonel Lee, Mr. Cook, Mr. Gwyn, Sir Jacob Baunck, Lord Cornbury, Lord Fairfax, Mr. Duke, Mr. Poultney, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Sir Clo. Shovell, Mr. Harley, Mr. Sargason, Mr. Foster, Sir Rich. Cocks, Sir Geo. Rook, Sir Wm. Thomas, Mr. Aylmer, Mr. Greenhill, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Nicholson, Mr. Bristow, Captain Clayton, Mr. Shackerly, Sir Tho. Frankland, Mr. Yates, Sir Robert Cotton; and all for Kent, and the Cinque Ports: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Debtors
Petition.

A Petition of the poor Prisoners for Debt in the Gaol of Morpeth, in the County of Northumberland, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a great Number of poor Prisoners in the said Gaol for Debt, who are unable to help themselves: But, being informed, there is a Bill in the House for Relief of poor Prisoners, the Petitioners pray, they may be included within the Benefit of the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Prisoners of the King's Bench and Fleet is referred.

Vagrants.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants, and sending them whither by Law they ought to be sent: And that Mr. Cooke do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of the Aldermen and Burgesses of Bury St.

Edmonds, in the County of Suffolk, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the making and keeping navigable the River Lark, alias Burn, would be a means to employ great Numbers of poor People, and improve Trade and Commerce, by affording an easy Communication between Bury and Lynn Regis by Water, and furnishing the Petitioners, and Places adjacent, with Fuel, and Sea Coal, from Lynn, and other merchantable Commodities: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for making the said River navigable to the River Ouze.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Harvey and Sir Robert Davers do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of the Victuallers, and divers of the Inhabitants, of the Town of Harwich in the County of Essex, in behalf of themselves, and others, Inhabitants of the said Town, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there now remains due to the Petitioners the Sum of 330*l.* and upwards, for Quarters for sick and wounded Seamen, set on shore from divers of his Majesty's Ships of War since the Year 1694: That most of the Petitioners are reduced to great Poverty, for want of what is due to them; and have often made Application to the Commissioners for the sick and wounded Seamen for their said Money; but can have no Relief therein: And praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration; and that speedy Orders may be given, for the Payment of what is due to them.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Portsmouth in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Harbour of Rye is the only Harbour for Ships the English have, upon the Coast of Kent and Sussex, from Dover to Southampton, which is above a Hundred Miles by Sea; and many Ships have been saved by putting in there from Storms, and Stress of Weather: Besides, the said Harbour lies opposite to Diep, and several other considerable Ports of France, and Ships of War, of considerable Strength, used to ride there, to be ready to go in and out at any time, to hinder French Privateers from infesting our Coast: But now the said Harbour is so decayed, that it will not entertain above Twenty small Ships, which formerly would have received the whole Navy Royal; which is occasioned by the Inning of Land, and making Flood-gates and Cross-walls; and that yearly, by the stopping the Slubb in the Harbour, the same grows worse and worse; so that, in a few Years, a Ship of Burden will not be able to come in there, to the great Damage of Navigation and Trade; unless there be some care taken, that the Flood-gates and Cross-walls may be taken away, so as the Tide may flow and reflow as formerly: And praying, That the House will take some Course for restoring the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness, that so considerable a Harbour, for the Benefit of the whole Nation, may not be totally lost.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

A Petition of Wm. Monson, Wm. Thompson, Esquires, and others, on the behalf of themselves, and the rest concerned with them in a Lease from Sir Tho. Grosvenor Baronet, a Member of this House, of certain Lead Mines, and Halken Mountaine, in the County of Flint, was presented to the House.

And Sir Thomas Grosvenor being not in the House; Ordered, That Sir Tho. Grosvenor do attend in his Place upon Thursday Morning next: And that the Petition be then read.

Peace Qualification.

A Bill for qualifying Justices of the Peace was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the said Bill.

Irregularity of an Election by Death of returning Officer.

A Petition of John Davy Esquire, High Sheriff of the County of Devon, was presented to the House; setting forth, That he having, pursuant to the Writ to him directed, sent his Precept to the Mayor and Burgesses of Clifton-Dartmouth and Hardnesse, for electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough, in the Room of Sir Joseph Herne, deceased; and delivered the same to Mr. Whitrow, the Mayor, who proclaimed the Day for the said Election, but died before the Day appointed; and that the Burgesses and Freemen, notwithstanding, proceeded to the Election; and some of them returned Nath. Herne Esquire, by one Indenture; and others returned Rowland Holt Esquire, by another Indenture: And praying the Direction of the House, whether both, or which of the Two Indentures he ought to return to the Clerk of the Crown; or whether he can return either of them, they not coming to his Hands by the proper Officer, who died after Proclamation made, and before the Election.

Ordered, That the Sheriff be directed, according to his Duty, to make a Return of his Writ.

Resolved, That this House will, upon To-morrow Supply. Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Loundes, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of the Charges by the Duplicates; and what the Produce of the several Counties of England and Wales was to the First Aid of Three Shillings in the Pound; and also of the First and last Quarterly Poll: And the Title thereof was read:

PRAYERS.

Jobber's
Half-pay.

A PETITION of Francis Jobber, late Cornet in the Regiment of Horse, formerly commanded by Colonel Richard Hamilton, and lately by Colonel Coy, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner served several Years in the said Regiment, until the 9th of March 1695, when he was barbarously shot into the Body, whereby he was disabled from Service to the End of the War: And praying, That he may be admitted to have Half-pay for his Support.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Matter of Half-pay to the Officers of the Army be considered.

Army
Arms.

A Petition of Captain John Wildman, late of Major General Stewart's Regiment, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner served in the said Regiment until the last of October 1697, at which time he was on the Muster Roll; and there was then due to the Petitioner, and his Company, above 600*l.* for Subsistence and otherwise; which the said Colonel Stewart, and Mr. Weeks, his Agent, keep from them; besides the Petitioner's Half-pay, which he thinks himself intitled to, being on the Muster Roll, as aforesaid; but he cannot get any Account of what is due to him from the said Agent, although often demanded: And praying, That the said Colonel or Agent may be compelled to give the Petitioner a general Account of his Subsistence and Clearings; and that he may be added to the List of Officers who are to have Half-pay.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they

VOL. 13.

A Petition of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Limington, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Harbour of Rye is a very commodious Harbour for Ships of War, and Merchant Ships, both in War and in Peace, and the only Harbour on the Coast of Kent and Sussex for above an Hundred Miles; but the same is so decayed by the Inning of Land, and making Flood-gates and Cross-walls, which stop the Flux and Reflux of the Tide, that, unless the same be taken away, the Harbour, which yearly grows worse and worse, is in Danger of being useless: And praying, That some Course may be taken to restore the said Harbour to its former Goodness.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

A Petition of Thomas Shea, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in February last, he caused Robert Cecill Esquire to be arrested for 80*l.* who removed himself to the Fleet, and hath his free Liberty granted by the Warden of the Fleet; notwithstanding Shea is a responsible Man of 400*l.* per Annum, and would have paid the Petitioner, had he been confined: And praying Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to inspect the Journals for the last Session, what was done upon the Petition of John Goodall, and others, relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others, of the County of Gloucester, in behalf of themselves and others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the making Rivers navigable hath been always looked upon as a Work of great Advantage to the Publick: And there being a Bill in the House for making the River Avon from Bristol to Bath, navigable, the Petitioners pray, That the same may pass into a Law; it being for a general Good, and the Increase of Trade in those Parts.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard before the said Committee thereupon.

A Petition of the Inhabitants and Landholders of the Parishes of Ditchet, Shepton Mallet, and Castle Cary, near Bath, in the County of Somerset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill now depending in the House for making the River Avon, from Bristol to Bath, navigable, will be very prejudicial to the Petitioners, if it should pass, and no Advantage to the Publick: And praying to shew their Objections, by Counsel, against the same.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of the Devizes, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, if the Bill that is depending in the House, for making the River Avon, from Bristol to Bath, navigable, should pass as it now is drawn, it will be a great Wrong and Injury to the Petitioners, and no Advantage to the Publick: And praying, That they may be heard by their Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Dorrell's
Claim.

The Lord Coningsby acquainted the House, That, he having, according to Order, acquainted Colonel Collumbine with the Contents of the Petition of John Dorrell Gentleman, presented to the House the 11th of December last, Colonel Collumbine had sent an Answer in a Letter to him; which he delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; setting forth, That he referred to the Report from the Committee, to whom the Affair of the Tower Hamlets was referred, who were to examine Mr. Dorrell's Complaint against the Colonel in 1697; to which Report this House agreed: But Mr. Dorrell, being not satisfied therewith, addressed himself to the Treasury, and thence to the Officers at the Horse Guards; at all which Places it appeared to be no Debt due to Dorrell from the Colonel, but from Mr. Maddox, Agent of the Regiment, who has given him his Bond for the Money due to him: But Maddox broke about Three Months after, considerably in Debt to the Colonel, and the Regiment; so that there was no Occasion to promise Payment of any Sum to Dorrell before the said Committee, as he alleges in his Petition: But Dorrell, being sensible of his base Desertion of the Regiment in Time of Service, requested at that Committee, that the Colonel might not prosecute him as a Deserter; the which that the Colonel would not do, and that all the Service in his Power should be used for getting Dorrell's Money, was all that the Colonel ever promised, or was desired to do, either before the Committee, Treasury, or General Officers: And, as to that Part of Dorrell's Petition, wherein he mentions Arrears for his Service to be received by the Colonel, he says, there has been none paid; and that he never promised Payment thereof: But that, since the said Proceedings, Mr. Dorrell hath arrested him at Law; to which Action Bail is given; and Dorrell unjustly proceeds therein: And that, if what Account is here given be not satisfactory, he desires the Matter may be referred to a Committee; and that he may have Liberty and Time given him to come over from Dublin, to justify himself.

And the Journal of March 1697, relating to the said Mr. Dorrell, was also read.

Ordered, That it be referred to a Committee, to examine whether Colonel Collumbine hath, since the said Report, received the Money due to the said Mr. Dorrell, and promised Payment thereof; and to report the same to the House:

And it is referred to Sir Rowland Gwyn, Sir Richard Onslow, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Trelawney, Lord Coningsby, Lord Fairfax, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. Tredenham, Mr.

Worsley, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. Hughes, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Hurley, Mr. Dormer, Mr. Henley, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Howe, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Palmes, Mr. Foley, Mr. Yates, Mr. Freht, Mr. St. Johns, Mr. Perry, Mr. Ireton, Mr. Lowther: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are to give Colonel Collumbine Notice to make his Defence.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to enable his Majesty's natural-born Subjects to inherit the Estate of their Ancestors, either lineal or collateral, notwithstanding their Father or Mother were Aliens: And that Sir Edward Hussey and Mr. Thursby do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Sir Edward Stradling, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the Ship Martha of Margam to trade as a free Ship: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

A Petition of Thomas Austen Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the House having referred a Petition of Robert Pellican Gentleman, to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretence of Concealments and defective Titles is committed, upon Suggestion, That the Crown settled several Demesne Lands upon Trustees, to pay off himself and others, a Debt due for naval Stores and other Provisions; and that they shall be deprived of their Right to those Lands, if the said Bill should pass; the Petitioner shews, That his Ancestors purchased Part of the said Lands above 60 Years ago, for a valuable Consideration, from the said Trustees; and have enjoyed them ever since: And obtained several Dismissions of the Creditors Bills preferred in Equity against the Petitioner, about 30 Years since: And praying, That the said Pellican's Petition may not have any Countenance to obstruct the said Bill; and that the now Petitioner may be heard by Counsel before the said Committee.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that they do hear the Petitioner, by his Counsel, thereupon.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Petitions of the Soldiers are referred, who were to consider of the Case of the Soldiers in general, and what was fit to be done for their Relief, be made upon Friday Morning next.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Monday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Mr. Eyre, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, An Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers, and regulating the Factors there, was committed, the Amendments, which they had made to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one: And, upon the Question severally put thereupon, several of them were agreed unto by the House.

Clause B being read a Second time, That all Clothiers shall, at the Milling of their Cloths, set a Seal at the Head-end of every Cloth, shewing the true Water-mark of every Cloth, in such Manner as is used on Salisbury Cloths, under a Penalty;

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Amendment;

It

It passed in the Negative.

Then the rest of the Amendments made by the Committee to the Bill, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, with some Amendments to some of them, agreed unto by the House.

A Clause was offered to be added to the Bill, That the Clothiers, or their Agents, shall have the same free Access to their Standings in the said Hall, as before the making of the Act; and the same was twice read; and, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House to be made Part of the Bill.

Then an Amendment was proposed to be made to the Bill, Folio 2. l. 7, 8. to leave out "or to his Order" in the Clause for the Note to be given for the Cloth sold, and Money to be paid:

And the Question being put, That the said Words do stand Part of the Bill;

The House divided.

The Noes go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Sir Thomas Davall, } 186.
                                  { Mr. Eyres: }

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Wynne, } 103.
                                  { Mr. Bristow: }

So it was resolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

Supply.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday next, at Twelve a Clock, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty: And that all other Business be then adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Avon Navigation.

A BILL for making the Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum, more effectual, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Mompesson, Sir Richard Farrington, Mr. Clark, Mr. Hunt, Sir Sam. Barnardiston, Mr. Burrard, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Jarvis, Mr. Ro. Eyres, Mr. Egerton, Sir Ja. How, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Yates, Sir Row. Gwyn, Mr. John Eyres, Mr. Machell, Sir Richard Onslow, Mr. Harley, Mr. Freke, Mr. Etterick, Lord Cornbury, Sir Jacob Banks, Mr. Gwynn, Sir Robert Edon; and all that serve for the Counties of Wilts and Southampton: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Ordered, That the Petitions, which were ordered to lie upon the Table until the said Bill was read a Second time, be referred to the Consideration of the said Committee: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon: And that the Committee do take care, That timely Notice be given for that Purpose.

Newark Election.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Newark in the County of Nottingham; and the Resolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the several Petitions of John Rayner Esquire, and the Inhabitants of Newark, complaining of an undue Election of Sir Francis Molineux Baronet to serve for the said Borough;

That, upon the First Poll delivered to the Petitioner, and signed by the Town Clerk, the Numbers stood thus:

For Sir Francis Molineux - - - 158.
For Mr. Rayner - - - 146.

VOL. 13.

But afterwards, the Petitioner had another Copy of the Poll delivered to him; on which the Numbers stood thus:

That for Sir Francis - - - 156.

For Mr. Rayner - - - 141.

However, the First Poll, at last, was admitted by the Sitting Member.

The Petitioners Counsel insisted, That 50 Persons, that had a Right of Voting, and would have voted for the Petitioner, were refused; which they ranked under these Qualifications; viz.

20, that were in the Poor's Book for 97, and 98.

3 others, who were rated for 98 only.

8 others, rated for 97, and fraudulently left out for 98.

15 others, neither in one Rate nor the other; but were

Men of Substance, and who ought to pay.

4 others, who did pay; but their Tenements were in others Names.

That the Petitioners Counsel also complained of the Partiality of the Mayor, Town Clerk, and others, concerned in the said Election.

That it was admitted, That by the Charter, which impowers the Corporation of Newark to send Members to Parliament, the Right of Election was in the Inhabitants paying, and which ought to pay, Scot and Lot.

That, as to the Partiality of the Mayor, Town Clerk, and others, in the said Election, the Petitioners Counsel called several Witnesses; viz.

Gilbert Cozens said, That he was at one Stow's the Day before the Election; where were present the Mayor, Alderman Snell, Mr. Morris, Mr. Read, and Mr. Ellis the High Sheriff, and Sir Francis Molyneux; and that the Mayor said to Sir Francis, Be not daunted; right or wrong, we will have you: And that Alderman Snell said, If the others had as many more, he should have it.

John Lee said, That Sir Francis' Friends had desired the said Lee to be for him; but, having promised Mr. Rayner, he offered his Vote for him, and was put by.

Rich. Snow said, That the Mayor, at the Election, took hold of him, and said, He was glad to see him, he having promised to vote for Sir Francis Molineux; and the Mayor then told him he had a good Vote: But, after he had declared he was for Mr. Rayner, the Mayor said, He had no Vote; and bid the Officers turn him down: Which they threatened to do, if he did not go down willingly: That he lived in Part of a House not inhabited by any body else; had a Shop in the Market-place; and paid Scot and Lot, both in respect of his Habitation and Stock; and had voted before for Sir Richard Erle.

William Cork, Rich. Cook, John Clayton, Paul Hare, John Robinson, Rob. Wootton, William Pace, being severally examined, said, They had been solicited by the Mayor, Sir Francis Molineux, Mr. Morris, and one or more of the Aldermen, to give their Votes for Sir Francis Molineux and Mr. Saunderson; yet, when they came to poll, and voted for Mr. Rayner, they were told, They had no Vote, and turned down by the Order of the Mayor, Town Clerk, Alderman Snell, Alderman Morris, Mr. Ellis, and Doctor Yarborough, or some of them, who all concerned themselves in a very partial Manner for the Sitting Member, Sir Francis Molineux; and were also further affronted by their Officers: And the several Persons, so refused, declared, That they lived in distinct Tenements, and paid Scot and Lot; but Clayton acknowledged, he was excused from the Window Tax, upon his Oath, That he did not live in an entire House.

Richard Parker said, That, at the Time of the Election, he heard Alderman Snell say, That he, that did not vote aright, should have Shackles, and Fetters, and Incumbrances.

Bryan Cumberland said, That Mr. Snell, the Town Clerk, and he, met, and went to an Alehouse: That, upon the said Cumberland's telling the said Town Clerk That he heard Mr. Rayner stood fair, the Town Clerk said, No Matter; let him have the Majority never so much, Mr. Saunderson and Sir Francis Molineux must be returned at this time.

Wm. Glover junior said, That one Hacker asking Mr. Morris,

Newark
Election.

Morris, What he thought of the Election; the said Mr. Morris answered, Do not fear; all our Party shall have Votes.

Tho. Hackenfield said, He was at the Election, and would have polled: Whereupon they asked him, Who he was for: And the said Hackenfield answering for Mr. Sanderson, then they asked him, Who he was for else: And the said Hackenfield answering, For Mr. Rayner, they bid him go down; for he had no Vote: Though the Collector then said, He was in the Church Books; and, in fact, he had paid Scot and Lot about 9 Years, and had voted for Sir Francis against Sir Richard Erle: However, he acknowledged, that Richard Bakeman lived under the same Roof; but he said, his was a distinct Dwelling; and each of them had a Door.

Mr. Robert Banks said, He went into the Chamber to give his Vote; and, at the Door, he met with Doctor Yarborough, who said to him, Damn you! what do you come for? Take the Oaths: Whereupon Banks offered to take the Oaths; but they thrust him away: And Doctor Yarborough did run his Cane at him; so he was forced to go away without polling, though he has paid Scot and Lot 18 Years, and is a Housekeeper, and had voted for Sir Francis Molineux at 2 or 3 former Elections; and, at this time, Doctor Yarborough had sent to him, to desire his Vote for Sir Francis.

Barth. Martin said, That he was at the Place of Election, and had his Vote; but there was one Hall, who paid Scot and Lot, turned down by Alderman Ellis, then High Sheriff, without being permitted to give his Vote; and the Reason the said Mr. Ellis gave for it, was, That he had had his Tryal before. It was acknowledged, That the Chamber was full; and Sir John Bolles and Mr. Clerk were there on the behalf of Mr. Rayner.

Robert Pocklington said, He was denied his Vote; and told, It was so agreed by the Company; though he had been a Trader 27 Years, and pays Scot and Lot, and has borne all Offices in the Borough, but those of Mayor and Alderman, and was never denied before: That though Alderman Morris before had importuned him to be for Sir Francis Molineux, they now thrust him down; and told him, He was an Inmate; though he paid 10 l. a Year for his Dwelling and Shop, and 40 or 50 l. a Year for Lands besides: That he had lived where he now does these 5 Years; but acknowledged, That Samuel Wilson lived in the Back Part of his House.

John Bransdale said, That there was Three of them working for Alderman Ellis the Day before the Election: The said Bransdale said, He did not pay to Church and Poor; but Mr. Ellis desired their Votes for Sir Francis Molineux; and told them, He could not tell but if they would vote for Sir Francis, they might have a Right; and accordingly, the said Bransdale said, he was permitted to vote for Sir Francis Molineux.

Bernard Wilson, John Hobman, said, That they were in the Chamber, where they did see a great many of Mr. Sanderson and Mr. Rayner's Friends turned down; and, at the same time, those that voted for Sir Francis Molineux were treated fairly. Wilson further said, That he complained to Mr. Hewet of it; and Mr. Hewet threatened to break his Head; and that Mr. Rayner himself was thrust down Stairs.

That the Petitioners Counsel also insisted, That some indirect Practice had been in the making and delivering out of the Poors Rate; and called John Hobman, who said, That the usual Time for delivering out of the Poors Book was about Midsummer: And Gabriel Alby, who was Overseer for 98, said, He did not receive the Poors Rate till the Morning of the Election; and that it was signed by the Justices that Morning: But the said Alby did not see it signed; but it was dated, as signed by the Justices, the 4th of June: But nothing else was made out further, with respect to that Matter.

As to the 20 Persons, insisted on by the Petitioners Counsel to be in the Poors Rate, as well for the Years 97, as 98, and refused to be polled; it did appear, That

Mr. Banks, John Booth, John Leeson, James Wharton, Tho. Hopkinson, Rich. Cook, Jo. Doubleday, John Farley, Rich. Lovet, Robert Pocklington, Mr. John Clayton, Ri. Heppinstall, Wm. Stevenson, John Comyns, Wm. Corke, John Lees, Steph. Martin, John Shackleton, Cha. Stratham, Wm. Elston,

Were all severally charged to the Poor in 98, and most of their Names were found in the Rate for 97, also

As to the 4 Persons insisted on to have paid, though their Tenements were charged in others Names;

Bernard Wilson said, That Robert Forckes paid both in 1697, and 98, though his Mother's Name remains in the Books.

Mr. Clark said, He received of Robert Forckes, in his own Name and Right, in 98.

That he received of Robert Wootton, though he is not named in the Books. And

Robert Wootton himself said, He paid to Clark in 98, for the Church and Poor, in his own Right; but believes, his Father Fox's Name only is in the Books, though they live in Two distinct Dwellings.

Samuel Spragging said, He received of Wm. Pace to the Poor in 98, though John Pace's Name is in the Book. And

William Pace himself said, That he paid to the Church and Poor 13 s. 4 d. in his own Right in 1698: That his Father paid Ten Years before, under the Title of Stanger's Name.

As to the Three charged only in 1698, it did appear, That

Geo. Jackson,
Paul Hare,
Paul Hare, } were charged to the Poor in 1698.

Though the Counsel, upon the Opening, alleged, There were 8 that were charged in 97, and fraudulently left out in the Poors Rate in 98; yet there was Evidence given only as to Seven; and it appeared, by the Book, That

Mr. Snow,
Mr. Robinson,
Tho. Knight, } were charged in 97.

But the Poors Book of 97, for one Part of the Town, not being produced; they called the then Collectors, Mr. Clark and Mr. Spragging, who said, They received of Robert Hall in 1697, for a little Close:

That Francis Dixon and Nic. Gaddard are in the Book for 97; but they could not receive of them, being poor:

That Thomas Hackenfield's Wife paid them.

As to the 15 others, insisted on to be left out of the Poors Rate fraudulently, the Petitioners Counsel called Bryan Cumberland, B. Bilson: Who said, That Edward Pierson rents about 38 s. a Year, and believe him able to pay; though cannot say he ever did:

That Richard Poe, being one of the Town Waits, lives as well as most in Town, and rents an House of 28 s. a Year:

That Tho. Rawlins is a Carpenter, has a good Trade, and lives in a House of 30 s. a Year; but could not say he ever paid:

That John Ragsdale is a labouring Man, and lives in a House of 15 s. a Year:

That William Hilton lives in a House of 21 s. a Year, believe him very able; but cannot say he ever did pay:

That Henry Tuxford's Rent is 20 s. a Year, is a Tapster; and believe him able to pay:

That Tim. Jackson is a Carpenter, and lives handsomely, in a House, at least, of 20 s. a Year:

That John Wilson is a Carpenter; and his House about 20 s. a Year:

That John Holland is a Flax-dresser, and maintains his Family very well:

That Richard Naylor is a Labouring-man, his House about 12 s. a Year; but could not say whether able:

That Richard Alcock is a Joiner by Trade, and lives very handsomely in a little House; but could not say whether he was able:

That William Gabitas lives in a House of 19 s. a Year; and believes him able:

That

That Ro. Hoyes is a Rope-maker; cannot tell his Rent; but they believe him able:

Gilbert Cozens, the Witnesses spake not to.

Richard Hodson was found in the Book for 98.

That, to prove, That the several Persons, above insisted on to have a Right, demanded their Poll, and were refused, the Petitioners Counsel called

Bryan Cumberland: Who said, He was in the Chamber where the Poll was taken, at the time of taking the Poll: That he could not say the Persons refused demanded to be polled in the Hearing of the Mayor; but, in his Hearing, they did: That the Mayor knew who they were for, and would presently bid them be put down; and, as they went down, he asked them, Who he was for:

And that 1. Robert Banks, 2. John Booth, 3. John Leeson, 4. James Wharton, 5. Tho. Hopkinson, 6. Richard Cook, 7. John Doubleday, 8. John Farley, 9. Rich. Lovet, 10. Robert Pocklington, 11. John Clayton, 12. Ri. Hipinstall, 13. Will. Stevenson, 14. John Comyns, 15. Cha. Statham, 16. Will. Corke, 17. John Leeze, 18. Steph. Martin, 19. John Shackleton, 20. Wm. Elson, 21. Robert Fawkes, 22. Robert Wootton, 23. Wm. Pace, 24. Geo. Jackson, 25. Paul Hare, 26. Paul Hare, 27. * Snow, 28. * Robinson, 29. Ro. Hall, 30. Fra. Dixon, 31. Tho. Knight, 32. Nic. Goddard, 33. Tho. Hackensfeld, 34. Edward Pierson, 35. Richard Poe, 36. Tho. Rawlins, 37. Jo. Ragsdale, 38. Wm. Hilton, 39. Hen. Tuxford, 40. Richard Hodson, 41. Tim. Jackson, 42. Jo. Wilson, 43. Jo. Holland, 44. Richard Naylor, 45. Rich. Alcock, 46. Wm. Gabitas, 47. Robert Hoyes, were severally in the Chamber, and would have polled for Mr. Saunderson and Mr. Rayner, or, at least, for Mr. Rayner; and were severally refused.

That the next thing the Petitioners Counsel proceeded on, was to take off 17, that were put down on the Sitting Member's Poll: And for that they called

Mr. Peate, Mr. Clark. Mr. Peate said, That he had been an Officer in 1697, and 98; and that he knew Richard Kitchin; and he did not pay; but was excused upon giving up the Accounts.

That Thomas Sutton was a Child, and received 1 s. 6 d. a Week for Charity, in 97:

That Tim. Lilly lives at Kelham, with his Father, about Two Miles off from Newark: That he took a House; but never brought his Family to it; and was discharged, for want of giving Security, the Year before the Election:

That Christopher Surft was not of Age, and an Apprentice; and they produced a Certificate, by which it appeared, he was baptized the 18 January 78:

Said, He was present in the Chamber during the whole Time of taking the Poll, and did not see Richard Hunt; but they entered his Name upon the Poll out of a Paper, that was given in.

Edward Randolph said, That he was in Company all the time of the Poll with Rich. Hunt, in the Bell Chamber; but he being for Mr. Rayner, and Hunt for Sir Francis Molineux, they both agreed not to come down; and they were locked up by the Sexton.

Wilson said, That the Mayor ordered him to take down Hunt's Name, though he did not see him there.

Mr. Clark said, That John Cheesman lives in the next Yard to him; and he never knew him to be a House-keeper: That he used to employ him to weed Woad; and, he believed, he never paid; and that he has been discharged the Town, by reason of his Poverty, since Michaelmas.

Mr. John Hern, Mr. Wilson: Who, or One of them, at least, testified, That they could not find * Billing's Name in the Poors Book, either for 97 or 98: That the Rent of his House is 11 s. a Year:

That Tho. Lupton is not in the Poors Book: His Rent is 15 s. a Year:

That Roger Hewet is not in the Poors Book: His Rent 7 s. a Year; and he was excused his Rent for his Poverty, and had Charity, before the Election:

That Scorer is not in the Books; is Bell-man; and believes he may be able:

That Francis-Bland is not in the Books, and very poor: His Rent 8 or 9 s. a Year.

VOL. 13.

John Barnsdale was present before the Committee; and said, He was not in the Book in 1698: Newark Election.

That Roger Oxfringe was in no Levy till 98:

That Steph. Middlebanks was in no Levy till 98: His Rent but 5 s. a Year, and he lives in an Alms-house now:

That Robert White's Rent is but 9 s. a Year; which they reckon not taxable:

That Tho. Read's House is but 18 s. a Year; and not rated till 98:

That Wm. Gill's Rent is but 10 or 11 s. a Year; and was not charged till 98.

And Gill himself was present, and said, He did not pay to Church and Poor before this Election: That Alderman Hering and Sir Francis desired his Vote: though he told his Master he had no Vote.

William Wilson said, He voted for Mr. Rayner and Mr. Sanderson; and they set him down for Sir Francis Molineux: That he heard Alderman Snell say, Right or wrong, Gentlemen, we will have it, speaking to all the Company.

To answer which Evidence, the Sitting Member's Counsel insisted,

That it would be hard to put the Sitting Member ex-tempore to justify so many Votes as the Petitioners had excepted to: But they said, They should very much rely upon an Agreement made by the Candidates at the time of the Election; which was to this Effect:

That none of the Candidates should be present; but there were to be Two Persons present on each Candidate's behalf, who were to determine, among themselves, what Persons were qualified to vote; and accordingly the Mayor was to direct the Clerk to set them down:

That none, who did not pay to Scot and Lot, should poll:

That none, who were paid for by the Parish, or received Alms, should have any Vote:

That only One Person should vote for One House.

They further insisted,

That the Place of Polling was the same as usual; viz. in the Chamber; and that now, as formerly, they came up Stairs to the Chamber; and, when they went away, were let down by a Ladder into the Church-yard.

That, if any Riot or Disorder was, it was begun by Mr. Rayner, and his Party.

As to the Riot, they called

John Henly, John Scorer: Who said, They were Constables at this Election. Henly said, The Poll was taken at the usual Place, in the Chamber over the South Porch: That now, as at other Elections, they went up a Pair of Stairs, and went from the said Chamber, by a Ladder, into the Church-yard. The said Henly and Scorer said, They were placed to keep the South Door of the Church: That, before the Church Doors were shut up, the Voters were generally let in; and they were appointed to keep out the Rabble: But, after the Poll was over, Mr. Hern, and others of Mr. Rayner's Party, encouraged by Mr. Rayner at the Head of them, joining with some others without, endeavoured, by Violence, to force open the Door; and pressed upon Henly and Scorer in a most violent Manner; and One threw a Stone at Henly, and hit him on the Neck: And Scorer said, His Arms were like to be pulled from his Body; and that several Persons whipped off their Cravats, and put themselves into a Posture of Fighting; and cried out, A Rayner!

William Killinger said, That, almost at the End of the Poll, he heard some say, That Sir Francis Molineux, and all there, should not come down alive: That Joseph Gibson, and several others that voted for Mr. Rayner, had their Cravats off, and Sticks in their Hands, before the Election was declared: That he voted for Sir Fra. Molineux; and, before he came to the Bottom of the Ladder, Gunter beat him off, and called him Villain and Rogue, because he voted for Sir Fra. Molineux; and that those for Mr. Rayner were not used so ill: That Stones were thrown into the Chamber before the Poll was ended, and others in the Market-place, when Sir Francis was in the Chair.

Mr. John Clay said, He was in the Chamber all the time of the Poll, except a Quarter of an Hour; and that he did not observe any illegal Proceedings.

F f

Henly

Newark
Election.

Henly said, That Sir Francis Molineux desired him to let Mr. Smith the Parson in at the North Door, there being a great Croud; but Mr. Rayner put his back against the Door, and said, if any let him in, he would break his Pate.

* Henly, Sam. Blunt, Mr. Jo. Stow, said, That one Farrer going up Stairs to the Chamber to vote, Mr. Rayner held up his Cane at him, and would not let him go up, telling him, He had no Vote: And Blunt said, Mr. Rayner struck at Farrer, and called him a Son of a Whore, though he did not observe any Provocation given for it.

As to the Agreement;

Mr. Clay, Mr. Read, James Potter, Mr. Clarke, said, That it was agreed before the Poll, that none should have Votes but what were in the Town's Book of Assessment to the Poor:

That such as received Parish Collection should have no Vote:

And that there should be no more than One Vote for One House, according to the late Act of Parliament.

And this Agreement was made by those they called the Triers, no One of them opposing it; and the Triers were Two Persons appointed on behalf of each Candidate, to see Things fairly carried on; none of the Candidates themselves being in the Chamber where the Poll was taken: And that, accordingly, they believed, several that lived Two in a House, who were for Sir Francis Molineux, were turned down, without giving their Votes; and several were turned down, because they were not in the Assessment Books: And Mr. Read said, when the Poll was over, Mr. Rayner asked Sir John Bolles, how it went: And Sir John Bolles answering, He had lost it by Two, Mr. Rayner bid him proclaim the other Two.

As to those the Petitioner would have added to his Poll, the Sitting Member's Counsel insisted,

That they were generally Inmates, and others not of Ability: And for that they called several Witnesses.

Gabriel Ally, Wm. Killinger, John Henly: One or more of which gave the following Account:

That John Booth went about a begging, though he was upon the Books:

That John Leeson's Wife goes about a begging at Christmas, and such Times; and did so both before and since the Election.

James Wharton was not spoken to.

That Tho. Hopkinson lives in Henry Reynold's House, and has a Chamber there:

That Richard Cook, at the Time of the Election, lived in Part of Mr. Hobman's House: That it has been distinct several Years; but they go both into one Yard, to which they have but one Door; and make use of one Brewhouse:

That John Doubleday lived in a House of Mr. Robert Eastland's; where he had some Back-rooms; and they had but One common Door: But it was acknowledged he kept a Mercer's Shop, and had paid to Church and Poor, and borne Parish Offices:

That John Farley lived in Part of a House, with one Hall; but it was divided 12 Months before the Election; one being an Innkeeper, the other a Joiner:

That Richard Lovet tabled with Richard Bradshaw, a Weaver; but could not say whether he had paid to Church and Poor: Yet acknowledged, he was a Butcher, and had a Shop at a Distance from the House where he tabled:

That Robert Pocklington lived in a House with Samuel Wilson; and Pocklington was refused, because Wilson had voted: Yet acknowledged, that they were distinct Dwellings, and had been so One Year before the Election: That Pocklington rented a great deal of Ground; paid to Church and Poor; and had been Chamberlain of the Town.

As to * Clayton, Rich. Hippenstall, Wm. Stevenson, John Comyns, Cha. Statham; there was no Answer.

That William Cork lived in Part of an House with John Comyns: That each go into one common Door, though each had a Door to his Dwelling; and Cork kept a Shop: That John Loe lived only in Part of an House; but it has been divided as long as the Witness had known it; and he has a distinct Door:

That Stephen Martin was poor, and would not pay to the Poor; and was excused by the Justices:

That John Shackleton lives in a little Tenement in a Yard: But the Witness acknowledged, he received 2½ d. a Quarter of him:

That William Elston is very poor.

As to those charged in 1697, and not 98;

The Counsel insisted, That the Books were the Measure to go by; and no Fraud was proved: However it was testified by,

Ally, Henly, Killingham, That Robinson's Name was not in the Pours Rate, till after the Election; but he did, upon his Brother's Death, contract for his Brother's personal Estate; and hired the House some time before the Election: That he had Part of George Wilkinson's House, who did not vote:

That nothing was answered as to Hall:

That Thomas Knight lived with his Father; and his Father had a Vote:

That Nicholas Goddard was very poor, and nobody would trust him 2 d.:

That Thomas Hackenfeild and Francis Dixon were likewise very poor.

As to the Persons said to have paid, though the Tenements were charged in others Names;

It was testified, That Robert Fawkes is a Tabler, and lives with his Mother: and his Mother paid the Assessment in 98: But it was acknowledged he kept a Sadler's Shop 12 Months before the Election:

That Robert Wootton was an Inmate with his Father at the time of the Election; and said he neither did nor would pay:

That William Pace lived with his Father.

As to the Persons not admitted to poll, though in the Assessment for 98:

It was testified, That Geo. Jackson was a drunken idle rambling Fellow:

That Paul Hare senior, though he was in the Book, told the Overseers, he was not able to pay; and has a weekly Allowance, though the Witness could not say, at the time of the Election:

That Paul Hare junior lives with Wm. Herring; but the said Paul Hare's Dwelling was divided a Year or Two before the Election: And that they have Two Doors to the Street.

As to the 15 pretended to be fraudulently left out in 1698;

That Edward Pierson's Circumstances were very mean at the Time of the Election:

That Richard Poe is able to pay:

That Thomas Rawlins is a Carpenter, but a mean Man, newly come out of his Time:

That John Radsgale was poor, and his Mother and he lived in One Room:

That Wm. Hilton is an Inmate, and rents a Room of 10 s. a Year of Mr. Rawson:

That Henry Tuxford was a Tapster, and lives in a little dark Place.

Richard Hodson was found in the Pours Book; but said to be a very poor Man:

That Timothy Jackson was very poor, and not able to pay; and his Goods were lately seized for Rent:

That John Wilson is run away, and was very poor at the Time of the Election.

That John Holland is so poor, that, if he was dead, his Wife must beg:

That Richard Naylor was the shallowest Creature in the whole World:

That Richard Alcock was the same:

That Wm. Gabitas and Robert Hoyes were poor, and not able to pay:

That then the Sitting Member's Counsel proceeded to the Justification of the 18 Votes, that were excepted to by the Petitioner: As to whom.

Ally,

Alby, Killinger, Henley, or one of them gave the following Evidence:

1. That Richard Kitchin did pay in 98; is a Grasier; and was taxed for his Employ, returning about 1,000 l. which was in Hogs:
  2. That it was acknowledged, That Tho. Sutton had 8*d.* a Week Collection for his Child:
  3. That Timothy Lilly paid the King's Assessment for a Malt-house he took in Newark; which he soon after left, because he did not thrive upon it: And the Witness could not say that he had lain at Newark.
  4. It was admitted that Christopher Smith was not of Age:
  5. That John Cheesman rented a House, which he left but last Lady-day: That he did not receive Collection in 98: but has since.
  6. They could not say, Billings' Name was in the Poors-rate for 98; said, he had been married to a Widow about 4 Years, and drove a pretty Trade:
  7. 8. 9. 10. That Tho. Lupton, Roger Hewet, Francis Bland, were allowed to be very poor; and they, as well as John Scorer, not to be in the Poors Book.
  - 11, 12, 13, 14, 15. That John Barnsdale, Roger Oxspring, and Steph. Middlebrook, Tho. Read, and William Gill, were all able to pay the Poor; and Oxspring had voted all along.
  16. Roger White said, He did pay to the Poor; and had paid before the Election.
  17. As to William Willson's Vote; it rested upon the Poll, and the Evidence given by the Petitioner.
- Then the Sitting Member's Counsel took Exception to Twelve of the Petitioners Voters: But the Witnesses spoke but to Eleven.
- Henry Alby* and Killiner, or one of them, testified, That Hutchinson, Wilson, and another, live all in one House:
- That Matth. Armstrong lives with another Person; and his Children beg.
- That John Bellamy is past his Work, and very poor:
- That Tho. Greggs is an Inmate with one Burton:
- That William Brown is a Maltster; but his Wife goes a begging at Christmas:
- That John Booth goes a begging every Day:
- That John Drew's Wife and Girl go a begging every Day.
- That John Bridgman is very poor:
- That Richard Arnold lives in Part of Hobland's House, but asunder:
- That James Goddard is poor, and goes about with Nails:
- That John Clark is an Inmate with one Lamb:

Then the Petitioner's Counsel, by way of Reply, called Mr. Alexander Clark: Who said, He was present at the Election and an Inspector, with Sir John Bolles for Mr. Rayner. He acknowledged, it was agreed amongst them, That none should poll, but such as paid Scot and Lot, according to the Charter; and that none should vote, that received Collection. As to the Third Point, That there should be but One Vote for One House; he said, the Act in that Case was brought before them; but he did not know of any particular Agreement relating to the Matter. And he said, After the Election, the People were in a great Outrage, because they thought themselves abused: And Mr. Rayner desired them to be quiet; and said, he would see to do himself and them Right; and did not agree to the Return.

Sir Matthew Jenson said, That, after the Poll was over, he apprehended, that Alderman Snell endeavoured to get a Consent from Mr. Rayner; but Mr. Rayner said, He would consent to nothing: And that he was in the Church, and Mr. Hewet came down, and said, He believed they would knock Sir Francis Molineux on the Head.

The Petitioner, to justify the Votes excepted to by the Sitting Member, called

Sam. Spragging: Who said, That John Hutchinson paid Scot and Lot at the time of the Election:

VOL. 13.

That Matth. Armstrong is on the Book to the Poor; but is excused to the Church, being a Ringer; Newark Election.

That John Bellamy was in the Poors Book for 98:

That William Brown paid in 98; and he never knew any of his Family beg.

That John Booth has paid in 1698; but acknowledged, that he has begged some Years, both before and after the Election:

That John Drewry paid in 98; but acknowledged, his Children did beg:

That John Bridgman paid in 98; and is a House-keeper:

That Richard Arnold senior paid in 98; and has paid for Two Years; goes into his Dwelling-house at one common Door; but has a distinct Tenement:

That James Goddard has paid in 98; and is an House-keeper:

That John Clark junior has paid in 98; and is a Housekeeper; but could not say, if more in the same House:

John Clark said, That Thomas Gregg is charged; and is at present a Head Churchwarden: and hath not been denied a Vote these 10 Years.

And, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to these Resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That all the Inhabitants within the Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, who pay, or ought to pay, Scot and Lot within the said Borough, have a Right to vote at the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for the said Borough.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Francis Molineux Baronet is not duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Newark.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That John Rayner Esquire is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Newark.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made therein, after the Word "That," to insert "the Mayor, Aldermen, and;"

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, so amended, That the Mayor, Aldermen, and all the Inhabitants within the said Borough of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, who pay, or ought to pay, Scot and Lot within the said Borough, have a Right to vote at the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough.

The Second and Third Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the Crown do attend this House To-morrow Morning, to amend the Return for the said Borough, by rasing out the Name of Sir Francis Molineux Baronet, and inserting the Name of John Rayner Esquire, instead thereof.

Ordered, That Edward Hobson, late Mayor of the Borough of Newark, in the County of Nottingham, for his irregular Proceedings at the Election for the said Borough, be taken into Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

Sir Rowland Gayn also, according to Order, reported, from the said Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Newport in the Isle of Wight; and the Resolution of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the Petition of John Acton Esquire, complaining of an undue Election, and Return, of Henry Greenhill Esquire to serve for the said Borough.

That

Newport (Isle of Wight)
Election.

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in the Mayor, Aldermen, and capital Burgesses :

That, upon the Poll, there was,

For the Sitting Member - - - 12.

For the Petitioner - - - 10.

But the Petitioner's Counsel insisted, That the Sitting Member's Votes were gained by Promises of Places, and by sending great Quantities of Junk, to be made into Oakum by the poor People of Newport; which, the Petitioner's Counsel alleged, was on Purpose to gain himself Votes; which, they conceived, would vacate the Sitting Member's Election: And to make good the said Allegations, they called several Witnesses :

Mr. Mathews: Who said, Mr. Greenhill, the Sitting Member, being but little known in Newport, made use of Mr. Smith's Interest, who was Clerk of the Rope-yard: And that Mr. Smith, before the Election of my Lord Cutts and Sir Robert Cotton, to serve for the said Borough, did propose Mr. Greenhill; and that, if they would vote for Mr. Greenhill, he would employ the poor of Newport, by sending over Junk: That Mr. Smith particularly pressing him, the said Mathews, he answered, He would be for him, if he could get a Recommendation from the Lord Cutts: And it was discoursed how to engage the Mayor, and the Corporation; and it was proposed to engage the then Mayor, by helping his Son to a Purser's Place, from which he had been before discharged; and the Corporation was to be obliged, by sending Junk for the Poor to pick: That, after, he received a Letter from Mr. Smith, dated the 28 July 1698; and writ in these Words following; viz.

Dear Sir,

I most humbly thank you for the particular Service you have done me, in respect to Commissioner Greenhill, who is wonderfully pleased at the Letter you sent my Lord Cutts, on his behalf: He orders me to send his most humble Service to you, and let you know, That on Monday, about Four a Clock in the Afternoon, he will wait on, and give you his most hearty Thanks.

I am still to pray the Continuance of your Favour in this Affair; and that you will please to let Mr. Mayor know, that, for the Respect that is designed him by the Corporation, he will forthwith make his Son John Purser of a Third-rate Ship; an Employment now-a-days hard to be gotten: And for my Brother Rookley, upon your Request to him, on his behalf, will immediately proceed to get him a very good Post; and also will do you, and the Town, any other Service that shall be desired of him.

The Commissioner has this Day wrote to the Earls of Orford and Scarborough, to request of my Lord Cutts his Recommendation to your Corporation, according as I hinted to you; and I hope, in few Days, to hear a good Account of that Matter: However, whether the Commissioner does obtain his Ends, or not, he assures me, that his Zeal to serve the Town will be not a Jot the less; and that now he will forthwith employ all the Poor.

I most earnestly beg your best Endeavours to promote his Interest, against he comes over; and will please cunningly to intimate the Commissioner's Design to serve the Mayor's Son, as also my Brother Rookley; which he positively resolves to do. I hope, by your prudent Management, the Commissioner will find from the Corporation, a civil and candid Reception; which will be most gratefully acknowledged by him to you all; particularly to yourself; as also by, Sir,

Your most faithful humble Servant,
W. Smith.

Portsmouth Dock-yard,

28 July 1698.

I have sent the Coffee by the Bearer, Nurse Dart; which humbly prays your Acceptance.

My Service attends you, and my Cousins.

And the said Mathews said, That afterwards he received a Second Letter from the said Mr. Smith, upon the said Subject; which he did not produce: And thereupon he went and acquainted the then Mayor with what Mr. Smith had wrote, concerning his the said Mayor's Son, the Mayor's Wife being present; who said, The Good of her Son was more to them than any Parliament-man: And that afterwards Mr. Greenhill lay at the said Mr. Keblewright's; and he espoused his Interest: That afterwards Mr. Mathews discoursed with Mr. Greenhill about the Subject-matter of Mr. Smith's Letter; and told him, That if Keblewright's Son was not preferred, and Junk sent to the Town, he could not expect to succeed; but did not shew him Mr. Smith's Letter: And Mr. Greenhill said, it should be done: And that, about September, some Junk was sent, and so continued to be sent for Six or Seven Months, in the King's Boat; but he could not say, by the Commissioner's Means or Order: And that some of the poor People said, That they must have had Relief but for the said Oakum:

That John Read said, He would not have voted for Mr. Greenhill, but for the Preferment of his Brother, and the Importunity of his Sister; his Brother being promised to be head Carpenter of a Yard:

That he attended Mr. Greenhill, on behalf of Mr. John Rookley; who was discharged from being Surgeon of a Ship: And that Mr. Greenhill promised him to be his Friend: And that since, the said Rookley is employed as Surgeon of a Ship; but he could not say, by Mr. Greenhill's Means.

James Farrington said, That he received 35 Ton of Junk from Portsmouth, and delivered it to the Poor of Newport, to pick; and there was a Warehouse taken for it at the Rate of 40s. a Year: That he was employed by Mr. Smith and allowed 3s. 4d. per C. which, for the 35 Ton, comes to 115*l.*; whereof he allowed the Poor 3s. 2d. per C.; and received his Money at 10*l.* a time: That about Six C. Weight remained at the time of the Election; but he could not say, by whose Order the Junk was sent; but it was brought in the King's Boat; but none had been sent since August last.

Mr. Wm. Prescott said, That John Keblewright has been Purser of the Nassau since September 1699: That he was formerly Purser of the Josiah, a Fourth-rate, which being made a Hulk, he was discharged from the same: That, on passing his Accounts for the Josiah, he was indebted 77*l.* 7s. which he has given Security to pay; and his Wages is also stopped till the same is cleared.

Mr. Tho. Read said, That he has heard John Read say, the Reason of his voting for Mr. Greenhill was, because his Brother-in-law was promised some Preferment; but did not say by whom: That the Junk sent to Newport was an Ease to the Electors, in Point of the Poors Rate; for that a great many must have been relieved by the Town, if not for the Benefit they had by picking of Oakum; and some were taken off the Rate upon that Account; particularly one Francis Taunt; but he could not remember any other: And believes, some did vote for Mr. Greenhill upon Account of the general Benefit of the Town: But, at the same time, he acknowledged, That he, being Mayor, did make Mr. Greenhill's Return, and made no Objection to his being elected:

Edward Hales said, He was Town-clerk, and Master-gunner of Carisbrook-Castle, by a Warrant from the Lord Rumney: That he was present at the Election of my Lord Cutts and Sir Robert Cotton; and, after the Election was over, Mr. Smith, who was very active for Mr. Greenhill, and desired his Interest particularly, which he excused, came into the Town-hall, and told them, it was believed the Lord Cutts would make his Election to serve for Cambridgeshire; and therefore he desired their Votes for Mr. Greenhill.

Colonel Dudley said, He discoursed with Alderman Webb Three Days before the Election, and asked him, Who he was for: That he said, That he, and his Son Rudge, were for Mr. Greenhill; for his Grandson had a Promise of some Clerk's Place, near Mr. Greenhill, of 30*l.* per Annum; which would, in a little time, be worth 50*l.* a Year: That he could not say positively, that Alderman

Alderman Webb said, Mr. Greenhill had made the Promise; but he understood it so by the Discourse.

Mr. Robert Lee said, That Alderman Webb told him, That he would not promise his Vote till the Day of Election; but his Son had given it for Mr. Greenhill, Mr. Greenhill having promised him a Place for his Son, which was worth 30*l.* a Year; and, in a little time, would be worth 50 or 60*l.*

That the Counsel for the Sitting Member insisted, That taking it upon the Petitioner's Evidence, The Promise of Junk being made before the Vacancy, it was not within the Words of the Act of Parliament, nor within the meaning of the same; it not being given to the Voters:

That what Mr. Smith did, was without Mr. Greenhill's Privity:

That Mr. Keblewright was not Mayor at the time of Mr. Greenhill's being elected:

And that, instead of Promises on behalf of the Sitting Member, there were Promises and Threats made use of on behalf of the Petitioner: And called several Witnesses.

Mr. William Smith said, That there was a Want of Oakum in the Dock Yard at Portsmouth, occasioned by the poor People's refusing to pick it, they in War-time finding Ways better to employ their Time; and that formerly they have had Oakum sent to Portsmouth from Deptford, which costs the King 3*s.* 8*d.* per C. Weight picking, besides the Charge of carrying it to Portsmouth; whereas that picked at Newport cost but 3*s.* 4*d.*: That formerly they had made use of Fareham, and other Places, for the Picking of Oakum: That, when he did understand the Lord Cutts was elected for Cambridgeshire, he went over to Newport, and proposed Mr. Greenhill; presuming the Lord Cutts would stand for Cambridgeshire, and decline Newport; and did say, the People of the Town might receive Benefit by the Picking of Oakum; and that Junk was sent to Newport to Mr. Farrington, till it was contradicted: But it was Mr. Cowper's Office to direct it; and Mr. Greenhill was not concerned in sending it there:

That the Junk was carried in the King's Boat, with two Men, which were kept to look after the Buoys; and, when they could be spared from that, they carried the Junk:

That Mr. Keblewright's Son, and he, having been Clerks several Years together in the Dock-yard, he wrote him a Letter, to speak to Mr. Greenhill on his behalf: and accordingly he did speak to Mr. Greenhill, for his Letter, for young Keblewright: But whether he had such Letter, Mr. Smith could not tell.

Mr. Francis Hosier produced an Account of 26 Tons and an half, sent from Deptford to Portsmouth, for the Year 1696, 97, and 98; and he said, It cost picking at Deptford 4*s.* per C.; which he supposes was sent to Portsmouth from Deptford, because they could not be supplied fast enough at Portsmouth.

Mr. Wm. Keblewright denied, That he had any Promise, that his Son should be made a Purser; or that he gave his Vote upon any such Account.

Mr. John Keblewright himself, being examined, said, That he was Purser of the Josiah in 1695; which being rendered unserviceable, he got a Certificate from the Officers of Portsmouth Yard; and, after a Year and Half's Attendance, was, by the Lords of the Admiralty, made Purser of the Nassau, his Father and Brother being Security for his Arrears; and that he had a Promise of being Purser, Two or Three Months before the Election: And he produced his Certificate, dated the 13 July 1694; and Warrant to be Purser of the Nassau, dated the 2d October 1699.

Mr. Edward Webb said, He never was offered any thing by Mr. Greenhill to vote for him; but voted for him out of Judgment: That he knows of no Clerk's Place, or other Place of Profit, that his Grandson has; nor is he like to have any, that ever he heard of.

John How said, That Mr. Acton came to Newport

some time before Christmas last, and sent for him, and told him, my Lord Cutts had ordered him some Money, that was owing him, and desired his Vote; and, if he would give him his Vote, he should have his Money when he pleased: And accordingly he received Money of him twice; and Mr. Acton promised him both my Lord's and his own Favour, if he would vote for him:

That afterwards my Lord Cutts came down, went to Mr. Hales, and sent for him, and pressed him for his Vote; but, he not being willing to promise, my Lord asked him, What he would have: Who saying, He would have his Money, and his Bill signed; accordingly his Bill was signed: That my Lord bid him come the next Morning, which he did; and then my Lord whispered, and told him, That if his Wife, who was then with Child, was brought to-bed of a Son, he would take care of it as soon as he was able to go abroad.

But Colonel Dudley, being called in to confront John How, said, He was present all the time that How was with the Lord Cutts; and that he did not observe my Lord whisper him: That he desired his Account should be passed; and that he would use him as a Freeman, and a Burgess of the Town.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Henry Greenhill Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Henry Greenhill Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the Petition of the Corporation of Leeds, be transferred from the Committee for the preventing the Exportation of Wool; and referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Common Council and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Weymouth, and Melcem Regis, in the County of Dorset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Rye is the only Harbour the English have upon the Coast of Kent and Sussex, for above 100 Miles; and lies very commodious for Ships of War, as well as Merchant Ships, either in War or Peace; whereby many Ships have been saved in Stress of Weather; but the said Harbour is in Danger of being lost by the Inning of Land, and making Walls cross the same with Flood-gates; whereby the Tide is checked; the Slub stopped, and the Harbour yearly worse and worse: And praying, That some Course may be taken for restoring the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

A Petition of the Freeholders, Clothiers, Serge-makers, and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Taunton, and Parts adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Way to raise the Value of our Land, to lessen the Number and Charge of the Poor, and to increase the Riches and Strength of the Nation, is, to give the greatest Encouragement to the Woollen and other Manufactures of this Kingdom; to abate the Interest of Money; destroy all Monopolies; discourage all Companies that restrain Trade, especially the East India and Hamborough; to repeal the Act for prohibiting of Bone-lace from Flanders; to make the Acts for Burying in Woollen to extend to the Plantations; and to make England, as much as may be, a free Market for all Buyers: And praying the Consideration of the House in the said Matters.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, who are to examine what has been done against the Exportation of Wool; and for encouraging the Woollen Manufacture.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of John Key, late Captain in the Lord Strathnaver's Regiment, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That he raised a Company in the said Regiment, at his own Charge, on the Irish Establishment, which was since put upon the English Establishment; and the Petitioner served therein faithfully, till the latter End of 1696; when he was deprived of his Command, without any just Ground; although there is a considerable Sum due to him, of which he can obtain no Account or Payment; whereby he, and his numerous Family, are reduced to great Distress: And praying, that he may be admitted to have Half-pay, or be otherwise relieved in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Bone-lace,
&c.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and of other the chief Inhabitants, of the Borough of Newbery in the County of Berks, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of the Act for prohibiting the Importation of foreign Bone-lace, and the Prohibition of English Woollen Manufactures in Flanders, occasioned thereby, many of the chief Clothiers have quitted their Trades; and the Trade of those that carry it still on, is so much lessened, that their Poor are greatly increased, for want of Employment: And praying, That the said Act may be repealed, their chiefest Trade being to Flanders.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and other the principal Inhabitants, of the Corporation of Taunton in the County of Somerset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are highly sensible of the great Advantage navigable Rivers bring to this Kingdom in general: And praying, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, may pass into a Law.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

State of the Fleet.

Sir George Rook presented to the House a State of the Fleet: And the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Ireland, &c.

A List of what ships and Vessels are now abroad, and going abroad; with their several Stations; and by what time they may be expected home.

Ordered, That no Petition for or against the said Bill be received after this Day Sevensnight.

A Petition of the several Commanders of his Majesty's Ships, in behalf of themselves, and others, who served in the late Wars against France, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in 1693, an Establishment was made by his Majesty in Council, giving Half-pay to the Officers therein mentioned, when on shore, in time of Peace, to be settled on the ordinary Estimate of the Navy, and paid quarterly; whereby a Retrenchment was made of a great Number of their Servants, and other Allowances usually made; but the Petitioners have received no Benefit by the said Establishment, or the Provision intended them by the Vote of this House in 1697; but hath faithfully served, and attended the publick Service, not expecting any Settlement for the future, but from the Bounty of this House: And praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration; and that they may be granted what was graciously intended them by his Majesty, and this House, in time of Peace, for Half-pay; That they may be enabled to attend on the publick Service, and not be obliged to seek for other Service for their Maintenance.

Ordered, That the Petition do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

Ordered, That the Earl of Ranelagh do lay before this House the particular Account of 296,806*l.* 17*s.* 10*d.* for disbanding, mentioned in the Account of the Disposition of 561,014*l.* 8*s.* 8*d.* received out of the 600,000*l.* appropriated last Session of Parliament for Land Service, presented to the House the Nineteenth of December last.

A Bill for the better preserving the Navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froome, and cleansing the Streets of the City of Bristol, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Monday Morning next.

The Clerk of the Crown attended; and, according to the Order of Yesterday, amended the Return for the Borough of Newark in the County of Nottingham.

Mr Cook, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants, and sending them whither by Law they ought to be sent: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

Mr Harcourt, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to apply all the forfeited Estates, and Interests, in Ireland, and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown within that Kingdom, since the 13th Day of February 1688, to the Use of the Publick: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

PRAYERS.

Dunwich
Election.

ORDERED, That Sir Henry Johnson have Leave to withdraw his Petition touching the Election for the Borough of Dunwich in the County of Suffolk.

Dunwich
Writ.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the Electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Dunwich in the County of Suffolk, in the Room of Sir Robert Rich Knight and Baronet, deceased.

Vander Tijde's Nat.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to naturalize Mr. Francis Vander Tijde: And that Mr. Clark do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Aliens
Children.

Sir Edward Hussey, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to enable his Majesty's natural-born Subjects to inherit the Estate of their Ancestors, either lineal or collateral, notwithstanding their Father or Mother were Aliens: And the same was received.

The Bill was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Lacy's
Estate.

Mr. Palmer, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon; and for laying out the Surplus-money in the Purchase of Demesne-lands, to be settled to the same Uses: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read upon Monday Morning next.

Woollen Ma-
nufactures.

A Petition of the Clothiers of the County of Gloucester was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Cloathing Trade is very much discouraged by the Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures into Flanders and Brabant; the Dearness of Dyeing Stuff, Oil, and Soap, consumed here, and the Drawback upon Exportation, chiefly by Foreigners; which will endanger the Supplanting of the Woollen Trade into foreign Countries, to the Loss of it here, by the Weakness of the Stock of Foreigners; it being our Advantage to encourage English Merchants, who employ far greater Stocks therein: And praying, That some Course may be taken for regaining the Trade to Flanders and Brabant, and all Encouragement given to English Merchants to export our Woollen Manufactures thither; and that the Petitioners may be put on an equal Foot with their Neighbours in the Materials of Soap, Oil, and Dyeing Stuff.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Martha
Ship.

A Bill for the Ship Martha, or Margam, to trade as a free Ship, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Tuesday Morning next.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

A Petition of Thomas Johnson Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That John Bradshaw, a Lighterman, against whom the Petitioner obtained a Verdict and Judgment for 40*l.* is become Turnkey in the Fleet Prison, for a Protection from his Creditors; whereby he is not only Master of his own Liberty, but also of others: And praying, That he may be debarred from being Turnkey, and Debtor, and Prisoner, and, at the same time, Prison-keeper.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet.

VOL. 13.

A Petition of John James was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner served Two Campaigns in Flanders, in the Horse Grenadiers of the Second Troop of Guards; and had his Horse, which he brought into the Troop, shot under him; for which Captain Warren received Satisfaction from the King, but refuses to make any to the Petitioner, or to account for what is due to him for his said Service: And praying, That Captain Warren may be ordered to account with, and pay, the Petitioner what is due to him.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report be made from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, was referred; and who were to consider what is necessary to be done for the Relief of the Soldiers in general.

A Petition of the disbanded and reduced Men, who lately served in a Regiment of Dutch Horse, commanded by Colonel Steinbock, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in 1696, the Petitioners, being Roman Catholics, were reduced at York from the said Regiment for Flanders, and their Horses and Accoutrements taken from them, without any Satisfaction, though they had paid for them; nor could they ever get any Account from their Officers of their Cloathing, for which there is great Arrears; but, upon their being disbanded, Major Goulstein forced several of the Troopers to sign Papers, as if they had been paid in full, which they were not: That Jacob Vander Esch, the Dutch Paymaster, has all the Petitioners Accounts: And praying, That he may account with them, and pay what is due, the Petitioners being very poor, and coming into England on purpose to solicit this Affair.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report be made from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, was referred; and who were to consider what is necessary to be done for the Relief of the Soldiers in general.

A Petition of William Paine, and others, on behalf of themselves, and others, late Soldiers, reduced out of the Troop of Horse commanded by Captain Robert Millington, and Captain Charles Eyton, successively, in the Regiment under the Command of the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they cannot get any Account of their Irish Arrears from Captain Millington, besides 4*l.* 5*s.* per Man for Respites; and 2*d.* per Day, amounting to 3*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.* out of their Subsistence, has been unjustly stopped from them, for which they can obtain no Relief: And praying the House to grant them some Relief in the Premises.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report be made from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, was referred; and who were to consider what is necessary to be done for the Relief of the Soldiers in general.

A Petition of Thomas Pink and William Joanes was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners served as Dragoons in Colonel Floyd's Regiment during all the late Wars; and have obtained their Discharges, and delivered their Accounts to their Colonel, there being considerable Sums due to them; but they can get none of it, whereby they are reduced to great Streights; And praying the Assistance of the House therein, not knowing how to get what is due to them.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report be made from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, was referred; and who were to consider what is necessary to be done for the Relief of the Soldiers in general.

The House being informed, That Mr. Gilbert Kendall attended, according to Order; he was called in: And, at the Bar, presented to the House a Book relating to the Sailing of the Ship Dolphin.

H h

And

And then withdrew.

Ordered, That the said Mr. Kendall do lay before this House the Transfer Book, and all other Books and Papers, relating to the said Ship.

Treaty of Altona, &c.

Mr. Secretary Vernon presented to the House a Latin Copy of the Treaty of Altona, the 20th of June 1689: And also,

A Translation of the Treaty of Altona: And also,

A Copy of his Majesty's Guarantee of the Treaty of Altona: And also,

The 6th and 7th Articles of the Treaty of Marriage between the Prince and Princess of Denmark: And also,

Copies of Two Letters of the Earl of Nottingham: One to Mr. Ludolfe, the 9th of July 1689; the other to the Lord Godolphin, the 18th of June 1694.

The Titles whereof were read; and the Copies are as follow; viz.

The said Latin Copy.

Treaty of Altona, 20th June 1689.

NOTUM sit omnibus, qua ratione graves controversiæ, quæ ab aliquo abhinc tempore inter suam Regiam Majestatem Daniæ & Norvegiæ, ac Domini Ducis Sleswicensis Holsatiæ Celsitudinem, agitatæ fuerunt per sollicitam meditationem Sacræ Cæsareæ Majestatis, ac suarum Serenitatem Electoralium Saxonie & Brandenburgii, in sequentes leges compositæ, atque in perpetuum abolitæ fuerunt:

1. Sit maneatque generalis amnestia, & æterna oblivio, omnium illorum, quæ hucusque ab utraque parte, earumque ministris, subditis, & adhærentibus, invicem suscepta atque patrata fuerint; quorum nomine nemo utrinque ad reddendas rationes vocabitur, nec eadem cuiuspiam fraudi aut damno cedent: Vicissim, inter suam Regiam Majestatem Daniæ & Norvegiæ, ejusque hæredes, & in regno successores, ac Domini Ducis Sleswicensis Holsatiæ Celsitudinem, ejusque successores, æterna atque insolubilis amicitia & unio, hoc ipso, restaurata atque stabilita sit.

2. Sua Regia Majestas Daniæ & Norvegiæ Celsitudinem suam Ducalem in omnes ipsius dictæ Celsitudinis ditiones, terras, insulas, & bona; atque in specie in prædium Gottesgabe dictum, simul in ejusdem soværitatem, regalia, jura collectarum, fœderum, munimentorumque extruendorum & possidendorum; denique, in universum, in omnia illa jura, eminentias, & quævis competentia, prout sua Celsitudo isthæc, ante & post pacem Westphalicam, & Borealem, usque ad annum 1675, obtinuit atque possedit; tum & quicquid suæ Celsitudini per pacificationem Fontisbellaquensem competere potest; quarum pacificationum leges contentæ, hoc ipso, iterum confirmantur: Nec minus sua Regia Majestas suæ Celsitudinis ministros atque subditos in quævis horum bona & pecunias creditas restituit.

3. Cum etiam sua Celsitudo, inter alia postulata, id requisiverit, ut sua Regia Majestas Femeram insulam, una cum præfecturis Steinhorst, Tremsbüttel, & Trittau, ab hypotheca in ejusdem constituta, ac ea pecuniæ summa, cujus nomine obnoxie tenentur, liberare, ac suæ Celsitudini absque ullo onere reddere velit: Sua Regia Majestas, quo de sincera sua in suam Celsitudinem, velut consanguinitate & affinitate sibi conjunctam, benevolentia, eo luculentius testetur, hypothecam & actionem, quam ipsa in præfecturam Trittau habet, cedit atque remittit; dictamque præfecturam, una cum aliis ejusdem terris, restituit: Sed quod Femeram insulam, & præfecturas Tremsbüttel & Steinhorst spectat, cum istæ non in suæ Regiæ Majestatis, sed in suæ Celsitudinis Regiæ Domini Georgii Principis Daniæ manu sint, Sacræ Cæsareæ Majestatis, & Dominorum Electorum Saxonie & Brandenburgii Serenitates, velut circa componendas hasce controversias meditatorum officio fungentes, & eo melius pax & tranquillitas in regnis Borealibus, & Circulo Inferioris Saxonie, firmetur atque conservetur, quam inconcussam subsistere publici boni magnopere interest, in se receperunt ejusmodi media procurare, quibus suæ Celsitudini Regiæ pro ista summa, ob quam dicta loca ipsi tenent, absque onere & præjudicio suæ Regiæ Majestatis, satisfiat; simul alte memoratæ Regiæ Suæ Celsitudinis consensum impetrare, ut dictæ insula & præfecturæ pariter suæ Celsitudini Ducali, libere ac gratuito, atque ab antehac inhærente debito & hypotheca immunes, reddantur.

4. Vice versa, sua Celsitudo renunciat omnibus actionibus & prætensionibus, quas non solum suæ Regiæ Majestati eo nomine, quod hæc aliquandiu ipsius ditiones detinuerit, earumque fructus perceperit, movere possit; sed & pariter eos processus, quos in judicio Aulico Cæsareo contra domum Dominorum Ducum Holsatiæ in Ploen impetravit, remittit, aique iisdem plane desistit.

5. Quod uniones, pacta familiæ, & alias, usque ad annum 1675, initas conventiones, ut & communionem attinet, circa eas firmas, permanet ad istud usque tempus receptus usus, non minus atque illa quæ pace Westphalica, Boreali, & Fontisbellaquensi, huc spectantia, diserte & literaliter disponentur, sed & quicquid reddituum camerarium, & contributionum, e ditionibus suæ Celsitudinis reliquum, & nondum perceptum fuerit, id a sua Regia Majestate prorsus non exigetur.

6. Cætera gravamina ad amicam transactionem, aut, si ea non succedat, ad viam juris remittunt; ac neutra pars adversus quælibet superius adducta quidquam, via facti, suscipiet.

7. Ratihabitiones hujus transactionis intra quatuordecim dies a facta subscriptione hic Altonæ permutabunt; ac dehinc conventa protinus, aut ad summum intra octiduum post eandem factam, bona fide, citra tergiversationem, reipsa executioni dabuntur.

Actum Altonæ, die 20 Junii, anno 1689.

The Translation of the Treaty of Altona.

BE it known to all, by what means the great Controversies, which have been a long time between his Royal Majesty of Denmark, and Norway, and his Highness the Duke of Holstein Sleswick, by the earnest Mediation of his Imperial Majesty, and their Electoral Highnesses of Saxony and Brandenburgh, have been composed, and for ever abolished, upon the following Conditions:

1. That there shall be a General Amnesty, and a perpetual Oblivion, of all that hath been hitherto undertaken on both Sides, done or acted by each, or other Party, their Ministers, Subjects, or Adherents; none of either Side shall be called to an Account, nor shall any body be brought into Danger or Charge for it: But an eternal and indissoluble Friendship and Union shall hereby be restored and established betwixt his Royal Majesty of Denmark and Norway, his Heirs and Successors, in his Kingdoms, and his Highness the Duke of Holstein Sleswick, and his Successors.

2. His Royal Majesty of Denmark and Norway shall restore to his Ducal Highness all his said Highness's Dominions, Lands, Islands, and Goods; but especially the Lordship of Gottesgabe, together with the Sovereignty of the same, Royalties, Rights of raising Monies, making Leagues and Alliances, of building and possessing Fortifications; in fine, all those Rights and Prerogatives whatsoever that his Highness did hold and enjoy before and after the Treaties of Westphaly, and of the North, to the Year 1675; as likewise whatever his Highness may claim by the Pacification of Fountainbleau; the Conditions and Contents of which Treaties are confirmed hereby: And also his Royal Majesty will restore to his Highness's Officers and Subjects all their Goods and Debts.

3. Whereas his Highness, amongst other Demands, hath required, That his Royal Majesty would free the Islands of Femeren, together with the Governments of Steinhorst, Tremsbüttel, and Trittau, from a Mortgage, pay that Sum of Money they are engaged for, and restore them, without any Charge, to his Highness: His

Royal

Royal Majesty, to give the greater Mark of his Favour to his Highness, as being nearly related to him in Blood and Affinity, doth give up the Mortgage, and remit the Action he hath against the Government of Trittau; and restores it, with its Dependencies: But, as to what concerns the Island of Femeren, and the Governments of Tremsbuttell and Steinhorst, these being not in the Hands of his Majesty, but of his Royal Highness Prince George of Denmark; his Imperial Majesty, and their Electoral Highnesses of Saxony and Brandenburgh, in Quality of Mediators for composing these Differences, to the end that Peace and Tranquillity may the better be established and settled in the Northern Kingdoms, and the Circle of Lower Saxony, it being of great Importance to the publick Good, that it should subsist inviolably, they have undertaken to find out such means to make Satisfaction to his Royal Highness for that Sum of Money for which he holds those Places, without any Charge or Prejudice to his Royal Majesty; as likewise to obtain the Consent of his said Royal Highness, That the said Island and Governments be restored again to his Highness the Duke of Holstein, exempt and free from the Debt and Mortgage they formerly lay under.

4. On the other Side, his Highness doth renounce all Actions and Pretensions he might have, not only against his Royal Majesty, for having detained his Dominions for some time, and enjoyed the Revenues thereof; but also doth release, and wholly desists from, those Proceedings he had obtained from the Imperial Chamber against the House of the Dukes of Holstein-Ploen.

5. As to what belongs to Unions, Family Agreements, and other Conventions made to the Year 1675; as also the Communion; the Custom used to that Day shall remain in Force, no less than what hath been expressly and literally determined, in relation to this Matter, by the Treaties at Westphaly, of the North, and of Fountainbleau; and whatsoever remains, and is unreceived, of the Revenues of the Chamber, or Contributions in his Highness's Dominions, shall by no means be demanded from his Royal Majesty.

6. They do remit other Grievances to be made up in a friendly Transaction; and, if that doth not succeed, they leave it to the Law: And neither Party shall undertake any thing, by way of Force, against what is above settled.

7. The Ratifications of this Agreement shall be exchanged here at Altena, Fourteen Days after the Subscribing of it; and the Agreement shall immediately, or, at furthest, within Eight Days after the Exchange, be strictly put in Execution, bona fide, and without Delay.

In Witness whereof Two Copies of the same Tenor, subscribed and sealed, have been delivered to each Party.

Done at Altena the 20th Day of June, in the Year 1689.

The said Copy of his Majesty's Guarantee of the Treaty of Altena.

WILLIAM the Third, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all, to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting. Whereas the late Differences arisen between our Good Brother the King of Denmark and Norway, and the Duke of Holstein Sleswick, have been adjusted and composed by a Treaty concluded at Altena the 20th Day of June last past; whereby likewise an everlasting and firm Friendship and Union is settled and renewed between the said King of Denmark and Norway, and the said Duke of Holstein, and their Successors; a Copy of which Treaty, translated out of the German Language, in which it was signed, into Latin, does here follow;

Notum sit omnibus, &c.

And whereas it is of very great Importance for the Good and Benefit of Christendom, and for maintaining in Peace and Tranquillity the Kingdoms and States in the North, That the said Treaty should be inviolably kept and observed: We have thought fit, for that Reason, and in regard of the Friendship and Affection which We bear unto the said King and Duke, to grant our Guarantee of the same; that so it may appear how ready and desirous We are to contribute our Endeavours, for preserving and maintaining that Part of Christendom in Peace and Quietness: And we do accordingly, by these Presents, give and grant our Guarantee of the said Treaty, concluded at Altena between the King of Denmark and Norway, and the Duke of Holstein Sleswick, and of every Article therein contained: And We do hereby promise, and engage our Royal Word, That We will employ our best Endeavours to prevent any Violation or Infringement thereof; and not only interpose our Offices, wherever it shall be necessary for this End, but also make use of our Forces, if need be, in Conjunction with those of the Party injured, and with those of our Allies, who shall likewise be concerned in this Affair, against all such as shall, by open Force or Violence, attempt any thing against the said Treaty; which We will preserve, as far as in us lies, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof. In Witness whereof, we have caused our Great Seal of England to be affixed to these Presents. Given at our Court at Whitehall, the 30th Day of January 1689-90, in the First Year of our Reign.

WILLIAM R.

The said 6th and 7th Articles of the Treaty of Marriage between the Prince and Princess of Denmark.

Article the 6th.

The aforesaid King of Denmark and Norway, and his Brother Prince George, by their respective Commission granted, agree and consent, That, Five Months after the Marriage already designed is solemnized, they shall constitute, and, according to the Laws of Denmark, ascertain, and confirm, for a Dowry, a certain Revenue, of the yearly Value of 25,000 Crowns, out of the Government of Wahrenburgh, and the Isle of Femeren, to the Use and Benefit of the said Prince George, and Princess, during their Lives: And in case the said Prince George shall die first, the full Revenue of the aforesaid Government of Wahrenburg, and of the Island of Femeren, with all the Rights which the Prince now enjoys, shall belong to the Princess during her Life.

Article 7th.

And whereas the most Serene King of Great Britain, and the Duke of York, have promised, That all the Estate, which the said Princess brought with her, shall descend to the Children which the Prince shall have by the Princess; in like manner the most Serene King of Denmark and Norway agrees, on his Part, and the said Prince George promises, That all the Estate of the said Prince shall remain in the Possession of the Children born of the said Prince and Princess: Provided nevertheless, that the Succession thereto shall be according to the Laws of Denmark; that is to say, That a Son shall always have Double the Portion of a Daughter.

The said Articles in Latin.

Art. 6th.

Prædicti Dominus Rex Daniæ & Norvegiæ, ac frater ejus Dominus Princeps Georgius, per commissiones suas respective interpositas, conveniunt & consentiunt, quod infra quinque menses, postquam nuptiæ jam designatæ celebratæ fuerint, constituent, & juxta leges regni Daniæ assecurabunt, & confirmabunt, nomini doarii, certum redditum ad annum valorem viginti quinque millium imperialium ex præfectura Wahrenburgensi, & insula Femeria, ad usum & beneficium dictorum Domini Principis Georgii, & Domine Principissæ, durantibus eorum vitis: & casu quo præfatus Dominus Princeps Georgius prædecesserit, plenus ususfructus modo dictæ præfecturæ Wahrenburgensis, & insulæ Femeriæ, cum omnibus juribus, quibus Princeps jam fruitur & gaudet, ad Principissam, quoad vivit, pertinebit.

Art. 7.

Quandoquidem quoque Serenissimus Dominus Magnæ Britannię Rex, atque Dominus Dux Eboracensis, omnia a Domina

Treaty of Altena, &c.

a Domina Principissa illata bona ad liberos a Principe de corpore Principissæ procreandos descensura promiserunt; itaque vicissim Serenissimus Dominus Rex Daniæ & Norvegiæ consensit, & Dominus Princeps Georgius promittit, omnia dictæ Principissæ bona penes liberos e Principe & Principissa natos permansura: ita tamen ut successio in iis fiat jure Danico; nimirum, ut filius duplicem portionem filiæ semper percipiat.

The said Copy of the Earl of Nottingham's Letter to Mr. Ludolf, the 9th of July 1689.

Sir,

I have sent you the Papers I received from you Yesterday; and desire you to procure his Highness the Prince of Denmark to sign them both; and then be pleased to give them to the King, who will send them away by this Night's Post, with Instructions not to deliver the last, which contains his Highness's actual Release and Discharge of the Baillages, unless there be an absolute Necessity for it; which the Prince may be more assured of, because it is the King's Interest, his Majesty having engaged himself to procure the Payment of the Money due to his Highness, or to pay it himself, and also in the mean time to satisfy his Highness for the Interest of it. This Affair presses very much; and therefore I must again desire you to get it dispatched. I am,

Sir,

Your most humble Servant,

Nottingham.

The said Copy of the Earl of Nottingham's Letter to the Lord Godolphin, the 18th June 94.

My Lord,

I have read the Papers which your Lordship put into my Hands, relating to the Prince of Denmark's Debt, and of which you desired some Account from me: This I shall do very faithfully, and as fully as my Knowledge and Memory of that Matter will enable me.

In the Negotiation of the Adjustment between the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holstein, the Debt due to Prince George, and secured by Mortgage of some Baillages intended to be restored, was a very great Obstruction to the Conclusion of the Treaty, which, at that time, was thought very necessary for the Allies; inasmuch that Monsieur Schmettau, the Envoy of Brandenburg, was very pressing, that some Expedient might be found; which could be no other than the Payment of the Money to the Prince by the Allies, that he might quit his Pretensions to those Mortgages: The King and the States were so sensible of the Necessity of it, that his Majesty resolved to pay himself the Moiety of it; and ordered me to speak to Monsieur Dickvelt about the Method of paying the other Moiety: And he assured me, That, if the King took upon him the Discharge of the one, the States would pay, or procure to be paid, the other Moiety. It is true, he did say, The States would willingly pay a 4th Part of the Whole; and that it was just and reasonable, that the Emperor, and some other Princes, should pay another Fourth: But, because the Matter required a speedy Resolution and Dispatch, and because it could not be expected, that the Prince should be troubled with adjusting the Proportions, and much less with soliciting the Payment, from several Hands: The Result of what passed between Mr. Dickvelt and me was as I have told you. Hereupon the King commanded me to speak with the Prince; and, by his Majesty's Order, I writ that Letter of July 9th, 89, to Monsieur Ludolph; and his Highness immediately and generously signed the Release of his Mortgages; telling me, He desired no better Security than the Assurance his Majesty had given him.

After this, it was necessary, that this Debt should be stated and settled; and I believe, Monsieur De Plessen insisting too rigorously upon his Calculation of it, did a long time delay the Adjustment of it: For, by his Majesty's Command, I often writ to my Lord Duresly, to press this Matter to a Conclusion; and, by the like Command, I spoke to the Pensioner, when I attended the King in Holland, that it might be speedily determined: Which Circumstances I mention, that your Lordship may see his Majesty looked upon himself as engaged to procure Satisfaction to his Highness; and that you may be better informed of the Result by my Lord Duresly: For either it was not finished while I was in the Office of Secretary, or I cannot recollect the stated Sum, if any has been agreed upon.

This being all that occurs to me, I return to your Lordship the Papers I received from you; and am

Your Lordship's

Most humble Servant,

Nottingham.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Papers be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

The House being informed, That Mr. Kendall attended again; he was called in: And, at the Bar, presented to the House a Transfer Book relating to the Ship Dolphin; which, he said, were all the Papers he hath, or had, relating to the said Ship: And then withdrew.

Dolphin
Ship.

Ordered, That the said Books do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

A Petition of the Mayor, Burgesses, Freemen, and other Inhabitants, of the ancient Town of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorset, in behalf of themselves, and many other Dealers and Workers in Bone-lace, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, since the Making of the Act for prohibiting the Importation of foreign Bone-lace, the Petitioners have found such Relief thereby, that many of them have supported their Families in the Making of Bone-lace, who otherwise must have been chargeable to their Parishes: And praying, That the said Act may be continued, notwithstanding the Petitions presented to the House for repealing the same.

Bone-lace.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred.

Mr. Parkhurst, from the Commissioners of Prizes, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of such Ships and Goods taken and condemned as Prize, from the Commencement of the late War with France to the End thereof, which have been delivered into the Prize-office, or come to their Cognizance; together with their net Proceed, and how that Proceed hath been disposed of: And the Title thereof was read.

Account of Prizes.

The Account is in a Book by itself.

Ordered, That the said Account do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

A Petition of divers Yarn-makers, Combers, Dyers, Pressers, Callenders, and others concerned in the Woollen Manufacture in the City of Norwich, on behalf of themselves, and many poor People who have their Dependence upon those Employments, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of the vast Quantity of East India wrought Silks, Bengalls, and printed and stained Calicoes, imported, and worn in this Kingdom of late Years, the Petitioners Trades are very much decayed; and, unless some Restraint be laid upon the Importation or Consumption of those Commodities, there will be such vast Quantities thereof imported, as will much more impoverish the Petitioners, if not utterly ruin them: And praying the Consideration of the House, and Relief therein.

Importing wrought
Silks.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

A Petition of Thomas Cudmore Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, having

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

having a Judgment for 100*l.* against William Miller, a Prisoner in the Fleet, charged Mr. For, the then Warden, with an Habeas Corpus, to bring Miller up to the King's Bench Bar; but he returned a Tarde thereon, and an Escape to another Habeas Corpus; so that the Petitioner is like to have no Satisfaction from For, who is insolvent, who only was nominal Warden, and acted for Mr. Tilly, a Prisoner there at large, who said, Miller should be forthcoming; and that he had good Security for him: And praying, That Mr. Tilly may answer the Premises, and that the Petitioner may be relieved therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

A Petition of Daniel Golding was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in Trinity Term last, he took Mary Manly, alias Brown, in Execution for 100*l.*; who, the same Day, turned herself over to the Fleet; and the Warden hath ever since granted her free Liberty; who, had she been confined, would have paid the Petitioner, she being a responsible Person: And praying Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet.

Employing
the Poor.

Ordered, That the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider of Ways for the better providing for the Poor, and setting them on Work; and who are to prepare, and bring in, a Bill or Bills; have Power to prepare, and bring in a Bill or Bills, for any particular Place or Places.

Impartial
Proceedings in Parliament.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Thursday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of a Bill for the more free and impartial Proceedings in Parliament.

Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Sir Thomas Day have Leave to go into the Country for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Ordered, That Mr. Serjeant Coward have Leave to go into the Country for a Fortnight, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Bonds for Customs.

Mr. Godolphin, from the Commissioners of the Customs, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of Bonds taken for Customs in London, and the Out Ports, before Christmas 1699, and standing out the 11th of January:

And also, a Report from the Custom-house Board, relating to the same.

And the Titles were read:

And the Account and Report are as follow; viz.

The said Account:
In the Receiver General's Hands;—
	£.	s.	d.
For additional Duty on Wine	24,024	10	6
For additional Duty on Tobacco	78,974	6	5½
Mord. Abbott.
In the Solicitor's Hands to be pro- secuted	5,096	11	10
John Bridger.
In the Plantation Receiver's Hands:
Additional Duty for Tobacco	60	1	11
Hen. Wolstenholm.
In the Wine Receiver's Hands:
Additional Duty for Wine	6,499	14	1
Tho. Cooke.
In the Grand Receipt:
For Subsidy from the East India Company, and additional Duty:
For Silk and Linen from ditto	28,461	11	2
Chr. Tower.

VOL. 13.

Remaining for like Bonds for Wine and Tobacco, in the Out Ports, as by Accounts received from the seve- ral Collectors	23,298	3	8½
By Bills from the Out Ports in the Receiver General's Hands, not yet received	6,596	16	11½
Mord. Abbott.
Total of all	£. 173,011	16	8

The said Report:

To the Honourable the Commons of England assembled in Parliament.

The Commissioners of the Customs, in Obedience to an Order of this Honourable House, of the 7th of December last, requiring them to lay before this House an Account of what Bonds are standing out upon the Subsidy of Tonage and Poundage, granted to his Majesty for Five Years ending the 25th of December 1699, humbly present the Abstract hereunto annexed, containing the total Sum on such Bonds standing out in the Port of London; and also of what remains in the Out Ports, as near as they have been informed, by their Letters from the several Collectors; amounting, together with the Bills in the Receiver General's Hands, to 173,011*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.*; which appearing to be a great Sum, the said Commissioners crave Leave to acquaint this Honourable House, That the Bonds for additional Duty on Tobacco, making more than Half of the Whole, are generally given on Prospect of exporting the Tobacco of those Entries; in which Case no Money will be paid on any such Bonds, but the Merchants will discharge them, by the Debentures they are intitled to, on the Exportation of their Goods.

And, as to the Wine Bonds; though there be very little Wine exported, the Certificates of Allowances for Damages and Outs will make some Deductions from those Bonds.

Moreover it is to be observed, That the Merchants having Twelve Months time to export their Goods, the Exportations for Six Months next, will, by a Medium, bear wholly upon the Importations of the last Year, the Debentures of which will amount to a very considerable Sum: And there being no Bonds admitted for any Subsidy, but from the East India Company, and none standing out for the additional Duty on Silk or Linen, but from the said Company; all other Debentures for additional Duty and Half Subsidy must be paid in ready Money; for which there is no Allowance reserved in this Account, but what may be received on the Bonds: And the Debentures for Goods actually exported before Christmas, and not yet paid, appear, by an Inquiry the Commissioners have made upon this Occasion, to amount to near 60,000*l.* in the Port of London only; and, by the nearest Estimate they can make from the Accounts of the Out Ports, may be about One Tenth of that Sum: To which if there be added the Charge of the Establishment and Incidents to Christmas; and also the Over-payments on the Customs in several of the Out Ports, by Money borrowed from other Branches, and some Allowances made for Insolvencies; it will be found, that the Sum here appearing to be accounted for to the Customs, before the new Appropriation of the 1 took place, will but suffice to discharge the Debts that Account is subject to. However, it has been thought fit, that this Account of all Money receivable before Christmas be kept distinct; whereby it will appear, if there be any further Surplus, over and above the Payments here mentioned to be due out of the same, and the 218,000*l.* already paid into the Exchequer, on that Account, from this Branch of Customs.

All which is most humbly submitted to this Honourable House.

Sam. Clark,      C. Godolphin,
Walt. Yonge,    Wm. St. Quintin.
T. Newport,

Ordered, That the said Account and Report do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

A Bill

Supply Bill; Irish For-
feitures.

A Bill to apply all the forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland, and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown within that Kingdom, since the 13th Day of February 1688, to the Use of the Publick, was, according to Order, read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Thursday Morning next.

Ordered, That all the Members of the House do then attend the Service of the House.

Avon
Navigation.

Ordered, That Mr. Larkner, Mr. George Pitt, Colonel Byerly, Mr. Saunderson, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the Act for making the River Avon, from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum, more effectual, is committed.

Defective
Titles.

Ordered, That Mr. Hysham and Mr. Lake be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, or other defective Titles, is committed.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Howland's
Estate.

A PETITION of Benjamin Hudson Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in February 1688, Edward Hudson, deceased, the Petitioner's elder Brother, purchased of his Grandfather and Father, deceased, several Messuages, Lands, and Tenements, in Leicestershire, subject to a Mortgage for 2,150*l.* payable to Jeffrey Howland Esquire, and Sam. Howland, who are dead; and their Interest therein is descended to the Marquis of Tavistock, in Right of his Wife; and, the Petitioner's Brother being dead without Issue, his Title to the said Premises is descended upon the Petitioner: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to take the Estate in Law, in the said several mortgaged Premises, out of the said Marquis of Tavistock, and his Wife, the Heir of the Howlands, they being Infants, and consenting thereto.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Ekins do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Exporting
Wool.

A Petition of William Woodford was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That he hath some Proposals to offer of a most sure and effectual Way of hindering the Exportation of Wool: And praying Leave, That he may make them appear, in such manner as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed to examine what has been done against the Exportation of Wool; and for encouraging the Woollen Manufacture; and to report their Opinion what may be further necessary to be done.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of George Ansley and Peter Lander, Corporals to Captain Cooper, in the First Marine Regiment, lately commanded by the Right Honourable the Marquis of Carmarthen, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there are severally due to them, for Subsistence and Arrears, considerable Sums of Money; and the Petitioner Ansley arrested Captain Cooper; who produced the said Marquis's Protection; and was thereupon discharged, though Application was made to the Marquis; and now pretends, that Ansley was a Deserter; though it appears, by the Muster-roll, that he was fairly discharged; and he can prove, that he never absented the Service: And praying Relief in the Premises.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report be made from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, was referred; and who were to consider of, and report to the House, what they conceive fit to be done for the Relief of the Soldiers in general.

A Petition of Thomas Woodward, Joiner, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner charged Thomas Young in Execution in the Fleet for 450*l.*: But the Warden lets him have his Liberty; and the Petitioner is not able to prosecute the Warden of the Fleet upon an Action of Escape: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee relating to the Abuses of the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet.

A Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants; and sending them whither, by Law, they ought to be sent; was read a First time.

Vagrants.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time, upon Friday Morning next.

Ordered, That Sir Owen Buckingham, Sir Robert Clayton, Mr. Barnardiston, Sir Tho. Cook, Sir Robert Davers, Mr. Kent, Mr. Guy, Mr. Henly, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath is committed.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of Ambrose Thelwall Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in 1621, King James the First granted certain Lands in the Isle of Wight, called Brading Haven, then lately inned from the Sea, to Sir Hugh Middleton and others, in Fee; who conveyed the same to the Petitioner's Grandfather; who enjoyed the same till 1630, when the same was again overflowed; but, in 1657, the same was near regained by the Petitioner's Father; but not perfected, by reason of some Neglect of the Workmen: And, about Eleven Years since, the Right of the said Haven descended to the Petitioner, being then an Infant of about Ten Years old, whose Infancy hitherto hath delayed the Petitioner's Endeavours to regain the said Lands: That the Petitioner is advised, the Bill in the House for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretence of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions of the Sea, and other defective Titles, will prejudice his Right: And praying, That a Clause may be inserted therein, for saving the Petitioner's Right to the said Premises.

Defective
Titles.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioner be heard before the said Committee thereupon.

A Petition of several Gentlemen and Landholders of Keinton, Nettleton, and Wraaxall, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, will greatly prejudice the Petitioners, and noways be an Advantage to the Publick: And praying, That they may be heard, by their Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Avon

Hancock, Mr. Rourney, Mr. Bullock, Sir John Cope, Mr. Osborne, Sir Rich. Farrington, Mr. Mompesson, Sir Owen Buckingham; and all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Sevenokes Roads.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants, of the Counties of Kent and Sussex, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Road from Sevenokes to Tonbridge in Kent, being the Post-road to Rye, Hastings, and Tonbridge, by reason of several wet Years, and the heavy Carriages constantly passing the same, are become almost impassable, though the Inhabitants have used their utmost Endeavours for preserving the same; and the Inhabitants of Tonbridge have, of late Years, been at great Charges in repairing the said Roads; but are utterly disabled to do the same: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for repairing the Highways from Sevenokes to Tonbridge aforesaid.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Campion and Mr. Brewer do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Employing the Poor.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the better Relieving and Employing the Poor of this Kingdom: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read upon Wednesday Morning next.

Pontefract Election.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Election for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York, be made upon Wednesday Morning next.

Judicature for Relief of Officers and Soldiers.

Mr. Thursby reported from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Richard Nicholls, and others, was referred; and who were, in the First Place, to consider of, and report, what they conceived fit to be done, for the Relief of the Soldiers in general; That they had considered the same accordingly; and had directed him to move, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the erecting a Court of Judicature, for the hearing and determining all Differences between the Soldiers and their Officers, touching their Pay, or other Injuries by them complained of.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the erecting a Court of Judicature, for the hearing and determining all Differences between the Soldiers and their Officers, touching their Pay, or other Injuries by them complained of: And that Mr. Thursby and Mr. Hancock do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Avon and From Navigation.

A Bill for the better preserving the Navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froom; and cleansing the Streets of the City of Bristol; was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Yates, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. Clark, Mr. Haw, Sir John Phillips, Mr. Freke, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Burrard, Sir Henry Gough, Mr. Bromley, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Blake, Sir Edw. Hussey, Mr. Lowther, Colonel Lee, Mr. England, Mr. Smith, Mr. Aylmer, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Sir Richard Cocks, Sir John Bolles, Mr. Duke, Mr. Brotherton, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Buller, Mr. Gerard, Mr. Traverse, Mr. Bridges; and all that serve for the Counties of Gloucester, Somerset, and Wilts: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Privilege—Libellous Publication.

A Complaint being made to the House of a printed Book, intituled, "An Inquiry into the Causes of the "Miscarriage of the Scots Colony at Darien; or an Answer to a Libel, intituled, A Defence of the Scots abdicating Darien;"

And a Motion being made, That the Address of the Lords and Commons to his Majesty, relating to an Act of Parliament passed in Scotland for erecting a Company trading to Africa and the Indies, be now read;

VOL. 13.

And a Debate arising thereupon;

And the Question being put, that the Debate be adjourned till Friday next;

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Mr. Tredenham, } 191.
                                  { Mr. Foley: }

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. White, } 190.
                                  { Mr. Carter: }

So it was resolved in the Affirmative.

The said Book being brought up to the Table; several Paragraphs therein were read.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the said Book, highly reflecting upon the Honour of his Majesty, and both Houses of Parliament; and tending to create Jealousies and Animosities betwixt the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; is a false, scandalous, and traitorous Libel.

Ordered, That the said false, scandalous, and traitorous Libel, be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman upon Friday next, at Twelve a Clock, in the Palace Yard: And that the Sheriffs of London do see the same performed.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, by such Members of this House as are of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, That he will please to issue his Royal Proclamation for the discovering and apprehending the Author, Printer, and Publisher, of the said false, scandalous, and traitorous Libel; promising a Reward to such as shall discover or apprehend such Author, Printer, or Publisher.

Ordered, That Candles be brought in.
And they were so.

Candles.

Ordered, That the Serjeant do go into Westminster-hall, and Court of Request, and Places adjacent, and summon the Members there to attend the Service of the House.

And he went accordingly:

And afterwards returned with the Mace.

Members summoned.

The House took Notice, That the Honourable Cha. Mountagu Esquire, on Saturday last, in the Debate upon the Bill for selling the forfeited Estates in Ireland, had said, That he had heard some Members of this House had written dishonourably of his Majesty, to the Commissioners for the Forfeitures in Ireland: And it being moved, That, for the vindicating the Honour of the House, the said Mr. Mountagu should name the Person by whom he had heard it said; and Mr. Mountagu, being often called upon to name the Person, did, in his Place, desire to be excused for so doing; for that the same was told him as a Secret, in private Conversation; and declared, That nothing but an Order of the House should constrain him so to do. But it being insisted, That it was for the Vindication of the Honour of the House, every Member's Reputation being concerned in so general a Report; and,

Irish Forfeitures—Words spoken by a Member reflecting on the House.

A Motion being made, and a Question proposed, That Mr. Mountagu should name the Person; he was heard thereupon in his Place; and insisted upon the Irregularity of such a Question, so long after the said Debate; which Matter was long debated: And afterwards other Questions were proposed, That whereas it had been suggested, or reported, that some Members, or a Member, of this House, had written dishonourably of his Majesty, to the Commissioners for Irish Forfeitures, That the said Report is false and scandalous.

And an Amendment or Amendments being proposed, as if the said Suggestion or Report within the House was false;

Mr. Mountagu, of himself, rather than have any Question to that Purpose put, for the vindicating himself, and doing Right to the Members of the House, often asserted the Truth of his being so informed; thought fit to name the Person who informed him of what he said; and and the Person by him named was the Right Honourable John Methuen Esquire, Lord Chancellor of Ireland, a Member of the House.

And thereupon the said Mr. Methuen was called upon, to give an Account of what he had said to the said Mr. Mountagu.

Whereupon he said, That he never did tell Mr. Mountagu, That there was a Letter from any Member of this House containing those Expressions by him mentioned; viz. That they should not omit putting the private Estate in the Report, because that would reflect more, or most, on his Majesty, or any Expressions to that Effect; but that, indeed, he did tell Mr. Mountagu, That he had heard, That, amongst the Commissioners themselves, Words were spoken, to persuade the mentioning the Grant of the private Estate in the Report, to the Effect following:

That it was a villainous Grant, and would reflect more than any other.

And a Debate being in the House concerning the said Report, That a Member of this House had written dishonourably of his Majesty to the Commissioners for Irish Forfeitures;

Resolved, That the said Report is false and scandalous.

Motion in favour of Commissioners.

A Motion being made, That the Four Commissioners for Irish Forfeitures, who signed the Report presented to this House, have acquitted themselves in the Execution of that Commission with Understanding and Integrity;

And a Debate arising in the House thereupon;

Resolved, That the Debate be adjourned till To-morrow, Twelve a Clock.

Ordered, That all the Commissioners for Irish Forfeitures who are in Town, and their Secretary, do attend this House To-morrow, at Twelve a Clock.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Ten a Clock.

gation.

A PETITION of his Majesty's Tenants of the Manors of Stratton super Foss, Midsomer, Norton, Farringdon, Gurny, Westharptree, Inglescombe, Widcombe, and Laverton, Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, near the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have purchased their Lands for great Fines from the Crown, and made great Improvements; but the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, will greatly prejudice as well his Majesty, as Lord of the said Manors, as the Petitioners: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, against passing of the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard before them thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Inhabitants and Landholders of the Parish of Lacock, and Places adjacent, near Bath, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, if it should pass as now it is drawn, will be a very great Prejudice to the Petitioners, and no Advantage to the Publick: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard before them thereupon.

A Petition of the Merchants and Traders to Newfoundland, and in the Herring-fishery, living in Bideford, in Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by several Acts of Parliament, there is a Duty of 6s. 8d. per Bushel laid upon all Salt imported, payable within Six Months, unless exported again within that time; for Payment whereof, the Petitioners give Bonds at the Custom-house: But, by reason of the Shortness of the Time for Payment, the Petitioners are greatly prejudiced in their Trade; for that, when any Salt is imported after March, they cannot again export it till February following; so that their Bonds, being thereby forfeited, are often put in Suit against them: And praying, That the Time may be enlarged for discharging the said Duties.

Salt Duties.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Ordered, That Mr. Woolaston have Leave to go into the Country for Ten Days, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Leave of Absence.

An ingrossed Bill for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, an Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there; was read the Third Time.

Blackwell-
hall Cloth
Market.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for the more effectual Execution of an Act, intituled, an Act to restore the Market at Blackwell-hall to the Clothiers; and for regulating the Factors there.

Ordered, That Mr. Eyre do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

A Petition of John Dennis, on the behalf of several Thousand Seamen, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That he being employed . . . . . Seamen and their Wives, to receive their Wages, found many unreasonable Objections made to the Payment thereof; which he is ready to make appear: And, for that Purpose, he applied to the Commissioners of the Admiralty for Redress; who referred it to the Commissioners of the Navy; but they will not meddle therewith, because the Seamen's Case is before this House: And praying, That they may be heard and relieved touching their Grievances.

Seamen's Arrears.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to such Members of this House, as are Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy: And that the Petition of the Marines, relating to the Q's and R's, be transferred from the Committee, to whom the same was referred, and also be referred to the Consideration of the said Commissioners: And that they do report to the House, how the Petitioners Cases stand.

Mr. Jervois, from the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider of the Petition of the Commissioners for preventing the Exportation of Wool, acquainted the House, that a Letter had been produced to the Committee, as wrote by one Mr. Crisp in the Country, concerning the great Charges of the Committee-rooms; which Letter the said Mr. Crisp owned; and said, One Mr. Haines had told him thereof: And that Mr. Haines, being examined thereto, denied the same before the Committee.

Privilege—
Letter reflecting on the House.

And a Debate arising in the House thereupon;

Ordered, That the Debate be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, That Mr. Arthington have Leave to withdraw his Petition, touching the Election for the Borough of Aldborough, in the County of York.

Aldborough
Election.

Mr. Conyers reported, from the Committee of the Supply, whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolutions which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Sum of Eighteen thousand Pounds be allowed for Bounty-money to the Officers of the Fleet.

Resolved,

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Sum of 184,342*l.* be allowed for the Ordinary of the Navy, exclusive of the Charge for registering Seamen.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Sum, not exceeding Ninety Thousand Pounds, be allowed for the extraordinary Repairs of the Navy.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Commissioners of Irish Forfeitures.

The House resumed the adjourned Debate of Yesterday: And the House being informed, That Sir Richard Leving, Sir Francis Brewster, Mr. Annesly, Mr. Trenchard, and Mr. Langford, and Mr. Hooper their Secretary, attended, according to Order;

Sir Richard Leving was called in; and examined.

And then withdrew.

Then Sir Francis Brewster, Mr. Annesly, Mr. Trenchard, Mr. Langford, and Mr. Hooper, were called in; and examined.

And then withdrew:

There having been divers groundless and scandalous Aspersions cast upon Francis Annesly, John Trenchard, James Hamilton, and Henry Langford, Esquires, Four of the Commissioners for the Irish Forfeitures;

Resolution in favour of same.

Resolved, That the said Four Commissioners have acquitted themselves in the Execution of that Commission with Understanding, Courage, and Integrity.

Resolved, That Sir Richard Leving, One other of the said Commissioners, has been the Author of the said groundless and scandalous Reports upon the Four Commissioners before-mentioned.

One committed to the Tower.

Resolved, That the said Sir Richard Leving be committed Prisoner to the Tower of London, for the said Offence: And that Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrants for that Purpose.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Avon Navigation.

A PETITION of Sir James Ash Baronet, and Sir Cha. Duncomb Knight, on behalf of themselves, and divers others, whose Lands are bordering upon the River Avon, within the Counties of Wilts and Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable between Christ Church and the City of New Sarum, will be a great Prejudice to the Petitioners Properties, and otherwise, if the same should pass: And praying, That they may be heard, by their Counsel, against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the Navigation of the River Avon between Christ Church and the City of New Sarum more effectual, is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, near the City of Bristol in the County of Somerset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, for the publick Good, the Promoting of Trade, and the many other publick Advantages, that may arise by the Bill depending in the House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, they pray, That the said Bill may pass.

Vol. 13.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

Ordered, . . . . the Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time, upon Friday Morning next, in a full House.

A Petition of the Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the County of Gloucester, the Ninth Day of January 1699, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Measure called Water-measure, is so incertain, that many Inconveniencies and Law-suits have arisen thereby: And praying, That a Bill may be brought in for ascertaining the same.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine, and report the Matter to the House; together with their Opinion, whether they do think it fit, That a Bill should be brought in for the Purpose aforesaid.

And it is referred to Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Pierpoint, Mr. Offley, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Stratford, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Stringer, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Bertie, Sir Roseland Gwyn, Mr. Dormer, Mr. Jervois, Mr. Gwynn, Mr. Child, Mr. Yates, Mr. Palmer, Mr. Henly, Mr. Moor, Mr. Shackerly, Lord Cheny, Mr. Freke, Mr. Poultny, Mr. Whitchcot, Mr. Phillips, Sir Richard Far- rington, Sir Robert Edon, Mr. Vane, Mr. Hoblyn, Sir Robert Jenkinson, and all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe; and all that serve for the City of London, and Port Towns: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

A Petition of Robert Colepepyr Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner gave Information to his Majesty, by what means the Harbour of Rye, and many other Harbours, are decaying; and how further Decay might be prevented, without any Charge; and that Rye Harbour might be much improved, if some Obstructions were removed out of a navigable Chanel there: That the Matter of the said Information was referred to the Surveyors of the Navy Board; who have reported in the Petitioner's Favour: Which Report is now before the Committee of this House, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred: And praying the House to consider his Services.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to consider, and report to the House, whether it be fit, That a Bill be brought in for the ascertaining the Measures of Beer and Ale, according to sealed Measures, to be kept in every Town.

And it is referred to Mr. Pierpoint, Sir Richard Far- rington, Sir Rowl. Gwyn, Mr. Hoblyn, Sir Robert Edon, Lord Cornbury, Mr. York, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Jervois, Doctor Davenant, Mr. Palmer, Sir Wm. Robinson, Sir *Rich. Coinage.

the City of Worcester, in Council assembled, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of the great Quantities of Half-pence and Farthings amongst them, great Damage is done to Trade in general; several of the Petitioners being seldom without an Hundred Pound Value of them; and younger Traders having more than Half their Stock in that useless Money, which should be employed in buying fresh Goods; but nobody will take in that Coin to any considerable Value: And praying, That there may be a Stop put to the coining any more Farthings and Half-pence, until the great Redundancy of them be something over.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill, for the restraining the coining any more Half-pence and Farthings, be brought in.

Lacy's
Estate.

A Bill for the Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon; and for laying out the Surplus-money in the Purchase of Demesne Lands, to be settled to the same Uses; was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Baldwin's
Estate.

The Lord Cheine, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the better enabling Anne Baldwin Widow, to make Sale of a Capital Messuage and Lands called Willons, and other Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the County of Bucks, devised to her by her late Husband's Will: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

A Petition of the Grand Jury, impanelled to serve for the Body of the County of Wilts, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Salisbury in and for the said County, on the 10th Day of January 1699; together with the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders there; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the Act for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum more effectual, may be of great Advantage to the Country, by giving such Power to the Commissioners of the said Navigation as Commissioners of Sewers have for removing Obstructions, and preventing Inundations of the said River, whereby the Owners and Occupiers of the Lands bordering thereon have suffered great Damages; and that their Power be extended to several Parts of the several Rivers in and about Salisbury, running into the said River; and also that the Undertakers of the Navigation may not be suffered to mitigate the Fines imposed by the Commissioners; without which Restraint, the Petitioners are well assured, the Powers already granted the Commissioners by the former Act will become ineffectual: And praying, That the said additional Powers may be inserted in the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the City of Westminster, Westminster Small Debts. was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Number of their Poor daily increaseth, by the great Decay of Credit amongst the poorer Sort of People, for want of a cheap and speedy Way of recovering small Debts, and the chargeable and vexatious Suits brought against them for the same; the Charge whereof is so great, that often the Creditor loseth both Debt and Costs, and the Debtor is thrown into Prison, and his Family falls to the Parish: To remedy which, the Petitioners conceive, the Bill now depending in the House, for the erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, will be an effectual Means: And praying, That the said Bill may pass into a Law.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

The House resumed the adjourned Debate of Yesterday, upon the Report relating to the Letter touching the Charge of the Committee Rooms. Privilege—Letter reflecting on the House.

Ordered, That it be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections to examine the Matter of the said Report, so far as the same relates to the Honour of the House, and of the said Committee; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Bill for the better relieving and employing the Poor of this Kingdom was, according to the Order of the Day, read the First time. Employing the Poor.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon this Day Sevensnight.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to the Committee, touching the Election for the Borough of Pontefract in the County of York; and the Resolution of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz. Pontefract Election.

Upon the Petition of Robert Moncton Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of John Bright Esquire, to serve for the said Borough:

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in such Persons as have an Inheritance or Freehold of Burgage Tenure within the said Borough:

That, upon the Poll, there was,

For Mr. Bright	-	-	-	72.
For Mr. Moncton	-	-	-	70.

But the Petitioner's Counsel insisted, That, as to Eight; viz. John Symonds, Sam. Hoyle, Ant. Hornby, Leonard Staples, Richard Franke, Robert Moore, Tho. Taylor, Robert Lowther; that they ought not to be allowed upon the Sitting Member's Poll:

And that one Edward Foster had Right to vote, and would have voted for the Petitioner; and was refused:

That, as to the Three first, the Objection by the Counsel was, That they had lately bought their Estate of one Routh, which was One Burgage; but divided, upon the Purchase, to make several Votes: And for that they called

Benezer Hebwood: Who said, That Symonds, Hoyle, and Hornby, were brought to him by Mr. Keptyn, Steward to Mr. Bright; which said Mr. Keptyn told Mr. Hebwood, That Mr. Bright was the Purchaser; and that he must draw a Lease from the said Symonds, Hoyle, and Hornby, to Mr. Bright, for 1,000 Years; for that the Deeds were only to enable them to vote: That, accordingly, Mr. Hebwood said, He did prepare Three Conveyances from one Routh, for each Person one, the Consideration being 60, 40, and 20 l.: That the Conveyances were not executed before he went to London, which was the 22d June; but they severally paid for their Deeds: And he could not give any further Account about the Lease.

Robert

Robert Ward said, That the Grounds bought of Rooth lay intire together, and was but One Burgage: That there is but One House on it; and he never knew but One Vote for it.

William Staples, Son of Leonard Staples, said, That all the Freehold Lands his Father had within the Borough was conveyed to him 15 Years since.

Hebwood said, That Richard Frank's Deeds of Purchase were not intended at the time of the Election; but since, upon making his Fealty, he produced them, and they were then indented.

Robert Ward said, That Mr. Bright's Steward sent for Mrs. Moor to an Alehouse, and told her, He would give her 40s. if she would promise her Husband should vote for his Master; and accordingly he gave her the Money: But it was acknowleged, That Mr. Kephyn did say something to her of a desperate Debt; and that a Receipt was given by her for it, which was writ by one Gargrave, an Attorney.

Doctor Johnson said, That Thomas Taylor left all his Estate to his younger Children by his Will; but he acknowleged, That Tho. Taylor the Son, who voted, was an Alderman of Pontefract.

Robert Ward said, That Lowther, and one Burman, voted for One Burgage.

William Staples said, That Edward Foster's Deeds of Purchase were produced in Court at the Election; but he was refused his Vote, because his Deeds were dated Three or Four Days after the Teste of the Writ; though he yet enjoys the Estate.

That the Sitting Member's Counsel insisted, That there were Persons present at the time of the Election, on behalf of each Candidate; and that none of the Persons now excepted to, but Staples, were excepted to at the time of the Election: And that they would justify the Sitting Member's Votes, and disqualify 12 that voted for the Petitioner; viz.

Thomas Picker, Hen. Rushworth, Wm. Crow, Rich. Nettleton Esquire, Jouath. Adaman, Elkanah Hatherwright, Jonath. Cressy, Geo. Downes, John Thwaytes, Rich. Green, Jos. Rothwell, William Watson.

That, as to the Eight excepted to by the Petitioner, Mr. Edmund Abbot said, That he is Town Clerk of Pontefract, and took the Poll for the Mayor: That, before the Poll began, the Counsel agreed, that what Votes were excepted to, should be marked, and disputed afterwards; and that accordingly some Queries were made: But Mr. Moncton, as he apprehended, being satisfied with the Election, went away, without disputing them:

That there was no Exception, at the Time of the Election, to Symonds, Hoyle, or Hornby; and that the Estates bought by them were several Burgages, and paid several Rents: To prove which, they brought their Writings into Court, and proved them fairly executed:

That Leonard Staples did pay 2s. Rent for a Freehold he had; and there is no such Rent paid, but for Burgage Tenure:

That the Counsel insisted, That, in Point of Law, Frank's Deeds were effectual to convey the Estate, without being indented:

That Taylor, who voted, was an Alderman, and had been Mayor; and could not have been so, unless he had a Burgage: And that he pays Burgage-rent for his House, which he bought of his Father's Trustees:

That Robert Lowther and * Burman bought Two several Burgages of one Austin; and that they paid several Rents: And that Estate had been in Two Persons before, who voted severally for it.

Mr. Kephyn said, That Rooth told him, He had Three Burgages to sell, and had great Occasion for Money; and desired him to help the said Rooth to a Purchaser: And that he acquainted Symonds, Hoyle, and Hornby, and others, with it; and did make a Bargain with the said Three Persons, without mentioning it to Mr. Bright: And that there was no Trust in the Case, nor any Mention made by him of any Lease to be made to Mr. Bright: But acknowleged, That he sold to Mr. Rooth certain

Vol. 13.

Lands called the Or Closes, and received of Mr. Routh 250 l. for them

Pontefract Election.

As to the 40s. by him paid to Moor's Wife, he said, It was in part of Payment of a Debt owing by one Ralph Middleton, a Servant to his Master, which had been owing Eight or Ten Years, and was paid by the said Mr. Kephyn, at the said Middleton's Request, about a Month or Six Weeks before the Election, the said Middleton allowing him to deduct it out of his Wages: And the said Mr. Kephyn said, That, upon Paying of the said 40s. he did not ask Moor's Wife for her Husband's Vote, nor had any Expectation of it:

That Edward Foster declared himself as well for Mr. Bright as Mr. Moncton; but his Deeds being of late Date, he was not admitted to vote:

That, as to 7 of the 12 of the Petitioner's Voters impeached by the Sitting Member's Counsel; they insisted they had no Burgage Right: And called

Thomas Taylor: Who said, That Thom. Picker told him since the Election, That he had no Burgage Estate, but only to serve a Turn: Though it was acknowleged he had voted before, and was not objected to; and hath the same Burgage now that he then had; nor was any Objection made to his Vote at this Election.

Mr. Abbott said, That Thomas Picker is not entered in the Mayor's Book, as a Burgher; nor ever paid any Rent: But he acknowleged he had formerly produced his Deeds of Purchase:

That Henry Rushworth pays 6d. a Year; but it has been said to be for an Incroachment; and his Vote was always disputed:

That Wm. Crow's Burgage is in, his Mother, by way of Jointure; and was put down with a Q: But it was acknowleged, he had voted once before:

That Richard Nettleton Esquire, produced his Deeds at the time of the Election; which were for Part of an House that paid an intire Rent, and had not been before divided:

That John Adaman voted in Right of his Wife; and that the Estate was devised by her former Husband to his Children:

That, as to Elkanah Hatherwright; the Mortgagee was in Possession of his Burgage, and he had only an Equity of Redemption:

That Cressy's Mother had Half the House, and his Title always disputed:

That, as to Five others, the Sitting Member's Counsel charged them with Bribery; And called

Thomas Smallwood: Who said, That by one Ward's Order, who appeared for the Petitioner, he gave to Elkanah Hatherwright the Day of the Election, after the Election was over, 10 s.: That he had promised the said 10 s. before the Election, and had been repaid the same by the said Ward:

That Thomas Shepley, Steward to the Petitioner, told him, That what Money he laid out for the Petitioner, he would repay him: And that, upon the said Promise, he had laid out, in Money and Entertainments, upon Hatherwright, Cressy, Rothwell, Green, and Watson, the Sum of 20s.: That particularly he gave Green Money for his Vote: That he has demanded the 20s. by him laid out, of Mr. Shipley; who said, He would pay the said Smallwood some time or another.

Samuel Medley said, That, about Four Days before the Election, Mr. Shepley gave him 10 s.; and desired him to give it to Geo. Downe; and press him for his single Vote for the Petitioner: And that he did accordingly give him, the said Downe, the 10 s.; and pressed him for his Vote; and the said Downe did vote for the Petitioner.

That the Petitioner's Counsel, by way of Reply, called

Hebbworth: Who said, That Thomas Picker has a Burgage; and he had seen him do Fealty, and pay Rent; and that he drew Picker's Deeds of Purchase about Three Years since:

That Stone, who sold the Estate to Hen. Rushworth, had voted for that Estate:

13

That

That Mr. Crow had voted several times.

As to Richard Nettleton there was no Answer.

That John Adaman voted, as having married Loryman's Widow; and is in Possession of the Estate:

That Hatherwight's Father made a Lease for 99 Years; and Hatherwight voted, as having the Fee, which he has since the Election, and sold to Routh: And he was not objected to:

That Cressy's Father died seized of  $\frac{1}{4}$  Burgage; and Jonathan Cressy is his Heir: But it was acknowledged, that his Mother had Two or Three Rooms in the House, separate, by his Father's Appointment.

Mr. Tho. Shepley denied, That he was any Steward, or other Servant, to the Petitioner; or that he ever gave Smallwood any Orders to lay out any Money; but, on the contrary, did receive a Letter from the Petitioner to discharge the said Smallwood from laying out any Money: But acknowledged, That he did give Medly the 10s. for Downe; but said, it was not for his Vote, but of his free Will, his own Money, and after the Election.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That John Bright Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That John Bright Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York;

The House divided.

A Petition of the Inhabitants and Landholders of the Parishes of Bideston, and Slaughterford, near Bath, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting setting forth, That the Petitioners are informed, there is a Bill in this House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which Bill, if it should pass, as it now is, will be very prejudicial to the Petitioners; and not serviceable to the Publick, as is pretended: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, to shew their Objections against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of several Gentlemon and Landholders, of the Hundred of Mahmsbury, in the County of Wilts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are informed, there is a Bill now depending in the House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath; which Bill, should it pass, would be very prejudicial to the Petitioners, and no ways serviceable to the Publick, as is suggested: And praying, That they may be heard by their Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill, before the same be suffered to pass this House.

Bone-lace.

A Petition of the Mayor, Recorder, capital Burgesses, with the principal Inhabitants and Dealers in Bone-lace, within the Town of Shafton in the County of Dorset, was presented to the House, and read; . . . . . since the late Act of Parliament for the more effectual prohibiting the Importation of foreign Bone-lace, the Petitioners have found a great Increase of their Trade, to the Employment of the Poor; and that above 600 Persons in Shafton wholly depend on the said Manufacture; so that, if the said Act should be repealed, their Livelihood will be taken from them, and the Substance of the said Corporation will not be sufficient to supply the Wants of their Poor: And praying, That the said Act may be therefore continued.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred.

Order for preventing Annoyance from Footmen.

Ordered, That the Serjeant at Arms attending this House do take care, the Footmen, and all others, be removed from standing upon the Stairs in the Passage to the House, to prevent any Annoyance by them: And this to be a standing Order of the House.

Irish Transport Debt.

A Petition of John Traverse, and several Owners and Masters of Ships, on behalf of themselves, and others concerned in the Debt due for Transport Service in Reducing of Ireland, and other Transport Services performed in the Years 1693, and 1697, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That for the said Services, there is due to the Petitioners, in the whole, the Sum of 445,035*l.* 6*s.* 10*d.*; and no Provision is made for Payment of any Part of it, as the Petitioners conceive; only Interest at 5*l.* per Cent. for Part thereof, which will soon determine: That the Petitioners, for Want of their Money, are great Sufferers, and many of them reduced to great Extremity: And praying the House to make Provision for the Payment of their said Debt.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Answer to Address.

The Lord Coningsby acquainted the House, That their Address having been presented to his Majesty, That he would please to issue his Royal Proclamation for the discovering and apprehending the Author, Printer, and Publisher, of a false, scandalous, and traitorous Libel, intituled, "An Inquiry into the Causes of the Miscarriages of the Scots Colony at Darien; or, An Answer

VOL. 13.

"to a Libel, intituled, A Defence of the Scots abdicating Darien;" and promising a Reward to such as shall discover or apprehend the Author, Printer, or Publisher thereof; his Majesty was pleased to say, That he would take care therein.

Mr. Stratford, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the better encouraging and settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company: And the same was received. Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the Bill be read upon Saturday Morning next.

A Petition of Nathanael Hern Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardnesse in the County of Devon, in the room of Sir Joseph Herne, deceased; and was returned by an Indenture, signed by all the capital Burgesses, save One, and most of the rightful Freemen: But Rowland Holt Esquire hath procured himself to be returned by another Indenture, signed by One of the capital Burgesses only, and some others not duly qualified: Both which Indentures, with the Writ for an Election, the Sheriff of Devon hath returned into the Crown Office: And praying the Consideration of the House therein. Dartmouth
Election.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of all the Magistrates, save One, all the Common Council, and the greater Number of the free Burgesses, of the said Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnesse, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That it hath been the ancient Usage of the said Corporation for the Magistrates, or first 12 Masters, or the greater Number of them, with the Mayor, to make Freemen; which, by Vote of this House in 1689, was declared to be the Right of the said Magistrates, or Masters: Yet one Joseph Bully, the last precedent Mayor, with one John Whitrow, a Magistrate, on the 25 July last, on Pretence of a Mandamus out of the King's Bench Court, swore 13 Freemen of the said Borough, though protested against by all the rest of the Magistrates; by which means Whitrow, in a few Days after, not only got himself to be elected Mayor, and other annual Officers of his Party chosen, but did not doubt to make himself, or whom he pleased, a Parliament-man for the said Borough, in the room of Sir Joseph Hern, then dead; since which Whitrow is also dead: And though the said Bully hath been served with several Mandamuses to swear one Caleb Rocket Mayor, and other Officers, who were duly elected; yet he refuseth so to do, on Pretence he was not personally served with the said Mandamus; nor indeed could he, because he absconded till after the Returns; by which Means he not only hopes to evade the due Course of the Law, but to keep the said Rocket, and other Officers, from their respective Offices: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises, and Relief therein. Ditta.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

A Message from the Lords, by Mr. Meredeth and Sir Richard Holford: Barlow's
Estate.

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act for confirming the Sale of the Manor of Stansall, and certain Tenements, in the County of York, made by Tho. Barlow Gentleman; and for settling other Lands, of greater Value, to the same Uses; and for vesting other Lands and Hereditaments in Trustees, to be sold, for purchasing other Lands, to be settled to the same Uses: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Ordered,

A Member
discharged
from Custody.

Ordered, That Mr. Trenchard, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Copper
Coinage.

Mr. White, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to restrain the coining any more Halfpence or Farthings: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

Mr. Carter reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred, to state the Account of the Incumbrances upon the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet, That they had stated the Incumbrances upon the Prison of the King's Bench accordingly; which State he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

To Charles Bodville Earl of Radnor, principal Money - - - - -	19,227	16	5½
Interest thereof - - - - -	912	6	7½

To Thomas Sevear, who hath obtained Three Judgments against Mr. Lenthall, subsequent to the Incumbrance of the Earl of Radnor, for Ordered, That the said Report do lie upon the Table.

Martha
Ship.

Ordered, That Sir Richard Cocks, Sir John Rogers, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Shackerly, Sir Edw. Hungerford, Mr. Lewis, Lord Fairfax, Mr. Freke, Mr. Blake, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the Ship Martha of Margam, to trade as a free Ship, is committed.

Baldwin's
Estate.

A Bill for the better enabling Anne Baldwin Widow to make Sale of a capital Messuage, and Lands, called Wiltons, and other Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the County of Bucks, devised to her by her late Husband's Will, was, according to Order, read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Supply Bill;
Irish Forfeitures.

A Bill to apply all the forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland, and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown, within that Kingdom, since the 13th Day of February 1688, to the Use of the Publick, was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the Bill be committed.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the said Bill.

Members summoned.

Ordered, That the Serjeant do go with the Mace into Westminster-hall, and Court of Requests, and Places adjacent, and summon the Members there to attend the Service of the House.

And he went accordingly.

And, being returned, with the Mace;

A Motion being made, and the Question being put, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they be empowered to receive a Clause for reserving a Proportion of the forfeited Estates in Ireland to the Disposal of his Majesty;

It passed in the Negative.

Resolution respecting passing Grants.

Resolved, That the advising, procuring and passing the Grants of the forfeited and other Estates in Ireland, hath been the Occasion of contracting great Debts upon the Nation, and laying heavy Taxes on the People.

Resolved, That the advising and passing the said Grants is highly reflecting on the King's Honour; and the Officers and Instruments concerned in the procuring and passing these Grants have highly failed in the Performance of their Trust and Duty.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Adventurers, Miners, and Workmen in the Coal-mines, within his Majesty's Manors of Stratton super Fosse, and Farrington Gurney, Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, in the County of Somerset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners hold several Coal-mines within the said Manors, by Grants from the Crown, under great Fines, and annual Rents; have been at great Charges in opening the Mines, and making Engines for draining the Water; and daily employ Hundreds of poor People in the said Works, and carrying Coals, on Horses, about into the Country, whose sole Livelihood depends thereon: But the Bill depending in the House for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, if it should pass, will utterly destroy the said Mines, and undo the said poor People: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

A Petition of the Inhabitants and Landholders of the Parish of Bradford, near Bath, in the County of *Wilt*s, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, will, if it should pass, greatly prejudice the Petitioners; and not be serviceable to the Publick, as is pretended: And praying, That they may be heard by Counsel, what they have to object against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

A Petition of Sir Nathanael Curson Baronet, and John Kent Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That King Charles the II<sup>d</sup>, in the 15th Year of his Reign . . . grant unto John Harvy and John Coell Esquires, and their Heirs, Two Markets, to be holden on every Monday and Wednesday, in the Hay Market, in the Parish of St. Martin's in the Fields, for the buying and selling of Cattle and Sheep: That afterwards the late King James the II<sup>d</sup> did grant, That the said Markets might be held on Tuesday and Thursday weekly, for ever, in Great-Brookfeild, in the aforesaid Parish of St. Martin's; the Freehold and Inheritance of which Markets is, for a valuable Consideration, vested in the Petitioners; who quietly enjoyed the same until the 13th of February last; when the City of London, suggesting, That King Edward the III<sup>d</sup>, in the First Year of his Reign, by his Charter, granted to the said City, That no Market should from thenceforth be granted Infra septem lucas in circuitu civitatis predict', brought a Scire facias to repeal the said Grants of King Charles, and King James; That the Suppression of the said Markets will not only be a Damage to the Petitioners, who have been at great Charges in building, paving, and making other Preparations for the same, but also a very great Inconvenience to the Inhabitants near the said Market: And praying the House to take their Case into Consideration, and relieve them therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter of Fact; and state the same to the House:

And Cattle Markets in the Hay

Market.

And it is referred to Mr. Paget, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Cook, Serjeant Wogan, Sir Wm. Drake, Mr. Pierpont, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Eyre, Mr. Mountstevens, Mr. Osborne, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Carter, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Brotherton, Mr. How, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Pye, Mr. Campion, Sir John Fleet, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Cotton, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Proby, Mr. Shackerly, Sir Sam. Barnardiston, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Newport, Mr. Dyot, Doctor Davenant, and all the Members for the City of London: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Aliens
Children.

Sir Edward Hussey reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill to enable his Majesty's natural-born Subjects to inherit the Estate of their Ancestors, lineal or collateral, notwithstanding their Father or Mother were Aliens, was committed, That they had made an Amendment thereunto; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was twice read; and, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

Framework-knitters.

A Petition of the Framework-knitters, inhabiting within the Counties of Nottingham, Leicester, and Derby, and other Counties adjacent, and within the Town and County of Nottingham, on the behalf of themselves, and other Members of their Trade, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Framework-knitters are a Company incorporated; and the Master, Wardens, and Assistants, living at London, do make By-laws and Orders, contrary to Law, and very unreasonable; which are very vexatious to the Petitioners, and the Traders in the Country, whom they sue at Law, if they will not comply with them: For Instance, they compel every Apprentice, when out of his Time, to go to London, though above 100 Miles from thence, to take out his Freedom; and many other Exactions are imposed on the Petitioners, to the great Decay of their Trade: And praying, That their Grievances may be redressed, and they relieved, touching the same.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter; and hear the Parties concerned; and report the Fact to the House.

And it is referred to Mr. Pierpoint, Sir Rich. Farrington, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Mr. Whitchcott, Sir Tho. Davall, Mr. Moor, Sir Fra. Blake, Mr. Carter, Mr. Duke, Sir Wm. Drake, Mr. Dyott, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Brotherton, Sir Tho. Cooke, Mr. Dryden, Mr. Perry, Sir Hen. Ashurst, Mr. Osborne, Sir Fra. Child, Mr. Smith, Mr. Mountstevens, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Bridgman, Mr. Eyres, Mr. Proby, Mr. Blake, Mr. Rayner, Mr. Stonehouse, Mr. White, Mr. Hayes; and all that serve for the City of London, and Borough of Southwark; and Counties of Derby, Leicester, and Nottingham: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are empowered to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Qualifying
Justices of Peace.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for qualifying Justices of the Peace.

Copper
Coinage.

A Bill to restrain the Coining of any more Halfpence and Farthings, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Monday Morning next.

Vagrants.

A Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants; and sending them whither by Law they ought to be sent; was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Cook, Sir Richard Farrington, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Hayes, Mr.

VOL. 13.

Brotherton, Sir John Fleet, Mr. Smith, Mr. Proby, Mr. Clayton, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Mr. Gwyn, Sir John Bolles, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. Molyneux, Mr. Bullock, Sir Edw. Hussey, Mr. Mountstevens, Mr. Wynn, Mr. Thursby, Mr. Rayner, Mr. Ashurst, Doctor Davenant, Mr. Hamond, Sir Robert Edon, Mr. Pagit, Mr. England: And all that come are to have Voices: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

The Earl of Ranelagh, according to Order, presented Disbanding- money. to the House an Account of the Disbanding-money: money.

And also,

An Establishment of his Majesty's Guards and Garisons, and other Charges relating thereunto, commencing Establishment of Guards and Garisons. the 26th of March 1699, in the Eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign.

And the Titles thereof were read.

The Account and Establishment are in Books by themselves.

Ordered, That the said Account and Establishment do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

Ordered, That Sir Owen Buckingham, Sir Robert Edon, Mr. Lowther, Sir Robert Clayton, Sir Sam. Barnardiston, Mr. Brotherton, Colonel Drake, Mr. Mountstevens, Mr. Dyott, Colonel Perry, be added to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Tho. Dilks, and others belonging to the Descent-Train of Artillery, commanded by Sir Martin Beckman, is referred. Petition from Artillery Train.

A Petition of Robert Betts, and others, in behalf of themselves, and the rest of the registered Seamen, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, out of Zeal for his Majesty's Service, and in Dependence of the annual Bounty-money of 40 s. and other Privileges, by an Act made in the 7th and 8th Years of his Majesty's Reign, for the Increase and Encouragement of Seamen, did register themselves; and to support their Families, obtained Credit thereon. But the Petitioners could never get any Part of the said Bounty-money, although that Debt hath yearly been inserted in the Estimate of the general Debt of the Navy, delivered in to this House: And the Commissioners of the Navy, and Registry, inform the Petitioners, That there is no Money come to their Hands for the Petitioners; and that no Money is appropriated out of the Funds for that Purpose: And praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration; and that they be relieved for their Bounty-money.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table; the Matter thereof being already before the Committee for the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital do lay before this House an Account of the Sixpence per Pound, out of Seamen's Wages; and how the same hath been disposed of. Sixpenny Deduction from Seamen's Wages.

Ordered, That Mr. Serjeant Thurban have Leave to go into the Country for a Fortnight, for Recovery of his Health. Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Mr. How have Leave to go into the Country for a Fortnight, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Ordered, That Sir William Robinson have Leave to go into the Country, upon extraordinary Occasions.

A Petition of the Lord Lorne and Colonel Buchan, and the Officers of their Two Regiments of Foot, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Regiments served, during the late War, upon the English Establishment in Flanders; and, in February 1697, were disbanded, without the Officers being cleared, and paid what they served for, or any Provision made for their Subsistence, so that they are reduced to great Streights; and are the only Two Regiments in that Condition: Half-pay.

Condition: And praying, That the Singularity of their Case may be considered; and that they may be allowed the Benefit of Half-pay, as Subjects; or be cleared, as Foreigners; with a Consideration for the time they have neither had the Benefit of the one, or the other.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Matter of Half-pay be taken into Consideration.

Old East
India Company.

A Petition of the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading into the East Indies, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have, of long time, been incorporated; and have considerable Estates, and great Privileges, in India; and have been at great Expence in building and maintaining Forts and Factories there: But, in 1693, an Advantage was taken of the Petitioners Non-payment of a Tax charged upon their whole Stock on the 25th of March; which was an Holiday, and the Exchequer not open: Yet this was insisted on as a Forfeiture of the Petitioners Charter: And, in 1693, his Majesty granted them a new Charter, with all their former Privileges: And by another Charter, of the 11th of November 1693, pursuant to the Resolutions of the House of Commons, the Sum of 744,000 l. was subscribed and paid, as an additional Stock for carrying on the Trade, by above 800 new Adventurers; who, by Losses at Sea and Taxes, have had no Benefit by their Subscriptions: In which last Charter is a Proviso, That the Company should submit to such Regulations as his Majesty should appoint by the 29th of September then next: And by another Charter, of the 28th of September 1694, it was declared, That if it should be made appear to their Majesties, that the said Charters, granted to the said Company, were unprofitable to their Majesties, or the Realm; then, after Three Years Warning, the said Letters Patents were to cease; and the Company to be no longer a Corporation:

That, by a late Act for raising Two Millions upon a Fund, for Payment of Annuities; and for settling the Trade to the East Indies; it is enacted, That all Persons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, except the Bank of England, who by themselves, or any in Trust for them, should subscribe any Sum of Money, should receive proportionable Annuities; and might trade yearly for so much as they subscribe, and pay to his Majesty; which Act does not determine the Petitioners Corporation; but permits them to trade for what they subscribe: That the Petitioners, at a General Court, the 3 July 1698, empowered Mr. John Du Bois, their Cashier, to subscribe 315,000 l.; which he did; and the same has been paid to his Majesty: But, the same Day the Subscription was made, the Petitioners were served with Notice, under his Majesty's Sign Manual, to dissolve their Corporation after Three Years: And, on the 27th of October following, the same Notice was served on them by Privy Seal: And the Petitioners prayed to be heard against passing the said Notice; and desired to enter Caveats at the proper Offices; but they were not admitted; and doubt not, if they could have been heard, to have made it appear, That their being a Corporation is, and has been, profitable to his Majesty, and this Realm:

That the said new Subscription, of 315,000 l. is the Property of above 1,200 Families; who therefore cannot manage that Trade, whereunto they are intitled, but in a Corporation; nor can the Petitioners, unless they are so continued, compel their Factors or Agents to render them any Account, or make them Returns of their Estate; which will not only ruin the Petitioners in their Fortunes, but disable them to pay their Debts: And praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration; and that, for the Preservation of their Estates, the Payment of their Debts, and the Management of their said Subscription, they may be continued a Corporation, in such manner as to the House shall seem meet.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for continuing the old East India Company a Corporation: And that Sir John Fleet, Sir Tho. Cook, Mr. Cooke, Mr. Bridges, and Mr. Moor, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That the adjourned Debate of Monday last, touching the Reading the Address of the Lords and Commons, relating to the Act of Parliament, passed in Scotland, for erecting a Company trading to Africa, and the Indies, be further adjourned unto Thursday Morning next.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Monday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom. State of Trade.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty. Supply.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the Letter of Mr. Crispe, lying before the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Commissioners for preventing the Exportation of Wool . . . , be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections. Privilege—Letter reflecting on the House.

Ordered, That all Committees are revived. Committees.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Sabbati, 20<sup>o</sup> die Januarii;

11<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

ORDERED, That the Bill to erect and establish a Court of Conscience, within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time upon Wednesday next, at Twelve a Clock, in a full House; and nothing to intervene. Westminster Small Debts.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Shoreham, in the County of Sussex, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Rye Harbour is the only Harbour the English have upon the Coast of Kent and Sussex, where many Ships have been saved; and is very much decayed by the Inning of Land, and making Flood-gates and Walls cross the same; to the Prejudice of Trade and Navigation: And praying, That some Care may be taken for restoring the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness. Rye Harbour.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

A Petition of the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Landholders, and Farmers, at the General Quarter Sessions for the County of Somerset, held at the City of Wells, on the 9th Day of January, in the 11th Year of his Majesty's Reign, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners conceive, the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Avon navigable from Bristol to Bath, will be a great Prejudice to the Petitioners: And praying, That they may be heard by their Counsel, against the said Bill. Avon Navigation.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

Sir Charles Hedges, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the more effectual Suppression of Piracies: And the same was received, and read the First time. Suppressing Piracy.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Thursday Morning next.

A Bill

Hamborough
Company.

A Bill for the better encouraging and settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company was, according to Order, read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon this Day Sevensnight, at Twelve a Clock, in a full House.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Fullers, and others the most considerable Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, in and about the City of Exon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners observing by the Votes of this House, that Leave is given to bring in a Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, they were exceedingly surprised, having never heard of any Petition from Exon for that Purpose; which was obtained in a clandestine Manner, they who got it well knowing the now Petitioners would have opposed it, as they have often done; for that Experience shews, that the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures best flourisheth with Freedom; which occasions many Buyers a current Price, and speedy Payment for them; and this hath induced the House to discourage all Monopolies, as being against Law, and destructive to the Rights and Liberties of the Subject: And praying, That their Trade may remain free, and unrestrained, from the private Interest of the Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Fullers, and others the most considerable Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, in the Town of Ottery St. Mary, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners find by Experience, that, since the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures hath been encouraged with a general Freedom, it hath much more enlarged itself, than when confined to the narrow Limits of the Hamborough Company; which Freedom hath advanced the Markets here, by the Number of Buyers, and a current Price: And praying, That the Bill in the House for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company . . . . .; but that that Trade may remain unrestrained, as it now is.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Fullers, and others the most considerable Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, in and about the Town and Parish of Ashburton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, there being a Bill in the House for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners shew, that Experience demonstrates, that the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures, now unconfined, doth best diffuse itself through all the Markets of Europe, the many Buyers causing a current Price, and speedy Payment for them; which hath enabled the Petitioners not only to support their own Families, but to keep many poor People at Work: And praying, That the said Trade may remain freed from obliging the private Interest of the Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, capital Burgesses, Merchants, Clothiers, Fullers, and other Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, in the Borough of Barnstable in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, Leave being given to bring in a Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners cannot omit representing the many Obstructions that must consequently attend the Woollen Manufacture Trade, if the Bill should pass, and the Injury that will thereby happen to the Poor, for Want of Employment: And that, as nothing can better demonstrate the Increase of that Trade, than a general Liberty of Exportation; so nothing can be more pernicious to its Growth, than the Confinement of it to a particular Company: And praying the Continuance of a free Trade, in Opposition to all Monopolies whatsoever.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill be read a Second time.

Hambourgh
Company.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are sensible, that the Trade in the Woollen Manufacture is best promoted and encouraged by a free Trade; but finding, by the Votes of this House, that Leave is given to bring in a Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners conceive, the Confinement of Trade will be very prejudicial to the Woollen Manufacture in general; and stop that Currency of Money, which a free Trade hath hitherto occasioned: And praying the Continuance of a free Trade, it being for the publick Good.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Fullers, and others the most considerable Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, in and about the Town and Parish of Crediton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners find, by the Votes, that this House hath given Leave to bring in a Bill for Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company: But the Trade of the Woollen Manufacture, when attended with Freedom, and general Liberty, doth chearfully diffuse itself through the Markets of Europe; whereby the many Buyers have occasioned a current Price, and speedy Payment, as has enabled the Petitioners to employ many poor People: And praying, That the said Trade may remain free from the private Interest of the Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Barlow's
Estate.

Ordered, That the ingrossed Bill from the Lords, intituled, An Act for confirming the Sale of the Manor of Stansall, and certain Tenements in the County of York, made by Thomas Barlow Gentleman; and for settling other Lands, of greater Value, to the same Uses; and for vesting other Lands and Hereditaments in Trustees, to be sold, for purchasing other Lands, to be settled to the same Uses; be read upon Tuesday Morning next.

Ordered, That the Bill for the Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon; and for laying out the Surplus Money in the Purchase of Demesne Lands, to be settled to the same Uses; be read a Second time upon Monday Morning next.

Lacy's
Estate.

Mr. Carter, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison: And the same was received.

King's Bench
Prison.

Ordered, That the Bill be read upon Monday Morning next.

Sir Thomas Grosvenor attending in his Place;

Privilege of a Member in a Suit.

The Petition of William Monson Esquire, and others, relating to him, was read; setting forth, That the said Sir Tho. Grosvenor, by Indenture, dat. 31 Jan. 1692, demised to Phineas Bowles and John Blunt all that Part, which was then unset, of the Lead Mine, called the Old Rake, on Halken Mountaine, in the County of Flint: And, in 1694, the Petitioners purchased the said Lease with the Privy of Sir Tho. Grosvenor; and have expended above 1,000*l.* in performing the Conditions of the Lease: Yet several Persons, pretending to be empowered by Sir Tho. have entered upon the demised Premises, and dug, and carried away, to their own Use, Ore, to a very great Value;

M in Value;

Value; and still continue so to do; and maintain their Possession by Force; of which Riot they were convicted the last great Session for the County of Flint: That the Petitioners have exhibited a Bill in Chancery against Sir Thomas Grosvenor, and the rest; and Sir Tho. insisted upon his Privilege of Parliament, for himself, and all the Defendants; though some pretended to have Grants, and others are not otherwise his Servants, than as they are Miners and Labourers on the Mountain; saying, This House could not oblige him to wave the same without his Consent; which, the Petitioners conceive, he has since given, by appearing in the Court of Chancery, and consenting to answer: But, those Answers being referred to a Master in Chancery, as insufficient, Sir Thomas again insisted on Privilege; and said, He would do so until this House should give him Leave to wave the same; which unless done, will be a great Oppression, and Ruin to some of the Petitioners: And praying, That Sir Thomas Grosvenor may wave his Privilege in the said Cause, that so the Petitioners may be at Liberty to recover their just Rights.

And Sir Thomas Grosvenor was heard in his Place thereupon: And he made a Complaint to the House of a Breach of Privilege committed against him by Arthur Barker, Joseph Cruchly, John Tho. Evans, Francis Snat, Tho. Lloyd, Mr. Sam. Davis, Mr. Hornsby, and others, for entering upon his Possession, and taking away his Lead Ore from off his Estate.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition, and Complaint, be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do hear the Parties concerned; and examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Supply.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made a further Progress in the Matter to them referred; and had come to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made upon Monday Morning next.

Half-pay.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That a particular Committee may be appointed to inspect the Papers relating to the Half-pay.

Ordered, That a particular Committee be appointed to inspect the Papers relating to Half-pay:

And it is referred to Mr. Harley, Sir John Mordent, Mr. Conyers, Mr. Rowney, Mr. Sloane, Sir Godfrey Copley, Sir Robert Davers, Sir Jos. Tredenham, Mr. Cotton, Mr. Moore, Mr. Hamond, Sir Theo. Oglethorp, Sir John Bolles, Sir Chr. Musgrave, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Foley, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Vernon, Lord Powlet, Mr. Mounsteven, Mr. Osborne, Sir Tho. Wagstaff, Doctor Davenant, Mr. Dormer, Sir Fra. Blake, Mr. Erle, Mr. Secretary Vernon, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Bullock, Earl of Dysert, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Bridgman, Mr. Blathwaite, Earl of Ranelagh, Colonel Webb: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, that he was directed by the said Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Thetford Election.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Election for the Borough of Thetford in the County of Norfolk; and also the Report touching the Committee Room; be made upon Monday Morning next.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

Luncæ, 22° die Januarii;

11° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

MR. Clark, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to naturalize Francis Vandertijd: Vandertijd's Nat.
And the same was received, and read the First time.
Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Mayor, Burgessés, and principal Inhabitants, of the Town and Borough of Totnesse, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, Leave being given by this House for bringing in a Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners are informed by the chief Traders in the Woollen Manufactures about Totnesse, That they have received great Encouragement in their Trade since the former Restraint hath been taken off, and a free Trade allowed: And although it be offered by the said Bill, that any Englishman may come into the said Company; yet the Petitioners are sensible it must be attended with many Inconveniencies and Obstructions to that Trade in general: And praying, That the Woollen Manufacture Trade may remain free and unrestrained. Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Traders, Shipmasters, Shipwrights, and Mariners, of the Town and Parish of Topsham, on behalf of themselves, and other Places adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, during the late... the Petitioners lost above a Hundred Sail of Ships; and since the Peace was concluded, and the free Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures, have had several Ships employed in carrying great Quantities thereof to Hamborough: But, the Petitioners finding, by the printed Votes, that this House hath given Leave to bring in a Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, upon a Petition from the City of Exeter; they believe the Petition was clandestinely obtained, they never hearing thereof, though frequently at Exon: And for that they conceive the said Bill will destroy their Navigation to Germany, they pray, That the Freedom of Trade in the Woollen Manufactures may be continued, as now established by Law. Ditto.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the High Sheriff, several other Gentlemen, Clothiers, and others concerned in and for the Woollen Manufactory in the County of Somerset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Foreigners, having of late Years been permitted to export our Woollen Manufactures beyond Sea, upon equal Terms with English Merchants, have gotten most of that Trade into their own Hands; whereby they have gained Opportunities of causing our Manufactures to be debased, and exported almost unmanufactured; of governing our Markets; and making long Payments; and imposing other Hardships and Hazards upon the Woollen Manufactures: And praying, That Provision may be made for encouraging his Majesty's natural-born Subjects to export our Woollen Manufactures to Germany, and keeping that Trade from falling into the Hands of Foreigners. Ditto.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

A Petition of John Degrave and Francis Minshall, in behalf of themselves, and others, Owners of the Ships taken up by the Transport Commissioners to carry Provisions to Newfoundland, was presented to the House, and read; Transport Debt.

read; setting forth, That, upon the Refusal of other Merchants, the Petitioners, in July 1697, contracted with the said Commissioners to perform the said Service; which they completely performed, as may appear by their settled Accounts; but they cannot get any other Satisfaction for the same from the said Commissioners, or the Lords of the Treasury, than that they tell the Petitioners, there is no Money appropriated to pay them: And praying the Consideration of the House, so as they may be paid for the said Service.

Ordered, That it be referred to such of the late Commissioners for Transportation as are Members of the House, to examine, and state to the House, how the Matter relating to the Petitioners stands; and the Reason why the Petitioners are not satisfied.

Disclosing
Conveyances
Incumbrances, &c.

A Petition of several of the trading Inhabitants of the West Riding of the County of York, on behalf of themselves, and the rest of the Traders and Inhabitants, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners being great Dealers, especially in the Cloathing Trade, have frequent occasions to borrow Money; and though they offer good Security, yet they find it difficult to satisfy the Lender; whereby the Petitioners are often disappointed of Money; which they conceive would be remedied, if some way were established, that future Conveyances, Incumbrances, and Securities, might be found out, or made publick: And praying the Consideration of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

Blackwell-
hall Sloop.

A Petition of the Owners of the Blackwell-hall Sloop, commanded by Captain John Edwards, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, being sensible of the great Decay of Trade by the Exportation of Wool; and the Omission of arming our Frigates and Sloops, to prevent the same, pursuant to a late Act of Parliament; did, by a voluntary Consent, purchase, and fit out, the said Sloop and Captain; who, proving very faithful and serviceable therein, was received into his Majesty's Pay; and further manned and victualled for the Service the Sloop was purchased for; but, to the great Surprize of the Petitioners, her Men are reduced; and she is ordered to be a Tender to a Flag; to the great Disappointment of the said Captain, and the Petitioners: And praying the House to give such Orders therein, as shall be thought meet.

Ordered, That it be referred to such of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty as are Members of this House, to examine, and report to the House, how the Petitioners Case stands.

Ease of Sheriffs.

A Bill for the greater Ease of Sheriffs in the Execution of their Offices, and passing their Accounts, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Member
discharged
from Custody.

Ordered, That Mr. Darrell, in Custody of the Sergeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Half-pay.

A Petition of Captain William Davison was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner had, the last Session, Three times, the Votes of this House in his Favour, as being an Englishman, though a Captain in a Scotch Regiment; but by a subsequent Vote, the Scotch being excluded the Benefit of Half-pay, the Petitioner could not get his Name into the List; whereby he is not only deprived of a present Subsistence, but also of future Preferment, because no Officer is to be taken into Service again, but such as are in the said List: And praying, That he may be admitted to enjoy his Part of that Bounty, which the House so graciously designed for the Subjects of England, who served in the late War.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table, with the other Petitions relating to Half-pay.

A Petition of the Clothiers of the Army was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, that there are Arrears due to them for 98, for which no Provision is yet made; and the Petitioners have lately engaged their Stocks and Credits in cloathing the present Land Forces, not doubting but Provision had been made by the late Act for Payment of the Off-reckonings for the Year 1699; but they are informed there is none made: And praying, That they may be relieved for their said Arrears; and such Provision made for the Year 1700 as the House shall think meet.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

The Earl of Disert reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill to enable Thomas May Gentleman to sell Lands in the County of Suffolk, which were settled upon his First and Second Marriage; and to convey other Lands, of a greater Value, in the same County, to the same Uses; was committed; That they had examined the several Deeds and Settlements mentioned in the Bill: And that the several Persons concerned had given their Consents to the same: And that the Committee had made some Amendments to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

A Petition of Colonel Samuel Venner, late Governor of his Majesty's Hospital for sick and wounded Men in Ireland, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is due to the Petitioner for the said Service, 1,099 l. 2 s. 5 d.; whereof 487 l. 2 s. 6 d. was advanced, and laid out, by the Petitioner, for the necessary Subsistence of the said Hospital; for which he hath the Earl of Athlone's Warrant, dated 27 November 1691, who was then Commander in Chief; and the Remainder is due for his Salary; as may appear by his Accounts, stated by the Commissioners of Accounts in Ireland; and by a Report of August 1695, made by Charles Fox Esquire, upon a Reference to him from the Treasury: For the obtaining of which Monies, the Petitioner hath made all due Application; but can have no Relief: And praying, That Provision may be made for Payment of the said Debt.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Arrears due to the Irish Army be taken into Consideration.

A Petition of William Puryour, Glazier, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner did, the last Session of Parliament, petition this House to be relieved against Mr. Ford, the now Warden of the Fleet, for letting Thomas Yong, in Execution at the Petitioner's Suit, for above 80 l. have his Liberty; but the Petitioner hath obtained no Satisfaction therein, though he hath been at great Charges in prosecuting one Fox, a former Warden, for the said Escape: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises, he being otherwise remediless.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee appointed in relation to the Abuses of the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Ordered, That the Committee to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury is referred, do sit de die in diem; And that Mr. Berrie, and all the Members that serve serve for the County of Salop, and North Wales, be added to the said Committee.

Lacy's Estate.

Ordered, That the Bill for Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon; and for laying out the Surplus-money in the Purchase of Demesne Lands, to be settled to the same Uses; be read To-morrow Morning.

King's Bench Prison.

Ordered, That the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison; be read To-morrow Morning.

Copper Coinage.

Ordered, That the Bill to restrain the Coining any more Halfpence and Farthings be read To-morrow Morning.

Supply.

Mr. Conyers, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolutions, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Sum, not exceeding 300,000 l. be granted to his Majesty, for maintaining Guards and Garisons, for the Year 1700.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Half-pay be allowed, for the Year 1700, to the disbanded Officers, not otherwise provided for, according to the Vote of the 29th of April 1699.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Twenty-five thousand Pounds be allowed for the Office of the Ordnance, for the Year 1700.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ways and Means.

Resolved, That this House will upon Thursday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

Thetford Election.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, specially, touching the Election for the Borough of Thetford in the County of Norfolk; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the Petition of Edmund Soame Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of James Soame Esquire to serve for the said Borough:

The said Committee, before they came to any Resolution upon the Merits of the Election, directed the following Fact to be reported for the Judgment of the House:

That the Petitioner's Counsel insisted, That several Persons ought to be added to the Petitioner's Poll, who offered to vote for the Petitioner, and were refused by the Mayor; viz. Edward Freeman, and others:

That the Fact appeared to be thus: The Right of Election was agreed to be in the Mayor, Ten capital Burgesses, and 20 Common Councilmen:

That Edward Freeman was removed from his being a Common Councilman, because he had not signed the Association within the time prescribed by the Act; and another was sworn into his Place. Freeman himself, being examined, said, That he signed the voluntary Association; and had also signed the Association, according to the Act; but could not say whether it was before or after the Election: That he never refused to sign the Association: And, if he did not sign it in time, it was because no Session was held, at which he could regularly do it; and that he was out of Town, when it was done by the others: And that the Petitioner's Counsel further insisted, That, if the said Freeman had not subscribed the Association in time, those who voted for the Sitting Member were guilty of the same Fault:

That thereupon the Sitting Member's Counsel, by way of Answer to the said Objection, and to justify the Sitting Member's Voters, produced the Sessions Roll, whereon the Corporation had signed; which is introduced in these Words:

"Borough of Thetford: At a general Quarter Sessions of the Peace, holden for the Borough aforesaid, at the Guild-hall of the said Borough, upon Monday the 22d Day of June, in the 8th Year of the Reign of King William the III<sup>d</sup>, and in the Year of our Lord 1696, and so continued, by several Adjournments, until the 3d Day of August then next following; the Association underwritten was subscribed to, by the several Persons as underwritten, according to an Act of Parliament, made in the 7th and 8th Years of the Reign of the present King William, intituled, An Act for the better Security of his Majesty's Royal Person and Government."

That the Sitting Member's Counsel offered to prove by Witnesses, That the said Persons had subscribed the Association in time, according to the said Act of Parliament: But, that Sort of Evidence being objected to, the Committee ordered the special Matter of Fact to be reported to the House.

Ordered, That the Merits of the said Election, together with the Matter of the said Report, be heard at the Bar of this House, upon Friday Morning next.

Ordered, That the Report relating to the Committee Room be made To-morrow Morning.

A Report deferred.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of the Kingdom.

State of Trade.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Colonel Granville took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Colonel Granville reported from the said Committee, That they had made some Progress in the Matter to them referred; and had directed him to move, That the Commissioners of the Customs may lay before this House an Account of what Quantity of Silver hath been exported since Michaelmas 1697; and by whom; and to what Place.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of the Customs do lay before this House an Account of what Quantity of Silver hath been exported since Michaelmas 1697; and by whom; and to what Place.

Colonel Granville also acquainted the House, That the Committee had directed him to move the House, That the Commissioners of the Customs may lay before this House an Account, what the Duties of the Woollen Manufactures exported in the Year 1698, do amount to.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of the Customs do lay before this House an Account, what the Duties of the Woollen Manufacture exported in the Year 1698, do amount to.

Colonel Granville also acquainted the House, That the Committee had directed him to move the House, That the Commissioners of the Customs may lay before this House an Account of all the Italian Manufactures that have been imported and exported in the Years 1698, and 1699.

Ordered, That the said Commissioners do lay the said Account before this House.

Colonel Granville also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move the House, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom; and nothing to intervene.

Committees. Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Beer and Ale Measure.

Mr. Pierpoint reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider, whether it be fit a Bill be brought in for the ascertaining the Measures of Beer and Ale, according to sealed Measures, to be kept in every Town, That, 1st, It appears to the Committee, That Incertainty, now at present, through the Kingdom, in all Measures, is of evil Consequence.

VOL. 13.

2dly, That such Measure brings a Prejudice upon all the Labourers and Manufacturers of England.

3dly, That small Measures, by which Beer and Ale is sold, hinders the Consumption of Malt; which is hurtful to the Landed Interest: And hinders the Consumption of Drink; which is prejudicial to the King's Revenues.

For which Reasons the Committee think it fit, That there should be a sealed Measure for Beer and Ale throughout the Kingdom: And that a Bill be brought in for that Purpose.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the ascertaining the Measures of Beer and Ale, according to sealed Measures, to be kept in every Town: And that Mr. Pierpoint and Mr. Scobell do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That Mr. Mannaton, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for absenting himself from his Service in Parliament, be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees. A Member discharged from Custody.

A Petition of William Warner Gentleman, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Town of Deal hath always been in want of wholesome Water to their own, and his Majesty's, and all other Ships that come to the Downes: And the Petitioner having found out a Method, which has already cost him several Hundred Pounds, and will do more, and which, the Inhabitants are satisfied, will effectually supply their Occasions; and is also encouraged by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who is chief Lord of the Soil; the Petitioner prays, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the bringing fresh Water to the said Town of Deal. Deal Water-works.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Brewer do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burghesses, and others, Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Weymouth and Melcomb Regis, in the County of Dorset, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That * * * * * Petition from Weymouth.

... That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to such of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, who are Members of the House: And that they do report to the House how the Petitioners Case stands.

Ordered, That the Bill for the better enabling Anne Baldwin Widow, to make Sale of a Capital Messuage and Lands called Wiltons, and other Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the County of Bucks, devised by her late Husband's Will, be read a Second time To-morrow Morning. Baldwin's Estate.

A Petition of Captain Thomas Morgan, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner hath served the Crown of England 18 Years, 12 of which as an Officer; and, after the Battle of Landen, was made a Captain in the Lord Charlemont's Regiment; and in June 1697, at Waterford in Ireland, a Quarrel happening between the Petitioner and Cornet Nesbit, wherein both were run through the Body, and, recovering, were very good Friends afterwards; but the Matter being misrepresented to the Earl of Galloway, he declared he would break the Petitioner; and directed a Court Martial; but afterwards ordered it to desist; and in few Days after, by the Allegations of the said Earl, the Petitioner was superseded by a Commission from England, without being ever heard; and Captain Harris, who was in the Conspiracy against his Majesty, had the Commission, and the Half-pay, though the Regiment was broke before he could join it: And praying, That the Petitioner may be admitted into the List of Half-pay after so many Years Service, his Family being in a starving Condition. Half-pay.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table, with the other Petitions relating to Half-pay.

N n

A Bill

King's Bench
Prison.

A Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison; was, according to Order, read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Monday Morning next.

King's Bench
and Fleet
Prisons.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Tradesmen, within the Counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon, in behalf of themselves, and others, within the said Counties, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners in their Dealings contract great Debts, for Recovery whereof they often bring Actions; and, after expensive Suits and Executions, their Debtors convey away their Effects, remove themselves to the Fleet or King's Bench Prisons, and, by Practices with the Keepers thereof, immediately return into the Country again, and live in Defiance of their Creditors; by whose Examples others are encouraged to spend their Creditors Money, and make a Jest of the fruitless Expence at Law for Recovery thereof, to the great Inconveniency and Damage to Trade in general: And praying the House effectually to prosecute the Considerations they have already begun, relating to the Abuses of the said Prisons.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison; be read a Second time.

Ouze
Navigation.

Mr. Jenkins, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for cleansing, and making and keeping more navigable, the River Ouze: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read upon Thursday Morning next.

Hopwood's
Marriage
Settlement.

Ordered, That all the Members that serve for the Counties of Salop and Hereford be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for rectifying a Mistake in the Marriage Settlement of Tho. Hopwood Gentleman on Eliz. his Wife, is committed.

Defective
Titles.

A Petition of Sir Solomon Swale Baronet, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, and his Ancestors, for above 400 Years, have been seised, in Fee, of the Manor of West Grinton, and certain Lead Mines in the Wastes thereto belonging, in the County of York; and they quietly enjoyed the same till 1696; when Mr. Reginald Marriot, by Petition in the Name of George Tussingham to the Lords of the Treasury, suggesting that the said Mines belonged to the Crown, and were concealed, obtained a Lease thereof; and, by several undue Practices, hath ousted the Petitioner of his Possession: That the Petitioner hath lately proceeded at Law to recover the said Mines; but is informed, the Bill depending in the House for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, will prejudice the Petitioner's said Prosecution: And praying, That he may be heard by his Counsel, before the said Bill do pass.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioner be heard, by his Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Army
Arrears.

A Petition of the Commanders, and other Officers of the several Scots Regiments, employed during the late Wars, upon the English Establishment, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is an Arrear of Pay due to them for Seven Years, besides Subsistence, and other Contingents; and Germans, Danes, &c. having been cleared off, when sent home; the Petitioners, who have served with as much Zeal, hope they shall meet with the like justice, that they may be able to pay their Debts, which they have contracted for want of what is due to them: And praying the House to take their Case into Consideration, and relieve them therein.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Arrears due to the Army be taken into Consideration.

A Petition of several Engineers, who are now broke, and not otherwise provided for, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have served the Government all the late War, and contracted several Debts in the Performance of their Duty, for which their Creditors threaten to imprison them; and, though the Lord Ranelagh has laid before this House an Account of the Arrears of the Army, the Petitioners do not find their Debt particularized therein, which amounts to 5,268 l. 17 s. as appears by the Account annexed to the Petition: That the Petitioners are most Foreigners, though naturalized; and quitted their Estates and Country, on Account of their Religion; and have nothing to subsist on but the Credit of their Pay: And praying, That their Circumstances may be taken into Consideration; whereby the Petitioners may be as well provided for, as other Officers of the Army.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Arrears due to the Army be taken into Consideration.

A Petition of Edward Hobson, late Mayor of the Town and Borough of Newark, in the County of Nottingham, in the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That he is highly sensible of his having incurred the Displeasure of this House; and that he is a poor Man, and hath a great Charge of Children: And praying, That his Circumstances may be considered; and that he may be discharged from his Confinement.

Ordered, That the said Edward Hobson be brought to the Bar To-morrow Morning, in order to his Discharge.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council, of the Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex, on the behalf of several Thousands free Burghers, and other poor Inhabitants of the said Town, was presented to the House:

And the Question being put, That the Petition be brought up to the Table;

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas,	{ Mr. Lowther,	} 110.
	{ Mr. Molineux:

Tellers for the Noes,	{ Sir Cha. Turner,	} 101.
	{ Mr. Hoblyn:

So it was resolved in the Affirmative.

The said Petition was brought up to the Table accordingly, and read; setting forth, That the Miseries the Poor of the said Town, who are very numerous, underwent, were chiefly occasioned by the Dearness of Bread and Beer Corn; but the Petitioners are very sensible, that the Act for prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, &c. from the 10th of February 1698, which is near expiring, was a great Relief to their Poor; and fear, if the same should not be continued, their former Miseries will return upon them, by the Exportation of Corn by Men greedy of their own private Gain: And praying, That the said Act may be continued for some time longer, as the House shall think fit.

And the Question being put, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition, for prolonging the Time for the prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, &c.

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas,	{ Mr. Brotherton,	} 145.
	{ Sir John Bolles:

Tellers for the Noes,	{ Mr. Gwyn,	} 145.
	{ Mr. Nicholas:

So the Voices were equal:

Whereupon Mr. Speaker declared for the Yeas.

Whereupon

Whereupon it was Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition, for prolonging the Time for the prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, &c.

Ordered, That Sir Thomas Cook and Sir Isaac Rebow do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Committee of Privileges.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Committee Room, be made To-morrow Morning.

Supply Bill; Irish Forfeitures.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for the applying all the forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland, and all Grants thereof; and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown within that Kingdom; since the Thirteenth Day of February 1688; to the Use of the Publick.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made some Progress in the Matter to them referred; and had directed him to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Monday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the said Bill.

Committees not to sit till revived.

Declared, That it be the standing Order of the House, That, when all Committees are adjourned at the Rising of the House, no Committee ought to sit until after they shall be revived again.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Francis Vandertijd and Angueta Vandermerish took the Oaths appointed in order to their Naturalization.

Dartmouth Election.

A Petition of Rowland Holt Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That he was duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardnesse, in the County of Devon, in the room of Sir Joseph Hern, deceased; and was returned as such to the Sheriff of Devon, by the old indisputable Freeman, the Mayor dying the Day before the Election; but Nathanael Hern Esquire hath also procured himself to be returned to the Sheriff by another Indenture, signed by some of the Electors; though the Petitioner had the Majority, yet the said Sheriff hath returned both the Indentures to the Crown Office: And praying the Consideration of the House therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Transport Debt.

A Petition of John Lyndall and others, in the Name of themselves, and several others, Masters and Owners of Ships belonging to the Port of Kingston upon Hull, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in 1693, the Petitioners contracted with the Transport Commissioners; and were to be paid for their Service within a Month after their Discharge, or to have Interest till paid off; and according . . the Petitioners were employed; and there remains due to them very considerable Sums, for want whereof many have been ruined, and the

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table with the other Petitions relating to the Half-pay.

Mr. Thursby, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for erecting a Court of Judicature to relieve poor Officers and Soldiers, touching their Pay detained from them, and other Injuries complained of: And the same was received; and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon this Day Sevensnight.

A Petition of Peregrine Bertie Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner's Grandfather Sir Peregrine, in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the First, did purchase from the Crown several Salt Marshes, and derelict Lands, in the Counties of Lincoln and Cambridge, for 7,400 l. really paid into the Exchequer; Part of which is enjoyed by the Petitioner, and the Residue is still in Question by the Petitioner; whose Right thereto may, as advised, be prejudiced by the Bill in the House for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles: And praying to be heard what he hath to offer for saving his Right to the said purchased Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioner be heard before the Committee, thereupon.

Ordered, That the said Committee do sit de die in diem.

Edward Hobson, late Mayor of Newark, was, according to Order, brought to the Bar: Where he, upon his Knees, received a Reprimand from Mr. Speaker.

Ordered, That the said Edward Hobson be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

A Bill for the better enabling Anne Baldwyn Widow to make Sale of a capital Messuage and Lands called Wilttons, and other Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the County of Bucks, devised by her late Husband's Will, was read a Second time.

Resolved,

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Lord Chenie, Sir Tho. Wagstaffe, Sir Richard Farrington, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Thursby, Sir Abstr. Dunby, Mr. Price, Mr. Dyott, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. Mountstevens, Sir John Fagg, Sir Fran. Windham, Mr. Foley, Sir Robert Cotton, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Archdale, Mr. White, Mr. Proby, Sir Robert Clayton, Mr. Shackerly, Mr. Mountague, Sir Roxland Gwyn, Mr. Gorge, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Orme, Lord Cavendish, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Stonehouse, Mr. Carter: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Copper
Coinage.

A Bill to restrain the Coining any more Halfpence or Farthings, was read a Second Time.

Sir

Privilege—
Letter reflecting on the House.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Committee Room; and the Letter of Mr. Crisp referred to the said Committee; and the Resolutions of the said Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

That Mr. Crisp, being examined, owned the Letter produced to the Committee, wherein are these Words: "I have appeared every Day before the Committee of Parliament, which is no small Charge to our Commissioners, and us that are in Town Chief Agents; also the Room which the Committee sits in comes to 10 l. Four Days: There is a Motion made that every body shall be at proportionable Charges, as Commissioners, Chief Agents, and others Agents, every one according to their Salary; and that the Chief Agents do stand obliged for their under Agents."

And said, that the Occasion of the said Letter was, That he was in the Auction Coffee-house Room; and Somebody dunned Mr. Haynes for some Money: But who it was, or for what Sum, he could give no Account; only, as Mr. Haynes turned about to him, and told him, Somebody demanded 10 l. for Four or Six Days for the Committee Room. As to the Motion mentioned in the Letter, he said, It was made by himself, who was Chief Agent for Cardiganshire, to Mr. Haynes and Mr. Cook.

Mr. Haynes, being examined, said, That the Person that came to dun him in the Auction Coffee-house was Mr. Snow; who dunned him for Money for the Committee for Wools, sitting in his Room last Sessions, which was upon their own Commission, and not any Committee by Order of the House; which was Seven or Eight Days; and denied that he told Mr. Crisp the Charge of the Committee Room was 10 l. for Four or Six Days, or asked Mr. Crisp any Money, or that his Under Agents should contribute; or knew any thing of the Writing of Crisp's Letter, or the Contents thereof.

But Mr. Crisp, being examined again, said, That he never was before the Committee for Wool, nor employed, during the time they sat, being made an Agent but in May last; and that his Letter was writ no longer than about Four or Five Weeks since; and that the Person who came to Mr. Haynes for Money, came to him about a Week before the writing of the Letter; and that he understood Mr. Haynes of the Committee of Parliament; and that he spake to the said Mr. Crisp after he came from the Committee.

And that the Committee came to these Resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Letter writ by Mr. Crisp to * Burnby is false and scandalous; and reflecting upon the Honour of the House, and the Committee.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That John Haynes was the Occasion of writing the said false and scandalous Letter.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the said John Haynes be taken into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Election for the Borough of Bishop's Castle in the County of Salop, be made To-morrow Sevensnight.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of the Excise do lay before this House a yearly Account of the gross Produce of the Barrels of Beer, Ale, and small Beer, charged from Midsummer 1688, to Midsummer 1699.

Ordered, That the Commissioners of Excise do lay before this House an Account of the Adjudications, Mitigations, and Reversals, of Penalties and Forfeitures, from Midsummer 1683, to Midsummer 1699.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That Mr. Lowndes do lay before this House an Account how the Eighty-five thousand Pounds paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, by the Commissioners of the Customs, for Penalties and Forfeitures, for Ten Years ending at Michaelmas 1699, hath been disposed of.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday come Sevensnight, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill touching free and impartial Proceedings in Parliament.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made a further Progress in the Matter to them referred; and had come to a Resolution, which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That they had directed him to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon this Day Sevensnight, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That Mr. Herbert, Mr. Worsley, Major Holmes, Admiral Hobson, Mr. Napper, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, is committed.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Jovis, 25° die Januarii;

11° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

A Petition of George Herlackendon Esquire was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, as One of the Deputy Commissaries of the Army, faithfully served his Majesty several Years; and was disbanded in December 1698, with other Deputy Commissaries, who have all of them Half-pay, except the Petitioner: And praying, That, in Consideration his Services have been equal with the rest of the Deputy Commissaries, he may have Half-pay as well as they.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table, with the other Petitions relating to Half-pay.

A Petition of George Moor, Merchant, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, about Eight Years since, he obtained a Judgment, for above 2,000 l. against Mr. Lenthall, chargeable on his Estate in the King's Bench Prison, and in Oxonshire; which the Petitioner extended, and was in Possession; but was ousted by Mr. Boulter, on Pretence of a prior Incumbrance; to be relieved against which, the Petitioner preferred a Bill in Chancery; which Suit is still depending: That this House having lately appointed a Committee to state the Incumbrances upon the said Prison; before the Petitioner could be heard, the said Committee made their Report to the House, and left out the Petitioner's Incumbrance; whereby he shall be debarred of his said Debt.

Ordered, That the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison; be read upon the Day appointed, after Twelve a Clock.

Woollen
Manufac-
tures.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, and also of the Merchants, Weavers, Fullers, Dyers, and others concerned in the Woollen Manufactures, in the City of Eron, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Trade in the Woollen Manufacture is much decayed of late; especially since the Flanders Prohibition, which hath cut off one considerable Part of the Petitioners Sales; and they are thereby much streightened in their Trade, and the Poor distressed for want of Work; and great Encouragement is given in foreign Parts, to tempt our Workmen thither; where many Woollen Manufactures are already set up, in Imitation of the English: And praying the House timely to provide for the Encouragement and Enlargement of the English Woollen Manufactures.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

A Message from the Lords, by Sir Richard Holford and Mr. Pitt:

Mr. Speaker,

Noble's
Estate.

The Lords have agreed to the Bill, intituled, An Act to enable Thomas Noble Gentleman to sell the undivided Third-part of the Manor of Forton, in the County of Leicester, when he shall have settled other Lands, an intire Estate, of a greater Value, to the same Uses, without any Amendment.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Assaying of Plate.

A Petition of the Goldsmiths of the City of Norwich was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of a Clause in a late Act, for encouraging the bringing in of wrought Plate to be coined, whereby the Mark of all Plate is appointed to be affixed thereon by the Company of Goldsmiths of London only, the Petitioners are debarred from working at their Trades, for fear of the Forfeitures in the said Act; which, if not remedied, will be the Ruin of the Petitioners: And praying, That the House will take their Case into Consideration; and relieve them therein; by allowing distinct Marks for the several Cities of England, or otherwise, as the House shall think convenient.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Goldsmiths of the City and County of the City of Eron is referred: And that Sir Godfrey Copley, Mr. Blofeld, Sir Robert Davers, Mr. Lowndes, and all for Devon, Cornwall, Norfolk, Suffolk, and Wilts, be added to the said Committee.

A Person in Custody to attend a Committee.

Ordered, That the Serjeant at Arms attending this House do permit John Haynes, now in his Custody, to attend the Committee, to whom the Matter relating to the Woollen Manufactures is referred, before whom he is under Examination.

Mr. Conyers reported, from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolution which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That whosoever shall advance or lend a Sum, not exceeding One hundred thousand Pounds, for paying of Seamen's Wages, shall be repaid the same, with Interest at 5 l. per Cent. (after the Sum of Two hundred and Twenty thousand Pounds already borrowed,) out of the First Aids to be granted this Session.

The said Resolution being read a Second Time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That whosoever shall advance or lend a Sum, not exceeding One hundred thousand Pounds, for paying of Seamen's Wages, shall be repaid the same, with Interest at 5 l. per Cent. (after the Sum of 220,000 l. already borrowed,) out of the First Aids to be granted this Session.

Employing
the Poor.

A Bill for the better relieving and employing the Poor of this Kingdom was, according to Order, read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Seven-night, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the said Bill; and nothing to intervene.

Ways and Means.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had come to a Resolution; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the Committee to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon this Day Seven-night, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

Bonds for Customs.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

ORDERED, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to naturalize Theophilus Jacobson, William Brown, and Sarah Hoskinstyles, Infants: And that Mr. White do prepare, and bring in, the Bill: Jacobson's, &c. Nat.

Mr. Duncomb, from the Commissioners of Transports, presented to the House their Answer to the Petition of John de Grave and Francis Minshall, in behalf of themselves, and others, Owners of the Ships hired to carry Provisions to Newfoundland: Transport Service.

And the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

That, in July 1697, they hired Seven Ships to carry Provisions hence to Newfoundland by the Ton; and paid them Half their Freight, so soon as their Loading was on board. The Ships, and Masters Names, are as follow; viz.

The Joseph, Thomas Rook Master.

The John and William, Benjamin Holman Master.

The Seventh Son, James Perryman Master.

The Hart, John Dudley Master.

The Burlington, George Stephens Master.

The Agreement, James Young Master.

The Antony, Samuel Roberts Master.

The First of the above Ships has been long since paid in full.

The following Three Ships have had their Accounts adjusted; but, having no Money to pay them with, their Accounts were, some time since, laid before the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury; but nothing received for them.

The Burlington, George Stephens Master, was taken, by Two French Privateers in her Passage to Newfoundland; and the Owners, and their Ship, insured from the Enemy by his Majesty; so that she is to be paid for according to a Report made to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

The Agreement, James Young Master, after making Newfoundland, met with stormy Weather, and was forced from the Land; and his Ship, being much damaged, sailed for Barbados, as we have also reported to their Lordships.

The case of the Antony, Samuel Roberts Master, we have been told, is the same with the Agreement; but the Owners have not yet applied to us to have their Accounts adjusted.

26 January 1699.

Ordered, That the said Answer be recommended to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

Mr. Carter, according to Order, presented to the House, a Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the Fleet Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison: And the same was received; and read the First time:

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Monday Morning next.

A Petition of William Vaughan Gentleman, an Infant, by Walter Vaughan, of Trebarried in the County of Brecon, Esquire, and Mary Vaughan Widow, his Guardian, and next Friends; and Frances Vaughan, an Infant, sole Daughter and Heir of John Vaughan, late of Hergest in the County of Hereford, Esquire, by Sitvanus Vaughan Clerk, Henry Vaughan Gentleman, John Lewis Esquire, and John Edwards Gentleman, her Guardians, and next Friends; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by Articles of Marriage to be solemnized between the said William and Frances Vaughan, the Petitioners, his Guardians, have covenanted for the settling as a Jointure, upon the said Frances, several Messuages and Premises in the County of Brecon; but, by reason of the Infancy of the said William Vaughan, his Guardians cannot cannot perform the said Articles without the Aid of an Act of Parliament: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for confirming the said Articles of Agreement, made for the Marriage of the said William and Frances Vaughan.

Vaughan's
Marriage
Settlement.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Price do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Vexatious Suits in Wales.

A Bill for preventing frivolous and vexatious Suits in the Principality of Wales, and the Counties Palatine, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Cattle Market in the Haymarket.

The House being informed, That the Sheriffs of the City of London attended at the Door;

They were called in; and, at the Bar, acquainted the House, That they had a Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of London, to present to the House, in relation to the Markets belonging to the City: And delivered the same into the House.

And then withdrew.

And the Petition was read; setting forth, That King Edward the III<sup>d</sup>, by his Charter, inter al. granted to the Petitioners, That no Market should thenceforth be granted within Seven Miles in Circuit of the said City; and several Persons, in sundry Reigns, have endeavoured to obtain Patents for erecting of Markets for live Cattle within that Distance, who, upon hearing the Petitioners, have, from time to time, been prevented; but Sir Nathanael Curzon and John Kent Esquire, having lately erected a Market in Great Brookfeild, for the Sale of live Cattle, under Colour of some Grants from the late King James, the Petitioners brought a Scire facias to reverse those Grants; and, to obstruct their Proceedings thereon, the said Sir Nath. and Mr. Kent have petitioned this House, as the Petitioners conceive: And praying, That they may be heard by their Counsel what they have to offer in relation to the Matters alleged in the said Petition of Sir Nath. Curzon and Mr. Kent.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Sir Nathanael Curzon and John Kent Esquire is referred: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon: And that Sir Robert Clayton, Sir Tho. Cook, Sir Owen Buckingham, Mr. Wynn, Mr. Cor, be added to the said Committee.

Hamborough
Company.

A Petition of divers Merchants, Clothiers, and others, in the Town of Ratchdale in the County of Lancaster, and Places adjacent, was presented to the House and read; setting forth, That the Trade of our Woollen Manufacture may be carried on, to the best Advantage of the Nation, by his Majesty's natural-born Subjects; but Foreigners have got so great a Share of it, that they have discouraged the Hamborough Company from sending such great Quantities of Cloths abroad as formerly; and have occasioned our Manufactures to be debased and disesteemed in foreign Markets: And praying, That the Hamborough Company may be supported in their Trade to Germany, as the means to prevent the growing Mischiefs which attend our Woollen Manufactures.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Merchants, Clothiers, and others, of the City of York, and Places adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners conceive, the supporting of the Hamborough Company in their Privileges upon the River of Elbe, Wiser, and Eyder, will be a means to preserve and restore the Trade of our Woollen Manufactures to those Parts from falling wholly into the Hands of Foreigners; by whom the English Navigation is much diminished, the Exports of Woollen Cloths much lessened, the Poor increased, and what Profit is to be gotten carried away by Foreigners: To prevent all which Mischiefs, and many more, the Petitioners pray, That the said Company may be supported in their Privileges in the said Rivers, as to the House shall seem meet.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Ordered, That no more Petitions be received, for or against the Bill for making the River Avon, from Christ Church to Salisbury, navigable, after Wednesday next. Avon Navigation.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to enable the Justices of the Peace to raise Money for the Building of Gaols in the several Counties of England and Wales, where there are none; and for repairing of the Gaols in other of the said Counties, where such Gaols want repairing, and the Charge of the repairing them ought to be defrayed by the respective Counties: And that Colonel Byerley and Mr. Boscawen do prepare, and bring in, the Bill. County Gaols.

A Petition of John Beecher Esquire, and Charles Beecher, and John Bridger Gentlemen, and of Elizabeth Stuteville's Estate. the Wife of Charles Stuteville Esquire, and their Five Children, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Charles Stuteville, having mortgaged his Estate in the County of Suffolk to the late Lord Keeper North for 1,000 Years, and not paying the Money, was foreclosed of the Equity of Redemption; whereby the Estate became absolute, and, by mesne Assignment, is now vested in Gilbert Dolben Esquire, who is in Possession; yet is willing to accept of a Sum of Money: And Judith, Mother of the said Charles Stuteville, having, in 1689, obtained a Decree in Chancery for 5,800 l. principal Money, to be raised out of the said Estate, assigned the same to the Petitioners, in Trust, for the Benefit of her said Five Grandchildren: That Mr. Stuteville hath conveyed to the Petitioners John and Charles Beecher all his Right and Title to the said Estate, in Trust, for the satisfying Incumbrances thereupon; which can no ways be paid, but by Sale of the Premises; which cannot be effected, but by Act of Parliament, by reason the said Charles is become weak in his Understanding: And, for that the Petitioners Eliz. and her Children, and the said Charles Stuteville, are without Subsistence; they pray, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for Sale of the Estate of the said Charles Stuteville, for Payment of the Incumbrances thereupon; and applying the Residue of the Money for the Benefit of him, and his Wife and Children.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Rowland Gwyn do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Mr. Conyers reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolution which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: where the same was read, and is as followeth; viz. Ways and Means.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Aid be granted to his Majesty, not exceeding Two Shillings in the Pound, for One Year, to be laid upon all Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Pensions, Offices, and personal Estates.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That an Aid be granted to his Majesty, not exceeding Two Shillings in the Pound, for One Year, to be laid upon all Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Pensions, Offices, and personal Estates.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in upon the said Resolution:

solution: And that Mr. Conyers and Mr. Lowndes do prepare, and bring in, the said Bill.

Grants from the Crown.

Resolved, That a Day be appointed to consider of the Grants made since the settling of the Civil List upon his Majesty.

Ordered, That the said Matter be taken into Consideration upon this Day Sevensnight.

Ordered, That Mr. Travers, his Majesty's Surveyor General, do lay before this House the Petitions and Reports, upon which any Grants were made the last Year.

Ordered, That Mr. Lowndes do lay before this House the Warrants for the said Grants.

Call of the House.

Ordered, That the House be called over upon Thursday come Sevensnight: And that such Members as shall not then attend, be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

Thetford Election.

Then the House proceeded to the hearing the Matter touching the Election for the Borough of Thetford in the County of Norfolk:

And the Counsel for Edmund Soame Esquire, the Petitioner, and for James Sloane Esquire, the Sitting Member, were called in; and heard; and several Witnesses examined on both Sides.

And then they withdrew.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That James Sloane Esquire, in treating the Corporation of Thetford in the County of Norfolk, has been guilty of a Breach of the late Act of Parliament for preventing Expences in Elections;

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Colonel Granville, } 115.
Sir Robert Davers:

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Boyle, } 110.
Mr. Molincur:

So it was resolved in the Affirmative.

Then the Question being put, That James Sloane Esquire is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Thetford in the County of Norfolk;

It passed in the Negative.

Resolved, That the said Election is a void Election.

Ordered, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the Electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Thetford in the County of Norfolk, in the room of James Sloane Esquire, who is adjudged to be unduly elected.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Sabbati, 27° die Januarii;

11° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

Hamborough Company.

A PETITION of divers Masters of Ships, at or near Kingslon upon Hull, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the taking off Aliens Duties, and for want of a sufficient Support for English Merchants, hath given great Advantage to neighbouring Nations; who are so far Masters of our Trade, that very little English Shipping is employed to the East Country, Germany, Hamborough, Holland, and Flanders; to the great Discouragement of Navigation, and English Seamen, who might be therein employed, and be near at home, upon all Occasions, to serve their Country: And praying the House to establish the Hamborough and Eastland Companies, as the Means to restore and support the English Navigation to the Parts aforesaid.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Dyers and Clothworkers in the City of London was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That formerly, when the Hamborough Company flourished, our Woollen Manufactures were exported in great Quantities, dyed and dressed here; but, since Foreigners have had a Freedom to export the same, they have, by Degrees, encouraged the Dyeing thereof abroad; and at length, by Help of the great Drawback on Dyeing-wares, will deprive the Petitioners of that Part of their Trade: And praying, That the Bill in the House for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company may pass, for the Encouragement of English Merchants to export our Manufactures.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Packers, Setters, Tillet-painters, Callenders, and Seal-makers, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, since Foreigners have gotten the greatest Share of the Trade of exporting the English Woollen Manufactures to Germany, they have exported them almost wholly unmanufactured in the Way of the Petitioners Trade, to their great Impoverishment, which used formerly to be manufactured here; and that Trade might be regained, as the Petitioners conceive, if Encouragement were given to English Merchants to export our Woollen Manufactures to Germany: And praying, That the Bill, depending in the House, for the better Encouragement and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, may pass, for that Purpose.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Bay-makers, Say-makers, and Perpetuana-makers, of Colchester, and others concerned in the Woollen Manufactures there, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Poor, for above 20 Miles round, have their chief Dependence upon making the said Manufactures; which, for many Years past, have been sent to Holland, and thence conveyed, and vended in Germany; which Trade has been very beneficial to the Petitioners: But there being a Bill in the House, for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, whereby all Persons trading to Germany must be admitted into that Company, and consequently subject to their By-laws, and probably they not contented to trade for so little Profit as the Petitioners, the Prices upon Goods will be advanced in foreign Parts, the Consumption here lessened, the Poor want Employment, and it will put Foreigners upon all Ways possible of setting up our Manufactures there: And praying therefore, That the said Bill may not pass.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Bill to naturalize Francis Vandertijde was read a Second time. Vantertijde's Nat.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Sir Robert Davers, Mr. Brotherton, Mr. Clark, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. White, Mr. Carter, Mr. Pye, Mr. Joliffe, Sir Fran. Blake, Sir John Bland, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Lewis, Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Winington, Sir Robert Austin, Mr. Palmer, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Duke, Mr. Northmore, Mr. Hughes, Sir Walter Yonge, Mr. Yates, Mr. Guy, Mr. Crane, Mr. Hysham, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Crocker, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Stonehouse, Mr. Hoblyn, Sir Cha. Turner, Mr. Dyot, Mr. England: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Mr. Carter, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for regulating of Prisons: And the same was received; and read the First time. Regulating Prisons.

P p

Resolved,

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Silk Manufacture.

A Petition of the Minister, Churchwardens, Overseers, and other Inhabitants, of the Parish of St. Leonard's, Shoreditch, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of the great Decay of the Silk Manufactory, great Multitudes of People residing in the said Parish, whose sole Dependence was on the Silk Weavers and Throwers, are become an insupportable Burden to the Parish: And praying, That the Weavers and Throwers of Silk may be so relieved, that the Poor may be thereby employed, and the Petitioners eased.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Rector, Vestry, and Churchwardens, and Overseers, and other Inhabitants, of the Parish of St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate without, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That great Numbers of People inhabit within the said Parish, whose chief Dependence is upon the Silk Manufactory, either from the Silk Weavers, or Silk Throwers; whose Trades are so greatly decayed, that the Petitioners indigent Neighbours are become an insupportable Burden to them: And praying, That the House will grant such Relief to the said Weavers and Throwers, as their Poor may again be employed.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Woollen
Manufacture.

A Petition of the Clothiers in and about the Town of Froome, in the County of Somerset, in behalf of themselves and many Hundreds of poor People depending on them, and their Trade, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Cloathing Trade of England is very much lessened and decayed by the great Exportation of our Wool; the late Prohibition of them in Flanders; by the high Duties on Oil, Soap, and Dyeing-stuff, whereby Foreigners undersell the English, they paying no such Duties; by the excessive Straining of our Cloth, which brings a Discredit upon it abroad; and by the great Numbers of other Tradesmen setting up the Cloathing Trade, imposing Hardships on the Labourers therein: And praying the Consideration of the House in the Premises, and Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Sevenokes Roads.

Mr. Campion, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for repairing the Highways from Sevenokes to Tonbridge, in the County of Kent: And the same was received.

Resolved, That the Bill be read upon Monday Morning next.

Transport Debt.

A Petition of William Beswick Master, and Richard Holder Merchant, both of them Part-owners of the Ship Mary, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Ship was hired, by the Commissioners for Transportation, in January 1693, and appraised upon Oath at 731*l.* 5*s.* and employed to transport about 290 Officers and Foot Soldiers, of Colonel Hamilton's Regiment, from Deptford to Ostend; where lying at Anchor, to get into that Harbour, the Officers, being very impatient to get on shore, commanded the Mariners to cut her Cables; but they refused, knowing the Danger of turning her in to Shore, and persuaded them to stay till the next Tide; which they would not: But one Captain Caine, the chief Officer on board, commanded the Soldiers to cut the Cables; which so soon as they had done, the said Ship drove ashore, and was utterly lost, but all the Men saved: That Beswick petitioned his Majesty for Satisfaction; who referred the Matter to the Transport Commissioners; who reported the Matter, as aforesaid; and that the Owners ought to have Satisfaction: Yet the said Commissioners have omitted to insert the Petitioners Debt in the Accounts of the Debt due for Transport Service, which they have delivered in to this House: And praying, That the Petitioners Debt may be paid with the rest of the Transport Debt.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

A Petition of the Dyers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the high Duties on Dye-stuff greatly discourages the Dyeing Trade in general; for that Foreigners have the same much cheaper, by reason of their own small Customs, and great Drawbacks from hence; whereby they are enabled to undersell the Petitioners; which, if not prevented, will shortly destroy the Dyers Trade, both at home and abroad: And praying, That the High Duties upon Dye-stuff may be taken off, so that thereby the Petitioners may work as cheap as other Nations, and redeem their lost Trade.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

The House being informed, That the Petition of Sir Alexander Rigby, touching the Election for the Borough of Wigan in the County of Lancaster, this Session, is different from that which was presented the last Sessions;

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Committee of Privileges and Elections, That they do examine, whether the Petition this Session be the same in Substance with that which was presented the last Sessions; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House: And that the Committee do proceed upon the same in the first Place.

Sir Richard Cocks reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for hindering Papists from disinheriting their Protestant Heirs was committed, That they had made several Amendments to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

A Petition of Martha Johnson, and Tha. Johnson and John Johnson, her Sons, and Frances Micklethwaite, her Daughter, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, being Creditors of the Fleet Prison, were, some time since, served with an Order from a Committee of this House, That they should lay before the Committee a stated Account, in Writing, of their Demands; which the Petitioners were willing to do: But their Agent being out of Town at the time appointed by the Committee for doing thereof, the Petitioners were incapacitated to perform the said Order: And praying, That they may have Liberty to lay before the House an Account of their said Incumbrance, which they have prepared, that they may not be postponed in their just Right.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom it was referred to state the Incumbrances upon the Prisons of the King's Bench and Fleet: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

A Petition of the Mayor, Jurats, Freemen, and chief Inhabitants, of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, One of the Cinque Ports, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Harbour of Rye is very advantageously situated, not only for the Benefit of Navigation in general, in saving many Ships

Duties on Dye-stuff.

Rye Harbour.

Ships by putting in there in bad Weather; but also for the Safety of his Majesty's Navy Royal, it being capable of being improved to be the best and largest Tide Harbour in England; it lying also opposite to divers French Ports, and may be a means to prevent an Enemy from infesting the English Coast: But the said Harbour is of late very much decayed and swerved with Slubb, occasioned by the Inning of Land, and making Walls cross the same, with Flood-gates and Sluices; so that the Tide cannot flow and reflow, as formerly; and, in all Likelihood, will be totally lost, unless some Measures be taken to prevent the same: And praying, That some Course may be taken for restoring the said Harbour to its ancient Goodness; and for improving it to the Advantage of the whole Nation.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

Mr. Godolphin, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of Silver exported since Michaelmas 1697; and also an Account of the Woollen Manufactures exported from the Port of London, with the Duties payable thereon, from Michaelmas 1697, to Michaelmas 1698, with the Duties payable thereon: And he acquainted the House, That the Account of the Indian Manufactures imported and exported in the Years 1698, and 1699, is preparing with all the Speed that can be.

The Titles of the said Accounts were read:

And the ACCOUNTS are as follow; viz.

The said Account of SILVER Exported.

Imports and Exports.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Accounts be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Dolphin
Ship.

Sir George Rook, from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, according to Order, presented to the House the Copies of the Orders for fitting out, and sailing, of the Ship Dolphin:

And the Titles thereof were read:

And the said Copies are as follow;

A Copy of an Order for fitting out the Ship Dolphin:
Admiralty Office, 29th June 98.

Gentlemen,

We do hereby desire and direct you to cause his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, at Portsmouth, to be, with all possible Dispatch, fitted out to Sea for a foreign Voyage, and manned with the lowest Complement of Men: And you are to order the Company of the said Ship to be borne and victualled aboard One of the Ships in ordinary at Portsmouth, during the Dolphin's refitting. So we remain

A Copy of an Order for putting the Officers and Company of the Dolphin on board some Ship in ordinary at Portsmouth, till they are paid off; and fitting the Dolphin for Sea; according to former Orders.

Admiralty Office, 18 July 1698.

Gentlemen,

Whereas we have lately granted a Commission for Captain Hunter to be Captain of his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin; we do hereby desire and direct you to cause Captain Humph. Blower, her late Commander, and all the Officers and Company belonging to the said Ship, excepting Captain Hunter, and the Warrant Officers, and their allowed Servants, to be put aboard some One of his Majesty's Ships in ordinary at Portsmouth, which you shall think most convenient, and borne there, both in Wages and Victuals, in the same manner as they were in the Dolphin, until they shall be paid off: And that the said Ship Dolphin be fitted for the Sea with all possible Dispatch, according to our late Orders to you. So we remain

Your affectionate Friends,

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon, dated the 16th January 1698, about Instructions for Captain Hunter.

The inclosed Request of the Earl of Macclesfield having been laid before the King; his Majesty commands me to send the same to your Lordships; and to acquaint you with his Majesty's Pleasure, That Captain Hunter being designed to command his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, in the Discovery of a considerable Wreck in the West Indies, his Majesty would have you consider of such Instructions as may be proper to be given to the said Captain for the due Performance of his Service.

A true Copy,

J. Burchett.

Instructions to Captain Hunter, Commander of his Majesty's Ship Dolphin, upon the Discovery of Wrecks in the West Indies, proposed by the Gentlemen concerned in the said Wrecks.

After you have received your Orders from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, you are to make the best of your Way to Barbadoes; and proceed from thence, with all Expedition. You are, in the First Place, to use the best of your Endeavours, to find out, and take up, such Wrecks as are contained and described in the several Papers you have left in the Hands of Samuel Traverse Esquire, for the Use and Benefit of all the Parties concerned; and afterwards such other Wrecks as you shall receive Intelligence of, pursuant to our Indenture with Sir James Houblon, and Company, by virtue of Letters Patents to his Grace the Duke of Schonberg and Leinster, between Twelve Degrees South and Forty Degrees North Latitude.

You are also, with the Consent of such Agent as we shall appoint, to contract with any Person or Persons for any new Discoveries within our due Limits, other than what is contained in your above mentioned Papers; and to allow him or them such a Share, not exceeding a Tenth Part, for such their Discovery, as you Two shall agree upon; which Share or Proportion, so contracted for between you Two and such Discoverer, is to be deducted out of the net Proceed of the said Discovery.

You are to keep a true Journal of your Proceedings; and an exact Account of all Treasure, &c. by you to be taken up; and to transmit the same to us, signed by yourself, yourself, and attested by his Majesty's Agent and ours, from time to time, by all Opportunities.

You are also to go or send to the Island of Jamaica once in Two or Three Months, Wind and Weather permitting, there to inquire for and receive such further Orders and Directions as we, from time to time, shall send you; which you are punctually to observe, having a due Regard to the Orders of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty; and also, by all Opportunities, to transmit us a true Account of all your Proceedings and Transactions relating to your Undertaking: And, in case of your Death, which God prevent, you are to leave all the Papers relating to this Undertaking with our Agent then on board you, the better to enable him to prosecute the said Undertaking, under the Command of such Persons as the said Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty shall appoint to succeed you.

You are not to inspect the Papers or Accounts of the Two Persons appointed Agents for the King, and the Persons concerned, without their Consent; and to permit them quietly to do their Business.

A true Copy,

J. Burchett.

A Copy of Instructions to Captain Hunter, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, 31 January 1698.

By the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of England, Scotland, and Ireland, &c.

Whereas his Majesty hath been pleased to order, That the Ship Dolphin, under your Command, shall be fitted out for an Expedition to the West Indies, in order to the taking up several Wrecks, which are contained and described in the several Papers which you have left in the Hands of Samuel Traverse Esquire, for the Use and Benefit of the Parties concerned therein; as also such other Wrecks as you shall receive Intelligence of, pursuant to the Indentures between the said Persons, and Sir James Houblon, and Company, by virtue of Letters Patents to his Grace the Duke of Schonberg, between Twelve Degrees South and Forty Degrees North Latitude:

You are therefore hereby required and directed forthwith to proceed on this Service, with the Ship under your Command; and, with all possible Care and Diligence, put in Execution, as well the Instructions from the Persons concerned, hereunto annexed, as what further Orders and Instructions shall be given you, from time to time, by them, in the fishing for, recovering, and disposing of, all, or any Part, of the said Wrecks, as you shall recover, that so his Majesty's Share thereof may be demanded and received.

When you have done what you are able, in the Performance of this Service, you are to return, with the Ship you command, to England, calling in at Plymouth for Orders; and, if you find none there to the contrary, you are to make the best of your Way to the Downes, and remain there till further Order, giving us an Account of your Proceedings.

You are to receive on board the Ship you command, such Person as the Right Honourable the Lords of his Majesty's Treasury shall appoint to take Care of the King's Share of the Wrecks, which shall be recovered; as also such other Person as the Parties concerned in the said Wrecks shall appoint to look after and manage their Affairs; allowing them Victuals during the time they shall be aboard you, as to your Ship's Company, and bearing them as Supernumeraries on your Books.

You are, by all Opportunities you shall meet with, to send this Board an Account of your Proceedings; and, during the whole Term of the Voyage, you are to take particular Care not to annoy any of his Majesty's Ships, or those of his Allies, but rather to give them what Assistance you can, without Hindrance or Prejudice to the Affair whereon you are employed.

And, for the better lengthening out your Provision, you are to put the Men under your Command, when you come out of the Chanel, to Six to Four Mens Allowance, assuring them, that they shall be punctually paid for the same at the End of the Voyage.

VOL. 13.

Dated at the Admiralty Office, the 31st of January 1698.

To Captain Collin Hunter,
Commander of his Majesty's Ship Dolphin.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Secretary Vernon, dated the 30th of January 1698.

I have laid before his Majesty your Lordship's Letter of the 23d Instant, with the inclosed Copies of Instructions for the Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, as well from your Lordship, as from the Persons concerned in the Wrecks that are to be fished up; whereupon his Majesty hath commanded me to acquaint you, That he approves of the said Instructions.

A true Copy,

J. Burchett.

Ordered, That the said Copies do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of this House.

A Petition of the English Company trading to the East Indies was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are the greatest Part of the Subscribers intitled to the sole Trade to the East Indies, after a certain time, by virtue of an Act of Parliament for raising Two Millions upon a Fund for Payment of Annuities; and the Petitioners are accordingly incorporated: That the Old East India Company were, by the said Act, to continue their Trade to India no longer than the 29th of September 1701; according to which limited Time, and the Power reserved by his Majesty in their Charter, his Majesty sent them Notice of their Determination: And the Consideration, that his Majesty had no Power to erect any other Company to trade to India with a Joint Stock but the One Company aforesaid, was the Inducement for the Petitioners to make the said Loan: That the Petitioners are informed, the Old East India Company have petitioned this House upon divers Suggestions for continuing them a Corporation for the Management of a Subscription of 315,000*l.* made by Mr. John Dubois, in Trust for them: And that the House hath given Leave to bring in a Bill for that Purpose, which is ordered a Second Reading: That the said Bill is directly contrary to the said Act of Parliament; destructive of the Petitioners Rights; and the erecting another Corporation, to trade with a Joint Stock, will be dishonourable and disadvantageous to the English Nation, and Interest in the East Indies, and other foreign Parts: And praying, That they may be heard at the Bar of the House, before the said Bill do pass.

Ordered, That the Petitioners be heard, by their Counsel, at the Bar of this House, upon Wednesday Morning next, against the Bill for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading to the East Indies a Corporation, upon the Second Reading thereof: And that the Counsel for the Old East India Company be heard, at the same time, for the said Bill.

A Petition of several Persons, on behalf of themselves, and many others, who advanced to his Majesty the Sum of 564,700*l.* upon the Credit of an Act of Parliament, made in the 6th and 7th Years of his Majesty's Reign, for granting to his Majesty certain Rates and Duties upon Stone, Glass, Earthen Wares, Coals, and Culin, for the Term of Five Years, for carrying on the War against France, empowering his Majesty to borrow the said Sum, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, to encourage Persons to lend the said Money, there was a Clause in the said Act, That what should fall short to pay Principal and Interest by the said Fund, should be paid out of the next Aids to be granted by Parliament: That, the then next Session, the Duties on Stone, Glass, and

Duty on Stone, &c.

and Earthen Wares, were appropriated for establishing a national Land Bank, and the Duty on Coals was quite taken off, without the Petitioners Consent; which would have fully paid them; so that they were left without any Security: That the next Session, in the 8th and 9th Years of his Majesty's Reign, a Duty was laid upon Leather, for Three Years, for Payment of the Petitioners; and a Clause for transferring the Deficiency, to be made good out of the First Aids to be given by Parliament: That, in the 9th and 10th Years of the King, a Duty was laid on Coals and Culin again, for raising 500,000*l.*: And the Petitioners then petitioned the House, That they might be restored to their First Security; but their Petition was not received: That the Duty on Leather has not paid off any Principal for above 12 Months past, and will expire the 20th of April next; whereby the Petitioners will not have any Fund for Repayment of their said Debt; wherein, they conceive, the Credit of the Nation is highly concerned; and praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration: And that they may be restored to their First Security; or that some other effectual Provision may be made for Repayment of their said just Debt, and Interest.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty; to whom the Account of Deficiencies, not already provided for, is referred.

Woollen Manufactures.

A Petition of the Mayor, Burgesses, Assistants, Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Sergemakers, Weavers, Fullers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, that the sole Dependence of the said Town, and Parts adjacent, is upon the Woollen Manufactures; which Trade is generally decayed by Exporting of Wool, and the Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures in Flanders; occasioned by the great Duties on their Linens, and other their Manufactures imported hither: And praying the House to find some Expedient for redressing the same.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, to whom it is referred to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and, particularly, to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Clothiers, Weavers, and other the Inhabitants of the Town of Bampton, and Parts adjacent, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Trade of the Woollen Manufactory is, of late, very much decayed; and thereby many Thousand Persons, who used to maintain themselves, are reduced to Poverty; occasioned by the Exporting of Wool, and the Prohibition of the English Woollen Manufactures in Flanders, and the great Duties here on their Linens imported: And praying the Consideration of the House for redressing their Grievances.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, to whom it is referred to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and, particularly, to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Exporting Corn, &c.

Sir Thomas Cook, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for prolonging the Time for prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Starch: And the same was received.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Bill be read upon Monday Morning next; It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the said Bill be read upon Wednesday Morning next.

Order for keeping clear Lobby, &c.

Ordered, That the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, and his Messengers, do take all Care possible to keep the Lobby, and Passages, and Stairs of the House, clear from all loose, idle, and disorderly Persons.

Ordered, That Sir Christopher Wren do open the little Pair of Stairs to the House, lately closed up.

Little Pair of Stairs to be opened.

Ordered, That the Bill for cleansing, and making and keeping more navigable, the River Ouze, be read upon Monday Morning next.

Ouze Navigation.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and, particularly, to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

State of Trade.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Colonel Granville took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Colonel Granville reported from the said Committee, That they had come to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the said Report be made upon Monday Morning next.

Colonel Granville also acquainted the House, That the Committee had directed him to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and, particularly, to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Ordered, That the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time upon Tuesday Sevensnight.

Hamborough Company.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

Lunæ, 29<sup>o</sup> die Januarii;

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of the Clothiers of Stroudwater, and others of the County of Gloucester, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they conceive the Commissioners appointed, by an Act made in the First Year of his Majesty's Reign, for preventing the Exportation of Wool, were disabled from putting the same in Execution for want of a Fund to support the Charge of so great an Undertaking; but the said Commissioners, at the earnest Solicitation of the Petitioners, have, at their own Expence, done their utmost to put the Laws in Execution; and have made many considerable Seizures of Wool, and discovered many notorious Offenders; whereby the Petitioners are very sensible the Woollen Trade has received Advantage, and would receive a further Benefit, were the said Commissioners encouraged by a public Supply of a moderate Tax to be laid upon Wool, which the Petitioners would willingly pay, if the House shall please to lay the same: And praying the House to take the Premises into Consideration.

Exporting Wool.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

A Petition of Sir Jacob Banks Knight, and Dame Mary his Wife, Lords of the Manor of Somerford, contiguous to the Sea, near Christ Church, in the County of Southampton, and of the Freeholders, Tenants, Fishermen, and Inhabitants of the said Manor, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Undertakers for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, appointed by Act of Parliament made in the 16th and 17th Years of the Reign of King Charles the II<sup>d</sup>, have not since been able to make the same navigable, to any Advantage to themselves, nor the Country;

Avon Navigation.

Country; but, on Pretence of making the Haven below Christ Church better, they made a Cut from the Sea; whereby the Sand is brought in, and the Haven is much worse, and like to be choaked up for want of the Current through its old Passage: They have also built a House, now an Alehouse, on the ancient Landing Place by the Haven, being the Waste of the said Manor, without any Leave or Satisfaction; and an Ejectment being brought for the same, by the then Lady of the Manor, the Undertakers procured some of their Commissioners to make a Decree for their enjoying the House, and also Two Acres of Land more adjoining, paying only 4*d.* per Annum to the Proprietors, although the same was of considerable Value to the Petitioners for several Uses: And the said new Cut hath occasioned the Lands of the said Manor to waste away more than formerly; and spoiled a Fishing of considerable yearly Value to the Petitioners, and the Support of many poor Families: That the present Undertakers, being certain Persons in New Sarum, by Colour of some Orders made by some of the Commissioners, have demanded of the Petitioners unreasonable Duties for exporting and importing Goods at the Haven from the ancient Landing Place, to the great Hindrance of Trade at Somerford; and have also laid many Fines for not cutting the Weeds in the said River; and, by many unjust Pretences, exact what they can, finding they are never like to make any Advantage by the Navigation; yet have obtained Leave to bring in a Bill for making the Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, more effectual; to enlarge the Undertakers Power on the said River, to the Prejudice of the Petitioners: And praying the House to redress the Injuries done to the Petitioners, in such manner as shall be thought meet.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by the Committee thereupon.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Parish of Ellingham, near the River Avon, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Undertakers for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the 16 and 17th Years of King Charles the II<sup>d</sup>, have not been able to effect the same to any Advantage to themselves, or the Country; but have much injured many People by procuring great Fines to be laid on them for not cutting the Weeds in the said River, and many other causeless Pretences; and, for the more easy Recovery of such Fines, have brought a Bill into this House, upon Pretence of making the said River more navigable, and for enlarging the Powers of the former Act, which already have been very injurious to the Country: And praying, That the Petitioners may be secured against all unreasonable Demands of the Undertakers; and that they may be heard against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by the Committee thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Ringwood, near the River Avon, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by an Act of Parliament, made in the 16 and 17th Years of the Reign of King Charles the II<sup>d</sup>, for making navigable the River Avon from Christ Church to New Sarum, Undertakers were appointed to effect the same; which they have not yet done, to any Advantage to themselves, or the Country; whom they have hitherto very much injured by treading down the Grass, and spoiling the Ground near the River, without making any Satisfaction; and sometimes have gotten Decrees for their Land at an Under-value; and have procured Fines to be laid for not cutting the Weeds in the said River, though they were no Prejudice to the Undertakers, or any body else; by which, and many other causeless Pretences, the Act, which was designed to be for the Good of the Country, is converted to their Oppression; and there is a Bill in the House for making the Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, more effectual; the chief Design whereof being to enlarge the Power of the Undertakers, and for the more easy Recovery of such unjust Fines and Taxes as are or shall be laid by them, the Petitioners pray, That they may be secured, and heard against the same.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by the Committee thereupon.

A Petition of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Sopley, Ripley, and Avon, near Christ Church, and the River Avon, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Undertakers for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, by an Act made in the 16 and 17th Years of King Charles the II<sup>d</sup>, have not been able to effect the same to any Advantage; but have made the Haven worse, and committed great Injuries to Landowners near the said River, without making any Satisfaction; and the new Undertakers have procured the Commissioners for putting the said Act in Execution to lay several unreasonable Fines on the Petitioners, and others, for not cutting the Weeds, and keeping up ancient Weirs on the River, which are no Prejudice to the Navigation; and demand Duties for exporting and importing Goods at the ancient Haven below Christ Church, to the great Oppression of the Country; and the Undertakers, finding they are like to have no other Benefit by the said Navigation, have procured Leave to bring a Bill into the House for making the Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, more effectual; the Design whereof is to empower them the more easily to recover their unreasonable Demands, and enlarge their Powers, that they may be more vexatious to the Petitioners, and the whole Country: And praying, That they may be secured against all Exactions of the Undertakers; and be heard to shew their Reasons against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by the Committee thereupon.

The House being informed, That the Deputy of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital attended at the Door; Hospital.

He was called in: And, at the Bar, presented to the House an Account of the Receipts and Payments made by John Evelyn Esquire, as Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital. And then withdrew.

Importing wrought Silks, &c.

A Petition of divers Yarn-makers, Combers, and others, concerned in the Woollen Manufacture in the County of Norfolk, on the behalf of themselves, and many Thousand poor People, who have their Dependence on them, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by the great Quantity of East India wrought Silks, Stuffs mixed with Silk, Bengalls, and printed Calicoes, worn in this Kingdom, the Trade of the Woollen Manufacture is very much prejudiced, to the Impoverishing of the Petitioners; and, unless some Restraint be laid upon those Manufactures of India, far greater Quantities will be imported, and worn in his Majesty's Dominions, to the Ruin of the Petitioners: And praying Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Trade to Germany.

A Petition of several Gentlemen, Clothiers, and others, concerned in and for the Woollen Manufactory in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Foreigners, having of late Years, been permitted to export the Woollen Manufactures upon equal Terms with English Merchants, have gotten the greatest Part of that Trade to Holland and Flanders; and that Trade to Germany is in great Danger of falling into their Hands also, if some further Encouragement be not given to English Merchants to export our Woollen Manufactures thither, and thereby the Danger of their being debased by Foreigners, who export them almost wholly unmanufactured, may be prevented: And praying, That Provision may be made, for encouraging his Majesty's natural-born Subjects to export our Woollen Manufactures to Germany, and keeping that Trade from falling into the Hands of Foreigners.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Privilege — a Person petitions for Discharge.

A Petition of John Haynes, in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, for being the Occasion of writing a false and scandalous Letter, touching the Charge of the Committee Rooms, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, having had great Losses in Trade, is utterly incapable to pay such Fees as may accrue upon his long Confinement; and that he is heartily sorry for having given any Offence to the House: And praying, That he may be discharged out of Custody.

Ordered, That the said John Haines be brought to the Bar upon Wednesday Morning next, in order to his Discharge.

Exporting Wool from Ireland.

A Petition of the Merchants and others, Traders and Dealers in Wool, in and about the City and County of Exon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Government of Ireland will not permit any Wool to be laden there, without paying to Mr. Tho. Putland, of Dublin, 21 l. 5 s. for every thousand Stone of Wool exported thence into England; pretending the same is for Licence Money and Certificates; which is to the great Detriment of the Petitioners, and contrary to an Act made the last Session of Parliament, to prevent the Exportation of Wool out of Ireland and England into foreign Parts; and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in this Kingdom: And praying the Relief of the House for preventing the like Abuses for the future.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter; and state the same to the House:

And it is referred to Sir Edward Seymour, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. Colson, Mr. Hysham, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Mr. Bertié, Mr. Tredenham, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Clayton, Sir Jacob Banks, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Methwyn, Mr. England, Sir Robert Dacres, Mr. Thursby, Mr. Hayes, Sir Barth. Shore, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Yates, Mr. Hughes, Mr.

Vol. 13.

Boscawen, Mr. Dryden, Lord Fairfax, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Proby, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Blofeld, Sir Wm. Scawen; and all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers; And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

A Petition of the Merchants and others, Traders and Dealers in Wool, in and about the Town of Barnstable, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, notwithstanding an Act, made the last Session of Parliament, to prevent the Exportation of Wool out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into foreign Parts, ordering Licences to be taken from the Custom-houses in England to bring Wool hither from Ireland; yet the Government of Ireland will not permit any Wool to be laden there, without paying 21 l. 5 s. for every Thousand Stone of Wool exported thence into England; pretending such Imposition is for Licence Money and Certificates; which is contrary to Law, as the Petitioners are advised, who pay his Majesty's Customs in Ireland also: And praying, That the like Abuses may be prevented for the future, being very detrimental to the Petitioners in the Way of their Trades.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee: And that they do examine the Matter; and state the same to the House.

A Petition of several Inhabitants of the City of Rochester in the County of Kent, on behalf of themselves, and many others, Inhabitants of the said City, and Places adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners cheerfully underwent the Difficulties of the late War, and gave Quarters to many Thousands of sick and wounded Seamen; which caused the Petitioners to run in Debt for their Supply; and for which many Suits have been brought against them, although there is near 10,000 l. due to them from the Government; for want of which the Petitioners are very much prejudiced in their Trade and Credit: That the last Payment was made them in blank Malt Tickets; which, by reason of the great Discount upon them, they cannot pass away, without a much greater Loss than the Petitioners can bear: And praying the House to take their Necessities into Consideration, and to relieve them as shall be thought fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That the Bill for repairing the Highways Sevenokes from Sevenokes to Tonbridge in the County of Kent be read upon Wednesday Morning next.

Ordered, That the Bill for cleansing, and making and keeping more navigable, the River Ouze, be read upon Wednesday Morning next.

Packington, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Molineux, Mr. Mountstevens, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Shackerly; or any Five of them: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are to have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Dalham, &c.
Manors.

Sir Rowland Gwyn, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the Sale of the Manors of Dalham cum Dunstall, and Abbotts, in Denham in the County of Suffolk: And the same was received.

Resolved, That the Bill be read upon Thursday Morning next.

Taylor's Petition.

A Petition of Catherine Taylor, the late Widow of William Rutter, who was hanged by the East India Company at St. Helena, in behalf of herself, and Four Children, was presented to the House.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table, and be read upon Wednesday Morning next.

Supply Bill;
Land Tax.

Mr. Conyers, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for granting an Aid to his Majesty for maintaining his Majesty's Navy, Guards and Garrisons; and towards paying the Debts due to Seamen; and for other necessary Occasions: And the same was received; and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Thursday Morning next.

State of Trade.

Colonel Granville, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom; the Resolutions, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, for the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom, a further Duty be laid upon all wrought Silks and Stuffs, and painted and stained Callicoes, from East India.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, for further encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom, all Duties upon Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures be taken off.

Ordered, That the further Consideration of the said Report be adjourned until Wednesday Morning next.

Old East
India Company.

Ordered, That the Second Reading the Bill for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading to the East Indies, a Corporation, and the hearing the Counsel thereupon, be adjourned until Thursday Morning next.

A Message from the Lords, by Sir John Franchlyn and Sir Robert Legard: D'Harcourts, &c. Nat.

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act for the Naturalization of Oliver D'Harcourt, and others: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Bill for the applying all the forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland; and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown within that Kingdom, since the 13th Day of February 1688; to the Use of the Publick. Resolved, That this House will, upon this Day Seven-night, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the said Bill.

Ordered, That Mr. Greenhill and Mr. Brotherton be added to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the poor Prisoners in the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons is referred. Insolvent Debtors.

And then the House adjourned till Wednesday Morning next, Eight a Clock.

Mercurii, 31<sup>a</sup> die Januarii;

11<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

ORDERED, That the Consideration of the several Petitions relating to Half-pay, which have been presented to the House, be referred to the Committee, to whom the Papers relating to Half-pay are referred. Half-pay.

A Petition of William Lenthall Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill depending in this House, for paying of the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison; wherein there is a Debt pretended to be due from the Petitioner to the Earl of Radnor, of 20,140 l. against which the Petitioner hath many Reasons to offer, that there is not so much due, by 8,000 l. at least, if truly stated: And praying, that he may be heard by Counsel, what he hath to object against so great a Sum, wherewith he is so charged; and that the Petitioner may not be divested of his Inheritance upon the Suggestions in the said Bill. King's Bench Prison.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Mr. White, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for naturalizing Theodore Jacobson, William Brown, and Sarah Haskinstiles: And the same was received; and read the First time. Jacobson's, &c. Nat.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by Act of Parliament, made in the 16 and 17th Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper, of England, had Power to appoint, by Commission, such Persons as he should think fit, to be Undertakers to carry on the said Navigation; and accordingly Commissions have issued, and the Right and Title of the said Undertaking is come unto the Persons named in the Bill. Avon Navigation.

Bill depending in this House, for making the Act, for making the River Avon from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum navigable, more effectual; but, by reason of some Defects in the former Act, the said Navigation hath been retarded, though brought to some Perfection; on the finishing whereof the Trade of the said City doth greatly depend: And praying, That the said Bill may pass, being for a publick Good, and no Disadvantage to any Person whatsoever.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Council, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Avon
Navigation.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Tradesmen, and Inhabitants, of the Town and Parish of Fordingbridge, near the River Avon, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That although Undertakers were appointed by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the 16 and 17th of King Charles the Second, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum; yet they have not effected the same, nor are ever like to do it; but have done Abundance of Damage to the Persons whose Lands lie near the said River, without making them Satisfaction; and also pretend to lay Fines on Persons, on divers causeless Pretences, designing, by such unjust means, to exact what they can from the Country, finding they are like to make no Advantage any other Way by the Navigation; whereby the said Act is become oppressive to the Country; and, the better to recover such unreasonable Fines, they would, by a Bill depending in the House, for making the Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum, more effectual, be impowered further to be troublesome to the Country: And praying, That they may be secured against all Injuries and Demands of the Undertakers, and be heard against passing of the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the said Committee, thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Parish of Ibsly, near the River Avon, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That an Act of Parliament was made in the 16 and 17th Years of King Charles the Second, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, by Undertakers for that Purpose, who have not since been able to effect the same, or do any manner of Good therein, nor are ever like to do it; but have done a great many Injuries to those who have Lands near the said River, by treading down their Grass, and spoiling their Grounds, without any Satisfaction; and have laid, and demand, many unreasonable Fines and Amercements for not cutting the Weeds in the River, though they are no Prejudice to the Undertakers, or any body else; and, by many other causeless Pretences, they oppress the Country, designing to exact what they can by such unjust Means, finding they are like to make no Advantage any other ways by the said Navigation: That there is a Bill in this House for making the said Act more effectual; which is designed only to enable the Undertakers to recover their unjust Demands more easily, and to give them further Powers on the said River; which already hath been extended to the Wrong of many People: And praying, That the Petitioners may be secured against all Demands of the said Undertakers, and be heard against the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

Ditto.

A Petition of several Traders, Masters of Vessels, and Mariners, in and near Christ Church, in the County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read;
VOL. 13.

setting forth, That, Time out of Mind, there has been a small Creek or Haven below the said Town, to which Three or Four small Vessels of the Petitioners, and others, belonged, for carrying Corn, and other Commodities, for the Use of the Country thereabouts, where they used a Place in Somerford Manor, by the Haven, for lading and unlading Goods; but now a small Key and Alehouse is built thereon, by Undertakers for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the 16 and 17th Years of King Charles the Second's Reign; who have also made a new Cut from the Sea to the said Haven, with Design, as pretended, to make a new and better Haven; but the Undertakers, finding the Work impossible, left the same off, and made the Haven worse, and more dangerous Passage by the new Cut, whereby the Sand is brought in, and the Haven like to be utterly spoiled for want of the Current through the Old Passage; and the Petitioners have received no manner of Advantage by what the Undertakers have done; yet they, by Colour of Orders made by their Commissioners, demand, and have sued the Petitioners for, great Duties and Fines for using the said Haven, and for not cutting the Weeds in the said River, although the Petitioners conceive it was not intended, that the Undertakers Power, by the said Act, should extend below Christ Church, where the River was navigable before: That the Bill in the House, for making the said Act more effectual, is only to enable the Undertakers to recover such their unjust Taxations, and to give them a further Power, than they had before by the said former Act: And praying, That they may be relieved against all Fines and Demands of the Undertakers, and be heard against passing of the said Bill.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed: And that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

A Bill for the erecting a Judicature to relieve poor Officers and Soldiers, touching their Pay detained from them, and other Injuries complained of, was read a Second time. Judicature for Relief of Officers and Soldiers.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Thursby, Mr. Brotherton, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Dyot, Mr. England, Mr. Blofeld, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Pelham, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Harvey, Mr. Hughes, Sir Edw. Hussey, Mr. Campion, Mr. Hayes, Sir Robert Davers, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Hamond, Mr. Bagot, Mr. Yates, Mr. Orme, Sir Tho. Wagstaffe, Sir Theop. Oglethorp, Mr. Fleming, Sir Robert Eden, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Sir Jo. Packington, Sir Wm. Cook, Colonel Drake, Mr. England, Colonel Perry: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Mr. John Haynes was, according to Order, brought to the Bar: Where he, upon his Knees, received a Reprimand from Mr. Speaker. A Person reprimanded and discharged.

Ordered, That the said Mr. Haines be discharged out of Custody, paying his Fees.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Commissioners for the Repair of Dover Harbour was referred, be made upon Saturday Morning next. Dover Harbour.

A Bill for cleansing, making, and keeping more navigable, the River Ouze, was read the First time. Ouze Navigation.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of Edward Mansell, of Hen-Llys, in the County of Glamorgan, Esquire, and Margaret his Wife, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner's Father, upon the Marriage of the Petitioners, did settle upon them, and their Heirs, in Tail Male, the Rectories impropriate of Llanridian and Penrice; and, for want of Issue Male, in Trust to raise Two thousand Pounds for Daughters Portions: That the Father
T t

Father was also seised of the Manor of Hen-Llys, which was not settled upon the said Marriage; and, about Five Years since, died, leaving the same subject to a Debt of above Three thousand Pounds; as also a Charge by the said Deed of Two thousand Pounds, for the Petitioners Daughter or Daughters: That the Petitioners have only a Son and Daughter, and are desirous to pay and secure the said Debt and Portion with the most Ease and Conveniency to the Family: Therefore they pray, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for Sale of the said Rectories of Llanridian and Penrice, for Payment of the said Debt and Portion; and, in lieu thereof, to settle the Manor of Hen-Llys, and other Lands, of equal Value, and more convenient, to the same Uses, as the said Rectories were settled by the said Marriage Settlement.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Price and Sir Edward Strudling do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Lark
Navigation.

A Bill for making the River Lark, alias Burn, navigable, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Sir Robert Davers, Sir Wm. Gostwick, Mr. Harvey, Lord Edward Russel, Mr. Boscawen, Mr. White, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Hammond, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Harley, Mr. England, Lord Chenie, Sir Richard Temple, Lord Downes, Mr. Buller, Mr. Fox, Sir Isaac Rebow, Mr. Mounstevens, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Blofeild, Mr. Gerard, Sir Rushout Cullen, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Sandford, Mr. Eyres, Mr. Tredenham, Sir Rich. Farrington, Mr. Milbank, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Isham, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Shackerly, Mr. Brereton, Sir John Bolles, Mr. Gwynn, Sir John Thorold, Mr. Campion, Mr. Dryden, Mr. England, Mr. Proby, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Rayner; and all that serve for the Counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, and Cambridge: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Capital Burgesses of Wisbech, Justices of Peace, Deputy Lieutenants, and other chief Inhabitants and Freeholders of the Towns of Wisbech, Newton, Leverington, Tyd, St. Giles, Elme, Upwen, Outwell, Guy-Horne, Parson, Drove, and Murrow, in the Isle of Ely, and County of Cambridge, on behalf of themselves, and the rest of the Inhabitants of the said Town, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Towns, and Country adjacent, for above Ten Miles Compass, for the most Part, consists of Pasture, Marsh, and Fen Lands, the Produce whereof is mostly for feeding of Cattle, Butter, Cheese, and Summer Crops of Oats; and they being supplied with Wheat, Rye, and Malt, from other Countries, especially from St. Edmund's-bury, and the Parts of Suffolk adjoining, by way of Return, for want of Navigation to and from thence, their interchangeable Supply becomes very chargeable, and, in Winter Time, by Badness of the Way, impracticable: And praying the Consideration of the House therein, That the Bill depending in the House, for making the River Lark, alias Burn, navigable, may pass into an Act.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition; and also of the Petition of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough and Port of Lyn Regis in the County of Norfolk, which lies on the Table; be referred to the said Committee.

Passage from Chancerylane to Lincoln's Inn Fields.

A Petition of several Inhabitants in and about Lincoln's Inn, Lincoln's Inn Fields, Chancery Lane, and the Places adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Passage, called Jackanapes Alley, leading from the City of London through Chancery Lane to Lincoln's Inn Fields, and Places adjacent, is a Thoroughfare of great Resort and Use, and, by daily Experience, found to be inconvenient, and dangerous to all Persons passing that Way: And though an Act of Parliament was made in the 13th and 14th Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, to redress the same; yet, by reason no Provision was therein made to purchase Ground for another Passage, the old Passage still remains a Nuisance: But there are some old Buildings situate between the Sun Coffee House Passage and the Six Clerks Office, which the Proprietors are willing to sell at reasonable Rates, for making a convenient Passage, and which would afford Convenience for a double Row of Carts and Coaches to pass at once between Chancery Lane and the said Fields, and Places adjacent: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the speedy and effectual making a convenient Way out of Chancery Lane into Lincoln's Inn Fields, and Places adjacent, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Harley do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Thanks of this House be given to Mr. Stephens, for the Sermon preached by him Yesterday before them at St. Margaret's, Westminster;

Motion for thanking Mr.
Stephens for his Sermon.

It passed in the Negative.

Neg.
Recommendation of Preachers before the House.

Resolved, That, for the future, no Person be recommended to preach before this House, who is under the Dignity of a Dean in the Church, or hath not taken his Degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Sir Rowland Gwyn reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Resolution of the said Committee, touching the Petitions relating to the Election for the Borough of Wigan in the County of Lancaster; which they had directed him to report to the House: Which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Wigan
Election.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petition of Sir Alexander Rigby, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the Borough of Wigan in the County of Lancaster, is not the same in Substance with the Petition from the said Sir Alexander Rigby, presented to the House of Commons last Session of Parliament, relating to the said Election.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Petition of Sir Alexander Rigby, presented to the House of Commons this Session of Parliament, touching the late Election for the Borough of Wigan in the County of Lancaster, is not the same in Substance with the Petition from the said Sir Alexander Rigby, presented to the House of Commons last Sessions of Parliament, relating to the said Election.

Ordered, That the Committee of Privileges and Elections do not proceed any further upon the said Petition touching the said Election.

Ordered, That the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison; and for Dissolution of the said Prison; be read a Second time upon Saturday next, at Twelve a Clock.

King's Bench
Prison.

Mr. Tracerse, according to Order, presented to the House Copies of several Petitions and Reports relating to Grants, made the last Year: And the Titles thereof were read.

Grants from the Crown.

They are in several Bundles.

Ordered, That the said Copies do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

The House, according to Order, resumed the adjourned Consideration of Monday last, of the Report from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

And

And the First Resolution of the said Committee being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made in the said Resolution, by leaving out "a further Duty to be laid upon;" and inserting, at the End thereof, "be prohibited being worn in England."

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, so amended, That, for the encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom, all wrought Silks and Stuffs, and painted and stained Callicoes, from East India, be prohibited being worn in England.

The Second Resolution being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made therein, by adding, "and Fees;"

And the Question being put, That the House do agree to the said Amendment;

It passed in the Negative.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That, for further encouraging and improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom, all Duties upon Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures be taken off.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in upon the said First Resolution: And that Mr. Petham, Mr. Blofeld, Sir Richard Onslow, and Mr. Mountague, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in upon the said Second Resolution: And that the same Gentlemen do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That the Bill for prolonging the Time for prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Starch, be read To-morrow, after the hearing of Counsel at the Bar upon the Bill for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading to the East Indies, a Corporation.

A Motion being made, and the Question being put, That all Committees be adjourned;

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That Sir Richard Farrington, Sir Cha. Turner, Mr. Gorge, Mr. Yates, Mr. Bertie, Sir Wm. Blackett, Sir John Turner, be added to the Committee, to whom it is referred to consider what Laws are expired, and near expiring, and fit to be continued.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Jovis, 1<sup>o</sup> die Februarii;

11<sup>o</sup> Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

ORDERED, That Sir Richard Cocks, Lord Cornbury, Sir John Packington, Mr. Dore, Sir Edward Hussey, be added to the Committee appointed to inspect the Papers relating to the Half-pay.

A Petition of several Seamen's Widows, and others, in behalf of themselves, and others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That many of the Petitioners have, for several Years, been Supplicants to the Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, for taking off Q's and R's on Seamen's Wages; some being queried when they were put sick on Shore, and the Ship whereto they belonged sailed before their Recovery; others, wholly disabled, are so used; and others, by unexpected Accidents when on Shore, have been left by their Ships, and come to their Friends for Relief, for which they are made Run; by which, and less Reasons, the Seamen, though many now in the Service, have been marked as Deserters, and debarred from their Pay, to the utter Ruin of themselves and Families; wherein they have hitherto been remediless: And praying, That some speedy Means may be exhibited, whereby the Q's and R's may be taken off.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, to whom other Petitions relating to Q's and R's are referred.

A Petition of the Mayor, Magistrates, Common Council, Merchants, principal Inhabitants, and others, the most considerable Traders in the Woollen Manufactures in and about the Borough of Plimouth, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners finding, by the Votes of this House, That Leave is given to bring in a Bill for the supporting the Hamborough Company, they beg Leave to represent, That Experience demonstrates, that the Woollen Manufacture Trade, when attended with Freedom, diffuseth itself through all the Markets of Europe; for which Reason this House hath justly discouraged Monopolies; and the Petitioners have found, whilst the Trade hath been unconfined, that many Buyers have occasioned such a current Price, and speedy Payment, as hath enabled them not only to support their own Families, and employ great numbers of the Poor, but also great . . . to increase his Majesty's Revenue: And praying, that the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures may remain unconstrained, and free from obliging the private Interest of the Hamborough Company only.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second Time.

Sir George Rook, from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, presented to the House their Report touching the Q's and R's; and also touching the Blackwell-hall Sloop: And the same are as follow; viz.

The Report about Q's and R's.

The Honourable House of Commons having been pleased to refer unto such of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, as are Members of the said House, Two Petitions, presented unto them, relating to the Q's and R's put on Seamen for deserting his Majesty's Service, in order to our considering thereof, and reporting their Case; we have, in pursuance thereof, taken the same into Consideration; and do report as follows:

As to the R's;

That it hath been the Practice of the Navy, Time out of Mind, for the Commanders of his Majesty's Ships to make Men Run, who desert the Service; and that not only the Commanders of his Majesty's Ships, but likewise all the Clerks of the Cheque, and Muster-masters of the Navy, have, in all Times past, been obliged thereto by their Instructions; by which Desertions all their Wages, as well for Ships they have served in formerly, so far as the same could be discovered, as for the Ships they left, have been ever reckoned to be forfeited to his Majesty; and the utmost Care enjoined by the Lord High Admiral, upon all Officers concerned, to exact the same, for deterring the Seamen from leaving his Majesty's Ship's, and thereby disabling them for Service by such their Desertion.

In pursuance whereof, a strict Observance of the said Rules hath not only been exacted from the said Commanders, Clerks of the Cheque, and Muster-masters, but also from the Clerks of the Ticket Office, who have the Inspection of the Sea Books; by which great Sums of Money have been saved to his Majesty, and many Thousands of Seamen, we believe, kept in the Service.

As to the Q's:

They were established by an Order from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty of the 23d of March 1690, upon some Proposals presented to their Lordships by a Council of War held at Chatham, by the Flag Officers, and Commanders of his Majesty's Fleet, for obliging the Seamen, when put sick on Shore, to return into the Service when recovered; by which Orders Provision was made for the Benefit of the Seamen, as well as the Service; since which Establishment such Men as have been put sick on Shore, and did not return to their Ships upon Recovery, or to some other of his Majesty's Ships, have been esteemed as Deserters.

It is true, numerous Complaints are made by Petitions for Relief in both; and therefore several Clerks are, and have been for some Years past, constantly employed in the Navy Office, to examine and state their Cases from the Sea Books, &c.: and the Navy Board do meet Two or Three times a Week, or oftener, if Occasion do require it, to consider and answer the said Petitions: Which Business is carried on not only with all possible Dispatch, but also with as much Tenderness to the Seamen, as their Cases will admit of; it being impossible, whatever may be suggested by slanderous Tongues, for any Advantage to arise to any body by a contrary Proceeding.

All Persons are relieved, who can, by credible Testimony, make it appear, That their leaving his Majesty's Ships was not with an Intention to desert them.

In R's, such as were on Shore by Leave, and were imprest for other Ships:

Taken sick, and left behind their Ships; and when recovered either did, or offered to, return to the Service:

Left behind by the sudden sailing of their Ships; and either did, or offered to, return to the Service again in any reasonable time:

Arrested in Actions of Debt, and, by that means, left behind their Ships, &c.

In Q's, such as, after Recovery, entered themselves on board any of his Majesty's Ship's:

Died in sick Quarters, Hospitals, or Hospital Ships:

Have been wounded or hurt, and received Pensions or Smart-money for the same:

Continued Six Months or upwards in sick Quarters, or Hospitals, or have been discharged thence incurable:

The Commanders have discharged by Ticket, Sick, Lame, Blind, Infirm, or otherwise unfit for his Majesty's Service:

Have been imprest from sick Quarters before recovered; and any other Case shewing their Absence to be involuntary, and to happen from some extraordinary Occasion.

A general Order for taking off all Q's and R's, at once, we therefore take to be the Prayer of these Petitions; and we must confess that will ease the Navy Office of the most clamorous and troublesome Business that belongs to it: But how far the Service of the King and Kingdom would be affected thereby, as to the Discipline of the Navy, and Increase of the Debt, is what is to be considered.

Indeed, as to the Discipline, by an Act of Parliament of the 13th of King Charles the II<sup>d</sup>, intituled, An Act for the Establishing Articles and Orders for the Regulating, and better Governing, his Majesty's Navies, Ships of War, and Forces by Sea, Article the 17th, all Sea Captains, Officers, or Mariners, that shall desert the Service, or their Employment in the Ships, or shall run away, or entice any others so to do, are to be punished with Death; so that, by putting the said Act in Execution, the Discipline of the Navy may be supported: But, as Seamen's the Increase of the Debts by such a general Order, Arrears. the Sea Books are so numerous and voluminous, that no certain Account can be given thereof; but, by the Numbers of Q's and R's appearing in the said Books, the Wages of the said Men must needs amount to a very great Sum.

VOL. 13.

Besides the general Exclamation against Q's and R's, we find One particular Rule complained of as a Hardship; and that is, The Forfeiture of Wages of former, as well as the last Ships, they belonged to: But this, as is already said, is a Custom as ancient as R's themselves; and the Columns in the Sea Books, of whence they came, and whither discharged, it is presumed, were inserted for enabling the Clerks of the Ticket Office to trace Men's Names from Ship to Ship, in order to make the said Savings to his Majesty; and the said Practice being so ancient, none can be unacquainted with it, at least none that credit the Seamen, or deal in Tickets, nor consequently surprised in any Concerns with them.

And, as the Seamen's Tickets were never esteemed as the King's Bonds, or Bills of Exchange, as some Men allege, or any more than Certificates from the Commanders and Officers of the Ships, of the times of their Service, so they were always subject to the Casualties before mentioned; and it is a Question, as we are informed, by the Solicitor to the Offices of the Admiralty and Navy, among the Lawyers, Whether the Assignments of them are good in Law.

Yet it cannot be denied, but if the ancient Method of the Navy could have been observed in the late War, of paying off the great Ships every Year, and the small ones at the End of every Voyage, or when they came in for any considerable Reparation, and of clearing their Books at their Payments, which, for want of Money, could not be done; and leaving no Recalls; and if the turning over Men so frequently could have been avoided, and the Practice of lending of Men, which is much worse, had not been introduced; there would not have been such Numbers of Seamen under these Circumstances.

Nevertheless, if Men will leave the Service when they know they are to forfeit their Wages for former Ships, as well as for the Ships they desert, it is to be doubted, the Wages of the last will not keep them; especially when they can benefit themselves in Merchants Service, as will always be the Case in time of War; and, when the Wages of One Ship exceeds the Wages of Two, or Three, or more, there is no Difference.

Having thus set down what has been, and is, the Practice of the Navy, with relation to Q's and R's, it is humbly submitted to the Wisdom and Consideration of this Honourable House.

The said Report about the Blackwell-hall Sloop.

Blackwell-hall Sloop.

The Honourable House of Commons having referred, unto such of the Commissioners of the Admiralty as are Members of the House, a Petition of the Owners of the Blackwell-hall Sloop, commanded by Mr. John Edwards, complaining, That the said Sloop was set forth and manned for preventing the Exportation of Wool; but that she is appointed for other Service, and her Men reduced; we have considered thereof, and do report the Fact to be as follows; viz.

That, on the First of June 1699, his Majesty's Pleasure was signified to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, by Mr. Secretary Vernon, That the aforesaid Sloop, and her Master, should be employed at the Charge of the Navy, in Consideration of the Service her said Master had done, in discovering the Enemies of the Government.

Pursuant whereunto, the Navy Board were directed to man the aforesaid Sloop with Thirty Men, and to victual her for Three Months, in order to her being employed on the Coast of Ireland, as One of the Vessels appointed by Act of Parliament to prevent the Exportation of Wool.

U u

But

But Mr. Edwards came to the Board, and acquainted them, That his Vessel was not fit to cruise on that Coast.

Whereupon, the Board did resolve to employ her as a Tender on the Fleet, in regard Mr. Edwards could not be gratified in her cruising on the Coast of Sussex; those Vessels being, by Act of Parliament, appointed and employed by the Commissioners of the Customs; and therefore Orders were given for reducing her Men to the Number of Ten: But upon Mr. Edwards's Representation, That he should be exposed to the Danger of the French Coasters, it was, in August last, determined, that she should have Twelve Men.

And the 13th of September following, Mr. Edwards was directed to repair with her to the Doxens, and follow Sir Cloudsly Shovell's Orders.

But both Sir Cloudsly Shovell and Captain Fairborne, who commanded in Chief at Spithead, have since represented the aforesaid Sloop to be an unserviceable Vessel.

Which being the Case, and the said Sloop notwithstanding being still continued in Pay, it is humbly submitted to the Consideration of this Honourable House.

Ordered, That the said Report touching Q's and R's be read, and taken into Consideration, upon this Day Sevensnight.

Ordered, That the said Report touching the Blackwell-hall Sloop do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

Grants from the Crown.

Ordered, That the Trustees for the Fee-farm Rents do lay before this House an Account of all the Fee-farm Rents, Quit-rents, and Lease-rents, that have been granted since his Majesty's Accession to the Crown; with the Contracts themselves, and the Considerations upon which they were granted.

Old East
India Company.

Then the Counsel for and against the Bill for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading to the East Indies, a Corporation, were called in:

And the Bill was, according to Order, read the Second time:

And the Petition against the Bill was also read:

And the Counsel on both Sides were heard at the Bar.

And then they withdrew.

And Mr. Speaker opened the Bill.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the said Bill.

11° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

PHILIP James de la Combe de Vaigne, and Michael Inses, took the Oaths appointed, in order to their Naturalization.

Rye
Harbour.

A Petition of the Mayor and Jurats of the Town and Port of Hastings, in Sussex, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, till of late Years, the Port of Rye was a very good Harbour, not only for his Majesty's Ships, and Merchant Ships, in time of War, but from the Danger of the Seas, in Stress of Weather, in the time of Peace; and is the only Harbour on that Coast for several Leagues; but the same is now so choaked up, that no Vessel of any Burden dare venture in without Danger of being lost: And praying, That some Course may be taken for cleansing the said Harbour; which will be of great Benefit to the Shipping and Trade of this Kingdom.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Town of Rye is referred.

A Petition of Colonel Tarence Mograth was presented Half-pay. to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, by Order of the Lord Galloway, who was Envoy and General of his Majesty's Forces in the Duke of Savoy's Service, raised a Battalion at his own Charges, which he commanded, and quitted, when the said Duke left the Confederacy, and came with the Duke's Letters of Recommendation to his Majesty, then in Flanders, where the Petitioner served as a Volunteer, to his great Expence: And praying, That he may be added to the List of the Officers in Half-pay, in Consideration of his said Service and Expence.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Papers relating to Half-pay are referred.

A Petition of the Goldsmiths, and others employed in the Silver Manufacture, within the several Boroughs and Market Towns of Honiton, Chard, and Crewkerne, within the Counties of Devon and Somerset, and other adjacent Places, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are rendered incapable of exercising their Trades, by reason of a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, requiring the Mark Britannia to be set on their Plate, which by Law they are not able to set or procure, without an Expence beyond what they can make by Sale thereof: And praying, That the said Clause may be repealed. Assaying of Plate.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Goldsmiths of Exeter is referred.

A Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Petition of Catharine Taylor, the late Widow of William Rutter, who was hanged by the East India Company at St. Helena, in behalf of herself, and Four of her Children, be now read; Taylor's Petition.

It passed in the Negative.

A Bill for the Sale of the Manors of Dalham cum Dunstall, and Abbotts, in Denham, in the County of Suffolk, was read the First time. Dalham, &c. Manors.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Tuesday Morning next.

A Petition of Paul Margaret, late Surgeon to his Majesty's Royal Regiment of Horse, commanded by the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was reduced, with the rest of the Surgeons in the Army, pursuant to his Majesty's Orders of the 1st of August 1698, when the Petitioner was eldest Surgeon in the eldest English Regiment, and had served 20 Years; and though Surgeons, and Surgeons Mates, were allowed to the Regiments of Foot contained in the Proclamation for ascertaining the 7,000 Men: That the Petitioner established the Hospital at Namur, in the First Campaign in Flanders; and in Ireland so signalized himself, That the Earl of Athlone ordered him a Gratuity for taking a Captain, Lieutenant, and Quarter-master, Prisoners; but, by his constant Attendance in the Service, he has lost his Acquaintance and Practice; and his Family is driven to great Streights, the Petitioner being the only Surgeon that has no Allowance: And praying, That in Consi- Half-pay.

deration of his long and faithful Services, he may be inserted into the List of Officers who are to have Half-pay.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Petition be rejected;

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the Petition do lie upon the Table.

Kingston upon Hull Poor.

A Petition of the Corporation of Trinity-house, in Kingston upon Hull, on the behalf of the poor, decayed, and distressed Seamen, their Widows and Children, within the Town of Hull, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they are incorporated by several Grants; have several Rents and Revenues; and their Poor are very much increased since the War: That by an Act passed in the 9th and 10th Years of his Majesty's Reign, for erecting Work-houses in the said Town, for employing and maintaining the Poor, there are several Clauses, which tend to the Prejudice of the said Corporation; and particularly one, which enacts, That all future Charities, to be given or disposed to the Use of the said Town, or any Parish, Place, or Precinct, within the same, shall be enjoyed by the new Corporation; which Clause will totally prevent any seafaring Man, or other Person, to bequeath any Charity to Trinity-house: And praying, That a Clause may be brought in to explain so much of the said Act as relates to the Petitioners; and that they may be in the same Condition as before the making of the said Act.

Ordered, That the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants, and sending them whither by Law they ought to be sent, is committed, have Power to receive a Clause for explaining the said Act, according to the said Petition.

Selling Leather.

A Petition of the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Mystery of Cordwainers, of the City of London, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Remedies provided by an Act of the 1st of King James the First, to prevent the selling of bad Leather privately, are not sufficient; whereby the Subject is greatly defrauded: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for making Provision against the Mischief by selling bad Leather, and inartificial working thereof.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition;

It passed in the Negative.

Siderfin's Estate.

An ingrossed Bill from the Lords, intituled, An Act for vesting the Manor of Exton, and other Lands, in the County of Somerset, late the Estate of Tho. Siderfin Esquire, deceased, in Trustees, to be sold, for Payment of Debts, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Martha Ship.

Sir Edward Stradling reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the Ship Martha of Margam to trade as a free Ship was committed, That they had examined the same; and had directed him to report the same to the House, without any Amendment: And he delivered the same in at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, That the Bill be ingrossed.

Vantertijd's Nat.

An ingrossed Bill for naturalizing Francis Vantertijd was read the Third time.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for naturalizing Francis Vantertijd, and Agnena Vandermersch.

Ordered, That Mr. Clark do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Members summoned.

Ordered, That the Serjeant do go, with the Mace, into Westminster-hall, and summon the Members there to attend the Service of the House.

And he went accordingly.

And, being returned;

VOL. 13.

PRAY RS.

ELEONORA Haskinstiles took the Oaths appointed, in order to her Naturalization.

A Petition of James Jeffes Esquire, and Elizabeth his Wife, and Lucy and Margaret Jeffes, Infants, Children of the said James Jeffes, and the Creditors of the said James Jeffes, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, on the Intermarriage of the Petitioners, a Settlement of Lands in Essex was made on the said Eliz. for her Jointure; and after, to raise Portions for for the Petitioners Lucy and Margaret, in case of Failure of Issue Male; and, James Jeffes being indebted to several Persons, they have agreed to accept the said Lands during the Lives of the Petitioners James and Eliz. so that the Interest of 2,000*l.* being the Portion of the said Eliz. but unpaid, which is liable to the said Debts, will be a Maintenance to the Petitioners: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Petitioners to sell the said Lands, to pay Debts; and to make some Provision for the Infants, the Trustees of the Marriage Settlement consenting thereto.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Foley do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Fleet Prison. A Petition of John Clements Gentleman was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, for himself and others, is a Mortgagee of the Office of Warden of the Fleet Prison, for 2,299*l.* principal Money; and there being a Bill in the House for Dissolution of the Fleet Prison, whereby the Office is first to cease, and yet afterwards be sold, the Petitioner conceives, he is thereby likely to be deprived of his Security: That there is a Bill also depending in the House to dissolve the King's Bench; wherein there is a Clause, that seems to imply, that, after Sale of the Oxfordshire Estate therein mentioned, the Publick shall make good to the Mortgagee of the King's Bench, where the said Estate shall fall short of paying; which, as is alleged, will amount to above Eleven thousand Pounds: And praying, That the Creditors of the Fleet Prison may be as amply provided for, as those of the King's Bench; and that he may be heard by Counsel, before the Bill for the Dissolution of the Fleet Prison do pass.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Hamborough Company. A Petition of the Traders in the Woollen Manufacture, in and about the Town, and County of the Town, of Nottingham, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the House having given Leave to bring in a Bill for the better encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners humbly acquaint the House, that Experience shews the Trade in the Woollen Manufacture most cheerfully extends itself through all the Markets of Europe, when left to its full Freedom; and that the many Buyers have occasioned such a current Price and Payment, as hath enabled the Petitioners to support their own Families, and employ great Numbers of the Poor: And praying, That the said Trade may remain free, and not restrained to the Hamborough Company only.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto. A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Clothworkers, and others, in Leeds, and several Towns adjacent, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures was first attempted, and afterwards successfully carried on, by the Company of Merchants of England; but of late their Privileges have been invaded by Foreigners, upon whom a great Part of the Woollen Trade is fallen, as to Holland; and will totally be carried into foreign Parts, where it is already set up, unless some speedy Care be taken therein: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected in their Privileges to Germany, as the only Means to prevent the said Mischiefs.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Hutchinson's Regimental Claims. A Petition of Captain John Hutchinson, who served in the late Regiment commanded by Colonel Luke Lillingston, and since in Colonel Brudenell's Regiment, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Colonel Lillingston doth unjustly detain from him the Accounts of his Company, and also considerable Sums of Money, which he hath received; and yet the Petitioner hath, for about a Year, lain under Suspension from Half-pay, by a few General Officers at the Horse Guards, because he refused to sign a Discharge in full to Mr. John Thurston, Agent to Colonel Lillingston, upon an Account which is but for Part of the Time he was Agent: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House:

And it is referred to the Marquis of Hartington, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. Pierpoint, Mr. Dyot, Mr. White, Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Harley, Mr. Rayner, Sir Jos. Grosvenor, Sir John Mordant, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Blake, Sir Tho. Willoughby, Mr. Weeks, Mr. Eyres, Mr. Hughes, Lord Hen. Cavendish: And they are to meet at Four a Clock this Afternoon, in the Speaker's Chambers.

A Petition of Joseph Palacer, and others, on behalf Coal Labourers. of themselves, and several Hundreds of Coal Labourers on the River of Thames, and Inhabitants within the weekly Bills of Mortality, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are much abused in delivering Sea Coal Ships, for want of Order; but can have no Regulation, but by the Assistance of this House; and, were the Petitioners under some good Rules, as the Watermen, Carmen, Porters, and Coachmen, are, it would much conduce to the Benefit of his Majesty's Subjects in the Coal Trade, and to the Relief of the Petitioners: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to establish them a Fellowship, under such Government and Rules as shall be thought meet.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition;

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That Colonel Trelawney have Leave to go Leave of Absence. into the Country, for Recovery of his Health.

Ordered, That the Lord Marquis of Hartington have Leave to go into the Country, for a Fortnight, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Bishops
Castle
Election.

Sir Rowland Gwynn, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Bishops Castle, in the County of Salop; and the Resolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the

VOL. 13.

Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Upon the Petition of Sir Gilbert Gerard Baronet, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir William Brownlow Baronet, to serve for the Borough of Bishops Castle, in the County of Salop;

It was agreed, That the Bailiff, and all the Burgesses inhabiting within the Borough, have Right to elect Members to serve in Parliament for the said Borough.

Upon the Poll, there was, with the Bailiff,

For the Sitting Member - - - 37.

For the Petitioner - - - 36.

But the Petitioner's Counsel insisted, That they should take off Three from the Sitting Member's Poll; and add Three to the Petitioner's Poll, who had a Right to vote; and were rejected.

And also should prove Bribery on the Sitting Member's Side.

The Three Votes that were impeached by the Petitioner's Counsel were,

William James,
Tho. Waters, and
Samuel James.

The Objection to William James was, That he was an Out-Burgess.

It appeared, That the Oath to an In-Burgess and Out-Burgess was the same: And, if an Out-Burgess came to live within the Borough, he did not take a new Oath; but the In-Burgess, and the Out-Burgess, being entered upon several Lists, such Person, coming to live within the Borough, is entered upon the List with the In-Burgess.

Mr. David Morris, Mr. Tho. Bright, Mr. Morris Pugh senior, Mr. Wm. Merrick, said, That William James lived at Mainton, Two Miles off Bishops Castle, about the time of the Election; and only came to Town, as a Journeyman Shoemaker, to work; and went Home on Saturday Nights; and was not entered among the Burgesses till after the Election, though occasionally he did lie in Bishops Castle sometimes; and therefore they looked on him as an Out-Burgess: And that, the Day before the Election, the Mayor and others met to adjust the Right of the Electors; and it was then agreed, that William James had no Vote, being a Country-Burgess.

William Price: That Thomas Waters went Home every Saturday Night to Colebeck, about Half a Mile off Bishops Castle; but had worked for some Years at Bishops Castle.

Tho. Bright said, That Samuel James lives at Colebeck, and went only to Bishops Castle a Month before the Election; and, since the Election, is returned to Colebeck again; but he was not objected to before the Election.

The Three the Petitioner would add to his Poll were,
Richard Bright,
John Stockin,
Sam. Seyes.

By Mr. William Bright it was proved, They all offered their Votes for the Petitioner.

Mr. Morris Pugh junior, Mr. David Morris, and Mr. Pugh senior, said, That Richard Bright's Residence was with his Brother at Bishops Castle: And that he had voted at other Elections, particularly at Mr. Oaklye's; and Mr. Moore's, upon Mr. Oaklye's Decease; though it was acknowledged that he went out of Town a little time, about Two Months before the Election.

That John Stockin was a Burgess, and did live in Town before the Election; and had not been out of Town a Month in Seven or Eight Years.

That Sam. Seyes is a Burgess, and had been an Inhabitant in the Borough Six Weeks before the Election; and has continued there ever since: And that all these Three had voted at former Elections, and were now refused: And that no Proclamation was made for Persons to come in and poll before the Poll was closed.

As to the Bribery; the Petitioner's Counsel called several Witnesses.

Nath. Farmer said, The Countess of Macclesfield bestowed bestowed 200 l. upon the Town of Bishops Castle, in regard that she was come to her Estate: And that there were at first Five Trustees for the managing of the said Money; but, afterwards, it was fixed in Mr. Walter Waring: And that he did see the Money at Sam. Longirle's House: That they did expect, that the said 200 l. should be divided among the Burgesses; but they were fain to borrow it by small Sums of about 5 l. and give Notes for it: And, accordingly, after the Election, he went to Mr. Waring for some Money; who sent him to Mr. Browne, an Attorney in Bishops Castle, who let him have 5 l. 5 s.; which they said was Part of the Countess of Macclesfield's Money: And that he gave a Note for it; and he believed Browne solicited Votes for Sir William Brownlowe: And that others, particularly James and Walters, did receive 20 s. apiece; that Walter Corrick and Richard Norton had 40 or 50 s. apiece; and John Wootton had some Money, which he supposed they gave Notes for: That this Money was lent after the Election; but these Persons who received it voted for Sir William Brownlowe: But they said, Farmer could not say, That Sir William Brownlowe knew of the disposing of the said Money: That there was a Meeting at Corrick's House; where it was agreed, That the Money should be lodged in Mr. Waring's Hands, and not be disposed of without the Consent of the major Part of the Burgesses.

Castle
Election.

David Hoggins said, That, upon the Election-day in the Morning, the Bailiff sent for him, and desired his Vote; which he excused, as being before engaged for Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason: And that, afterwards, the Bailiff called for him again; and told him, That he had numbered the Votes; and that Hoggins's Vote stood hard upon them; and offered him Gold and Silver, and what he would; and to go into his Shop, and take a Suit of Cloaths, if he would vote for Sir William Brownlowe:

That Jeremy Brown, a Month before the Election, called him to his House, and gave him 30 s.; and my Lady Mason gave him 5 s. to vote for Sir William Brownlowe; and Mr. Brown afterwards gave him 3 l. 15 s. upon the same Condition; and threatened, if he did not, to do him a Diskindness: The said Hoggins said, He received the Money, and voted for Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason: That he told Mr. Mason, He could have 5 l. to vote for Sir William Brownlowe: And that Mr. Mason told him, if he would have it, he might take it; for He would not give him a Farthing.

Robert Minton said, He received for his Father, of Mr. Walter Waring, 50 s. and that his Father voted for Sir William Brownlowe and Sir Gilbert Gerrard: That he asked the Bailiff, why he made such a Return; and he said, He had nothing but what his Wife and Children had.

Stephen Lloyd said, That he was sent for by the Lady Mason, who asked him, if he was a Burgess? And the said Lloyd telling her he was; the Lady Mason told him, That there was 200 l. to be distributed among them that voted for Sir William Brownlowe; and that she should be kind to him besides: That Richard Woollaston threatened him, That he should be sued upon a Bond he had given to John Beament, if he would not vote for Sir William Brownlowe.

Morris Bowen said, That there was 200 l. to be distributed; and that if he would vote for Sir William Brownlowe, he should have 30 or 40 s. of it.

That William Colebach said, He had Money of Mr. Browne for his Vote for Sir William Brownlowe.

That Palmer said, He had 5 l. and his Part came to 5 l. 8 s. 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  d.; and he would not abate the 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  d.

The Counsel for the Sitting Member insisted, That they would justify their own Votes, and the Refusal of the Three that would have voted for the Petitioner.

That the Mayor gave but one Voice.

That the 200 l. spoken of, as given by the Lady Mason, was only a Charity given to the Town, in Consideration of her being restored to her Estate; and before the Dissolution of the last Parliament: And that they would prove plain Bribery on the Petitioner: And called their Witnesses.

Edward Minton said, That, about a Month before the Election, Mr. David Morris, who solicited Votes for Sir Gilbert Gerard, gave him 5 s. to be for Sir Gilbert Gerard: And that, about a Fortnight before the Election, he was sent for to Mr. Pugh's House; and Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason were there; and they asked him for his Vote: And Mr. Mason said, That, if he would give Sir Gilbert Gerard his Vote, he would give him 10 l. and order his Father's Steward to pay the Money; and gave him 5 s. to drink Sir Gilbert Gerard's Health; and told him, If it was not enough, he would give him 10 l. afterwards; and Pugh said, That if he was not satisfied with a Promise, he would give him a Bond for it: That Pugh afterwards, the Night before the Election, promised him and another 5 l. apiece: That Wilson came for them, and told them, they should have 5 l. apiece, if they would swear to be true to them; upon which they made them Half a Promise: And David Morris leaped, and said, If they had not discovered themselves so soon, he would have given 100 l. for Two Voices that Night:

That, on Sunday before the Election, he was sent for to the Earl of Macclesfield at Morris's House, and brought into the Earl's Chamber; who asked him, What Trade he was of? And what would set him up? Who answered, That he was a Shoemaker; and 40 l. would set him up: And thereupon the said Earl promised him, upon his Honour, He should have it: That my Lord Macclesfield also bid him go down to his Friend Robert Wollaston, and ask him, what he would have? Which he did: And that Wollaston demanded 30 l.; which he acquainted my Lord with: And that my Lord promised he should have it:

That my Lord also, in the Stables of the New Club, bid him come to him after the Election; and promised him, he should be kindly rewarded; and bid him speak to others by One at a time:

That he had 5 s. of Mr. Morris, 2 s. of his Wife, and 5 s. of Mr. Mason: That he did not promise my Lord his Vote; but said he would consider of it: And that he voted for Sir William Brownlowe and Mr. Walcot.

Robert Wollaston said, That Jonathan Wilson, about a Week before the Election, promised him 20 l. to vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason; but he was indifferent, because he had promised before:

That Mr. David Morris took him down to the Hall, and said, if he would vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason, it would be the Lord knows what in his Way; and Sir Gilbert Gerard should procure him an Excise-man's Place: And the said Morris offered him 20 l. or better; but he acknowledged, that he had none of it:

That, on Monday before the Election, Mr. Pugh sent for him from the Bowling Green, and offered him a Bond of 5 l. for his Vote; and made the same Offer to Minton:

That, when he was at Wilson's House, Sir Gilbert Gerard came in; and, being told, That the said Robert Wollaston was promised 20 l. he said to the said Wollaston, It should not be 20 l. nor twice 20 l.; but he would be his Friend as long as he lived:

That they would have sworn him to be true to Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason; but he ran out of the House:

That David Morris offered him the Coat off his Back, and said, What he did was for the Good of his Children; for that the Earl would help his Son to 100 l. a Year:

That he did tell Minton at Morris's House, when he came for him to go up to the Earl of Macclesfield's, That he would have 30 Guineas for his Vote.

And he said, That Wilson, Minton, and Pugh, made all the Interest they could for Sir Gilbert Gerard.

Walter Corrick said, That, the Night before the Election, Sir Gilbert Gerard and Mr. Mason came to the House where he was; and asked him for his Vote: And that Mr. Mason said, The Election depended upon his Vote;

Vote; and that he should have what he would, if he would vote for Sir Gilbert:

That he told Mr. Mason, If he would give him his Hat full of Gold, he would not give them his Vote; Whereupon Mr. Mason told him, If he would go to Morris's House, his Wife should lock him up in a Room.

That Jonathan Wilson said, He had 15 Guineas in his House, which he would divide between him, Wollaston, and Minton.

That Morris and Wilson appeared for Sir Gilbert Gerard.

He acknowledged, That there was Money at Mr. Waring's House for the Use of the Town: And that he did borrow 5*l.*; and gave a Bill for it.

Isaiah Hoggins said, That Captain Phillips fetched him to my Lord Macclesfield; who asked him, If he had promised his Vote? And he told my Lord, He had; to Sir William Brownlowe and Mr. Mason: That my Lord thereupon told him, He must have it for Sir Gilbert Gerard; and, there being a Bason upon the Table, my Lord put Money into it; and bid the said Hoggins take what he would; and, accordingly, he did take 5*s.*: And my Lord told the said Hoggins, He should have 20 Guineas the next Morning: However Hoggins said, He denied my Lord his Vote for the said Sir Gilbert Gerard, and did vote for Sir William Brownlowe and Mr. Mason.

The said Hoggins acknowledged, That he received of Mr. Browne 20, 30, and 10*s.* and gave a Bill for it.

Samuel James said, That he was hired 3 or 4 times: That Mrs. Mason of Rockley Hall gave him Half a Crown; and promised him the best brindle Cow about the House:

That at the New Club he had 12*d.* of Samuel Walters's Wife; that David Morris gave him 1*s.* and promised him a Suit of Cloaths and Money in Three Pockets; and Morris's Wife promised him the same, or 5*l.*

He acknowledged he had Money of Browne by 12*d.* a time, which he gave a Bill for to repay; but he voted for Sir William Brownlowe and Mr. Walcott.

Mr. Wollaston, of Welsh Poole, said, He was asked to vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard by my Lord Macclesfield; but, he declaring himself to be engaged, my Lord replied, He loved a Man that was true to his Trust. He produced a Letter from Mr. Mason, dated the 31 July 1697, whereby Mr. Mason acquaints him, That my Lord Macclesfield had promised him, He should succeed in the Muster-master's Post; but there were not any Words in it that gave it any Relation to the Election:

That David Hoggins was indicted Three times for Horse-stealing; but could not tell what Result there was then of those Indictments: And that Farmer was a Man of ill Repute.

Barnaby Bowen said, Samuel Waters and David Morris promised him, That if he would vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard, he should be forgiven a Debt of 7*l.* that he owed to Jeremy Brown; and his Landlord Mason should forgive him a Debt of 4 or 5*l.* he owed for Rent: And Waters's Wife said, That if the said Bowen would not give Sir Gilbert his Vote, my Lord Macclesfield would bring a Troop of Horse, and eat up the Town.

Richard Norton said, That, about a Week before the Election, Jonathan Wilson sent his Daughter to his House to speak with him; and accordingly he went to the said Wilson, who told him, That, if he did not procure his Son to vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard, it would go hard with him: That, if he did, my Lord would take Ten young Men out of Bishops Castle, and prefer them to Places, and his Son should be one; and, if Sir Gilbert lost it, the Town would be undone.

William Seys said, That, about a Fortnight before the Election, he was sent for to Mr. Morris's House; where Mr. Mason came to him, and asked him his Voice for Sir Gilbert Gerard; and shewed him Five Guineas; and told him he should have Satisfaction; and said, He would be his Friend as long as he lived.

William Wootton said, He was Tenant to Morris Pugh junior, who solicited Votes for Sir Gilbert: And that, a few Days before the Election, he was promised his House Rent-free for Three Years, or Ten Pounds, if he would vote for Sir Gilbert; but he voted for Sir William Brownlowe and Mr. Mason. Bishops Castle Election.

VOL. 13.

Thomas Bright said, That David Morris made an Interest for Sir Gilbert Gerard: And that, a few Days before the Election, he was sent for to the said David Morris; who asked him his Vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard; and said, If he did not do it, the Town will be ruined, and a Troop of Horse quartered upon it; and that, if he did vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard, he should have 10*l.* and all his Children maintained.

William Corick said, That Mr. Charles Mason and Sir Gilbert Gerard, Two Days before the Election, met him in the Street, and asked him for his Vote: That he promised his Vote for Mr. Mason: And then they asked him for his Vote for Sir Gilbert Gerard; and said, That, if he would come to London, they would get him a Place.

He acknowledged, that he had Money of Browne, which he was to repay again.

As to the 200*l.* given by the Lady Mason, the Sitting Member's Counsel called

Richard Jeffries: Who said, The 200*l.* given by the Lady Mason, was brought down Two or Three Months before the Election; and was given for the Pavement of the Streets, and other Uses of the Town: And that, the Election coming on, the Lady Mason desired it might be put into the Hands of Trustees, who were Mr. Walter Wollaston, Mr. Walter Waring, Mr. Edward Broughton, and Mr. Richard Woollaston: And that a Town Clock was bought with Part of the Money, and some other public Works had been done with Part of the Money; but could not speak as to the paving of the Streets.

As to the Three Votes excepted to by the Petitioner; Francis Colbach said, That William James was a Burgess; and had been an Inhabitant in Bishops Castle about Six Months before the Election:

That Thomas Waters and Samuel James are Burgesses, and were Inhabitants long before the Election; and had voted before.

As to the Three the Petitioner would have added to his Poll;

Francis Colbach said, That Richard Bright was . . . Burgess; but not resiant, as reported, above a Fortnight or Three Weeks before the Election;

That Stockin was not called as an Inhabitant. And, Richard Norton, Richard Jeffries, said, That Stockin lived without the Borough.

As to Samuel Seyes, Allen Seyes, and William Minton; said, That Samuel Seyes had owned himself to be an hired Servant to the Earl of Macclesfield; and that he had Money given him to come down to vote for Sir Gilbert; and was to have an Exciseman's Place, if capable: And a Letter was produced, dated the First of August 1699, from Bishops Castle, and directed to Mr. John Williams, wherein he mentions, That he was hired by the said Mr. Williams for 5*l.* per Annum, and 5*s.* per Week; but the Letter does not say for any particular Purpose.

The Sitting Member's Counsel then insisted, They would disqualify Nine of the Petitioner's Votes, as receiving Alms; and one, as being a Lunatick:

Samuel Lloyd, Barnaby Nicholas, Thomas Bright, Stephen Minton, Nathanael Nicholas, John Richards, Cha. Bright, David Adams, Steph. Lloyd, and Henry Wollaston.

And called

Francis Colbach: Who said, That Sam. Lloyd, Barn. Nicholas, Tho. Bright, Steph. Minton, Nath. Nicholas, and Cha. Bright's Wives, received of Mr. Turner's Charity, upon the 2d of June 1698:

And that Stephen Lloyd's Daughter did receive of the same Charity for her Father.

But, as to John Richards and David Adams, there was no positive Proof.

The Nature of which Charity is, That Mr. Tanner left 6*l.* a Year to the Parishes of Bishops Castle and Montgomery;

Bishops
Castle
Election.

Montgomery; 50 s. of which is to be disposed to the Poor of Bishops Castle, on the 2d of June in every Year; and 20 s. paid for a Sermon: That the said Charity was generally given to the Widows; and had been so to the Wives of those Persons for several Years.

Francis Colbach and Sam. Woollaston both spake as to Hen. Woollaston: The Substance of whose Evidence was, That the said Mr. Woollaston was a Minister; but, 3 or 4 Years since, was in Bedlam: And having lost his Living, for refusing the Oaths, hath since that time, in several Instances, acted as a Person not in his right Mind, viz. in affronting Women in the Streets, and lying down upon the Grubbs, as they called it, though neither of them could say he was actually mad at the time of the Election; and acknowledged, that he did preach not long before, by the Permission of neighbouring Ministers.

Then the Petitioner's Counsel were heard by way of Reply.

And a great Part of the Bribery on the other Side being proved by Edward Minton and Robert Woollaston; they first examined as to them. And called

Jonathan Wilson, David Morris: Who said, That, the Night before the Election, Edward Minton, and Robert Woollaston came to the said Wilson's House; and told him, They had not disposed of their Votes: That, if they voted for Sir Gilbert, they would have 10 l. a piece; for they could have the same Money on the other Side:

That Wilson acquainted Sir Gilbert with it; who said, If you love me, do not talk of Money; for there is an Act against it: That, afterwards, Wilson brought them to Sir Gilbert; and he told them, He would give them nothing: Whereupon they said, They would vote for him on Honour; and Minton fell on his Knees, and prayed, The Flesh might rot off from his Body, if he did not; and the other wished, if he did not, That he might be coupled; and both of them wished their Souls might be in Hell, if they did not vote for Sir Gilbert.

And said, That Henry Woollaston preached the Sunday Sevensnight before the Election very well, and has preached several times:

That they believed he had his Senses very well at the time of the Election; for that, it being then objected, that he had not taken the Oaths, he answered, It was not long since he had taken his Burgess Oath.

Mr. Morris Pugh said, That, discoursing with Edward Minton and Robert Woollaston a Day or Two before the Election, they said they would not give their Votes, except they had 10 l. a piece; and at first they demanded 20 l. for they heard it would come near.

And said, If they had it not on one Side, they could have it on the other: And that Edward Minton did steal Leather from him about Christmas last was Twelve Months.

As to the offering Money in a Bason; they called

Mr. John Brown: Who said he was at Bishops Castle at the last Election: That he went down with my Lord Macclesfield from London, and carried his Cash, being about 100 Guineas; which was to pay travelling Charges: And that my Lord had only of him Two Guineas, from the time of his setting forth from London to the Day Isaiah Hoggins spake of: But acknowledged he was not in the Room when Hoggins came to my Lord; nor knew what Money my Lord had in his Pocket when he came from London.

Mr. William Phillips said, He was present the Morning of the Day before the Election, when Isaiah Hoggins came to speak with the Earl of Macclesfield: And that the said Hoggins did not stay with my Lord above Four Minutes; for, he telling my Lord he was offered Money by Sir William Brownlow, my Lord was very angry; and bid him go down Stairs; saying, He hoped none of the Corporation would accept of Bribery.

The Petitioner's Counsel proceeded to the justifying of their Votes: And called

Mr. Morris Pugh: Who said, That Samuel Lloyd was assessed, both this and the last Year, at about 4 d. or 6 d.

per Annum to Church and Poor; but his Condition was very poor:

That Barnaby Nicholas has been charged several Years to the Church; but could not say to the Poor:

That Thomas Bright was charged to the Church and Poor for the Year 98:

That Minton and Nathaniel Nicholas pay to the Church:

That Charles Bright senior, and Stephen Lloyd, have paid to the Church and Poor for 20 Years:

And all these, particularly Barnaby Nicholas, who was the poorest of them, have always voted.

And though he could not say but he might receive of Tanner's Charity, yet they had not Relief from the Parish; and receiving Tanner's Charity was never made an Exception to their voting.

The Petitioner's Counsel also called some Witnesses, as to several of the Sitting Member's Votes having received Mr. Tanner's Charity; but they could not be positive, nor speak to their having received it in the Year of the Election.

Upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to these Resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir William Brownlowe, Baronet, is not duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Bishops Castle, in the County of Salop.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Gilbert Gerard, Baronet, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Bishops Castle.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Sir William Brownlowe, Baronet, is not duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Bishops Castle, in the County of Salop.

The Second Resolution being read a Second time;

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Sir Gilbert Gerard, Baronet, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Bishops Castle;

It passed in the Negative.

Resolved, That the said Election is a void Election.

It appearing to this House, upon the said Report, That the Burgesses of the said Borough of Bishops Castle have been notoriously guilty of Bribery in the said Election.

Resolved, That no Writ do issue, during this Session, for electing another Burgess for the said Borough.

Ordered, That the Committee, to whom the Papers Half-pay relating to Half-pay are referred, be discharged from proceeding upon any Petitions referred to them since the said Committee was first appointed.

Ordered, That the Report touching Dover Harbour be made upon Monday Morning. Dover
Harbour.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for suspending the Bounty Money given for exporting Corn, by the Act of Primo Will. et Mariæ, for the Encouraging the Exportation of Corn, from the Ninth Day of February instant to the 29th Day of September 1700: And that Mr. Bullock, and Sir Thomas Cook, Sir Richard Onslow, Mr. Pelham, and Mr. Harley, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill. Bounty on Corn.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Gentlemen, who are to prepare, and bring in, the said Bill, That they do bring in a Clause to the said Bill, for the taking off the Duty upon Bread, Peas, Biscuit, and Meal, exported, from the said Ninth Day of February instant.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Monday Morning next, at Twelve a Clock, resolve itself into a Committee Supply.

Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty; and nothing to intervene.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

Lune, 5° die Februarii;

11° Gulielmi Tertii, 1699.

PRAYERS.

JOHN Niman, and Baltzer Lyell, took the Oaths appointed, in order to their Naturalization.

Hamborough Company.

A Petition of the Employers of Wool-spinners and Wool-combers, inhabiting in and about the City of Canterbury, on behalf of themselves, and the great Numbers of poor People by them employed, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Leave being given to bring in a Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners beg Leave to acquaint the House, That they find by Experience, That the Trade in the Woollen Manufacture does best extend itself through all the Markets of Europe, when left to its full Freedom; since which, the Petitioners have had constant Work, and competent Prices; and maintained themselves, and vast Numbers of Poor, which otherwise must have starved: And praying, That the Trade to Germany may not be restrained to the Hamborough Company only, but that it may be continued in its full Freedom.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, and other considerable Dealers in the Woollen Manufactures, at Leeds, and Parts adjacent, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the House having given Leave to bring in a Bill for the Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners represent, That when the Trade to Germany was limited to the Hamborough Company only, it was very prejudicial to the Cloathing Trade in general; when, on the contrary, that Trade was left to a general Liberty, it met with far greater Encouragement both at home and abroad: And praying, That the said Trade may remain unconfin'd, and not be again reduced to the sole Interest of the Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen and Clothiers, in and about the Cloathing Towns of Dewsborough and Mirfield, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures was first attempted, and successfully carried on, by the Hamborough Company, to the great Benefit of the Nation; but, for want of sufficient Support of the said Company, Foreigners have got so great a Share of the said Trade, That it is in Danger of being lost to English Merchants; and consequently the Clothiers must lie in great Danger of having Hardships put upon them, and the Manufactures of being debased and carried into foreign Parts, by the Insight of Foreigners in the Working thereof: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected in their Trade to Germany, under such Regulations as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Clothworkers, Fullers, and others, in Hallifax, and

VOL. 13.

Parts adjacent, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That though the Hamborough Company first exported our Woollen Manufactures, to the great Advantage of the Nation, into Holland and Germany; yet Foreigners have gotten the sole Trade to Holland, and are likely to get it to Germany, for want of Encouragement to the said Company; which Trade, if in the Hands of Foreigners, may occasion great Hardships to be put on the Clothiers; and by an Insight in the manner of Working, and the Opportunity of exporting our Wool, may be a Means of transplanting our Art into foreign Countries, to the total Loss thereof to this Nation: And praying, That the said Company may be protected in their Trade to Germany, by Act of Parliament, to prevent the said threatening Mischiefs.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Clothiers, and others, principally concerned in the Woollen Manufactures, in Farnley, Bramley, Pudsey, Calverly, and Idle, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures was at first attempted, and afterwards successfully carried on, by the Hamborough Company; but, for want of a sufficient Support, Foreigners have gotten such a Share of that Trade, that the said Company is in danger of losing their Trade to Germany, and the Woollen Manufacture in Danger of being debased, and set up in Foreign Countries: And praying, That the said Company may be established and supported in their direct Trade to Germany, under such Regulations as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Clothiers, Clothworkers, and others, principally concerned in the Woollen Manufactures in Burston, Little and Great Summerhall, High Townes, Harset, Clifton, and Heaton, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Trade of the Hamborough Company, which is for the general Good of the Nation, and the Woollen Manufactures, is infringed by Foreigners, and in Danger of being lost to English Merchants, for want of Encouragement to the said Company; and, if some Care be not taken, our Woollen Trade may be carried on in foreign Countries, where it is already begun: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected in their Trade to Germany only, by Act of Parliament, as the only Means to prevent the ensuing Mischiefs.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Bailiffs and Burgesses, and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Kidderminster, in the County of Worcester, being an eminent Cloathing Town, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners find by the Votes of this House, that a Bill is brought in for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company: And well knowing, that the Cloathing Trade was heretofore much more beneficial to the Traders therein, when it was managed by English Merchants, than now; not only in respect of the Price, but the Assurance of their Money; the Petitioners therefore pray, That the said Bill may pass, giving all Encouragement to English Merchants to export our Woollen Manufactures, by such Ways as the House shall think fit.

Y y

Ordered,

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Avon Navigation.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Avon, from Bristol to Bath, navigable, is committed, That they have Power to receive a Clause for the Setting up Lights in the City of Bristol.

Torbay Harbour.

A Petition of Charles Middleton, Alexander Cairnes, and One-and-thirty more of the City of London, Merchants, in behalf of themselves, and several others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners are very sensible there is great want of a Harbour in Torbay, there being no Safety for Shipping betwixt Plymouth and Portsmouth; and that a Harbour or Mole there would be of great Use and Security to Ships of War, as well as Merchant Ships, not only in time of War, but Peace: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for making a Harbour or Mole at Torbay, with Fortifications for its Defence.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House:

And it is referred to Lord Cornbury, Sir Edward Seymour, Mr. Hobson, Mr. White, Colonel Lee, Sir Ch. Hedges, Sir Basil Dixwell, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Joliffe, Mr. Duke, Mr. Greenhill, Mr. Aylmer, Mr. Proby, Mr. Hughes, Colonel Granvill, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Northmore, Mr. Orme, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Sir Tho. Felton, Mr.

Ashurst, Lord Coningsby, Colonel Byerly, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Cook, Mr. Foley, Mr. Harley, Major Stringer, Sir Edm. Bacon: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

A Petition of James Baily, Tho. Ford, and Twenty-nine more Masters of Ships, of the City of London, in behalf of themselves, and several others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That many Ships, and Men's Lives, have been Lost, both in Peace and War, by Storms, for want of a Harbour at Torbay, where One of the best of Harbours may be made; and, within few Weeks, Five Ships have been cast away in Portland Road: And praying, that a Bill may be brought in for making a Mole or Harbour at Torbay.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the said Committee.

Mr. Foley, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to enable James Jeffes Esquire to sell Lands, in Southminster, in the County of Essex, for Payment of Debts: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Clark, according to Order, presented to the House a yearly Account of the Gross and . . . Product of the Barrels of Beer, Ale, and Small Beer, charged from Midsummer 1688, to Midsummer 1699: And the Title thereof was read: And the Account is as followeth; viz.

Ordered, That no more Petitions, against or for the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, be received after Thursday next.

A Petition of Charles Stuteville Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That he is greatly surprised to find by the Votes of this House, that a Bill is brought in for Sale of the Manors of Dalham cum Dunstall and Abbotts, in Denham, in the County of Suffolk, the Petitioner's Estate; for that he never did consent to, nor give Directions for, any such Bill: And praying to be heard by Counsel, at the Bar of the House, before any further Proceedings be made upon the said Bill.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition, and of the Petition of John Beecher Esquire, and Charles Beecher, and John Brulger Gentleman, and of Elizabeth the Wife of the said Charles Stuteville Esquire, and their Five Children, presented to the House the 26th of January last, be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same to the House, before the said Bill be read a Second time:

And it is referred to Sir Robert Davers, Sir Sam. Barnardiston, Mr. Roberts, Sir Jacob Ashley, Mr. Worsley, Sir Cha. Turner, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Blofeld, Earl of Disert, Sir Wm. Cook, Mr. Pelham, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Rayner, Mr. Blake, Mr. Bullock, Mr. Lee, Mr. Dormer, Mr. Brewer, Sir Row Gwy . . , Mr. Barnardiston, Mr. Harley, Mr. Hamond, Mr. Harvey, Sir Robert Napper, Sir Rushout Cullen, Sir Cha. Windham; and all the Members that serve for the Counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, and Cambridge: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Hackney Coachmen.

A Complaint being made to the House of the Insolence, Abuses, and Exactions, of the Hackney Coachmen;

Ordered, That it be referred to a Committee, to examine the same: And that they do consider of the Act lately made, relating to Hackney Coaches; and report their Opinion to the House, what is fit to be done for the further regulating of them:

And it is referred to Mr. Bertie, Mr. Godolphin, Mr. Gwynn, Mr. Stonehouse, Mr. Mountague, Sir Robert Dashwood, Mr. England, Sir Rich. Farrington, Mr. Rowney, Mr. Campion, Mr. Hayes, Sir John Bolles, Mr. Worsley, Sir Baz. Dirwell, Sir Tho. Wagstaff, Mr. Lowther, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Pierpoint, *Sir Row. Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the House, That Sir Bazill Firebrasse, James Munday Esquire, Charles Wilford, William Whitlock, John Blower, George Pretty, alias Dammee George, * * * Garnett, Antony Buckmaster, Robert Dallison, John Jennings, and * Jeffryes, had arrested Edward Chandler, a menial Servant and Under-keeper of Christopher Lyster Esquire, a Member of this House, in his Walk in Enfield Chace; in Breach of the Privilege of this House;

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Complaint be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Answer to Address.

Mr. Secretary Vernon acquainted the House, That he having presented to His Majesty their Address, That the Clerk of the Council might lay before this House an Account of the Petitions and Proceedings before the Council, relating to Charters granted, during his Majesty's Reign, to Corporations that send Members to Parliament; his Majesty had been pleased to give Orders, that the same should be laid before the House accordingly.

Dover
Harbour.

The Lord Fairfax, according to Order, reported from the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Commissioners for the Repair of Dover Harbour was referred, the Matter, as it appeared to them; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, That the said Report do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House: And that the same be read, and taken into Consideration, upon Wednesday Morning next.

Employing
the Poor.

Mr. Pelham, according to Order, presented to the House, a Bill for the more effectual Employment of the Poor, and encouraging the Manufactures of England: And the same was received, and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Wednesday Morning next.

Mr. Godolphin, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of the Manufactures made of Silk, Cotton, and Herba, imported from the East Indies, from Christmas 1697, to Christmas 1699:

And also, an Account of the East India Manufactures, made of Silk, Cotton, and Herba, exported from Christmas 1697, to Christmas 1699.

And the Titles thereof were read: And the said Accounts are as follow; viz.

The said Account of the said Manufactures, imported into the Port of London, from Christmas 1697, to Christmas 1698.

&c. Nat.

A BILL for naturalizing Theodore Jacobson, William Brown, and Surah Haskinstyles, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. White, Sir Edward Stradling, Mr. Lutterell, Mr. Foley, Mr. Conyers, Mr. Mountague, Sir Joseph Jekyll, Mr. Dyott, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Clark, Mr. Rowney, Sir Barth. Shore, Mr. Carter, Mr. Harley, Mr. Yates, Lord Coningsby, Mr. Gwyn, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Sir Roger Bradshaw, Mr. Pierpoint, Mr. Lewis, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Thursby, Mr. Blofield, Mr. Blaake: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four of the Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Assaying of Plate.

Mr. Scobell reported from the Committee, to whom the Petitions of the Goldsmiths of the Cities of Exeter, Chester, and Norwich, and the Borough of Honiton, Chard, and Crewkern, were referred, That they had examined the same, and had come to a Resolution, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Wardens and Assay-masters be appointed in most considerable Cities and Towns of this Kingdom, for assaying all Plate, according to the present Standard; and for affixing the Britannia Mark on such Plate: And that the Goldsmiths, and Workers of Silver, in such Cities and Towns, be under such Rules and Regulations, as may prevent Abuses and Corruptions therein.

The said Resolution being read a Second time:

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Wardens and Assay-masters be appointed in most considerable Cities and Towns of this Kingdom, for assaying all Plate, according to the present Standard; and for affixing the Britannia Mark on such Plate: And that the Goldsmiths, and Workers of Silver, in such Cities and Towns, be under such Rules and Regulations, as may prevent Abuses and Corruptions therein.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in upon the said Resolution; and that Sir Barth. Shore and Mr. Scobell do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Baldwin's
Estate.

The Lord Cheine reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the better enabling Anne Baldwin, Widow, to make Sale of a Capital Messuage, and Lands, called Wiltons, and other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the County of Bucks, devised by her late Husband's Will, was committed, That they had examined the Allegations thereof; and that all Parties therein concerned had given their Consents, to the Satisfaction of the Committee: And that the Committee had made one Amendment to the Bill, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was twice read; and agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendment, be ingrossed.

Lacy's
Estate.

Mr. Palmer reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon, and for laying out the Surplus-money in the Purchase of Demense Lands, to be settled to the same Uses, was committed, That they had examined the Allegations thereof; and that all Parties concerned had given their Consents, to the Satisfaction of the Committee; And that the Committee had made several Amendments to the Bill, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

Ordered, That Mr. Robinson have Leave to withdraw his Petition touching the Election for the Borough of Great Grimsby, in the County of Lincolne. Great Grimsby Election.

A Petition of William Rider Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner, and Edward Burdet Esquire, having found out a Way for the supplying the Town and Port of New Deal with fresh Water; which will be a great Service to the Inhabitants and Ships that have Occasion to water there; King James the Second did, by Letters Patents, dated 21 July, in the 4th Year of his Reign, grant them the sole Liberty and Power of building a Conduit Head, Wharf, and other necessary Buildings, upon the Beach of the said Town, for carrying on the said Work; and to dig the Highways, Streets, and Waste Grounds, of his Majesty: And the Patentees were at great Charges, in causing Engineers to go from London to Deal, to view the Premises, and direct what was necessary to be done; and to treat with the Inhabitants, in order to the speedy completing of the said Work; but the Petitioner is informed, that one William Warner is endeavouring to advantage himself by the Petitioner's Discovery; and, for that End, hath begun a Work for bringing fresh Water to the Town of Deal; and hath obtained Leave of this House to bring in a Bill to bring fresh Water to the Town and Port of Deal; which, if it should pass into an Act, will destroy the Rights and Privileges granted to the Petitioner by the said Patent: And praying to be heard by Counsel, before the said Bill do pass. Deal Water works.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time: And that the Bill be read a Second time upon Friday Morning next.

Ordered, That Mr. Hancock, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Dalham, &c. Conyers, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Freke, Sir Robert Eden, Mr. Manors, White, Mr. Archdale, Mr. Greenhill, Mr. Smith, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Mounstecons, Mr. Crane, Mr. Harvey, be added to the Committee, to whom the Consideration of the Petition of Charles Stuteville Esquire, is referred.

Sir Richard Cocks reported from the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, for the County of Gloucester, was referred, That they had examined the Allegations therein; and that it appeared to them, that the Measure commonly called Water-measure, is so very uncertain, that great Inconveniencies, and vexatious Law-suits, do frequently happen thereby; and that they had directed him to move the House, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the better ascertaining the Measure, commonly called Water-measure. Water-measure.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the better ascertaining the Measure, commonly called Water-measure: And that Sir Richard Cocks and Mr. Hancock do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Motion being made, and the Question being put, Dee That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Dee navigable was committed, be now received; Navigation.

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the said Report be made upon Friday next, at Twelve a Clock; and nothing to intervene.

A Petition

Hamborough
Company.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen and Clothiers, Cloth-workers, and others, principally concerned in the Woollen Manufactures, in Huddersfeild, and the adjacent Parts, in the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures was first begun, and successfully carried on, by the Hamborough Company, to the Benefit . . . the whole Nation: But the Privileges of the said Company, have, of late, been infringed by Foreigners, who have already gotten a great Part of that Trade, especially to Holland; and the Whole is in Danger of falling into their Hands; which may be a Means of transplanting our Woollen Manufactures, by their Insight therein, to foreign Countries, where the same is already begun: And praying, That the said Company may be protected in their Privileges and Trade to Germany, only upon such Terms as the House shall think meet.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen and Clothiers, in the Cloathing Town and Parish of Guisely, in the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Trade of exporting our Woollen Manufactures was first begun, and has been best managed for the Good of the Manufacturers, by the Hamborough Company: But of late Years, for want of a sufficient Support of the said Company, Foreigners have gotten so great a Share of that Trade, that the English Merchants are in Danger of the utter Loss of exporting our Woollen Manufactures to Germany, as they have for some Years, to Holland: And should that Trade be intrusted in the hands of Foreigners, it must lie under great Hazards of having Hardships put upon the Clothiers, and of being set up in foreign Countries, by their Insight of the Cloathing Trade: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected in their Trade directly to Germany, under such Regulations as the House shall think fit, and that effectual Care may be taken to prevent the Exportation of our Wool.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table, until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Clothiers, Cloth-workers, and others, principally concerned in the Woollen Manufactures in Wakefeild, Horbury, Alverthorpe, and Ossett, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Hamborough Company first attempted, and successfully promoted, the Exportation of English Woollen Manufactures, to the great Advantage of the Traders therein: But, for want of a sufficient Support, Foreigners have gotten so great a Share of that Trade, that the said Company is in Danger of being destroyed; and thereby that Trade is in Danger of being lost to England, either by the Weakness of their Stocks, or, by their Insight into the Manner of working our Cloth, the Carrying and Setting up the same in foreign Countries: And praying, That the Hamborough Company may be established and protected in their Privileges and Trade to Germany, to prevent the Mischiefs aforesaid.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Clothiers, Cloth-dressers, and divers others, concerned in the Woollen Manufactures, in the ancient Cloathing Town and Parish of Bradford, in the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of English Woollen Manufactures was begun, and carried on, by the Hamborough Company, to the Advantage of all the Traders therein: But, of late, Foreigners have infringed the Privileges of that Company, and gotten so great a Part of the Trade to Germany, that English Merchants are like to have no Part thereof; and thereby that Trade is in great Danger of being lost to England, by Foreigners Insight to the Working of our Cloth, and the Opportunity of exporting our Wool; and so the same may be carried into foreign Countries: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected in their Trade directly to Germany, under such Regulations as the House shall think fit; so as all his Majesty's natural-born Subjects may be admitted into the said Company; and that effectual Care may be taken to prevent the Exportation of Wool.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Clothiers, and others, depending on the Woollen Manufactures, in the County of Suffolk, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That heretofore the Hamborough Company did export a considerable Part of the Petitioners Manufactures into Germany: But of late Years, since Foreigners have been permitted to trade thither, the Petitioners Trade hath much declined; and, if some Provision be not made for supporting the said Company, that Trade will wholly fall into the Hands of Foreigners; which will be very prejudicial to the Trade of the Woollen Manufactures in general: And praying, That the said Company may be supported in their Trade to Germany, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Serge-makers, and Wool-combers, Exporting of the Town and County of Southampton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That formerly Licence was granted for exporting from Southampton to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, 3,300 Todds of Wool yearly, to be combed, one Moiety at Southampton: But, in the late King James's Reign, Sir Edward de Carteret obtained a Grant for exporting thither double that Quantity unwrought; which was also established by an Act of Parliament in the First Year of his Majesty's Reign; to the great Impoverishment of the Petitioners, for Want of Work: And praying the Relief of the House in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

A Petition of the Inhabitants of Moreton, Hamstead, and Parts adjacent, in the County of Devon, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That their Woollen Manufacture Trade is very much decreased since the Prohibition thereof in Flanders, where the same is set up, and great Rewards offered to draw our Workmen thither; which has much increased the Number of the Poor, who are driven to great Wants for lack of Work: And praying, That some seasonable Remedy may be provided for the Petitioners Relief.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England.

A Bill to enable James Jeffes Esquire, to sell Lands in Southminster in the County of Essex, for Payment of Debts, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Absence.

Ordered, That Mr. Harris have Leave to go into the Country, for Recovery of his Health.

Ordered, That Mr. Smith, Burgess for Southampton, have Leave to go into the Country, upon extraordinary Occasions.

Supply.

Mr. Conyers reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolution, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, for the Discharging the Debt due to the Army.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, for the Discharging the Debt due to the Army.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Accounts of the Debt due to the Army may be put into such a Method of Examination, that the same may be stated and adjusted in order to their being cleared.

Resolved, That the Accounts of the Debts due to the Army shall be put into such a Method of Examination, that the same may be stated and adjusted, in order to their being cleared.

Mr. Conyers also reported from the said Committee, That they had directed him to move, That the Accounts of the Debt due for Transport Service, over and above the Sum of 330,769*l.* 10*s.* 7*d.* for the Transport Service in Reducing of Ireland, may be put into such a Method of Examination, that the same may be stated and adjusted.

Resolved, That the Accounts of the Debts due for Transport Service, over and above the Sum of 330,769*l.* 10*s.* 7*d.* for the Transport Service in the Reducing of Ireland, shall be put into such a Method of Examination, that the same may be stated and adjusted.

Gentlemen of the Long Robe: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

The House being informed, That Mr. Scutwell, Clerk of the Council, attended;

He was called in; and, at the Bar, presented to the House the Petitions presented to his Majesty in Council; with the Reports and Orders thereupon, relating to Charters that have been granted, during his Majesty's Reign, to Corporations that send Members to Parliament; together with a List of them.

And then he withdrew.

And the said List was read; and is as followeth; viz.

***

Ordered, That the said List and Papers be referred to the Committee appointed to examine all the Proceedings relating to Charters, and what new Charters have been granted during this Reign.

A Petition of Henry Howard, of Norfolk, Esquire, and John Houzdsnell, of Gray's Inn, Esquire, Executors of the last Will and Testament of the late Countess Dowager of Portland, in behalf of themselves, the Creditors and Legatees of the said late Countess, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That King Charles the Second, by his Letters Patents of the 24th of February 1676, for good Consideration, granted to Sir James Hayes, and Sir Peter Apsley, in Trust for the said Countess, full Power of licensing the Exportation of White Cloths, for which a small Duty is paid: That, the Countess had contracted several great Debts; and, by her said Will, charged the said Patent with 200 l. per Ann. Annuities to poor Relations and Servants, being almost the Amount of the Duty: But the Petitioners have applied the Duty towards Payment of her Debts; so that the Legatees have not received any Benefit by the Will; which will also be quite destroyed, if the Bill depending in the House, for taking away the Duties upon Woollen Manufactures exported, should pass into a Law: And praying, That a Clause may be inserted in the said Bill for securing the Petitioners in their Right and Property in the said Grant.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That a Committee be appointed to inquire how far the Laws against Popish Recusants have been put in Execution; and to inspect and review the said Laws; and to report their Opinions upon the same to the House; and also, to propose what further Remedies are necessary, to suppress the Growth of Popery in these Kingdoms, and to strengthen the Protestant Religion:

And it is referred to Mr. Hamond, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Sir Rich. Onslow, Mr. Moor, Mr. Mountague, Mr. Rowney, Sir Chr. Musgrove, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. How, Lord Coningsby, Sir Godfrey Cepley, Sir Wm. Glyn, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Mitton, Mr. Secretary Vernon, Lord Spencer, Sir Edw. Sidley, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Blisse, Mr. Lowndes, Mr. Chase, Sir Rich. Cocks, Sir Hen. Johnson, Mr. Dormer, Lord Chenie, Mr. Fleming, Mr. England, Sir John Mordant, Mr. Gorge, Mr. Bullock, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Mounstevens, Mr. Methuen; and all the Gentlemen of the Long Robe: And all that come are to have Voices; And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber; and to sit de die in diem: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

An ingrossed Bill for the Suspending the Bounty Money for exporting Corn, from the 9th Day of February 1699, to the 29th Day of September 1700, was read the Third time:

And several Amendments were severally proposed to be made to the Bill; viz.

Pr. 1. L. *, to leave out "all;" and insert "no."

Pr.

Pr. 2. L. 1. to leave out "suspended, dissallowed, and unpaid;" and insert "due or payable."

And, at the End of the Bill, to add "anything in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding."

And the same were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House; and the Bill amended at the Table accordingly.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for taking away the Bounty Money for exporting Corn, from the 9th Day of February 1699, to the 29th Day of September 1700.

Ordered, That Mr. Bullock do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Gardner's Estate.

A Message from the Lords, by Mr. Pitt and Dr. Newton:

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act for vesting the real Estate of Joseph Gardner, and Sarah his Wife, late the Estate of William Bridges Esquire, deceased, in Trustees, to be sold, for Payment of the Debts and Legacies therein mentioned; and for applying the Residue of the Money, upon Trust therein specified: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

State of the Nation.

A Motion being made, and the Question being proposed, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the State of the Nation;

An Amendment was proposed to be made to the Question, by leaving out "resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to:"

And the Question being put, That those Words stand Part of the Question;

The House divided.

The Noes go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Sir Walter Yonge, } 155.
Mr. Clark:

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Tredenham, } 162.
Mr. Scobell:

So it passed in the Negative.

Then the main Question, so amended, being put;

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, consider of the State of the Nation.

A Bill for the more effectual Employing the Poor, and Encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, was, according to Order; read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Pelham, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Sayers, Mr. Harley, Lord Coningsby, Sir Wm. Ashurst, Mr. Brotherton, Mr. Pierpoint, Mr. Godolphin, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Blaake, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. Bromley, Mr. Fleming, Sir Richard Onslow, Sir Chr. Musgrove, Mr. Harvey, Mr. Mounsteven, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Mr. Harcourt, Colonel Lee, Mr. Rowney, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Tilney, Sir Barth. Shower, Sir Wm. Scawen, Sir Ja. Oxenden, Sir Robert Davers, Sir Baz. Dixwell, Mr. Vernon, Sir Rob. Austen, Sir Tho. Cock, Mr. Mountague, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Conyers, Mr. Blofeld, Sir Walt. Yonge, Mr. Gott, Sir Godfrey Copley; and all that serve for the Counties of Norfolk, Wilts, Devon, and York: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Five a Clock, in the Speaker's Chamber.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they have Power to receive a Clause, to prolong the Time for Exportation of the Goods mentioned in the said Bill.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction also to the said Committee, That they have Power to receive a Clause, to dispense with the Merchants from paying any other Customs for the said Goods upon Importation, than the Half Subsidy, which is to remain by Law, after the Goods are exported.

Ditto.

A Petition of divers Linen Drapers in the City of London, was offered to the House, relating to the said Bill:

And the Question being put, That the Petition be brought up to the Table;

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the Report, touching Dover Harbour, Dover Harbour. be made upon Saturday Morning next.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Friday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Ordered, That the Bill for taking away the Duties upon Woollen Manufactures exported, be read a Second time To-morrow Morning. Woollen Manufactures, &c.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday next, at Eleven a Clock, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for qualifying Justices of Peace. Justices of Peace Qualification.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned, except the Committee, to whom the Bill for the better Employing of the Poor, and Encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, is committed. Employing the Poor.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve itself in . . . a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for the more effectual Suppression of Piracy. Suppressing Piracy.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of Colonel Henry Holt, in behalf of Captain Thomas Holt, Captain John Pigott, Captain John Forster, Ensign Samuel Clark, Ensign Thomas Bisse, and Ensign John Horn, late Officers in the Regiment of Foot commanded by him in the West Indies, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Regiment was, on the 1st of May 1695, reduced from Thirteen Companies to Five; and the supernumerary Officers were, by his Majesty's Order, to attend the Service, and be subsisted, together with the Regiment, and preferred as Vacancies should happen: That the aforesaid Officers are all of that Reduction, who are not yet provided for; and are excluded the Benefit of Half-pay, as reduced before the 10th of September 1697; and thereby are incapable of Preferment on the Vacancies which happen, though they are Englishmen, have a great Arrear of Pay due, and served long in a most unhealthy Climate, and undergone greater Hardships than those who have served nearer Home: And praying the House to consider the Case of the said Officers; and that they be allowed the same Benevolence of Half-pay, as is granted to the Officers reduced since the 10th of September 1697.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, and others, chief Inhabitants of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk; and also of Weavers, Wool-combers, and others, concerned in the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, on behalf of themselves, and many Hundreds of poor People, whose sole Livelihood depends thereupon; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Traders and Workers of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom are greatly impoverished by the vast Quantities of East India wrought Silks, Stuffs, Bengals, and painted Calicoes, imported of late Years: And praying the Consideration of the House thereof, and Relief in the Premises. Importing wrought Silks, &c.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more more effectual Employment of the Poor, and encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, is committed.

Half-pay.

A Petition of Blaize Gervaisot, a French Protestant Refugee, Lieutenant of Grenadiers, in the late Regiment of Foot, commanded by Colonel Saunderson, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner received the first Year's Half-pay; but some earnest Occasions calling him into Flanders, he there fell sick, and could not come over soon enough to be naturalized the last Session of Parliament; so that his Half-pay has been stopped: That the Petitioner is in the first Naturalization Bill of this Sessions; which has passed the House of Lords, and is now before this House: And praying, That his Half-pay may be continued, without which he and his Family must starve.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Robinson's Estate.

A Petition of Sir Thomas Robinson Baronet, and of Wm. Williams Esquire, his Uncle, and next Relation and Guardian, on behalf of the said Sir Thomas Robinson, and of Anne his only Sister, Infants under the Age of 21 Years, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Mother and Grandmother of the said Sir Thomas and Anne, did settle divers Lands, and, by their last Wills, did devise several Goods, and personal Estate, in the Whole, to the Value of 7,000 £, for the Portion of Anne; which, by reason of Sir Tho. Minority, cannot be raised, nor the said Lands settled, so as to prefer the said Anne, being Seventeen Years of Age, in Marriage, to such a convenient Match as is now proposed, without the Help of an Act of Parliament: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to enable Sir Thomas Robinson to charge his Estate with 7,000 £. notwithstanding his Nonage, for his Sister's Marriage Portion; and that the Lands, and personal Estate, of the said Anne, may be vested in him, in lieu thereof.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Henry Parker and Mr. Thursby do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Duty on foreign Paper.

A Petition of the principal White Paper-makers, on behalf of themselves, and the rest concerned in that Manufacture in England, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they are arrived to a very great Perfection in the said Art, and employ Abundance of poor Families; but the Duty upon all foreign, except French Paper, is so low, and therefore such vast Quantities imported, that tends to the Destruction of the said Manufacture in England: And praying, That a Duty may be laid upon foreign Paper, with a Duty in lesser Proportion on English Paper, by Distinction and Enumeration of Reams, as shall be thought meet for the Preservation, and further Encouragement, of the said Manufacture in England.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Hamborough Company.

A Petition of the Traders in the Woollen and Cotton Manufactures of the Stocking Trade, in the Counties of Worcester and Gloucester, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there being a Bill depending in the House for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company, the Petitioners say, that Experience shews, the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures does best flourish when left to its full Freedom, the many Buyers causing a current, and speedy Payment for their Commodities; the Consideration of which hath hitherto induced this House to discourage all Monopolies, as against Law, and destructive to the Rights and Liberties of the Subject: And praying, That the said Trade may remain free and unrestrained from the Interest of the Hamborough Company.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Cloth-buyers, Clothiers, and other Traders in the Woollen Manufactures, in and near the Town of Wakefield, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners find by the Votes of this House, that a Bill is brought in for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company: That Experience doth demonstrate, that when the Trade to Flanders was limited to the said Company only, it was very prejudicial to the Woollen Manufacture Trade of England in general; but, when that Trade was left to its full Freedom, it met with far greater Encouragement, both at Home and Abroad: And praying, That the said Trade may not be again reduced to the sole Interest of the Hamborough Company.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Clothiers, Cloth-workers, and other considerable Dealers in the Woollen Manufactures, at Hallifax, and Places adjacent, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is a Bill depending in the House for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company: But the Petitioners find, by Experience, that the Trade in the Woollen Manufactures doth meet with greater Encouragement, both at Home and Abroad, when 'tis left to its full Freedom of Commerce; and that, when it was limited to the Hamborough Company, that Trade was generally prejudiced thereby: And praying, That the Trade of the Woollen Manufactures may remain free and unlimited.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the said Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Clothiers, and others, in Batley, Hicmonwick, Birkenshaw, Heaton, and Adwalton, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures was first attempted, and afterwards successfully carried on, by the good Management of the Hamborough Company, to the great Benefit of this Nation; but, for want of a sufficient Support of the said Company, Foreigners have gotten so great a Share of that Trade, that all English Merchants are in Danger of being excluded from the Trade to Germany, as they have been from Holland several Years; whereby our Manufactures are in Danger of being debased, and the Art of making them transplanted into foreign Countries: And praying, That an Act of Parliament may pass, for establishing and protecting the said Company in their Trade to Germany, under such Regulations as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen and Clothiers principally concerned in the Woollen Manufactures in Holbeck, Hunslen, Armloy, and Wortley, in the West Riding of the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our English Woollen Manufactures was begun, and successfully carried on, by the Hamborough Company, to the general Benefit thereof; but the Privileges of that Company have of late been very much infringed by Foreigners, upon whom so great a Part of our Woollen Trade to Flanders is fallen, that the said Company is in Danger of being destroyed; and, by the Weakness of Foreigners Stocks, that Trade is in Danger to be let fall by them, or of being carried into foreign Countries, where it is already begun, through their Insight to the Working of our Manufactures, and the Opportunity they have of exporting our Wool: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected

protected by Act of Parliament, in their Trade to Germany, upon such Terms as the House shall think meet.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Hamborough Company.

A Petition of divers Clothiers and others concerned in the Woollen Manufactures, in the Town of Armsly and Wortley, in the West Riding and County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures, by the good Management of the Hamborough Company, was a general Benefit to the Cloathing Trade; but, for want of a Support to the said Company, they, and all English Merchants, are like to be excluded from that Trade to Germany by Foreigners, who have got the greatest Part thereof, and who may endanger the Loss of it to this Nation, by their Insight into the Manner of working, and the Opportunity of exporting, our Wool; or, by Hardships put upon the Clothiers, debase our Manufactures: And praying, That the said Company may be established and protected in their Trade directly to Germany; and that the Exportation of our Wool may be effectually prevented.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for the better Encouraging and Settling the Trade of the Hamborough Company be read a Second time.

Lindsey Level.

A Petition of Sir Robert Killigrew Knight, Hen. Killigrew, Thomas Windham, Edward Heron, and Wm. Killigrew, Esquires, in behalf of themselves and others, claiming under the Drainers of Lindsey Level, in the County of Lincolne, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in 1634, the Commissioners of Sewers, Lords, Owners, and Commoners of Lindsey Level, at a general Assembly, contracted with the Earl of Lindsey for draining the same; for which he was to have 24,000 Acres, and be put into the Possession of 14,000 Acres for his own Use, as soon as he should have drained the Lands between Bourn and Kime Ea, and to have the other 10,000 Acres when the Whole should be drained; and the Contract was decreed by the Commissioners of Sewers, confirmed by the Royal Assent, and inrolled in Chancery; and the Earl took in Participants; and, at the Expence of 80,000 l. so effectually drained that Part between Bourn and Kime Ea, that the Sewers decreed 14,000 Acres to the said Earl, and ascertained the same: That the Proprietors thereof built thereon several good Houses; inclosed, and plowed, and sowed, a considerable Part thereof; and planted themselves and Families there, intending to drain the remaining Part of the Level: But the Inhabitants of the neighbouring Towns, taking Advantage of the National Troubles in 1641, riotously entered on the said 14,000 Acres, and destroyed all the Buildings, Fences, and growing Crops; and have forcibly held the same in common ever since, notwithstanding many legal and amicable Endeavours have been used to regain the same: And praying, That the Petitioners, and their Participants, may have Leave to bring in a Bill for confirming the said Decrees, and their Title under them to the said 14,000 Acres, Part of the said Level.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee;

It passed in the Negative.

Resolved, Nemine contradicente, That the said Petition be rejected.

Mansell's Estate.

Mr. Price, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill to enable Edward Mansell Esquire, to mortgage and sell the Improprate Rectories of Llanridian and Penrice, in the County of Glamorgan, for Payment of his Debts, and raising Portions for his younger Children; and for settling the Manor of Henlys, and other Lands of more Value: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Harley, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the more speedy and effectual making a convenient Way out of Chancery-lane to Lincoln's-inn-fields, and Places adjacent: And the same was received; and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Saturday Morning next.

Ordered, That Mr. Trefusis have Leave to go into the Country, for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions.

An ingrossed Bill for hindering Papists from disinheriting their Protestant Heirs was read the Third time.

And a Debate arising in the House thereupon;

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Debate be adjourned;

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Colonel Lee, } 150.
                                  { Sir Tho. Cook: }

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Clarke, } 129.
                                  { Mr. Rudge: }

So it passed in the Affirmative.

Resolved, That the Debate be adjourned until Wednesday Morning next.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more effectual employing the Poor, and encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, was committed, be made To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the quieting the Subject against all Pretences of Concealments, Incroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, was committed, be made upon Monday Morning next.

A Message from the Lords, by Sir John Franklyn and Sir Lacon William Child:

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act for the more speedy Payment of the Debts of John Cloberry Esquire, deceased; and for raising Portions and Maintenance for his Children: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House. And also,

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Ordered, That the Call of the House be adjourned until this Day Sevensnight: And that such Members as shall not then attend, be sent for in Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

A Bill for taking away the Duties upon Woollen Manufactures exported was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the said Bill.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to the said Committee, That they have Power to receive a Clause for taking off the Duties upon all Sorts of Grain, Bread, Biscuit, Meal, and Malt, exported.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction also to the said Committee, That they have Power to receive a Clause for taking off the Duties of Aulnage, after the Time of the Expiration of the Grant thereof.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading to the East Indies, a Corporation.

Mr.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Cook took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Cook reported from the said Committee, That they had gone through the Bill, and made an Amendment; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made To-morrow Morning, after the Report from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more effectual Employment of the Poor, and encouraging the Manufactures of England, is committed.

Supply Bill;
Land Tax
and Irish
Forfeitures.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Monday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Bill for the applying all the forfeited Estates, and Interests, in Ireland, and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown within that Kingdom, since the 13th Day of February 1688, to the Use of the Publick; and of the Bill for granting an Aid to his Majesty, for maintaining his Majesty's Navy, Guards, and Garrisons; and towards paying the Debts due to Seamen; and for other necessary Occasions.

Orford, &c.
Elections.

Ordered, That the Reports from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, touching the Election for the Borough of Orford, in the County of Suffolk; and touching the Election for the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardnesse, in the County of Devon; be made upon Saturday Morning next.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

PRAYERS.

Dolphin of Pool Ship.

A PETITION of Sir William Phippard Knight, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner bought a Dutch built Flyboat, now called the Dolphin of Pool, of one Shadrack Lester, for less than 100*l.* she being a Prize, and very rotten; and the Petitioner, to do the Carpenters and Seamen of Pool a Kindness, and to increase the Trade there, did rebuild the said Ship, which cost him above 1,200*l.*; but some Doubts have arisen, whether she is, by an Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses, in the Plantation Trade, prohibited to trade to or from any of his Majesty's Plantations: And praying, That the said Ship may be made free to traffick, to and from the Ports of this Kingdom, to any of his Majesty's Plantations or Colonies.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Molyncux and Mr. Blake do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Woollen Ma-
nufactures.

A Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgomasters, of the Borough of Westbury, in the County of Wilts, in behalf of themselves, and many other Clothiers, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, by reason of the great Decay of the Woollen Manufacture, and the Discouragement it lies under, the Clothier is rendered incapable of employing the Poor as formerly; whose Condition is very miserable, and the Poores Rates very insupportable to the Petitioners: And praying, That the Woollen Manufactures may be encouraged, for the Benefit of the Petitioners, the Advantage of the Poor, and the Interest of the Publick.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the Encouragement of the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

VOL. 13.

The House being informed, That the Bill for the Coinage Duties of Coinage is near expiring;

And a Motion being made, for a Supply to be granted to his Majesty, for the Continuance of the said Coinage;

Resolved, That the Consideration of the said Motion be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

An ingrossed Bill, from the Lords, intituled; An Act for vesting the real Estate of Joseph Gardner and Sarah his Wife, late the Estate of William Ridges Esquire, deceased, in Trustees, to be sold, for Payment of the Debts and Legacies therein mentioned; and for applying the Residue of the Money, upon Trusts therein specified; was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

A Petition of Lieutenant Charles Hubbelthome was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That his Father, Colonel John Hubblethome, served in English Pay in Scotland and in England many Years; and was afterwards slain in a Sea Engagement; and the Petitioner, upon the late Revolution, went over into Ireland, with Duke Schonberg, and served as a Lieutenant in the Earl of Meath's Regiment; where, in the first general Attack against Lymrick, the Petitioner was wounded through the Face and Tongue, and thought mortal; under which he lay in great Pain several Months, speechless; and, before he was thoroughly recovered, marched with the said Regiment into Flanders, and served there until he lost his Speech again, and contracted such an Illness, that he was forced to desire Leave to come over for England for Relief; and, in his Absence, another was put in his Post; and his Sickness being of a long Duration, occasioned his not applying sooner to the House: And praying, That, in Consideration of his Father's long and faithful Services, and the Petitioner's own Services, Sufferings, and Disabilities, he may be admitted into Half-pay, for his necessary Support, he having never had any Allowance.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Mr. Molineux, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the Ship Dolphin of Poole to trade as a free Ship: And the same was received; and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time upon Wednesday next, in a full House.

An ingrossed Bill for the more effectual Employing the Poor, and Encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, was read the Third time: the Poor.

And an Amendment was proposed to be made, Press 1. L. 1. by inserting "but," before "under:"

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House, and the Bill amended at the Table accordingly.

Resolved,

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Ordered, That Sir Richard Onslow do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Judicature Relief of Officers and Soldiers.

Mr. Carter reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for erecting a Judicature to relieve poor Officers and Soldiers, touching their Pay detained from them, and other Injuries complained of, was committed, That they had made several Amendments to the Bill, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, That the said Report be taken into Consideration upon this Day Sevensnight, in a full House.

Dover
Harbour.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Petition relating to Dover Harbour was referred, be taken into Consideration upon Monday next, at Eleven a Clock.

Bone-lace.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury, relating to the Bill for prohibiting the Importation of Bone-lace, was referred, be made upon Wednesday next, in a full House.

Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Admiral Hobson have Leave to go into the Country, for the Recovery of his Health.

A Message from the Lords, by Mr. Meredith and Sir Richard Holford:

Mr. Speaker,

Vandertyd's
Nat.

The Lords have agreed to the Bill, intituled, An Act for naturalizing Francis Vandertyd and Agnet Vandermerch, with some Amendments: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

Holman's Indentures.

Also the Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act to supply the Loss of certain Indentures of Lease and Release, heretofore made by Philip Holman Esquire, since deceased, to George Holman his Son, now also deceased: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Orford
Election.

Sir Rowland Gwyn reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Orford, in the County of Suffolk; and the Resolutions of the Committee thereupon, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the Petition of Sir Edmund Bacon Baronet, and Wm. Johnson Esquire, complaining of an undue Election and Return of Sir Thomas Felton Baronet, and Sir Charles Hedges Knight, to serve for the said Borough:

That the 1st Question between the Petitioners and Sitting Members, and determined by the Committee, was upon the Right of Election.

That the Petitioners Counsel insisted, That the Right of Election was in the Mayor, Portmen, capital Burgesses, and Freemen, of the said Borough.

That the Number of the Portmen is Eight; the Number of the capital Burgesses is 12.

That the Sitting Members Counsel insisted, That the Right of Election was in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses only.

That the Petitioners Counsel, to make out the Right, as by them alleged, produced several Returns of Persons to serve in Parliament; viz.

2d and 3d Phil. and Mary, the Indenture is made between the Sheriff of Suffolk, on the one Part; and Ten 12 burgensium villæ de Orford, et communitat' ejusdem villæ, ex altera parte; and says, quod prædict' burgenses et communitas elegerunt; and concludes, quod prædict' 12 burgens' sigilla sua apposuerunt.

VOL. 13.

28 Eliz. Major, burgenses, et communitas villæ et burgi de Orford elegerunt; and concludes, Major, burgenses, et communitas villæ et burgi prædict', sigillum suum commune apponi fecerunt.

15 Car. 1. Major, communitas, et burgenses, qui proclamationi, in pleno com' fact' interfuer', elegerunt: The Return is under the Common Seal.

16 Car. 1. The Return is made in the same Manner. The Petitioners Counsel also produced a paper, which begins thus. . . Orford electio burgensium pro Parlamento, ibidem, 22 Octobris 1640.

Willielmus Platers miles, et Carolus le Grosse miles, nominati pro burgensibus.

Then follows the Names of the Mayor, Eight Portmen, and of several capital Burgesses, and others, to the Number of Forty-one; and concludes, Prædict' burgenses, sicut præfert', nominati, electi sunt, nullo contradicente.

And it appeared by the Evidence, That the said Paper was Mr. Alexander's Hand, who was Town Clerk of Orford at that time the said Poll was mentioned to be taken. And

Mr. Nathanael Gooding said, That he found the said Paper, about 14 Years since, among Mr. Copping's Papers, with the Town Seal; which Mr. Copping had been Mayor of Orford: That he had been a Member of the Corporation for Twenty Years and upwards, and never knew Freemen denied to vote; and that he had acted as Town Clerk in the Year 1680, when there happened an Election, at which Sir John Duke and Mr. Glemham stood Candidates: That he then called over the capital Burgesses and Freemen, and there was no Objection to the Freemen when called over; but they did not sign the Indenture of Return; yet owned there was no other Candidates nor Dispute about it: That at the Election soon after the Revolution, Sir Adam Felton being like to be out-voted, and he making Interest for him, sent for Simon Bredstry and Richard Townsend, antient Freemen, whom he kept private, in case there should be Occasion for them; and that Tho. and Joseph Hastings were the Occasion of sending for them; but there being no Occasion of them, he acknowledged they did not vote: That at the Election in 1695, the Freemen, as well as the capital Burgesses, were called over before the Election.

Simon Bredstry said, That he was at the Election in 1695, at which time he gave his Vote for Mr. Jeremy Copping, that lived in London; and that about Seven or Eight Years ago, Mr. Hamond of Burford sent for him to give his Vote; and accordingly he did go to Orford; but did not vote, there being no Occasion for him.

Mr. Palmer, who had been Portman 15 or 16 Years, and John Marrett, who said he had been a Freeman ever since the Year 1680, said, They were present at the Election in 1680; and that the free Burgesses were called over at that Election, and held up their Hands, as well as the rest.

Mr. John Hook said, He had been at Three Elections since the Year 1680, when all the Freemen were called over, and voted.

Mr. John Stephens, who had been Freeman of Orford 40 Years, said, that he remembered, that the free Burgesses had joined with the capital Burgesses in several Elections; but he could name only One Election, which was that of the Earl of Disert and Mr. Glemham, when they were not opposed; nor did he ever know any Election controverted.

That the Sitting Members Counsel, by way of Answer as to the Point of Right, produced the Charter of the said Corporation primo Jacobi, being an Insuperimus of a Charter 21 Eliz.

And also several Indentures of Return.

In Queen Elizabeth's Charter there are several Insuperimus's as high as Henry the 3d of other Charters; and by the Charter of Henry the 3d, They are called by the Name of

Orford
Election.

of probi homines; and in the following Charters, down to Queen Eliz. they are called burgenses; and by her Charters they are constituted a Mayor, Eight Portmen, and Twelve capital Burgesses; and afterwards are these Words,—Et quod de cætero imperpetuum in futurum prædict' octo portmanni villæ sive burgi illius, et duodecim capitales Burgenses villæ illius et successores sui, portmanni, et capitales burgenses prædict' sunt et erunt, et habeantur et reputabuntur sola communitas ejusdem villæ, ac ipsos communitat' burgi de Orford prædict' facimus, creamus, constituimus, et declaramus, per præsentis.

That the Returns were as follow:

26 Eliz. Major et communitas ex eorum communi assensu elegerunt—Major et communitas sigillum suum commune burgi prædict' apposuerunt.

30 Eliz. in the same Form.

39 Eliz. in the same Form.

43 Eliz. differs only in the Conclusion; which is, tam vic' quam major, sigillum officior' suorum apposuerunt.

21 Jacobi, The Election was in the same Form; but concludes, Major, communitas, sigilla separalia officior' suorum apposuerunt.

1st Caroli. The Election was in the same Form; concludes, Major et communitas, sigilla separalia officiorum suorum apposuerunt.

13 Car. 2<sup>di</sup>, The Election was in the same Form; Major et communitas sigilla officiorum suorum apposuerunt.

31 Car. 2<sup>di</sup>, The Indenture between the Sheriff of the one Part, and the Mayor and 10 other Persons, named Majorem partem communitatis ejusdem villæ et burgi—Major et communitas prædict' ex eorum assensu et consensu elegerunt—Major et communitas sigillum suum commune apposuerunt.

33<sup>o</sup> Car. Major et communitas, qui proclamationi interfuerint, elegerunt—Major et communitas sigill' commune villæ sive burgi prædict' apposuerunt.

7<sup>o</sup> Willielmi 3ii. The Indenture between the Sheriff, of the one Part; and the Mayor, et communitatem ejusdem burgi, of the other Part.—Major et communitas elegerunt, tam vic', quam major, et communitas sigilla officiorum suorum apposuerunt.

9 Willielmi 3ii, in the same Form.

10 Willielmi 3ii, in the same Form.

That it appeared by the Town Book, that John Marret was made free the Second October 1682.

That there was also read to the Committee, out of a Book of the Corporation, an Entry made at a Court held by the Mayor, Five Portmen, and Five capital Burgesses, on the 5th of February 1680, in these Words: Memorandum, quod eodem die, &c. major et communitas burgi prædict' assemblat' et congregat' existen' in camera hujus burgi, eligend' burgenses pro parlamento domini regis prox' futur' tenend', ex eor' unanimi assensu et consensu nominaver' Johannem Duke bar' et Thomam Glemham ar', fore burgenses pro hoc burgo, ad parliament' dicti domini regis apud Oxon' prox' tenend'.

The Sitting Members Counsel called several Witnesses; viz.

William Porter: Who said, He had been Town Clerk ever since the Year 1682, and remembered all the Elections since that Time; and positively asserted, that the Right of Election was in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses only, and that the Freemen did not use to be called over at Elections; and that he had looked over the ancient Books, and did not find any Footsteps of Freemen's Voting, nor never knew them demand to be polled till the last Election; nor was there in his Time any Poll taken till last Election.

Mr. Thomas Hastings said, That he had been Portman about 46 Years; and that he had been present at all Elections since that Time; and that the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses, were the Electors; that the Freemen at such Elections were not called over, nor demanded to be polled; and if they did, they were denied; and that Simon Bredstrey did not vote at Mr. Copping's Election, nor was sent for by him; nor do Freemen vote for Mayor or Chamberlains.

Daniel Whitby said, He was born in Orford; and that he could remember for 40 Years very well; and that he never knew any Persons elect but Mayor, Portmen, and 12 capital Burgesses; nor have the Freemen offered themselves, or been called over at such Elections; as the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses, are; and that he never knew Simon Bredstrey vote, or offer to vote at any Election.

Tho. Thurston, said, He had known Orford 20 Years, and has been at several Elections; and that the Right was in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses; and he never knew Freemen called over, or offer to vote.

William Robinson said, That he was a Portman, and had been a Freeman of Orford 19 Years; and that the Right of Election is in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses only; and that himself was a Freeman Nine Years, and never voted, nor never knew any Freeman offer to vote.

John Brady said, That he was a capital Burgess and had known Orford 47 Years being born and bred there, and that the Right was in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses; and that he never knew Freemen offer to vote till the last Election.

John Tyes said, That he is a capital Burgess, and had known Orford 20 Years; and that the Right was in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses; and that he never knew Freemen vote, nor called over.

Mr. Edmund Foster, a Neighbour to Orford, said, That he had known Two or Three Elections; and that the Method was, that the Town Clerk, before the Election, called over the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses, and dotted such of them as did appear; and that, at the Election in 1693, he dotted with Mr. Porter the Town Clerk; and that the Freemen are not called over: However, he acknowledged, that some of the Freemen would be in the Room, and upon the Naming of the Candidates would hallow and make a Noise at Elections.

Sir Charles Gandy said, That he had known Orford 20 Years, and had been a capital Burgess of Orford, and had endeavoured to satisfy himself in the Constitution of the Town; and that they did assure him the Right of Election was in the Mayor, Portmen, and capital Burgesses: That he was present once when the Lord Disert was elected, and there was a great Confluence of People; but they were not distinguished by Freemen: However, he acknowledged, for refusing the Office of Mayor, he had been discontinued for some Years.

That the Committee, upon the Evidence, came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Right of electing Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Orford, in the County of Suffolk, is in the Mayor, Portmen, capital Burgesses, and Freemen of the said Borough.

That the Right being so settled by the Opinion of the Committee, the Petitioners Counsel proceeded to shew, that the Petitioners had the Majority of Votes: And called

Mr. Nath. Gooding: Who produced a Poll, which, he said, he took by the Mayor Stevens' Order in the Town Chamber; and he said, all that were so polled were Portmen, capital Burgesses, or Freemen.

Upon the said Poll, the Numbers were thus;

For Sir Edmund Bacon,	33.
For Mr. Johnson,	34.

That there were for Sir Edmund Bacon Eight Portmen, Nine capital Burgesses, and 16 Freemen; and for Mr. Johnson, the same Number of Portmen, and capital Burgesses, and 17 Freemen.

That there being Two Persons acting as Mayor at Orford, namely, Mr. Stevens and Mr. John Syred; Sir Tho. Felton, and Sir Cha. Hedges were proposed by Mr. Syred, and Sir Edmund Bacon and Mr. Johnson by Mr. Stevens, That Mr. Porter drew a Piece of Paper out of his Pocket, which, he said, was the Precept, but he did not read it: That Mr. Porter began the Poll for Mr. Syred, and he the said Mr. Gooding began to take a Poll for Mr. Stephens, and Mr. Porter forbid him to go on: That he had not polled above Four or Five Men, but he desisted, Mr.

Mr. Porter promising to be just: But afterwards, the said Mr. Porter refusing to poll the Freemen, he went on with his Poll, and polled, for the Petitioners, the Numbers above-mentioned.

Being asked by the Sitting Members Counsel, if he did not begin his Poll after the Return was made by Mr. Syred; he said he did not; but he took the Poll in the Town Chamber, and called them all over twice.

That there are none polled for the Sitting Members in this Poll.

It appeared to the Committee, That there have been Two Mayors in this Corporation ever since the Year 1693, and two Sets of Officers, one Set acting under one Mayor, and the other acting under the other Mayor; and thereupon there arose a Question, which of those were legal Freemen, who were made Freemen since this Dispute about the Mayor; the Determining of which depended on the Legality of the Mayor.

And, as to that, it appeared, That on the 13th of August 1693, there was a Court held by the Mayor, which occasioned this Difference in the Town; some being of Opinion this Court was not duly summoned nor held; and consequently, that the Three capital Burgesses elected at that Court were not duly elected.

By the Evidence of Mr. Nathanael Gooding and Mr. Tho. Palmer, it appeared, That there were present at that Court the Mayor, Mr. Nath. Gooding, Mr. Palmer, and the Two Hastings; and that the first Three being the Majority of that Court, were for filling up the Vacancies of capital Burgesses; and accordingly they elected Mr. Glemham, Mr. Bence, and Mr. Hook; and Joseph Kemp the Serjeant proved, That he had given the usual Notice of the Sitting of the Court, though Mr. Hastings, being examined for the Sitting Members, said, the Court was held by Surprise, and they did not come in till the Three capital Burgesses were elected.

Upon this Difference, the Two Hastings' being Clavers, and One of the Keys of the Chest where the Charter and Town-writings were kept being lost, they broke open the Chest, and took out the Charter and Writings, and set up a distinct Interest; so that the then Mayor was forced to have a new Book to enter the Proceedings of his Court; and, on Monday before Michaelmas, these divided Interests chose Two Mayors; and this Town have continued to have Two Mayors ever since, each having a Mace and Officers.

There have been, upon these Disorders, several Proceedings at Law; and there was produced to the Committee a Copy of a Record of an Information against the said Rich. Gooding, Nath. Gooding, and Tho. Palmer, for holding the said Court on the said 13th of April, without Notice to the rest of the Portmen, and electing and swearing the said Mr. Glemham, Mr. Bence, and Mr. Hook, capital Burgesses; as also for holding another Court on the 24th of May then next following, and putting out Henry Parker and Joseph Hastings, Two Portmen; and swearing of Mr. Hook, and Mr. Saunders, into their room; whereupon there was a Verdict, upon the Tryal at Bar, for the Defendants: And Mr. Betts said, That the Tryal lasted Three Hours; and the Verdict was, upon full Evidence, to the Satisfaction of the Court.

There was also produced the Copy of a Record of another Information, which was brought against Thomas Hastings and Joseph Hastings, for breaking open the Chest, and taking away the Charter and Evidences of the Corporation; upon which there is a Verdict against the Defendants: And

Mr. Betts said, That it was tried before the Lord Chief Justice Holt, at Ipswich; and, upon full Evidence, they were convicted, and a Capias was sued out, and they were brought into the King's Bench Court, and Counsel moved, That the Charters and Writings might be restored; and the Court said they should be restored: But afterwards, Mr. Attorney General entered a Noli prosequi; upon which they moved to be brought into Court again, which was granted, and they were afterwards discharged.

VOL. 13.

That the Committee thereupon were of Opinion, and directed, That the Counsel should be confined to bring Evidence of such Persons only, as were made Portmen, capital Burgesses, or Freemen, for the Borough of Orford, before Michaelmas 1693.

That the Counsel being acquainted therewith, the Sitting Members Counsel delivered in their Poll taken by Mr. Porter, under the Mayor Syred; upon which the Numbers were thus,

For Sir Thomas Felton,	17.
For Sir Charles Hedges,	16.
For Sir Edmund Bacon,	3.
For Mr. Johnson,	4.

Of which the Counsel for the Petitioners did admit Eight who voted for Sir Tho. Felton, and Seven who voted for Sir Cha. Hedges, to be made free before Michaelmas 1693.

But the Sitting Members Counsel did not think . . . further to controvert the Numbers; but put the Cause upon this, That not one of the Petitioners Voters, not set down by Mr. Porter, demanded to be polled; and for that they called several Witnesses:

Mr. Porter, Mr. Edmund Foster, Mr. Tho. Hastings, Mr. Tho. Thurston:

The Substance of whose Evidence was, That, about Nine a Clock in the Morning of the Election Day, they went to the Hall; and the Portmen and capital Burgesses were called over, and acquainted with the Occasion of their Meeting; and that though Sir Tho. Felton and Sir Cha. Hedges had the Majority in Appearance, yet a Poll was demanded, and had; on which, the Numbers were, as in the Poll by Mr. Porter delivered in; and that no Person did particularly demand to be polled, but who are there set down; and that Mr. Stephens, without any Pretence of being Mayor, polled as a capital Burgess at Mr. Syred's Poll; and the Earl of Dysert, Sir John Duke, and Mr. Palmer, polled at the same Poll for the Petitioners: That, after the Poll was over, they made Proclamation, and the Common Seal was put to the Indenture in open Court, Mr. Stephens being present; and then they adjourned the Court: Yet it was acknowledged, that there were Freemen present; and the Earl of Dysert, and Mr. Johnson, did demand, That the said Freemen should be polled.

That the Petitioners Counsel offered to call other Witnesses as to the Point of taking the Poll; but, that Matter being examined to before, the Committee did not think fit to have any more Witnesses as to that.

And that the Committee, upon the whole Matter, came to these Resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Thomas Felton Baronet, is not duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Orford, in the County of Suffolk.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Charles Hedges Knight, is not duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Orford.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Edmund Bacon Baronet, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament, for the said Borough of Orford.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That William Johnson Esquire, is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Orford.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the Right of electing Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Orford, in the County of Suffolk, is in the Mayor, Portmen, capital Burgesses, and Freemen, of the said Borough;

The House divided.

The Noes go forth.

Ordered, That the Lord Chenie do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Lacy's Estate.

An ingrossed Bill for the Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon; and for laying out the Surplus-money in the Purchase of Demesne Lands, to be settled to the same Uses; was read the Third time.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for the Sale of several Western Manors and Lands, the Estate of Arthur Lacy Esquire, for discharging a Mortgage thereupon; and for laying out the Surplus-money in the Purchase of Demesne Lands, to be settled to the same Uses.

Ordered, That Mr. Palmer do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

The Clerk of the Crown attended, according to Order; and amended the Return for the Borough of Orford, in the County of Suffolk. Orford Return amended.

A Petition of Richard Childe Esquire, an Infant, younger Son, Executor, and Devisee, of and in the last Will and Testament of Sir Josiah Childe, late of Wansted, in the County of Essex, Baronet, deceased, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said Sir Josiah did, upon the Marriage of his eldest Son with the Daughter of Sir Thomas Cook, enter into several Covenants for settling divers Lands and Hereditaments to several Uses: That the Petitioner is willing to perform his Father's said Covenants; but is at present incapable so to do, by reason of his Infancy: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for vesting divers Lands and Hereditaments in Trustees, for the better Performance of the said Covenants, and for supplying some Defects in the Marriage Articles then made. Childe's Estate.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Tho. Willoughby do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Mr. Lowndes, according to Order, presented to the House an Account of all Grants made since his Majesty's Accession to the Crown, which are not already laid before this House: And the Title thereof was read: And the Account is as followeth; viz. Grants from the Crown.

Wm. Lowndes.

Ordered, That the said Account do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

Dover
Harbour.

The House, according to Order, took into Consideration the Report from the Committee, to whom the Petition, relating to Dover Harbour, was referred:

And the said Report was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Sir Henry Sheers said, That all Seafaring Men are undoubtedly very sensible of the Usefulness of the said Harbour, when in Repair; the same being a Security for all Ships in Distress, whether driven by Storm from their Anchors in the Downes, or otherwise; but now it is, in a manner, become useless, being choaked up with Beach, Sand and Mud, and the Piers are very much out of Repair, insomuch that they are in continual Danger of being lost; and should the Sea break in before they are repaired, the Harbour will be irrevocably lost.

That in the Year 1652, a Squadron of English Cruisers, of the 4th Rate, went into the said Harbour, and cleaned and victualled within the Piers, some of which Ships came in one Day, and went out the next; there being then Eleven Foot Water at Neap Tides, and Twenty-two Foot Water at Spring Tides; and since that, King Charles the Second ascribed a great deal of his Success, in his Maritime Wars, to the Service of the said Harbour, which is the most commodiously situated in the World; and, could the Publick but be made sensible of the Advantages the said Harbour might be improved to, no Cost would be spared to improve so good a Work, which will answer any Expence the Nation shall be put to, and which, he believes, might be a great Means to prevent a Maritime War, it commanding the narrowest Part of the Chanel:

That he has seen a Survey of the said Harbour, taken by Direction of the Lords of the Admiralty, about Two Years ago, which is a perfect Transcript of what he took about 15 Years since; and thinks there is no Doubt, if Money be provided, but that the said Harbour may be restored to its former Condition, if not better; the Port, by Art, being capable of yielding Two or Three Foot Depth of Water more within than ever it did, which is a very great Matter: And Sir Henry Sheers presented the annexed Estimate of the Charge, amounting to 30,100*l.* but said, That 6 or 7,000*l.* yearly will be a sufficient Sum to be expended in carrying on the said Work:

VOL. 13.

That when the Work, pursuant to the said Estimate, shall be completed, the said Harbour, by the help of a Backwater and the Sea, as he has conceived and designed it, the Backwater being now of very little Use, will cleanse itself from what the Sea brings in, and thereby preserve its Depth for ever, without any future Expence to the Publick; which no artificial Port does, that he knows of, they being subject to be choaked up, and are a constant . . . . to their several Princes and States, who are Masters of the like artificial Ports:

That the new Work of Masonry, by the said Estimate, designed on the North Side of the Haven, to be carried out some Distance into deeper Water, being designed as a Remedy to the future bringing in of the Beach, which has been all along the greatest Impediment to the Service of this Port, will add an Advantage to the Preservation of the Work against the Rage of the Sea, and cure that Evil for the Time to come; which is a Benefit the Port never yet enjoyed.

Mr. Bretton said, That the Harbour is so choaked up, that the Packet Boat cannot come in but at Spring Tides; for which Reason, Captain Gibson, Commander of the Packet, lately besought the Commissioners of the Post Office, that the Mail might be delivered at Deale; for that the said Harbour was no longer safe, he having been like to be cast away, while waiting to get in: Which was ordered accordingly.

Mr. Mackay, Manager of the Dover Packet, said, That the Packet has often been obliged to land the Mail from the Downes, for Want of sufficient Water to come into Dover Harbour: Though the Packet Boat draws but Six Foot Water; yet many Times there is not Three Foot Depth of Water in the Harbour; so that the Packet must many Times wait, till a Boat goes out to tell the Commander whether he may venture in or not, which is a very great Delay to Passengers, and the Mail; of which frequent Complaints were made: For which Reason, the Commissioners of the Post Office ordered the Mail to be delivered at Deal.

James Harvey, Master of the Packet betwixt Dover and Ostend, said, That Dover Harbour is so bad, that he had often been obliged to land the Mail from the Downes; and that sometimes it is so shallow, that a long Boat cannot get in; and once he was forced to wait 48 Hours to get into the Harbour, though he had a fair Wind.

Mr. Bretton said, That, within these 20 Years, he has known a Ship of 300 Tons, laden with Tobacco, discharge herself at the Port of Dover, which is now lost, and the Piers of the Harbour want great Repair; so that if his Majesty had not allowed 500*l.* Two Years ago, for their Support, upon the Report of Sir Cloudesty Shovell and others, who were at the said Survey mentioned by Sir Henry Sheers, and agrees with it; they had then been quite destroyed, as he believes; and if the Sea should break in before the Piers are repaired, the said Harbour, which is the safest on all the Coast, is not to be recovered; so that many Merchant Ships in Distress, which might receive Succour from the said Harbour, will be utterly lost; many of which, every Winter, being driven in, very much shattered, without Cable or Anchors, where they unlade, and refit; which, in 20 Years last, has saved many Hundred thousand Pounds to the Merchants:

That in 1689, about Seventy Sail of Merchant Ships were driven into the said Harbour by Storm from their Anchors, without Cables; the which, at 2,000*l.* a Ship, being a moderate Computation, as he takes it, amounts to 140,000*l.*; and, in all Probability, would have fallen into the Enemies Hands, had it not been for the said Harbour; and that, about 4 Years since, several Transport Ships, with Men, were forced into the Harbour, which otherwise would have been cast away, as he believes:

That heretofore the Port of Dover yielded a Revenue to the Crown of about 20,000*l.* per Annum for Customs; but for 12 Years past it has produced a very inconsiderable yearly Sum, through the Loss of their said Port and Trade; the which, with Losses by Fire of a Farm-house

and Barn, Part of the Harbour Revenue, and Losses by the late War to the Inhabitants of Dover, has rendered them incapable of paying their Rents for the cleansing and repairing the said Harbour and Piers; for the doing whereof, there is a Revenue of about 300 l. per Annum; but not above 150 l. per Annum is received of it:

That former Parliaments had such a Regard to the Service of the said Harbour, that, towards its Repairs, several Acts passed in the Reigns of Queen Eliz. King James the First, and King Charles the Second, for laying a Duty upon all Ships and Vessels, that did or might receive any Advantage by the said Harbour; the last of which Acts expired about 38 Years since, and produced about 9,000 l. in Seven Years time; but what the former Acts yielded, he does not know, or does it appear by the Books of the Harbour Revenue, several Leaves thereof being torn out that should shew the same.

He further said, That there is a very good Victualling Office at Dover, with great Conveniencies, and the only Victualling Office between Chatham and Portsmouth, from whence the Navy Royal, when in the Downes, takes in Provisions; and where he believes, and has been informed, the King may victual cheaper than at London; which Office will become useless, in case the said Harbour be not repaired.

Mr. Papillon said, That the Commissioners of the Victualling Office, on their Agent's Information from Dover, that the said Harbour was so choaked up, that his Majesty's Ships could no longer be supplied with Provisions from thence, have been forced to supply them from London, though on various Occasions, during the War, Dover supplied the main Body of the Fleet with Provisions for some Time; and believes it is capable of supplying 20 or 30 Sail throughout the Year, on fitting Notice:

That if there had not been a Victualling Office at Dover during the late War, the Fleet must many Times have met with considerable Disappointments, to the Prejudice of the Service; at was too plain, when that Port was not fully provided to answer the Wants of the Ships in the Downes, but were forced to wait for Provisions from London; which has frequently given that Delay, through the Incertainty of Wind and Weather to admit its going down, that it has been a great Prejudice to the Publick: Besides, they are subject to Miscarriages; and cost the King, besides Pilotage and Demurrage, 3 s. per Ton more than what is sent from Dover, as he believes.

Mr. Breton said, That upon the late Expedition by Sea before Dunkirk, the Fleet was supplied with Pilots from Dover; which has always been a very great Nursery for able Pilots and Seamen, who have signalized themselves upon many Occasions, and are a great Help to the Fishery at Yarmouth; and that the Port of Dover maintained Five or Six Privateers during the late War, and took many Prizes; and many other Privateers also took Sanctuary there, because they could speedily be out and into Port again.

That he has heard by several Gentlemen that came from Calais, That the French King is making a Harbour there at a very great Expence.

Mr. Mackay said, That in August last he was at Calais; where he saw about 300 Men employed in making a Harbour; that they were making a Work to carry their Pier out below Low-water Mark, in Order to maintain 20 Foot constant Water within the Harbour, as the Captain of the Quay told him, which they thought sufficient for 4th or 5th Rates to go out and in, at any Time: And the said Captain further told Mr. Mackay, That the Money was raised for carrying on the said Work; and that it was intended to make the said Harbour as good and safe as Money and Art could possibly, although they have no Backwater.

That the Committee thought it for their Service to have the Opinion of Trinity-house, touching the said Harbour,

And accordingly, Sir Richard Haddock, Captain Atkinson, and several others, of their Members attended; and informed the Committee, That their Board were unanimously agreed, That Dover Harbour was of very great Use and Consequence to the Nation, and a general Advantage to Trade.

Sir Richard Haddock also agreed with Sir Henry Sheers, that in 1652, 4th and 5th Rates frequently went into the said Harbour, and cleaned, and victualled: And added, That he saw Two 4th Rates come in and lie to the Side of the said Harbour, and in 48 Hours after went out cleaned: And also said, That the Dover Merchant, a Three-deck Ship of 4 or 500 Tons, loaded in the said Harbour, and proceeded in her Voyage to Cadiz: And that the Victualling Office at Dover is of much less Use than formerly, and will become useless, if the Harbour be not speedily repaired.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to the Resolutions following; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Petitioners have fully proved the Allegations of their Petition.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the restoring the said Harbour of Dover to its former State and Condition, will be of great Service to the Nation, and Benefit to Trade and Navigation.

The Estimate, mentioned in the said Report, of the Charge of repairing and recovering the Harbour and Pier of Dover.

The Recovery of the ancient Depth of Water in the Harbour, which is now totally filled up with Beach, Sand, Mud, &c. amounting to at least 150,000 Ton; which, by Computation, will cost, to remove, and carry away	£ 5,000
The Design propounded to be executed for preventing the future filling up and choaking the Harbour, and thereby to preserve the Depth of Water for ever, without further Charge to the Publick, will cost	3,600
The new Traverse-work for keeping Ships waterborne, in order to their careening and refitting, &c. with the Gates, Wharfing, Filling, &c. will cost	4,000
To repair the decayed Wharfing of the Haven	2,000
For 10,000 Floors of Earth-work in the Basins for receiving the Backwater, &c. which are to be deepened and enlarged; computed at 10 s. the Floor	5,000
For repairing the old Heads	1,500
For a Work to be of Masonry on the West Side of the Pier, to be carried out into Six Foot Depth below the Low-water Mark, whereby to prevent the bringing in the Beach upon Westerly and South-west Storms	4,000
For Machines, Vessels, Tools, and Utensils, Stores, and Storehouses, &c.	3,000
For Officers, Conductors, and Overseers Wages, and all Contingencies; per Estimation	2,000
TOTAL	£. 30,100

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

The Lord Fairfax acquainted the House, That he was directed by the said Committee to move the House, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill according to the said Resolutions.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for the Repair of Dover Harbour: And that the Lord Fairfax, Sir Bazil Dixwell, Admiral Aylmer, and Mr. Brewer, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of Jeremiah Basse Esquire, and John Lofting Merchant, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners, in 1697, being Owners and Freighters of the Ship Hester of 130 Tons, sent sent her, loaden with Goods of the Product of England, to the Province of East Jersey, in America, where she arrived the 26th of March last, and was duly entered at Perth Amboy, a Port appointed by the Commissioners of the Customs in England, and under the Directions of the Lords of the Treasury, for the Delivery of European Goods within that Colony: That the Cargo being unladed, and the Ship, in November following, being there victualled and laden, and ready to sail for the Madera's, the Earl of Bellomont, Governor of New York, usurping an arbitrary Power over his Majesty's Subjects of East Jersey, which is independent, and no Part of the Province of New York, sent 50 armed Men to seize the said Ship, who entered on board, wounded many of the Mariners, and carried her to New York; where the said Earl caused her to be condemned, and sold at 315*l.* New York Money, for not entering at New York the Goods imported to East Jersey, and for not paying the Duties imposed on them by an Act of Assembly at New York; though no Duties are payable for Goods imported to East Jersey, nor is East Jersey subject to the Laws made at New York: By which illegal Proceedings the Petitioners are not only deprived of their Ship, worth above 1,200*l.*; but also of her Cargo then on board, amounting to a further Value; and can obtain no Satisfaction for the same from the Earl of Bellomont, and those Instruments of Oppression at New York: That the Petitioner Basse, being Governor of East Jersey, seized there John Elston and William Merrick, whom the Petitioner refused to bail, they being of Every the Pirate's Crew; but the said Earl, by a pretended Admiralty Power, forced them out of the Petitioner's Hands; set them at Liberty upon insufficient Bail; and Merrick has since made his Escape: And praying the Consideration of the House, and Relief in the Premises.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the Fact to the House:

And it is referred to. Colonel Bierly, Mr. Clark, Mr. Hysham, Sir Walt. Yonge, Mr. Mountague, Mr. Secretary Vernon, Mr. How, Sir Wm. St. Quintin, Mr. Beyle, Sir Rich. Onslow, Mr. Blathwaite, Sir Richard Cocks, Sir Chr. Musgrave, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Barnardiston, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Boscawen, Mr. Cowper, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Stringer, Mr. Smith, Mr. Moor, Sir Edmund Bacon, Mr. Harvey, Lord Ranelagh, Sir Ja. Houbton, Sir Cha. Bloys, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Rider, Sir John Fleet, Mr. Duke, Mr. Mason, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Offley, Sir Robert Davers, Sir Geo. Rook, Mr. Norton, Sir Rowl. Gwyn, Mr. Bullock, Mr. Gwyn, Sir Godfry Coply, Mr. Povey, Sir Rich. Farrington, Colonel Granville, Lord Cutts, Lord Powlett, Sir Fra. Blake, Mr. Chase, Mr. Fleming: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Butler's
Estate.

A Message from the Lords, by Sir Robert Legard and Sir Richard Holford:

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act to enable Henry Butler Esquire to make Leases of Part of his Estate in Lancashire, for discharging of Incumbrances thereupon: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Election of Mayor of Dartmouth.

A Petition of all the Magistrates, save one, and all the Common Council of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardnesse, in the County of Devon, on behalf of themselves, and the major Part of the free Burgesses of the said Borough, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, at the last Election of a Mayor, and other usual and annual Officers, for the said Borough, the Petitioners duly chose Mr. Caleb Rocket for Mayor, and other Officers; but Joseph Bully, who then acted as Mayor, unduly and arbitrarily swore John Whitrow

VOL. 13.

Mayor, and several other annual Officers, not duly chosen; and for admitting and swearing Mr. Rockett and the other legal Officers, Bully hath been served with several Mandamuses out of the King's Bench, by leaving them at his Dwelling-house, he absconding therefrom till after the Returns; by which Means the Petitioners are not like to have the Right of the said Elections tried at Law before the Year expires, for which they were chosen: That Whitrow dying on the 15th of December last, the Borough hath been ever since without a Mayor: But, on the 5th Instant, Bully caused Proclamation to be made of an Election of a Mayor in the room of Whitrow; and accordingly, without any manner of Precedent, chose and swore one John Sikes, a common Freeman, as Mayor, on Purpose, as the Petitioners conceive, to get the Precept for a new Election of a Burgess to serve in Parliament into the Hands of Bully and Sikes, that they may return whom they please; all which is contrary to the Rights of the said Borough: And praying, That the said Bully may be enforced to a speedy Tryal of the Truth of the Premises before this House; and that the Petitioners may be relieved therein.

And a Debate arising thereupon;

Resolved, That this House will, upon this Day Seven-night, take into Consideration the Matter relating to Charters and Mandamuses, which have been lately made and granted.

Resolved, That this House will, upon every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at Eleven a Clock, proceed upon the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, or Ways and Means for raising the same, or upon the Bills relating thereunto: And that all Debates be then adjourned.

Days for Supply, and Ways and Means.

An ingrossed Bill for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading to the East Indies, a Corporation, was read the Third time.

Old East
India Company.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for continuing the Governor and Company of Merchants of London, trading to the East Indies, a Corporation.

Ordered, That Mr. Cook do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

The House resumed the adjourned Consideration of the Resolutions of Tuesday last, touching the Debts to the Army, and for Transport Service.

Commissioners of Accounts.

Ordered, That a Bill be brought in for appointing Persons to adjust the Debt to the Army, and for Transport Service: And that Mr. Harley and Mr. Harcourt do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction to them, That they do also provide, in the said Bill, for the adjusting the Debt to the Navy.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the Petitions and Report from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, relating to Q's and R's, be adjourned until Saturday Morning next.

Seamen's
Arrears.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Bill for the general Quiet of the Subject, against all Pretences of Concealments, Encroachments, Derelictions by the Sea, or other defective Titles, is committed, be made upon Thursday Morning next.

Defective
Titles.

Sir Rowland Gwyn reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardnesse, in the County of Devon, and the Resolutions of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Dartmouth
Election.

Upon the Petition of Nathanael Hern and Rowland Holt Esquires, complaining of an undue Election, each each of the other, to serve for the said Borough; and also of a double Return;

That the Record of the said double Return was brought before the Committee by the Deputy Clerk of the Crown:

That the Writ is directed to the Sheriff of Devon, commanding him, That, in the room of Sir Joseph Herne, deceased, infra burgum prædictum unum alium burgensem eligi faciat:

That, pursuant to the said Writ, the Sheriff directed his Precept, Majori burgi de Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, nec non burgensibus burgi prædicti:

That it was allowed, in Fact, that the Mayor, Mr. Whitrow, accordingly appointed the 16th Day of December last for the Election, and Notice was given of the same; but the Mayor died the Day before that appointed for the Election: Yet, notwithstanding, the Burgesses, at the Time appointed, proceeded to make an Election, at which Mr. Holt and Mr. Herne were Candidates:

That as well the Return of Mr. Herne, as the Return of Mr. Holt, together with the Precept, were delivered in to the Clerk of the Crown, affixed to the Writ:

That both Returns take Notice of the Death of the Mayor:

That Mr. Holt's Return is expressed to be by several of the Burgesses:

That Mr. Hern's Return is expressed to be by several of the Magistrates, and free Burgesses; and to be under the Common Seal:

That these Matters were opened by the Counsel, but no Witnesses were examined.

And that thereupon the Committee came to these Resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Nathanael Hern Esquire is not duly returned a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, in the County of Devon.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Rowland Holt Esquire is not duly returned a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness.

The said several Resolutions being severally read a Second time; the same were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

A Motion being made, That Mr. Speaker do issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new Writ, for the electing a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, in the room of Sir Joseph Hern Knight, deceased;

And a Debate arising in the House thereupon;

Resolved, That the Debate be adjourned till this Day Sevensnight, after the Consideration of the Matter relating to Charters, and Mandamuses, which have been lately made and granted.

King's Bench
Prison.

Ordered, That the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the King's Bench Prison, and for Dissolution of the said Prison, be read a Second time upon Saturday Morning next.

Fleet Prison.

Ordered, That the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the Fleet Prison, and for Dissolution of the said Prison, be read a Second time upon Saturday Morning next.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Martis, 12° die Februarii;

11° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

THE House took into Consideration the Amendments, made by the Lords, to the Bill, intituled, An Act for naturalizing Francis Vandertijd, and Agneta Vandermersch: And the same were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House; and are as follow; viz.

At the End of the Title, add "Henry Lowman, and "James Gabriel Le Tresor," and leave out "and."

Pr. 1. L. 7. after "Holland," insert "Henry Lowman, the Son of Theodore and Mary Lowman, born at "Dortmund, in the Dominions of the Elector of Brandenburgh; and James Gabriel Le Tresor, Son of "James Le Tresor, and Lucy Le Tresor, born at Caen, in the Province of Normandy."

L. 18. after "Vandermersch," add "Henry Lowman and James Gabriel Le Tresor."

L. 25. for "either," read "and every."

L. 30. after "Vandermersch," insert "Henry Lowman and James Gabriel Le Tresor."

Pr. 2d, L. 1. after "his," add "her."

L. 2. after "his," add "her."

L. 7. after "either," read "any."

L. 10. after "either," read "any."

L. 17. after "Vandermersch," insert "Henry Lowman and James Gabriel Le Tresor."

Ordered, That Mr. Clark do carry the Bill to the Lords, and acquaint them, That this House hath agreed to the said Amendments.

The House being informed, That Mr. Roberts attended, according to Order; Grants from the Crown.

He was called in; and, at the Bar, presented to the House an Account of Rents granted out of the Honour of Windsor, and Counties of Oxon and Berks.

And then withdrew.

And the Title of the said Account was read.

And the Account is as followeth; viz.

Dated the 13th Day of February,
1699.Will. Roberts, Receiver of the Rents belonging to his Majesty's Honour and Castle of Windsor, and to his Counties of Oxon and Berks.Ordered, That the said Account do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of this House.

A Petition of several Merchants trading to Spain was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That notwithstanding the high Duties laid on French Goods, yet the Petitioners have cause to believe, divers Persons have found out a Way to evade the Law, by importing French Wines from St. Sebastian, Leghorne, Genoa, and other Ports, and entering and paying Duties, only as Spanish and Italian Wines, to the great Prejudice of the fair Trader, and this Kingdom in general; for that, unless this pernicious Trade be prevented, it will much lessen the Exportation of Commodities from England to Spain; which are chiefly vested into Spanish Wines brought hither; which the Petitioners cannot vent, by reason of the Importation of French Wines, as aforesaid: And praying, That such Means may be used for preventing the said unfair Trading, and for the Encouraging the Spanish Trade, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, who are appointed to prepare, and bring in, the Bill for the better preventing unlawful and clandestine Trade.

A Petition of several Merchants of London trading to Portugall was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That since the high Duties laid upon French Wines, there have been great Quantities of Wines imported into this Kingdom from St. Sebastian, and other Ports in Biscay, and the Streights; which the Petitioners believe to be French Wines, because that, till lately, no Wines were brought from thence, nor any such Wines made near these Places; yet they are entered, and pay Duties as Spanish or Italian Wines: That the Petitioners do yearly export great Quantities of Woollen Manufactures, Fish, Lead, Tin, &c. to Portugall, the Returns whereof are chiefly their Wines; by which the Petitioners were considerable Losers the last Year, and are like to be greater this Year; for that since last Vintage several thousand Tuns of French Wines have been imported into England from Biscay, and the Streights; and greater Quantities are expected from thence, and the Streights: That this collusive Trade of bringing in French, under the Name and Duty of Spanish and Italian Wines, is not only prejudicial to the Petitioners, but the Nation in general; for that French Wines are not to be purchased without ready Money, but the Portuguese exchange for our Commodities; which advantageous trade must greatly abate, if the Petitioners cannot find Vent for their Wines: And praying the Consideration of the House thereof, that such Means may be used, for preventing the said national Mischiefs, as shall be thought meet.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, who are appointed to prepare, and bring in, the Bill for the better preventing unlawful and clandestine Trade.

Labourers and Servants.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for supplying some Defects in the Statutes relating to Labourers and Servants; and for the more speedy and effectual Payment of their Wages: And that Sir Theophilus Oglethorpe and Mr. Mompesson do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Fish taken by Foreigners.

A Petition of the Fishery, inhabiting the Town of Folkstone, in the County of Kent, a Member of the Cinque Ports, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, The said Town, within these 30 Years, is very much improved, and peopled by the Fishing Trade, who fish the whole Year throughout in the narrow Seas; but their chief Dependence is by fishing in Mackrel and Herring Seasons, between Beachy Head and the North Foreland, with a Fleet of about Ninety Sail; whereby themselves, and many poor People in the Country, are relieved, and many able Seamen raised: That the Petitioners are much discouraged in their said Fishery, since the Peace, by the French of Diep and Bulloine, who catch on our Coast great Quantities of Mackrels and Herrings, and sell them at Sea to English Smackmen; thereby ruining the Petitioners Trade, and glutting their Markets, and under colour of fishing, and dealing with such Smackmen, many French Commodities are commonly imported, and Wool, and the Coin of this Kingdom, unlawfully exported: And praying, That such Provision may be made for Preservation of the Petitioners Trade, and encouraging the English Fishery, as the House shall think meet.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to prevent the Sale, within this Kingdom, of Fish taken by Foreigners in Foreign Vessels: And that Sir Philip Butler, Mr. Desbovery and Mr. Brewer, do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Jeffes' Estate.

A Bill to enable James Jeffes Esquire to sell Lands in Southminster, in the County of Essex, for Payment of Debts, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Foley, Mr. Philip Foley, Mr. Gorge, Mr. Bertie, Mr. Scobell,

Mr. Morgan, Mr. Harley, Mr. Newport, Mr. Winington, Mr. Bridges, Mr. Cox, Mr. Fleming, Mr. Mompesson, Mr. Pierpoint, Mr. Price, Sir Rich. Will. Haward, J. Talbott.

Ordered, That the said Contracts and Abstract do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of the House.

A Petition of the English Merchants, in and about the

VOL. 13.

City of London, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, The Merchandize of a great Part of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom is devolved into the Hands of Merchants Aliens, who chiefly export them on foreign Bottoms: And the Petitioners perceiving by the Hamborough Company.

Votes

Votes of this House, that there is a Bill to be brought in, for taking off the Duties upon our Woollen Manufactures, thereby to encourage their Exportation; the Petitioners therefore pray, That this Encouragement may be to the Benefit of his Majesty's natural-born Subjects only; there being a great Disposition at this Time, in English Merchants, to improve the Exportation of our Woollen Manufactures.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Bill for taking off the Duties upon Woollen Manufactures exported is committed;

The House divided.

The Yeas go forth.

Members
summoned.

Ordered, That the Serjeant do go with the Mace into Westminster-hall, and Courts there, and Court of Requests, and Places adjacent, and summon the Members there to attend the Service of the House.

And he went accordingly.

And, being returned;

State of the Nation.

The House, according to the Order of the Day, proceeded to consider of the State of the Nation.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Procuring or Obtaining of Grants of Estates, belonging to the Crown, by any publick Minister, concerned in the Directing or Passing such Grants, to or for their own Use or Benefit, whilst the Nation lay under the heavy Taxes of the late War, was highly injurious to his Majesty, prejudicial to the State, and a Violation of the Trust reposed in them;

The House divided.

PRAYERS.

Debtors
Petition.

A PETITION of the poor Prisoners for Debt in the Gaol of Newcastle upon Tyne was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That they are very numerous, most miserable, and very burdensome to the said Corporation, and their Families to Friends and Relations, as is set forth, in their printed Case, delivered to this House: And praying, That they may receive such seasonable Relief for their Enlargement, That their Creditors may not lose all their Right.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petitions relating to Prisons is referred.

A Petition of several of the Gentlemen, Clergymen, Woollen and other Inhabitants, of the adjoining Counties of Montgomery and Merioneth, in North Wales, on behalf of themselves, and many others subsisting on the Woollen Manufactures in those Parts, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Decay of Trade in the Woollen Manufactures is so visible with them, That their Poor daily increase; and those that make a shift to keep House are so reduced, that they cannot help to subsist their Fellow Christians and Trades-folks in the Woollen Manufactures; the Cause whereof they chiefly ascribe to the additional Duty laid on Flanders Linen, and the Prohibition of our Cloth there: And praying the Consideration of the House, for restoring and improving the Trade of the English Woollen Manufactory.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of the State and Condition of the Trade of England; and particularly to consider of the Encouraging and Improving the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

A Petition of Robert Broadnax, Lieutenant Colonel to the Earl of Warrington's Regiment of Horse, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was one of the Party, that joined with the late Earl of Warrington, at the time of his Majesty's Landing for our Deliverance; and being best skilled in military Discipline, had the chief Conduct of that Party; for the Promoting of which Service the Petitioner spent the greatest Part of his Fortune, and never received any Consideration for the same; and afterwards he obtained a Commission to be Lieutenant Colonel of the said Regiment in the Service of Ireland, and was at great Expence to put himself in an Equipage for that Post; wherein he had not been Two Months, but he was cashiered, without any Fault, that he knows of, and sent Prisoner to England, without his Pay, his Horses and Servants being taken from him: And praying, That, by reason of his Losses and Disappointment, he being reduced to Want and Poverty, his Case may be taken into Consideration, and a Recompence for his Services and Losses appointed him.

Broadnax's
Petition for Recompence.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

A Petition of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners did heretofore, by their Indenture, grant to Richard Barry Esquire, and Geo. Sorocold Gentleman, several Licences and Privileges, upon their Undertaking to supply the Inhabitants of Norwich with River-water; and also another Indenture of Agreement hath been made between the Petitioners, and Richard Soame Merchant, and the said Geo. Sorocold, for the said Purposes: That, for securing and encouraging the said Undertaking, it is thought absolutely necessary, that the said Indentures be confirmed by Act of Parliament: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for confirming the said Indentures, and all Agreements in the same, it being consented to by the said Mr. Soam and Mr. Sorocold.

Norwich
Waterworks.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Davy and Mr. Blofeld do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

Ordered, That the Bill for erecting and establishing a Court of Conscience within the City of Westminster, and Liberties thereof, be read a Second time upon Friday next, at Eleven a Clock.

Westminster
Small Debts.

Ordered,

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury, relating to the Bill for prohibiting the Importation of Bone-lace, was referred, be made upon Saturday next, in a full House.

Gardner's
Estate.

An ingrossed Bill, from the Lords, intituled, An Act for vesting the real Estate of Joseph Gardner, and Sarah his Wife, late the Estate of William Ridges Esquire, deceased, in Trustees, to be sold, for Payment of the Debts and Legacies therein mentioned, and applying the Residue of the Money upon Trustees therein specified, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Hayes, Lord Cornbury, Mr. Hysham, Mr. Clayton, Sir Robert Cotton, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Dore, Sir Rich. Farrington, Mr. Dyot, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Crane, Mr. Blotfield, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. England, Mr. Barnardiston, Mr. Campion, Mr. Wynn, Mr. Parkhurst, Mr. Foley, Mr. Boscawen, Sir Edw. Hungerford, Sir Henry Ashurst, Sir Abstr. Danby, Mr. Mounstevens, Mr. Darrell, Mr. Jolliffe, Mr. Bullock, Mr. Cox, Mr. Harley, Mr. Shackerly, Mr. Proby, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Dormer, Sir Rowland Gwyn, Sir Robert Edon, Sir Rich. Cocks, Sir Henry Parker, Mr. Morgan: And they are to meet this Afternoon at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Ditto.

A Petition of Francis Creswick Esquire, and Mary his Wife, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bill depending in the House for vesting the real Estate of Joseph Gardner, and Sarah his Wife, in Trustees, to be sold, is prejudicial to the Petitioners, and to disinherit them, they being Co-legatees with their Brothers and Sisters in the Will of their Father William Ridges Esquire, whose Estate the Premises to be sold was; and Charles Ridges endeavours to stifle a Settlement, whereby the Petitioners are intitled to a Remainder of Part of the Lands in the Bill: And praying, That the Petitioners may be heard touching the Premises; and that James Ridges may produce the said Settlement.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

Pontefract
Election.

A Petition of several Aldermen and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York, in the behalf of themselves, and of the Majority of the Aldermen and Burgesses of the said Borough, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That a late Election of John Bright Esquire, to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, being declared void by this House, a Writ issued for choosing another Burgess: At which Election, on the First Instant, several of the Petitioners, who have a Right to vote, offered to vote for Robert Monckton Esquire; but Mr. Hastins Sayle, the Mayor, arbitrarily refused to accept them, and admitted others to vote for the said Mr. Bright, who had no Right: That, if the Petitioners Votes had been taken, Mr. Monckton would have had the Majority; but the Mayor had unduly returned Mr. Bright, in Wrong to the Petitioners, and Mr. Monckton, who was duly chosen: And praying Relief therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Robinson's
Estate.

Sir Henry Parker, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the vesting the Manor of Overhall, and other Lands, in the County of Suffolk, the Estate of Sir Thomas Robinson Baronet, under the Age of 21 Years, in Trustees, for the raising 7,000 l. for the Portion of Anne Robinson, his only Sister; and for the vesting the Lands, and personal Estate, of the said Anne, in the said Sir Thomas, in lieu thereof: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

VOL. 13.

A Petition of several Merchants of the City of London, trading to New York in America, was presented to the House; setting forth, That the Petitioners about Nine Months since, petitioned the Commissioners of Trade, setting forth, That, by several Letters from their Factors at New York, and the Relation of divers Persons here in England, by the Mismanagement of the Earl of Bellomont, Governor of New York, the lawful Trade of that Province is much discouraged, and that their Effects there were in great danger; with several other Grievances; but the Petitioners received no satisfactory Answer thereto: Since which the said Earl hath put such other Hardships on the Merchants there, that, without some Redress, the Petitioners must withhold their Trade thither: And praying the House to take their Case into Consideration; and to examine such Persons as are here in Town from New York, touching the Matters complained of.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Jeremiah Basse Esquire, and John Lofting Merchant, is referred: And that Sir Barth. Shower, Sir John Puckington, Mr. Brotherton, Sir William Ashurst, Sir Hen. Ashurst, Sir John Bolles, be added to the said Committee.

A Bill to bring fresh Water to the Town and Port of Deal, was read a Second time. Deal Water-works.

And the Petition of William Ryder Esquire, which lay on the Table, against the same, was again read.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Bill be committed;

It passed in the Negative.

A Petition of Richard Martyn, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in 1697, he furnished the Royal Regiment of Scotts Dragoons with Cloaths and all other Accoutrements; and the said Regiment removing from the English Establishment to Scotland, there remains due to the Petitioner 2,390 l. 9 s. 9 d. as appears by his Accounts in the Lord Ranelagh's Office: And praying, That he may be paid out of the Arrears due to the said Regiment, or otherwise, as the House shall think fit.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table, until the Bill for adjusting the Debt due to the Army be brought in,

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Supply Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had come to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Tuesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for the more effectual Suppression of Piracies. Suppressing Piracy.

Estate.

AN ingrossed Bill from the Lords, intituled, An Act for vesting Part of the Estate of Thomas Cowper, of the City of Chester, Esquire, in Trustees, for Payment of Debts, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Half-pay.

A Petition of Colonel Baldwin Leighton was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was the first Commissioned Officer that appeared for his Majesty, and the Protestant Interest, in Ireland, upon the Revolution, and used his utmost Endeavours towards the rescuing that Kingdom out of Popish Hands; and, though great Solicitations were made to him, to continue in the Service of the late King James, with Promises of paying the Petitioner all his Arrears, amounting to near 1,000 l. yet he attended his Majesty with the Address and Association of the Protestant Nobility and Gentry of Ireland, before his Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and returned into Ireland with about 550 blank Commissions, and was made a Colonel himself; in which Service he suffered very great Losses: And there is due to him, for subsisting his Men, and his own Pay, the Sum of 2,400 l. besides his former Arrears: And praying, That he may have Half-pay as a Colonel, until his Arrears are paid, or he be otherwise provided for.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Beer and Ale Measures.

An ingrossed Bill for the ascertaining the Measures of Beer and Ale, according to sealed Measures, to be kept in every Town, was read the Third time.

An ingrossed Clause was offered, as a Rider, for marking of Glass and Earthen-ware Measures:

And the same was Twice read; and amended;

And then the same was read the Third time.

And the Question being put, That the Clause be made Part of the Bill;

It passed in the Negative.

Another ingrossed Clause was offered, as a Rider, That the Act shall not extend to the Colleges and Halls in the Universities:

And the same was Thrice read, and agreed to be made Part of the Bill.

An Amendment was proposed to be made to the Bill; Pr. 3. L. *, after "same," to insert "and the said Standard Measures shall be delivered to every succeeding Officer:"

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House; and the Bill amended at the Table accordingly.

Another Amendment was proposed to be made to the Bill; Pr. *, L. *, to leave out "One Penny per Quart, and so in proportion," and insert "One Farthing per Measure:"

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House; and the Bill amended at the Table accordingly.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for the ascertaining the Measures for retailing Ale and Beer.

Ordered, That Mr. Pierpoint do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Exe
Navigation.

A Petition of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Exeter, and other the principal Citizens and Inhabitants of the said City, and County of the same, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners designing to make the River Exe navigable from the Sea to the said City, which will be of public Good to the Places adjacent, and increase his Majesty's Revenues there, have expended, for that Purpose, within 25 Years past, the Sum of 10,000 l. and the further Sum of 11,000 l. within the last Two Years; which Sums are still owing from the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, who, of themselves, are not able to complete the said Work: And praying, That Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for raising Money for perfecting the making the River Exe navigable.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter; and report the same, with their Opinion therein to the House, whether it be fit, that a Bill be brought in according to the said Petition:

And it is referred to Sir Edward Seymour, Sir Richard Cocks, Mr. Scobell, Mr. Clark, Mr. Gwynn, Mr. Carter, Sir Wm. Drake, Mr. Vernon, Sir Walter Yonge, Sir Roxland Gwyn, Sir Robert Davers, Mr. Harley, Mr. Laxther, Sir Chr. Musgrave, Mr. Weston, Mr. Vincent, Mr. Duke, Mr. Boscawen, Mr. Henley, Mr. Fortescue, Mr. Yates, Mr. Mounsteeven, Sir Tho. Day, Colonel Granvill, Mr. Solicitor General, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Mountague, Sir Ja. How, Sir Geo. Rook, Mr. Campion, Mr. Greenhill, Sir Barth. Shower, Mr. Blaake, Lord Ranelagh, Sir Wa. Young, Sir Arth. Owen, Mr. Thornhagh; and all that serve for the Counties of Devon and Cornwall: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are to have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

A Petition of divers Gentlemen, Freeholders, Merchants, Traders, and principal Inhabitants, of the City of Exon, paying Scot and Lot, was also presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said City has enjoyed a flourishing Trade for many Years; which was greatly advanced by the Convenience the Citizens have had, for above 100 Years, by bringing their Goods imported from foreign Parts, by Barges and Lighters, to the said City: But the Chamber of the said City, being intrusted with the Disposal of its Revenues, have unadvisedly undertaken to enlarge their Channels, through which the Lighters and Barges used to pass; and, for about 15 Months last past, have diverted the River out of its ancient Course, and totally deprived the Petitioners of their said Conveniency, to their very great Damage: That the said Chamber, being disappointed in their rash Undertaking, have desisted from prosecuting thereof; and refuse to apply the Revenues of the said City, wherewith they are only intrusted as Trustees, towards finishing the said Work, although they have sufficient for that Purpose; the same being, by their own Estimate, to be done for 5,000 l.: But, by indirect Practices, the Chamber have procured a Petition to be signed to this House, by great Numbers of poor Inhabitants of the said City, who are no way liable to pay Rates or Taxes, desiring Leave to bring in a Bill to assess the Inhabitants of the said City towards completing the said Work; which Tax, as it is altogether unnecessary, so it will be very grievous to the Petitioners: And praying, That they may not be burdened with an unnecessary Tax; but that the Revenues of the City may be applied to make the said River navigable, as formerly it was.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Exeter, is referred.

A Complaint being made to the House, That Mr. Stuteville, being summoned to attend a Committee of this House, as he was going away from the said Committee, was taken up by Sir Talbot Clark and one Mr. Edmund Evans; who detained him into their Custody, on Account of their being Bail for him;

Ordered, That the said Sir Talbot Clark and Mr. Evans do set the said Mr. Stuteville at Liberty.

Mr. Conyers reported, from the Committee of the Supply, whole House, to whom it was referred to consider further of the Supply to be granted to his Majesty, the Resolutions, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards the Payment of his Proportion of the Debt owing to the Prince of Denmark.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, for the Carrying on the Coinage of the Gold and Silver of this Kingdom.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, for continuing the Contracts for circulating Exchequer Bills for One Year longer.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards making good the Deficiencies of the Aid of Three Shillings in the Pound, granted in the Eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards making good the Deficiencies of the Duty upon Paper and Parchment, granted the same Session of Parliament.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards making good the Deficiencies upon Malt Tickets.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards making good the Deficiencies of the Quarterly Poll, granted in the Ninth Year of his Majesty's Reign.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards the Paying off the Debt due for Transport Service.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards the Payment of the Debt due to the Navy, and the Debt due for sick and wounded Seamen.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made therein, by adding, "and the Monies, to be raised, to be laid out in Lands in this Kingdom, and settled upon the Prince and Princess, and their Issue, according to the Marriage Agreement:"

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, so amended, That a Supply be granted to his Majesty, towards the Payment of his Proportion of the Debt owing to the Prince of Denmark; and the Monies, to be raised, to be laid out in Lands in this Kingdom, and settled upon the Prince and Princess, and their Issue, according to their Marriage Agreement.

The rest of the said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, by such Members of this House as are of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, That his Majesty will please to use his Endeavours to procure other Princes and States to pay their Proportions of the Debt due to the Prince of Denmark.

Debt due to Prince of Denmark.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

Ways and Means.

Ordered, That Mr. Lowndes do lay before this House an Account of the Gross and Net Produce of all the deficient Aids.

Deficient Aids.

The House being acquainted, That Mr. Auditor Shaks attended at the Door;

Grants from the Crown.

He was called in: And, at the Bar, presented to the House an Account of all Grants passed and inrolled in his Division, since his present Majesty's Accession to the Crown.

And then he withdrew.

And the Title of the Account was read:

And the Account is as followeth, annexed hereunto.

An ACCOUNT of all Grants passed and inrolled in the Office of Henry Shales Esquire, one of the Auditors of his Majesty's Land Revenue, since his present Majesty's Accession to the Crown; made out, by Order of the Honourable House of Commons, the 9th of February 1699.

PRAYERS.

Deal Waterworks.

A PETITION of William Rider Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the late King James the Second, by his Letters Patents, did grant unto the Petitioner, and Edward Burdet Esquire, the sole Liberty and Power to erect a Conduit, Wharf, and other Buildings, upon the Beach of New Deal; and to dig the Highways, Streets, and waste Grounds, for laying Pipes, and bringing fresh Water to the said Town; which will be a great Advantage to the Inhabitants, and all Shipping resorting thither, where they have no fresh Water at present: But the Petitioner, who purposeth to supply the said Necessity from a River called the North Stream, it being the Opinion of able Engineers, that it cannot be done by Well-water, cannot effectually perform this Undertaking, without breaking up some small Part of the Soil of some Persons, lying between the Town and the said River: And praying Leave to bring in a Bill to enable him to perform and complete his Undertaking for bringing fresh Water to the Town of Deale.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Sir Robert Davers do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of Colonel John Mitchelborne, late Governor of Londonderry, in behalf of himself, and the Regiment lately under his Command, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in 1698, the Petitioner petitioned this House, setting forth the Sufferings and Services of the said Regiment, in defending the said City against the late King James, for which their whole Pay remained in Arrear; which Petition was referred to a Committee; who reported, That the Petitioner had fully proved the Allegations of his Petition; and the House was pleased by an humble Address to recommend them to the King, for such Compensation as he should think fit; but they have not yet received any Benefit thereby: That, upon stating the Accounts of the Army, the said Regiment is not brought into Pay, 'till January 1699; which excludes them Ten Months and Twenty-five Days short of any other Regiments; notwithstanding they mustered, and did Duty equal with the rest of the Army: And that, besides the Arrears due to the Petitioner as Colonel of the said Regiment, there is due to him, as Governor of Londonderry, 992*l.* as appears by the said Report, for which he hath not hitherto received any Pay or Reward: And praying, That his Case may be taken into Consideration; and that Provision may be made for the Payment of his Arrears, either with the Arrears of the Army, or otherwise, as shall be thought meet.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Bill for adjusting the Debt to the Army be brought in.

A Petition of divers of the Clergy of the County of Norfolk, in behalf of themselves and others, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That * * * *.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Bill for reviving the said former Act is committed.

A Petition of the most considerable Traders in the Fustian and Linen Manufactures, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That many thousands of Families get their Livelihood by the said Manufactures; but the Poor, who are intrusted with Cotton, Fustian, West Yarn, and Cloth, cheat the Petitioners, being thereto encouraged by Persons who buy it of them, at a Half, or great Under-value; and for that the Law is defective in bringing such Offenders to speedy Punishment; so that the Petitioners dare not trust and employ the Poor, who, for want of Work, are reduced to extreme Poverty: And praying, That some Expedient may be provided, by a Clause to be inserted in some Bill, depending in the House, for preventing the Mischief aforesaid, and for Encouragement of the said Manufactures.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants, and sending them whither they ought to be sent, is committed: And that they have Power, if they think fit, to receive a Clause according to the said Petition.

A Petition of the Master, Wardens, and Fellowship of Tallow Chandlers, within the City of Bristol, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That * * * *.

* * That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

A Bill to enable Edward Mansell Esquire, to mortgage and sell the Improprate Rectories of Llanridian and Penrice, in the County of Glamorgan, for Payment of his Debts, and raising Portions for his younger Children; and for settling the Manor of Henlys, and other Lands, of more Value; was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Mr. Vaughan, Sir Jos. Tredenham, Mr. Morgan, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Pierpoint,

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the former Act, for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to New Sarum, more effectual, was committed, be made Tomorrow Morning.

Brixton
Land Tax.

A Petition of the Freeholders and others, of the Hundred of Brixton and Borough of Southwark, in the County of Surry, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have paid 4*s.* 6*d.* and 5*s.* 6*d.* in the Pound, upon the two last 3*s.* Aids upon Land, by reason many Persons, whose Estates were in Money, have since lost the same in Trade; others, who paid double, have complied with the Law, and now pay but single; and many others have removed out of the said Hundred and Borough; and many Families are impoverished by the great Fires in Bermondsey, and other Places; whereby the Petitioners are grievously burdened by the present Land Tax: And praying to be relieved in the succeeding Taxes.

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Bill for granting an Aid to his Majesty, for maintaining his Majesty's Navy, Guards, and Garisons, and towards paying the Debt due to Seamen, and for other necessary Occasions, is committed;

It passed in the Negative.

Restoring Fitzharris.

Sir John Packington reported from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Sir Henry Fitzharris Baronet, was referred, That they had examined and considered the same, and had agreed upon Resolutions, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same * * * *

That, upon Examination of the Allegations contained in the said Petition, it did appear, That the Estate of Sir Edward Fitzharris Baronet, the Petitioner's Grandfather, was, immediately after the Rebellion in 1641, granted to Robert Oliver Esquire, and others, who possessed themselves thereof; the said Sir Edward being neither outlawed, attainted, or convicted of any Crime:

That by the Act of Settlement and Explanation, made in the 17th and 18th Years of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That the said Sir Edward Fitzharris, with several others therein named, their Heirs and Assigns, should be restored unto their several and respective Seats, as they should respectively choose, in Two Months after the Sitting of the Commissioners for examining the said Act, and of 2,000 Acres of Land thereunto adjoining, if they, or any of their Ancestors, or any in Trust for them, were seised of so much, upon the 22d of October 1641; subject nevertheless to the Proviso following; viz.

That if any Person or Persons shall, within the Space of Six Months, next after the Royal Assent to this Bill actually given, allege before the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, and Council there, that the said Sir Edward Fitzharris hath committed any Massacre, Murder, or any such heinous Crime or Cruelty, upon the Persons of any of his Majesty's good Subjects; and shall prove the same by such Witnesses, or other Evidence, as the said Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governor or Governors, and Council there, shall think good Proof; that then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other chief Governor or Governors there, by Order of the Council, to declare and adjudge him the said Sir Edward Fitzharris to be guilty of the Crimes and Cruelties so alleged and proved as aforesaid; and, upon such Declaration and Judgment, the said Sir Edward Fitzharris, and his Heirs, shall be, and are hereby made, incapable of any Benefit or Advantage in and by this present Act given, or of any Restitution as aforesaid; but shall remain and be, to all Intents and Purposes, in the same Plight and Condition as he or they would have been, if the said Sir Edward Fitzharris had not been named in this present Act:

That there is a Clause in the said Act, for an Equivalent to the Tenants in Possession:

That it appeared to the Committee, by an attested Copy of an Order made by the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, the 25th Day of May 1666, That the said Robert Oliver exhibited a Petition at the Council Board, setting forth, That the Petitioner was able to prove the said Sir Edward Fitzharris guilty of such Crimes, as would render him incapable of any Benefit by the said Act: To which Petition the Defendant Sir Edward did appear, and answer: And the Cause being, according to Appointment, then heard, in the Presence of both Parties, and their Counsel, and upon full Hearing thereof, and of such Witnesses or Evidences as were then produced, it was by the said Lord Lieutenant and Council declared, That no Proof, by Witnesses or other Evidences, had been produced before them, whereby they might be induced to declare and adjudge the said Sir Edward Fitzharris to be guilty of any Massacre, Murder, or such other heinous Crime or Cruelty, committed upon the Person of any of his Majesty's good Subjects:

That it likewise appeared to the said Committee, That Edward Fitzharris, Son and Heir to the said Sir Edward Fitzharris, was, about the Time mentioned in the said Order, or soon afterwards, married to a Protestant, by whom he had Issue the Petitioner, who hath been educated in the Protestant Religion; and the said Sir Edward Fitzharris, who was a bigoted Papist, refused to prosecute his Claim to his said Mansion-house, and 2,000 Acres of Land, which all, or the greatest Part, of the Persons named, with the said Sir Edward Fitzharris, in the said Act of the 17th and 18th Years of the said late King Charles the Second, had obtained; and often declared, declared, That, seeing his Heirs at Law were Hereticks, he did not care what became of the said Estate.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the said Sir Henry Fitzharris hath fully proved the Allegations contained in his said Petition.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the House be moved for Leave to bring in a Bill to restore the said Sir Henry Fitzharris to the Estate of Sir Edward Fitzharris, his Grandfather, deceased.

The First Resolution being read a Second time ;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That the said Sir Henry Fitzharris hath fully proved the Allegations contained in his said Petition.

The Second Resolution being read a Second time ;

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill to restore the said Sir Henry Fitzharris to the Estate of the said Sir Edward Fitzharris, his Grandfather, deceased ;

It passed in the Negative.

Excise Laws respecting
Brewers.

A Petition of the Masters, and Keepers or Wardens, and Commonalty of the Mystery and Art of Brewers, of the City of London, and the rest of the Brewers in the Weekly Bills of Mortality, was presented to the House, and read ; setting forth, That it is the Property of all Englishmen to be tried by a Jury ; but that Right was taken away from the Petitioners by an Act of the 12th Car. 2d. for granting certain Impositions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors ; whereby all Forfeitures and Offences were to be heard by the Commissioners of Excise, from whom an Appeal was to be had to Commissioners of Appeals to be appointed by his Majesty, whose Judgment was to be final : That the Offences comprised in the said Act were but few, and the Forfeitures small ; but, by several late Acts, very great Penalties are inflicted for small Offences, and a Moiety given to Informers : And although, by the last Acts, it is directed, That the Penalties shall be recovered by Information, &c. in Westminster-hall ; yet Liberty is thereby given, that such Penalties may be recovered by such Ways as by the said Act ; by which Means, there has not one Penalty been sued for at Westminster, as the Petitioners know of : That the Gaugers also charge the Petitioners with more than they ought, against which, the Petitioners have made Complaints ; but the Commissioners of Excise will not hear or relieve them before Payment of the Duty, contrary to the Meaning of the said Act, as the Petitioners conceive : The Commissioners also refuse to appoint the Hearing of such Complaints against Overcharges in Course ; whereby they often . . . many Months and Years unheard ; but, upon Information of a Penalty, the same is forthwith heard, adjudged, and levied upon the Petitioners, who, at the same Time, have many Complaints depending of much elder Date ; and though positive Evidence be given of such Overcharges, yet the Complainants are denied Relief : That many Times the Petitioners have Drink returned, which has paid the Duty ; and they are forced to start, or put again into new Drink, then in the Tuns ; which though done in Presence of the Gaugers, yet they charge the same again with the full Duty of Excise, for which the Petitioners are forced to pay double Duty : And praying Leave to bring in a Bill for their Relief in the Matters aforesaid.

Ordered, That the Petition do lie upon the Table until the House shall resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the State of his Majesty's Revenue.

Impartial
Proceedings in Parliament.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of a Bill touching free and impartial Proceedings in Parliament ; and nothing to intervene.

nufactures,
&c.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty. Ways and Means.

Mr. Speaker left the Chair.

Mr. Conyers took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Mr. Conyers reported from the said Committee, That they had made some Progress in the Matter to them referred, and had come to several Resolutions ; which they had directed him to report, when the House will please to receive the same.

Ordered, That the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Conyers also acquainted the House, That he was directed by the Committee to move the House, That they may have Leave to sit again.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Wednesday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, after the Committee upon the Bill touching free and impartial Proceedings in Parliament, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the Bill, for the applying all the forfeited Estates and Interests in Ireland, and all Grants thereof, and of the Rents and Revenues belonging to the Crown, within that Kingdom, since the 13th Day of February 1688, to the Use of the Publick ; and of the Bill for granting an Aid to his Majesty for maintaining his Majesty's Navy, Guards, and Garisons, and towards paying the Debts due to Seamen, and for other necessary Occasions. Supply Bill ;
Irish Forfeitures and

Exporting Bark.

.....
A PETITION of the Aldermen, Stewards, and Company of Tanners, within the City of Chester, on behalf of themselves, and others of their Trade, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Bark of Trees, which is absolutely necessary for the tanning of Leather, is become scarcer than formerly, great Quantities being ground to Dust, made up into Casks, and exported to Ireland; which Practice, if continued, will ruin the Petitioners Trade, and damage the Landed Men of England, by rendering raw Hides of little Value: And praying, That a Remedy may be provided against the Exporting of Bark into Ireland.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

Foreign Cordage.

A Petition of the Master Ropemakers in and about the City of London, on behalf of themselves, and several other Masters and Journeymen of the same Trade, belonging to the several Sea Port Towns of this Kingdom, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by the late Practice of importing great Quantities of foreign Cordage, and Cable Yarn, the Petitioners are greatly impoverished, the Plantations, which are chiefly supplied therewith, ill served, because it is not well wrought, and the King's Duties diminished; all which is occasioned by the Drawback, being 5s. 7d. outward, and but 5s. 11d. inward Duty, per Hundred; so that the King hath but 4d. per C. Weight, which encourages the Merchants to import foreign Cordage; whereas, if the same were made in England, the Hemp pays 2s. 6d. Duty inwards, and the wrought Cordage 6d. outwards; and thereby the Petitioners would be employed, and the Plantations well served: And praying that the Drawback upon foreign Cordage, and Cable Yarn, may be taken off.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

Harrison's Estate.

A Petition of Richard Harrison, of New College in the University of Oxon, Gentleman, Executor of the last Will and Testament of George Harrison, his Brother, deceased, and Dorothy Harrison, Widow, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the said George was seised, at the time of his Death, with other Things, of the Reversion and Inheritance of the Farm of Nethercott, in the Parish of Lewknor, in the County of Oxon, in Remainder, after the Death of his Mother the said Dorothy, who is willing to sell her Estate for Life for a reasonable Satisfaction: That George, being indebted to several, charged his whole real and personal Estate with his Debts, Legacies, and Funeral Charges; but, by the Penning of the Will, the real Estate cannot be sold until his Son, an Infant about Two Years of Age, comes at Age: And, the personal Estate being very insufficient to pay the Debts, the Petitioners therefore pray Leave to bring in a Bill for selling the Farm of Nethercot, for Payment of the Debts and Legacies of the said George Harrison, which are charged thereupon.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill, according to the Prayer of the said Petition: And that Mr. Dalby do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Petition of John Kelly was presented to the House, Victualling Department. and read; setting forth, That, at the Opening of this Session of Parliament, the Petitioner gave to divers Members of this House an Abstract of several Articles against the Commissioners of the Victualling, in order to lay them before the House; but the said Commissioners, to prevent the Petitioner's Discovery, and frighten such Evidence as might appear against them, have imprisoned the Petitioner in the Prison of the Tower Liberty, upon Two sham Actions; the Articles against them being of so high a Nature, that, upon Examination thereof, it will appear, that the Nation has been abominably cheated: And praying the House to take the said Articles into Examination.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to a Committee: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the Fact to the House:

And it is referred to Mr. Hamond, Sir Tho. Davall, Mr. Vernon, Mr. Shallet, Sir Rich. Farrington, Sir John Fagg, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Hysham, Sir Owen Buckingham, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Hancock, Mr. Blysse, Mr. Thursby, Sir Jos. Tredenham, Mr. Freke, Sir Wm. Bloys, Captain Clayton, Mr. England, Mr. Freke, Sir Hen. Parker, Sir Hen. Gough, Mr. Pye, Sir Jacob Banks: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And are to have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Sir Robert Davers, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the supplying the Town and Port of Deal Water-works. Deal with fresh Water: And the same was received.

Ordered, That the Bill be read To-morrow Morning.

A Petition of the Twelve Governors of the Hereditaments and Goods of the Church of Crediton, alias Kirton, in the County of Devon, their Assistants and Guardians, incorporated by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the 10th Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for erecting Hospitals, Work-houses, and Houses of Correction, within the Town and Parish of Crediton, in the County of Devon; and for the better Relief of the Poor there; was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there... many Hundreds of poor People in the said Parish employed in the Woollen Manufactures, some of which commit small Thefts, under the Value of 12d. and confess the same; who are thereupon committed to Prison, where they lie several Months, and their Families, during that time, are wholly maintained at the Charge of the Parish, and often return greater Thieves than before; and many are not prosecuted, for fear of bringing a greater Charge upon the said Parish, so that they often proceed to commit greater Crimes: And praying, That a Clause may be inserted in one

Frauds by Work People in Woollen Manufacture.

one of the Acts now passing for the better Employing of the Poor, or some other Act, to empower such Corporation, or any of their Courts, to call before them any poor Person of their Parish, that shall be accused to have committed Petit Larceny; and if they confess the same, that the Corporation may be empowered to order such poor Persons to be sent to their House of Correction, and there be publicly whipped for the said Offence, without being sent to the common Gaol.

Ordered, That the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Bill for the better employing the Poor, and setting them on Work, is committed, have Power to receive a general Clause for punishing such Offenders by the Corporations erected, and to be erected, for the Employment of the Poor.

Vagrants.

Ordered, That Sir Wm. St. Quintin, Sir Rich. Cocks, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Henly, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for the more effectual Punishment of Vagrants, and sending them whither, by Law, they ought to be sent, is committed.

Holman's Indenture.

An ingrossed Bill from the Lords, intituled, An Act to supply the Loss of certain Indentures of Lease and Release, heretofore made by Philip Holman Esquire, since deceased, to Gorge Holman, his Son, now also deceased, was read a Second time.

Resolved, That the Bill be committed to Lord Chenie, Mr. Mountstephens, Mr. Thornhagh, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Dyot, Mr. England, Sir John Mordaunt, Mr. Price, Mr. Thursby, Sir Edward Hussey, Mr. Eyres, Mr. Cox, Mr. Hancock, Sir Rich. Cocks, Sir Robert Davers, Sir Wm. Drake, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Tredenham, Mr. Rayner, Mr. Shackerly, Mr. Blake, Sir John Rogers, Mr. Dormer, Sir Henry Seymour; and all that serve for the Counties of Northampton and Oxon: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers.

Pontefract Election.

The House being acquainted, That the Committee of Privileges and Elections had appointed the Matter, touching the Merits of the Election for the Borough of Pontefract, in the County of York, to be heard upon the 6th Day of March next; by which Day several Witnesses, who are at a great Distance, cannot be brought up to attend the said Committee;

Ordered, That the Merits of the said Election be heard by the said Committee, upon Friday the 15th Day of March next.

A Message from the Lords, by Sir John Franklyn and Sir Lazen William Child;

Mr. Speaker,

Merefeild's Estate.

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act for settling the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, late of Robert Merefeild and John Merefeild Esquires, deceased; and for ascertaining the Proportions between the Widow of the said Robert and his surviving Children: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House: Also,

Employing the Poor.

The Lords have agreed to the Bill, intituled, An Act for the more effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom, without any Amendments.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Dce Navigation.

Sir Joseph Jekill reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill to enable the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Chester to recover and preserve the Navigation upon the River Dce was committed, That they had made several Amendments to the Bill; which they directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, That the said Report be taken into Consideration upon Saturday next, at Twelve a Clock.

Thetford Election.

A Petition of Edmund Soame Esquire, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That on the 26th of January last, this House resolved, That James Sloan

Esquire, in treating the Corporation of Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, has been guilty of a Breach of the late Act of Parliament for preventing of Expences in Elections; and a new Writ issued for electing a Burgess to serve in this Parliament for the said Borough, in his room: Yet the said Mr. Sloan hath procured himself to be again returned, though the Petitioner was duly elected a Burgess upon the said new Election, Mr. Sloan being incapacitated to sit in this House, as advised: And praying the House to take the Premises into Consideration.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until Saturday Morning next, when the Act against Expences in Elections is to be taken into Consideration: And the said Mr. Sloan is to attend.

Ordered, That Mr. Greenhill have Leave to go into the Country, for Three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occasions. Leave of Absence.

Ordered, That Sir William Morley have Leave to go into the Country, for Recovery of his Health.

A Petition of the Clergy of the County Palatine of Lancaster was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That it is manifest great Numbers of Popish Priests openly appear in Companies in the most populous Towns of the said County, and seduce whom they can from the Protestant Religion, and their Affection to the Government: And praying, That some effectual Method may be used to stop the Growth of Popery, and prevent the insolent Behaviour and Attempts of Popish Priests.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table until the Report be made from the Committee appointed to inquire how far the Laws against Popish Recusants have been put in Execution; and to inspect and review the said Laws; and to report their Opinions upon the same to the House; and also to propose what further Remedies are necessary to suppress the Growth of Popery in these Kingdoms, and to strengthen the Protestant Interest.

Mr. How reported from the said Committee, That they had considered the Matter to them referred, and had come to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That it does not appear to the Committee, That the Laws against Popish Recusants have generally been put in Execution.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a further Reward be given to such Persons as shall discover and convict Popish Priests or Jesuits.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That it will be a further Remedy against the Growth of Popery, That perpetual Imprisonment be inflicted upon Popish Priests convicted upon the Oath of One or more Witnesses.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That no Person born after the 25th of March 1700, being a Papist, be capable of inheriting any Title of Honour, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That no Papist be capable of purchasing any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, either in his own Name, or in the Name of any other Person in Trust for him.

The First and Second Resolutions being severally read a Second time; the same were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

The Third Resolution being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made therein, by adding, after "Priests," "and Popish School-masters:"

M m m

And

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, so amended, That it will be a further Remedy against the Growth of Popery, That perpetual Imprisonment be inflicted upon Popish Priests, and Popish School-masters, convict upon the Oath of One or more Witnesses.

The Fourth and Fifth Resolutions being severally read a Second time; the same were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That a Bill, or Bills, be brought in upon the said Resolutions: And that the said Committee do prepare, and bring in, the same.

Expiring
Laws.

Mr. Mompesson reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider what Laws are expired, and near expiring, and fit to be continued; and who were to consider of the Law which enjoins Carriers to go with double Shafts, and how far it may be explained, in regard the same is found impracticable; That the said Committee had come to a Resolution; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That that Part of the Act made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better amending and repairing the Highways, and Explanation of the Laws relating thereunto, which enjoins all travelling Waggon, Wains, Carts, and Carriages, to be drawn with a Pole between the Wheel-horses, or with double Shafts, has been found impracticable in some Roads, and inconvenient in most Roads of this Kingdom.

Ordered, That the said Resolution be re-committed to the same Committee, upon the Debate of the House: And that they do consider how far it may be for the Benefit of the Roads to injoin Carriers to go with less Weight; and report their Opinion therein to the House: And that Sir Tho. Willoughby, Mr. Varney, Mr. Willkins, Major Holmes, be added to the said Committee.

Portsmouth
Garrison
Debts.

A Petition of the several Inhabitants of Portsmouth, as Mercers, Grocers, Taylors, Shoemakers, Brewers, Bakers, Butchers, Maltsters, Cheesemongers, Chandlers, and other Tradesmen, was presented to the House and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have given Credit to the Gunners of Portsmouth Garrison, from the First of April 1693, to the Second of December 1699; for which there is due to the Petitioners about 2,000*l.* who contracted Debts for the same, and are daily threatened with Actions: That the Petitioners are informed there is due to the said Garrison, for Arrears of Pay, the Sum of 3,412*l.*: And praying, That such speedy and effectual Means may be used for Payment of the Debt due to the said Garrison, who are Debtors to the Petitioners, as shall be thought fit; whereby the Petitioners may receive their Debts justly due to them.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Army

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

Members not to leave Town.

Ordered, That no Member of this House do go out of Town until after To-morrow Sevensnight, when the House is ordered to be called over.

Answer to Address.

Mr. Speaker reported, That he having, with the House, attended his Majesty, on Wednesday last, with their Address of the 15th Instant; representing to his Majesty the Resolutions of this House of the 18th of January last, relating to the Grants of the forfeited Estates in Ireland; and that, to prevent any Mistake in reporting his Majesty's Answer thereupon, he had obtained a Copy thereof; which he read; and is as followeth; viz.

Gentlemen,

I was not only led by Inclination, but thought myself obliged in Justice, to reward those who had served well, and particularly in the Reduction of Ireland, out of the Estates forfeited to me by the Rebellion there.

The long War, in which we were engaged, did occasion great Taxes, and has left the Nation much in Debt; and the taking just and effectual Ways for lessening that Debt, and supporting publick Credit, is what, in my Opinion, will best contribute to the Honour, Interest, and Security, of the Kingdom.

Resolution against Advisers of Answer.

Resolved, That whosoever advised his Majesty's Answer to the Address of this House, presented to his Majesty on Wednesday last, has used his utmost Endeavour to create a Misunderstanding and Jealousy betwixt the King and his People.

Ways and Means.

Mr. Conyers reported, from the Committee of the whole House, who were to consider further of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty, the Resolution; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That a Duty be laid upon all Hops imported into Ireland, except such as are of the Growth of this Kingdom.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That a Duty be laid upon all Hops imported into Ireland, except such as are of the Growth of this Kingdom.

Colonel Granville, according to Order, reported, from the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Bill for the more free and impartial Proceedings in Parliament was committed, the Amendments made by the Committee to the said Bill; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table.

Ordered, That the said Report be taken into Consideration upon Wednesday Morning next.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the State of his Majesty's Revenue.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to whom the Papers relating to Half-pay were referred, be made upon Thursday Morning next.

Ordered, That all Committees be revived.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of several Pursers, in behalf of themselves, and the rest of the aggrieved Pursers of his Majesty's Navy Royal, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Pursers are the only Persons that give Security to the King for the true Performance of their Trust; yet they are often injured by the Commanders taking what Provisions they please, and converting them to their own Use; which that they may the easier do, they often take the Pursers Instruments, and employ them in their own Service; and when Pursers have modestly asked their Commanders how they should be salved, they have been abused, beaten, and confined to their Cabins; by which and many other unwarrantable Methods, the Pursers cannot escape running into the King's Debt, to their utter Ruin: And praying the House to take their Case into Consideration, and relieve them therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of John Kelly is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, to the House.

A Petition of the Mayor, Jurats, and Common Council of the Town and Borough of Deale, in the County of Kent, on behalf of the poor Nurses, and several other Inhabitants, of the said Town, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there is due to the said Nurses and Inhabitants, for entertaining sick and wounded Seamen, during the late War, the Sum of 3,612 l. 13 s.; the Want of which is, or shortly will be, their Ruin: And praying, That Provision may be made for Payment of the said Debt.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole House, who are to consider further of Ways and Means for raising the Supply granted to his Majesty.

A Petition of the Sutlers of his Majesty's Fort and Garrison of Sheerness, together with the Brewers, Bakers, Butchers, Maltsters, Mealmen, Cheesemongers, Chandlers, &c. was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioners have supplied the said Garrison, with Provisions, from April 1693, to March 1699; for which there is due to the Petitioners 1,050 l.; for want whereof they are threatened to be sued: That the Petitioners are informed, there is in Arrear to the Garrison, a Sum equivalent to the Petitioners Debt: And praying, Pursers of the Navy.

Sick and wounded Seamen.

Sheerness Garrison Debt.

praying, That some speedy and effectual Means may be used for Payment of the said Garison, whereby the Petitioners may receive their Debts justly due as aforesaid.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Fleet Prison.

A Petition of Eleanor Smith, Relict and Executrix of Francis Smith, Bookseller, deceased, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Thomas Bromhall did purchase the Fleet Prison; but, wanting Money to pay for it, prevailed with the said Francis, to be bound with him, for above 1,000*l.* and paid for him above 600*l.* of it in June 1678, by the sudden Death of Bromhall: That, about Seven Years ago, John Tilly Esquire, endeavouring to get an Act of Parliament for Sale of the Fleet; and finding that the Petitioner would oppose him; gave her a Bond for the Payment of 212*l.*; of which he has paid but 7*l.* and refuseth to pay the rest, saying, He is in his Castle, meaning the Fleet; and the Petitioner is not able to compel him to pay her by Law: And praying, That her Debt may be inserted in the Bill for paying off the Incumbrances on the Fleet Prison, and for Dissolution of the said Prison; she having proved her Debt, before a Committee of this House, the last Session of Parliament.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

Crown Lands.

Ordered, That Mr. Aldworth do lay before this House a Copy of his Memorial, of the 10th of March 1696; and that Mr. Tilson do lay before this House a Copy of his Memorial, of October last; relating to the Crown Lands.

Jacobson's, &c. Nat.

An ingrossed Bill for naturalizing Theodore Jacobson, William Brown, and Sarah Haskenstiles, was read the Third time.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for naturalizing Theodore Jacobson, and others.

Ordered, That Mr. White do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Colony of East Jersey.

A Petition of the Proprietors of the Province of East New Jersey in America, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That, in the Year 1664, King Charles the Second, by his Letters Patents, granted to the Duke of York, his Heirs and Assigns, all that Tract of Land in America, which includes the Provinces now called New York, East Jersey and West Jersey, and all Rivers, Bays, Harbours, &c. belonging to the same: That the said Duke conveyed East and West Jersey to the Lord Berkeley, and Sir Geo. Carteret; who, in 1681, for a valuable Consideration, conveyed East Jersey to the Petitioners, and others, their Heirs and Assigns: That in 1682, the said Duke confirmed the Petitioners Title to East Jersey, with all the Powers of Government, as fully as they were granted to him: And King Charles, by his Declaration, under the Great Seal of England, recognized the Petitioners Authority, commanding the Inhabitants to obey the Petitioners, as their lawful Governors: That the Petitioners have laid out great Sums of Money in settling Plantations at East Jersey, and by their Industry have laid the Foundations of a hopeful Colony there, which has, ever since its first Separation from New York, remained a distinct Province and Government; and had distinct Assemblies, and a Port called Amboy; but, upon unjust Complaints of some Inhabitants of New York, Attempts have been made to take away the Port of Amboy; and the Governors of New York have, by Force of Arms, boarded several Ships, and carried them out of Amboy to New York, to compel them to enter their Ships, and pay such Customs as were imposed by their Assemblies; though the Inhabitants of East Jersey are not subject to the Laws of New York, nor are any Customs payable for European Goods imported to East Jersey, or any other English Plantation, otherwise than by Laws made by the respective Assemblies of those Plantations: That the Petitioners, insisting on their Right, obtained from the Commissioners of the Treasury, Directions to the Commissioners of the Customs; who, upon full Hearing of the Proprietors, allowed Amboy to be a Port in East Jersey; and appointed an Officer, with a Salary, to attend the Business of the said Port: Yet the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations refuse to allow the Petitioners a Port in East Jersey; and, disputing their Right to the said Government, have given Instructions to the Governor of New York, to hinder and seize Ships going into East Jersey; which has accordingly been executed, notwithstanding the Petitioners have offered to surrender their Government of East Jersey to his Majesty, and to pay the same Customs for Goods imported thither, as are paid for the like Goods at New York: But the Commissioners for Trade decline to let the Petitioners have any Port in East Jersey, though no other of his Majesty's Plantations are denied the same Privilege; which if taken away, the said Province will turn to a Wilderness, and thereby the Petitioners Purchases and Improvement be totally lost: And praying, That their Case may be taken into Consideration; and that the House would relieve them therein.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petition of Jeremiah Basse Esquire, and John Lofting Merchant, is referred: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the Fact to the House.

Sir John Mordaunt reported from the Committee to whom the Bill for continuing the Act for the better ascertaining the Tythes of Hemp and Flax was committed, That they had made several Amendments to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

Ordered, That Lord Fairfax, Sir Christopher Hales, Sir Cha. Barrington, Sir William Glyn, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for vesting the Manor of Overhall, and other Lands, in the County of Suffolk, the Estate of Sir Tho. Robinson Baronet, under the Age of 21 Years, in Trustees, for raising 7,000*l.* for the Portion of Anne Robinson, his only Sister, is committed.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for taking away the Duties upon Woollen Manufactures exported.

Mr. How, according to Order, presented to the House a Bill for the further suppressing the Growth of Popery, and strengthening the Protestant Religion: And the same was received; and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time Tomorrow Morning.

Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill for better Discovery of all Lands, and other Revenues, given to superstitious Uses; and for applying the same to the Use of Greenwich Hospital: And that Sir Rowland Gwyn do prepare, and bring in, the Bill.

A Complaint being made to the House, That Mr. Sherwood and Mr. Callow, Attornies and Agents for Thomas Underhill, had served Tho. Durham, Tenant to Sir Henry Parker Baronet, a Member of this House, with a Rule of Court of King's Bench, upon a Writ of Error, for the certifying a Record of a Judgment obtained by one * Underhill against the said Tho. Durham, in order to get the Possession of the Estate of the said Sir Henry Parker from his said Tenant; and also that the said Durham had since been arrested for the mean Profits of the said Estate, in Breach of the Privilege of this House;

Ordered, That it be referred to the Committee of Wallop's

Estate.

A Message from the Lords, by Sir John Hoskins, and Sir Robert Legard:

Mr. Speaker,

The Lords have passed a Bill, intituled, An Act to enable Trustees to make Sale of the Inheritance of the Twelfth Part of several Manors, Lands, and Tenements, of Bluet Wallop Esquire, during his Minority; and to purchase other Lands with the Money to be raised by such Sale, to be settled to the same Uses as the Twelfth Part was so settled: To which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Privilege in a Suit.

Sir John Garrard attending in his Place, according to Order;

The Petition relating to him was read; setting forth, That Thomas Neal Esquire, the Petitioner's late Father, deceased, upon the Marriage with Dame Eliz. Gould, the Petitioner's Mother, deceased, did make the said Sir John Garrard, the Petitioner's Uncle, and Brother to the Lady Gould, Trustee in several Deeds, Grants, and Conveyances, for the Benefit of the said Lady and her Children, whereof the Petitioner is the only one living; and particularly in a Patent of his Majesty's Office of Groom Porter, in Trust for the Petitioner, during his Life; which his Father purchased for several Thousand Pounds Consideration, and devised the same to him by his last Will: Yet Sir John Garrard hath opposed the Petitioner's being sworn into the said Office, pretending a Property therein for himself, and refuses to give the Petitioner an Account of the said Trusts, insisting on his Privilege as a Member of this House: And praying, That Sir John Garrard may waive his Privilege, he being only a Trustee; whereby the Petitioner may have the Benefit of the Law against him.

To which the said Sir John Garrard was heard in his Place.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Colonel Granville, took the Chair of the Committee.

Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair.

Colonel Granville reported from the said Committee, That they had spent some time in the Consideration of the Matter to them referred; and had directed him to move, That they may have Leave to sit again.

The House being informed, That a Crowd of People are got together, in a tumultuous and riotous Manner, in the Palace-yard, Westminster-hall, and Passages to this House;

Riotous Crowd about the House.

Ordered, That the Justices of the Peace of Middlesex, and Westminster do go forthwith, and disperse the said riotous Crowd.

Ordered, That the Justices of the Peace of the City of Westminster do immediately attend this House, and bring the Constables with them.

The House being informed, That the Justices of Peace of the City of Westminster attended;

They were called in: And, at the Bar, Mr. Speaker, by Order of the House, acquainted them with the said tumultuous Riot; and that the House did expect, that they should go immediately, and disperse the same; and give the House an Account what they did therein; and that they do commit such as they found most active in the said Riot, and take care to prevent any such Riots for the time to come.

And then they withdrew.

Resolved, That the inciting and encouraging any Number of Persons to come in a riotous, tumultuous, or disorderly Manner, to this House, in order either to hinder or promote the passing any Bill, or other Matters depending before the House, being against the Constitution and Freedom of Parliaments, is a high Crime and Misdemeanor.

The House being informed, That one J. Dennis, hath incited the Seamen and Seamen's Wives to come in a riotous Manner to this House;

Ordered, That the said J. Dennis be, for the said Offence, taken into the Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

The House being informed, That the Justices of Peace for the City of Westminster attended;

They were called in; and at the Bar, gave the House an Account, That they had taken care to disperse the said riotous Tumult.

And then they withdrew.

The House being informed, That one James Gardner, had uttered very insolent Words, inciting the said Tumult against the Members of this House; and was seized by some of the said Justices Officers near the House;

Ordered, That the said James Gardner be sent for by the Serjeant at Arms attending this House, together with Mr. Braddon, who heard him utter the said Words.

And

And the House being informed, That they were brought accordingly;

They were brought to the Bar; and examined concerning the said Words.

And then withdrew.

It appearing to this House, That James Gardner hath incited the Rabble against the Members of this House, in Violation of the Rights and Constitutions of Parliament;

Ordered, That the said James Gardner be committed Prisoner to the Gatehouse for the said Offence.

State of Revenue.

Resolved, That this House will, To-morrow Morning, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider further of the State of his Majesty's Revenue.

Committees.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned.

Copper
Coinage.

Ordered, That all the Members that serve for the Counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Middlesex, London, and Surry, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill to restrain the Coining any more Halfpence or Farthings is committed.

Avon
Navigation.

Ordered, That Sir Henry Parker, Sir Edmund Bacon, Doctor Davenant, Mr. Mammaton, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Avon navigable from Christ Church to the City of New Sarum, more effectual, is committed.

Seamen's
Arrears.

Ordered, That the Petitions and Reports from the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, touching the Q's and R's, be taken into Consideration upon Saturday Morning next.

A Person to be prosecuted for inciting
the Riot.

Ordered, That Mr. Attorney General and Mr. Solicitor General do effectually prosecute the said James Gardner for his said Offence.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning, Eight a Clock.

Mercurii, 28° die Februarii;

12° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

Committees.

ORDERED, That all Committees, who shall sit in a Morning, do arise when the House sits; or, in Default thereof, that what they shall do after the Sitting of the House be void.

Childe's
Estate.

A Bill for vesting certain Lands and Tenements, late of Sir Josiah Childe Baronet, deceased, in Trustees, for the better Performance of certain Covenants entered into by the said Josiah Childe, upon the Marriage of his eldest Son with the Daughter of Sir Thomas Cooke Knight, was read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Lark
Navigation.

Mr. Hervey reported from the Committee, to whom the Bill for making the River Lark, alias Burne, navigable, was committed, That they had made several Amendments to the Bill; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were once read throughout; and then a Second time, one by one; and, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House: And other Amendments were made by the House to the Bill.

Ordered, That the Bill, with the Amendments, be ingrossed.

Newcastle
under Line
Election.

Ordered, That Mr. Laxton have Leave to withdraw his Petition touching the Election for the Borough of Newcastle under Line, in the County of Stafford.

Mr. Brewer, according to Order, presented to the

Vol. 13.

House a Bill to prevent the Sale, within this Kingdom, of Fish taken by Foreigners in foreign Vessels: And the same was received; and read the First time.

Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

Mr. Scobell reported, from the Committee, to whom the ingrossed Bill, from the Lords, intituled, An Act for the more speedy Payment of the Debts of John Cloberry Esquire, deceased; and for raising Portions and Maintenance for his Children; was committed; That they had examined the same, and found the Allegations therein contained to be true; and that the Parties concerned had given their Consents thereunto, to the Satisfaction of the Committee; and that the Committee had directed him to report the same to the House, without any Amendment: And he delivered the same in at the Clerk's Table.

Cloberry's
Estate.

Mr. Carter reported, from the Committee, to whom the Petition of Sir Nathanael Curson Baronet was referred, the Matter, as it appeared to them; which he read in his Place: and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Cattle Markets in the Haymarket.

That, on the 13th of June, in the 15th Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, a Writ of Ad quod damnum issued, to inquire whether it would be Ad nocumentum of any Market or Person, if there should be a Market for live Cattle granted, to be held in the Haymarket, in the Parish of St. Martins in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, on Mondays and Wednesdays in every Week: Whereupon a Jury returned, That it would not be ad nocumentum of any Market or Person, if such Grant were made: And, thereupon,

King Charles the Second, by his Letters Patents, bearing Date the 21st of November, in the 15th Year of his Reign, did grant to John Harvey and John Coell Esquires, and their Heirs and Assigns, Two such Markets for live Cattle, to be held on Mondays and Wednesdays, as aforesaid:

That the late King James the Second, by his Letters Patents, bearing Date 25th of September, in the Second Year of his Reign; reciting the former, and that it was only in Trust for the Earl of St. Albans, deceased, whose Right was vested in Henry Earl of Dover; and that the Haymarket was become inconvenient for holding the said Markets; granted unto the said John Coell, then Sir John Coell, John Harvey being dead, That he, his Heirs and Assigns, might hold the said Two Markets in Great Brookfield, in the said Parish of St. Martin's, upon the Days aforesaid, in every Week, for ever, in Trust for the said Earl of Dover:

That the said King James, by other his Letters Patents, made the 20th July, in the Fourth Year of his Reign; reciting the aforesaid Letters Patents, and that the Days thereby appointed for holding the said Market were inconvenient; did grant unto the said Sir John Coell, his Heirs and Assigns, That, in lieu of the said Markets to be held on Mondays and Wednesdays, they might hold the same on Tuesdays and Thursdays, upon Great Brookfield aforesaid, for ever; and further did grant, That Sir John Coell, his Heirs and Assigns, might keep a Fair there, for buying and selling all manner of Goods and Merchandizes, to commence on the First Day of May yearly, and to continue for 15 Days after, for ever, in Trust for the said Earl of Dover:

That by several Assignments from the said Earl of Dover's Trustees, and lastly from the Petitioner Mr. Kent, by Indenture dated the 5th of July 1699, the Freehold and Inheritance of the said Markets and Fair became vested in Sir Nath. Curson, and his Heirs, for the Consideration of 23,344 l. subject to an Equity of Redemption at any time within Ten Years.

That the Patentees, and their Assigns, quietly enjoyed the said Markets from the Time they were granted until the 13th of February last, when the City of London sued out a Scire facias, which is now depending, to repeal the aforesaid Grants, by virtue of a Charter granted to the City

Cattle Markets in the Haymarket.

City of London by King Edward the Third, in Parliament, in the First Year of his Reign; wherein there is a Clause, That no Market should from thenceforth be granted infra septem leucas in circuitu civitatis predict.:

That Sir Nath. Curson, and those under whom he claims, have been at great Charges in Building, Paving, and making other Conveniences, for the said Markets: And the Petitioners alleged, That the Suppression thereof will be a great Inconvenience to the neighbouring Villages, and all Inhabitants near the same.

To prove which, John Allen, Butcher, of Westminster, said, That he bought and sold Cattle and Sheep at the Haymarket, on Mondays and Wednesdays, about 30 Years ago; and that, for 12 Years past, he and his Sons have bought Cattle on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Brookfield Market, which is made very convenient, at the Charge of several Thousand Pounds; and if the same should be put down, it will ruin Thousands of People; who are supplied with Provisions from thence; and particularly the People of Southwark, Lambeth, Wandsor, Putney, Fulham, Chelsey, Westminster, and all Parts lying westward of London:

That Brookfield Market is also convenient for all Cattle coming out of the West of England, by reason they need not be driven on the Stones to Smithfield Market; which oftentimes occasions the Flesh to be heated, and then it soon taints.

Peter Wych and Richard Steel, Butchers, of Newport Market, confirmed what Allen said in relation to Brookfield Market, for Six or Seven Years past.

Novel Kellet, of Westminster, Butcher, and Richard Steer, said, That they knew Cattle sold in the Haymarket, about 35 or 40 Years ago, in Inns, being then few in Number; but the said Market being since removed to Brookfield, it is very much increased, and is a greater Convenience for the Butchers, near that End of the Town, to buy Cattle there, than at Smithfield; because driving them on the Stones from Smithfield often lames them, and many times they are frightened, and over-heat themselves, so that they must be immediately killed on a Friday, whilst the Flesh is hot, for Saturday's Market; and then the Flesh will not take Salt; whereby they have many times disobliged their Customers: And Steel said, He believed there are 4 or 500 Sheep and Lambs, and about 200 Oxen, brought to Brookfield on a Market-day.

John Allen said, He would rather give Ten Shillings more for a Bullock bought at Brookfield Market, than he would for a Bullock of the same Value, bought at Smithfield; because they can buy on Thursdays at Brookfield, and kill the next Day, when the Flesh is cool; but if he buys at Smithfield, the Market is on Friday, and must kill the same Day, whatever Accident happens, or lose Saturday's Market.

That there is not Room enough at Smithfield to hold the Cattle brought to Town in a Midsummer Quarter; for which Reason, there is as many, or more, bought at Islington, Newington, Paddington, Mile-End, and other Places about London, as are sold at Smithfield; and knows that one Holland, at Islington, sold 2,500 Sheep at one time, because there was not Room enough for them at Smithfield Market.

Charles Bettie, of Newport Market, Butcher, said, That, within these Four or Five Years, he has seen several Drovers of Cattle driven from Smithfield to Knightsbridge, for want of Room at Smithfield, the Pens being all full.

John Allen said, That, for 12 Years past, he has seen Beasts, Sheep, and Lambs, driven from Smithfield for want of Room; and has observed Ten Drovers at a time so driven away from Smithfield.

All the Witnesses agree, That Brookfield Market is very convenient for that End of the Town: And it was insisted, That the publick Good ought to be considered by the Legislative Power, who, upon all Occasions, have altered the Law as Occasion required; and the Establishment of Brookfield Market cannot so prejudice Smithfield Market, as to reduce the Tolls and Rents to less than what they were at the time of the Grant to the City, the City and Suburbs being now as big again as they were then.

That, upon the Petition of the City of London, also referred to the said Committee, the Matter is as followeth; viz.

That King Edward the Third, in the First Year of his Reign, by Charter in Parliament, granted to the City of London, That no Market should be granted from thenceforth, within Seven Miles of the said City; which Charter was confirmed by Act of Parliament, reciting the same, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of King Richard the Second:

That till the Year 1636, no Market for live Cattle was attempted since the said Charter; but then one Dorrell, and the Inhabitants of St. Giles's Parish, endeavoured to set up one near Hyde Park; and the City being heard thereupon at the Council Board, a Stop was put thereto, their Lordships declaring, That a Market there would be inconvenient and unfit, and contrary to the said Grants in Parliament:

That, about the 15th Car. 2di, the Grant to John Harvey and John Coell Esquires, was procured for Two Markets weekly, in the Haymarket, as in the Petition of Sir Nath. Curson is alleged: But the Place being inconvenient, and but little used, the City did not oppose it: That afterwards some Persons endeavoured to obtain a Patent for erecting Two Markets in Conduit Mead, behind Albemarle House, in lieu of those at the Haymarket; but the City, being informed thereof, entered a Carveat against the said intended Patent; and in March 1683, Sir John Coell, who was interested therein, petitioned the Council Board, That the Suspension might be taken off: But, upon hearing both Parties, on the Fourth of April 1683, the Suspension was continued, and the Patent stopped:

That soon after a Quo warranto was brought against the City; and, by Judgment thereon, they were dissolved, and their Liberties seized; and then, viz. in the Second and Fourth Years of the Reign of the late King James the Second, the Lord Dover obtained Two Grants, the one for removing the said Markets from the Haymarket to Great Brookfield, and the other for changing the Days as in the Petition of Sir Nath. Curson, non obstante, that no Writ of Ad quod damnum had been executed or returned:

That when the City Charter and Liberties were restored by the present Government, the City petitioned his now Majesty to be relieved against the said Grants; who ordered Sir Edward Ward, the then Attorney General, to examine and report the Fact:

And, at the Hearing before the said Attorney General, Dr. Barbon appeared, and was heard; who claimed an Interest in the said Grants, and desired to try the Validity thereof by Law:

That on the 11th of April 1695, the said Attorney General made his Report to the King and Council; and was of Opinion, That the King might permit the City to bring a Scire facias, in his Majesty's Name, in order to try the Validity and Legality of the said Grants to Sir John Coell; which his Majesty was pleased in Council to order accordingly, as appeared by the Report:

That in 1695, the City sued out a Scire facias against the Heir of Sir John Coell; and Doctor Barbon, being then a Member of Parliament, insisting on his Privilege, put a Stop to any further Proceedings thereon during his Life; but after his Death another Scire facias was sued out against the Heir of Sir John Coell; and then an Appearance was obtained; and the Defendants excepted to the Scire facias: On arguing whereof before the Lord Chancellor, the Exceptions were over-ruled, and the Defendants ordered to plead, which they did in Abatement, the last Term, because no Person is returned Tenant to the Market; and so the Matter depends in Chancery undetermined.

It was insisted, That Brookfield Market would much prejudice Smithfield Market, by lessening the Tolls there, and will will bring to decay St. Bartholomew's Hospital, whose Revenue chiefly ariseth out of the Rents and Fines of Houses adjacent to Smithfield.

It was also insisted, That there is a particular Act of Parliament, made in the 22d and 23d Years of King Charles the Second, for the preventing Frauds in the Buying and Selling Cattle in Smithfield, and for seizing such as shall be once bought there, and brought thither again to be sold; which will not extend to Brookfield Markets. And,

To prove that there is Room enough at Smithfield Market to receive all Sorts of live Cattle, to supply the City and Suburbs;

Mr. Wright, the King's Purveyor, and John Preston, Graziers, said, That there is Room enough at Smithfield for all the live Cattle that are brought to Town; and, as a Reason, said, That there were Three Market-days every Week, viz. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays; and that Wednesday was omitted for want of Cattle, Two Market days being sufficient to supply the Occasions of the Town: That they have bought and sold Cattle and Sheep there these 30 Years, and never knew that any were drove back for want of Room, but sometimes to keep them for next Market-day, in Hopes of a better Price, when the Market has been low; but the Rounds in Smithfield, which will hold Thousands of Sheep, are not made Use of, though they might, if streightened for Room:

That they have bought Sheep at Islington on Thursdays, and sold them again at Smithfield on Fridays, for about 12 Years past; and others have done so long before; and often buy Sheep at Islington, not for want of Room at Smithfield, but to throw them into the Marshes to supply the Town in Winter; and for that, if they should be brought to Smithfield, they would be dirty, and 12d. apiece worse than when bought clean.

Mr. Wright also said, That Smithfield is big enough to hold all the live Cattle sold in the City and Suburbs, and Seven Miles about; but not for all the Flesh Provisions expended within that Compass, if brought to Town alive; much whereof is brought to Town killed, and so sold in the several Markets of London, and the Suburbs; and much killed and sold in the Villages round about, that never came to Town.

William Cookson, Edward Yardley, John Buckston, Salesmen, said, There was always Room enough at Smithfield for all the Cattle and Sheep brought thither; and that, for 30 or 40 Years past, they never heard any body complain for want of Room, the Market never being so full but that it would hold more; and if the Cattle sold at Islington, and other Places, were brought to Smithfield, there would be Room enough for them: And Cookson said, That he knows not of any Cattle sold any where but in the Market; but it would be better for the Butchers, and all Persons, to have all Cattle sold at Smithfield; from whence they may, with Care, drive their Cattle to this End of the Town without Damage; but sometimes a Bullock will be frightened and overheated, do what they can.

Ordered, That the said Report be taken in Consideration upon Thursday Morning next, in a full House.

Mr. Godolphin, from the Commissioners of the Customs, presented to the House, pursuant to the Act of the Tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for prohibiting the Exportation of Corn, an Account of all Corn and Grain, exported from the Port of London, and also from the Out Ports.

And also, pursuant to the Act of the Tenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for enlarging the Trade to Russia, an Account of Naval Stores imported.

And the Titles thereof were read: And the said Account of Corn and Grain exported are hereunto annexed.

Ordered, That the said Accounts do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of this House.

Fleet Prison.

A Petition of Baldwyn Leighton Esquire was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That in 1689, the Petitioner, being informed of the great Abuses committed in the Fleet Prison, whereby the Publick suffered extremely, applied himself to his Majesty, in order to redress the same; who ordered the Petitioner to take out a Commission under the Great Seal, to inquire into the said Grievances: Which he accordingly did; executed it at his own Cost; and thereupon, by Inquisition taken in March 1689, the then Warden was found guilty of several Extortions, wilful Escapes, and other Oppressions; whereby the Office was forfeited to his Majesty in Fee, who granted the same to the Petitioner; which Grant passed the Privy Seal, but was stopt at the Great Seal, by a Caveat entered there; and the Matter was contested several Years, before the King and Council, the House of Lords, and this House; but by the Craft of the Fleet Officers, the said Inquisition was quashed:— That in May 1698, the Petitioner sued another Inquisition out of the Chancery; and thereupon, in August following, the present Warden, Wm. Ford Esquire, was found guilty of many Misdemeanors, and thereby the Office was forfeited to his Majesty; to which Inquisition Mr. Ford has pleaded, and traversed the Facts; to which the Attorney General hath replied, and joined Issue; and the Cause is set down to be tried at the King's Bench Bar, upon the 24th of April next: But there being a Bill in the House, for paying off the Incumbrances on the Fleet Prison, and for Dissolution of the said Prison, he is thereby like to lose all Benefit of his Trouble and Charge, unless relieved by this House: And praying the House to take his Case into Consideration.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Petition of Martha Johnson Widow, Tho. Johnson, John Johnson, and Frances Micclethwaite, Creditors of the Estate of the Fleet Prison, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That by a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, for the more effectual Relief of Creditors in Cases of Escapes, and for preventing Abuses in Prisons, &c. the Petitioners Right and Title to several Houses and Shops, belonging to the Fleet Prison, is saved; but by a Bill depending in this House, for paying off the Incumbrances on the Fleet Prison, and for Dissolution of the said Prison, as the same is worded, the Petitioners are in Danger of losing the Benefit of the said former Clause: And praying that they may be heard in relation to the said Bill, for saving their Rights.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed.

A Petition of William Green, of the City of Westminster, Brewer, was presented to the House and read; setting forth, That by an Information of the 9th of January 1699, exhibited before the Commissioners of Excise, the Petitioner was accused of having Two Holes in Two Tuns contrary to Law; which Information was tried the 22d Instant, since the Day on which the Petition of the Brewers Company was received by the House, on the Evidence of One single Witness, an Excise Officer, against the Petitioner, who had 12 Witnesses, Seven being Officers of Excise, at the said Hearing; only Two of which were heard by the Commissioners; they saying, that the Petitioners Counsel need not call any more, for that they were satisfied the Petitioner was not guilty; notwithstanding which, the said Commissioners have since privately given and entered a Judgment against the Petitioner for 200 l.; and the Petitioner, upon his Appeal, is deprived of the Use of any other Evidence, than what were sworn and examined by the said Commissioners, as the Law of Excise now stands: And praying the Consideration of the House, that he may have such Relief as his Case requires.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to examine the Matter of the said Petition; and report the same to the House:

And it is referred to Mr. Hammond, Sir Chr. Musgrave, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Wynne, Mr. Palmes, Mr. Winington, Mr. Brotherton, Mr. Cook, Mr. Stringer, Sir Robert Davers, *Sir Cha. And then he withdrew.

And the Title of the said Memorial was read.

And the said Memorial is as followeth; viz.

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury.

May it please your Lordships,

His Majesty, by his Letters of Privy Seal, bearing Date the 28th Day of February last past, having required your Lordships, amongst other Things, to call all the Receivers of the Land Revenue to make up and pass their Accounts to Michaelmas 1698; and I being nominated, by the same Letters of Privy Seal, to be the Receiver of the Debts and Arrears that shall be depending insuper, or otherwise, upon the Foot of such Accounts, do think it my duty humbly to lay before your Lordships the Proceedings which have been made thereupon.

First, Your Lordships were pleased, by your Warrant, bearing Date the 24th Day of March 1698, strictly to charge and require the respective Auditors of the said Land Revenue to call every the said Receivers to make up and pass their said Accounts; and to certify your Lordships, if any Failure or Neglect should be made by them, or any of them, in the Performance thereof: And, by the same Warrant, the said Auditors were required to transmit Abstracts to your Lordships of the last declared Accounts of the said Revenues remaining with them respectively.

That some of the said Auditors have accordingly transmitted Abstracts of the last declared Accounts to your Lordships; but very few, or none, of the said Receivers, as I find, upon Inquiry, the Receivers of the Duchy of Cornwall excepted, do prosecute or attend the passing of their said Accounts; nor have the said Auditors certified to your Lordships the Persons failing or neglecting so to do: Wherefore I have taken from the said Abstracts the following Account, to shew your Lordships in what lamentable Backwardness most of the said Receivers are in their Accounts; to the end your Lordships may thereby judge of the Necessity of compelling them to expedite the passing of the same by such Means as your Lordships shall think fitting.

As

As for the several Counties of Hampshire, Somerset, Wilts, Dorset, Devon, Gloucester, and Cornwall, which are under the Audit of Mr. Parsons; there has been no Return made from him to your Lordships concerning the same: But I am informed, That all, or most, of the Accounts for the Revenues within this District, are in good Forwardness for Declaration:

I take leave also humbly to acquaint your Lordships, That, in pursuance of the said Letters of Privy Seal, your Lordships have been pleased to direct Mr. Auditor Shales to call the Receivers of the Profits arising to his Majesty from the Estate of the late Lord Preston to an Account for the same; and, by a State made thereof, by the said Mr. Shales, which is hereunto annexed, it appears, there is due and owing to his Majesty, as well from the Tenants of the said Estate, as the Accountants, and others therein concerned, the Sum of 3,524*l.* 10*s.* 2*d.* besides 3,246*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.* for the Profits of the said Estate in Yorkshire, for the time it was in Lease to the Earl of Carlisle and Sir *Geo. Thus having laid before your Lordships a State of the Proceedings, which have been already made upon the said Letters of Privy-Seal, I do humbly submit the same to your Lordships, to take such further Measures, for the more effectual performing of his Majesty's Pleasure signified therein, as your Lordships, in your great Judgment and Wisdom, shall think fit.

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury.

May it please your Lordships,

In Obedience to his Majesty's Letters of Privy Seal, bearing Date the 28th of February 1698, and your Lordships dormant Warrant thereupon, I have endeavoured to deliver in States or Abstracts of all such Accounts of his Majesty's Land Revenue, as I find have hitherto been declared, for the respective Counties within my several Assignments; but do not find any declared Accounts for the Counties of Salop, Stafford, Worcester, and Hereford, since the Restoration of his late Majesty King Charles the Second; which said Counties were lately in the Assignment of Sir Joseph Seymour Knight, deceased, as Auditor; and the Receipt thereof hath been for some Time past, and still is, in the Hands of one Mr. John Digby; and if any such Accounts have been declared, they are not delivered over to me amongst the other Writings belonging to the said Assignment, but remain still in the Hands of Mr. Reginald Marriot, who was Deputy to the said Sir Joseph Seymour: Therefore I must humbly crave your Lordships strict Order for Mr. Marriot to deliver up the said Accounts, if any such there be; and also for Mr. Digby to hasten to account for the Time that he hath been Receiver of the said Counties: Which is most humbly submitted to your Lordships Consideration.

That the Petitioner upon the Hearing, did not controvert the Election of Sir George Cook:

That, upon the Poll, there was,

For Sir Abstrupus Danby	-	-	30
For the Petitioner	-	-	10

But the Petitioner's Counsel insisted, That the Sitting Member's Votes were procured by Bribery: And called their Witnesses; viz.

William Pentith said, That, about Three Weeks or a Month before the Election, Sir Abstrupus Danby came to Aldborough, and sent for the Borough-men, and him amongst the rest; and told them, he had thought of a way to gratify the Town, if they would choose him Parliament-man; and that was, That he would give Two Loads of Coal to each Borough-man; and that he would send them Tickets, by which they should receive the same: And accordingly he did receive a Ticket from one of Sir Abstrupus's Servants; who told him, They had been about to deliver Tickets to others; and accordingly he produced his Ticket, dated the 8th day of June, which, he said, was a Week after the Date: He said, The Tickets were given only to Borough-men, and to them without Distinction: That afterwards it was noised about the Town, that this would be reckoned Bribery: And Mr. Johnson and Mr. Stavely, Two of Sir Abstrupus's Servants, desired his Ticket up again, because, they said, it might do their Master a Prejudice; but he refused to part with . . . :

That, about a Fortnight or Ten Days before the Election, Sir Abstrupus made use of his House to treat the Borough-men; and made use of his Fire and Candle; and he had of Mr. Johnson 2*l.* 5*s.* for the same: But, after all, he said, he did not vote for Sir Abstrupus.

John Elly, Thomas Rawlins, Richard Smithson, all concurred in this, That Sir Abstrupus Danby was a Stranger to the Borough; but did, some time before the Dissolution of the last Parliament, come to Aldborough, and offer himself to serve for the said Borough in Parliament; and desired their Votes: And that Sir Abstrupus, upon that Occasion, told them, That he would give to every Borough-man, Two Load of Coal, and send them Tickets for them to go and receive the same: And accordingly, afterwards, he did send Tickets to all the Borough-men, having Votes, indifferently: And Elly's Ticket was produced to the Committee, of the same Date with Pentith's. None of the Witnesses could say, any Coals were delivered by virtue of the said Tickets; but said, That some time after, and Ellys said, that 10 Days before the Election, Sir Abstrupus Danby, and his Servants, came to several Persons that had the Tickets, and told them, That it was feared those Tickets might do Sir Abstrupus a Diskindness; and therefore they desired the Tickets to be delivered up again; and told them, Sir Abstrupus would do them as good a Kindness: And accordingly most of them were delivered up again; and neither Elly, Rawlins, nor Smithson, voted for Sir Abstrupus.

That which was particular in their Evidence was, Thomas Rawlins; who said, That Sir Abstrupus Danby told them, his House was upon the Road as they went for the Coals; and, if they would call there, they should have Entertainment as they went by:

And that Mr. Johnson, Sir Abstrupus's Steward, afterwards met him, and asked him to give his Vote for his Master; and pulled out an Handful of Money, and gave him 5*s.*; but he told the said Mr. Johnson he could not resolve him them: That, about a Fortnight before the

the Election, he met Sir Abstrupus alone in the Street, who said to him, I suppose my Man has given you 5s.; and, if you will vote for me, I will give you Five Pounds.

Richard Smithson said, That he not being present with the rest, when Sir Abstrupus made the Promise to the Burgesses of giving them Two Loads of Coals apiece, the said Sir Abstrupus came to his House, and desired his Vote; and told him, He should have Two Load of Coals, and a Ticket to fetch them by; which he had: But afterwards Sir Abstrupus came to his Wife, and desired it again, and had it: And, about 10 Days before the Election, Sir Abstrupus met him, and told him, He would make it twice as good to him; and that, if he would give him his Vote, he would give his Daughter a George.

That Stoesaker, an Attorney, the Sunday before the Election, came to him, and desired his Vote for Sir Abstrupus; and told him, In that Case he would bear all the Charges of a Suit at Law he was engaged in, whether he won or lost.

And the said Stoesaker pretended to read a Letter to him, from his Mother and Brother-in-law; in which it was said, That, if he would vote for Sir Abstrupus, it should be better than One hundred Pounds to him; and Rawlins and Smithson said, That the said Mr. Stoesaker used to be much in Company with Sir Abstrupus, when he was in Town.

Wm. Pentith and Fra. Barraby said, That Mr. Morris, the Vicar of Aldborough, told them, He had offered Four Burgesses, who they named, but differed in their Evidence as to one of the Persons, to Mr. Tankred, if the said Mr. Tankred would give him 40 Pounds; Morris telling Pentith, That Mr. Tankred had put him to so much Charges in a Law-suit: But Mr. Tankred would not accept of him upon the said Terms; and went away angry from him.

Mr. Barraby said, That Mr. Morris made the same Proposal, touching the said Four Votes, for Mr. Arthington, who was also a Candidate.

And these Men being found in Sir Abstrupus's Poll, the Petitioner's Counsel inferred, That Money was given for those Votes by Sir Abstrupus.

Rawlins also testified, That Mr. Womble came to him, and desired his Vote for Sir Abstrupus; and told him, It would be kindly taken by the Lady Wentworth; and that he voted for Sir George Cook and Mr. Tankred; and had Notice to quit his Farm that he held of the Lady Wentworth; and George Lawton and Wm. Painter, who held Two other Farms under the said Lady, had likewise Notice, as he was told, to quit their Farms: But the said Rawlins could not say, these Notices proceeded from their voting in the said Election; only, he said, He believed it was so, because he knew no other Reason for it.

That the Sitting Member's Counsel, as to the Point of delivering the Tickets for Coals, called

Mr. Robert Stavelly: Who said, That he, on the 9th of June, did deliver to each Borough-man a Ticket for Two Wain-loads of Coals, with this Caution, That they should fetch them before the Dissolution of the Parliament; and that, upon the delivering out of the Tickets, nobody was asked for their Votes, nor nobody promised them: That the last Parliament being near, in point of Time, to be dissolved, and no Coals having been delivered, it was thought it might be dangerous to let them continue out; and thereupon he called for the said Tickets; all which, except Six or Eight, were delivered up voluntarily, without any Promise of doing any thing in lieu of them; and all but Two of them signed a Note to make no Use of them, the Borough-men being willing no Prejudice should come to Sir Abstrupus Danby, and the Town, by them.

Robert Turton said, That the Tickets for Coals were delivered out on the 8th of June; and he was present at the Delivery of them; and there was no Vote then asked, nor mention made of the Election: That no Coals were delivered by virtue of the said Tickets; and that they were called in again before the Dissolution of the last Parliament.

Mr. Thomas Johnson denied, That he ever gave Raw- lins any Money upon the Account of the Election; but said, The 5s. was given him on the 24th of May, for 15 Medals of old Coin which Rawlins had presented his Master with.

That Sir Abstrupus Danby treated the Borough-men at Penty's House, the 24th of June; and for the Use of his House, Linen, Fire, and Hay, by him then found, he, the said Mr. Johnson, did pay him Five and forty Shillings, which, at that time, the said Penty did think but indifferent Pay; and that he, the said Mr. Johnson, at that time, did not mention his voting to the said Penty, nor knew that he had any Vote.

Rawlins, being called to confront Mr. Johnson, to that Point of Evidence touching the said Mr. Johnson's giving him 5s. denied that ever he gave any Medals to Mr. Johnson; but he gave them to one of Rippon: And at first, he said, That the said Person of Rippon did not pay him for them, but Mr. Johnson did: But, being asked again to that Matter, he said, Mr. Johnson told him, when he gave him the 5s. That it was not for those Medals: Yet the said Rawlins acknowledged, That he had no Consideration for the said Medals.

As to Richard Smithson; it was opened by the Sitting Member's Counsel, That he had been guilty of Sheep-stealing, and a Man of no Reputation: And they called Richard Scruton, who began his Evidence with relation to that Matter; but he was interrupted by the Petitioner's Counsel objecting to it, as not being proper Evidence, without shewing that the said Richard . . . son was convicted for the same.

Richard Scruton said, That Rawlins, at the Election of Knights of the Shire at York, did swear, That he had 40s. a Year Freehold; and that he, or his Father, never had any Freehold.

Mr. Robert Smithson, and Mr. John Brough, said, That Thomas Rawlins and Richard Smithson were Men of bad Reputation.

And that the Committee came to this Resolution:

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Sir Abstrupus Danby Knight is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Aldborough in the County of York.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Sir Abstrupus Danby Knight is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this Parliament for the Borough of Aldborough, in the County of York.

Sir Rowland Gwynne, according to Order, also reported, from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, the Matter, as it appeared to them, touching the Election for the Borough of Corf Castle, in the County of Dorset; and the Resolution of the Committee thereupon; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

That the Right of Election was agreed to be in such as have an Estate of Inheritance, or Freehold, or a Lease for Years, determinable upon Life or Lives, paying Scot and Lot.

That, upon the Mayor's Poll, there was,

For Mr. Fownes - - - 61.

For Mr. Culliford - - - 53.

But the Petitioner's Counsel complained of great Partiality in the Mayor:

And insisted, That they would add to their Poll 19, who had voted at the last Election; and Seven others, whose Title accrued since:

That, as to the Partiality of the Mayor, the Petitioner's Counsel called several Witnesses; viz.

Nicolas Cobb: Who said, That Mr. Dackomb, who was Mayor at the time of the Election, asked him for his Vote for Mr. Fownes before the Election; and that the said Cobb saying, He had no Reason so to do, because the not voting for him before was the Occasion of the Loss of his Work, the said Mr. Dackomb promised him his Work again if he would vote at this Election for Mr. Fownes; and

Corf Castle

and told him further, That, if he the said Cobb wanted Money, though himself was streightened for Money at that time, he would pay him a Guinea in part of a Debt he owed him; which accordingly he received: But he did not acknowledge, That before he had threatened to arrest the Mayor for his Money. He also said further, That, Three Days before the Election, the said Mr. Dackomb went about from House to House, to solicit Votes for Mr. Fownes; and that, the Night before the Election, he was at the Ship; and Mr. Fownes and Mr. Dackomb came in, and asked, Who was above? To which was answered, Mr. Culliford and Mr. Rose: And thereupon the said Mr. Dackomb said, That if Mr. Fownes had but Five Votes on the Morrow, he would return him: That this was spoke by Mr. Dackomb, over his Shoulder, to Mr. Fownes; who replied nothing to it. The said Cobb acknowledged, That Mr. Fownes promised him nothing for his Vote; and that he voted for Mr. Culliford, and had none of the said Dackomb's Work since.

Wm. Furzman said, That he voted for Mr. Culliford; but that Mr. Dackomb the Mayor came to him twice, and asked him his Vote for Mr. Fownes; but he told the said Mr. Dackomb, He could not: Whereupon the said Mr. Dackomb said, That if Mr. Culliford had 100 Votes more than Mr. Fownes, he would return Mr. Fownes.

George Gould said, That he was present at the Taking of the Poll: That he took Notice, that his Father was at first called to vote, and voted for Mr. Culliford; and, though the Mayor knew him to be a good Vote, he would not let him vote without shewing his Deeds, which he was forced to ride 10 Miles for; and that Mr. Dackomb the Mayor then set down his Name, without looking into the Deeds.

George Gould, Mr. N. Smith said, That after the Poll was over, Mr. Culliford telling the said Mr. Dackomb, That he had the Majority of Votes, and therefore desired of the said Mr. Dackomb, That he might be returned, Mr. Dackomb answered, What if you have? It's no matter for that: I will return Mr. Fownes.

Mr. N. Smith said, That Mr. Dackomb said, If a Man voted for Mr. Culliford, though he lived a great Way off, he would make him fetch his Deeds.

Mr. N. Smith and Mr. John Goodwin said, That the Mayor was very partial in polling, particularly in this; That though one Frost, who had Lands which were bought of the Mayor, and made over to him Three Months before the Election, yet the Mayor denied him his Vote; saying, He knew he had a Vote; but he should not pass then, though he should at another time.

Mr. John Goodwin further said, That he took the Poll for Mr. Culliford by the Approbation of Mr. Dackomb, the then Mayor: And that Mr. Culliford, after the Poll was over, desired him to cast up the Poll: Which he did; and found there was 78 for Mr. Culliford, and 59 for Mr. Fownes: Whereupon Mr. Culliford said, That he, having the Majority, expected to be returned: And Mr. Dackomb said, No matter for that; he would return Mr. Fownes: And that Mr. Culliford desired a Scrutiny; and the Mayor denied it; saying, There was no Occasion for it.

Mr. John Glover delivered in the Mayor's Poll; in which the Numbers were as above; only there were Three Queries entered, as to Three of Mr. Culliford's Voters.

That the Petitioner's Counsel then proceeded to the justifying of the 19, which they alleged had voted at the former Election, and were now refused: And

Mr. Robert Culliford, Mr. N. Smith, said, That they were present at the Election in August was Twelve-month, at which there was the strictest Scrutiny that ever they saw in their Lives, by all the Four Candidates.

That the Names of the 19 were as follow: Simon Brown, John Hayward, Thomas Chub, Thomas Roberts, John Dolling, Wm. Speck, David Hibbs, Wm. Randyll, Tho. Pargit, Robert Beer, Ben. Tom, Sam. Senell, John Solymán alias Burges, Wm. Snook, Wm. Long, Rob. Roe junior, Ant. Furzman, Wm. Camell, Jam. Thompson; but it was allowed, that Randyll, Toms, and Snook, received Alms.

VOL. 13.

And Solomon had received Bread.

Roberts and Brown were allowed by the Sitting Member's Counsel.

As to the rest, the Evidence was as follows:

Solomon's Lease was produced before the Committee; which was, of a Cottage, and Piece of Ground thereto belonging, for his Life.

Roe's Lease was also produced; which was for Life; but no Livery of Seisin indorsed.

Camell's Deed was produced; which was of a Garden-plot in Fee; and Seisin indorsed.

John Hayward's Deed was for his natural Life; and Seisin indorsed.

Ant. Furzman's Deed was produced; which was to him in Fee; but no Seisin indorsed.

James Thomson's Deed was produced; which was for Lives; but no Livery indorsed.

As to Thomas Chub, they produced a Lease, for Years determinable on Lives, to Giles Cobb: And it was said, That Thomas Chub married Cobb's Daughter, who was intitled to the said Lease.

As to the rest of the 19, the Petitioner's Counsel called several Witnesses; viz.

Mr. N. Smith: Who said, That David Hibbs married Elias Hayward's Daughter and Heir; which Hayward was intitled to a Meadow in Corf Castle, worth about 4*l.* a Year, and had voted for it 20 Years; and, since his Death, the said Hibbs was in possession of it: That he believed, that Hibbs claimed only under a Lease for Years; but he said, That the said Hibbs did pay to Church and Poor:

That he was one of Rich. Painter's Administrators, and sold to Robert Beer an Estate for Fourscore Years, if one Life should continue so long: And that the said Robert Beer paid to Church and Poor:

That John Dolling voted at the Election in August was Twelve-months, and was allowed then: That he was his Father's eldest Son; but could not say, whether he or his Mother was in Possession.

Mr. N. Smith, Mr. Rob. Row, said, That Wm. Long had an Estate of Freeland of 40*s.* a Year, given to him by his Grandfather; and voted in August was 12 Months for Mr. Bancks and Mr. Fownes.

Mr. Rob. Row said, That he was present when Speck bought a Tenement of Thomas Randyll, and paid for it; and that that Tenement had always been voted for.

That, about 10 or 11 Years ago, Thomas Pargit bought a Freehold Lease of a Tenement of Wm. Norman, and he has enjoyed it ever since.

Mr. N. Smith said, That Sam. Senell had a Lease for 80 Years, if he lives so long, of a House which he bought of Mr. Hayter; and voted in August was 12 Months for Mr. Banks and Mr. Clavell; and Senell was taxed at 1*d.*

As to the Seven others that tendered themselves for the Petitioner, whose Title accrued since the last Election; their Names were as follow:

John Frost, Sam. Presly, John Sumers, Fran. Alford, John Bythewood, Lewis Cockram, John Harris.

As to John Frost; there was no Lease produced; but Mr. N. Smith said, That John Frost's Father bought an Estate of Mr. Dackomb the Mayor; and that, about Three Months before the Election, he made the Assignment of the Estate from his Father to him, and the Deed was offered in Court; but Mr. Dackomb told him he should not vote in this Election: It was acknowledged, That the said Frost had not the Estate long enough to pay Church and Poor.

George Gould said, That he was present when John Frost offered to poll for Mr. Culliford; and the then Mayor said, He knew him to be a good Vote, and he should pass the next time.

Thomas Sumers said, That James Sumers had 5*l.* or 6*l.* a Year Freehold Land.

And they produced a Conveyance to Margaret Fry, in Fee, with Seisin, and Margaret Frye's Will, by which it was alleged it was given to James Sumer's Mother, whose Heir he was.

Election.

Rowe said, That John Bythewood had 20 l. a Year; but he did not know his Title.

John Goodwyn said, That Bythewood's Father did vote 20 Years ago, for the same Estate his Son has, for Sir Nath. Napper; but he could not say whether Bythewood paid to Church and Poor, having been out of Town sometimes: But, being further interrogated, he could not say whether it was Land or Houses. But,

Furzman and Cha. Clarke said, That Bythewood had his Father's Estate, which was 20 l. a Year; and that he had paid the King's Tax, and all Duties but to Church and Poor: And Furzman said, That his Father had voted in former Elections.

As to John Harris; they produced a Conveyance to his Mother for Life, and an Assignment thereof from John Brookes to the said Harris: There is no Livery indorsed; but Mr. Smith said, That the said Brookes married Harris's Mother, and she was living.

Sam Presly's Deed was produced; which is a Lease for Lives; but no Livery indorsed.

Francis Aldford's Deed was produced; which was for an Estate for Lives.

Lewis Cockram was not insisted upon by the Petitioner's Counsel, being owned to be only a Trustee.

That then the Petitioner's Counsel applied themselves to their Exceptions to the Sitting Member's Voters; and excepted to Twelve in Number; viz. Mr. John Browne, Richard Fownes, Mr. Etterick, * Speer, Mr. Russell, Tho. Webber, Mr. W. Bolton, Wm. Butler, Mr. R. Bolton, Jos. Marsh, * St. Loe, Ch. Savadge.

The Exception to Mr. John Brown was not insisted on; he being mistaken for another of the same Name.

The following Four were excepted to, as being Trustees only of an Estate settled on Winbourne for Charity; and that Fact was admitted by the Sitting Member's Counsel; but they insisted, They were not thereby disqualified to vote.

Mr. Richard Fownes his Vote was not insisted on by the Sitting Member's Counsel.

Mr. N. Smith said, That St. Loe had no Estate, that ever he heard of: That he did not pretend to any at the Election; but said, He voted as the Mayor's Guardian.

Mr. J. Goodwin said, That St. Loe had no Estate.

Mr. N. Smith said, That Savage does not pretend to pay; but pretended to a Vote by virtue of an Act of Parliament, as a Trustee for Sir John Hannam's Estate; which was sold long before the Election.

That Speer had no Lease; and does not pay to Church and Poor; and never voted before.

That the House and Garden that Thomas Webber voted for are not above 20 s. a Year; and he and his Landlord voted for it; and both were for Mr. Fownes.

As to Wm. Butler; That his Brother Benfeild voted for the same Estate; and that he does not pay to Church and Poor: And that Jos. Marsh is reported to have bought a little Thing, but does not pay; and the Witness did believe, That no Conveyance of the Estate was made at the time of the Hearing by the Committee.

That the Sitting Member's Counsel were heard by way of Reply; which was to justify Mr. Dackomb, the then Mayor, against the Accusation of partial Proceedings.

And, as to his Refusing of Votes offered for the Petitioner; they also took Exception to Three polled for the Petitioner.

As to the Carriage of the Mayor; the Sitting Member's Counsel called Mr. John Moreton and Mr. Ogden; who said, That the Mayor carried himself very fair in the said Election: And Mr. Ogden said, That Mr. Culliford's own Counsel owned it; but that Mr. Culliford made short Speeches, and aspersed the Gentlemen; which incited the Mob to make a Noise: And that they abused Colonel Strangeways, Mr. Freke, and others.

That Two or Three offered their Votes to the Sitting Member; but Mr. Dackombe, the then Mayor, said,

Those Votes were made since the last Election, and he would not allow of them; and that the first who were refused offered themselves for the Sitting Member.

Robert Webber said, That he knew David Hibbs; and that he had no Estate in the Borough, the Estate being his Wife's Mother's, who paid Taxes for it:

That what Estate Robert Beer had, came to him by the Death of Mr. Painter, which was sold to him by Painter's Administrators; and, though he had the Estate before the Election, he did not pay to Church and Poor till after the Election:

That John Solomon had Bread every Sunday; and has received Alms several times Seven Years ago, and since; and particularly in the Year of the Election; not constant, but occasionally upon Sickness:

That Robert Rowe had a Freehold; but it was not above 12 d. a Year:

That he knew of no Estate for Life, or Years determinable upon Life, that Wm. Camell had; and that Jer-voise Browne was in possession, and paid the King's Taxes.

As to John Hayward; he could not speak.

That John Dollin had no Estate, but the Right was in his Mother.

As to Wm. Long; he could not speak.

That Antony Furzman's Father was always rated for the Thing he pretends to; and that Antony Furzman was not in Possession.

It was acknowledged, That James Thompson had a Freehold Lease from the Churchwardens.

That Thomas Chub declared himself, That he had no Right to vote; having sold his Lease to Henry Speer before the Election.

As to Wm. Speck and Thomas Pargit; he could not speak.

That Sam. Senell had nothing to vote for; but that the Right was in Hayter, who had a Lease from the Corporation, and voted.

As to the Seven whose Right, it was alleged, accrued since the last Election;

Robert Webber said only to Three of them; viz. James Summers, John Bythewood, and John Harris: And said, That James Summers had no Estate; for that the Land was his Mother's, and his Father was living, and in Possession:

That John Bythewood had a Chattel Lease within the Liberty; but paid Scot and Lot to Studland:

That John Harris's Mother had the first Life in the Estate, and was in Possession.

As to some of the Nineteen and Seven, not spoke to by Webber; viz. John Hayward, Wm. Long, Thomas Pargit, and John Frost, the Sitting Member's Counsel examined

George White: Who said, That John Hayward did not pay to Church and Poor, and had no Freehold:

As to Wm. Long; That Saunders declared before the Committee, this time Twelvemonth, That the Estate was made over to him in respect of a Bastard Child; and that he was in Possession, and pays Scot and Lot:

As to Thomas Pargit; That Wm. Norman was in Possession of the whole Thing, and paid Taxes for it; though Pargit pretended to Part:

That Frost's Estate was but a Chattel Lease, and bought just before the Election; and he had not then paid to Church and Poor.

That the Sitting Member's Counsel then proceeded to justify their own Votes: And

White said, That the Trustees for Winbourn Charity have all of them voted for 20 Years; and were allowed, except at Serjeant Bond's Election, when they were objected to.

Mr. Richard Fownes was given up by the Sitting Member's Counsel.

White said, As to Edward Speer, he had formerly produced his Deeds, and has a Freehold in Right of his Wife; and voted in August was Twelve-months.

Mr. Humphreys said, That Mr. Savage produced the Copy of an Act, which was shewed to Mr. Culliford's Counsel; and he was allowed to have an Estate in Fee.

Richard

Richard Jones said, That St. Leo had a Freehold, and was in Possession: But it was acknowledged, That he was a Trustee:

That Joseph Marsh bought a Freehold Estate of one Sleigh:

That Wm. Butler has had a Freehold Lease from his Father these Two Years:

That Thomas Webber has a Freehold between him and another:

As to Speck; That he being asked by Jones to assign his Lease, for Security of Money he desired to borrow of Jones, declared, His Lease was in Mr. Culliford's Hands.

That the Sitting Member's Counsel then took Exception to Three that voted for the Petitioner: And

Richard Jones said, That Edward Toop junior had no Estate in Corf; it being his Mother's Inheritance:

That he does not know that Robert Gentile hath any thing in Corf; and that he never voted in any former Election:

As to Robert Symonds; That he never knew of any Estate he had till last Election; and then he pretended to have bought an Estate of his Brother; but he shewed no Deeds.

And the Will of John Symonds was read.

That the Petitioner's Counsel, to justify the said Three Votes, called Mr. Smith: Who said, That he knew Gentile, and the Ground he votes for, and paid him Rent for it; and that it was a Freehold of about 5s. a Year.

That Edward Toop had a Piece of Land, within the Borough, of 10s. a Year: And that there was not a better Voice in Corf than John Symonds.

And that, upon the whole Matter, the Committee came to this Resolution; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That Richard Fownes Esquire is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Corf Castle, in the County of Dorset.

The said Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That this House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That Richard Fownes Esquire is duly elected a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the Borough of Corfe Castle, in the County of Dorset.

Expences in Elections.

The House, according to Order, proceeded to take into Consideration the Act made in the Seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, for preventing Charge and Expence in Elections of Members to serve in Parliament.

And the Petition of Edmund Soame Esquire was again read.

And the said Act was read.

And Mr. Sloane attending, according to Order;

He was heard in his Place.

And then withdrew.

And a Debate arising in the House, upon the Construction of the said Act, upon Mr. Sloane's being again chosen and returned for the Borough of Thetford;

And the Question being put, That the said Mr. Sloane be capable of serving in this present Parliament for the said Borough;

The House divided.

The Noes go forth.

Tellers for the Yeas, { Mr. Ireton, } 112.
                                  { Mr. Poultney: }

Tellers for the Noes, { Mr. Bertie, } 144.
                                  { Mr. Winnington: }

So it passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition of Mr. Soame be referred to the Committee of Privileges and Elections: And that they do examine the Matter thereof; and report the same, with their Opinion therein, to the House.

Woollen Manufactures.

Resolved, That this House will, upon this Day Seven-nights, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for taking away the Duties on Woollen Manufactures exported.

Vol. 13.

Ordered, That the Petitions and Reports from the Seamen's Arrears. Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and Commissioners of the Navy, touching Q's and R's, be taken into Consideration upon this Day Sevensnight.

Ordered, That the Bill do resume the Grants of all Supply Bill; Lands, and other Revenues of the Crown, since the Resumption of Grants. 6th Day of February 1684; and applying the same to the Use of the Publick; be read a Second time upon Wednesday Morning next.

Ordered, That the Report from the Committee, to Bone-lace. whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury, relating to the Bill for prohibiting the Importation of foreign Bone-lace was . . . . . be made upon Wednesday Morning next.

Ordered, That all Committees be adjourned. Committees.

And then the House adjourned till Monday Morning, Eight a Clock.

Lunæ, 4° die Martii;

12° Gulielmi Tertii.

PRAYERS.

A PETITION of Captain Mark Cazalet was pre- Half-pay. sented to the House, and read; setting forth, That the Petitioner was in the Commission of Lieutenant in 1688, and was afterwards made a Captain; but, upon some Difference with his Colonel, he was obliged to quit his Commission in 1697, after having spent 2,000*l.* in his said Service; and that there is due to him above 300*l.* for Arrears: And praying to be put upon the List of Half-pay, till he shall be paid his Arrears.

Ordered, That the Petition do lie upon the Table, with the other Petitions relating to Half-pay.

Mr. Rayner, according to Order, presented to the Bourges, &c. House a Bill to naturalize John Bourges, and others; Nat. And the same was received; and read the First time. Resolved, That the Bill be read a Second time.

The House being informed, That Mr. Aldworth at- Crown Lands. tended, according to Order;

He was called in: And, at the Bar, presented to the House a Copy of his Memorial, directed by the House.

And then withdrew.

And the Title of the said Memorial was read:

And the said Memorial is as followeth; viz.

To the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury.

May it please your Lordships,

Upon the Decease of Mr. Auditor Phelps, your Lordships being pleased to refer the Accounts of that District to my Examination, I did, in order thereunto, receive from Mr. Marriot, the said late Auditor's Deputy, pursuant to your Lordships Commands, sundry Books of Inrollment, Records, Accounts, and Papers, relating to that Office; and, amongst the rest, the Accounts of Mr. Smith, as Receiver of Norfolk and Huntingdon for Six Years, ended at Michaelmas 1686, declared by Sir John Ernle, then Chancellor of the Exchequer, 8° Decembris 1688.

And, upon the Perusal of the Account for the Year ended at Michaelmas 1681, a true Copy whereof is hereunto annexed, I find discharged not only divers Rents within the said Counties alleged to be sold, and amounting to 391*l.* 9*s.* per Annum; but also the Sum of 2,725*l.* 17*s.* 8*d.* Part of the Arrears in the preceding Account depending; for that they are alleged to be sold, as by a Schedule thereof.

Now the Accounts of this Revenue for sundry preceding Years, from whence these Arrears are brought, were were not delivered to me; neither is there any Rental, or Particular of the said Rents: And, this being the First Account of the said Mr. Smith, he avers, he can say nothing to the Rents and Arrears thus discharged; nor does he know where the preceding Accounts are.

And Mr. Marriott says the same.

To supply which Defect, I have taken a great deal of Pains, from the last Accounts and Records in my Custody, to draw out the Particulars of all the Rents in Charge before the Year 1660, hereunto annexed; taking notice of all such as appeared to be sold by Deeds inrolled in the aforesaid Office, of what is Parcel of the Queen Dowager's Jointure, and of those which Mr. Smith receives at this

Day; for the respective Tenants to answer by what Warrant they pay the Remainder of the said Rents to any other Person than the Receiver; which will be chargeable and vexatious; and yet seems necessary to be done, unless your Lordships will allow the said 391 l. 9 s. per Annum, and the said Arrears of 2,725 l. 17 s. 8  $\frac{1}{2}$  d. to be taken from the Crown by Allegation: Besides there are a great many other Accounts wanting, and several Leaves cut out of One of the Books of Inrollment; and, in another Book, some Leaves are sewed in: Which is most humbly submitted to your Lordships Consideration.

Wm. Aldworth.

10° Martii 1696.

Ordered, That the said Memorial do lie upon the Table, to be perused by the Members of this House.

Gardiner's
Estate.

Mr. Hayes reported from the Committee, to whom the ingrossed Bill from the Lords, intituled, An Act for vesting the real Estate of Joseph Gardiner and Sarah his Wife, late the Estate of Wm. Ridges Esquire deceased, in Trustees, to be sold for Payment of the Debts and Legacies therein mentioned; and applying the Residue of the Money upon Trusts therein specified; was committed;
That they had examined the same, and found the Allegations therein contained to be true; and that the Parties concerned had given their Consents thereunto, to the Satisfaction of the Committee; and that the Committee
Vol. 13.

had directed him to report the Bill to the House, without any Amendment: And he delivered the same in at the Clerk's Table.

A Bill for vesting certain Lands and Tenements, late

And several Amendments were proposed to be made in the Clause; viz.

L. 2. After "Wales," to insert "and Counties Palatine:"

L. 5. After "Principality," to add "or Counties Palatine:"

And the same were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Then the Clause was read the Third time; and agreed unto by the House; with the said Amendments.

Ordered, That Sir Robert Edon do carry the Bill to the Lords, and acquaint them, That this House hath agreed to the said Amendment with some Amendments, to which they desire their Lordships Concurrence.

Ordered, That the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Bill to enable Justices of Peace to repair the Gaols in their respective Counties was committed, be discharged of the same: And that the Bill be committed to a particular Committee:

And it is referred to Colonel Byerley, Mr. Brotherton, Sir John Mordant, Mr. Heysham, Sir Jacob Ashley, Mr. Yates, Mr. Gwyn, Mr. Mompesson, Lord Downe, Mr. Blaake, Mr. England, Sir Barth. Shower, Mr. Clarke, Sir Cha. Bloyse, Sir John Wynn, Sir Rich Cox, Sir Rich. Farrington, Sir Rich. Middleton, Sir Jos. Jekyl, Mr. Hayes, Mr. Lowther, Mr. Osbourne, Sir Robert Davers; and all Knights of Shires: And all that come are to have Voices: And they are to meet this Afternoon, at Four a Clock, in the Speaker's Chambers: And they are to have Power to send for Persons, Papers, and Records.

Ordered, That Mr. How, Mr. Ireton, Mr. Yates, Mr. Shackerly, be added to the Committee, to whom the Bill for supplying the Town and Port of Deal with fresh Water is committed.

Mr. Bertie reported from the Committee to whom the Petition of the Clothiers of Salisbury, relating to the Bill for preventing the Importation of foreign Bone-lace, was referred, That they had examined the Matter of the several Petitions to them referred, and came to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Upon the Petition of the City of Sarum;

Mr. London, Clothier, said, That since April last, there hath been a great Decay in the Trade of the narrow Manufacture; and those that formerly kept 20 Looms at Work, do not keep Half so many now; great Quantities of Goods lying on their Hands unsold.

That the Reason of this Decay of Trade proceeds from the Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures in Flanders.

Upon the Petition of the Clothiers of Leeds;

William Cookson, Clothworker of Leeds, said,

That before, and in the Time of, the War, he hath exported in one Year, to the Value of between Twenty and Thirty thousand Pounds Worth of broad coarse Cloth, Kersies, and Bays, particularly in the Years 1696, 1697, and 1698:

That he and his Father have followed the Trade Five-and-twenty Years, and have had a Fourth Part thereof to Flanders from that Place:

That, since the Prohibition there, he hath exported nothing at all; and the Reason of the Decay of their Trade to Flanders arises, as he believes, from the Prohibition of their Bone-lace, and the high Duties upon their Linen Manufactures:

That they use no Spanish Wool in making their Cloths:

That the Gentlemen they served lived in the Spanish Netherlands; and their Cloths are first sent to Rotterdam, and from thence to Flanders; but, in Time of War, they send their Cloths first to London, and from thence to Flanders:

That he hath no Correspondence in Holland; and is assured all his Goods went to Flanders.

William Piccard, Clothier of Leeds, said,

That before April last, they had an even Trade, but since have had none; and have a great many Goods lying on their Hands: That those Clothiers who formerly employed 100 Workers now cannot employ above Two or Three: And those that then worked for Ten-pence a Day, would work for Three-pence a Day, if they could have it.

John Dunderdale, Clothier, said,

That they can get no Return of their Money; and so are not able to employ the Poor, who used to work for them.

Being asked if they employ no Workers at all? he answered,

Deal Water-works.

A Petition of the Mayor, Jurats, and Inhabitants of the Town of Deal, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That Mr. Wm. Warner, about a Year since, offered to the Inhabitants of the said Town, to erect a Waterwork for supplying them with good Water, and begun the same at a great Expence, and hath made a considerable Progress therein: And the Petitioners being informed, that one Mr. Rider hath presented a Bill to this House, to supplant the said Mr. Warner in such his Undertaking, which will be a great Detriment to the said Corporation: And praying, That they may be heard by their Counsel against the said Bill, before the same do pass.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the said Bill is committed; and that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee, thereupon.

Debtors Petition.

A Petition of the poor Prisoners for Debt, in the Gaol of Rothwell, for the Honour of Pontefract, in the County of York, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That there are between 50 and 60 of the Petitioners confined to the said Prison, who are reduced to great Misery, and in no-wise able to pay their Creditors, unless they might be permitted their Liberty, to do the same by their Industry: And praying for Redress, in such Methods as the House should think fit.

Ordered, That the Consideration of the said Petition be referred to the Committee, to whom the Petitions of several other poor Prisoners are referred: And that the Committee do prepare, and bring in, a Bill or Bills for the Relief of poor Prisoners... Debt.

Army Arrears.

A Petition of the Gunners belonging to his Majesty's Garison of Upnor upon the River Medway, and the Forts adjacent, now under the Command of Colonel Rouse, was presented to the House, and read; setting forth, That their Pay has been in Arrear near Seven Years; by reason of which they are reduced to inexpressible Hardships, and denied all manner of Credit: And praying, they may be preserved from perishing in Gaols, and their poor Families from starving.

Ordered, That the said Petition do lie upon the Table.

Avon and Froom Navigation.

An ingrossed Bill for the better preserving the Navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froom; and cleansing the Streets of the City of Bristol; was read the Third time.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act for the better preserving the Navigation of the Rivers Avon and Froom; and for cleansing, paving, and enlightening the Streets of the City of Bristol.

Ordered, That Mr. Blaake do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

London Poor.

Ordered, That the Bill for the better employing and relieving the Poor of the City of London be read Tomorrow Morning.

Dover Harbour.

Resolved, That this House will, upon Saturday Morning next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to consider of the Bill for the Repair of Dover Harbour.

Bone-lace and Woollen Manufacture.

answered, They do, out of Pity, employ some few at Three-pence and Four-pence a Day, to pick Wool.

Upon the Petition of the Town of Hallifax;

William Southcliffe, Clothier for 30 Years, said,

That, before April last, they lived handsomely one by another; but since, many Thousands are ready to starve: 'Tis true, he still keeps up his Work, and employs a Thousand poor People at Four-pence a Day, to whom he formerly gave Six-pence per Day; but is not able to hold it long, unless he hath a better Trade:

That he dealt with Men who sent the Goods to Flanders, and sells the same Cloth now for Two-and-forty Shillings, that he used to sell for Six-and-forty Shillings.

Upon the Petition of the Clothiers of Ratchdale;

Gabriel Garthside, Dealer in the Woollen Manufacture, said,

That, before the First Day of May, the Town of Ratchdale had a good Trade; but now have little; and have great Stocks lying on their Hands:

That he hath sold Cloth in Amsterdam, which, as he was informed, was sent into Flanders; and his Dealing was in several Sorts of Bays:

That the Town, about Two or Three Years ago, returned 1,500*l.* per Week; and now they do not return above 500*l.* per Week:

That he hath known Goods entered at Hull, and shipped off for Flanders:

That in the Town of Ratchdale, they formerly collected not above 7, or 800*l.* a Year for the Poor; but by reason of the Decay of Trade, and Increase of their Poor, they were forced the last Year to raise 1,069*l.*

Upon the Petition of Salop;

Mr. Jeremiah Powell, Dealer in the Woollen Manufacture, said,

That formerly there was laid down Fifteen Hundred Pounds a Week for carrying on the Trade there; and, since the Prohibition, the Trade is abated 75*l.* per Cent.:

That the Prohibition of the Flanders Lace is the Occasion of the Decay of their Trade:

That, when the Act was passing for the Prohibition of Flanders Lace, he was told by the Merchants he used to sell his Goods to, That they should buy no more Goods of him; for that the Act would cause a Prohibition in Flanders.

Mr. Samuel Monk spoke to the same Effect.

Upon the Petition of the Lacemen of Buckinghamshire;

Mr. Edward Purcell, Laceman, said,

That the Number of Workers is so great, that he cannot tell how many they are; but believes 3,000*l.* a Week is paid in ready Money, to the Bone-lace-makers in that County:

That formerly the Price at Five Shillings a Yard was reckoned extraordinary; but since the Act, they have some Lace of Six-and-thirty Shillings a Yard; and believes, shall be able to make as good as can be made; and produced Two Pieces of 26*s.* per Yard:

That the Improvement is both in Price and Quantity. That Children of Five Years of Age work upon Twopeny Lace.

Mr. Edward Hooton, Laceman, lives at Newport, and sells Lace, said,

That there are Thirty thousand Workers in Buckinghamshire; and that, before the Act, there was not Half so many; and their Trade is computed at between 3 and 4,000*l.* per Week:

That he buys at Newport, where there are 1,300 Workers, and sells in London:

That he keeps a Hundred Workers, and buys 40 or 50 Pounds worth of Lace in a Week:

That Lace is much dearer now than formerly; whereby the Poor is much encouraged; for that Lace, which sold formerly for 6*s.* a Yard, now sells for 10*s.* a Yard; and a Child of Six or Seven Years of Age may earn Twenty-pence a Week:

That there are Men at Needs return 20*l.* per Week; and that the Increase of Trade hath been since the Prohibition.

Richard Gurney, Laceman, at Putnam in Hertfordshire, said,

That he keeps 2 or 300 People at Work in Buckinghamshire, upon Bone-lace; but did not employ Half so many before the Prohibition.

John Smith, Laceman, said, That Sisters Thread pays 18*d.* a Pound Duty: And that twice the Quantity of Lace hath been shipped off since the Prohibition as was before:

That those Customers who used to write for Lace of 5*s.* a Yard, now write for Lace of 20*s.* a Yard:

That Flanders Lace used to pay no Duty in or out, but was always run:

That what he sends out himself, he sends to Jamaica.

Thomas Robinson, Laceman, said,

That in Buckinghamshire there are 200 Dealers in Lace, and about 150 of them come to London every Week; and, one with another, deal for Twenty Pounds a Week:

That, within these Three Years, they are increased about 50 in Number:

That there is more Lace made now, than formerly; and he takes more now in a Week, than in a Fortnight, within Three Years last past; but for the last Quarter of a Year the Trade hath a little fallen off:

That Men, Women, and Children, one with another, earn about Three Shillings a Week:

That a good Workwoman will earn Seven Shillings a Week.

Mr. Clerk, Dealer in Lace, said,

That there are One thousand and Eighty-one Persons employed in making of Lace in Salisbury; besides great Numbers in Places adjacent:

That he and his Partner send between Sixty and Eighty Pounds worth of Lace per Week, from Salisbury:

That, in the West of England, they now make Lace of 5*l.* or 6*l.* a Yard; where the best they made formerly was but 4*l.*: And he produced some Lace to the Committee, which was made in Dorsetshire, and cost above 3*l.* a Yard:

That 5*l.* Sterling, in Thread, makes a Hundred Pounds Worth of Lace; but generally, one Sort of Thread with another 15*l.* Sterling makes a Hundred Pounds Worth; and the finest Lace is made of Nuns Thread:

That, in the North of England, the Number of Workers are increased double what they were within these Two Years; and that there are, by Computation, at least 100,000 Men, Women, and Children, employed in the making of Lace within this Kingdom.

That, several Merchants appearing, the Committee thought fit to examine them: Who said as followeth; viz.

Mr. Kent, Merchant, said,

That the Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures in Flanders commenced the First of May last; and the Occasion of such Prohibition arose from the late Act for the more effectual Prohibition of foreign Bone-lace, as he hath always heard from his Correspondents there:

That he and his Brother, before such Prohibition, have exported between Sixty and Seventy thousand Pounds worth per Annum, from the Port of London, and Port of Hull, of our Woollen Manufacture, and very little else, particularly in the Years 1697, and 1698; that is to say, Thirty thousand Pounds worth from Hull, and the rest from London:

That there was no Comparison between the Exports from England, and other Countries, to Flanders, though their Prohibition runs generally to all; for England exported Fifty Times as much as Holland and France; and believes they prohibited the Hollanders, by reason great Quantities of Goods went through that Country from England to Flanders:

That one Mr. Ververt was in England when the late Act for the more effectual prohibiting the Importation of Foreign Bone-lace was in Debate in the House of Commons; and said, If the Bill passed, when he went into Flanders, he would take care that our Woollen Manufacture should be prohibited there:

That he believes the People that were formerly employed in the Linen Manufactures there, are now employed in the Woollen Manufacture.

Mr.

Mr. George Vergoe, Mr. Geo. Hiam, Mr. Wm. Kesterman, Mr. Curter, and several other Merchants, spoke to the same effect as Mr. Kent.

Merchants, in behalf of the Bone-lace Makers, referred to the Reasons in Placart.

That as to the Value of the yearly Exportation of the Woollen Manufactures into Flanders, the Committee have had Accounts from the Custom-house for the Years 1686, and 1687; and likewise for the Year One thousand Six hundred and Ninety-seven, and 1698: And find them to be as followeth; viz.

	£.	s.	d.
The Woollen Manufactures exported } in the Year 1686, amounted to }	96,100	14	3
In the Year 1687, to - - -	72,942	15	10
In the Year 1697, to - - -	118,302	5	6½
In the Year 1698, to - - -	188,046	14	4

Several of the Petitions referred to the Committee, taking Notice of the high Duty upon Linen; the Committee thought fit to have an Account from the Custom-house, what the Value of the Linen, imported in the same Years, amounted to: And find it to be as followeth; viz.

	£.	s.	d.
In 1686, } Imported to London only, }	50,234	0	0
In 1687, }	47,909	0	0
In 1697, } In London, and the Out Ports, }	43,927	4	11½
In 1698, }	54,841	3	5

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That there hath been a great Decay of the Woollen Manufacture of England, since the First of May 1699.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Act, made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for rendering the Laws more effectual for preventing the Importation of Foreign Bone-lace, Loom-lace, Needle-work, Point, and Cut-work, hath been an Occasion of the said Decay of the Woollen Manufacture of England.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That, for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom, a Bill be brought in to repeal the said Act.

The First Resolution being read a Second time;

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That there hath been a great Decay of the Woollen Manufacture of England, since the First of May 1699.

The Second Resolution being read a Second time;

And a Debate arising in the House thereupon;

And a Motion being made, and the Question being put, That the Debate be adjourned;

It passed in the Negative.

Then the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, That an Act, made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for rendering the Laws more effectual, for preventing the Importation of Foreign Bone-lace, Loom-lace, Needle-work, Point, and Cut-work, hath been an Occasion of the said Decay of the Woollen Manufactures of England;

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

The Third Resolution being read a Second time;

An Amendment was proposed to be made thereto, by adding "to commence Three Months after the Prohibition of the English Woollen Manufactures is taken off "in Flanders:"

And the same was, upon the Question put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Resolved, That the House doth agree with the Committee in the said Resolution, so amended, That, for the encouraging the Woollen Manufacture of this Kingdom, a Bill be brought in to repeal the said Act, to commence

Sir Godfrey Copley reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred to inspect Precedents where Members chosen for several Places, and being absent, have, by Letters, or Messages, made their Elections for which of the Places they will serve, and report the same to the House; That they had inspected the same accordingly; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same was read; and is as followeth; viz.

Sir Simon Dewes's printed Book, Fol. 430. That, 8° Februarii, 31° Eliz. Mr. Robert Knowles being returned a Knight of the Shire for Brecknock, and a Burgess for Reading, he did, by a Message communicated to the House by Mr. Treasurer, acquaint the House, That he made Choice to serve for Brecknock: And a new Writ is thereupon ordered to choose a new Member for Reading.

Idem, Fol. 622. That, 31° Octo. 43° Eliz. Mr. Godard Pemberton, being chosen for Lewis, in Sussex, and Peterborough, in the County of Northampton, he did, by a Message communicated to the House by Mr. George Goreing, make his Election to serve for Peterborough: And a new Writ is ordered for Lewis.

That, 1° Apr. 1690, Henry Seymour Esquire, being returned a Burgess for St. Mawes, in Cornwall, and Totness, in the County of Devon; before he had sat in Parliament for either Corporation, by Letter to the Speaker, makes his Election to serve for Totness: And a new Writ is ordered to issue to choose a new Member for St. Mawes.

That, 23° December 1698, Sir Wm. Thomas Baronet, being returned a Knight of the Shire for the County of Sussex, and also a Com-Baron for the Port of Seaford, in the said County of Sussex; being Sick, did, by Letter to the Speaker, make his Election to serve for the said County of Sussex: And a new Writ was ordered to issue for electing a Com-Baron to serve for Seaford.

That, the 6th January 1698, Sir Joseph Williamson Knight, being returned a Citizen to serve for the City of Rochester, in the County of Kent, and also a Burgess for the Borough of Thetford, in the County of Norfolk, did, by Letter from the Hague, directed to the Speaker, make his Election to serve for the City of Rochester: And a new Writ was ordered to issue for electing a Burgess to serve for the said Borough of Thetford.

The Committee have likewise inspected Precedents of what hath been done in Cases where Members have been beyond the Seas, or otherwise absent from the Service of the House; and do find, (a) That, the 18 March, 23° Eliz. the House being informed, That Thomas Beaumont, one of the Citizens for Norwich, and Gregory Peacock, one of the Citizens for York, were incurably sick and diseased, other Members were chosen in their rooms.

That, Sessio. 3° Parliament: Journal of the House of Commons, beginning November 18, 1606, 4° Jac. 1mi, and ending July 4°, 1607, 5 Jac.

Mr. Speaker produceth a Note sent unto him, as he said, by Commandment from the Lord Chancellor, containing the Names of certain Members of this House, disposed and employed by his Majesty, sithence the last Session, in special Services; with Direction to know the Pleasure of the House, whether the same Members were to be continued, or their Places supplied with others; viz.

Bedford Villa, Sir Hum. Winch, Lord Chief Baron of Ireland.

St. Jermin Cornub', Sir George Carew, Ambassador in France.

Sir Thomas Edmonds, Ambassador with the Archduke. Norfolk, Mil. Sir Cha. Cornwallis, Ambassador in Spaine.

Sir Oliver St. John, Master of the Ordnance in Ireland.
Sir Thomas Ridgway, Treasurer in Ireland.

These

(a) In the Margin of the Journals is these Words, "Sir Simon Dewes printed Book, Fol. 308."

These Cases, with all others, to be taken by the Committee of Privileges.

Saturni, 22<sup>o</sup> die Novembris 1606, Sir George Moor reports the several Cases committed to the Committee.

New Members to be chosen in the Place of Sir Humphry Wynch, Sir Oliver St. John, and Sir Thomas Ridgway.

They considered, according to the Instructions given them; namely, of Sir Thomas Ridgway, Treasurer, Sir Humphry Wynch Lord Chief Baron, and Sir Oliver St. John, Master of the Ordnance in Ireland; whose Cases they conceive different from the Case of Ambassadors; for that, as they thought, their Patents were for Life, and therefore new to be chosen in their Places.

The late Precedent of Sir James Lee, advanced to the Place of Lord Chief Justice in Ireland remembred; in whose Place Mr. Alexander Chock was chosen for the Town of Westbury, in Wiltshire.

Several Questions were made of every particular Case; and it was resolved,

That Warrants should be granted by Mr. Speaker for the Choice of New Members in the Place of Sir Thomas Ridgway, Sir Humphry Wynch, and Sir Oliver St. John, according to the Opinion of the Committee, and according to a former Precedent in the Case of Sir James Lee.

Ordered, That Warrants should issue for new Writs to elect for Places void, as in place of Sir Tho. Ridgway, for the County of Devon, in this Form; viz.

Whereas Sir Thomas Ridgway Knight, now Treasurer at War in his Majesty's Realm of Ireland, was, at the First Session of this Parliament, elected and returned, into the Commons House of Parliament, one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Devon; and being sithence, by his Majesty's Favour, advanced to the Place of Treasurer; It was this Day moved in the said House, Whether his Place of Knight of the Shire were void: Which, upon the Question, was over-ruled; and ordered, That a new Writ should issue for the Choice of another Knight, in the room and place of the said Sir Thomas; for which this shall be your Warrant.

Directed, To my loving Friend Sir George Copping Knight, Clerk of the Crown in his Majesty's High Court of Chancery.

And for the rest in the like Form.

Ordered, That the said Report be taken into Consideration upon Tuesday Morning next.

Bone-lace,
&c.

An ingrossed Bill to repeal an Act made in the Ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for rendering the Laws more effectual for preventing the Importation of Foreign Bone-lace, Loom-lace, Needle-work, Point, and Cut-work, was read the Third time.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass: And that the Title be, An Act to repeal an Act made in the Ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for rendering the Laws more effectual for preventing the Importation of Foreign Bone-lace, Loom-lace, Needle-work, Point, and Cut-work, Three Months after the Prohibition of the Woollen Manufactures in Flanders shall be taken off.

Ordered, That Mr. Bertie do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Signing Association.

An ingrossed Bill to prevent Disputes that may arise by Officers and Members of Corporations having neglected to sign the Association, and taking the Oaths, in due Time, was read the Third time.

An ingrossed Clause was offered, as a Rider, That the said Act should not extend to indemnify any Person for any Neglect, against whom any Prosecution is in the King's Bench for forging the Rolls of the Sessions of the Peace, as if they had taken the Oaths, and subscribed the Declaration, afo . . . such Persons shall be duly acquitted by a legal Tryal:

And the same was once read; and, by Leave of the House, withdrawn.

Resolved, That the Bill do pass.

VOL. 13.

Ordered, That Mr. Mompesson do carry the Bill to the Lords, and desire their Concurrence thereunto.

Mr. Mompesson reported from the Committee, to whom it was referred to consider what Laws are expired, and near expiring, and fit to be continued, That they had considered the same accordingly; and had come to several Resolutions; which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That such Parts of an Act made in the 13th and 14th Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom; which were continued by an Act made in the First Year of the late King James; and were further continued by an Act made in the 4th and 5th Years of his present Majesty and the late Queen; be continued.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Act made in the 13th and 14th Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for providing Carriages by Land, and by Water, for the Use of his Majesty's Navy and Ordnance; which was revived and continued by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second; and was further continued by an Act made in the 4th and 5th Years of his present Majesty and the late Queen; be continued.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Act made in the 22d and 23d Years of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the Planting of Tobacco in England; and for regulating the Plantation Trade; which was continued by an Act made in the First Year of the late King James; and was further continued by an Act made in the 4th and 5th Years of his present Majesty and the late Queen; be continued.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Act made in the 19th Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for assigning Orders in the Exchequer without Revocation; which was continued by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second: and was further continued by an Act made in the 4th and 5th Years of the Reign of his present Majesty and the late Queen; be continued.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Act made in the 22d and 23d Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to revive an Act, intituled, An Act to prevent the Disturbance of Seamen and others; and to preserve the Stores belonging to his Majesty's Navy Royal; together with some Alterations and Additions thereby made; which, together with the said Alterations, was continued by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second; and was further continued by an Act made in the 4th and 5th Years of his present Majesty and the late Queen; be continued.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That an Act made in the 22 and 23 Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds in the Buying and Selling Cattle in Smithfeild, and elsewhere; which was revived and continued by an Act made in the 1st Year of the Reign of the late King James the Second, with a Proviso therein contained; which said Act, together with the said Proviso, was continued by an Act made in the 4th and 5th Years of his present Majesty and the late Queen; be, together with the said Proviso, continued.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, agreed unto by the House.

Ordered, That a Bill, or Bills, be brought in upon the said Resolutions: And that Mr. Mompesson do prepare, and bring in, the same.

Mr.

Expiring
Laws.

Mr. Mompesson also reported, from the said Committee, the Matter re-committed to them, touching Carriers; That they had come to several Resolutions, which they had directed him to report to the House; which he read in his Place; and afterwards delivered in at the Clerk's Table: Where the same were read; and are as follow; viz.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That that Part of the Act made in the 7th and 8th Years of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Amending and Repairing the Highways, and Explanation of the Laws relating thereunto, which enjoins all Travelling Waggons, Carts, and Carriages, to be drawn with a Pole between the Wheel Horses, or with double Shafts, has been found impracticable in some Roads, and inconvenient in most Roads, of this Kingdom.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the stinting of Carriers to the Carriage of any certain Weight, will be highly inconvenient, and very impracticable.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Power that is in the common Informer, be transferred to the Surveyors of the Highways only; which will be to the great Advantage of the Highways: And that all the Forfeitures which the Carriers shall incur by offending the said Laws, be employed to the proper Use of mending and repairing the Highways only.

The said Resolutions, being severally read a Second time, were, upon the Question severally put thereupon, disagreed unto by the House.

Mr. Mompesson also reported from the said Committee, That he was directed by them to acquaint the House with some other Acts which are expiring, to the end the House might give their Directions concerning the same; viz. The Acts touching the Exporting of Coals; and touching Brokers and Stock-jobbers.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction, That in the Bill directed to be brought in upon the Resolutions before mentioned, there be a Clause brought in, for continuing the Clause in an Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Glass Wares, Stone and Earthen Bottles, for carrying on the War against France, That all Coals, exported beyond the Seas in Foreign Bottoms, shall only pay Ten Shillings per Chaldron; and in the English Bottoms, only Three Shillings per Chaldron.

Ordered, That it be an Instruction also, That a Clause be brought in for continuing the Act in the 8th and 9th Years of his Majesty's Reign, to restrain the Number, and ill Practices, of Brokers and Stock-jobbers.

Also,

Villers'
Estate.

The Lords have agreed to the Amendment, made by this House, to the Bill, intituled, An Act for settling the Estate of Catharine Fitzgerrald Villers; and raising the Money for Payment of Debts, and better securing the Portions of her Five younger Children by Edward Fitzgerrald Villers, her late Husband. Also,

Harrison's
Estate.

The Lords have agreed to the Bill, intituled, An Act for selling the Reversion and Inheritance of the Farm of Nethercot, in the County of Oxon, for Payment of the Debts and Legacies of George Harrison Esquire, deceased; without any Amendment.

And then the Messengers withdrew.

Woollen
Manufactures, &c.

The House proceeded to take into Consideration the Amendment, made by the Lords, to the Bill, intituled, An Act for taking away the Duties upon the Woollen Manufactures, Corn, Grain, Bread, Biscuit, and Meal, exported: And the same, being twice read, is as followeth; viz.

2d Sk. L. 38. leave out "or other sooner Determination, except for Non-payment of the Rent within Three Months after the same becomes due and payable."

And the Question being put, That the House do agree with the Lords in the said Amendment;

It passed in the Negative.

Ordered, That a Conference be desired with the Lords, touching the said Amendment.

Ordered, That a Committee be appointed to draw up Reasons, to be offered to the Lords at the said Conference:

And it is referred to Sir Edward Seymour, Sir Sam. Bernardiston, Sir Christopher Musgrave, Mr. Moor, Mr. Harley, Mr. Ireton, Sir Richard Onslow, Mr. Onslow, Mr. Bullock, Mr. Boyle, Mr. How, Mr. Wilmington, Earl of Ranelagh, Sir Godfrey Copley, Mr. Cowper, Mr. Conyers, Mr. Mompesson, Sir *Jos. Ordered, That the Reports from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, which were to have been made this Day, be made upon this Day Sevensnight. Committee of Privileges.

Mr. Blathwayt, from the Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, presented to the House their Answer, pursuant to the Order of the 6th of March instant, by which they were to lay before the House an Account of what Advances they have made towards the Improvement of the Trade of England.

And the Title thereof was read: And the Account is as followeth; viz.

In Obedience to an Order of this Honourable House, dated the 6th Instant, requiring from us an Account of what Advances we have made towards the Improvement of the Trade of England; we humbly offer,

That his Majesty was pleased, by a Commission dated the 15th of May 1696, to appoint Commissioners for promoting the Trade of this Kingdom; and for inspecting and improving his Plantations in America, and elsewhere; with several Directions and Instructions; the chief whereof are as follow:

To examine into, and take an Account of, the State and Condition of the general Trade of England, and of the several particular Trades into foreign Parts:

To examine what Trades are, or may prove, hurtful, and what beneficial, to this Kingdom; and by what means the advantageous Trades may be improved, and those that are prejudicial discouraged:

To consider by what means profitable Manufactures, already settled, may be further improved; and how other new and profitable Manufactures may be introduced:

To consider of proper Methods for setting on Work and employing the Poor, and making them useful to the Publick:

To inquire into the Condition of the Plantations, as well with Regard to the Administration of Government there, as in relation to Commerce; and how those Colonies may be rendered most beneficial to this Kingdom:

To inquire what naval Stores may be furnished from the Plantations; and how the same may be best procured:

To prepare Instructions for Governors; and to take Account of their Administration:

To examine the Journals of the Councils, and the Acts or Laws made by the respective General Assemblies, in order to his Majesty's Approbation or Disallowance thereof:

To require an Account of all Money given by the Assemblies for publick Uses; and how the same is expended:

And to make Representations and Reports to his Majesty, or the Privy Council, in Writing, as there shall be Occasion.

In pursuance whereof, we have proceeded in the manner following:

Towards the Improvement of the Woollen Manufacture, and for hindering the Exportation of our unwrought Wool, we did, in December 1696, represent to his Majesty, That Officers might be appointed by Land, on the Coasts of Kent and Sussex, to attend constantly upon that Service; and to act in Concert with the Ships directed, by Act of Parliament, to cruise upon those Coasts, in order thereunto: And we did likewise propose, for the more easy Prosecution of Offenders, the Issuing of a Capias against them; which has since passed into a Law.

Upon Information that a Woollen Manufacture was set up at Sada, near the Groyne, by the Encouragement of the Court of Spain; and that the Dutch Consul at the Groyne was supposed to be a great Promoter of it; we procured such Orders, from time to time, from his Majesty to his Ministers in Spain, and at the Hague, as, we hope, may have disappointed that Undertaking:

And, upon Advice of the like Attempt in Sweden, we have transmitted to his Majesty's Minister at Stockholm such such Memorials, as, we presume, will be useful to that End.

Upon the late Prohibition of our Woollen Manufactures in Flanders, we made an early Inquiry into that Matter, by his Majesty's Minister at Brussels; and, finding the Government of Flanders unwilling to treat thereof, we gave our Opinion, as Occasion offered, That the absolute Repealing of our Act for prohibiting the Importation of Bone-lace from thence, without some provisional Conditions to be performed on their Parts, would noways answer the proposed Design.

Having been required by his Majesty to take into Consideration the Trade of England and Ireland, how they stood in relation to each other, and how they might be improved to the Advantage of each Nation; we took that Occasion humbly to represent, That the most proper Means to divert the people of Ireland from applying themselves to the Woollen Manufactures, was, by giving them such Encouragement in the Manufacture of Linen, as might engage them heartily in it.

Nor have our Endeavours been wanting, by several Representations to his Majesty, and Considerations had of Bills transmitted from Ireland, to induce that Parliament towards passing such Acts, in reference to both Manufactures, as might be of mutual Benefit to both Kingdoms.

His Majesty having likewise referred to our Consideration some Proposals, made by Monsieur Crommelin, a French Refugee, long experienced in the Linen Manufacture, for the more effectual Establishment and Improvement of that Manufacture in Ireland; we humbly offered our Opinion, That his Majesty would be pleased to allow 800 l. per Annum, for Ten Years, to pay the Interest, at Eight per Cent. of 10,000 l. to be advanced by the said Crommelin, and his Friends, for the setting on Foot of that Manufacture; the said 800 l. to be received, and issued out, by Trustees appointed by his Majesty to inspect the Employing of the said 10,000 l.: And, his Majesty having been pleased to give Directions accordingly, the said Crommelin is lately gone to Ireland, in order to put his Proposals in Execution; and we have Reason to believe he will be able to make a considerable Advance therein.

Having further observed, that several of his Majesty's Plantations in America applied themselves to the Improvement of Woollen Manufactures in those Parts, for the Supplying of themselves and Neighbours, to the Hindrance of the Exportation of our English Manufactures; we prepared a Clause for the preventing thereof; which was presented to this Honourable House, and accordingly received, and enacted, the last Session of Parliament; and we have since understood, That the said Restraint has had a very good Effect.

The Turkey Company finding their Trade much prejudiced by the East India Company's seeking a Vent in Northern Parts of Persia for those Draperies, which, by their Charter, they are obliged annually to export; and his Majesty having referred that Matter to our Examination; we humbly reported our Opinion, That it would be inconvenient, that the East India Company should send any greater Quantity of Draperies into Persia, than they had done formerly; and that they ought therefore to vend the Draperies they are obliged to export, either in India, China, Japan, or elsewhere, at such Distance from those Places where the Turkey Company have usually traded, as may not cause any interfering between those Two Companies.

And, for the better preventing other more general Inconveniences apprehended from the East India Trade, we did also, upon another Occasion, humbly propose, That the Wearing or Consumption of the manufactured Goods of India, Persia, or China, made of Silk or Herba, or mixed with either of those Materials; as also of painted or stained Callicocs, and of all Handicraft-wares imported from those Parts; should be discouraged and lessened in these Kingdoms, and in his Majesty's Plantations.

VOL. 13.

For Encouragement of the Royal Lustring Company, and the Establishment of that Manufacture here, we have made several Representations of what we conceived necessary to be done; divers of which Things have since been enacted.

Upon the Czar of Muscovy's coming into Holland, we represented the State of Trade between Muscovy and England, and the Advantage this Kingdom would receive by the Importation of Tobacco into that Country, if permitted: Whereupon Instructions were sent to his Majesty's Embassadors at the Hague, to treat with the Czar's Ministers; which was done accordingly: And we afterwards represented the Necessity of enlarging the Russia Company, as has since been done by Act of Parliament, in order to the better Improving of that Trade, and the Supply of Naval Stores from thence, as well as from Denmark and Sweden.

Upon Occasion of the late Treaty of Peace at Reswyck, a particular Account having been required from us, for the Information of His Majesty's Plenipotentiaries there, of what had been lost or gained in all his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations, since the Treaty of Breda until that time; we accordingly prepared many particular Accounts, not only of what had been lost or gained, as aforesaid, but also of all Pretensions, and Grounds of Differences, between the French and us, with relation to each particular Plantation, as also to Newfoundland, Hudson's Bay, the Royal African Company, &c.; which were accordingly transmitted.

Since the Conclusion of the Peace, we did also, by his Majesty's Directions, draw up many Memorials for the Use of the Commissioners appointed by his Majesty, to treat here with Commissioners from France, upon all such of the aforesaid Matters, as, by the Treaty of Reswyck, required any further Settlement.

The Regulation of Passes for Ships trading to the Mediterranean, and other Southern Parts, with respect to the Government of Algier, being of great Importance to the Trade of his Majesty's Subjects into those Parts; we have, by his Majesty's Directions in several Representations, humbly offered our Opinion thereupon; as also concerning a Treaty with that Government, and likewise with the Emperor of Morocco, and relating to the English Trade at Tunis.

We have prepared a Draught of a Treaty of Commerce with Sweden, with such Articles as we conceive proper, not only to preserve the Trade and Vent of our Northern Draperies in that Country, but also to remove the many Difficulties that his Majesty's Subjects trading into those Parts have of late Years met with.

We have taken the like Care in a Draught of a Treaty of Commerce with France; and prepared such Memorials relating thereunto, as may be proper to be had in Consideration, whensoever a Negotiation of that Nature shall be set on Foot.

We have, upon the Application of the Merchants of this City trading to Leghorne, represented to his Majesty the present Grievances, and further Apprehensions, that they, or their Correspondents there, lie under, in relation to the Privileges formerly granted to them, and other Strangers, by the great Dukes of Tuscany; and have thereupon proposed what may be of Use for their Ease and Security, and for the Advantage of England in that Trade.

To prevent Delays in determining Differences about Matters of Trade, we prepared a Bill for determining such Differences by Arbitration; which has since passed into a Law.

Our Report relating to the Rate of Guineas, and the Difference of Value between Gold and Silver, has been laid before this Honourable House, and approved of.

We have made Representations to prevent the Jews of Leghorn from trading in English Ships, thereby to enjoy the Privileges of the English at Alexandria; to prevent the Encroachments of the Consul at Rotterdam; and the Establishing of a Consul at the Maderas, independent on the Consul General at Portugal; and to promote the Asiento or Contract for supplying the Spanish West Indies with Improvement of Trade.

Improvement of

with Negroes; not to mention many others upon private Cases in Matters of Trade.

In order to the Employing of the Poor of this Kingdom, and making them useful to the Publick, we have made divers Proposals, how we conceived that Work might be effected; and have lately, in pursuance of an Order of a Committee of this Honourable House, prepared a complete Abstract of all the Laws relating to the Poor, now in Force; together with the Draught of a Bill, whereby they may be all reduced into One Law; and laid the same before the said Committee.

We have made divers Representations for the Security and Improvement of the Newfoundland Trade and Fishery, as well during the War, as since the Peace; and have constantly every Year examined into, and taken an Account of, the Course and Progress of that Trade; and now particularly formed Instructions, and Heads of Inquiries, to be given to the Commander of the Convoy appointed for that Fishery, for the due Execution of the late Act to encourage the Trade to Newfoundland, for the better preventing Irregularities therein.

We have presented to his Majesty a general State of the Trade of this Kingdom, with Observations thereupon, how we conceive divers advantageous Trades may be improved, and prejudicial ones discouraged; a Copy whereof has been formerly laid before this Honourable House.

As to his Majesty's Plantations in America, we do further offer, That, within the Allegiance of the Crown of England, there are Twenty several Colonies, besides Hudson's Bay and Newfoundland, in which last Place there is no Governor; each whereof have their distinct Governments, Councils, and Assemblies, by whom particular Laws, and Rules of Government, are passed and enacted; some of which Colonies are governed by his Majesty's immediate Commission, and others by Proprietors and Charters.

The Business relating to these Plantations is managed by a constant Correspondence with all the Governors appointed by his Majesty's immediate Commission, and occasionally with all the rest; in the Course whereof they send us Journals of their Councils, Assemblies, and other publick Proceedings, with Accounts of all Things whatsoever relating to each of their Governments; all which are considered by us for the necessary Orders to be returned thereupon; and, more particularly, the many Acts or Laws of the several Assemblies transmitted from thence fall under our Examination; and, after our consulting his Majesty's Counsel learned in the Law, as to the legal Part, our Reports are made thereupon to his Majesty in his Privy Council, for his Royal Assent, or Disallowance thereof; with particular Regard to the Interest and Improvement of the Trade of England, as well as the Good of those Plantations.

We have, since our Constitution, prepared Draughts of Commissions and Instructions for all the Governors of his Majesty's Plantations.

We have, upon several Occasions, proposed to his Majesty the Appointing of Convoys for the Plantations, and of Ships of War necessary to attend and protect the Trade of those Plantations: And, upon the Complaints of the Inhabitants there, or Merchants in England, of Hardships in the Pressing of Men, and otherwise, by Captains of Men of War in those Parts, we have presented to his Majesty Regulations therein, which have had a good Effect.

Upon Information from the Officers of his Majesty's Customs in the Plantations, and others, of the Partiality of the People there, and more particularly in the Propriety Governments, in all Tryals upon the Acts of Trade wherein their private Interest is concerned, and of the Difficulties in the obtaining any Execution of those Acts in the former Method; we did represent the Usefulness of Courts of Admiralty in the Plantations: Upon which such Courts have been erected; and, where they have not been disputed, have proved of great Encouragement to legal Trade.

Being informed, by many Instances, of the great

Countenance given to Pirates in some of the Plantations, and chiefly in the Proprieties, and Charter Governments, by fitting out their Ships from thence, and furnishing them with all Sorts of Provision and Ammunition, and receiving them, with their Plunder and Booty, at their Return, and acquitting them upon feigned Tryals; we did make several Representations thereupon; and proposed the Enacting of Laws there, for the Tryal and Punishment of Pirates, in Conformity to a Law heretofore passed in Jamaica to that Effect: Which having been refused in the said Proprieties, and Charter Governments, we proposed, as the only Remedy for so great an Evil, the offering a Bill in Parliament for that Purpose; wherein we consulted Sir Charles Hedges, Judge of His Majesty's High Court of Admiralty; by whose great Care and Assistance such a Bill has been prepared, and is now lying before this Honourable House.

And, being further sensible of the great Irregularities in the Proprieties, and Charter Governments, not only in reference to illegal Trade, and Piracy, but otherwise, we have, upon several Occasions, represented the same to his Majesty: And an Act of Parliament having passed, whereby the Governors of those Plantations are obliged to have his Majesty's Approbation, for their acting in that Capacity; we required all the said Proprietors and Governments to present their respective Governors to his Majesty; and, in order to his Approbation of them, to give Security for their due observing the Acts of Trade, according to an Address presented to his Majesty, by the Right Honourable the House of Lords, for that Purpose: But all the said Proprietors here having declined to give any such Security; and only Two Charter Governments, viz. Connecticut, and Rhode Island, having lately done it in America; and not any one of those Governors being at present qualified by his Majesty's Approbation of them, as required by the said Act of Parliament; we do not see any thing, without some further Provision by Parliament, capable to reduce them to a more regular Conduct, and Compliance with their Duty, in reference to the Trade of England.

We have also, upon Occasion, represented the Misdemeanors, and ill Conduct, of some Governors of Plantations acting by his Majesty's immediate Commission.

We have made many Representations in Defence of his Majesty's Title to several Islands in America, claimed by foreign Princes; of which one is a Claim made by the Elector of Brandenburgh to the Island of New Tertholen, lying amongst his Majesty's Leeward Caribbee Islands; one made by the French King, to the Island of Sancta Lucia, lying amongst the Windward Caribbee Islands; one made by the French King, to the Island of Tobago, one of the Windward Caribbee Islands; and another by the Duke of Courland, to the same Island.

Having been required, this Session of Parliament, by the Right Honourable the House of Lords, to lay before their Lordships our Opinion, how consistent the Colony at Darien may be with the Treaties with Spain, and the Trade of this Kingdom; we did accordingly make our humble Report therein; which, we presume, was satisfactory, their Lordships having made an Address to his Majesty to the same Effect.

We have made several Representations relating to the Boundaries between his Majesty's Plantations, and those of the French, upon the Continent, particularly in the North-eastern Parts of New England, where they have endeavoured to encroach upon us both as to the Land and Fishery.

Upon Controversies that have happened between some of his Majesty's Colonies, and others, relating to their Boundaries; especially between his Majesty's Governments and Proprieties; and upon different Claims that have been set on foot to some whole Provinces, we have examined all their respective Titles; and the necessary Instructions have been given by his Majesty thereupon.

We have often represented the Necessity of preserving the Friendship of the Five Nations of Indians, which are a Barrier between his Majesty's Plantations and Canada, by treating treating them kindly, and shewing them a Force constantly maintained in New York, ready to protect them upon all Occasions.

We have applied ourselves to the promoting the Importation of Naval Stores from New England, and other his Majesty's Plantations; and for the carrying on so good a Design, his Majesty has been pleased, upon our Applications, to order the Navy Board to send Commissioners to New England, who have been likewise joined with Commissioners of that Colony, for the Viewing and Inspecting the Woods lying upon that Coast, for providing his Majesty's Navy with Masts, and other necessary Materials for Building of Ships, as also with Pitch, Tar, and Rosin, of which great Quantities may be produced in those Parts; and some Specimens of each, sent by the said Commissioners, are lately arrived, and now under the Examination of the Navy Board.

These being the chief Particulars about which our Time has been and is daily taken up, besides the frequent Applications of Merchants, and of the Persons concerned in the Plantations, with the constant Accession of the like Business; we thought it our Duty to lay as short an Account thereof before this Honourable House, as the Nature of each Particular would bear.

All which is humbly submitted.
